BODIES RECOVERED

From the Tarrant Drug House Ruins.

The Boer Commandant, Botha, Will Not Surrender.

Chamberlain Called "The Terror of Peaceful Government."

STANDARD OIL DIRECTOR DEAD.

New York, Oct. 31.—Only four bodies have been recovered from the ruins caused Monday by the explosion at the Tarrant drug house up to this morning. Of these only one has been identified, that of August Schmitt. The three unidentified bodies were gathered up in piecemeal. Two tons of chlorate of potash and one ton of sulphur, it appears, were in the building, occupied by Tarrant & Co., when it was demolished. It has been decided by Fire Chief Croker and Fire Commissioner Schenck to investigate all the wholesale drug establishments in the city. Chief Croker said: "I know nearly all these wholesale drug houses carry explosives in such quantity as to render them powder magazines to all purposes. They are a constant menace to public safety, and I propose to see that storage houses are maintained at a safe distance outside the city."

Will Not Surrender.
London, Oct. 31.—A belated dispatch from Pretoria tells of the failure of the British negotiations with General Botha for the surrender of the Boers. Botha received General Paget's flag of truce courteously, admitted his defeat, but said it was impossible to treat for surrender as long as any burghers wished to continue the war. President Steyn refused even to see the bearer of the flag of truce.

BACK FROM ALASKA.

Court Perry Has a Few Words to Say About Cape Nome.

C. R. Perry, former division superintendent of the San Francisco Pacific, came in from Los Angeles yesterday, and will remain here for a few days, after which he will join his brother, James Perry, at the Cape Nome gold fields of Alaska.

Las Vegas Falls Heir to a Fortune.
His many friends will be delighted to learn that L. H. Wentworth, of Las Vegas, is playing in great luck, says the Optic. He has just received a letter informing him that the government has allowed an Indian prehistoric claim of $6,000 which dates back for thirty years and is in favor of H. H. Wentworth, deceased, the father of L. H. and he is the only heir. The claim is allowed with interest compounded at 6 per cent per annum, and he will receive $20,000 and $25,000. It seems that along about 1862, Mr. Wentworth's father was despoiled of everything he possessed in the destruction by Indians of a wagon train of twenty-eight wagons, while going from Fort Leavenworth to Denver, the incident occurring on the Platte river near Julesburg. All the men and drivers, twenty-eight altogether, succeeded in getting away with their lives.

RODEY'S RECORD!

History of the Famous Blacklisting Bill.

Pedro Perea Responsible, and Not Judge Rodey.

Fine Presentation of "Moths" by the Jossey Stock Company.

SANTA FE LIMITED TRAINS.

The entries in the council journal of the 28th legislative assembly, of which Mr. Rodey was a member, relating to the blacklisting bill, are as follows: "Mr. Rodey introduced council bill No. 47, entitled 'An act to protect discharged employees and prevent blacklisting.'"

"The bill was read the first time and under suspension of the rules read a second time by title and referred to committee on agriculture and manufactures."—Council Journal, page 82.

"That committee consisted of Messrs. Juan Jose Baca, Socorro county; Pedro Perea, Bernalillo county; and Alexander Gudorf, Taos county. Juan P. Romero, on a contest, was given Gudorf's seat. Mr. Rodey had caused the same bill to be introduced in the house, where it was passed, and the council journal entries relating to it are as follows:

"Now comes a house messenger and informs the council that the house of representatives had passed House Bill No. 15, entitled 'An act for the protection of discharged employees and to prevent blacklisting and for other purposes,' and asked the concurrence of the council to the same." The bill and report were laid on the president's table—Council Journal, page 84.

"Business on the president's table. House Bill, No. 15, entitled, 'An act for the protection of discharged employees and to prevent blacklisting and for other purposes,' and under suspension of the rules read second time by title."

"Mr. Perea moved that House Bill No. 15 be referred to the committee on agriculture and manufactures. Mr. King called for the yeas and nays."

"The roll was called and the vote was as follows: In the affirmative, Messrs. Baca, Gudorf, Dolan, Port, Gudorf, Jaramillo, Perea, Fritchard, Rodey and Mr. President—10.

In the negative, Mr. King—1. "The bill was referred to the committee on agriculture and manufactures."—Journal, page 104. Mr. Romero took Mr. Gudorf's place on this committee.

"Thus both of these bills were referred on the motion of Perea to the committee on agriculture and manufactures, consisting of himself and Juan Jose Baca, of Socorro county, and Juan P. Romero, of Bernalillo county, the dominating spirit of this committee. All the efforts of Mr. Rodey and Mr. Perea, who championed the bill in the house, to get him to report it were unavailing. Perea killed the bill."

A GREAT PLAY.

"Moths" Presented Last Night.—The Signal of Liberty Theatre presented last night to an audience as large as that of Monday night, and every word enthusiastic. The play was sumptuously mounted, the characters well drawn, and in fact the entire performance would be a credit to a higher prior organization. Miss Howard played the part of "Vera Herbert" with a dignity and charm, and was equal to every demand. In fact The Citizen has never seen a more versatile actress. As "Fuschia Leach," Miss Girard showed a great deal of cleverness, and her sprightliness and independence made an instantaneous hit. Mr. Jossey read the lines of "Correia" with a great deal of feeling and Mr. McCarthy was a good "Prince Zerkoff." The balance of the company were equal to the requirements of their respective roles. The specialties were an usual well received.

To-night they present the greatest of all naval plays, "The Signal of Liberty," with a wealth of scenic and mechanical effects.

SANTA FE FLYER.

Agent Conrad Receives Official Circular.—Santa Fe From Chicago on Nov. 8.

A. L. Conrad, the popular Santa Fe local agent, has received the following circular of instruction from headquarters at Topeka, Kansas:

"The California limited, via Santa Fe route, will be resumed for season of 1900-1901, beginning November 8, westbound from Chicago, and beginning November 15, eastbound, from Los Angeles."

"Owing to delay in the delivery of new engines intended for this train, it will, for the present, run tri-weekly and to Los Angeles only, leaving Chicago and Los Angeles Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays."

"Early in December the daily service between Chicago and Los Angeles and San Francisco will be inaugurated as advertised."

It is understood that, under the tri-weekly arrangement, Albuquerque people will see very little of the limited trains except when they stay up late at night. For instance, the west-bound train will leave for the coast at 12:15 p. m., and the east-bound train will leave for Chicago at 11:40 p. m. The train from the east will reach Albuquerque on Wednesdays, Fridays and Sundays of each week, and from the west on Thursdays, Saturdays and Mondays.

Eagan's Fall.
Frank Eagan, well-known in police circles, while intoxicated last night, fell into the opera house after the show was over and went up into the "dixie" to sleep off his drink. This morning between 5 and 6 o'clock he managed to fall over the waist high railing down to the stage, a distance of twenty-five feet. He fell among a lot of scenery and props and it is a wonder his neck was not broken. As it was he sustained a compound fracture of the left wrist, and some bruises on his head. He complained of pains in the back, which did not develop any injury. City Physician Pearce gave the man medical attention.

A SINGER HURT.
"Capt." Tom Edwards, of Jossey Stock Company, the Victim.

One of the best singers of the Jossey Stock company, known as "Capt." Tom Edwards, met with a very painful accident while the company was at the theatre last Thursday night. Immediately after the show had given one of its best performances, the people of Rodey were started by an alarm of fire, but they did not know how to handle the hose, and Edwards found the noise a hard subject to handle. In fact the force knocked Edwards off the roof and in the fall his right side struck a railing. Result—One rib was broken, and a few bruises over the body. While here with the company, Edwards has been unable to appear on the stage.

HALLOWEEN.

The Festival is a Jolly One—Fun Should Be Free and Unconfined.

Halloween is not given the attention and respect that it deserves, for of all the feasts, Christmas and Easter it is the kindest for the lover and his lass. It is really a time for divinations, when spirits of the living walk abroad, and magic herbs tell secrets.

But the days of hell gardens, church yards, cellars, attics, and big fire places and candles have gone by and with them have gone the background best suited to the observance of the evening. Modern stage lighting and electric lighting, pocket handkerchiefs, darts and concreted back yards are setting for witches, fairies, hobgoblins, and to know their secrets.

It is too glaring, too prosaic, too reasonable and too scientific to observe the ancient rites of it. There is a love of the mystic, a faint belief in the potency of divinations left, and many will be the jolly Halloween's trials, tricks, parties and games and the lover will flirt with his lass despite the electric lights.

Ghost parties, or sheet and pillow case parties are the only possible kind for the last night of October. The ghosts must also be masked and the lights dimmed. Bobbing for apples, to blindfold each person and have him choose from the three saucers, roasted pairs of chestnuts and other ancient devices are not impossible to-day. The roasted chestnuts must be named for a girl, and a man, and if they burn off by itself, as will he or she for whom it is named, leave the other.

Fortune telling by palmistry or by cards is a favorite entertainment for Halloween parties, and a resurrected Ouija board is an appropriate spirit for the occasion.

Roosevelt Feeling Effect of the Campaign.

Bryan and Wife Now in the Buckeye State.

German Story About Establishing Coaling Station Denied.

SPENDTHRIFT COUNT CASTELLANE.

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 31.—Governor Roosevelt is feeling the strain of his continued talking so-day more than at any time since he started on the state tour. His chest is sore, and he does not carry as well as he did. His train left Rochester at 9:30 a. m., making several stops and is expected to reach Buffalo at 4:30 p. m.

Lockport, N. Y., Oct. 31.—At Brookport, Holly and Albion, Roosevelt addressed crowds in the rain. At Medina the rain had eased and he made a twenty minute speech. Here the governor addressed an audience completely filling the opera house.

BRYAN IN OHIO.
Toledo, O., Oct. 31.—Mr. and Mrs. Bryan arrived this morning from Dunkirk, N. Y. They were met by Mayor and Mrs. Jones. Mrs. Bryan was accompanied by a brief reception at the mayor's residence. Bryan spoke an hour in Armour park, leaving immediately afterwards on a day's tour of the state.

Just as Bryan began to speak ten or twelve young men were taken in charge by the police. They had a huge hold the representation of an elephant labelled "G. O. P." which they were parading about the outskirts of the democratic meeting with many hurrahs.

HANNA IN INDIANA.
South Bend, Ind., Oct. 31.—Senator Hanna arrived from Chicago today and addressed a large crowd. Factories were closed for an hour to enable employees to hear Hanna.

DOES NOT COVERT.
Any Acquisition of American Territory.

Berlin, Oct. 31.—The Cologne Gazette authoritatively denies the stories of Germany's contemplated lease from Venezuela of a coaling station at Ial and Margarita, and adds: "Germany does not covet any acquisition in the vicinity of the American continent."

GOOD AMERICAN MONEY.
Squandered by a French Count Who Married a Goid.

Paris, Oct. 31.—The civil tribunal appointed George J. Gould trustee for Countess Castellane, his sister. According to pleadings in her case, her husband, Count Boni de Castellane, spent 23,000,000 francs in four years, whereas his income from his wife's fortune is only 1,000,000 francs.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Hon. H. B. Ferguson, who addressed a democratic meeting at Gallup last night, returned to the city this morning.

Mrs. J. H. Penner, a prominent member of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, is reported quite sick.

Last night H. S. Knight received a dispatch from Dr. W. N. Macbeth. The doctor has reached New York from his tour of old Scotland for the past week of a few days in New York he will continue westward to Albuquerque.

T. T. Cramer came in from Winslow this morning, and joined his wife, who has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edwards for the past week. In a few days the Cramers will leave for Stockton, Cal., where they will reside in the future.

Marshal McMillin's financial report for October will show a collection of $420 from fines, etc. While this is not as large a showing as has been made for some previous months, it still is above the average, pays the expenses of the department and leaves quite a little surplus.

Passenger train No. 2 from the west yesterday arrived here five and one half hours late, owing to the wreck of a freight train out near Needles. This morning the same train was over three hours late. As there was a heavy train of twelve cars, it was sent north from here in two sections.

H. Yanow, with his family, are new arrivals in the city who have come from Lincoln, Nebraska, to stay. The gentleman has already purchased the cream of H. Simpson's valuable stock and will shortly open up a pawnbroking and jewelry business at Simpson's established store on Second street.

Watch the daily papers for the announcement of the free distribution of tickets to hear the election returns which will be received in Neher's opera house on the evening of Nov. 6th, to be given under the auspices of the City Union of Young People's Societies. Every body invited. Ladies as well as gentlemen are expected to attend.

Harry Potter, the well-known and popular Santa Fe expert wet goods manipulator, spent today in the city. He was kept busy shaking hands with old friends here. Mr. Potter reports politics at the capital the prevailing topic, and that everybody is sure of election according to their own figuring.

Frank Lee has finished his last effort at window dressing before going away, and the result is shown in the large window of Simon Stern. The idea is tasteful and chaste, representing by the falling autumn leaves, the departure of the warm season, and the reminder, as well as calling attention to the fine display of cold weather clothing.

Rev. T. M. Harwood, who has been in the Spanish missionary work for the past seventeen years, leaves tonight for El Paso, Texas, and from there will go to Porto Rico via New York City. He is a nephew of Rev. Dr. Thomas Harwood, of this city. His family will accompany him.

Adeline, the three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Allen, died this morning of diphtheria, at the Lindell hotel on First street. The funeral will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the above place. Rev. Bruce Kinney will officiate. Interment will be in Fairview cemetery. Mr. Allen is the night gateman at the railroad crossing, and with his wife have the sympathy of this community in their bereavement.

Professor A. M. Swan, he of archaeological fame, left last night for the "ancient ruins" in the vicinity of Laguna, Acama and other Indian villages out west. Yesterday the professor met here H. G. Tinney, of Chicago, who is making a tour of the southwestern country writing articles for the New York Sun and Harper's Weekly. He was also a passenger going west last night.

Hon. H. O. Bursum and Hon. W. E. Martin, superintendent and secretary respectively of the New Mexico penitentiary, came up from Socorro on the early train this morning, and continued on to Santa Fe a few hours later on the delayed passenger No. 2. Both gentlemen have been doing good missionary work down in Socorro and Biera counties for the republican ticket, and they report Rodey's chances exceedingly bright for carrying these two counties.
