CLASH OF ARMS!

Denver Policemen and Deputies Clash.

Officers Watching Fraudulent Votes in St. Louis.

Jones and Hearst Predicting Landslide for Bryan.

PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES VOTED.

Denver, Nov. 6.—A clash between policemen and colored special deputy sheriffs occurred at 7 o'clock this morning, when an attempt was made to open the polls in district H, precinct 4. Twenty-second and Larimer streets. One killed, five wounded and two seriously, was the result. Killed: John G. Branford, colored deputy sheriff, shot through the body. Wounded: Charles P. Carper, policeman, shot in the leg and arm, may die; Hampton Jackson, colored deputy, skull fractured and arm broken, may die; Charles Green, special policeman, shot in the back, serious; Stephen Harvey, colored deputy, shot in the shoulder; Richard Hardeman, colored deputy, shot in the left arm. Fifteen hundred special policemen and about 1,000 deputy sheriffs have been appointed for the day. The police department is controlled by the democrats, while deputy sheriffs, it is claimed, are all republicans. Yesterday the board of county commissioners, controlled by the democrats, disregarding the order of the district court, revoked commissions of deputies, and though the commissioners were arrested for contempt of the fire and police board decided to disregard the authority of deputies and so instructed the officers. Troop C, Colorado cavalry, has been ordered to the polls, and is now under arms at the armory.

The colored deputy sheriff killed was Charles Allen, instead of Branford. Special Policeman Stewart Harvey placed at the hospital this afternoon.

Denver, Nov. 6.—Gov. Thomas denies that he ordered the troops. When asked by whose orders Troop C assembled at the armory he replied: "I know nothing about it."

DEPUTY SHERIFFS APPOINTED

St. Louis, Nov. 6.—A hundred deputy sheriffs appointed by the judges of the circuit court, in general terms, have been distributed among the polling places in precincts, where it is believed there has been fraudulent registration to prevent the casting of votes by those so registered. President Hayes, of the police board, denounced the whole thing as an attempt to intimidate the voters. He declared no interference with the right of any citizen to vote would be permitted.

PREDICTING A LANDSLIDE

Jones and Hearst Claiming Everything for Bryan.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Democratic Chairman Jones said: "I am just as confident as ever Bryan will be elected and there is a landslide on to-day. I expect the result will be known definitely before 9 o'clock to-night."

Chicago, Nov. 6.—W. R. Hearst, president of the National Association of Democratic clubs, says the dispatches he already received from all over the country indicate a landslide for Bryan.

PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES.

McKinley Voted at Canton, Ohio, and Bryan at Lincoln, Neb.

Canton, Ohio, Nov. 6.—President McKinley cast his ballot this morning at the voting place and a crowd had collected to see the president vote. He shook hands with some of the officials, and then stood while questions required by law were asked. The president received dispatches from New York leaders early to-day saying a large vote was polled by 8 o'clock, expressing strong confidence in the result.

BRYAN VOTES.

Lincoln, Nov. 6.—Bryan returned to Lincoln at 10:30 to-day, after spending the night in Omaha. His first act after arriving here was to swear in his voice and cast it.

ELECTION RIOTS.

Negroes in Philadelphia and Wilmington Use Their Revolvers.

Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—Riot broke out in the fourth division of the fourth ward, where Congressman McAleer resides. A number of negroes attempted to vote, and their votes being refused, they drew revolvers and a number of shots were fired. Paddy McElrath, pugilist election judge of the division, said to be an adherent of Congressman McAleer, was badly injured about the head, being struck with a revolver. Three negroes were arrested.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 6.—A riot occurred in the third election district at Wilmington this morning. The officers were nearly half an hour late in opening the polls. A hundred negroes destroyed the election booth, and cut James McHugh and James Dugan, both white. Policeman Sherry was also cut in attempting to restore order.

Brazil, Ind., Nov. 6.—Riot was precipitated in a saloon at Cassville this morning over politics. About fifty men were engaged and over 200 shots were fired. Wallace Graves was instantly killed. Over twenty bullets holes were found in his body. Wm. Huxlin and seven others, Austrians and Italians, were injured.

Fatal Political Quarrel.

Jonesboro, Ill., Nov. 6.—As a result of a quarrel over politics, John Kirby, democrat, was shot and instantly killed by Jack Thornton, republican, at Lock Creek. Both were young men of prominent families.

Kruger on Board.

Basle, Switzerland, Nov. 6.—The Dutch cruiser Goldendard, with ex-President Kruger on board, arrived here. She has been directed to await instructions from The Hague at Port Said with regard to Kruger's landing in Europe.

Soldiers Killed in the Philippines.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Gen. McArthur cables from Manila to-day that Second Lieutenant Wm. D. Pasco and Private Lem Meadows and Addison Enix, of Co. K, Nineteenth infantry, were killed October 29th near Culo. Lieutenant Pasco was a son of ex-Senator Samuel Pasco of Florida. Gen. MacArthur also reports the death of Stanley M. Stuart, assistant surgeon of the Eleventh volunteer cavalry at Santa Cruz, on the island of Luzon, of a sword wound, he having been thrown from a horse.

ELECTION DAY!

Ideal Autumn Weather Reported.

Phenomenally Heavy Vote Will Be Polled.

President of National Republican League Confident of Success.

RIOTOUS NEGROES IN THE EAST.

Washington, Nov. 6.—(Special Weather forecast)—It is seldom any day passes without a drop of rain fall anywhere within the area of the United States. Such is the remarkable condition this morning. With the exception of cloudiness over southern Wisconsin, northern Illinois and eastern Iowa, the sky is clear with pleasant temperatures everywhere.

NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 6.—Election day in Greater New York dawned into an ideal autumn morning. Phenomenally heavy vote is assured. The election machinery began moving in five boroughs promptly at 6 o'clock. As many as fifty men were in line at many places when the election officers arrived.

Chief Devery said: "Opening the polls has been without disorder. There will be no trouble during the day if this department can help it. There will be reserves handy to dispatch to the scene of an outbreak. I have nothing to say about McCullough and his indictment. Police plans stand as first formulated."

Polls will remain open until 5 p. m. Within the limits of Greater New York there are 1,522 voting precincts and 68,222 registered voters. Under normal conditions about 94 per cent vote is generally cast presidential year. The first returns of New York City may be expected about 5 o'clock to-night. Dispatches from various points in New York state received by the Associated Press to 11 o'clock show prevalence of weather conditions most favorable to the polling of a large vote. Local storms in the southwestern part of the state last night made the roads bad thereabouts, but in general result this will be scarcely appreciable. In some Albany election districts nearly half of the registered voters deposited their ballots by 10 o'clock. In Buffalo also early voting was heavy.

Leaders had not changed their estimates in any important particular over night, save that in Kings county both sides are making claims of at least 55 per cent. Instead of 10,000, for both McKinley and Bryan.

New York, Nov. 6.—There were a number of arrests during the morning, but many were due to mistakes of police numbers. A few unscrupulous foreigners who attempted to vote were arrested.

CONNECTICUT.

New Haven, Nov. 6.—Election morning in Connecticut opened with weather conditions generally favorable to the polling of a large vote.

New Haven, Nov. 6.—At noon the republican vote was estimated at 50 per cent. Democrats conceded a McKinley triumph in Connecticut, but claim democratic victory on the state candidates.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, Nov. 6.—Weather is fair and indications are that a heavy vote will be cast in this state. Many voted before breakfast.

UTAH.

Salt Lake, Nov. 6.—Clear weather prevailed throughout Utah to-day. The polls opened at 7 a. m. Indications are for the heaviest vote in the history of Utah.

NEBRASKA.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 6.—The weather throughout Nebraska to-day could not be improved upon, being far above the average November temperature, with skies clear throughout the state. In Omaha early voting was unusually heavy.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—The anti-Quay element is making an unusual effort to elect enough senators to control and organize the senate along with the democrats.

NEW JERSEY.

Newark, Nov. 6.—Democrats claim that Bryan is making heavy inroads upon McKinley's plurality of 186.

Princeton, Nov. 6.—Former President Grover Cleveland has voted here.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 6.—Weather throughout South Dakota is clear. The vote here will be the largest in the history of the city.

COLORADO.

Denver, Nov. 6.—Thronging was gathered at the polling places of this city when the polls opened at 7 a. m. The vote will be the heaviest in the history of the city.

of the state. Trouble is likely, as over 200 republicans have been appointed deputy sheriffs, and 1,500 special policemen have been appointed and instructed to arrest any deputy interfering with voters.

MISSOURI.

St. Louis, Nov. 6.—Clear, cold weather is bringing out a large vote throughout the state, especially in this city, where the registration is the heaviest on record.

OHIO.

Cleveland, Nov. 6.—Election day opened clear and cold. Voting during the early hours was unusually heavy.

Columbus, Nov. 6.—Election day opened clear and all indications are for a tremendous poll.

Cincinnati, Nov. 6.—Weather superb. Voting proceeding rapidly.

KANSAS.

Topeka, Nov. 6.—Election day dawned pleasant throughout the state, and every indication points to a heavy vote.

TOPEKA, Nov. 6.—At 11 o'clock voting was proceeding in an orderly way. The weather continues fine and voting heavy.

MARYLAND.

Baltimore, Nov. 6.—No more perfect day has ever dawned in Maryland. In Baltimore a heavy vote was polled early.

INDIANA.

Indianapolis, Nov. 6.—Early reports from the state show perfect election weather. The early vote is uniformly heavy.

Indianapolis, Nov. 6.—At noon dispatches from all over the state show that the vote is unusually heavy. The managers on both sides are claiming a sweeping victory for their respective parties.

NORTH DAKOTA.

Fargo, Nov. 6.—The weather is perfect and a large vote will be polled. It is likely a full estimated vote of 58,000 will be cast in the state.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Concord, Nov. 6.—Perfect weather is expected to bring out the largest vote since 1892. This is taken to mean proportionately increased republican plurality for president, governor and congressmen.

TEXAS.

Dallas, Nov. 6.—Perfect weather prevails. Probably three-fourths of the vote in the state will be polled. Irrigation amendment to the constitution will have little opposition.

DELAWARE.

Wilmington, Nov. 6.—The weather is perfect with every indication of a heavy vote.

ILLINOIS.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—An hour after the polls opened it was estimated that 30 per cent of the registered vote of 401,717 had been cast. The weather is good. The vote did not come out as rapidly as it did four years ago.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Early votes from throughout the state to-day showed generally favorable weather prevailed, and a heavy vote is being polled. At both republican and democratic state headquarters, confidence was expressed that the anti-election figures would be realized.

MONTANA.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 6.—More interest undoubtedly will be taken in the election to-day than any previous one in Helena.

IDAHO.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 6.—Beautiful weather prevails in Idaho and an enormous vote is being polled.

WISCONSIN.

Milwaukee, Nov. 6.—The weather is partly cloudy and warmer. A very large vote is being polled early, mainly being cast mostly by factory hands.

WASHINGTON.

Spokane, Nov. 6.—Weather cloudy, but will probably clear up. The vote of this city is expected to be 50 per cent larger than ever before. It is conceded Gov. Rogers will run ahead on the democratic ticket and even money is offered on his election. Odds varying from 5 to 1 up to 10 to 1 are given that McKinley carries the state. Seattle, Wash., Nov. 6.—Great interest is being manifested in the election in western Washington. In Seattle the excitement is fever heat.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Boston, Nov. 6.—Vote in Ayon: For Bryan 186, McKinley 174. For governor—Crane, republican, 175; Paine, democrat, 126. The vote of this town four years ago: Bryan, 119; McKinley, 127.

The vote in Acushnet: Bryan, 16; McKinley, 117.

Special election returns received by Boston Globe from seventeen precincts out of 181 in Boston, indicate a plurality for Bryan in Boston of 8,000.

KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Nov. 6.—Weather is cool and clear, just the kind calculated to bring out an immense vote. There was a long line of voters at every precinct when the polls opened. Indications are a majority of the ballots will be cast before noon.

Louisville, Nov. 6.—The republicans at Mount Sterling charged theft of ballots early this morning in doubtful precincts. It was also charged by republicans that the democrats at Cynthiana changed election officers without due notice.

NEVADA.

Reno, Nov. 6.—All indications point to a big vote. Democrats are still confident of carrying the state, but concede the majority for Bryan and Newlands will be less than last election.

MICHIGAN.

Detroit, Nov. 6.—Clear weather brought the voters to the polls early. In some precincts almost half of the vote was cast before 9 o'clock.

Detroit, Nov. 6.—Reports from the state say a heavy vote is being polled. The length of time being spent in booths would indicate considerable cheering. The voting machines are being successfully used at Jackson, where the vote is unusually large.

REPUBLICAN PREDICTIONS.

Heavy Vote in New York—Republican League President Confident of Success.

New York, Nov. 6.—National Committee Manley at republican headquarters to-day said he had received information from many election districts in New York that the vote before 9 o'clock was the heaviest ever polled.

General Francis V. Greene, in charge of the county committee republican national headquarters, said he had reliable information that at 9:50 a. m. 50 per cent of the vote had been cast in what is generally known as the Brownstone districts.

CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Isaac Miller Hamilton, president of the National Republican league, said: "I am confident—more confident than ever before—that the republican national ticket will be elected to-day. The strong early vote all over the country is indicative of our success."

THE ELECTION HERE.

Big Vote Will Be Cast—Everything Passing Off Quietly.

Ideal weather has prevailed here all day and the voting has been very steady. The predictions are that a larger vote than usual will be polled in precincts 12 and 16.

The saloons have been closed all day and there has been no disorderly conduct, or rowdiness at the polls or upon the streets, and up to the hour of going to press everything has been harmonious.

Up to 4 o'clock the following number of votes have been cast: Precinct 25, 500; precinct 12, 571.

It is estimated that there will be 600 votes cast in precinct 26, and probably not more than 800 in precinct 12.

The returns will be received at various points throughout the city, and at the opera house where an interesting program will be rendered between the returns.

Men who bet on elections have no better means of forecasting the result than other people. Many bets which are announced are, in fact, never made, the stories being started purely for political effect. This is especially apt to be the case with the very large bets.

Nevada is the only state that is decreasing in population. After its increase to 240,000 in 1890 its population increased, and in 1890 had reached the proud total of 224,000. Since then there has been a varying but persistent decline, the census of 1890 showing a population of 247,000 and the figures of the present census giving a population of only 224,000. Thus, within the twenty years since 1890 the state has diminished in population 23,000, or at the average rate of 1,000 a year.

The motto of the convention will be "Save the Forests and Store the Floods." The president of the congress is former United States Senator Carey of Wyoming.

In the heat of American political campaigns there is often reason to regret the abuse of free speech and unlicensed printing, but for those who most deplore the license that is indulged in there should be a useful corrective. CENSUS FIGURES.
Illinois gained almost a million people within the past ten years.
Both Iowa and Kentucky got into the two million class by the recent census. Missouri and Texas have passed the three million mark in the matter of population.

Idaho has just about doubled the number of people within her borders since 1890.

Georgia comes to the front with over two million people, and a gain of 278,976 over the population of 1890.

New York leads the list of states in the matter of population with 7,268,092.

DIED FROM SKUNK BITE.

Terrible End of an Arizona Cowboy in El Paso.

BITTEN THREE MONTHS AGO.

One of the most horrible deaths is that which results from hydrophobia, and the poison of a rattlesnake is considered extremely mild when compared with that which results from the bite of a rabid animal, says the El Paso Herald.

When the blood of a human being becomes inoculated with the virus of hydrophobia, the result is a horrible death. Convulsion follows convulsion in rapid succession and the stricken person struggles with the superhuman strength of a maniac until death ends which is beyond the power of the best medical skill to afford.

A death directly due to hydrophobia occurred in this city Sunday morning. The victim was inoculated with the virus of a mad skunk three months ago on the sandy deserts of Arizona.

Five miles from Wilcox, and experienced no serious results until three days ago, when he was stricken down with convulsions, which continued at irregular intervals until the end came.

The unfortunate man's name was Elias Carson. He was a cowboy on one of the ranches near Wilcox.

One night during the latter part of August Carson was wrapped in his blanket, was sleeping in the open on the range. About midnight he was awakened by the movement of some animal that had sought refuge in his bed.

He sprang up and shook out his blanket to discover that a snarling skunk with froth dripping from its mouth was within a few inches of his face. He slipped at the animal with his hand and the vicious beast buried its fangs in one of his fingers. The cowboy shook him off but before he could draw his six-shooter the skunk had fled.

Carson did not consider the wound serious and, as it soon healed up, he thought nothing more about it, until three days ago when he was stricken down with a convulsion very similar to an epileptic fit. He at once consulted physicians of Wilcox and after relating to them the story of his encounter with the skunk they decided that he had been bitten by an animal affected with the rabies, and that his symptoms were unmistakably those of hydrophobia.

They decided that the patient had best come to El Paso and secure the services of physicians of this city. Carson reached here last night, accompanied by his friend, John M. Boyd and Dr. Atton of Wilcox. He was at once taken to the Hotel El Paso and Dr. Vines and Gallagher called for consultation. Everything possible was done for the patient, but to stay the progress of his malady baffled the skill of the attending physicians. His condition succeeded convulsion all during Saturday night at intervals of a few hours and at 9 o'clock death came to relieve the unfortunate man from further torture.

Deceased was from Blanco City, Texas, where his parents now reside. He was 30 years of age.

The victim of the unfortunate man was shipped last night to New Braunfels, Texas.

Mrs. G. E. Ayer, accompanied by her mother and children, left this morning for Wellington, Kan., to join her husband, whose headquarters are in that place. Mrs. Ayer was recently appointed division superintendent of the Panhandle division of the Santa Fe railway. The many friends of this pleasant family regret very much to see them leave the city.

HAPPY CONFERENCE.

Will Be Held in Los Cruces During This Month.

A very notable meeting will be held in this town Nov. 16th and 17th, when a conference of Baptist workers will be held in the Baptist church. New Mexico now has ten organized Baptist churches, and each of these churches will send their pastor and several delegates to meet with the Los Cruces church to organize a territorial convention. This convention will be legislative but advisory, as under the government of Baptist churches the individual church is sovereign. The object of the convention will be to advance the cause of Christ in New Mexico; to supply destitute places with preaching; to encourage the more general diffusion and reading of the sacred scriptures; and to exchange ideas, to track, and to promote a fraternal intercourse among the churches.

The Corralito Smelter Transferred to Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co.

Atanacio Romero at Santa Fe yesterday recorded a deed of the Magdalena Mining and Smelting company of Michigan, to the Consolidated Mining and Smelting company of West Virginia, of the smelter property at Corralito.

The consideration is not stated, but can be calculated from the fact that $125,000 worth of revenue stamps were placed on the document.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. RUSSIAN REPLY.

To the Anglo-Saxon Chinese Agreement Note.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 6.—The text of the Russian reply to the Anglo-German agreement note is published. The first point, providing for open ports on rivers of Chinese littoral, is favorably received, as it does not alter the existing situation. The second point is a motion in harmony with Russian intention as the integrity of the colonial empire is the fundamental principle of Russian policy. As regards the possibility of the violation of this principle, the third article, Russia refers to her note of May 28th, and repeats her declaration that such violation would compel Russia to modify, as circumstances might require the attitude she has taken.

KILLED HIS WIFE!

Rich Man of Chicago Shoots His Wife.

Was Giving Her Lessons When Tragedy Happened.

Cattle Thief Fatally Shot by a Phoenix Woman.

RANCHMAN HALL KILLED.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—By the accidental discharge of a revolver last night, Clarence Harkley Beardsley, a man of wealth, killed his wife, Madge Bowker Beardsley. He was to lay aside duties (temporarily as manager of the liability department of the Travelers' insurance company, and go to Oregon to superintend operations in a gold mine in which he was interested. Mrs. Beardsley was to remain here during her husband's absence. She wanted a revolver. He bought one and started to give her a lesson in its use, which ended in the tragedy.

A PHOENIX TRAGEDY.

A Woman Empties Contents of a Shotgun Into a Cattle Thief.
 Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 6.—Mrs. Lena Pearson heard a noise in a calf corral in the rear of her house. Taking a shot gun she went to investigate and saw a man trying to steal a calf. She fired both barrels into his body, killing him instantly. He proved to be Ventura Facos.

RANCHMAN HALL KILLED.

"Red" Seelye Shoots His Enemy—No Surprise in El Paso.

Special to The Citizen.
 El Paso, Tex., Nov. 6.—Word reached here that R. L. Hall, the wealthiest and most prominent ranchman of El Paso county, was shot and killed by Payette Seelye, alias "Red" Seelye, a cowboy. Not only was Hall killed, but his ranch foreman, Hal Harrington, was shot through the body and perhaps fatally wounded. Hall and Seelye were sworn enemies, and the killing created no surprise here, when the news was received that Hall had been shot and killed by Seelye. Hall recently received a cash offer of $100,000 for his ranch, which he refused. He carried insurance on his life to amount to $20,000.

Come one and all and hear the election returns which will be received at Zeigler's Cafe to-night beginning at 5 o'clock.

To the public—You are cordially invited to call at our store and taste the new breakfast food, Yucco. Will have the Yucco on trial all day Thursday and Friday.

If you are interested in the election returns go to Zeigler's Cafe to-night, when the returns will be received over special wire.

Have you seen the new fall dress goods R. L. Hall & Co. are showing this season? They are really the prettiest in the city and the prices are very cheap.

A Fable of the Elks.

It appears that one idle day, the frog, the duck, the lamb and the skunk started forth together to visit the Elks burlesque circus. Just what sort of a show it was they did not know, anyway it was something this queerly assorted quartet wished to attend. They hopped and waddled and gambled and trotted to the big, canvas enclosure with delightful throbs of anticipation. Finally they reached the door tender. The frog had a greenback and he passed it right in; the duck had a bill and he followed the frog; the lamb had four quarters, and he followed the frog, the duck and the lamb; but the unfortunate skunk was left outside; he had only a scent and that was bad. The door tender told him that the Elks circus was a dollar show and worth ten times the money, naturally he turned away feeling pretty blue. As he was slowly going over the hill he met a hoop snake rolling along at a lively rate toward the show; the skunk greeted him, but the snake did not stop. "Don't interrupt me," he cried over his shoulder, "I've got to do a turn, and I'm a little late," and rolled along. At the top of the hill the skunk noticed another old friend of his approaching; it was the sardine. "What is the matter with you?" said he to the skunk. The skunk told him. "I can guess how you feel about it," said the sardine cynically. "I belong to the snail family myself, but say old fellow, you come go right back with me; I've got
