Calles Makes Every Preparation for Possible Renewal of Assault on Border by Convention Troops.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE.
Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 3.—Whether General Francisco Villa intends to press home his attack on Agua Prieta at pass up the border town and play for the bigger game of the western most cities of Guaymas and Mazatlan, which would give him ports for the securing of much needed supplies, is a problem that is puzzling tonight both the American army officers and the Carranza forces in Agua Prieta.
The Villa army commenced, early this morning, moving away from Agua Prieta toward Naco, and tonight that little border town reported that 5,500 Villa troops already had reached that point. Others were reported by train passengers as having been seen along the road leading toward Naco.

It is known too, that Villa agents have been endeavoring to purchase much needed supplies of flour and corn, and preparations have been made at Naco to take care of those wounded in Monday's fight around Agua Prieta.

STILL Near Agua Prieta.

On the other hand, General Calles' sources report that the main body of Villa's army, reinforced during the day by an unknown number of men from the east, is still within a few miles of Agua Prieta, while the forces of General Prieto, the Yaqui chieftain, numbering about 1,500, are still further in. Villa has succeeded in getting near to water supply at Calles and Ahuacachi pass, and limited food supplies have also reached him. All day long, too, wagon trains, loaded with supplies of ammunition, have been passing in from the east.

Prepared for Attack.

Every preparation was made in Agua Prieta today for another attack. General Funston, commanding American forces, also made preparations late today by posting troops at strategic points in Douglas, and moving them away from immediate contact with the border. Strict orders had been issued to keep residents of Douglas far away from the international line. Two or three companies of infantry were sent to Naco during the day. This was merely a precautionary measure. The general opinion among American army officers is that Villa has fooled the Carranza forces. That he merely "jibbed" at Agua Prieta and finding it much tougher than he expected, will now ignore it with its much coveted supplies of provisions and ammunition, and after his army is thoroughly rested and provisioned, will strike down through Hermosillo and Magdalena to the west coast for a campaign of much greater importance.

Funston and Villa Talk.

A brief interview between General Funston and General Villa took place yesterday over the barbed wire fence marking the international line, a short distance east of Agua Prieta.

At that time General Villa assured General Funston that he wished to avoid bringing American troops into the conflict. What else was said is not known. General Funston would not talk.

One report was that the interview though brief and formal was very much to the point. That General Villa was told very plainly by the American general that another condition like that of Monday night, when hundreds of bullets struck on the American side and one American soldier was fatally wounded and several others hurt, would result in serious trouble for Villa and his army.

Scouting Party in Trouble.

What little firing there was today was done mostly by the forces in Agua Prieta. A Calles scouting party lumped into a Villa machine gun this morning with disastrous effect to Calles' forces. The three-inch guns of Agua Prieta threw several dozen shells at the Villa forces moving westward. Six hundred cavalry was sent eastward before noon to capture two Villa cannon which were left in position, because the horses had been killed, but they were repulsed by a Villa guard estimated at 500. Major Luis Block, of General Calles' staff, said six Calles soldiers had been killed, but did not see whether they were lost by the scouting party or in the attack on the Villa guns. A Villa shell from one of the guns also killed seventeen cattle in Agua Prieta today.

Villa lost thirteen cannon on the way from Casas Grandes, according to statements attributed to prisoners taken by the Carranza garrison. Forty-seven Villa soldiers are said to

500 VILLA WOUNDED SENT TO NACO, SONORA

Naco, Ariz., Nov. 3.—Soldiers of General Francisco Villa's army who were injured in the fighting at Agua Prieta, Monday and Tuesday, began to arrive at Naco, Sonora, opposite here, tonight. Collector of Customs Acosta, of the Villa faction, received orders to prepare for 500 wounded. Most of the injured soldiers will be taken to Cananea, Sonora.

Many persons here in close touch with the Mexican situation expressed the belief that Villa would not resume his attack on Agua Prieta for several weeks.

RUSSIA PUTS PROMPT PRESSURE ON PERSIA

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE.
Petrograd, Nov. 3 (via London 8:15 p. m.).—Russia has notified the Persian government that the Anglo-Russian convention providing for the maintenance of Persian integrity and independence will at once lapse if the rumors prove true that Persia has concluded a special agreement with Germany and Turkey.

This information was conveyed to the Persian government by the Russian minister at Teheran.
The minister's declaration, it is explained, applies not only to the present cabinet, but to any Persian government that should think of turning the fate of its nation with that of countries at war with Russia.

CARRANZA MEANS TO END RAIDING OF TEXAS BORDER

Vigorous Measures by First Chief Are Expected to Crush Operations by Outlaws, He Tells Washington.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE.
Washington, Nov. 3.—Assurances reached the state department today from General Carranza that raiding by Mexican bandits along the American border would be stopped as quickly as possible and that those found guilty of bandit operations would be punished.

General Carranza made his statement personally to John W. Bell, the American representative with the de facto government, with the request that it be conveyed officially to the state department. He said he would make a personal investigation of the border situation.

"In this connection," the state department announced today, "it is stated that experienced and reliable troops would be stationed on the Mexican side of the border and that the Mexican secret service will be utilized in co-operation with the military authorities in locating and punishing offenders."

Reports received at the department today from Guaymas indicated that the forces of the de facto government had advanced a considerable distance northward, apparently without opposition. A steamer with troops, horses and artillery and another with coal had just arrived at Guaymas.

Other official advices stated that the political situation at Tepic was improving and that Vera Cruz, Salina Cruz and Tampico are reported quiet.

The retreat of Villa troops from Agua Prieta has temporarily disposed of the question of whether United States troops should be authorized to cross the border in protecting American lives and property. It was said at the state department that no action had been taken on a suggestion from General Funston that such a step might be necessary. It was pointed out that if at any time it was deemed to send troops across the line permission would first be asked of the de facto government and that there was ample precedent for this.

It became known today that the United States has taken the position that it is responsible for all materials consumed by its troops during the occupation of Vera Cruz. The question as to who is to pay for the destruction of property by shell fire and otherwise remains open.

Severe Forest Fires Reported.

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 3.—Forest fires of unusual severity today reported from the mountains around Martinsburg and in the hills not far from Parkersburg. The Martinsburg fire, it was reported, was started by hunters and because of the lack of rain was expected to cause damage amounting to several hundred thousand dollars. Scores of farmers were out fighting the flames.

cause of Failure Elsewhere.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE.
Paris, Nov. 3 (7:30 p. m.).—The ministerial declaration made today by Aristide Briand, the new premier, was most favorably received in both the chamber of deputies and the senate and a vote of confidence of 315 to 1 was given the government.

The premier's announcement that it was the government's decision to obtain guarantees of a durable peace before laying down arms also was greeted with enthusiasm. M. Renaudel, the socialist leader, in a speech declared that France should annex none of the territory captured from enemies of France. This was taken to mean that the socialists were opposed to the recovery of Alsace and Lorraine and the deputy's utterances brought forth tumult and violent protests.

Censor Unpopular.

Deputies Renaudel, Emil Constant and Rameil attacked the censor and demanded that there should be entire liberty of the press on political questions. They protested against the exclusion from the troops at the front of any French newspapers on account of an expression of opinion about it.

Several interpellations, not essentially hostile to the cabinet, but more in the nature of requests for guarantees as to the policy of the government, gave Premier Briand the occasion to show once more his great mastery over the chamber, his broad grasp on all questions and his dexterity in meeting emergencies.

Dealing with the censorship, M. Briand told the press that it must bear its share of the inconvenience. "We are at war," said the premier. "The hour is for action. Only by close and incessant co-operation will victory be obtained. Everyone must accomplish his task. Once all responsibilities are established, every fault will be punished."

"That is the program of the new government. The government, aided by parliament, must furnish all means to the army, who we salute with emotion and pride."

Praises Army and Navy.

"With such an army, with such a navy, with a navy which is so efficiently supported by all hopes are permissible, and the country, assured as to the outcome of the war, will follow its developments with serenity and imperturbable calm."

"This high standard of conduct which has been in evidence for fifteen months, obliges the government to consider the question of the censorship. The government with the collaboration of the press, will find in the application of the laws the necessary reconciliations between liberty and authority."

"We appeal to your co-operation. We know that your foremost intention is to second the action of the government. On its part the government is ready to accomplish the whole of its task and assume all responsibility."

"It is by a union of nations, the parliament and the government that we will pursue the war to the end, to a victory that will drive the enemy from all invaded territory."

France Not to Blame.

"France has not disturbed the peace. Relating all provocation, she did everything possible to maintain it. It was premeditated aggression. She accepted war without fear and she will not cease the struggle until the enemy has been mastered. To this end the allied nations will reach by a close union."

"We are in full accordance with the British government concerning the conduct of military operations in the Balkans. France and her allies will never abandon the heroic nation whose resistance compels the admiration of the world."

"The present enterprise of Germany in the Balkans attests the failure of that nation's efforts in the principal theaters of hostilities. Thus, because its offensive has been broken on the French front and on the Russian front, it attempts this diversion."

"Her hopes will be shattered. The central powers may postpone defeat, but they cannot prevent it. As for us, we are decided to go on to the very end."

Socialist Position Stated.

Emile Constant asked of the government greater severity in the treatment of Austrians and Germans allowed to reside in France and demanded the cessation of the censorship of publications of a political character.

M. Renaudel, socialist leader, who followed M. Constant, criticized the working methods of parliament and demanded the publication of a political character.

Summary of War News of Yesterday

There has been hard fighting in the Serbian, Russian and Austro-Italian theaters and at least one attack of note in the Champagne region of France.

In Serbia the Austrians and Germans continue to make progress everywhere but the Bulgarians have had to give way before superior forces in the Nisava valley.

The Russians, on the eastern front, are delivering attacks against the Teutons at various points of successfully counter-attacking at others. Berlin admits that between the Swenton and Allen lakes, in the region of Dvinsk, the Germans under Field Marshal von Hindenburg were forced to withdraw their lines and that the Russians occupied the village of Mikulachki and Platonoski, taking numerous prisoners and several machine guns.

Near Novo Aleximire, the Austro-Germans were driven from their trenches according to Petrograd, while in the fighting for the possession of Semikolovka (Schemkowsk) in Galicia, 2,000 Austro-Germans were captured.

In the region of Masadon, in Champagne, the Germans penetrated some of the advanced French trenches in an attack which was preceded by a heavy bombardment. Paris says, however, that elsewhere the Germans were repulsed, suffering material losses. Artillery and mining operations have been engaged in on other parts of the French and Belgian fronts.

The Italians are still bombarding heavily the Gofizia region of the Austro-Italian front and at several points have made infantry attacks. These attacks have all been repulsed, according to Vienna, which says several Italian regiments lost half their effectives.

A news agency says Tebrant, in Asia Minor, southwest of Smyrna, has been bombarded by four entente torpedo boat destroyers, which leveled the forts, the old barracks and a large party of the Turkish garrison.

The Russian foreign office, in a statement just issued, places on record that Russia is ready to recognize the territorial enlargements which Greece needs in Europe and Asia Minor, as well as the justice of Rumania's right to realize her national ideal. Russia is ready to proffer a friendly hand to the Bulgarians when they take their place on the side of the entente allies.

The American minister to Belgium, Brand Whitlock, according to Washington dispatches, is to return to the United States for a vacation on account of ill health.

The Persian government has been notified by Russia that it Persia has concluded a special agreement with Germany and Turkey, the Anglo-Russian treaty for the maintenance of Persia's integrity will be allowed to lapse.

The semi-official Overseas News agency of Berlin denies as "pure invention" recent reports that Germany was disposed to prepare the way for peace negotiations.

The British government will request an additional credit, probably of $1,250,000,000 next week.

GREEK KING IS DIRECTING POLICY OF HIS COUNTRY

If War With Bulgaria Becomes Necessary, It Will Be Raged Independent of Operation of Allied Forces.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE.
Paris, Nov. 3 (11:20 p. m.).—An Athens dispatch to the Havas agency says:

"King Constantine and the Greek government are considering the situation from a strictly military viewpoint and are firmly resolved not to launch out on an adventure, the result of which is far from clear. They are also determined to avoid a conflict with the central powers."

"In other words, Greece will take up arms against the Bulgarians only if she finds herself in any way whatsoever threatened by the latter, but Greece, if she fights, intends to do so on her own account, not on that of either of the European groups."

"German efforts to induce Greece to give facilities to the entente powers so far have failed. The king is his own adviser and that constitutes the basis of Greece's present policy. Popular sentiment favors the allies in general and France in particular, but the people have no desire to plunge the country into the horrors of war, this last struggle in the Balkans being still present in memory. They regard Bulgaria, nevertheless, as their hereditary enemy, but have implicit confidence in the king to do the right thing at the right time."

"The situation in Macedonia of a certainty causes anxiety, but the anxiety is diminished by the presence of the allied troops which is considered a guarantee against Bulgarian invasion."

"The viewpoint in official circles is that the landing of the allies in Macedonia was not effected with the object of serving Greek interests, but of stopping the German advance on Constantinople, a vital question for the allies."

These children are lacking at present in the mental equipment to make good citizens, yet not bad enough for the insane asylum, according to Dr. John Dill Robinson, health commissioner who was in charge of today's clinic. Many of them, he said, could be cured. Those were twenty children at today's examination.

ONLY TWO PERMANENT JURORS SECURED SO FAR

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE.
Los Angeles, Nov. 3.—Two permanent jurors selected at the forenoon session and one temporary juror in the afternoon represented the progress made today in the trial of Matthew A. Schmidt, on a charge of murder in the destruction of the Times newspaper plant, October 1, 1910.

Throughout today the majority against suffrage in Pennsylvania estimated at times as high as 200,000 decreased. This with the additional news that twenty-five out of sixty-seven counties in the state had carried for suffrage gave its supporters great encouragement.

The Massachusetts progressive votes polled only a few more than 7,000 votes, about one-third as many as the prohibitionists. The majority of Samuel W. McCall, republican, over his democratic opponent, David L. Walsh, in the race for the governorship, was 6,898.

Maryland returns continued to indicate that Emerson C. Harrington, democrat, had defeated Ovington A. Welser, republican. Harrington's majority probably will be between 2,000 and 3,500. Suffrage was beaten in New York by more than 175,000 and the revised constitution by more than 450,000.

Republicans elected ninety-eight of the 150 state assemblymen.

General legislative gains were recorded in New Jersey by the republicans.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE.
Washington, Nov. 3.—A statement issued tonight from the headquarters of the democratic national committee commenting on the results of yesterday's election, said:

"The results yesterday show that while the republicans and bull moose have gotten together in some states, the democracy has made large gains from the progressive ranks."

"This is notably true in Massachusetts. The democratic gubernatorial candidate, Governor Walsh, made a wonderful race. He polled the largest vote ever given a democrat in the state, while Mr. McCall, the republican candidate, ran way behind the normal republican vote. The boost of the republicans in Massachusetts that they would carry the state by from 25,000 to 40,000 majority remains unfulfilled. The total vote given Walsh yesterday was 229,312, while McCall received 235,918 votes. The vote for Governor Walsh was nearly 29,000 greater than he received two years ago and 37,000 more than he received in 1912. President Wilson received only 173,400 votes as against 235,125 for Taft and Roosevelt. Taft received 265,956 votes in 1908, which is 26,000 more than the vote given McCall yesterday."

"In this connection the important fact should not be overlooked that Massachusetts is one of the old line republican states."

"There were three state elections results yesterday where the governors were chosen. The democrats elected their state tickets in two of these three states. While they lost the governorship in Massachusetts, a heretofore strong republican state, they elected a democrat to replace the present republican governor in Maryland. In Kentucky the democrats elected their candidate for governor, Hon. A. O. Stanley, whose election was opposed by a number of republican splinterers of national reputation, including former Vice President Fairbanks."

"The results yesterday are full of encouragement to democrats, demonstrating conclusively that it is the constructive and gaining party, while the republicans have failed signally in their efforts to force back into the ranks progressive and independent republicans."

Vienna, Nov. 3 (via London, Nov. 1, 12:10 p. m.).—The official statement from general headquarters issued today reads:

"Fighting on the Strpa continues; the Russians are being reinforced.

The result of yesterday's elections does not by anything but gratifying to the national administration. The contest in the democratic state of Maryland is no close that the result will be in doubt until decided by the official canvass. In the democratic state of Kentucky, where national questions were lumped in by the democrats to avoid a drubbing, the republicans have shown their old time form. We have carried Cincinnati by the largest plurality ever given a candidate in that city.

The republicans have retained control of the legislatures in New York and New Jersey, have elected local officials in up-state New York and all officers in Philadelphia. They have swept Massachusetts by pluralities ranging from 10,000 to 20,000, electing all state officers and 180 republican members of the legislature against seventy-nine democrats.

"We have carried the one congressional district in Pennsylvania and three in New York, one of which, the twenty-third New York, has been held by a democrat."

FRANCE ALSO TO

AMERICAN NOTE

Many Sharp Passages in Secretary Lansing's Communication to Great Britain on Injustices to Shipping.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE.
Washington, Nov. 3.—At the instance of the British embassy, copies of the latest American note to Great Britain protesting against interference with neutral shipping will be handed to the British ambassador and the French ambassador in Washington simultaneously with the delivery of the note by Ambassador Page to the British foreign office. This is in recognition of the fact that France is equally concerned with Great Britain in the subject matter of the note, having by official orders of the French admiralty adopted the British rules governing seizure and detention of neutral ships and cargoes substantially without change.

Sharp Passages in Note.

It is learned that Secretary Lansing's note contains some sharp passages and is very emphatic in condemnation and protest against several features of the British orders in council.

Objection is made particularly to that part of the British orders in council under which cruisers have diverted from their voyages and detained for long periods in British ports American vessels bound for the neutral ports of northern Europe. It is held under the general principles of international law that while these vessels might properly be stopped and searched on the high seas, they should not be taken to distant ports for examination at great loss to the ship owners. This the British authorities possess information that absolute contraband is included in their cargoes.

May Require Arbitration.

Through the issues are undated to be strongly presented by the United States, they are not regarded as beyond the reach of diplomatic treatment. It already had been intimated by Sir Edward Grey in the British parliament, however, that the whole subject may be rapidly reaching a phase when a peaceful and satisfactory adjustment can be reached only by means of an international commission.

The American note has been sent to London by special messenger and probably will be delivered to the foreign office by Ambassador Page this week.

General Ivanoff Throws Back Teutons on the Strpa River and Offensive in Volhynia Is Checked.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE.
London, Nov. 3 (10:20 p. m.).—The vigorous support which Herbert E. Asquith, the British premier, and Aristide Briand, the new French premier, have promised Serbia seemingly is about to be realized. Besides the Anglo-French troops, including British cavalry, who already are in southern Serbia, British and French transports are arriving daily at Salonika and troops from them are being sent up the country immediately to attempt to check the Bulgarian march from Velez toward Monastir. Other transports, according to a Sofia dispatch, have landed troops at Kavala, a Greek port on the Aegean sea, near the Bulgarian border. At the same time the diplomats continue their efforts to obtain the support of Greece and Rumania for Serbia, who fought with them in the last Balkan war.

Criticism for Serbia.
As the time passes, however, Serbia's position grows more critical. The Austro-German drive from the north is proceeding slowly but surely, while two Bulgarian armies are approaching Nish, from which place the Serbian government has moved to Mirovitza, over near the Montenegro frontier. The Serbians, nevertheless, are fighting stern defensive battles, and, from the German accounts, it is apparent that their main armistice is making good their retreat and leaving, as the Russians did in Galicia and Poland, very little except what cannot be moved—such as copper mines—for the invaders.

No Word of Russian Force.
There is no further news of the Russian expedition which several days ago was reported off Varna, Bulgaria's chief seaport. The opinion is held in the entente allied countries that Rumania, where is continued agitation in favor of intervention on their side, will allow the forces of Emperor Nicholas to move across her territory. If this decision is reached, it is believed that it will be influenced by the activity of the Russian official reports.

General Ivanoff has won another victory over the Teutons on the Strpa river. Further north in Volhynia there is heavy fighting and the Russians claim to have checked an Austro-German offensive which had as its object the capture of Chortorysk.

Slavs Attack Everywhere.

In fact all along the eastern front the Russians, according to the German official report, are making a series of attacks from the Gulf of Riga to Rumania. It is admitted that the Germans were compelled to withdraw their lines in the lake district, but the other Russian attacks are claimed to have been repulsed.

In the west unfavorable weather is interfering with the operations.

Both French and British submarines are now in the Sea of Marmora, where the French submarine, Turquoise was recently wrecked by the Turks.

"In Champagne, a German attack, preceded by the usual bombardment of suffocating shells, attempted to reach our positions in the sector of Masnieres. The assailants were able to penetrate only some parts of the advanced trenches at hill 139. We repulsed them everywhere else inflicting upon them material losses."

"In the Vosges, our artillery concentrated effective fire on the enemy trenches and works in the region of Vionville."

"The enemy artillery displayed some activity today. It bombarded Furnes, Wulpen, Pervyse, Roussigne, Oostkerke and Noordschote. Our artillery dispersed the enemy at several places."

forces have gained ground despite the enemy's very stubborn resistance.

"At Krasovozna, six guns, twenty sun barrels, twelve heavy mortars several thousand rifles and much war material were captured.

CAZAR FORCES ARE NOW ATTACKING AUSTRO-GERMANS

Petrograd (via London, Nov. 3, 11:30 p. m.)—The war office today made public the following official communication:

"On the western front in the region of Shlik the Germans attacked without success our troops near Buzak and Kemmer. The enemy was driven back.

"In the region of Trank we succeeded in carrying two heights and the village of Platowka. Thus far the prisoners number four officers and 160 men all German.

"During the course of yesterday we repulsed enemy attacks against the village of Gatalowka, Kamierka, Bridles and Komarow, taking 160 prisoners.

"The Austrians who succeeded in crossing the river Padkowka, south of Lashki, were driven back and their positions destroyed.

"Our troops west of Nove Alexin repulsed the trenches and captured two officers and forty-two men.

"The enemy, taking the offensive from the village of Reusowka, rushed the village of Sienkowce (Sienkowce).
We made an attack on the enemy outpost which was completely successful.

"All the enemy troops who had penetrated the Sienkowce front, numbering about 5,000 Germans and Austrians, were made prisoners, shortly afterward the enemy launched con-and lung trouble easily follows.

As Nature's corrector of throat troubles the pure cod liver oil in Scott's tubercular germs and avert the weak-

If any member of your family has

PRESIDENT PRAISES BELGIAN RELIEF WORK

Washington, Nov. 3.—Herbert C.
Hoover, of San Francisco, chairman of the American committee for relief in Belgium, ended at the White House today and paid his respects to President Wilson. Mr. Hoover said the Belgian relief work was progressing well and that he soon would return to his London headquarters to resume charge of the food distribution in Belgium.

The administration is highly pleased with the way in which the work of the commission has been done and with the results accomplished.
"It has not only kept millions of Belgians alive," said a statement issued tonight at the White House, "but has carried its work on to the entire satisfaction of all the belligerent governments concerned and with their approval and co-operation. It has not only not been the source of international complications, but has, on the contrary, been a source of international good will and disinterested service and has won the confidence of everyone with whom it has had occasion to deal."

RUSSIA ASSERTS GREECE INVITED ALLIES TO LAND

Foreign Office Is Sure Rumania Will Join in War Against Turkey and Teutons When Time to Strike Arrives.

Petrograd, Nov. 3 (5:00 p. m., via London, 9:45 p. m.)—The Russian foreign office has issued the following statement with respect to the Balkan affairs:

"The reproaches in the German press against the allies for violating Greek territory are not justified. The allies had been invited by Greece to send troops through her territory.

"A change in cabinet in Athens has brought about no modification in the Hellenic policy respecting the passage of troops, although it has resulted in a decision to maintain neutrality.
"We want a strong and independent Greece and we are ready to recognize in her behalf the territorial enlargements which she needs to this end in Europe and Asia Minor. We hope that force of circumstances will lead her to the conviction that not only right, but might is on the side of the entente.

"The relations between Russia and Rumania, during the last decade, has been placed on the basis of good neighborly relations and common interests. When the hour for joining of arms comes we are certain that the thought will be shared by all Ru-manians and that it will be crowned with the same success as attended the last war with Turkey.

"The silent waters from the beginning of the Balkan crisis understand the real cause of Bulgaria and all their efforts were directed towards avoiding a fratricidal war between two Slavic nations. These efforts met with a setback owing to the policy of King Ferdinand, who, notwithstanding his love for the sovereign of a Slavic people, has remained German in spirit.

"Russia, as proclaimed in the international manifestos, does not confound King Ferdinand with the Bulgarian people and will always be ready to proffer a friendly hand to the Bulgarians when they understand to what an abuse King Ferdinand's policy has carried them and when they come to raise themselves on the side of the allies."

ENGLAND INTERFERES WITH TOBACCO SALES

Washington, Nov. 3.—The British embassy, at the instance of the state department, today today an inquiry into the situation with respect to Turkish restrictions on American shipments of tobacco to neutral European ports.

Southern representatives in conference here told Secretary Lansing that difficulties imposed by Great Britain upon tobacco exports to neutral countries have been practically prohibitive, and that as a result nearly all of the crops of the past two years are stored in the warehouses here.

The department was asked to take up the matter with the British government separately as a non-contraband traffic question.

AMERICAN ON TRIAL IN BRITISH COURT

London, Nov. 3 (8:20 p. m.)—A preliminary hearing of the case of Edward Wehnacht, a shipping agent and an American citizen, who recently was arrested on the charge of trading with hostile interests was held in the flow street police court today. The accusation was framed on $3,000 bail.
Attorneys for the prosecution stated that Wehnacht, as the European manager of the Adams Express company, took from the London office in November of last year $2,250 which he handed to the Rotterdam office of the company for payment to a foreign agent of Hamburg.

Wehnacht's home is in Elizabeth

WOMEN, THOUGH DEFEATED, POLL ENORMOUS VOTE

It Is Believed That More Than 300,000 Men in Pennsylvania Cast Ballots Favorable to Equal Suffrage.

Philadelphia, Nov. 3.—Women suffrage in Pennsylvania was defeated by more than 50,000 at Tuesday's election, according to returns received up to a late hour tonight. About 25 per cent of the election districts are still to be heard from. It is believed that more than 300,000 men favored the proposed suffrage amendment to the state constitution. Figures so far received show a total vote of 250,577 for "votes for women," and 216,525 against.

Philadelphia cast 11,000 majority against suffrage. A feature of the contest was that Allegheny county, which includes Pittsburgh, was carried for the suffrage cause by a small majority.

The result in Allegheny county and the fact that about twenty-five of the sixty-seven counties were also found in the suffrage column gave great encouragement to the suffragists and for a time today they believed they had a chance to carry the state. Tonight, however, when more complete figures were at hand the suffragist leaders conceded defeat by 45,000.

The plurality of Thomas B. Smith, Republican candidate for mayor of Philadelphia, who defeated George D.
Porter, Independent, is more than 15, 000. The entire Republican ticket was also elected.

Two of the big anthracite counties, Lancaster and Lackawanna, which include the cities of Wilkes Barre and Scranton, were carried by the suffragists, according to the latest figures.
Berks, Lebanon and Lehigh counties, where there is a larger population of Pennsylvania Germans, polled a large vote against the amendment. Many of the purely agricultural counties were carried by the amendment.

Some of the populous counties in western Pennsylvania also gave suffrage a big vote.

Mrs. Frank M. Goodrich, president of the Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage association, said:

"From our standpoint the fight has been well worth while. We have shown conclusively that there is no apathy on the subject in Pennsylvania and that at least thirty counties of the state—the thirty we carried—the majority of the men believe in political justice for women. We thank these men for the splendid support which they gave to us and we are going to ask them to continue this support when the amendment comes up again in 1920.

"If our opponents are laboring under the delusion that they have dealt us a blow by defeating our amendment this year, they have a sad shock in store for them."

ANTI-SUFFRAGE DEFEAT NOT GREAT AS SUPPOSED

New York, Nov. 3.—Late returns on the state election held in New York yesterday show that suffrage probably will be beaten by more than 175,000, while the majority against the adoption of the revised constitution may be in excess of 120,000.

Up-state votes today decreased the majority against suffrage and increased it against the constitution.

Both suffragists and friends of the constitution expected to poll their greatest strength up-state.

The personnel of the assembly appears to be definitely settled. There will be twenty-eight Republicans, fifty Democrats, and progressive-Democrats and one socialist. This will be a loss of one seat for the Republicans and the progressives and a gain of one seat for the Democrats and the socialists.

No candidate running on a straight Democratic ticket won in any of the supreme court races.

Tammany is joyful over the outcome in New York county, having elected Judge Edward Swann, district attorney, Alfred E. Smith, sheriff, and a majority of the board of aldermen.

Mayor Mitchell today attributed the Democratic victory in New York to the direct tax imposed by the Republican state administration this year.
He repeated his previous declaration of infidelity by the legislature to the greater city.

The mayor's statement was about the only one forthcoming. Elhu Rood took a train for the country, without making any comment on yesterday's results. Other leaders were silent.

Anti-suffragists said little but were well pleased with the result.

DEFENDANTS SORE IN NEW HAVEN CASE

New York, Nov. 3.—The defense in the trial of the eleven directors and former directors of the New York New Haven and Hartford railroad, under the Sherman anti-trust law, apparently scored a point with one of the government's own witnesses when the trial was resumed today.
They elicited from C. C. Goodrich, second manager of the Hartford and New York Transportation company a statement here, that when that line entered into an agreement with the New Haven in 1901 regarding its business and curtailing its service, "the agreement enabled each company to do business that was normally and naturally tributary to it as the time."

The government had previously sought to show through Goodrich that the line had been in competitive rate war with the New Haven, and that the agreement had been made to suppress this competition.

BUSINESS MEN TO BE CONSULTED BY GOVERNMENT

Federal Trade Commission Undertakes Referendum to Secure Opinions of How Laws Should Be Interpreted.

Washington, Nov. 3.—A canvass of American manufacturers, producers, exporters and others interested in the foreign trade has been undertaken by the federal trade commission in an effort to secure a "broad referendum on the advisability of export conditions." It was announced today that 20,000 letters of inquiry were being sent out.

"Some of the inquiries," says the commission's announcement, "are designed to ascertain the general understanding of business men as to whether the anti-trust laws prohibit export combinations among American manufacturers and the views of men generally as to whether ship combinations are in the public interest. Other questions are expected to develop information in regard to 'dumping' by foreigners either in the United States or in other markets. Information also is sought concerning operations of foreign combinations and other conditions which affect American export trade."

"In addition," the statement adds, "agents will be sent abroad to study conditions."

"The war in Europe has so affected the trade of the world that American enterprise has a peculiar opportunity to supply the wants of foreign markets and secure a greatly enlarged share of their trade."

GENERAL OVERHAULING OF AVIATION SCHOOL

San Francisco, Nov. 3.—The defense in the court martial of Lieutenant Colonel Lewis E. Goodrich announced here today that it expected to prove:

That Captain A. S. Cowan, commanding the aviation station at San Diego, Cal., knew the machines in use there were unsafe.

"That officers assigned to aviation duty were not warned of this state of affairs."

Lieutenant Colonel Goodrich is on trial for alleged conduct subversive to military discipline in that it is charged he wrongly advised officers at the San Diego school in preferring charges against their superior, Captain Cowan.

The trial has developed into a general overhauling of the aviation station in the army.

PHYSICIAN ANNOUNCES ALLEGED CANCER CURE

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 3.—Announcement that he had discovered a treatment for cancer that has proved successful in a number of cases, was made by Dr. C. A. Pope of Louisville, Ky., at a meeting here today of the Ohio Valley Medical association.

Dr. Pope stated that "extracts from the proteins of certain vegetables, hypodermically administered," compose his cure which is known as "autobain."

Dr. Pope said that even so-called "hopeless cases" had responded to treatment by his method.

M'ADOO OPTIMISTIC ON RETURN TO CAPITAL

Washington, Nov. 3.—Secretary Mc-Adoo, returning today from a trip to the Pacific coast, in which he visited many principal cities, said he had been convinced that the country has entered upon an era of the greatest prosperity in its history.

Secretary McAdoo said the industrial and commercial activity of the country was based primarily on the nation's economic and financial strength and upon the awakening of the people to the opportunities for the expansion for foreign trade.

ASIA MINOR PORT SHELLED BY ALLIES

London, Nov. 3 (3:22 p. m.)—Four allied torpedo boat destroyers yesterday shelled the port of Thessalon, in Asia Minor, forty miles southwest of Smyrna, a message from Athens to the Exchange Telegraph company states. The Turkish forts, the custom buildings, the government residence, the old barracks and a large part of the Turkish quarter were destroyed.

The war vessel ceased firing after a bombardment of two hours.

Minot, N. D., Nov. 3.—Attracted by the prospect of hearing their names called at the Fort Berthold land drawing here tomorrow, thousands of strangers were in this city tonight.

BRAND WHITLOCK RETURNING TO UNITED STATES

Minister to Belgium Is Not Leaving Post Because of Reports on Execution of Miss Cavell, Says Report.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Brand Whitlock, American ambassador to Belgium, called the state department today that he was preparing to return to the United States for a vacation on account of ill health.

Mr. Whitlock's intention to return home, he advised the department, was in pursuance of orders from his physician. Officials had known of his ill health for some time and several weeks ago he was instructed to leave whenever his condition required it.

Not Result Cavell Case.

In view of rumors, published abroad, that Germany had asked for the recall of Mr. Whitlock, an account of his report on the case of Miss Edith Cavell, the nurse executed for assisting British and Belgian prisoners to escape, officials stated emphatically tonight that the minister's departure, so far as they were aware, was entirely of his own initiative and in no way connected with the Cavell incident. They pointed out that permission to leave had been granted before Miss Cavell was arrested and said they saw no reason why he should not return to Belgium after he had recovered from illness.

Caused Embarrassment.

Mr. Whitlock himself reported yesterday that he felt embarrassed as a result of the publication by the British foreign office of his letter to Ambassador Page on the Cavell case but added that the German military authorities seemed satisfied with the explanation that he did not intend the letters for publication.

The minister leaves Belgium with the highest commendation of the Washington government, his record being regarded here as one of the most brilliant of any of the diplomatic officers abroad.

Position Delicate One.

His position since the occupation of Belgium by German authorities has been a delicate one, requiring the exercise of much tact and discretion.
In view of the transfer of the seat of the Belgian government to Havre, France, Mr. Whitlock's position in Belgium has been by permission of the Germans. It was said tonight by high officials that there never has been the slightest intimation from Germany that his presence was undesirable.

Secretary Lansing tonight issued the following statement:

Lansing's Statement.
"There is nothing political in the fact that Mr. Whitlock is coming home on leave of absence. There is no connection between this fact and the case of Miss Edith Cavell. The department has known for two months that Mr. Whitlock was in ill health and that his physician in Germany advised that he take a rest. He was therefore given the leave of absence."

China Refuses to Yield.

Tokio, Nov. 3.—China's reply to the representations of Japan and other powers regarding postponement of China's decision on the question of monarchical re-establishment is regarded here as a virtual refusal by China to postponement of the decision, the growing demand for a monarchy being emphasized and the fear expressed that forcible suppression of the movement might endanger the peace of the country.

LORDS DENOUNCE CENSORSHIP AS UNCALLED FOR

Pointed References Are Made to Lack of Ability of Premier Asquith to Meet Situation Imposed by War.

London, Nov. 3 (3:10 p. m.)—Censorship, the conduct of the war, and the censorship were discussed, criticized and defended at a short sitting of the house of lords this evening.

Baron St. Davids started the discussion by demanding that a full meeting of the privy council, which is composed of some hundreds of members from all parts of the empire, should be called to discuss present affairs. He said he believed the war would have been better conducted by the late liberal government than by the present coalition. The late government, he said, carried on the war with great vigor, while, since the coalition was formed no extraordinary vigor was noticeable. He declared that those who have made mistakes should be "scrapped" and that hereafter no man should be given office merely because of former service or rank or wealth.

Would Oust Asquith.

Lord Willoughby de Broke declared that Premier Asquith should be held responsible for all mistakes.

"If Russia could get rid of Grand Duke Nicholas in the middle of the war," he said, "England could get rid of Asquith."

Viscount Morley, of Blackburn, depicted the attacks on the premier and pointed out that when he left the cabinet he did not trouble the lords with any reasons, which he considered good practice especially when the country is at war. Speaking of the censorship, he asked the government to take steps to prevent official interference with the publication of intelligence unless it was calculated to prejudice military operations. The freedom of the press, he declared to be as important as the greatest constitutional issue.

Stupidity of Censorship.

He agreed with Lord Selborne when he spoke of the stupidity of the censor's actions. Everything which made the enemy think the country was afraid of the truth was an encouragement to the enemy.

Lord Morley deplored the effect on neutrals of the "strich-like activities and childish insouciance" of the cen-sorships and added that he had never seen a government or an administration less in need of a censored press than the present one. He said he had never been addicted to undue skorti-fication of the infallibility of public opinion but it was not half as fallible as the opinion of monarchs and ministers, even prime ministers. They leaned on public opinion good or bad, and how in the world were they to lean on free, full and correct public opinion unless the public had free, full and correct information as to the facts on which that opinion rested.

It seems, he said, as though the censors had a standing order to "keep the barometer nailed fast and set fair."

Premier's Responsibility.

The Marquis of Crewe, lord president of the council, who replied to Lord St. Davids and Baron Willoughby de Broke, pointed out the difficulty of calling together the privy council and declared that Premier Asquith, while he is not to be considered responsible, was responsible departmentally and promised at the proper time the government would not shrink inquiry into the conduct of the war.

Baron Ribblesdale pointed out that Premier Asquith had assumed respon-

MEMENTOES OF LEW WALLACE ARE GIVEN TO MUSEUM

Son of Famous Author Presents Priceless Relics to State Organization for Room in Santa Fe.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL.) Santa Fe, Nov. 3.—The Morris chair in which Lew Wallace sat while writing a portion of Ben Hur, as well as a bronze bust of the famous author, have been presented to the museum in Indianapolis as follows: "I enclose in your care bill of lading for two boxes, freight prepaid, to Santa Fe as shown. One of the boxes contains a Morris chair which was one of those preferred by General Wallace with the lap board on which he was accustomed to write. He placed the lap board on the chair arms and the champagne skin was for the purpose of preventing slipping of the writing paper. The chair cushions were in rather bad repair but they are original and belong with the outfit.

"The other box contains a bronze bust of General Wallace from the original plaster moulded by Randolph Rogers in 1862, at the close of the siege of Cincinnati, which was the period of General Wallace's greatest activity. Mr. Rogers' most celebrated work was his statue of 'Nydia,' the blind girl in 'The Last Days of Pompeii.' Also his bronze doors in the United States capitol at Washington are very well known and admired. He is not to be confused with another Rogers, a sculptor who flooded the country with cheap plaster statues a few years ago. Mr. Rogers was on General Wallace's staff at the siege of Cincinnati and this work was a labor of love and a tribute of his affection for General Wallace. Later I will send a sample of manuscript suitable for the General Wallace room."

These additional mementoes of Wallace, who was governor of New Mexico when he wrote the last chapters of Ben Hur, will be installed in the Wallace room in the Palace of the Governors and will add to the shrine which is being visited now by thousands each month. It should also lend impetus to the movement to place mural paintings upon the wall, with scenes from Ben Hur, the Fair God and The Prince of India, as planned by the artist, Gerald Cassidy.

Rich Gold Ore Found.
Santa Fe, Nov. 3.—Assays running up to $22,000 gold per ton and high in silver, have been received from Leadville, Colo., by C. A. Stringo, on ore from a three and a half foot vein in the foothills of the Atlatz Mountains, only three miles from the railroad. A sixty-foot shaft has been sunk and huge ore bodies laid bare. There are in eight millions of tons of ore running one-half per cent copper and $5 a ton in gold. One vein assays $32 gold and $11 in silver, while the first assay is from the bottom of the shaft. A mineralized belt runs up from this point to the main range, where in the Dolan and Macho canyons, extensive development work has been done.

BEST LIVER AND BOWEL LAXATIVE FOR FAMILY USE
"Cascarets" Regulate Women, Men and Children Without Injury.
Take When Bilious, Headachy, for Colds, Bad Breath, Sour Stomach.

Instead of nasty, harsh pills, salts, castor oil or dangerous colic, why don't you keep Cascarets handy in your home? Cascarets act on the liver and thirty feet of bowels so gently you don't realize you have taken a cathartic, but they act thoroughly and can be depended upon when a good liver and bowel cleansing is necessary—they move the bile and poison from the bowels without griping and sweeten the stomach. You eat one or two at night like candy and you wake up feeling fine, the headache, biliousness, bad breath, coated tongue, sour stomach, constipation, or bad cold disappears. Mothers should give Cascarets to their children. A whole Cascarets any time—they are harmless and safe for the little folks.

Notes of Interest From State Museum
Santa Fe, Nov. 3.—The main entrance hall to the museum is now "The Hall of the Mayas." Jesse Nusbaum having placed two dozen of his finest photographs he secured while in Yucatan, Honduras and Guatemala with expeditions of the School of American Archaeology. They have been labeled in detail and will give the visitor some idea of the great culture developed by the Greeks of the new world a thousand years ago. Two plaster casts of the Maya friezes by Mrs. J. Bennett Smith, two casts of Maya heads were hung today and a fine Maya bowl was placed on exhibit in the Wallace room, adjoining the Maya hall.

That Prof. Sylvanus G. Morley, until recently with the School of American Archaeology, obtained a surprisingly large number of new series of Maya glyphs while in Honduras and Guatemala this spring, is the report that reached the museum today. He is at Cambridge, Mass., working up the new material for his report to the Carnegie Institution on the staff of which he now has a position.

The following registered at the museum: Alamo Lilly, Jr., Baltimore; J. S. Hunter, Chicago; Dr. C. N. Dunn and wife, Centralia, Ill.; Mrs. W. L. Hallahan, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. E. TOURIST TRAFFIC TO BE DOUBLED IS BELIEF

"We have assured bookings of 5,000, and perhaps will get 5,000 from mid-June Canada," said T. J. Meals, who specializes in this business. "My agent at Winnipeg reports bookings of well over 500 persons to date. Most of those will stay in the United States from three to six months and many of them will not return but remain in New Mexico, Arizona and California for the high taxes and the prospects that they will go on the early trip of the tourist crop, Mr. Meals said that the people that usually go to Europe are the people that will swell the hotel, restaurant and garage income this winter.

"They are the real leisure class," said Mr. Meals, "the class that play polo and usually went to Riviera about the time the first snow falls. Europe is now closed as it never was before. As winter always set in early in Canada, the southwardbound migration begins correspondingly early. We have been hearing a good deal about hard times in Canada. They are hard because of high taxes and that is the reason that many wealthy Canadians will pull stakes this winter, particularly if they can get out with good cash money in their pockets. I don't believe I ever saw prospects better for New Mexico landing several thousand Canadians, but New Mexico must be awake to its opportunity and your chamber of commerce must get into position to 'show' these prospective settlers why Santa Fe would be a good place for a home or business enterprise."

Low Valuation on Property.
Santa Fe, Nov. 3.—An unexpected sensation was caused this afternoon in the district court in the case of Elias Clark of Plaza del Alcaide against eleven fire insurance companies for $17,200, when Howell Earnest, secretary of the tax commission, testified that the plaintiff, who had valued the property destroyed by the fire at $20,000 under oath, had returned it for assessment at about $9,000.

Notes of Interest From State Museum

Santa Fe, Nov. 3.—The main entrance hall to the museum is now "The Hall of the Mayas." Jesse Nusbaum having placed two dozen of his finest photographs he secured while in Yucatan, Honduras and Guatemala with expeditions of the School of American Archaeology. They have been labeled in detail and will give the visitor some idea of the great culture developed by the Greeks of the new world a thousand years ago. Two plaster casts of the Maya friezes by Mrs. J. Bennett Smith, two casts of Maya heads were hung today and a fine Maya bowl was placed on exhibit in the Wallace room, adjoining the Maya hall.

That Prof. Sylvanus G. Morley, until recently with the School of American Archaeology, obtained a surprisingly large number of new series of Maya glyphs while in Honduras and Guatemala this spring, is the report that reached the museum today. He is at Cambridge, Mass., working up the new material for his report to the Carnegie Institution on the staff of which he now has a position.

The following registered at the museum: Alamo Lilly, Jr., Baltimore; J. S. Hunter, Chicago; Dr. C. N. Dunn and wife, Centralia, Ill.; Mrs. W. L. Hallahan, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. E. Elbertson, Boston, Mass.; Robert B. Baker, Centerville, Ia.; Theron C. Bennett, Mrs. Julia Gordon, New York City; Bertha Martin, Plainville, Mass.; Jules B. Unger, Passaic, N. J.; Pearl Ford, New York; Lillian H. Suddell, London, England; C. J. K. Moore, Indiana Wells, Ariz.; O. A. Gahler, Deming; L. M. Hammond, Buffalo; W. G. West, Ignacio; Cole, Lew Welch and wife, New York City; J. C. Queen, Malaga; E. S. Garcia, Ramah; Jesus M. Campos, Puerto de Luna; H. S. Fuller, C. R. Wilkinson, Sumner; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Davis, Timmath, Colo.; H. H. Curtis, P. A. Brexville, Erie, Pa.; Mrs. Rufus H. Carter, Raton; J. Woodford Ray, Peoria, Ill.; J. Irving Southard, Harry J. Luck, New York City; Lottie Kenndall, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Lew Welch, New York City; Frida Beck, Copenhagen, Denmark; Gus Cohen, William H. Leyden, Edward J. Shoben, New York City.

In his excavations at the Atlatz Hondo ruin, five miles south of Santa Fe, Nels C. Nelson of the American Museum of Natural History of New York, has thus far not found anything of a startling or unique character in the prehistoric ruins, but much in the way of pieces of pottery, bone implements and other material, substantiating the fact that the early inhabitants and those of the Mesa Verde made the same kind of pottery, the similarity extending even to the decorative designs.

TOURIST TRAFFIC TO BE DOUBLED IS BELIEF

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL.) Santa Fe, Nov. 3.—That tourist traffic this winter will be double that of the summer, is already manifest from the number of tourists passing through Santa Fe daily.

"We have assured bookings of 5,000, and perhaps will get 5,000 from mid-June Canada," said T. J. Meals, who specializes in this business. "My agent at Winnipeg reports bookings of well over 500 persons to date. Most of those will stay in the United States from three to six months and many of them will not return but remain in New Mexico, Arizona and California for the high taxes and the prospects that they will go on the early trip of the tourist crop, Mr. Meals said that the people that usually go to Europe are the people that will swell the hotel, restaurant and garage income this winter.

PIONEER DIES IN GALLUP AT RIPE OLD AGE

T. A. Fabro Had Had Big Part in Building of the West; Was Interested in Many Important Public Projects.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL.) Gallup, N. M., Nov. 3.—The death of T. A. Fabro occurred here in the early hours of yesterday. With the passing of this man goes the life of one of the earliest settlers of the west and of New Mexico. He had followed the frontier through Kansas, Colorado and reached New Mexico over thirty years ago, when there were but few houses and a varied citizenship living in tents and shacks.

He had come to the United States in his early manhood and had found employment as a coal miner. After his arrival in Gallup he worked as a coal miner for a number of years, but later took up the trading business. He established a store in Gallup, and began operating same on a co-operative plan for the benefit of the working men. Later he engaged in the Indian trading business and stock raising. He homesteaded a claim near Gallup and leased other lands and in a number of years accumulated considerable stock. Three years ago he disposed of his stock and organized and promoted an electric lighting and power company here, which was incorporated under the name of the Peoples Light and Power company, of which he was president for one year.

The company had been the source of much local litigation and trouble to him. He had considerable money invested in the company and it is believed that worry of this and the fear of financial failure hastened his end. He was one of the self-made men of the west. He had had but little opportunity to attend school in his early days, but after he arrived in this country he attended night school, and became a well read man. He was one of McKinley county's strongest political fighters. His political faith leaned a trifle towards the socialist ideas, but here he had usually affiliated himself with the democratic party. He was one of the few fearless fighters who came out in the open and let the world know in a few words what he meant.

Mr. Fabro was approaching the three score and ten milestone of life when the end came. For years he had been a sufferer from miners' asthma, but for the past few months he had not been bothered with this but instead had complained of pains in his chest and about the heart. He was on the street Monday looking after his business interests, but complained late in the day of feeling ill. He died suddenly in the night as his wife was offering him a stimulant. He is survived by his wife and two children.

FORD AND EDISON SEE NEW MEXICO BUILDING

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL.) Santa Fe, Nov. 3.—Walter Clark and Lloyd Clark of Albuquerque, Helen A. Rice, of Parsons; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Keyes, of Artesia, and J. S. Griswold, of Las Vegas, registered at the New Mexico building at San Diego last Friday. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon Thomas A. Edison and Henry Ford visited the building. They were escorted by a crowd of more than 12,000 school children who got away with almost everything movable in the building, including the fifteenth story of Indians and frontiersmen on the Pecos, Fort Bent and Camar models.

The exposition attendance is about as usual, averaging 2,500 a day. Present hotel reservations are very heavy for the winter months. The exposition is out of debt and the management is adding new attractions. A series of evening entertainments has been provided at the Cristobal, free spectacular acts on the Alameda and next week the daily attendance will exceed 7,000 on account of the educational convention which will bring all the teachers of southern California. The Chamber of Commerce is heading a movement to sell exposition tickets for San Diego day, when the sum of $50,000 is to be raised toward keeping the exposition open next year. A big Thanksgiving celebration festival is planned by the exposition officials and the month of December is to be a continual blaze of glory until New Year's eve when the 1915 exposition closes at midnight and the greater 1916 fair opens. The managers of the New Mexico building are taking an active part in all this although they must tell every one, regretfully, that New Mexico is too poor to keep its building open another year.

Distress in the Stomach.
There are many people who have a distress in the stomach after meals. It is due to indigestion and easily remedied by taking one of Chamberlain's Tablets after meals. Mrs. Henry Padghar, Victor, N. Y., writes: "For some time I was troubled with headache and distress in my stomach after eating, also with constipation. About six months ago I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets. They regulated the action of my bowels and the headache and other annoyances ceased in a short time." Obtainable everywhere.

STATE COLLEGE BOOSTERS FORM PERMANENT CLUB

Students Band Together to Pull for Alma Mater in All Matters Affecting Good of the Institution.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL.) State College, N. M., Nov. 3.—A number of the students of the college department of the New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts have banded themselves together for the purpose of boosting the college. They have formed a regular organization with officers whose duties are to keep their eyes single to the matters of the college which need boosting and to impart life to them through the agencies of the club. The club, though somewhat different in organization, has practically the same purpose of the "pep" society of the larger schools.

Edward Wharton, a member of the class of 1917, is president of the organization and chief booster; Joe Quisenberry, '18, vice president; Hilmar Moerschmidt, '18, secretary; and Robert Seowms, '17, treasurer. The membership of the club consists of twenty-five of the members of the college classes. They have as their immediate duty the boosting of the football season, any of the college organizations which have become inactive will be rejuvenated. Already the members of the club have worked the spirit of the student body to the highest pitch, and have imbued the whole school with a spirit of boosting.

College Personalities.
Earl W. Geyer, a member of the class of 1914, and at present government entomologist at Roswell, N. M., visited friends on the campus this week. He is clearing away his work over the state, preparatory to leaving for Washington, D. C., where he will remain during the winter, compiling data which he has collected during the summer.

Henry Gillett, of El Paso, a student in mechanical engineering of the school of engineering, withdrew from the college Monday for the purpose of enlisting in the United States navy. He finished an apprenticeship in the El Paso Southwestern shops last year, and on their recommendation will enter the navy as a machinist.

Mrs. Luren Halbert's father was a guest at McFie hall during the week-end.

Henry C. McCowan, of the college class of 1912, accompanied by his wife, was a visitor on the campus during the last week. He is at present in the employ of the Santa Fe railroad, holding the position of agricultural demonstrator, with headquarters in Chicago.

J. W. Elliott, 1915, was a college visitor over Saturday and Sunday, returning to his home in El Paso, Sunday evening.

Harvey Coy, a graduate of the preparatory department of last year, has returned to the vicinity of the college, where he has accepted a position. He is working at the Mesilla diversion dam.

BANDELIER DESCRIBES PREHISTORIC PUEBLO

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL.) Santa Fe, Nov. 3.—Ten men are now excavating the Arroyo Hondo prehistoric pueblo, five miles south of Santa Fe. N. C. Nelson, in charge of the excavations, is doing the first work on the older portion of the ruin which had some 300 rooms on the ground floor and in some places was two or three stories high. Here the foundations are of puddled adobe corresponding to modern construction. In the newer portions of the ruin which, however, are prehistoric also, that is, had been abandoned before the coming of the Spaniards, the foundations are of stone. The black and white pottery found thus far is exactly of the same type and ornamentation as that of the Mesa Verde. One skeleton has been uncovered. A number of the rooms are to be entirely cleaned out and left in such condition as to exemplify the condition of the place when occupied, thus giving the surroundings of Santa Fe another tourist attraction. Permit to excavate the ruin was given by Major Fred Muller to the American Museum of Natural History of New York, represented by Mr. Nelson.

Adolf Bandelier describes the ruin as follows: "Five miles south of the capital of New Mexico, on the southern bank of the deep and broad gulch called Arroyo Hondo, stand two ruins, called Kua-kua or Kua-kay by the Tanoos, who affirm that their ancestors built them. These names in the Tanoos language were given me by an old Tanoos Indian living at San-Juan, Deming. There are a number of Tanoos still living at that village among the Queres, and some of them speak Spanish in addition to the Tanoos and Queres languages. The smaller of the ruins lies about a mile to the east of it, at the upper end of a rocky gorge through which the Arroyo Hondo has cut its deep bed. It is a so-called 'one-house' pueblo; the outer perimeter of the well defined mound was 505 feet, and it was certainly two stories high. The larger pueblo was capable of lodging about 200 households, or 700 persons. The walls were made of broken stones and there is much pottery—black and white, red and black, black, red, white and orange, also corrugated and indented ware, but no incised specimens. The usual fragments of stone implements are found; also obsidian, flint, bones, and some charred corn. The situation is a good one for observation and defense, commanding a wide view down the arroyo, and to the west and southwest across the plain. To the south is a level expanse, and on the north lies the arroyo, at a depth of nearly fifty meters. The pueblo stands on the brink of the declivity, which is very steep, and a spring rises at the bottom. For cultivation, the people of Kua-kua had to resort to the plain around their village, where irrigation is impossible, either below or above. This pueblo bears the marks of long abandonment, the mounds are flat and at most two meters high in general. The Tanoos claim that it was pre-Spanish, and documentary evidence as well as the nature of the objects found there corroborates the statement. Bandelier estimates the population in prehistoric times at 200 families or 700 souls.

CONTRACT LET BY SANTA FE ROAD FOR GALLUP IMPROVEMENTS

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL.) Gallup, N. M., Nov. 3.—The Santa Fe railroad company has let the contract for the initial work in the big improvement work that they are to make in Gallup the coming year or two. The contract was given to Sharp and Fellows, of Topeka, Kan. They will lead their outfit at that point and will probably be here and ready for work in two weeks. There are many improvements to be made here, but the initial work will be the changing of the course of the Colorado river. The appropriation made for this work by the railroad company is $47,000. The entire area that is to be occupied by shops, roundhouse and tracks will have to be filled in about six feet.

The business men of Gallup made it possible that the shops and other improvements come to Gallup by raising $5,500 to purchase land that was owned by local people who were building it at an exorbitant price. The land will be donated to the railroad company for the improvement site.

There will be a grand celebration in Gallup on the day that the operations are started. The local people have gotten together and have arranged for a program to properly commemorate the event.

To Train Polo Ponies in Roswell.
Santa Fe, Nov. 3.—Polo ponies are to be trained at Roswell this winter for sale on eastern markets. Dr. A. D. Crie has arranged to bring fifty ponies which will be trained at the fair grounds and then shipped east to be sold to polo players.

THOMAS EDISON, INVENTOR, HERE, RETURNING HOME

Wizard Is Presented With Cane Carved by Indian to Carry on Walks to His Office at Orange, N. J.

The fact that Thomas A. Edison was coming yesterday was not widely known. That he was coming had been announced, but he was not expected so soon. Nevertheless when he stepped from his private car on the rear end of Santa Fe train No. 2 yesterday afternoon a good sized crowd was there to see the inventor.

W. P. Southard, manager of the Albuquerque Gas, Electric Light and Power company, and a committee from the Commercial club met him. The committee was made up of J. M. Doolittle, J. A. Hubbs, Grover Devine, A. L. Martin, E. J. Strong, R. L. Rosenwald, A. H. Stroup, Jake Meyer, John Simms and George Valliant.

No Time for Sightseeing. Mr. Edison has automobile for a sightseeing trip. This Mr. Edison declined, fearing he might miss the train. No. 2 was twenty minutes late in arriving and was to depart as soon as the passengers ate their dinner and as quickly as the yard crew could make it ready.

Mr. Edison spent the greater part of his stay in the Fred Harvey museum. Seeing a rack of canes, carved by Indians, Mrs. Edison remarked that one of the sticks would be the thing for him to carry on his walks to the office. Mr. Southard presented him with one. Mr. and Mrs. Edison bought several more canes and other Indian wares. The private car porter, who carried them out of the museum, was a fair representation of popular Christmas shopper cartoons, that is as to the bundles.

Henry Ford to Come Later. His visit here recalled to Mr. Edison that he was interested in a mining venture on the Ortiz grant several years ago. He and his associates had a machine that would have made the prospect pay if they could get three cents a ton. They didn't get it.

A feature of the hurriedly gotten up reception was a big Edison photograph which Rosenwald Brothers had placed on a truck in front of the station. This was kept playing while he was here. Mr. Edison did not hear it. He is partly deaf and when he was spoken to rapped his hand back of his ear to catch the sounds better.

The Edison party is returning to New York from San Francisco, where "Edison week" was celebrated a short time ago in honor of the inventor. Henry Ford, who was at first reported to be coming on the same train with Mr. Edison, did not come. He will be here later.

FIRST COUSINS, BOTH OVER 60 YEARS, WANT A LICENSE TO MARRY

First cousins, who live in Kansas, and both more than 60 years old at that, want to know if they can get a license to marry in New Mexico. A friend of theirs wrote County Clerk A. K. Walker yesterday asking him if any statute in this state prohibited the marriage of first cousins. The name of the couple was not given in the letter.

Mr. Walker replied that there is no legal impediment to the uniting of first cousins in New Mexico, so the aged couple probably will come to New Mexico to get a license. A law prohibiting union between first cousins was enacted by the territorial legislature in 1876 but it was repealed in 1886. Since that no law upon the subject has been passed.

PETITION TO PAVE FOURTH IS OFFERED BY TARVIA COMPANY

Property owners on North Fourth street who are said to have complained against the dust on that street, will be offered a petition to pave by A. H. Coudrey, of New York, representing the Tarvia Paving company. Coudrey arrived here Tuesday night, heard of the petition and decided to get busy. P. F. McCann and Dr. W. G. Hope have signed the petition for paving.

GOVERNMENT TO DEPORT 2 JAPS ARRESTED HERE

The two Japs, Joe and Tom Tomimaka, who formerly owned the White Star, will be deported from the United States. Immigration Inspector V. F. Parich, who arrested yesterday that the officials higher up in the department had approved his recommendation that they be sent back to the Flowery Kingdom. The Japs have been turned over to the immigration authorities at El Paso.

Peter Scott Wins Again.

San Francisco, Nov. 3.—Peter Scott, winner of the $25,000, 2:16 trot at yesterday's meeting of the Panama-Pacific exposition fall bar race, disposed of a high class field of trotters today in the 2:20 class by winning the first two heats with plenty to spare. Bobby Ansel was close behind the winner in the first heat and Virginia Barnette took second place in the second heat and was first in the third.

Boxing Association Meeting Off.

Cleveland, Nov. 3.—Natt Hinkel president of the National Boxing association, announced today that the meeting of the association scheduled for November 6 and 7 in Chicago has been postponed to November 12 and 13 at the same place.

School Boy Breaks Record

FRANK SLOMAN.

Frank Sloman, of the Polytechnic high school of San Francisco, is the latest record breaker on the under path. He is shown here breaking the world's record established by Ted Meredith for 440 yards. Sloman ran the 440 in 45.1 seconds, which bettered Meredith's mark by 5.6 of a second.

A. H. S. WORKING HARD TO WIN MENAUL GAME SATURDAY AT HOPEWELL

In view of the approach of the second A. H. S. Menaul football game, which is to be played at Hopewell field Saturday, enthusiasm at both schools is at high tide. Earlier in the season Menaul defeated the then green high school eleven by two touchdowns, and for weeks the boys at the Central and Broadway schools have been working hard to win into shape a team capable of evening the score and then come with Menaul in the game next Saturday.

Last night Coach Repp had out at Hopewell field the biggest squad so far this season, there being more than enough men out in uniform for two full elevens. The practice was fast and furious and the air was surcharged with enthusiasm. A "pep" meeting of the student body will be held at the high school previous to Saturday's game in order that the A. H. S. cheering squad may be in shape to do its share in defeating the Prospectians.

Menaul is keeping quiet as to Saturday's game, but from the school north of the city comes rumors of hard practice and new trick plays that cause the high school contingent to sit up and take notice. The game Saturday, from all indications, will be one of the closest and hardest fought ever played by prep school teams in this city.

WEEGHMAN, SINCLAIR AND GARRY HERRMANN IN BALL CONFERENCE

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 3.—Charles Weeghman of the Chicago Federals and Harry Sinclair of the Newark Federals, after holding a conference with August Herrmann, chairman of the national baseball commission here today, left for Chicago and New York, respectively, tonight. None of the three would give an inkling as to the exact nature of the matter under discussion and contented themselves with the announcement that "we discussed baseball in general."

Jake Daubert Defeated.

New York, Nov. 3.—Complete count of the vote in the third district today showed that John (Jack) P. Daubert, captain and first baseman of the Brooklyn National League baseball club, had been defeated by A. L. Squire, his republican opponent, by 1,500 votes. Daubert, who was the Democratic-Independent League candidate, did not take an active part in the campaign.

Kansas City, Nov. 3.—Stock in the Kansas City American association baseball club today was advertised by the sheriff for sale on the court house steps at two o'clock Saturday to satisfy a $250 judgment obtained by Robert O. Singleton against George Tobean, owner of the baseball club, affecting false arrest in 1910.

Judge Stresses Sunday Laws.

Santa Fe, Nov. 3.—Considerable discussion is caused by the report that District Judge McGuire in addressing the grand jury at Roswell had expressed his opinion on the observance of the Sunday and anti-sabbath laws and especially the law against the carrying of concealed weapons. He told the jury for the many killings in New Mexico upon the non-enforcement of the Sunday laws.

PETTINI JURY IS LOCKED IN COURT ROOM FOR NIGHT

No Verdict Is Forthcoming at 10:30 o'clock So Court Goes Home; Sanchez and Martinez Up Next.

The Pettini case went to the jury at 8:45 o'clock last night. The court waited until 10:30 o'clock for a verdict. The jury was still undecided at that time so the twelve were locked up for the night. If a verdict was agreed upon after that time it will not be known publicly until court convenes this morning.

The defense in this case began yesterday morning. Catron & Catron and Judge George H. Craig, who represented Pettini, announced that they were through in the middle of the afternoon. The remainder of the afternoon was taken up by Senator T. B. Catron, who argued the case for the defense, and Assistant District Attorney Harry Correll, who made the argument for the state. Judge Reynolds gave his instructions at the night session. Under the court's instructions verdicts for second degree murder, third degree murder and acquittal were possible.

Baltes Witnesses Excused.

The case against Urbano Sanchez and Jose Maria Martinez, charged with robbery, will be taken up by the court today. It was said that James Matloy, charged with assault with intent to kill upon his wife, would today plead guilty. Announcement was made yesterday in the court that the witnesses in the case of Dominico Baltes, charged with entering a dwelling with intent to commit a felony, were excused for the term. This is a Valencia county case.

The court term for McKinley county opens November 15 at Gallup. Court officials will have to be there several days before this date. Hence time was lacking to try the Baltes case. For the same reason it is unlikely that any criminal cases aside from "fall cases," excepting that against Sanchez and Martinez, will be tried at this term. The term "fall cases" is used to refer to those in which the defendants are held in the county jail.

Mrs. Lillie Chavez de Matloy, wife of the man who is charged with assault with intent to kill, yesterday brought suit through her attorney, H. C. Miller, for divorce. She charges her husband with cruel treatment and non-support. In her complaint she alleges that Matloy slashed her with a knife when they were living in El Paso in 1914 and that he again cut and stabbed her September 3, this year, in this city. They were married August 3, 1905.

Mrs. Lillie A. Lippitt filed suit for divorce against Edward C. Lippitt, Judge W. C. Hancock and E. S. Longley accepted service for the defendant. The papers were withdrawn from the district clerk's office by the attorney for the plaintiff, M. E. Hickey.

William P. Rhee was granted a temporary license to practice in the district court. He studied law at Syracuse university, practiced law in New York state and acted as clerk of the superior and county courts at Rome, N. Y., for several years.

'I'M FLOP' SCORES HIT AT ORPHEUM; 'NIGHT OUT' TONIGHT

"I'm Flop," as presented by the Keystone Musical Comedy Co. at the Orpheum last night, did not flop but proved to be so far, the most laughable play the company has produced. The company's drawing qualities are certainly excellent, for another rousing big crowd was on hand and the applause and the mirth the clever company received during the action of the play amounted at times to almost an ovation.

Billy House, the Fatty Arbuckle of the stage, furnished the principal comedy. His song number, with the pretty chorus, was excellent and he was obliged to acknowledge several encores before the pleased audience would desert in their applause and allow him to proceed with his lines. Blanche Martin, Bobby Pittsman and Blonny Martin deserve praise for the capable and efficient manner in which they supported Mr. House. Their songs, assisted by the chorus, were well rendered, each one receiving well merited encores.

The company is well supplied with good, classy costumes which certainly enhance the value of their plays. "Tonight Mr. House appears in his own favorite play entitled 'A Night Out.' It was announced from the stage that tonight will be Merchants' gift night. Fifty useful gifts from the merchants of this city will be given away.

ITALIAN LOSS PLACED BY GERMANY AT 150,000 MEN

Berlin, Nov. 3. (By wireless to Sayville, L. I.)—Lack of reserves and ammunition caused the breakdown of the Italian offensive in the Isonzo region after a battle lasting two weeks.

"On the Italian side at least twenty-five infantry divisions and two groups of Alpine troops, totaling 320,000 men, took part in the fighting in this region. The artillery arm consisted of 150 heavy cannon and 1,200 lighter guns.

"On the front in the Tyrol there were engaged at least eleven infantry divisions, that is 170,000 rifles, 100 cannon and 700 other guns.

"On the same front between October 21 and October 29, the Austro-Germans captured sixty-seven officers and 3,200 men. The Italian losses are estimated at 150,000."

MEMBER OF VILLA CABINET RESIGNS AND COMES HERE

Dr. Luis Garza y Cardenas Credits Chieftain With Statement That He Will Die Fighting.

Seeing the end of Villa's power in Mexico was not far off when the United States and other governments recognized Carranza as de facto head of the northern republic, Dr. Luis Garza y Cardenas gave up his office in the Villa cabinet and came to Albuquerque. He arrived here yesterday.

Dr. Cardenas held a portfolio in the Villa cabinet corresponding to that of postmaster general in the United States. Dr. Cardenas told Amado Chavez, his friend here, that he advised Villa to give up in the face of the big odds against him, and that the chieftain said he would die fighting.

JOHN LIND ATTENDS BANQUET TO OBREGON

EL PASO, TEX., Nov. 3.—Cooperation between the United States and the Latin-American republics in the interests of peace and prosperity was predicted by General Alvaro Obregon, commander of the Carranza forces in Mexico, at a banquet given here today in his honor by newspaper men.

General Obregon expressed high regard for the American press as well as for the people of the United States and government officials. Among the guests were John Lind, of Minnesota, formerly President Wilson's personal envoy in Mexico; Consul John R. Sullivan and John W. Belt, special representative of the state department.

ALLEGED WRITTEN AGREEMENT NOT SHOWN

Boston, Nov. 3.—Today's session by the court-martial which is considering charges of neglect and carelessness against Rear Admiral William U. Little, United States navy, retired, in connection with the holding of the submarine K-5, was taken up by consideration of an agreement, said to have been made in writing, between Admiral Little as inspection officer and a representative of the company which installed the batteries in the submarine, that the company would remedy any battery troubles that might develop.

Previous testimony has been that such an agreement existed, but that it was only verbal.

During the afternoon the judge advocate, Lieutenant Commander Alfred M. Johnson, introduced several papers for identification by Captain G. C. McElroy, naval inspector of machinery at the Fore River plant. Captain McElroy said they were all reports on the K-2. The agreement was not among them.

PLEADED GUILTY TO FRAUD CONSPIRACY

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Albert Salomon, of the importing firm of Salomon Brothers, appeared before Federal Judge Hunt today and pleaded guilty to an indictment charging him with conspiring to defraud the government by concealing $50,000 worth of contraband rubber in shipments of cotton and cotton waste destined for Germany. Salomon was fined $500, the court expressing the belief that this in connection with Salomon's loss of citizenship through the state law, was sufficient punishment.

The contraband rubber was discovered by the use of an X-ray as the tales in which it was concealed were about to be loaded on a steamer sailing for Italian ports, sometime before Italy entered the war.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1915

THE SITUATION IN ENGLAND.

The most interesting news from the old world yesterday was of the speeches by Premier Asquith and Sir Edward Carson in the house of commons relative to the British position in the war.

The speech of the premier was that of a shrewd and practical statesman, a dispassionate, who makes the best of a bad cause. Sir Edward Carson, on the contrary, dealt with facts, circumstances, conditions, failures. He explained clearly why he resigned from the cabinet when he found that he could not do nothing but timid, half-action by that commission in the conduct of the war.

The whole discussion was around the policies in the Italian states and the Dardanelles where Great Britain has played an ignominious part from first to last, and still is playing it.

Mr. Asquith pointed with pride to the fact that Sir John French has now, at the end of fifteen months of war, nearly a million men under his command in France. But the British public can not be expected to lose sight of the fact that the French, with a smaller population and no great colonies to draw from, have four million men in the field in France, have nearly as many men as the British on the Gallipoli peninsula and ten times as many as the English are sending the Serbians.

The supreme test is now upon Great Britain. She has muddled most ignominiously, and still is muddling, but she has not yet lost. She has the opportunity to make of the Balkans the grave of German ambitions, failure in this will mean the grave for England of her best hopes.

The Balkans, surrounded by sea power in the hands of Great Britain, are valuable as the route open to the Tentons through Mohammedan Turkey to Mohammedan Persia, India and Egypt.

So far, the British government has fumbled everything. It can not depend upon overworked France to win the war on land. In the Balkans, success is vital to results on all fronts, and if the matter is fumbled, there is in the Dardanelles, the allies stand an excellent chance of losing the war. Certainly they would not dictate peace. If the allies do not dictate peace, the Yentons will be able to make terms with Russia, France and Italy which will insure against their going into future wars merely for the purpose of aiding Great Britain, and it would be but a short time until Germany, with her whole power up, would attack Great Britain, and her route to India and Egypt would be through the Balkans and Turkey.

Reading between the lines of Premier Asquith's speech, it is quite plain to see that the attitude of the British public toward the government is stern, and that the last interval of restraint is being imposed upon it. If there is renewed failure of any kind,
the liberal cabinet will be ousted from power by an explosion of national wrath.

The British people now realize for the first time that the country is near defeat and ruin. It is also true that when things are at their worst in England they begin to mend.

The country could save a great deal of money by listening to Mr.
Hizan and it might lose a thousand times more by taking him too seriously on the preparedness proposition.

TUESDAY'S ELECTIONS.

The result of the elections in a number of eastern states has no less son in it except that the east is strongly opposed to giving votes to women. So far as the showing made by democrats and republicans, it was about as might have been forecast in any normal political contest.

In Massachusetts, where the hottest gubernatorial contest was waged, the chief significance was in the practical disappearance of the bull moosers. The effect of it was shown in increased votes for both the democratic and republican candidates, the largest number going to the republicans. McCall, a particularly strong man, defeated Governor Walsh, democrat, for a third term, by the small margin of 8,000, in a state normally republican by from 20,000 to 30,000.

The democrats, on the other hand, elected a governor in Maryland, normally democratic by 10,000 to 20,000.

Except an increase of democratic normal strength, but not in proportion to the gains by the republicans, from the decline, to extinction, of the progressives, there is no political lesson in the elections. Further than that the results of Tuesday can have no significance for the 1916 campaign unless we draw the conclusion that President Wilson is much stronger than he was with the country a year and a half ago, which is undeniably true.

The New York constitution was badly defeated because it pleased no body except its framers. The makers of it were the best brains of the empire state, but the state did not want anything with too much brains in it.

WHEN ENGLAND IS DANGEROUS

England is never so dangerous a when she feels herself "up against it." Then is time for her opponents to be wary. Today, England is in a getting into a most pessimistic mood.
Events may or may not justify such mood; but the fact remains that England has at last become dangerous to her foes. You may regret that truth in her history. What elation does for other countries depression works for the English. When other nations despair, they thereby are hurt. When England despairs, she ruins, she extends herself. Then there is danger ahead for her foes.

The difference between England and France may be seen in the different methods used by their leaders. The French leaders try to keep the nation in heart, whereas the leaders of England try to plunge their country in gloom. The British newspapers have been urging the government to tell the people the truth.
Lloyd-George, the strongest and the safest of the British leaders, has been telling the truth for the past three months.

John Bull, eating crow, grows formidable, and believing that he has his back to the wall, strikes hard. It may be that the British empire is crumbling. That is a possibility, but it never will do to accept British testimony that she is being defeated.
England, like America, knocked to the earth, renews strength from the conflict, and gets up again.

Field Marshal von Hindenburg gained a great reputation fighting the Russians, and he seems now in a fair way to lose it, as a greater than he lost his reputation in Russia a hundred years ago.

ENEMIES OF NATIVE PROGRESS

Additional news comes to the Journal that certain of the Spanish-American leaders, other than Jose Mon-tano, superintendent of public schools of Taos county, are trying to discourage attendance at Spanish-American teachers at the session of the New Mexico Educational association.

Any success will merely mean so much the worse for the descendants of the Spanish race in New Mexico.
Such leaders have been the real enemies of Spanish-American progress always. They want to control the schools at election time in order to get office for themselves, and the surest way to do it is to keep the voters in ignorance and under their leadership.

There are a number of such men constantly talking to their fellow men of Spanish-American descent of the discrimination against them in the distribution of offices. Their effort is to arouse race prejudice, as it was aroused on the Texas border.

Only a few men, at most, can hold office. They can do nothing which will make the condition of the masses of their race better or more prosperous except as they use their influence to induce the parents to give better education to their children.

Where they could help they hinder.

Villa found Agua Prieta a little harder nut to crack than he imagined, and that the last interval of restraint is being imposed upon it. If there is renewed failure of any kind,
the liberal cabinet will be ousted
from power by an explosion of national
wrath.

PURE BLOOD MAKES HEALTHY PEOPLE

Hoof's Sarsaparilla surely and effectively restores weak, thin and other blood diseases because it drives out of the blood all the humors that cause these diseases. They cannot be successfully treated in any other way.
External applications for their removal have proven almost useless, because they cannot drive out the impurities that are in the blood.
Hoof's Sarsaparilla makes pure rich blood, perfects the digestion, and builds up the whole system. The skin becomes smooth, clean and healthy.
This great blood remedy has stood the test of forty years. In fact, no living Hoof's, for nothing else acts like it.
There is no real substitute. Get it today. Sold by all druggists.

asked for closer co-operation between the parliament and the government.

"Let the war be for national defense," he declared in conclusion.
"Let us drive out the enemy, let us revenge Belgium and Serbia, but let us annex no part of the enemy's territory."

The speaker's final phrase provoked a truly and lively protest and M. Renault left the tribune hoisted by the entire chamber with the exception of the socialists, who applauded.

As soon as a quiet had been restored, Andre Macdon, former under secretary of war, still limping from a serious wound received in the Champagne, arose and amid great applause declared that the soldiers in the trenches had charged M. Renault to speak for them.

Two children burned to death in Gallup fire.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL.) Gallup, N. M., Nov. 3.—A serious fire in a cluster of Mexican shacks in the north end of town yesterday resulted in the death by burning of two small children, three and five years of age. The parents of the children, Mr. and Mrs. Jose Nunez, were out at work, the father at the mines and the mother out doing washing.

The children had been left in the care of grandma Nunez, who lived just next door. The grandmother went out to her own shack, a one-room frame building, and a few moments later saw the house in flames.
From the position of the bodies when found it would appear that the children had become frightened by the fire and ran and hid under the bed instead of trying to get out.

It is not known how the fire originated. When it was discovered the flames were too strong and hot for anyone to enter the room where the children were. The shack in which they lived and several other near were totally consumed by the flames.

NOT A NEW SENSATION.
(Personal Weekly.)

Former President Roosevelt, whose striking speech on the German late-rations have caused much interest in America, lately related the following very amusing story of a dinner the other day.

"A fellow called Smith," he said,
"had a narrow escape from being killed by a lion in Nairobi."

"When the lion closed his jaws on you," asked a friend in westrank tones, "did you give yourself up for lost?"

"Oh, no," answered Smith, calmly.
"You see, when I'm at home I sleep in a folding bed."

Committee of Ten to Go Out This Morning and Canvass Business Men of City on Big Boost Proposition.This week's committee of ten which has charge of the Commercial club activities will be out this morning at 9 o'clock for the purpose of selling tickets for the big "get-together" dinner to be given at the club rooms next Wednesday evening. The committee members will be assisted by Secretary Egan and Publicity Director Wiley. It is hoped to cover the city during the day and dispose of the entire number of tickets printed which is three hundred.A five course dinner has been arranged for the occasion and a number of out of town speakers who will each take but a few minutes in discussing subjects of particular interest to the local business men. Following the speeches, there will be held an informal discussion as to the ways and means of setting about to accomplish some of the work which the club has in mind for the coming winter, as well as the entertainment of the teachers and the entertainers during the two important conventions which the city now has scheduled.Non-members Eligible.
It is not necessary that one be a member of the club to be eligible to attend the dinner. Every man in the city and surrounding country who is interested in the welfare and development of Albuquerque is invited and urged to be present. Every business man in the city is urged to purchase a ticket and use it. This is the first occasion of the kind which the club has held for some time and it is necessary, say the directors, to have a large and enthusiastic turnout in order that the work before the club may be approached with the proper spirit.Following shortly upon the dinner, the club will hold a membership campaign which will be planned for next Wednesday evening. It is the distinction of the club to build the membership up to five hundred or more the present membership. With five hundred paying members on the roll the organization will be in a position to do some effective work for the city.'THE MASTER HAND' WITH NAT GOODWIN
AT CRYSTAL TODAYWorld Film Corporation presents the five-part photoplay, "The Master Hand," based on Carroll Fleming's well-known drama of the same name, with Nat Goodwin in the leading role.
When offered at the regular theaters of the country a few years ago, the drama was received with much applause.Nat Goodwin is the star of the photoplay, which abounds in the most thrilling situations and incidents. It has been an intensely gripping story and plot. It is well cast and acted, and in respect of photography and production is a feature film of outstanding excellence.Nat Goodwin has, in a sense, to be everything by turns and nothing wrong in this play. Plot and passion, peril and perjury—all the sins of the devils appear to be either active or imminent in the story. Mr.
Goodwin (personated by Nat Goodwin) is the agent by which all right is dispelled. Halston, husband of a rich woman whom he dislikes, plots her death so that he can get possession of her money. A poisoning lady doctor, and the over-ambitious keeper of a private sanitarium are his tools.The plotting and counter-plotting that follow are bewildering in their convolutions. Goodwin's is the "master hand" which straightens out all the tangles and brings about a happy conclusion to the drama."The Master Hand" will be at the Crystal Theater at matinee and night times today and tomorrow.Tickets made to order. Free de-

SENATOR GIVEN HELP BY LEAGUEExample of Good Work Accomplished by Organized Charity Furnished in Recent Instance in This City.An example of the service which the Civic Betterment League is frequently called upon to render in the case of first aid to the stranded is the case of a stranger lad who arrived at the league office last night in a state of complete exhaustion and who is now a prisoner of the league temporarily supporting himself as a messenger boy in this city while waiting for the remittance that will take him to his home. The boy showed up at the league office in the city hall two weeks ago, penniless and hungry, and told his story to Secretary Reed.
The secretary, by wire and post, threw out the necessary lines of inquiry and verified the boy's story in every particular. The second exchange of letters brought the promise of funds to take him home. But for the league the boy would have had no alternative but to beg his meals from door to door and find his bed in a box car or the hay mow of a friendly livery stable. It developed in the course of the investigation that the lad is a nephew to a United States senator.The maintenance of a charities office means an open door and friendly service for every stranger in trouble, and the league records tell of a multitude of such cases successfully handled. Friends and relatives who have ignored the direct appeals of the needy wanderer, have in almost every case taken an interest when addressed by a responsible charity office. Such cases cost the community next to nothing, and certainly vindicate the league's plan of work. Such help is real help and for the community a real solution of charity problems.The same method of finding the natural caretakers and compelling them to accept responsibility is frequently applied in local cases, and within the past year Albuquerque has been rid of at least three chronic cases of dependency which have for years been a drain upon the resources of charitable citizens.It is because the Civic Betterment League is prepared to do the charitable work of the city upon an adequate scale and a sensible basis, that it claims the support of all Albuquerque people, realizing the necessity of organized charity, will on November 8 elect the league as its agent for this community service and give it the endorsement and the endorsement which it asks, in the form of a sufficient financial support.Plans for the league's campaign next Tuesday go on apace. The immediate problem is the securing of workers to aid in the campaign. One day's time is all that is asked, and there will be no use for women as well as men.
The league's committee is going after the names, but will welcome volunteers. Phone 33 if you can help.MODERN WOODMEN AND Neighbors will give a social entertainment at their lodge rooms in the Old

START FOR THE WEST
EARLIER THAN USUALThe end of the heavy westbound passenger traffic is not yet. Semi-official notice has been received here that the Santa Fe will begin operating extra sections of the westbound Cal-winter traffic toward the coast has required the running extra "threes" until December. Three extra sections of the limited are said to have been billed for this month and eighteen for December.WANT CITY'S TIN CANS; rid of tin cans. City Clerk Tom month snatched all records in receipts.

The postoffice took in last month more than 50 per cent more money than came through the windows during the same month in 1914.
The note handling explanation of this surprising jump in postoffice business is the growth of the city. Postmaster H. C. Rochi said. No huge order for stamps for a single shipment, such as several hundred catalogues, was made. The increase was spread out over the entire month and hence it could not be attributed to one or several extraordinary shipments.

Rate of Increase Climbing.

The four months of July, August, September and October, of this year, showed an average increase in receipts of about 24 per cent over the corresponding months of 1914. The rate of increase is climbing. This is shown by the fact that the average increase for these four months in 1914 over the corresponding four months in 1913 was only about 10 per cent.The receipts for each of these four months for the last three years were:
July... $5,844.55 $5,849.52 $6,576.54 August... 5,924.78 5,532.45 7,894.56 September... 4,964.28 5,602.68 7,382.33 October... 5,370.24 5,598.22 8,480.87

Tot. $20,834.87 $22,582.92 $30,334.30

THE TEST THAT TELLS

Is the Test of Time? Many Albuquerque People Have Made This Test.Years ago this Albuquerque citizen told in a public statement, the benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills. The statement is now confirmed—the testimony complete. Instances like this are numerous. They doubly prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills. Consult any Albuquerque reader demand more convincing proof? It's Albuquerque testimony—it may be investigated.
Mrs. E. Adair, 325 S. 24th St., Albuquerque, says: "I had pain in my back below my shoulder blades. When I was on my feet or walking around, I didn't feel the trouble but the minute I sat down the pain began. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills brought relief. I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are just as good as they are claimed to be." (Statement given Jan. 21, 1907.)OVER SIX YEARS LATER Mrs.
Adair said: "I use Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally as I find need of them and I always get quick and sure relief."Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't
