ANOTHER MURDER

Grant County Thirsty for Blood.

Brutal Act of a Mob at Leavenworth.

Second Day's Session of National Live Stock Association.

DAHOMEY TRIBES IN REBELLION

Silver City, N. M., Jan. 16.—Another killing in Silver City, the second since the first of the year and the fourth in Grant county in less than a month, occurred yesterday when a Mexican named Hilario Garcia was shot and almost instantly killed by Constable Jose M. Montez Jr. The coroner's jury returned verdict exonerating Montez from blame, the evidence going to show that Garcia attacked him with an open knife. However, a warrant was issued charging Montez with murder and he is now confined in the county jail, awaiting preliminary examination. A bystander named Nestor Morales was struck in the left knee by the bullet after its passage through the body of the deceased and his badly wounded; amputation of the leg will be necessary. Montez was a candidate for re-election for constable at yesterday's election, but the affair caused such a strong feeling that he was overwhelmingly defeated.

BURNED TO THE STAKE.

Negro Charged With Rape Returned to Death by a Mob.

Leavenworth, Kan., Jan. 16.—Officials responsible for the life of Fred Alexander, the negro burned at the stake last evening, began preparation of their defense. The negro's guilt of assault and murder last November of Pearl Forbes, which he denied with his last breath, was, they say, proven conclusively by the man's own statements while held at the Leavenworth penitentiary. In addition Sheriff Everhard said today that the report that Alexander had assaulted a third girl at Billings, near here, was true. This young woman visited the penitentiary and positively identified the negro as her assailant. Sheriff Everhard said: "I did my duty, so far as lay within my power, but I was overwhelmed by superior numbers. I am glad the troops did not arrive, for if they had, two companies would have been powerless to suppress the mob, and I have not the least doubt that every national guardsman would have been killed."

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 16.—A joint resolution passed the Kansas legislature today condemning the burning at the stake of Fred Alexander by a mob at Leavenworth yesterday. The resolution favors the most rigid investigation of all acts and circumstances attending the lynching, and demands that the perpetrators shall be punished to the full extent of the law.

Live Stock Association.

Salt Lake, Utah, Jan. 16.—At the Live Stock association convention this morning the report of the committee was read and adopted. It provides for increased membership in the association, and for raising $10,000 by private subscriptions as an emergency fund. L. G. Powers, Washington, D. C., addressed the convention on "Our National Wealth in Live Stock." On motion of Gen. Castleman, of Kentucky, a vote of thanks was extended to Powers. O. P. Updegraff, of Kansas, then addressed the convention on "Benefits of Horse Shoes to the Horse Industry."

Mountain Tribes Rebel.

Paris, Jan. 16.—According to advices from Dahomey, the Moslem tribes are openly preparing for rebellion. They refuse to recognize the sovereignty of King Toffa and the governor has been obliged to suspend his tour to the north country. He asked recall of the functionary alleged to be responsible for situation.

Indian School Notes.
It is claimed by the "Giants" that they are now champions of the territory, and this assertion has appeared frequently in our papers, and while not wishing to "call down" the "Giants," yet I would like for them to read a quotation recently received from the manager of the Yale University Foot Ball Association, touching upon this matter. The quotation is as follows: "Your case may be this way, if you have no organized or recognized league but play at random with any team you see fit to, then the champion in this case would undoubtedly be the team that had won what would be considered the most and best games of the particular part of country considered." It seems quite evident from the foregoing that the "Giants" have yet to win the title to which they have been making claims. If the "Giants" want the championship why did they not accept the challenge recently received from the Las Vegas team.

Wm. J. Oliver, Manager Indian School foot ball team.

Cabinet Meeting.

Washington, Jan. 16.—President McKinley sent out notices to members of the cabinet this morning that he would meet them at 11 o'clock to-day, for a regular cabinet meeting. President McKinley's convalescence is progressing as rapidly as could be expected and everything points to his speedy recovery. The cabinet meeting to-day lasted about thirty minutes. No business question was brought before the meeting.

Republic of Acre.

New York, Jan. 16.—A dispatch to the Herald from Rio de Janeiro says: Alarming news, unfavorable to the Bolivian forces that are endeavoring to crush the so-called Republic of Acre, is continually arriving from Manaus. The Acre forces routed the Bolivian recently near Caperna. In the rubber forests. The Bolivians retreated to Puerto Alonso, and are now surrounded by the rebels.

Delaware Divided.

Dover, Del., Jan. 16.—The general assembly met in joint session at noon today to vote for two United States senators, one for full term, beginning on March 4, the other for the unexpired term of four years. There was no choice.

The Jossey Stock Company: Gorton's Famous Minstrels.

A LOCAL ENTERTAINMENT.

Beaumont, Tex., Jan. 16.—Excitement here over the big oil well discovered each hour. Captain Lucas, upon whose land the well is located, is making preparations for an attempt to stop the impetuous flow. The town continues to fill up. The lumber industry is forgotten in the wild rush for oil lands. The Standard oil company has scores of representatives. The city properly without the oil prospects has increased five fold in value.

George T. Craig, of the Craig oil company, estimated the well's output at 3,000 to 5,000 barrels a day. The council has granted a franchise on the streets for a gas and oil pipe company for the purpose of transferring the oil and gas.

Committed Suicide.
St. Louis, Jan. 16.—An unidentified young man committed suicide today by jumping from the middle span of the Eads bridge into main channel of the Mississippi river.

"THE VENDEME."
This is the name of John Cornetto's New Place on South First Street.

John Cornetto has leased the building at No. 215 South First Street formerly occupied by W. V. Putrillo. Mr. Cornetto has had the property thoroughly renovated, remodeled, repainted and furnished throughout, converting it into an hotel with all modern conveniences, having 12 rooms, newly furnished and most desirable, either single or en suite. Mr. Cornetto will have a porter to meet all trains and is able to offer first class accommodations to transient or permanent roomers. The new hotel will be known as "The Vendome," and will be conducted on the European plan. A representative of this paper called on Mr. Cornetto at his new quarters and was shown through the entire building. The sleeping apartments are on the second floor. A large and commodious dining room is part of the hotel proper and is presided over by Mrs. Cornetto. Polite and attentive waiters only will be employed or retained in the service of the proprietor. Regular meals or short orders will be served as may be preferred. The restaurant and dining room are on the first floor. Only first class cooks will be in Mr. Cornetto's service and it is a foregone conclusion that guests seeking rooms or board will be provided with the best of entertainment and all the market affords. There is also a sample room attached, furnished handsomely in mahogany, with French plate glass mirrors, rare tropical palms and plants of other varieties. A carefully selected line of wet goods are kept in stock, including among others such brands of "Mount Vernon" and "Pearl River." "14-year old Edge-wood" and "Lemp's beer." None but the best grade of liquors will be served at the bar. While the hotel, restaurant and bar have been thrown open for business, the proprietor desires to announce there will be a grand free opening Saturday the 19th inst., day and night with winning and stinging, including turkey, chicken and game of every description. Mr. Cornetto cordially invites the attendance of home people and visitors.

Next Week's Society Event.

The ladies of St. John's guild having secured the services of professional instructors will give one of the brightest, funniest and cleverest high class entertainments of the season next Wednesday, Jan. 23, at Neher's opera house. Nearly sixty people have been engaged rehearsing for three week past and a programme of specialties, songs, jokes, farces, local hits and dramatic work is the order of the evening. Everything is being done to give the theatre goers a treat and a packed house is assured. The ladies of the Guild together with some of the principal stars have the tickets and the sale has already commenced. See display ad for particulars.

What Will Happen at El Paso During Three Days.

DEATH IN MISSOURI.

Mrs. Martha A. McKnight, Known Here, Among the Dead.

FUNERAL OF JESUS ARMIJO Y JARAMILLO.

Mrs. Martha McKnight DEAD.
Rev. W. D. Clayton, of this city, received a telegram last night from St. Louis, informing him that Mrs. Martha A. McKnight, of Clayton, Mo., had died yesterday afternoon at 5 p. m. Mrs. McKnight was the widow of John McKnight, who died at Clayton, St. Louis county, Missouri, thirty years ago and who in the forties was an old Santa Fe trader, as American merchants were then called. Mr. McKnight amassed a fortune in the territory and came to St. Louis, purchased a home and married about 1852. At this home he lived and died as did his widow also. They left no children. Mr. McKnight left an immense fortune to his widow, which she gave on to her son, at her death she was one of the wealthiest women in Missouri. She leaves behind forty and fifty nephews and nieces, who will inherit her fortune. Wm. Black, who died at Santa Fe a few years ago, and whose family still reside there, was the oldest son of her oldest sister, Mrs. McKnight was the god mother of Miss Deo McKnight Clayton, of Albuquerque for whom Miss Deo was named. Miss Clayton is the daughter of Rev. W. D. Clayton.

LARGELY ATTENDED FUNERAL.

The funeral of Hon. Jesus Armijo y Jaramillo, whose death occurred at his home in Atrisco early Monday morning and was at the time chronicled in the Citizen, took place at the San Felipe de Neri church, old Albuquerque, this morning at 10 o'clock, and was the largest funeral held in that ancient
