SUBDUING REBELS!

Force Sent Against Chinese Insurgents.

Powers All Agree to Note of France.

American Volunteers Rescued From Filipino Insurgents.

GOLD FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

Hong Kong, Oct. 15.—A column of troops was dispatched this morning to Kowloon frontier with the object of barring armed refugees, either rebels or imperial troops, from entering British territory when defeated. The rebels are reported 3,000 strong, 20 miles north of the British frontier. One thousand of Admiral Ho's troops are in pursuit while two thousand Chinese troops have left Canton, overland, to intercept the rebels.

Admiral Ho informed the governor that the rebellion is carefully planned. The rebels are anxious to conciliate the villagers and gain the respect of foreigners, hence the absence of outrage and pillage. All indications point to the rising being well spread. Outbreaks have occurred simultaneously at several centers in Kwang Tung and Kwang Si. Apparently Kang Yu Wei, Su Yun and the Triads have amalgamated their force in a common cause—the overthrow of Manchu rule in south China. Some positive indication of the attitude of the foreign powers is anxiously awaited.

A French launch was captured by pirates on October 13, near Mong Chou. The pirates secured $20,000 in specie.

MASONIC GRAND LODGE.

Twenty-Third Annual Communication—A Large Attendance.

Grand Master Elias E. Day, of Las Cruces, sitting in the Grand East, called the twenty-third annual communication of the most worshipful grand lodge, A. F. & A. M. of New Mexico, to order this morning at Masonic hall. There were present the officers of the Grand Lodge and representatives from nearly all the subordinate lodges in the territory.

The morning's session was short, adjournment being taken until 2 p. m., after the appointment of a committee on credentials, which was instructed to make its report at that hour.

The afternoon's session was devoted to the hearing of the annual address and report of the grand master, the appointing of various committees and the reading of the report of the grand secretary and grand treasurer. All of these reports contained information that was pleasing and inspiring to the craft and showed that considerable progress had been made during the past Masonic year.

To-night a lodge of instruction will be held. The work of the first and second degrees will be exemplified by Grand Lecturer W. H. Seamon.

All Masons in good standing, members of the various sister jurisdictions are invited to attend.

Tuesday evening the work of the third degree will be exemplified and instruction given, and a similar invitation is extended for that meeting.

At tomorrow's session the reports of the various committees will be heard and acted upon, and the election of the officers for the ensuing year will take place.

The following Masons were notified in attendance this morning: Frank Johnson, J. P. McMurray, D. W. Hitchcock, J. H. De Hart, San Marcial, Jefferson Roberts, J. W. Robertson, J. J. Kelly, J. H. SOCORRO REPUBLICANS.

In Convention To-Day at Socorro—A Good Ticket Named.

Socorro, N. M., Oct. 15.—The republicans of Socorro county met here this morning, and the convention was the largest held here for years. Hon. T. A. Pinal, of Albuquerque, and Hon. H. O. Bursum, superintendent of the New Mexico penitentiary, were present and addressed the convention. The following are some of the principal candidates named: Dr. C. G. Crunk, sheriff; John C. F. Blackington, sheriff; Alvan Abeyta, treasurer and collector; Nestor P. Eaton, assessor, and Eliseo Baca, superintendent of schools.

Railway Officials.
W. R. Biddle, wife and son, Wheldon P. Biddle, and J. F. Beals and wife, prominent Santa Fe railway officials, came in from the north last night in a special car, and after a rest-up here to-day they will continue west to the Grand Canyon of the Colorado to-night. Mr. Biddle, who is the popular and energetic chief of the Santa Fe, virtually commenced his railway career in this city years ago, and this morning, in company with F. H. Houghton, of El Paso, and A. L. Conrad, he made a pleasant call at this office.

VICTIMS OF A RUNAWAY.

James Stage to Albuquerque in an Accident Saturday Morning.

Last Saturday morning when the Albuquerque-Jemez hot springs stage was on its way to Albuquerque, the horses took fright about ten miles this side of the Indian village of Jemez, and the occupants, Miss Elizabeth Goodin and a Mexican lady whose name could not be obtained, were thrown and both were quite badly injured. The Mexican lady was taken to her home near by, but Miss Goodin came on to Albuquerque and is now at the Harvard Home where she is receiving medical attention. She sustained a bad laceration over her forehead and received a few other bruises, but is not considered dangerously hurt. The lady is the daughter of an Indian school teacher at the village of Jemez, and was en route to Albuquerque to be treated for blood poisoning when the runaway accident occurred.

Hunters Have Returned.

Robert Appleton, F. S. Brooks, Thos. Riley and Frank Hickman, with Jack Bingham and "Red" Lane as overlanders, both were quite badly injured. She sustained a bad laceration over her forehead and received a few other bruises, but is not considered dangerously hurt. RETURN OF GENERAL BULLER.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 15.—The court refused further continuance of the case of Youtsey, although he is still in the stocks, but said all his rights as defendant would be preserved under the law.

Georgetown, Oct. 15.—Colonel Crawford, asked that physicians be allowed to testify to the condition of the defendant. The request was granted. Dr. Carrick said Youtsey was weaker and not better. While Dr. Knox was testifying the door of Youtsey's room was opened and he could be heard sobbing hysterically. Judge Cantrill said he had no discretion and the trial must proceed. The commonwealth was given till 5 o'clock to say whether it will object to allowing Youtsey to remain in the jury room during the trial. Court then adjourned until 2 o'clock.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Juan Romero Killed While Taking a Load of Lumber to His Home.

A lamentable accident, which caused the death of two people, occurred about fifteen miles south of this city on Thursday last week, says the Las Vegas Republican.

On that day Juan Romero, a prominent sheep-grower who lived below Cabes Springs, came to Las Vegas after a load of lumber. Unfortunately, he did not bind his load tight enough, and when going down a steep hill, about fifteen miles south of Las Vegas, the lumber commenced sliding down on the horses. The animals commenced to kick and in a few moments the wagon and lumber were a pile of debris, and Mr. Romero killed. A piece of iron had penetrated his head and, in addition, he was nearly decapitated by the lumber, so that his death must have been instantaneous.

When the body was found it was conveyed to the home of a farmer named Felix Gonzales. The sight of the maimed body was too much for Mrs. Gonzales, who was thrown into convulsions from which she died in a few minutes.

Mr. Romero was a prosperous sheepman and a good citizen, while Mrs. Gonzales was highly esteemed by all who knew her. The tragic death of these two well known citizens has caused general regret.

ON THE WHEEL TO DENVER.

J. P. Norwood, the Shoe Repairer, Writes About His Trip.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 11.—You are perhaps aware of the fact that I left Albuquerque August 12, on a bicycle trip for this city. I am proud to relate that I arrived here all O. K. in seven days, notwithstanding the roughness of road and the broiling sun, with which I had to contend. I shall leave this city the 14th inst., on my return trip for Albuquerque, hoping I will have as much success on my future trip as I did on the trip before.

Kindly extend to my friends my best wishes.

In conclusion, I beg to remain, Yours respectfully, JAMES P. NORWOOD.

P. S.—Please mention my return in your local column. I shall re-open the shoe repairing store in J. W. Hall's shining parlor. I have bought the outfit from him and shall run it myself.

Purchases a Big Ranch.
H. J. Ramer, of the local firm of A. B. McCaffrey & Co., has purchased the well-known Phoenix ranch near Watrous, New Mexico, from Col. R. G. Head. This is one of the largest land deals made in the territory for some time. The property, which is in the famous La Junta valley, comprises 17,000 acres, of which there are 1,000 acres under irrigation and cultivation. There is a fine lot of Hereford cattle and a large quantity of horses on the property, which also has improvements of a substantial nature in the way of houses, barns and cattle yards. In addition to the above there is a fine orchard and vegetable garden. In every respect the property is first-class and a splendid investment. Mr. Ramer is to be commended for his enterprise and investment, which will prove successful without a doubt.

Charles Hubbell, a brother of Frank A. and Thos. S. Hubbell, is in the city from Arizona.

Ed. O. Hughes, the western representative of the Palatine Fire Insurance company, is in the city from San Francisco.

L. S. Miller, who put in the new cash and package carrying system at the store of the Golden Rule Dry Goods company, left the city yesterday morning, and it is stated that one of the fair lady clerks at the same store also went north with Miller.

Saturday evening a meeting was held by the city council to discuss the reply of President Ripley, of the Santa Fe, to the amendment offered by the city council to the company's contract.

The council agreed to ratify the contract with the modifications suggested by Mr. Ripley after fully discussing the matter and upon adjournment of the council sent word to President Ripley to that effect. The contractors, Messrs. Amson and Holman, who have the work in charge, are very much pleased to think that all the obstacles have been at last removed and that they can begin operations at once.

HANNA'S TOUR!

STEVENSON IN NEW JERSEY.

Chicago, Oct. 15.—Chairman Hanna, of the republican national committee, started on a tour of the west to-day, accompanied by Senator Frye, Maine, Senator Doolittle, Iowa, brother of Senator Doolittle and others. The party travel in a special train and will make the first important stop at Waukegan, Wis. It is about 3 p. m. More attention will be given to South Dakota than any other state to be visited. Except Omaha, Hanna could not say where the Nebraska committee would send him in Bryan's state.

BRIDAL IN OHIO.

Canton, Ohio, Oct. 15.—Before the Bryan train left Akron this morning, Mayor Jones of Toledo and former Attorney General Monnett Jones, of Ohio, were in the city. It is understood that Mayor Jones will continue with the presidential candidate to President McKinley, saying that if he was not re-elected he could always be ex-president as "ex" was a title that once earned, could always be held.

New Philadelphia, Oct. 15.—Bryan made his first important stop of the day at New Philadelphia, Ohio. The entire public square here was filled with people to hear him. Bryan spoke forty minutes and was followed by Mayor Jones and Congressman Latta. Speaking of the ice trust and the accusation that some of the directors of that trust are democrats, Bryan asked why the republican governor of the state did not suppress that trust, and thus prevent the democrats and others from getting stock.

ROOSEVELT IN KENTUCKY.
Lexington, Ky., Oct. 15.—Governor Roosevelt was tendered a hearty reception when his special train reached here this morning, making the first stop of the day. A splendid crowd greeted him and expressions of enthusiasm were heard on every hand. Roosevelt spoke from a stand in front of the court house, and was introduced by two famous democrats, Ex-Congressman C. P. Breckinridge, and Ex-Comptroller M. J. Durham.

Lexington, Oct. 15.—At Winchester, Mount Sterling and Moorehead, large enthusiastic crowds greeted Roosevelt.

STEVENSON IN NEW JERSEY.
Philadelphia, Oct. 15.—The democratic candidate for vice president, Stevenson, crossed the Delaware river to Camden, N. J., where he began a stumping tour in southern New Jersey.

FOREIGN ELECTION RETURNS.
London, Oct. 15.—Election returns are completed with the exception of six pollings and the polling of the Orkney Islands, October 24. Ministerialists, 36; opposition, 25, are the respective gains. Total members of parliament elected is 663, as follows: Conservatives, 231; Unionists, 66; Liberals, 184; nationalists, 80.

TERRITORIAL REPUBLICAN TICKET

For Delegate to Congress—

LARRAZOLO'S CHEAP COAT.

In the course of his speech at Albuquerque, Mr. Larrazolo exhibited his coat, bought in Old Mexico, and told his hearers it cost only half as much as the same coat would cost in the United States, and the Silver City Enterprise in commenting on the democratic candidate for delegate to congress, that means that the tailor in Old Mexico who made Mr. Larrazolo's coat received only half as much for his work as a tailor in this territory would receive for the same work, and that the sheep owner in Old Mexico received only half as much for the wool in Mr. Larrazolo's coat as the sheep owner in this territory would receive for the same material.

If we want to have the price of wool reduced to one-half what it is now, and want to compel our mechanics to work for one-half what they now receive, then the policy advocated by Mr. Larrazolo is all right; but if we want the sheep man to receive a good price for his wool, and the mechanic to receive fair pay for his labor, then the policy advocated by Mr. Larrazolo is all wrong. We can get coats in this country just as cheaply as Mr. Larrazolo gets his in Old Mexico. If we will adopt the policy of Mr. Larrazolo, we will force sheep men to sell their wool at starvation prices and require mechanics to work for poor wages.

Do the voters of New Mexico want to get cheap coats on such terms? If they do, let them vote for Mr. Larrazolo, and thus help to bring back the era of five cent wool and unemployed labor; but if they think it is better for the territory to have our mechanics and laboring men employed on full time at living wages, let them vote for Mr. Rodey, who stands for protection to home products and home industry.

OPENING WYOMING LAND.

Good work was done for Wyoming by Senator Warren, Representative Mondell and Assistant Commissioner of the Land Office Richards when they secured a reduction in the area of the forest reserve in the southeastern part of Albany county and the establishment of one of about 50,000 acres in the same locality.

The new reserve is established for the purpose of protecting the watershed at the head of Crow creek, from which Cheyenne valley draws its water. The land is now being surveyed and having been thrown open to settlement by reducing the area of the old reserve a large number of people will be enabled to locate on a valuable part of the public domain. It is said that already to a considerable extent the land has been taken up.

The policy of establishing forest reserves is wise, but care should be taken to avoid making them needlessly large. That error was committed when the Wyoming reservation under consideration was first created. Much of the land embraced within its limits was more valuable for settlement than for the protection of timber and the preservation unimpaired of the Cheyenne watershed. The mistake made then has been corrected by the recent action of the people most deeply interested.

AGGRESSIVE WORK IN A GOOD CAUSE.

A New York society woman, Mrs. Elyse S. Grant, whose husband is a nephew of the late Gen. Grant, recently caused the arrest of a truckman who was driving a horse that was weak from sickness and injury. Mrs. Grant also appeared in police court and gave her testimony against the driver, securing a conviction and the promise that the horse would be properly cared for.

Mrs. Grant declares that if other women would follow her example they would experience unbounded pleasure in the work of humane societies. Men and women will often interfere when they see a horse being ill treated, but beyond making the drivers redoubtable their abuse of helpless animals, they seldom accomplish anything. Thousands of persons who are tender-hearted enough to stop and expostulate with a brutal driver are not willing to carry their humane fight into the police court and secure convictions. The plea is made that appearance in a police court means loss of time, to say nothing of publicity, but time spent in aiding un-

PLAIN SAILING WITH RODEY.

From San Francisco Bee.

For the republicans politics is a pleasant pastime these days. No explanations are necessary when you approach voters about the election and the character of the preparations that are being made it is plain that the occasion is going to be one of much more than ordinary interest. Indeed, the republican people of the state city declare that they intend to make it so attractive that it will draw the biggest crowd ever gathered in the southwest and we'll be there to see.

The friends of Marcelino Barza of Pena Blanca are urging him for county commissioner. Pena Blanca republicans are fully organized and united for victory in November.

The republicans of Bland are getting organized for effective work, and Bernard S. Rodey will carry that camp by a good majority.

Bland is getting in shape to enjoy prosperity. The people are hopeful of big developments in the mines this coming winter.

Mr. Rodey is at Tierra Amarilla, today, where he will make a speech before the republican county convention.

Altamira precinct in the Cochiti mining district contains over 500 people, and badly needs a postoffice.

Socorro county republicans to-day will nominate a strong and winning county ticket.

Republicans are urged to get every voter in New Mexico properly registered.

Must Have Cork Helmets.

Army officers were considerably surprised at reading dispatches of the sufferings of the American troops in China. From the dispatch, accounts of the hardships it was the belief that the regiments sent to China had been equipped with cork helmets and that their campaign hats had been discarded. The heat of the sun is dangerous, but overheating of the digestive organs is even more so. To overcome irritation and other stomach troubles there is nothing to equal Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. A Hearty Endorsement From the Press.

Republican Papers United on His Candidacy.

He is Honest, Eloquent and Acquainted With the People.

CLIPPINGS FROM EXCHANGES.

PLAIN SAILING WITH RODEY.

From San Francisco Bee.

For the republicans politics is a pleasant pastime these days. No explanations are necessary when you approach voters about the election and the character of the preparations that are being made it is plain that the occasion is going to be one of much more than ordinary interest. Indeed, the republican people of the state city declare that they intend to make it so attractive that it will draw the biggest crowd ever gathered in the southwest and we'll be there to see.

The friends of Marcelino Barza of Pena Blanca are urging him for county commissioner. Pena Blanca republicans are fully organized and united for victory in November.

The republicans of Bland are getting organized for effective work, and Bernard S. Rodey will carry that camp by a good majority.

Bland is getting in shape to enjoy prosperity. The people are hopeful of big developments in the mines this coming winter.

Mr. Rodey is at Tierra Amarilla, today, where he will make a speech before the republican county convention.

Altamira precinct in the Cochiti mining district contains over 500 people, and badly needs a postoffice.

Socorro county republicans to-day will nominate a strong and winning county ticket.

Republicans are urged to get every voter in New Mexico properly registered.

Must Have Cork Helmets.

Army officers were considerably surprised at reading dispatches of the sufferings of the American troops in China. From the dispatch, accounts of the hardships it was the belief that the regiments sent to China had been equipped with cork helmets and that their campaign hats had been discarded. The heat of the sun is dangerous, but overheating of the digestive organs is even more so. To overcome irritation and other stomach troubles there is nothing to equal Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. No matter how long you have suffered from constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia, liver and kidney troubles, the Bitters will cure you. It also creates a hearty appetite, and is an excellent tonic for the nervous. Try it.

Accidentally Shot.

W. M. Lane met with a very painful, but not necessarily serious, accident Saturday evening. By the accidental discharge of a shotgun in the hands of Fred Reasoner, he was shot in the thigh, five or six shots taking effect, one of which passed through the muscles just above the knee. Mr. Lane is at home in White Oaks for medical treatment—Baylor.

From a G. A. R. Man

My attack of Miller's Asthma was very bad. I was afraid to lie down at night for fear of smothering. I could not breathe. No matter if I lay on my back or on my side, it seemed as if there was no air and that I must surely smother to death. Mr. DeWitt's Remedy for Coughs, Croup, and Whooping Cough, cured me. I have not had the slightest return of my old enemy. I consider DeWitt's Remedy to be the best medicine in the world for coughs, croup, asthma and bronchitis. It completely cures those stubborn diseases, after which there is no more to be feared. If sufferers will just try a single bottle they will prove every word I have said, and more. Signed, J. H. New Mexican Lead Company Making a Great Record.

Within the next thirty days the new concentrating plant of the New Mexican Lead company will be operating full blast, and a further stimulus will be given the mining industry of this country, says the Alamogordo News.

An 800 foot tunnel is in process of construction and soon it will be at a distance of 85 feet the ore body will be struck and double tracks will be laid to facilitate the work of getting out the mineral. The tunnel will make connection with a shaft, which is now being sunk to a depth of 125 feet.

The vein is exposed on the surface of the hill 325 feet in width, indicating that there is a mountain of rich lead ore, and that the strike is one of the most important that has ever been made in the western country. The operators are confident that the lead will continue the entire length of the mountain without diminution in width or value. A smelter proposition is now being considered by the company and

A WINNING CANDIDATE.

The Santa Fe New Mexican of last Saturday judged B. S. Rodey, the republican candidate for delegate to congress, and besides printed the following biographical sketch of him: Mr. Rodey has been since 1881 a resident of Albuquerque, in Bernalillo county. He is a lawyer by profession, of Irish birth and an American citizen by choice and adoption. He was born in 1856 at Balla Gha Derrin, Mayo, Ireland. The early years of his life were spent amidst the mosses and vine-covered ruins of the castles of his forefathers. He is of the Connaught Rodey-McDonnell (the latter being his mother's name) and is therefore unmistakably of unimixed Irish stock. As a child he was taken by his parents to Canada, where he grew to manhood. In that rigorous climate he acquired many hardships, having no advantage from those of experience in farming, mining and merchandising. In the 70s, while still very young, he went to Boston and clerked in its railroad office, reading law in his spare moments in company with the celebrated Edward C. Carrigan, who was then in the law office of Benjamin F. Butler.

His advent to New Mexico was as private secretary to F. W. Smith, who was general superintendent of the Atlantic & Pacific, and built the road that ran between the Rio Grande and Colorado. This employment, however, was but a brief one, and he was soon called to the position of second judicial district, and continued his law reading with McCaskey, Carrigan & Thornton in Albuquerque. He was naturalized in 1882, and admitted to the
