London, Jan. 30.—The West Indian troops stationed on the island of St. Helena, where General Cronje and a large number of Boers are held as prisoners, mutinied on January 2, raided the town, terrorized the inhabitants, injured many and killed the officers, and were only finally subdued when faced by the muskets of rifles in the hands of naval forces. Tucson, Ariz., Jan. 30.—At La Canana, a mining camp of the Green Consolidated Mining company in Sonora, a number of Yaqui got drunk when paid; drove the Mexican police from the camp, took guns from them, and from the Americans who attempted to interfere. The Indians held high carnival for three days. There were several cutting affairs, but no one killed. The Americans, with the assistance of Mexican cavalrymen, were successful in quelling the drunken Indians.

The Territorial Legislature.

Special to The Citizen.
Santa Fe, N. M., Jan. 30.—The house had a lively contest over the adoption of the rules, which were finally adopted, and one rule requires two-thirds vote to call a bill out of the hands of the committee.
The committee devoted the morning session to the introduction of bills. This afternoon the council is devoting time to committee work.

Oklahoma Statehood Convention.

Quincy, O. T., Jan. 30.—The statehood convention met at 2 p. m. Every county will be represented by a good delegation. All are unanimous for statehood at the earliest possible moment. A majority are for statehood for Oklahoma alone, although an aggressive minority favors the inclusion of the Indian Territory.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 30.—The president sent the following nomination to the senate:
Thos. D. Hilderbrand, of Iowa, receiver of public money at St. Michaels, Alaska.

Sailors to Serve Sentences.

Manila, Jan. 30.—Forty sailors from the United States cruiser Albany, convicted of mutiny while the warship was in dock at Hong Kong, have been sentenced to various terms of imprisonment at Cavite. The only cause for their conduct is said to be restlessness and dissatisfaction.

THE NATION EXAMPLE.

Women Smashing Joints in the Kansas Towns.

Kansas City, Jan. 30.—A special to the Star from Anthony, Kan., says: Early this morning twelve women of the Anthony Women's Christian Temperance Union, armed with hammers, hatchets and pick-axes, completely demolished four "joints" in Anthony. The husbands of the women went along armed to protect their wives. Among the brigade were two or three school girls under age, who did some of the most effective smashing. The greatest part of the havoc was finished before the police or mayor were aware of what was going on. The actual damage to personal property, aside from the liquor destroyed, is given by schoolkeepers at $2,000. The proprietor of one place was smashed over the head with a beer bottle, and his blood mixed with the flow of liquor that ran over the floor. The joint keeper was struck by the husband of one of the women. The raid was led by Mrs. Sheriff of

GROSS CARELESSNESS.

Driver of Delivery Wagon Causes a Six-Year-Old Child Much Suffering.

At noon to-day, Perfecto Luna, a 6-year-old child, while crossing the street at Sixth and Telleras avenues, was the victim of an accident. He was knocked down by a passing delivery wagon. The little fellow was carried into the residence of W. Y. Walton and remained unconscious for about thirty minutes. Dr. Phillips was summoned and, after examining the injured child, found several bruises about the face and body, none of which, however, are considered dangerous. The boy was taken to his home near the government Indian school.

SECURING CHINESE MONEY.

Shanghai, Jan. 30.—The statement is made here that Russia, besides the indemnity, will demand $500,000 for restoring Manchuria.

HORRIBLE DETAILS.

Berlin, Jan. 30.—A special to the Cologne Volks Zeitung from China, relates horrible details about the warfare of that country. It says: "We hope the awful conditions will soon cease. Degradity and bestiality among our troops are enormously on the increase. A large number of old soldiers are sentenced to long terms in the penitentiary and jail for murder, rape or burglary. Our losses are certainly very great. Diseases are still rampant, especially typhus."

EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS.

President McKinley Remains Undecided as to Calling Session.

New York, Jan. 30.—A special to the World from Washington says: President McKinley said to several callers that the only question remaining undecided was whether he would issue a call for an extra session of congress before or after his second term begins, March 4.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

New York, Jan. 30.—(Stocks).—The market showed activity and strength in the first hour, then became irregular on smaller trading and remained so until about 2 p. m., when prices stiffened up all around and business became more active. Auctioneers were strong on rumors of traffic arrangement with Southern Pacific and that there would be dividend declared on the common. St. Paul fluctuated with comparatively narrow limits but with Burlington showed considerable strength. Speculation was active in "Katy" issues and was set down to manipulation. The other southwestern issues were steady as was Union Pacific. Northern Pacific was quiet with moderate fluctuations. London transactions had little effect one way or the other. Demand sterling, 48 1/2 to 48 1/2.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—(Wheat).—Liverpool lower. On the cables, absence of cash business, there was further liquidation of local holdings of wheat which carried the price off about a cent from which it partially reacted. As on previous breaks of late, it is easy to see and locate considerable selling, but impossible to discover any particular character of buying. There is very little in the way of change in news or conditions. Minneapolis reports a probable decrease in stocks. Primary receipts, 443,000 vs 354,000; shipments, 227,000 vs 131,000. FOUND DEAD.

An Old Woman, Addicted to Drink, Cold in Death.

This morning, about 7 o'clock, J. Zanone, who keeps a store and saloon in the Sanchez building, on South Second street, while opening his place of business, happened to go out of a side door, opening on an empty lot, when he discovered a woman, fully dressed, half sitting and crouching against the side of the building. He went up and took hold of her arm, but found that she was dead and cold in death. Mr. Zanone at once sent word down town, and Constable J. H. Smith immediately repaired to the scene. The body was found to be that of one Mrs. Elena Sallio, a native, about 60 years of age, who had lived here for a long time. She occupied a room in the building against which her body was found, and was taken to Edwards' undertaking rooms and Justice Hubble at once in-pannelled a jury to hold an inquest. From the evidence given it was shown that Mrs. Sallio was addicted to the excessive use of liquor, and was in a saloon last night in the neighborhood, about 10 o'clock, considerably under the influence of intoxicants. She was not again seen until her body was found this morning. She lived alone, having for a long time been separated from her husband. She had no children, but a brother lives here. He states that he saw her last four or five years ago, at which time she was in her usual state of health. He could give no information as to the cause of her death. The jury viewed the remains and adjourned the inquest until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, in order to ascertain if witnesses could be found who had seen the woman between 10 o'clock last night and the time the body was found this morning.

THE RICE INQUEST.

Evidence Accumulating That Millionaire Rice Was Poisoned.

New York, Jan. 30.—Some progress in the criminal proceedings attending the inquest of Samuel Marks Rice, the Texas millionaire, has been made. Prof. Witham held a conference with Assistant District Attorney Osborne in regard to his analysis of the dead millionaire's stomach. Prof. Witham already has submitted one report and is now at work on another. He has been asked to say decisively whether the poison which he discovered was enough to have caused Rice's death. This report will be ready soon, but until it has been turned over to the district attorney the inquest will not be resumed.

NEW YORK POLICE BILL.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 30.—The New York city police bill passed the senate last night. It now goes to the assembly.

PHOENIX DISPLEASED.

J. W. Benham and H. B. Patrick Riddle, El Paso Carnival.

J. W. Benham, of Phoenix, has returned home, and because he was not one among the many who had his pockets picked, like so many New Mexican visitors, gives the Midwinter Carnival a backhanded slap. He says: "If the carnival had been big enough it would have been a grand success, as it was an absolute failure. There was no street decorations and no legitimate attractions. There was a big midway and a big bull fight. The bull fight was in Mexico. In addition, there were two features there was an aggregation of irrefragable women, confidence men and tin-horn gamblers drawn from the whole southwest and Mexico. The El Paso way of holding a carnival is the best way to make money out of it. Nothing is expended, so whatever comes in is clear gain. There is no possible way to acquire a deficit."

ALBUQUERQUE, — — JAN. 30 1901

If you are good at Santa Fe, you will be very homesick.

The whole territory sympathizes with the governor in the death of his only daughter.

The worst form of lawlessness in Kentucky are no longer confined to the mountain counties. Somebody has been wearing lumberjacks on the streets in a public school in Louisville.

CHAS. A. Spence, one of the members of the council from San Miguel county, is a veteran legislator, and is a good friend of this city. If he keeps up his sick he will some day represent this territory at Washington.

There is a most friendly feeling in the legislature toward the university. Albuquerque pays more territorial taxes than any other city in the territory, and much more than some of the counties, and there is a disposition to deal liberally with the only territorial institution located in this city.

The grip never before held the American people between the oceans and between the lakes and the gulf in such a comprehensive grasp as it does just now. It is said that in New Mexico twenty-five per cent of the population is afflicted, and a gentleman who has made a study of the disease in Albuquerque says that not fewer than one hundred homes are visited by physicians.

In one hundred years past there have been two hundred epidemics of the grip, and yet it is said, in this respect, that there has not been a single year of the century that has not seen the bloodshed and tumult of battle on some part of the globe. According to W. Fletcher Johnson, in the Literary Digest, there is likely to be more bloodshed in the first fifty years of the present century than ever before.

Albuquerque is not so much interested in what it will be in 2001, or even in 1950, but in the city of the present and the immediate future. It has been demonstrated that a great city can be built so fast that the people can see it grow. It has also been shown that this city will develop just as much and as fast as the people push it along. Therefore let all put our shoulders to the wheel, and help along every legitimate, worthy enterprise.

OF INTEREST TO NEW MEXICO.

In the senate of the United States, Senator Shoup, by request, introduced the following bill, which was read twice and referred to the committee on public lands:

Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, that the territory of New Mexico, through its board of public lands, or through any other agency which may be lawfully created by the legislative assembly of said territory for such purpose, is hereby authorized to sell, for a price of not less than $1 per acre, not exceeding 10,000 acres of the lands granted to said territory for university purposes or for the use of a university by act of congress, entitled "an act to make certain grants of land to the territory of New Mexico, and for other purposes," which was approved June 21, 1898.

Section 2. That all acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

BOWIE SPOKE FOR THE MINERS.

When house bill No. 79 was reached yesterday in the list of bills introduced by its author, Mr. Sanchez, of Mora, moved that it be considered as translated and printed, and that the rules be suspended preparatory to its passage. The bill authorized sheriffs to employ any number of responsible persons as special deputies in an emergency. Mr. Dallas, in seconding Mr. Sanchez's motion, incidentally stated the situation among the coal miners at Gallup. This brought Mr. Bowie to the front. He stated he had been informed that the measure was designed for the benefit of the sheriff of McKinley county. He said there was no disturbance of any kind at Gallup, and that if there were need of deputies the present law gave the sheriff ample power. As the territory was at Gallup for twelve years, he spoke with personal knowledge, and declared the miners there had never disturbed the peace and dignity of the community. One coal company at Gallup had now employed sixty-four armed guards to watch its property, and there was no objection, he thought, to employing as many as it saw fit, but he was opposed to ratifying any measure through the house. On a vote Mr. Sanchez's motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill was lost—42 to 38—a two-thirds vote being necessary. The measure then took its regular order.

WILLIAM BURN CHILDERS.

The Associated Press dispatches, as published in The Citizen of yesterday afternoon, gave the news that the president had nominated William B. Childers, of this city, to be the United States attorney for the territory of New Mexico, and the announcement meets with general approval throughout the territory. The following brief biographical sketch is appropriate at this time:

"Hon. William Burr Childers is a native of Tennessee, of English ancestry, and was born on March 28, 1854, at Paducah, Giles county. In 1873 he graduated from Washington and Lee university in Virginia, receiving the degree of B. A. He entered the law department of the same university and graduated from it in 1874. In 1875 he established himself in a law office at St. Louis, and on the first day of the year 1880 he arrived in Santa Fe, removing later to Albuquerque. From 1881 until

The old Carriage camp near San Antonio, once a very bustling place and in the enjoyment of railroad facilities, is now a desolate waste, the industrial world again. Recently the rumor got abroad that the Santa Fe company was secretly drilling in the vicinity, with the intention of finding all the coal holdings in sight if the drills demonstrated extensive deposits. Some three weeks ago Leo Morris shot and killed an animal known as the American tiger in the Caballo mountains. When he first saw the beast it was about 150 yards away, making a snarl for the hunter. Morris fired and opened fire on the brute, which immediately made a direct and furious charge upon the hunter. Morris fired eleven shots, when the animal had been fired the animal fell within twenty feet of his slayer. The tiger measured nearly ten feet in length. This animal known as the American tiger is said to be fully as ferocious as the man-eating tiger of the Asiatic variety and frequently found in South America and in southern parts of this country. The mate of the one killed has been seen in the same vicinity.

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely action taken given Mrs. George Lenz, of New Straitsville, O., prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but seemed to grow worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wonderfully cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Lenz of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles, colds, coughs and croup. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at J. H. O'Reilly & Co.'s drug store.

Shooting Affray.

A bad shooting affray occurred on Wednesday night on Railroad avenue, near Deshon's blacksmith shop. Valentine Schwalm and Hattie Heasley, a local woman of "hot" temper, were passing down the street when Fred. Merryweather opened fire on Schwalm and the latter then returned the volley. It is believed that as Merryweather has been in too

COLDS

The quickest relief, for a cold, is by Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil.

We all have colds, you can try it and see. You will find the edge taken off in a night; and, in three or four days, you'll be wondering whether that cold amounted to anything anyhow.

That's relief. If you tackle it quick, the relief is quick and complete, if you wait till the cold is in full possession of head and lung, why, of course, the relief is quick if it comes in a week.

A little emulsion won't clear and restore your whole breathing-machine in a minute; don't be looking for miracles.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 429 Pearl street, New York.

Not a Bald-head

"I had a very severe sickness that took off all my hair. I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor and am glad to say that it brought my hair back again and I am not today obliged to be classed among the bald-heads."—W. D. QUINN, Marseilles, Ill., Aug. 25, 1899.

One thing is certain,—Ayer's Hair Vigor feeds the hair and it grows. It could not do differently, for it's Nature's plan. It stops falling of the hair, too, and always restores color to gray hair.

One dollar a bottle.

critical condition to be interviewed, the matter stands there. The circumstances point to a deliberate attempt at murder. Merryweather was shot just above and a little to the right of the left nipple and also in the hand. Two other bullets penetrated his clothing, but fortunately failed to enter the body. He has been cared for at Dr. Edmondson's hospital and is a little improved at the present writing.

The man Schwalm and the woman, who gave themselves up just after the shooting, have been living together some months.

Mrs. Merryweather, the mother of the young man so dangerously wounded, came in from Albuquerque this morning and will remain to care for her boy.

The man and woman are held pending the results of Merryweather's injuries, and a legal examination.—Gallup Republican.
