THE DAY BEFORE!

Good Weather in Sections To-Morrow.

Both Parties Claim Election of President.

Various Predictions and Figuring on Several Close States.

CLOSING OF GREAT CAMPAIGN.

Washington, Nov. 5.—(Special weather forecast for Tuesday)—Fine weather conditions last night have changed but little. On the Pacific coast, in all the Rocky mountain states, Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, Michigan, Tennessee, East Gulf and South Atlantic states, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, the weather is certain to be unusually fine with clear skies and pleasant temperatures. In New York the weather is clear, except cloudiness on the lakes, where light showers occurred last night. There is a possibility of light and unimportant showers in the northern part of the state to-night, but north winds are now setting in and the weather is almost certain to be fair and pleasant Tuesday. In New England, there is considerable cloudiness under influence of area of low pressure, which is drifting eastward. Fair weather will prevail, except light rains in Maine, northern New Hampshire and Vermont to-night and may continue during a portion of the day Tuesday.

Chief United States Weather Bureau
ILLINOIS.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Both the democrats and republicans claim a majority for the national and state tickets in Illinois. The largest vote ever cast in the state is looked for.

INDIANA.

Indianapolis, Nov. 5.—The indications are that a heavy vote will be cast in Indiana. The republicans claim the state by 30,000; the democrats declare they have the state won, but will not give estimates.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, Nov. 5.—Chairman Stone, of the republican committee, declares that California will give McKinley a full republican delegation to congress. Chairman Sims, of the democratic committee, declares that Bryan will have 15,000 plurality and not less than four of the seven congressmen will be democrats.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 5.—The indications point to a heavy vote to-morrow. Chairman Miller has every assurance that Bryan will carry the state. Chairman Dawson expresses himself equally hopeful that the state will go for McKinley. Local county troubles may give the legislature to the democrats, defeating Senator Ekins for a second term.

WISCONSIN.

Milwaukee, Nov. 5.—General Bryant, state chairman of the republican committee, to-day estimated the republicans will carry the state by 100,000 to 120,000 plurality. Secretary C. J. Noel, of the democratic committee, said he believes the state will go democratically by from 15,000 to 20,000.

MINNESOTA.

St. Paul, Nov. 5.—The republicans claim the state for McKinley by a large majority. The democrats only claim a close vote on the president.

NEBRASKA.

Omaha, Nov. 5.—With the special journey by Bryan through the heart of the state ending at Omaha to-night and a republican parade and barbecue at Omaha to-night, the campaign will be closed. Chairman Lindsay, republican, claims that the republicans will carry Nebraska by 5,000 to 7,000; elect four congressmen surely, and gain a majority of fifteen in the legislature. Chairman man Hall, democrat, claims that fusion will win at the very least by 15,000, elect five out of six congressmen, and have a good majority in the legislature.

NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 5.—The democrats have not given out the results of their canvass by counties and assembly districts, but it is understood they hope to carry New York state by 20,000 to 30,000 plurality. The republican leaders claim the state by not less than 100,000.

NEVADA.

Reno, Nov. 5.—Republican National Committee Chairman Flanagan thinks the state will give McKinley a small majority, and Harrison, for congress, about the same majority, ranging from 800 to 1,000. Democrats say Bryan will carry the state by 1,000 and Nevada for congress about the same majority.

DELAWARE.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 5.—The day before election finds both parties confident in their claims for Delaware. The democrats are almost certain to carry the legislature, but the republicans for congress about the same majority.

NEW JERSEY.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 5.—At republican state headquarters in this city it is the utmost confidence that McKinley will carry New Jersey by 20,000 to 40,000 plurality.

WASHINGTON.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 5.—There will be a very large vote in this state to-morrow. Flowers, fusion, will probably be elected governor, but the republicans have a good chance of winning the electoral vote.

IDaho.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 5.—If there is fine weather to-morrow, the vote of Idaho will be increased from 20,000 in 1896 to about 50,000. The democrats claim 6,000 majority and the republicans from 5,000 to 4,000.

Progressing Satisfactorily.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Minister Coughlin's last address to the state department indicates that satisfactory progress is being made by the ministerial corps at Pekin, toward arrangement of a base upon which negotiations shall be had with the Chinese government for final settlement.

MAY LOSE HIM.

Bigmaster Paxton's Renewal Is Spreading to the East.

The following letter, received yesterday, is self-explanatory:

In Winter Quarters, Baraboo, Wis., Nov. 3, 1900.

Prof. J. H. Paxton, Esq., Ring Master of Elks' Circus and Movable Menagerie.

Dear Sir—It has been our good fortune to note in the daily press the marvelous record you have been making with the Baraboo Circus, you having assumed control of it when you were an unknown quantity in the amusement world, and, by your graceful bearing and masterful adaptability in the handling of hippodromic affairs, have brought it to its present position of delight and excellence and renown. We have also noted the reports of the delightful degree of delicate detail with which you gauge the lion's mouth before thrusting your head therein; and of the sweeping, swerving, evading eye with which you keep tabs on the box office and at the same time conduct the evolutions of the ring; and that the performing dogs and trained horses have been brought to their present degree of almost human intelligence by your exquisite handling of the whip and the soft cadence of your persuasive voice, as to us but added indications of your ability as a ring master. This being the case, it is my pleasure to offer you the position of grand ring master to the Whooping Bros., the oldest show on earth; and will further add if you can bring with you the Elks' menagerie, we shall be pleased to incorporate the same in our undertaking and bill it in large type for next season and for all future dates. We can assure you we will not allow any question of emoluments to interfere with our immediate acceptance of your proposition.

Trusting the foregoing will meet with your approval and that we may soon be able to place the guiding whip of our circus destinies in your hands, we faithfully subscribe ourselves, Very truly yours,

WHOOPING CONSOLIDATED CIRCUS AND UNITED MENAGERIES.

IN NEW YORK!

Chief of Police Devery Has Been Indicted.

Interfering With Superintendent of Elections.

Rebellion by Chinese Reformers Premature and Dying Out.

CANADIAN CAPTAIN KILLED.

New York, Nov. 5.—It is reported that Chief of Police Devery has been indicted for alleged interference with the superintendent of elections John McGuffin.

At 2:30 o'clock he hurried from police headquarters, exclaiming: "They're crazy, they're crazy. McGuffin has had me indicted for interfering with him in election business."

The difference between Chief of Police Devery and State Superintendent of Elections McGuffin, are due to a dispute as to the right of a challenged man to swear in his vote if a state deputy wishes to arrest him. Devery claims that neither a state deputy nor a city policeman has the right to make an arrest until after a vote has been cast.

McGuffin holds it is the purpose of the law to prevent the casting of illegal ballots, and the arrest should be made even without a warrant before the challenged man votes.

Chief Devery said he would issue instructions to policemen to take the advice of boards of inspectors for whom there were warrants. If the board thought a man should be allowed to vote the policeman should permit him to do so, and arrest him. If the board decided the vote should not be cast the policeman should make arrest before casting the ballot.

Chief Devery was released on $1,000 bail.

Assistant District Attorney O'Reilly said: "The indictment does not charge an overt act and without commission of an overt act there could be no interference. The indictment will not hold water."

REBELLION DYING OUT.

Chinese Reformers Admit That Rising Was Premature.

Hong Kong, Nov. 5.—It is considered probable that the rebellion will shortly die out. Reformers admit that this rising was premature, and they had not a sufficient supply of arms. As the French demand the execution of the leaders of the Shue Lung riots, placards have been posted throughout the town urging the people to slaughter foreigners if the demands are pressed.

A Captain Killed.

London, Nov. 5.—Lord Roberts telegraphed from Johannesburg that in his operations in Belfast district on November 2, Capt. Chambers, of the Canadian mounted rifles, was killed and Major Saunders, of the same command, wounded.

Arizona Ballot Box.

The ballot box for Bellemont precinct was left in charge of a proper person in the last election, who stored it in a proper place or supposed he did. Now the ballot boxes used in Coconino county are made of steel and are handsome and to see. A Mexican woman saw the box and was looking at it. She concluded that it would be just the thing to store her money in. She appropriated it and had it shipped to Flagstaff. She intended going to New Mexico on a visit. The ballot box or trunk, it had become known under its new ownership, was taken to the depot where L. L. Burns, thinking it a little too early to be sending out election paraphernalia, made inquiry about it. He notified the county officials, who summoned possession of it, much to the inconvenience of the fair senator, who was proud of her handsome and convenient trunk.—Coconino Sun.

CRUSHED IN A MINE.

A Cave-In at the Homestake Results Fatal.

As a result of injuries sustained at the Homestake mine last Friday Chas. Peterson died in Needles Monday morning. The accident occurred in the afternoon, while Peterson and other miners were working in a stope. It is stated that the stope was not properly timbered, but however true this may be, the hanging wall fell and buried Peterson under the debris, while his companions escaped injury.

The injured man was brought to Needles Saturday morning and Dr. Booth summoned. An examination followed and it was found that one of the miner's legs was broken in two places between the ankle and knee and again above the knee. His back was also broken, which rendered the lower portion of his body in a paralyzed condition, and internal injuries were also evident. Dr. Booth was called to assist Dr. Booth, and the physicians reduced the fractured limb and rendered every possible relief to the sufferer. The extent and condition of his injuries were such that it was beyond human power to save his life and he died Monday morning, as above stated.

Mr. Peterson was a Swede, 28 years old, and had been in this country about eight years. He was at one time in the employ of Mr. Jeff Lane of Kingman, in his mines near Mojave, Cal., and later had been a partner with Mr. Lane in the ownership of mining property near Kingman. Mr. Lane came up from Kingman Saturday night in response to Mr. Peterson's request to assist with the injured man up to the time of his death.

Peterson was a sober, industrious man and well liked by all who knew him. He was a brother employed in the Illinois Central railroad shops at Chicago, who was notified by wire of the accident, but as no reply was received the remains were buried here—Bryn.

Politics in Gallup.

Gallup, Nov. 5.—The independent party provided a show for Sunday night. It is declared that the Chicago board of trade market quotations are public interest and must be distributed with discrimination. The decision was rendered in the case of the Chicago board of trade vs. the Central Grain and Stock exchange, the board having asked the court to dissolve temporary injunction restraining it from withholding its quotations from defendant, alleging said defendant to be a bucket shop. In ruling against the board Judge Vall made the injunction perpetual. Sixty days are allowed the attorneys for the board to prepare the bill of exceptions to be carried before the appellate court. In the strict sense of the term the court finds the Central Grain and Stock exchange is not a bucket shop. Under the decision the board must furnish quotations to any interest asking for them, assuming that they are to be legally used. Should the court find a concern receiving board quotations to be a bucket shop, the board may then under the Illinois statutes, withhold the quotations.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Senator Hanna made his last speech of the campaign at noon to-day, and addressed several thousand railway employees and steel workers in South Chicago. Accompanying him was Richard Yates, the republican candidate for governor. At 1:30 Hanna leaves for Cleveland.

BRYAN IN NEBRASKA.

He Will End His Campaign in Omaha To-Night.

Hastings, Neb., Nov. 5.—It was yet half an hour to dawn when the democratic presidential candidate began the last day of his campaign. He commenced his first speech to-day before sunrise. The itinerary embraced Exeter, Fairmont, Harvard, Minden, Holdrege, Wilcox, Blue Hill, Hastings, Aurora, York and Seward, with a return to Lincoln and a speech there at 6 o'clock, then a dash to Omaha with seven or eight speeches there to-night.

Roosevelt at Oyster Bay.

New York, Nov. 5.—Governor Roosevelt remained at his home in Oyster Bay to-day. He said he was in good health and was confident of republican victory to-morrow. The governor will make his last speech in Oyster Bay this evening.

The flag flies from the homes of the millions; even from our places of worship, from our schoolhouses, from the shops and the factories, from the mining towns; and it waves from the camp of the pioneer on the distant outpost, and on the lumberman's hut in the dense forest. It is found in the home of the humblest laborer and what it represents is dear to his heart. It does this by strengthening the digestion, good health depends solely upon the proper performance of this important function. Weakness here results in constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia or biliousness. See that our private revenue stamp covers the neck of the bottle.

Give your vote to Rodey. He is for Albuquerque, and can get a military post located here.

The emblem of the republican party in this county is the flag, surrounded by a square border.

Kansas will return itself to-morrow by giving over 25,000 majority for McKinley and Roosevelt.

There will be about 4,500 votes cast in this county to-morrow, and Rodey will get 4,500 of them.

Mr. Rodey will close his splendid campaign in this territory by an address to the people of this city this evening.

The probable collapse of the Indian exodus movement is reported. Two of its chief projectors recently died in Mexico, and their companions found that the Mexicans were not so unselfishly hospitable as they had supposed.

In spite of the friction and misanthropic attitude of the life of the Territorial in the United States it is altogether likely that they recognize the fact that after all, Uncle Sam is a better friend to them than is the government of Mexico.

The Santa Fe Capital kindly says: "Hon. Thomas Hughes, the republican nominee for territorial governor, who will be elected by a handsome majority next Tuesday, is a hard worker in the halls of a legislative body. He has many friends in Santa Fe from whom he will receive a hearty welcome during the sessions next winter."

The republicans can repudiate the bonded debt of this city and county, voted by the first democratic administration in this city, but they can by economy reduce other expenses, and reduce the rate of interest on the bonded debt.

When Mr. Ferguson was a candidate for congress two years ago, 250 republicans of this city voted for him. Town pride and local interests caused them to endorse Mr. Ferguson. The democrats of this city certainly cannot expect any help from Mr. Larralde. He could not, and would not, if he could, do anything for Albuquerque.

E. A. Miera, the nominee for commissioner from the first district, is a good friend of Albuquerque. He is one of the leading merchants of the county, and spends over $50,000 a year in this city purchasing goods for his stores, and in every way in his power has helped build up the trade of our merchants.

Mr. Burkhardt's latest circular is more moderate in tone, and was evidently not written by the chairman of the county democratic central committee. It is a rebuke of the first circular against Sheriff Hubbell and its only feature is an attempt to explain why Frank McKee retired from the committee.

As was generally expected, the count of the country's population reveals a much smaller rate of increase in the past ten years than was scored in the decade ending with 1890. The present population is 76,236,229, of which 74,627,907 is in the states.

Every nominee on the republican ticket is working for the success of the whole ticket from top to bottom. The democratic-fusion candidates are selling each other out, and trading everybody off to help Larralde.

The immense volume of business in all classes of merchandise means an incredible amount of skilled labor which has been well paid, and skilled labor will not vote to check that volume of business.

The chief item in the preparation of goods for export is the money paid for the labor which produced them. A check to these exportations will check the demand for labor and depress wages.

The straight republican ticket will carry majorities in nearly every precinct in this county, with the exception of Bernalillo, where Pedro Perea claims to carry the voters in his vest pocket.

The public spirited and enterprising Young People's Union of this city has engaged the opera house to-morrow evening and will receive the election returns there.

Mr. Bryan is not entirely without luck. After this campaign he can with much more modesty hope to go into vaudeville. A fortune awaits him in either line.

The theory that "the constitution follows the flag" was born in slavery, and originated with John C. Calhoun, who voted to force slavery into the free states.

If by a sad mirage Bryan should be elected, Gen. Coxey would be able to reorganize his army of idle men to march to Washington.

The tidal wave of sound judgment, patriotism and business sense is running strong in the direction of republican triumph.

Bryan with his broom of pessimism strives in vain to drive back the waves of progress from the shores of prosperity.

The fusion ticket has fallen all to pieces and the democrats on the ticket are left to scramble for themselves.

It is confidently predicted that Colorado will give a republican majority to-morrow.

A vote for the republican ticket to-morrow is a vote for progress in New Mexico.

The republicans pledge their ticket to protect the public schools of this city.

Every man on the republican ticket will have a majority in this city.

Watch closely and frustrate any attempt at fraud on the ballot.

The union labor vote of this city will be heard from to-morrow.

Larralde will suffer a worse defeat than Mr. Ferguson.

This town will give Sheriff Hubbell about 500 majority.

Vote the straight republican ticket. Rodey is sure of 2,000 majority.

Liberty's Lightning Rods. The statue of Liberty in New York harbor was recently struck by lightning and emerged unharmed. One bolt struck the upraised arm and another hit it on the forehead. The statue is protected by the finest system of lightning rods ever made. The best protector in the world is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It will cleanse the system, invigorate the nerves and enrich the blood. It does this by strengthening the digestion. Good health depends solely upon the proper performance of this important function. Weakness here results in constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia or biliousness. The "Fellow Servants" Law.

The methods of the legal democracy in this campaign have been extremely disreputable and dishonest from the first, but the most dishonorable position of their work has been the persistent effort to injure Mr. Rodey by falsifying his record, and attempting to make it appear that he has been opposed to legislation in the line of protecting the rights of railway operatives and other mechanics and laboring men, while the record shows that he has been the leading spirit in all movements of this kind in our territory, and that he has done more work in favor of legislation for the protection of the rights of the working people than any other man in New Mexico.

The first dishonorable effort of the sort referred to was the attempt made at Las Vegas to prejudice the railway men against Mr. Rodey by circulating a story to the effect that when a member of the legislature, he had opposed the bill to prohibit black-listing.

But this was such a dirty job that no one could be found willing to father it and it was sent to the public anonymously. It only required a reference to the journals of the legislature to show the infamous character of this falsehood, because the official records testify that so far from being opposed to this bill, Mr. Rodey was the author of it, and worked earnestly and untiringly for its passage. He carried it through one house of the legislature, and would have carried it through the other, had the measure not been smothered in committee by Mr. Pedro Perea, who is the head and front of the present conglomeration movement in this country.

This blacklisting lie was so promptly and thoroughly exposed that it reacted strongly in favor of Mr. Rodey. Then the democrats dropped this, and switched over to one where they thought it would be impossible to find any record. In fact, they deemed it safe for their circuitous department of the democratic committee to take it up and hence they issued a handbill which they printed by the thousands, and circulated among the railroad men in Albuquerque and other railway points in the territory, charging Mr. Rodey with having acted as attorney for those who were opposed to the measure known as the "Fellow Servant Law."

This bill came before the 20th legislative assembly. Mr. Rodey was not a member of that body, and hence the official record could not be used to refute this charge. But it is shown to be utterly false by testimony fully as convincing as the journals of the legislature.

Hon. W. H. Whitman, present adjutant general of the territory, and a gentleman whose veracity could not be called in question even by a democratic committee, published a letter in which he stated from his own personal knowledge, that Mr. Rodey went to Santa Fe as attorney for the committee of railway men from Albuquerque, and spent a month or more at the capital, working industriously for the passage of the "Fellow Servant Law."

And now comes another witness whose testimony ought to be conclusive.

Mr. Ernest Meyers, of this city, who is a democrat, though an honorable man, was a member of the 20th legislative assembly, and thoroughly familiar with the facts in connection with the bill in question. As the justice of simple justice to a political opponent who has been assailed in a dishonorable manner, Mr. Meyers writes and authorizes the publication of the following statement: "I understand that the report is being circulated that Mr. Rodey opposed the passage of the act introduced in the legislature known as the 'Fellow Servant Law.' This measure was introduced in the 20th legislative assembly. I was a member of the house in that assembly and chairman of the committee on railroads. A committee of railroad employees, consisting of L. W. Roberts, Frank Parnsworth, H. L. Keary and Sam White, gave me the bill, which I had charge. Mr. Rodey, who was not a member of the legislature at that time, appeared before the house committee and made an argument for the committee in favor of the passage of the bill. He did all he could to secure its passage."

"Albuquerque, N. M., November 4, 1900."

No intelligent man will require any further testimony to show the utterly dishonest and despicable methods resorted to by the democratic party in this campaign, nor will any fair minded man fail to be convinced by this testimony that the resorting to such dishonorable devices is unworthy of the support or respect of any honorable man.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Pool selling on national, territorial and county election at Zeller's Cafe to-morrow afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The Woman's Relief Corps will entertain their families to-morrow night at a camp fire at Knights of Pythias hall.

The Socorro Chieftain says: Miss Lena Braunette of Albuquerque, residing at the home of Capt. and Mrs. T. Matthews on Fischer avenue.

The Josephy Stock company, after a successful week's engagement at the Neher opera house, left last night for Gallup. The company will re-appear at the city January 1901.

Miss Dollie Godat, of Denver, is at the grocery store of J. L. Bell & Co., demonstrating the great breakfast food—Yucco. She will be at the same store to-morrow. Ladies are invited to call.

Frank Strong will take a well deserved vacation and visit the Pacific coast resorts. Before leaving, however, he will exercise his voting privilege and cast a vote for the winning ticket. Frank expects to get away Tuesday night.

The cars of the street railway company have had a thorough overhauling, and have been repainted and decorated. Ben Moore did the work and he certainly has done a good job. The appearance of the cars is very much improved.

Mrs. Nelson and her daughter, Euphemia, will spend the winter in Albuquerque, and possibly remain here permanently. This will be pleasant news to the many friends of the two ladies. A house has been secured and a comfortable establishment set up at once.

The wife of Nicolas Sabeda, an employee in the business department of the railroad shops, died Saturday afternoon in childbirth. She was 40 years of age and leaves five children. The funeral was held this morning from the church at Barrios, with burial in the cemetery at Barrios.

Miss Francisquita Salazar and Daniel Romero, of old town, were married this morning in the church of San Felipe de Neri. A reception was held at the home of the bride after the ceremony, and to-night a grand ball will be given in honor of the young couple at Orchestra hall.

Miss Irma, the charming little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McWhorter, gave a birthday party Saturday afternoon in honor of her seventh anniversary. She invited and entertained a number of her playmates, who enjoyed Miss McWhorter's hospitality and how charmingly she entertains them. The house was brilliantly illuminated for the event, and the use of quantities of cut flowers added beauty to the scene.

IN HONOR OF MISS MCFIE. She Was Entertained by Her Las Cruces Friends. Miss Maud McFie, the bright and winsome daughter of Judge and Mrs. John D. McFie, of Santa Fe, is visiting at her old home in Las Cruces, where she is the recipient of much social attention. Last Thursday a "Heart Party" was given in her honor at the home of Miss Amelia Frenger, of which the Rio Grande Republican says: "Twenty young people were invited to the home of Miss Amelia Frenger for Thursday evening, to a heart party given complimentary to Miss Maud McFie of Santa Fe. Those who have enjoyed Miss Frenger's hospitality know how charmingly she entertains them. The house was brilliantly illuminated for the event, and the use of quantities of cut flowers added beauty to the scene."

Rolling Mill Consumption

Seven out of every ten men who work in rolling mills, iron foundries and glass factories die of consumption. You know how early in life these men pass away. The usual symptom is a raging, persistent cough—sometimes short and hacking, sometimes hard and dry. The patient grows weaker and thinner day by day. Death eventually comes. The trouble comes from intense heat and the constant inhaling of the fine particles of dust and iron that fill the air. These particles enter a man's lungs, and lodge there, where they set and multiply the delicate lining of the throat and lungs. Persistent cough is then formed, and here it is that the germ of consumption finds a place to root and mark. Acker's English Balm was discovered in England, and is the only cure in the world for Rolling Mill Consumption. It heals up the sore, strengthens the mucous membrane of the breathing organs, permanently stops the cough, builds up the constitution and imparts vigor to the whole system. It will either cure or it will save you nothing. One bottle does wonders. Try it. What it has done for many others, it will also do for you and your loved ones.

Sold at 50c, 50c and $1 a bottle throughout the United States and Canada; and in England at 1s, 2s, 3s, 5s, 10s, 20s, 40s, 60s, 80s, 100s. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. HICKER & CO., Proprietors, New York.

POLICE COURT. Four Plain Drunks—Sunday Afternoon Fight Between Natives. Justice Crawford's Monday morning police court gathering consisted of a various lot of lawbreakers.

Two natives were charged with being drunk and were assessed $5 each. A railroad car caught the same fine for the same offense, and a weary wanderer who confessed to have been plain-drunk was given five days on the street.

There was a lively fight Sunday afternoon in the rear of the opera house between two natives, named Montoya and Montano. While under the influence of liquor they quarreled and then tried to annihilate each other, using bricks as weapons. Montoya received several severe wounds on the head and Montano, however, did not escape entirely. They were fined $10 each. This man Montano is a notorious offender. He is one of the gang who several years ago, in a barbershop, killed a man by the name of Mout, south of this city, and he spent two years in the penitentiary at Santa Fe for his part of the assault.

Compliment to Hughes. Once more the republicans of Bernalillo county have nominated Thomas Hughes, editor of the Albuquerque Citizen, for territorial governor. This is a well merited recognition of the ability and fidelity with which Mr. Hughes served his constituents and the best interests of New Mexico during his past term. The gentleman has a clean record of which both he and his constituents may well feel proud. Of course he will be re-elected by an overwhelming majority. Bernalillo county could not afford to do otherwise—Las Vegas Republican.

His vigorous prosecution of this and other cases against railroad companies and his efforts to get the fellow servant doctrine changed by the legislature, secured him the hostility of all the railroad influence which has continued to the present time.

And yet the democrats now have the effrontery to assert the line that Mr. Rodey is a railroad company candidate and tried to prevent the passage of the fellow servant law! They have even circulated the lie that he was employed by the railroad companies for the purpose. He has never been employed by the railroads for that or any other purpose, since the time that he acted as stenographer for P. W. Smith for a short time in the early sixties.

O. C. Watson, of the insurance firm of Paul Wunchmann & Watson, Santa Fe, is here on a visit to his wife and baby, who have been stopping the past few weeks with the parents of Mrs. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hughes. He will remain until after the election.

Early last Saturday morning, Mrs. Irvin Henry, wife of an employe at the local railway shops, gave birth to a girl baby, and the child had all the appearance of being healthy. The little thing threw back its head late in the afternoon and died, and when the attending physician called a few minutes afterward, the bereaved mother announced the death of her child. It was the surprise of the physician. Burial took place yesterday.

Mrs. M. Ferguson, who resides at No. 405 South First street, reports that her house was recently entered and a gold watch and chain, present from her deceased husband, and $15. in money taken. On last Tuesday night, in company with a lady friend, she attended the opera house, and thinks that her residence was entered during her absence that night, although she did not miss her property until this morning. PROPER CARE OF MILK.

J. J. Vernon, of Agricultural College, Issues a Bulletin.

Steps should be taken, not only to secure a wholesome product, but also to insure against contamination or disease through our milk supply. Upon this important subject which lies so near the health of our people, many are either uninformed or shamefully negligent.

Milk means an excellent culture for many bacteria, both for beneficial and for harmful and dangerous ones. The beneficial forms are principally those that aid in the production of fine-flavored butter. Harmful and dangerous forms are often more numerous; acid-forming bacteria may cause the milk to sour early; putrefying bacteria may render the milk unwholesome, giving it an offensive, unpleasant, or even nauseous flavor; still other forms may consist of tubercular bacilli or other disease germs, which if taken into the system may produce disease. Putrefaction is the result of uncleanliness. Danger from disease is often traceable to consumptives or individuals suffering with disease readily transmissible by bacteria.

Milk utensils in the home or in the dairy should be kept scrupulously clean and sweet, and free from any foreign matter whatsoever in which bacterial life may be harbored or become established. Air and sunlight, steam and water will do the work if rightly administered. Steam will kill most forms of bacteria. Boiling water gives the same result in a less degree. Heat and light from the sun destroy some forms, and drying may weaken others to the extent of preventing their further growth.

Utensils carelessly washed or merely rinsed in cold water, as the writer has witnessed, will soon have an accumulation of dirt and grease in the seams and crevices. This foreign matter contains millions of bacteria which spring into rapid multiplication under the stimulating effect of the warmth and food supplied by the milk. The refuse from the myriad of microscopical forms within the milk soon renders it unfit for human food. This, of course, subjects the patrons to great danger.

It is important that every dairyman observe the greatest care in order to minimize the danger from disease and also produce a first-class wholesome product. The patrons of the dairy should insist upon every sanitary precaution. Committees of inspection should visit the dairy, and the progressive dairyman will avail himself of the opportunity to familiarize his patrons with the best methods for placing the product upon the market.

Milk and dairy apparatus will be discussed later.
