THE FINAL RITES!

Over Dead Queen Concluded To-Day.

Views of Emperor of Germany on Conditions in China.

Reasons Why the Filipino Leader, Mabini, Was Deported.

CANADA'S RIGHT MOVE.

Windsor, Feb. 4.—Hundreds of people poured into Windsor throughout the morning and at 1 o'clock the late queen was laid to rest in the royal mausoleum. King Edward, Queen Alexandra, Emperor William and others of the royal family attended the services and were beside the coffin at an early hour this morning.

Representatives of the royal family arrived from London about 1 o'clock and drove to Windsor castle.

The streets were lined with people, many of whom were waving their hats and cheering as the royal party passed.

The final rites over the dead queen were concluded at 2:40 p. m. and the body was laid to rest in the royal mausoleum. King Edward, Queen Alexandra, Emperor William and others of the royal family attended the services and were beside the coffin at an early hour this morning.

Dismounted life guardsmen in scarlet coats, while plumes on their helmets glistened in the sun, kept the route clear from the castle to the slope. At 2:15 p. m. the procession passed along from King George's arch in the following order:

Queen's company of grenadier guards with arms reversed.

Governor and constable of Windsor castle, Duke of Argyll.

Highlanders and pipes.

Royal servants.

Band of grenadier guards.

Bishop of Winchester and dean of Windsor.

Lord chamberlain and lord steward.

The funeral carriage with coffin, escorted by the late queen's equerries and household, flanked by same officers as appeared in Saturday's ceremony in London.

Following the coffin walked King Edward, Duke of Connaught, Emperor William, King of the Belgians, Prince Henry of Prussia and all other royal personages, including Queen Alexandra and the princesses.

With the exception of the few who had already left England, those present were accompanied by suites.

The route from the George IV archway to the mausoleum was lined with troops under command of Lord Napier Miles of the First life guards.

The queen's piers played from the mausoleum itself. On arriving there the queen's company of grenadiers opened out and formed in double rank on the steps of the mausoleum.

The choir met the funeral cortege on the steps. The highlanders, pipes and servants went into the mausoleum and took up the positions allowed them.

Then the coffin was carried into the mausoleum preceded by the choir and clergy. Members of the royal family took the places on each side of the sarcophagus, the royal household standing in transept on each side. The rest of the ceremony was private, as space inside the mausoleum was limited.

The choir sang Sir Arthur Sullivan's anthem, "Yes, Though I Walk," and the hymn, "Sleep, the Last Sleep," and the hymn, "The Peace of Death is Turned Toward the Sun of Light," set to music by Sir Walter Parratt.

ON CONDITIONS IN CHINA.

What the Emperor of Germany has to say on the subject.

Vienna, Feb. 4.—The newly elected reichstag was opened to-day with a speech from the throne. In connection with events in China, the emperor said:

"The efforts of the powers are directed toward the restoration of the orderly condition of things, while upholding the integrity of China. Happily, there is no apprehension need be entertained that the events of that part of the world will react upon the peace of Europe."

JOHN MARSHALL!

Chief Justice One Hundred Years Ago.

Centennial Anniversary Celebrated at Washington.

New Jersey Episcopal Minister Shot and Seriously Wounded.

SMASHING OF JOINTS POSTPONED.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4.—John Marshall, of Virginia, was installed chief justice of the United States one hundred years ago to-day and at 10 o'clock this morning the centennial anniversary of that event was celebrated with impressive ceremonies in the hall of the house of representatives.

The program arranged by the joint committee of congress and War Dept. of New Orleans, president of the American Bar association, was simple and dignified, as became the life of the great jurist.

The president and cabinet members of the supreme court, members of the senate and house, diplomatic corps and members of the District Bar association attended as invited guests. Many other distinguished persons were in the galleries reserved for those holding cards of admission.

President McKinley and cabinet members of the supreme court, members of the senate and house, diplomatic corps and members of the District Bar association attended as invited guests. Many other distinguished persons were in the galleries reserved for those holding cards of admission.

The assembly to order. The chief justice, in judicial robes, was escorted to the chair. Rev. Dr. Wm. C. Brewster, of Trenton, N. J., a great grandson of John Marshall, invoked divine blessing. The chief justice in introducing Hon. Wayne McVeigh, who was to deliver the oration, paid an eloquent tribute to the great work of Marshall, which evoked hearty applause.

McVeigh spoke an hour and three-quarters. His preparation provoked an outburst of applause, which was led by the president, cabinet and members of the supreme court. The exercises closed with benediction by Rev. Couden.

In one of the galleries was F. Lewis Marshall, of Virginia, the oldest descendant of Chief Justice Marshall.

AT CHICAGO.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 4.—In Chicago, where the idea of the celebration of the assumption of office by the first chief justice of the supreme court of the United States was promulgated, all legal machinery was silent to-day.

White benches and bar, schools, societies and others of the city, paid homage to the memory of John Marshall.

The chief interest of the celebration here was in the oration of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts. A banquet will be given to-night.

The day was generally observed in the cities throughout the country.

Episcopal Minister Shot.

New York, Feb. 4.—Rev. John Keller, rector to the Right Rev. Bishop Starkey pastor of Trinity Episcopal church, minister at Arlington, N. J., was shot and seriously wounded by Thomas Barker of Arlington Sunday.

Barker surrendered to the police. The shooting, it is said, was the result of a quarrel between Barker's wife and the effect that Keller assaulted her. Keller denies the accusation.

Saloon Smashing Postponed.

Topoka, Kan., Feb. 4.—On account of the heavy fall of snow yesterday, Carrie Nation postponed her organized demonstration against the joints to to-day.

They Violate the Law.

Topoka, Kan., Feb. 4.—Late this afternoon Mrs. Nation and six other women bought hatchets and started after the joints, followed by a thousand people. In front of one place a dozen strong men took the hatchets from Mrs. Nation and one of her assistants.

A scuffle ensued. The police marched Mrs. Nation and the companion to the police station on the charge of disturbing the peace.

SNOW AND RAIN STORMS.

Northern Arizona Visited by a Beneficial Snow Storm.

Phoenix, A. T., Feb. 4.—The value of the great snow and rain storms which prevailed in northern Arizona the past three days may be measured by millions of dollars. The snow fall was the heaviest known for years, and will furnish enough water for this valley, even if no more rain falls for six months. It will greatly aid the mining industry, besides being of incalculable value to sheep and cattle raisers.
