CONGRESSIONAL

Usual Gist of Talk in Each House.

May Be Serious Trouble in Venezuela.

One of the Cudahy Kidnapers Offers to Turn State's Evidence.

VOLUNTEERS COMING HOME.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Chas. B. Schell, Cincinnati, appeared before the senate committee on agriculture to-day, and made argument in opposition to the oleomargarine bill. He represented the Ohio butterine company, of Cincinnati, Jacob Dold Packing company of Kansas City, Union Dairy company of Cleveland, O., and a number of farmers and consumers. He urged that the same tests be applied to oleomargarine as butter, and said the oleomargarine makers and dealers are entirely willing to submit to these. He charged the butter makers with seeking unfair advantage in the pending bill. Resolutions of Bacon and Pettigrew relating to dedication of executive to send to the senate the report of A. L. Lavelle as to postal frauds in Cuba, went over. Consideration of the army re-organization bill was resumed.

HOUSE.
Speaker Henderson was again detained at home by illness. Daniel, Pa., presided. Before the debate upon the re-organization bill was resumed, it was agreed that the debate upon the bill should close to-morrow at 5 o'clock and final vote should be taken before adjournment to-morrow.

Kitchen, North Carolina, supported the Hopkins bill, but said he would vote against the amendment requiring congressional districts in the several states be "contiguous and compact." He said he did not believe that congress had the power to designate the manner in which the states should make up congressional districts. Kitchen then replied at some length to the speech made by Linsay, North Carolina, last Saturday, attacking the southern democrats for disfranchising the negro.

Lacey, Iowa, also supported the Hopkins bill. Crumpacker, Indiana, a member of the census committee, who presented the minority report in favor of reducing the representation in the southern states proportionate to the abridgement of the franchise, then took the floor for an hour. As between the Hopkins and Burrell bills he favored the latter, as it kept pace with the growth of the country. He argued that during the recent years influence in the house in legislation had steadily diminished, a condition due to the fact that the members of the lower house allowed themselves to be dominated by the senate and the chief executive. If the membership was to remain stationary as the years went on its influence would continue to decrease.

MAY BE TROUBLE.

Venezuela is Now Meeting Demands of this Country.

Willemstad, Curacao, Jan. 7.—The United States minister at Caracas, Venezuela, Loomis, according to last advices received here, has not yet succeeded in obtaining justice for the New York and Bermudez asphalt company, in dispute with the local authorities, and the situation is regarded critical. Three American warships are either at La Guayra or on their way. (Buffalo, Hartford and Scorpion) and Americans are complaining at the alleged delay in obtaining protection of their interests. Local authorities, it was added, encouraged the natives to invade the company's plant.

Kidnaper Offers to Confess.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 7.—A letter mailed at Lincoln, the writer who represents himself as one of the kidnapers of Eddie Cudahy, made a formal offer to turn state's evidence against his confederates in return for immunity himself. This guarantee has been made by the chief of police and Mr. Cudahy.

Volunteers Coming Home.

Mantia, Jan. 7.—Gen. MacArthur reviewed the thirty-seventh regiment of volunteer infantry on the luneta field this afternoon. MacArthur, in a farewell address, congratulated the officers and men on their bravery, discipline and judgment, and commended the regiment with a hearty "God bless you, comrades." The thirty-seventh will sail for home on a transport on Thursday.

Washington, Jan. 7.—In the United States supreme court to-day an opinion was handed down in several cases, involving the right of the secretary of the interior to withdraw indemnity lands along the line of the Northern Pacific railroad. The opinion was by Justice Harlan and sustained the practice of the interior department since 1888 of not making withdrawal of lands liable to become parts of the grant.

Woman Assaulted.

Denver, Jan. 7.—Miss Julia Dohr, a servant, was assaulted on the street last night, her skull being fractured. Her assailant escaped. She is the sixth woman mysteriously assaulted since August 24, robbery not being the motive in any case.

BALDONADO'S SENSATION.

He Used a Span on Francisco Chavez and Then Kicked With His Wife.

Special to The Citizen.
San Marcos, N. M., Jan. 7.—The gay woman master of Contadero, a small settlement near here, Isabel Baldonado, for some time has paid considerable attention to the wife of Francisco Chavez, but the husband has always been in the way to prevent the furtherance of any scheme of Baldonado to elope with his wife. The other day Baldonado noticed Chavez on top of an adobe house facing the roof and with a spade he crept upon his victim and dealt Chavez several blows on the head. Chavez was completely knocked out, whereupon Baldonado persuaded Chavez's wife to "fly with him" and both struck the trail on foot. Baldonado is the same fellow that had a quarrel with a Santa Fe railway section foreman last summer over a woman, which resulted in Baldonado being slightly wounded by a shot from the railroad man's pistol. The section foreman was indicted, and his case will not doubt come up for trial at the next term of the Socorro county court.

HE IS BETTER.

Johnny Rhodes and His Injured Foot Getting All Right.

Special to The Citizen.
Las Cruces, N. M., Jan. 7.—Johnny Rhodes, son of Isaac Rhodes, who was accidentally shot in his left foot New Year's day is getting along nicely, but he will go through life minus several toes on that foot. Young Rhodes was out rabbit hunting on New Year's day, when a tramp hailed him and both engaged in conversation. Rhodes placed the muzzle of the gun on his foot. In some unaccountable manner the gun was discharged and the contents of one barrel entered the foot, tearing and lacerating the toes in a bad manner. Fearing that he would be accused of the shooting, the tramp started to run away, when Rhodes requested him to come back and help him home. The tramp did, and soon thereafter Rhodes was taken to Dr. Lane's office and the wound received attention.

Special to The Citizen.

On the night of December 19th, John Pennego was walking along Mananitas avenue, when he stepped into one of the many holes in the plank sidewalk. He fell and in the fall his right hand was permanently injured. He has instituted suit against the town for $2,180.

DEATH'S DOINGS!

Armour, the Rich Packer
Is Dead.

Gen. MacArthur Deporting Filipino
Rebels to Island of Guam.

INVESTIGATING HAZING MILITARY CADETS

Chicago, Jan. 7.—Philip Danforth Armour died on Sunday evening of muscular affection of the heart, resulting from pneumonia contracted three weeks ago. During the day he realized that death was near, and said: "I am ready." His last words were the Lord's Prayer, which he repeated sentence by sentence as it was read to him by his request. All members of the family were at his bedside when he died.

Armour was born at Stockbridge, N. Y., May 16, 1832. In 1849 he went to California, returning in five years with a small fortune; in 1856 he bought an elevator at Milwaukee; in 1858 he founded the packing business in Chicago. His property interests here are estimated at $10,000,000. His personal fortune is $5,000,000.

INVESTIGATING HAZING.

Rough Treatment Given Cadets at West Point Military Academy.

Philadelphia, Jan. 7.—The congressional committee appointed for the purpose of inquiring into the alleged hazing of former cadets, Oscar L. Booz, of Bristol, Pa., and John Breth, of Altoona, Pa., resumed taking testimony this morning. Burnham was the first witness. He said he went to West Point in June, 1898. He asked Booz to become his tent mate when they went into camp in July of that year. Oscar Booz, he said, was a nice sort of young man, up to the standard of the other cadets. The older cadets had a lot of fun with Booz on account of his name. Upper classmen and a cadet named Bettison, in particular, Burnham said, ordered the new cadets to do various things to see if the new men would obey them. Booz was ordered to fight by the "fighting committee." After the contest Burnham said Booz lying in his tent, and he looked dejected. Told him he had received a blow in the stomach, which had rendered him absolutely helpless. Upper classmen kept taunting him, saying he would make no soldier. This was kept up until he resigned. Booz, said Burnham, was given a small bottle of tobacco sauce and told to take all of it before he left the table. Oscar told Burnham that the stuff was ruining his stomach.

Senatorial Caucus.

Pierre, S. D., Jan. 7.—A senatorial caucus was called for 2 o'clock this afternoon with the names of only Congressmen R. J. Gamble and Col. Stover in the field. Gamble's selection is generally conceded.

Bismarck, N. D., Jan. 7.—Gov-elect White and other state officials took office to-day. The legislature will convene tomorrow.

Russian Minister.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 7.—Count Lamsdorf has been definitely appointed minister of foreign affairs.

Consul to Turkey.

Washington, Jan. 7.—The Turkish government has furnished Dr. Thomas Norton appointed United States consul at Harput, what are known as traveling papers, constituting safe conduct, to enable the doctor to proceed to his post. There is reason to believe that this action forecasts compliance by the Turkish government with the request of the state department for regular requisition for Norton.

To Prohibit Hazing.

Washington, Jan. 7.—To the pending army reorganization bill Senator Vest to-day offered the following amendment:

"Officers in charge of the West Point military academy shall make and enforce such rules and regulations as will prevent the practice of hazing; and any cadet found guilty of participating in such practice shall be expelled from the academy, and shall not be re-appointed to the corps of cadets therein."

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Last night at 11 o'clock at Los Duraznos, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Springer were called to lose by death their nine-month-old girl baby, who was sick with pneumonia. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock at the old town Catholic church, with burial in Santa Barbara cemetery.

THE SERIOUSLY ILL.

Rev. J. N. McClure, dangerously ill—Miss Coltraine's condition.

Rev. J. N. McClure, pastor of the Highland Methodist Episcopal church, was considered dangerously ill this morning, his sickness suddenly taking a turn for the worse. A telegram was sent to his mother in Virginia, telling her of his condition and advising that she come to Albuquerque at once.

The condition of Miss Ella Coltraine was not improved yesterday, and last night friends were compelled to sit up with the sick lady. It is feared that she will be unable to pull through, although at noon to-day a report reached this office that she was considered a little better.

TRAGEDY AT LAS CRUCES.

Two Young Mexicans Quelled, Followed Santa Cruz, a young Mexican, was shot and killed at Mesilla by Elipio Perez Friday night last. They quarreled in a store, walked out on the street and a moment later the fatal shot was fired.

The murderer escaped on foot, but the sheriff's posse is in close pursuit. It is reported that he is surrounded in the bosque, about eight miles from Las Cruces, with no weapon except the pistol with which he did the killing. The motive is unknown. The deceased bore the reputation of being quarrelsome.

MONEY TO LOAN.

On diamonds, watches, etc., or any good security also on household goods secured this morning. Burnham was the first witness. He said he went to West Point in June, 1898. He asked Booz to become his tent mate when they went into camp in July of that year. Oscar Booz, he said, was a nice sort of young man, up to the standard of the other cadets. The older cadets had a lot of fun with Booz on account of his name. Told him he had received a blow in the stomach, which had rendered him absolutely helpless. Upper classmen kept taunting him, saying he would make no soldier. This was kept up until he resigned. Booz, said Burnham, was given a small bottle of tobacco sauce and told to take all of it before he left the table. Oscar told Burnham that the stuff was ruining his stomach.

Burnham said he was discharged from West Point for deficiency in studies, especially drawing and mathematics. He said he positively had no animus against the institution, and no knowledge of any scheme there, either among the officers or cadets.

While Burnham was in the fourth class period about twelve months, there were ten men "killed out" to fight. Fighting was prohibited at the academy, yet no action was taken by the academy officials to punish any so far as Burnham knew.

Senatorial Caucus.

Pierre, S. D., Jan. 7.—A senatorial caucus was called for 2 o'clock this afternoon with the names of only Congressmen R. J. Gamble and Col. Stover in the field. Gamble's selection is generally conceded.

PRESIDENT HAS A BAD COLD.

London, Jan. 7.—Reporting to the war office under date of Jan. 6, Lord Kitchener says: "Yesterday Balmorloo engaged Delany's and Broomkamp's commandos at Naauwpoort. The enemy was forced to retire north-west. Our casualties not yet received, but are reported slight."

The Boer doctor admitted twenty Boers were killed or wounded. Commandant Dupres was taken prisoner. It appears from reports of the wounded who arrived at Helibron that a detachment of the strong belonging to Kitchener's command, came into contact with a superior force near Lindley. I regret to say that Lieut. Loring, two other officers, fifteen men were killed, and two officers and twenty men were wounded. No details have come from Kitchener's action."

Naauwpoort mentioned in Kitchener's dispatch must not be confounded with Naauwpoort Junction, Cape Colony. There are several Naauwpoorts. Possibly the scene of the fight is Naauwpoort on the railroad between Potchefstroom and Fredericksburg, Transvaal.

Senator From Idaho.

Boise, Idaho, Jan. 7.—Ex-Senator F. T. Dubois was nominated by joint caucus at 1 a. m. for United States senator.

Fusionists Organize Montana Legislature.

Helena, Mont., Jan. 7.—Fusionists in caucus nominated Frank E. Corbett, of Silver Bow, as speaker of the house. Corbett secured 24 votes. John McGinnis 14. W. A. Clark backed Corbett.

George E. Stanton was made president pro tem.

President Has Bad Cold.

Washington, Jan. 7.—President McKinley has a slight cold this morning and is denying himself to all callers. The cold is not serious, and will not interfere with the reception to the diplomatic corps on Wednesday night. The president and Mrs. McKinley have abandoned the proposed trip to Canton on Thursday to attend the funeral of the navy, Barber, a nephew of Mrs. McKinley.

Lost His Way.

Martin Fishback, a mining man of Denver, Colo., who has been in Alamogordo and vicinity for some time past looking over the mineral resources of this section, started out on foot early last Sunday morning on a prospecting trip. He evidently lost his way for when night fell he failed to turn up in this city and was not heard of until Monday morning when a telegram was received here stating that he had arrived at Jarilla at 4 a. m. that morning after having walked all night. He was very nearly exhausted from cold and exertion and portions of his body were frost bitten. No doubt he would have perished had he not fortunately arrived at Jarilla when he did.—Alamogordo News.
