Proclamation to British Subjects.

Queen Exacts Promise From King and Kaiser.

Funeral of Queen Victoria at Windsor Castle on February 2.

GRIEF DOWN IN SOUTH AFRICA.

London, Jan. 24.—The proclamation announcing the funeral of Queen Victoria, Ireland and the emperor of India, was read in the St. James' palace by William Henry Weiden, king-at-arms at 9 o'clock this morning. The king was not present. There was a large assembly of officials and courtiers. Among those in attendance were General Roberts and members of his headquarters staff. There was a great concourse of people. Members of the king's household attended the ceremony from Marlborough house. On the balcony overlooking Friary court, whence the proclamation was read, were Duke Norfolk and other officers of state.

In the yard of Marlborough house and Friary court were stationed a large body of police, soldiers and footguards. Troops arrived at 8 o'clock and shortly before 9 o'clock this morning a brilliant cavalcade passed down Pall Mall and entered Friary court. It consisted of the headquarters staff, headed by Gen. Roberts in full uniform, carrying marshal's baton. Sir Evelyn Wood and nine court dignitaries headed by the Duke of Norfolk, appeared on the balcony. Then the heralds blew fanfare and king-at-arms, Weiden, read the proclamation. All heads were bowed during the reading, and when it was concluded the king-at-arms raised his three-cornered hat, cried loudly: "God save the King." The crowd took up the cry, while cheers, fanfares, trumpets and the band playing the national anthem all made curious melody.

The chief interest of the day centered in the entrance of the king-at-arms into the city at Temple Bar. There the herald read the proclamation which the mayor and aldermen replied: "We, with one voice, consent, tongue and heart, pledge allegiance to King Edward VII."

The proclamation was as follows: "Whereas, it pleased Almighty God to call to His mercy our late sovereign lady, Queen Victoria, of blessed and glorious memory, by whose death the imperial crown of the united kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland is solely and rightfully come to the high and mighty Prince Albert Edward, we, therefore, lords of spiritual and temporal of this realm, being here assembled with those of her late majesty's privy council, with numbers of other principal gentlemen of quality, lord mayor of London and citizens of London, do now hereby with one voice and consent of tongue and heart do publish and proclaim that the high and mighty Prince Albert Edward, is now by the death of our late sovereign of happy memory, become our only lawful and rightful king, king of the united kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, defender of faith and emperor of India, to whom we acknowledge all faith and constant obedience with all hearty and humble affection, beseeching God, by whom all kings and queens do reign, to bless Royal Prince Edward VII with long and happy years to reign over us."

A HEARLEIGH LUNATIC.
London, Jan. 24.—King Edward, escorted by horse guards, accompanied by the Duke of York, Prince Christian stein, Duke of Saxe, Coburg and Gotha, left Marlborough at 1 o'clock to take the train. In celebration of his accession, was fired at noon in the park.

The varieties of an apparently harmless lunatic occasioned some excitement at Victoria station. During the entraining of the king, a well-dressed individual, bearing a letter addressed to his majesty, was permitted to pass the barriers. He hurried to the emperor and said he wished to present a letter to the king personally. He was handed over to the police. The envelope contained a telegraph form on which were the words, "I wish to see my beloved queen."

THE QUEEN'S FUNERAL.
Covers, late of Wight, Jan. 24.—It has been decided that the funeral of the queen will take place at Windsor Castle, February 2. The body of the late queen will be removed from Osborne house on February 1. It was the expressed desire that the queen's funeral be of a military character. Several officials arrived from Windsor this morning, bringing the state regalia. A naval salute of twenty-one guns was fired here at noon in honor of King Edward VII.

U. women, and on the other by M. John Schilling, wife of the manager of the saloon wrecked to-day, backed half a dozen women who championed the saloon, occurred to-day. Mrs. Nation, charging her with disturbing peace. All were arrested and released on bond.

CREEK INDIANS!

Still Creating Trouble at Eaufula, I. T.

Fears Entertained That British Ship Is Lost.

Arrest of a Man-Killer in the Dragon Mountains.

A PISTOL DUEL WITH A HORSE THIEF

St. Louis, Jan. 24.—A special to the Globe-Democrat from Eaufula, Indian territory, says: Ex-Chief Roder Mcintosh, of the treaty party, and about twenty of his followers, have taken refuge in Eaufula. John Crink, leader of the intransigent Creek Indians and some of his men, it is said, contemplate capturing Mcintosh and people.

Mayor C. C. Foley has deputized a posse and will protect the ex-chief and people within the city of Eaufula. United States Marshal Bennett, of the northern district of Indian territory, issued through Ex-Chief Mcintosh a proclamation which advises all to resist the marauders, unless troops are here within twenty-four hours.

Muskege, I. T., Jan. 24.—The fact that Gen. Lee has ordered a detachment of cavalry from Fort Reno to the scene of the Indian uprising of the Creek nation, has aroused the Creeks to a greater degree of defiance, and they are sending out light horsemen all over the five civilized tribes of the country, appealing to those dissatisfied to join them against the soldiers. Gov. Brown of the Seminoles, appealed to the authorities here for aid as some of his tribe there are to join the Creeks.

Arrest and Indian Agent resented their depredations and ordered a hill, ten miles west of the Indians are in demand their surrender. A message from the authorities here for aid as some of his tribe there are to join the Creeks.

ST. LOUIS EXPOSITION.

Influential Delegation at Work in Washington, D.C.

Washington, Jan. 24.—A large influential delegation representing those interested in the Louisiana Purchase World's exposition, to be held in St. Louis, 1903, was heard to-day by a special committee of the house of representatives having charge of that subject. The proposition is designed on scale of unusual magnitude, $15,000,000 already being secured for it by the United States government and city of St. Louis. The delegation present to-day included former Governor Francis, of Missouri, and Chas. W. Knapp, president of St. Louis Republic. Chairman Tawney, of congressional committee, explained the present status of the measure. The sundry civil appropriation bill of last year contained a provision pledging the United States government to appropriate $5,000,000 when the local authorities had provided $10,000,000 to the satisfaction of the secretary of the treasury. The present bill contemplates carrying out this pledge by making an appropriation of $5,000,000 and at the same time providing a comprehensive plan of government participation, along the lines of participation at Chicago. Governor Francis read a letter from Wm. H. Thompson, chairman of the finance committee of the exposition, stating that St. Louis had fulfilled its promise. The committee adjourned until next Monday when the bill will be considered by sections and doubtless reported soon thereafter.

THE LADY MINSTRELS.

Witnessed by Large Audience at Opera House Last Night.
The entertainment, called minstrel, vaudeville and dramatic, given last night at Neher's opera house under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild of the John's Episcopal church, proved one of the biggest successes financially ever given before by this popular club. The ladies were represented by Mrs. Weise, Misses Isabel Spencer and Brown, and the ladies by Misses Cora Gehring, Bessie Brooks and Mamie Arnold. Three young ladies assuming respectively the following "stage" names: Lucilla Fatsupp, Jeremiah Homelymug, Nancy Ballieaux, Inky Fatlip, Dinah Goodman and Modjeska Winks. Their plantation songs and local hits, called this year's jokes, were much enjoyed and brought forth rounds of applause. Mrs. Weise appeared popular with the audience and in response to hearty ovation rendered several pleasing encores. Lottie Popsie (Miss Ada Campbell) captivated the audience by singing in a good voice, "He's Just a Little Nigger."

"The Watermelon Party" was sung by Clementine Bigfoot (Fred Hingst); "The Simple Maiden" by Fred Carlsale, and "The Hypnotized Coon" by Miss Kelllogg. The first act closed with a "Good Night" song by George E. Leslie, who officiated as inter-entertainer. The second part opened with "Baby Huey" (Gracie Borradaile) and "Mother We'll" (Mrs. Francis Crossan) in a plantation lullaby with an invisible quartette. The "Eminent Comedian" was Fred Carlsale, who was admirably supported by twelve young ladies. And then came on the prettiest and nicest of the evening's entertainment—pretty little Miss Hillyer in her oak walk and skirt dances.

"Saffo" was then played by Messrs. Leslie, Carlsale and Hingst and the enjoyable situations brought forth generous applause. Miss Mae Heath delighted her many friends by singing several solo selections. The lady has a most wonderful voice, well cultivated and powerful. The entertainment closed with a one-act drama, some of which was laid in a southern soldier's home during the war of 1865 between the north and south. Messrs. Tierney, Carlsale, Hingst, Hingst, Leslie, and Miss Stella Lawton and Little Miss Jean Hubble assumed the cast of characters in this act in a very pleasing manner. The entertainment was under the direction and supervision of Messrs. G. E. Leslie and Fred Carlsale. During the performance last night they were the recipients of bouquets of flowers.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Quotations and review furnished by W. P. Metcalf, No. 6 Cromwell block, received over private wire of F. G. Logan.
New York, Jan. 24.—(Stocks)—The stock market opened about as it closed last night, with the exception of St. Paul, for which prices came higher from London and the initial price here was about one point higher. The trading in the stock was the feature of the market and opinions varied as to its significance, so good judges believing that the price was depressed in order to accumulate stocks while others thought that a line of long stocks were being closed out. The general list after showing some hesitation in the early trading gradually weakened and was in the main heavy.

Chicago, Jan. 24.—(Wheat)—Liverpool was unchanged. Antwerp a shade lower. The general tone of the market has been firm, due mainly to the fact that there is no selling pressure. Export demand is so far small and there is no material change in news or conditions, but the market was locally overbid. Indications to point to another decrease invisible on Monday, and the price current says the wheat movement is decreasing. Millers are beginning to draw wheat out of store in Minneapolis, and St. Louis reports a good interior milling demand. Unless foreign markets decidedly discontinue it, we think prices will work higher. Primary receipts, 380,000 against 318,000; shipments 264,000 against 165,000. May wheat closed, 75 1/2; highest, 75 3/4; lowest, 74 1/2.

SANTA FE EXTENSIONS.

The Santa Fe Extension Will Connect With the Santa Valley.

Officials of the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe, who are now in Austin, Texas, confirm the report that the Santa Fe branch of that road is to be extended westward.

An engineering corps was put in the field by this company about ten days ago and is now running the line of the proposed extension.

The objective point of the survey is Pecos City, about 135 miles west of Santa Fe, where connections will be made with the Pecos Valley road, which, together with the Pecos & Northern railroad, was purchased by the Santa Fe system some time ago, a fact quickly made known by President Hinkle very recently.

From Pecos City the Santa Fe Valley railroad gives a straight shot to Roswell, N. M., running northeast to connect with the Northern railroad.

The Pecos & Northern railroad connects with the Santa Fe & Santa Fe at Amarillo, Texas. But this connection with the main body of the Atchafalaya, Topoka & Santa Fe system is not the main inducement for the extension of the line.

It is the purpose of the Santa Fe to build a new line northwesterly from Roswell to some point where connections will be made on a direct line with the Santa Fe & California line.

The purpose of this line is to reduce the distance between Galveston and Pecos City, as compared with the distance at present via Newton, Kas.

The prime object, therefore, in the extension of the line is to strengthen the position of the Santa Fe as a continental traffic line, the intention of the company being to handle a larger proportion of that traffic via Galveston and the Santa Fe.

The Santa Fe will get right into the heart of a great cotton-growing country, and will also be in position to take advantage of the heavy traffic in the developed into the Pecos valley country by reason of the great strides made there in recent years through the establishment of the Santa Fe.
