On March 5, Guillermo Heredia, general manager of Aerovias de Mexico (Aeromexico), said the company plans to invest US$100 million in infrastructure remodeling and expansion this year. In addition, Aeromexico will acquire nine new aircraft in 1992. Heredia said 1991 was a very bad year for most international air carriers. Company profits last year, he added, were far below the 1990 figure. (Source: El Financiero, 03/06/92).
