NATIONAL POLITICS

Roosevelt Stirring Up New Yorkers.

Bryan Visits the National Capital.

Five Hundred Thousand Dollars Stolen From New York Bank.

BATTLESHIP KENTUCKY SAILS.

Kingston, N. Y., Oct. 22.—Despite the serious strain of numerous speeches yesterday, Governor Roosevelt found his throat in excellent condition this morning. He was inclined to laugh over the numerous interruptions of yesterday. He was assured the country through which he was going today would not produce the same kind of disorder. At 9 o'clock the train started up the Catskill mountains. Fifteen speeches will be made by the candidate.

Pine Hill, N. Y., Oct. 22.—At Phoenix, Governor Roosevelt briefly referred to the fact that there were evils in the country and things that ought to be improved but said he would not join with Bryan in trying to remedy them by destroying everything in the country. The next stop was at Shandaken. Phoenix, N. Y., Oct. 22.—At West Hurley and Shokan, about the entire population turned out to greet Roosevelt.

BRYAN AT NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Washington, Oct. 22.—W. J. Bryan spent an hour and a quarter at the national capital today. About 1,000 people were waiting him at the depot. He breakfasted with Judge William K. Springer and at 9 o'clock Bryan was driven to the Baltimore & Ohio depot, where he made a brief speech on imperialism and civil service. About 5,000 people were massed about the depot. Bryan said: "I am not much of an admirer of that civil service which is suspended when a president is inaugurated until he can fill the offices with friends; and is extended by the president when he is about to retire in order that he may protect his friends in office."

SCHEDULED FOR NEW YORK.

New York, Oct. 22.—William J. Bryan's itinerary, after he had finished with the National Association of democratic clubs Saturday night, has been prepared by the democratic state committee. He will rest in this city Sunday, state up the state on the New York Central railway at 9:30 o'clock that night. He will make eighteen speeches Monday, returning to New York for a few hours. He will start out again about midnight, and Tuesday will make fourteen speeches.

The Note Teller of a New York Wall Street Bank Makes Rich Haul.

New York, Oct. 22.—Shortly before the close of business in Wall street this afternoon there was current a rumor that an employee of a leading bank had defrauded to a large amount. The First National bank of Wall street is affected. The defalcation will reach a large amount, possibly $500,000. Officers of the bank refused information this afternoon but promised a statement covering Alvord's alleged wrong doing later. The man has not yet been arrested, but probably will be apprehended before long. The First National bank's president is George A. Baker, who is also president of the Astor National bank and financial adviser of the Astor family. The bank is located at No. 2 Wall street, has a capital of $500,000 surplus $500,000 and undivided profits $400,000. C. L. Alvord was the note teller of the bank. He has been an employee for over twenty years.

New York, Oct. 22.—The new battleship Kentucky, bound for the Asiatic station, to relieve the battleship Ozegon, and which sailed last Saturday but returned the same night to anchor off Tompkinsville, owing to one of the big guns of the forward turret not working properly upon being tried at Sandy Hook, sailed again today.

He Is Under Arrest at Seattle, Wash.—Known in New York.

New York, Oct. 22.—Charles E. Mather, alias J. C. Moore, who is under arrest at Seattle, Wash., was a wholesale jewelry salesman formerly for the firm of Mather & Wentworth. Mather is accused by a number of wholesale jewelry and diamond merchants of this city of the theft of jewelry valued at $100,000. He obtained goods on memorandum and according to the police, pawned them under the name of J. C. Moore.

Port Worth, Oct. 22.—The citizens of Oklahoma and Indian Territory want single statehood for the two territories. The formation of leagues to promote this end have commenced. The first league was organized in Wagoner, I. T. Determined efforts in this direction are being made by the leading people of those territories.

A Great Singer.

A very small audience greeted Madame Turcott-Burns at Neher's opera house last night, the excuse being given by the management that the short advertised was responsible for our people not turning out to hear her. "The name, no doubt somewhat discouraged, the lack of interest manifested by the theater-goers of the city in not turning out, however, went through the advertised program, and fully sustained the reputation given her by the San Francisco papers that she is truly the "new Adeline Patte". The madame is a great soprano, has a beautiful voice, and by all odds the finest high-class singer that has appeared in Albuquerque for years. Proprietor Neher and Manager Zirkel regret that so few of the Albuquerque public failed to hear this great Italian singer.

CANTON QUIET!

But the Boxers Continue Fighting.

The Miners' Strike Nearing an End.

Jewelry and Diamond Thief Arrested at Seattle.

YOUTSEY TAKEN TO FRANKFORT.

Hong Kong, Oct. 22.—The situation in Canton is comparatively quiet. It is reported the consuls received letters warning them of danger. Refugees from Hui Chow say the rebels are welcomed everywhere. They take nothing without payment, and are treated as guests instead of enemies. Their leaders are supposed to number ten, each commanding a separate band. The operation in Hui Lung Hinterland is more stirring, but is everywhere successful. He is reported to have defeated a large body of imperial troops, killing a hundred of the Chinese soldiers.

LEAVING PEKIN.

Pekin, Oct. 22.—The Fourteenth United States infantry departed from the city. The Royal Welsh Fusiliers also departed.

FAVORABLE TO PROPOSITION.

Paris, Oct. 22.—At the cabinet council today, M. Delcasse minister of foreign affairs announced that the ministers of the powers at Pekin met recently to semi-officially examine the French propositions as a basis for peace negotiations and showed themselves favorable thereto.

LEARNED HARBOR WORKS.

London, Oct. 22.—The Globe announced that Great Britain has leased from English contractors the harbor works of Chin Wan Tso, now in course of construction, for eight months, with the object of landing men and stores during a short time. President Mitchell, notwithstanding contrary reports, has not set the date for the calling off of the strike. As soon as all operators signify their willingness to pay ten per cent advance in wages until April, the national executive board will be called to session to vote on ending the contest.

THEY WILL MEET TO-MORROW.

Scranton, Oct. 22.—Thomas A. Nicholas, president of district No. 1 of the United Mine Workers, today admitted that the end of the strike was near and within a short time. President Mitchell, notwithstanding contrary reports, has not set the date for the calling off of the strike. As soon as all operators signify their willingness to pay ten per cent advance in wages until April, the national executive board will be called to session to vote on ending the contest.

A SAD DEATH.

James McCarron's Demise at City Building.

Scranton, Oct. 22.—Thomas A. Nicholas, president of district No. 1 of the United Mine Workers, today admitted that the end of the strike was near and within a short time. President Mitchell, notwithstanding contrary reports, has not set the date for the calling off of the strike. As soon as all operators signify their willingness to pay ten per cent advance in wages until April, the national executive board will be called to session to vote on ending the contest.

Death among stringers was the sad fate of poor James McCarron last night, and the story of his last days, recorded by himself in a diary, giving the gradual drop into the long sleep, is a particularly sad one.

Policeman Mainz found the man about midnight last night, wandering around the streets and acting in a queer manner. He was taken to the hospital and at the same time unable to make his trouble known. He was taken to the city building and placed in the sick ward, but he sank very rapidly and died soon after being placed there. On his person was found a package of morphine, ninety cents in money and a blank book in which he had written quite a lengthy account of his actions, experience and wanderings during the present month. From this it is gathered that the deceased was an engineer and millman, and had been employed at the Albemarle mine in the Cochiti district, but was taken sick, could not stand the high altitude, and had to quit work. He then came to Albuquerque, where he got worse and finally died. It is not known where he worked previous to going to Bland. At this point he evidently received mail, as an empty envelope found in his diary was found among his effects, with a postmark of July 7, 1899, on it. Evidently he had been there some time. The first entry in the book is this:

"My name is James McCarron. I write a diary of each month, and each day in the month. My home is No. 2517 North Tenth street, St. Louis, Mo. Should anything happen to me of a serious nature, I have two sisters living at the above address. Please inform them."

Then follows the daily entries for "October." According to them he "worked on the 1, 2 and 3 at $200 per day; was sick again on the 4 and 5; the 6 no entry; worked on the 7, which proved to be his last working day. On the 8 he was very sick with colic; on the 10 the doctor told me to leave the camp; 11 packed trunk; 12 left Albuquerque; 13 at Thornton; 14 in Albuquerque; 15 to 20 inclusive, single entries, sick; 21 sick; took train to St. Louis and to old bridge. I feel very unwell. Will say that my life is insured for $1,000 in the United States company. My sister lives at No. 2517 North Tenth street, St. Louis. She holds the policy in keeping, though the policy was made to my estate. I feel very unwell. Should anything happen please inform Nancy McCarron. I have on my person $125 and 40 cents in change. October 21, 1 o'clock—I feel much pain in my left side; 3 p. m.—I have taken a dose of morphine to relieve a pain in my chest. I am alone. Should I have taken too much it was by mistake as the druggist did not mark the dose on the paper which they were wrapped in, but believe all is well."

The above was the last entry, believed to have been made yesterday, the 22, as the man was too sick to keep track of dates, and as he had made an entry for the 21 previously.

Another paper found on McCarron was a fine recommendation as an engineer, millman and amalgamator, given by the superintendent and foreman of the Gold Hill Mining and Milling company of Caribou, Idaho, for which company he had worked eight years. They regretted to lose his services.

Inquiry around town revealed the fact that if McCarron really had the $125 he speaks of having on the 21, he must have lost or hidden it, as he pawned a watch and two rings on the 21, although the pawn ticket was dated the 22, the day he was found. The sisters were notified as per his request.

In the blank book dated Oct. 18 was a copy of a letter he sent his sister, dated the 18, in which he was very sick, that he had left Albuquerque, where he sought relief at Albuquerque he would go elsewhere. The letter was not finished or signed, and perhaps was never sent. His last entry, however, may give some additional facts and the diary of previous months.

The insurance company mentioned above, is the United Life Insurance company, 300 North Third street, St. Louis, Mo. It was decided to hold an inquest on McCarron at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The inquest presided over by Justice A. J. Crawford this afternoon. The jury composed of Alex. Briscoe, E. W. Spencer, Wm. Moore, Wm. MacDaniel, W. H. Burke and Sol Benjamin.

The testimony of the police and several other witnesses to the effect that McCarron was noticed at 7 o'clock last night on First street and was evidently quite sick. Earlier in the evening he had passed an omnibus, and had been drinking a little; at one time took only Coyote water and lemon. The police were called about midnight and took him to the city building. He was there only a short while before he died and gave no extraordinary signs of being seriously sick. It was found out that he had been stopping at the Hotel Highland, his value is still there. He had not paid his account, and at no time was there any evidence of his having shown any such sum of money as he wrote about. It was not discovered where he procured the morphine, and it was not shown that he died from an overdose of the drug. In fact, the pains he complained of were evidence of heart trouble. The verdict of the jury was that McCarron came to his death by reason of heart trouble. From some memorandum made by the dead man it may be that he was a member of the Knights of the Maccabees, which club he inquired into. No arrangements for burial will be made until his relatives are heard from. The body is at Strong's.

Prominent Young Men Arrested for Crime.

Large Crowd Greet President McKinley at Canton, Ohio.

SHERMAN'S HONORARY PALL BEARERS.

New York, Oct. 22.—Last night George Keith, Walter McAllister, William Keith and Andrew Campbell, prominent young men, were arrested by the police of Patterson, N. J., accused of causing the death of Jennie Schaefer, a prominent young woman whose body was found last night on the outskirts of Patterson.

To-day Garrett A. Stowcroft was taken into custody. Stowcroft made the statement that he was hired by McAllister, Keith, Death and Campbell to drive them with Miss Schaefer on a Thursday night. They stopped at a saloon where the girl, after drinking, became stupefied. Stowcroft said he understood that she had been given knock-out drops. They placed her in the rig, and she became unconscious. The men became frightened as the girl did not revive and drove to the office of Dr. Townsend. The girl continued unconscious. The men were advised to take her home. They drove to the houses of two other physicians, but did not succeed in getting medical aid. The Death of Mrs. Nicholson.

Mrs. Nora Nicholson, wife of Prof. C. T. Nicholson of the Second ward public school, died this morning at 9 o'clock from consumption. The body is being embalmed this afternoon by Undertaker Edwards and will be taken to-morrow morning on the east-bound No. 2 passenger train to Rockville, Ind., for burial, being accompanied by the bereaved husband and the two little motherless children. After the funeral and burial, Prof. Nicholson will return to the city.

Hunter Barnett Returns.
Joe Barnett, who remained up in the Nacimiento mountains after Rob Appleton and party had pulled up stakes and left for the city, has also returned and to-day he gave it out cold and solid that hunting was exceedingly good immediately after the "poor shoes" had decamped for home. Joe killed two bears, made a 200-yard shot at a big buck deer but the horned fellow got away after being wounded in the shoulder, and a dozen or two wild turkeys, besides any quantity of smaller game. When asked why he did not bring some of the game back with him to the city, he remarked that "his native guide found a village of unkindly relatives up in the mountains and he turned all the game he killed over to them to have a feast."
