Capt. R. Falkenrich, the Alameda merchant, called on the local wholesalers today.

Bernard Reinken, the big merchant at Sahual, was in the city for a few hours yesterday.

J. D. May was here from El Paso yesterday and today in the interests of his various mining properties in the Cochiti district.

John A. Lee, the North First street lumber merchant, returned at noon today from a business trip to Phoenix, Prescott and Flagstaff.

Lawrence Murchison, a pleasant gentleman of Wisconsin, is being shown the courtesies of the city by Joseph Braun, of the Casa de Oro.

Major Ernest Myers left on delayed No. 2 for the ancient, where he will call on the patron of the wholesale liquor firm of Meyers & Abel.

Attorney A. W. Hawkins, the legal advisor for the El Paso & Northeastern railroad, passed through the city last night, after a month's business trip to eastern cities.

John C. Spears, the newly elected treasurer and collector of McKinley county, came in from the west last night and continued on his way to the capital city.

The wool clip from the flocks on the ranges of El Paso, which is about 30,000 pounds, is being secured at the Albuquerque wool scouring mill of Bearup & Eadie.

Dr. J. S. Eberhardt, accompanied by Mrs. Sidney Eberhardt and little child, departed for points in California last night, where they will visit with relatives for a few days.

Marshall McMullin is wearing a handsome watch chain, the present of one of his friends. It is of malachite with gold trimmings, and is pronounced a beauty by all who have seen it.

Edward Thomas, late of New York, but more recently located on the Western ranch near Chilli, is in town today and to-night, when he will leave for Las Vegas and Colorado cities on a pleasure trip.

Mrs. Franc Luss Albright, the well-known photographer, and her artist, Prof. F. J. Wendell, returned from Santa Fe last night, where they succeeded in taking a fine photo of the territorial supreme court.

Palmer W. J. Tway called at the citizen office this morning and stated that he would soon remove to El Paso with his family, where he will engage in business. The business here of W. J. Tway & Co., on South Second street, will be in charge of Charles Quier.

The music loving public of Albuquerque turned out en masse to the third popular concert given at the Lead avenue Methodist Episcopal church. The auditorium was filled and a more delightful program of numbers than that given by local talent was never rendered before.

F. C. Matthews, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Burlington route, with headquarters at Denver, Colo., is in the city and was a pleasant caller at the Citizen office. Mr. Matthews represents one of the biggest and best railroads in the country, and it is a good road to travel over eastward or to the northwest from Denver.

Messrs. J. C. Baldrige and T. J. Wright left last night for Santa Fe, carrying along with them the petitions signed by the citizens of Albuquerque protesting against the proposed movement to be introduced in the legislature extending the limits of the city of Albuquerque. There is some talk on the streets today that an indignation meeting of the people of Albuquerque will be held to more fully emphasize their disapproval of expansion.

"THE STEAM LAUNDRY." Will appear at the Nether Opera House on March 5.

Willie Bates, business manager and advance agent for "The Steam Laundry" company, is in the city and was introduced at the Citizen office by Manager Zittel of the Nether opera house. This big fancy comedy company will appear at the local opera house on Tuesday night, March 5. This attraction carries a company of thirty people and a solo Orchestra of fourteen men under the leadership of Professor McDonald. This is a feature that will please lovers of high class music. The play is one of the few farce comedies that have a well defined plot, and the cast is made up of clever people. The specialty features are strong and up-to-date. The parade at 11:30 each day is the most unique ever put on the street, headed by the Russian band in the uniform of the Hussar cavalry, followed by "The Laundryman's Overture," a Chinese band with native instruments.

T. Y. MAYNARD,

A HORSE KNOWS A GOOD THING

when he sees it. The horse, intelligent animal that he is, probably has no liking for harness wear; but, knowing he must wear it, he prefers the comfortable kind—the sort we turn out—and will do all the better work for being so accoutred. Our harness is good as to looks, but it is more than that—it is good as to strength, pliability and lasting qualities of the leather used in its makeup, good as to method of manufacture.
