AID FOR THE ARID
Gov. Otero Asking for Appropriations.

Montana Cattle to Be Shipped to Alaska.

Ex-Senator Hill Will Condoile With Texas Democrats.

GEN. OTIS HAS THE GRIP.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 11.—The Record says that the western irrigation promoters who are anxious to secure governmental appropriation for irrigation of the vast arid lands in the west will make headquarters in Chicago this winter. Gov. Otero of New Mexico and Gov. Murphy of Arizona, conferred with George H. Maxwell, chairman of the National Irrigation association, here yesterday with reference to the work. After the conference Murphy left for Arizona, while Otero went to Washington where he will place the matter before congress. Otero said: "There are a great many prominent western men interested in the movement and through our association we hope to secure from congress an appropriation of $250,000 as a start for this winter."

Shipping Cattle to Alaska.
Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 11.—The growing shortage of good pasture lands in Montana is causing concern of that state to look about for other fields of enterprise. Some will take portions of their herds to Alaska in the spring. The cattle will be allowed to fall on the luxuriant grasses which grow in many places in the north and later will be killed for the markets of Nome, the Copper river country and Dawson. Arrangements to ship cattle north are now being made.

Hill Will Condoile With Texas.
Houston, Tex., Jan. 11.—The senate of Texas adopted by unanimous vote a concurrent resolution inviting D. B. Hill, of New York, to address the Texas legislature upon the political issues of the day as soon as possible.

Otis Has the Grip.
Chicago, Jan. 11.—General Edward G. Otis, in command of the department of the lakes, is a victim of the grippe.

Argument for and Against the Measure.

Washington, Jan. 11.—The senate committee on commerce did not succeed yesterday in closing its hearing on the oleomargarine bill. To-day E. S. Peters, of Texas, president of the American Cotton Growers' association, opposed the bill on the ground that it seeks to discriminate in favor of one agricultural interest as against another, which Peters thought unfair.

Secretary Knight, of the National Dairy Union, followed Peters, continuing his argument, begun yesterday. He thought the cost of the final product used in the manufacture of oleomargarine was comparatively small and the passage of the bill in his opinion could have but little effect upon the cottonseed industry.

False Report.
London, Jan. 11.—The basis of the report of the attempted assassination of the Prince of Wales turns out to be that a harmless foreign musician followed the prince on Wednesday when he was returning from shooting on the Duke of Devonshire's estate. The stranger ran when the detectives went towards him. He eluded them but was identified later.

Chinese Drowned.
Victoria, B. C., Jan. 11.—According to advices received by the steamer Empress of Japan, a passenger boat on the Canton river foundered on December 30, after striking a rock, and of 500 Chinese on board, 100 were drowned. The passengers ran to one side of the boat, causing it to turn completely over.

President Getting Better.
Washington, Jan. 11.—The president spent a restful night and continues to improve. Nothing unfavorable has appeared. Yesterday he sat up in bed a short time and presumably will do so again to-day.

Secretary Hay.
Washington, Jan. 11.—Secretary Hay continues to improve and if it had not been for the inclement weather to-day, would have returned to the state department.

Germany Outlets.
Berlin, Jan. 11.—There seems no longer to be any doubt here that Germany has declined the United States proposal to submit articles of China agreement relating to indemnities and commercial treaties to a conference to be held at Washington or elsewhere, but it is believed that Germany agrees to the new American proposal for accelerating negotiations at Peking.

Near Death.
New York, Jan. 11.—Physicians attending Wm. L. Trenchum said to-day that death may ensue at any moment. Trenchum, who was controller of the currency during Cleveland's first administration, was attacked with grip and pneumonia.

Funeral of a Duke.
Weimar, Jan. 11.—Obsequies to-day of the Grand Duke Charles Alexander of Saxe-Weimar, who died on January 4, were imposing. The ceremonies were attended by representatives of Emperor of William, foreign courts and numerous military and other deputations.

NO STRIKE AT MADRID.
The Madrid Miners Failed to Attend Mass Meeting.

Cerrillos, N. M., Jan. 11.—The report which has been circulated to the effect that the Madrid miners are about to go on a strike is not true. Organizer Geher was to hold a mass meeting of Madrid miners here last night but only seven were in attendance and nothing was done toward forming a branch of the union here. There is no talk of a strike.

FUNERAL OF H. N. JAFFA.

First Mayor of Albuquerque Buried This Afternoon.

LARGELY ATTENDED FUNERAL.

The funeral and burial of Hon. Henry N. Jaffa, the first mayor of this city, took place this afternoon in accordance with published orders, and, although the day was one of the coldest of the present winter, was largely attended.

In a body, at 2 o'clock p. m., Mayor Marron and the city council, the Masonic fraternity and the Albuquerque Lodge, No. 326, I. O. B. F., with the members of the Albuquerque fire department in uniform, assembled at the bereaved home, No. 718 West Cooper avenue, where short and appropriate services were conducted by the I. O. B. F. society, of which the deceased was secretary at the time of his death, and a past president.

Following these services the solemn procession, with its dead, wended its way to the beautiful Congregation Albert temple, where Rabbi Jacobs delivered a most eloquent address upon the death of the deceased. The temple was crowded to the doors, and the handsome casket, literally covered with wreaths and bouquets of flowers, was a sight to be remembered with respect and pride for the dead by the people of this city.

After the services at the temple, the funeral was then solely under the auspices of the Masonic lodge, which proceeded being its Worshipful Master, and at the cemetery the concluding ceremonies were pronounced by a past master of the lodge.

The pall bearers were Gov. E. S. Stover, C. F. Myers, Aaron Rosenwald, David Weinmann, Dr. J. H. Wroth and Nos. 116.

Ronke Jaffa, the son who was at Chicago, and Solomon Jaffa, a brother of the deceased, of Trinidad, Col., arrived on the delayed train last night, and with the other members of the family, although Mrs. Jaffa was almost prostrated with grief, attended the funeral and accompanied the remains to the cemetery on the mesa.

Out of respect to the memory of the first mayor of Albuquerque and in accordance with a wish from the city council, the banks and stores of the city were closed during the funeral.

The famous Jossey Stock Co. is billed for a return engagement at the Neher opera house all next week. On the opening night the company will play by request, that great play "Under Two Flags." Ladies will be admitted free Monday night if accompanied by a person holding a fifty cent ticket. Price of admission in week of all, 10, 20, 30 and 50 cents for the best reserved seats. The following is an extract from the El Paso Times:

The play at the opera house last night and the manner in which it was produced well deserved the good house that was present to witness it.

The play "Under Two Flags" is an English drama, the plot being laid in England at the race course and extending to the French army in Africa. The brother of the hero goes back on the races and forges the name of an English lord. The hero is accused of the crime and bears the disgrace of the accusation, rather than to expose his brother. He exiles himself to Africa where he becomes the object of the jealousy and hatred of a villainous colonel and his life is saved by "Cigarette," the friend of the flag, who loses her own to save that of the wrongly accused, self-exiled English nobleman.

Each member of the cast looked well and played excellently the character represented. W. J. Jossey, as the hero, who leaves a life of ease and idleness for his brother's sake, is, though told of his sphere, ever in a soldier and rides many miles with a spear in his side to save the day. C. F. Berger makes a grand looking English lord, who within that haughty appearing exterior, has a heart to believe in the honor of the hero and sacrifice himself to the last. Justus McCarthy, as

GRUESOME FIRE.

Skeleton of a Man Discovered Near Laguna in Valencia County.

MATTER NEEDS INVESTIGATION.

Word reached The Citizen yesterday that the skeleton of a man, supposed to have been murdered or died from want and hunger, lies in full view near Armiijo siding, about fifteen miles this side of Laguna, on the Santa Fe Pacific. It is understood that this gruesome find was made recently by some Pueblo Indians, who took the hands and arms, which had become detached from the body by some means, to Santa Rita and buried them there. A suit of clothes, evidently belonging to the skeleton, lies near the body, and there are evidences upon close investigation, that some kind of a struggle took place before the subject succumbed to death. A man was reported missing or murdered in the vicinity of the skeleton a few months ago, and the proper officers of Valencia county are appealed to give the matter immediate investigation.

Copenhagen, Jan. 11.—Negotiations for the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States are seemingly approaching settlement.
