FLIGHT FROM PEKIN

Emperor and Empress Fly from Allies.

Heavy Rains in Northern Part of Arizona.

Empress of China Beheaded Friends of Foreigners in Peking.

SUNDAY BASE BALL GAMES.

New York, Aug. 20.—A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from Shanghai says:

Kank Yi, former assistant grand secretary of the empire, and General Lung Pao Shuang, a leading army officer, are advancing from Peking southwestward, with the object of diverting the allies from pursuit of the emperor and empress dowager.

On August 13th the imperial household left Peking. Prince Tuan led the march with his troops, taking the emperor and empress dowager and all the Manchus nobles. Their destination is believed to be Sianan Fu, in Shensi province.

Prince Ching was left in command at Peking and he welcomed the allies in a friendly manner. The empress dowager bestowed twelve imperial chamberlains who refused to leave the capital and were suspected of favoring the foreigners.

The Chinese report heavy losses in fighting between Tien Tsin and Peking. General Li Heng Hang was wounded at Pe Ti Shing and died the next day. General Ma was dangerously wounded at Tung Chou, where General Chen Zolin and Chang Cheng Fu, commanding Wang Lu's vanguard, were killed.

Lost His Head.
New York, Aug. 20.—A dispatch to the Herald from Tien Tsin says:

"A tatarli yamen secretary was beheaded for sending supplies to the ministers."

RUSSIAN ATROCITIES.

Story of Cossack Cruelty in China Denied by Mrs. Drew.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The Russian embassy has been annoyed by constant reports attributing atrocities to the Russian troops in China. One of the most notable instances was the alleged interview with Mrs. Anna Drew, wife of E. B. Drew, chief secretary of Sir Robert Hart. Mrs. Drew has addressed a letter from Chicago to the Russian ambassador, in which she totally denies the horrible story attributed to her of the atrocities committed by the Russian soldiers, and says: "I can, from my own experience during those terrible days of the siege of Tien Tsin, speak only in the highest terms of praise of the Russian soldiers, who undoubtedly saved our lives on more than one occasion."

The Russian embassy believes the sensational attacks are published with the obvious purpose of prejudicing the American press and people against the Russian army.

Adams Express company was carrying from Chicago to Burlington for the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy agent, had been lost.

Massacre of Missionaries.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The state department this morning received a dispatch from Consul Fowler, dated at Chefoo, August 15, confirming the massacre of missionaries and others at Pao Ting Fu, which has been referred to several times in press dispatches.

Rains in Arizona.

Phoenix, Aug. 20.—An extraordinarily heavy flood continues to come down from northern and central Arizona, and the Salt River is still rising. All the canals are full. The rise is worth many hundred thousands of dollars to the Verde and Salt valleys.

Date Changed Again.

New York, Aug. 20.—The date of the First Minnesota battle contest has again been changed. It will now be held on Friday, Aug. 24.

Chinese Troops Surrounding

Washington, Aug. 20.—The state department has received a cablegram from Consul Ragdale, at Tien Tsin, saying that the Chinese troops are surrounded by the allied army in the palace grounds at Peking.

Hot.

Chicago, Aug. 20.—The intense heat today resulted in the death of two persons and caused a large number of prostrations.

BRAVE LITTLE JAPS.

They Helped Whip the Chinese at City of Peking.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The Japanese legation has received several important dispatches. One received today from Tokyo, dated August 19, says:

"After the entry into Peking was effected by the allied troops, the Japanese troops on August 15 took themselves to and remained in the imperial palace. A body of Japanese troops was told off to guard the palace. They met with obstinate resistance by Chinese troops. Fighting is still going on. The headquarters of Japanese troops is in the legation, and the division is mainly quartered in the villages outside."

Another telegram, dated the 19th, gives a report of the Japanese consul-general at Shanghai, saying that Sheng credits the report that the empress dowager and probably the emperor, also, have left Peking as the privy council crossed the Luken bridge on the 15th, bearing the banner of the imperial cortege. Also Prince Ching is still in Peking, although Prince Tuan followed the empress dowager.

American Loss in Siege of Legations at Peking.

MINISTER CONGER COMPLIMENTED.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Li Hung Chang's application for the appointment of a peace commissioner expresses a willingness to hold negotiations at any point desired by the powers. It is expected that this will have to be Peking or Tien Tsin. A similar application has been made by Earl Li to all the powers interested. The application does not suggest any particular terms nor ask the withdrawal of troops. It requests that the negotiations shall be for the purpose of bringing about a cessation of hostilities.

Compliment to Conger.
Washington, Aug. 20.—The Chinese government, through Li Hung Chang, has made application to the United States for the appointment of Minister Conger or some other American official with authority to open negotiations for the establishment of peace and for fixing definite terms of settlement of the present trouble.

that event point to more prosperous times

At Bland the Navajo Milling company are expecting to resume operations as soon as the necessary machinery can be obtained, which will provide work for many, as well as the lumber mill, which has large orders on hand, will start up shortly. The Alamar mill is running and has let a contract for a new pipe line, so as to have sufficient water to run their mills, so that the fear of having to close down for want of water has been overcome, and the camp will continue on in its prosperous way. During the quietness, politics seems to be the chief topic for debate, and if Bland had the deciding vote for president, Bryan would surely be elected. So between debates and a cool drink of Lem's beer, time passes quietly awaiting better times in Bland.

Were Married.

Mr. E. C. Maynard and Miss Mary Murray were married Saturday afternoon, at the West. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Armstrong. Miss Murray is well known in this city. Mr. Maynard is in the employ of the Electric Light company. He was a member of the United States signal corps during the Spanish-American war. The Citizen extends congratulations.

If You Want to Make Money

Get a job in the mint. If you want to save money Trade at the Iceberg.

The Territorial fair privileges, which have been advertised the past week in both the city daily newspapers, will be opened at the meeting of the executive committee of the fair, to be held at the city building, Wednesday night, August 22. Those desiring privileges are requested to read over the list carefully and then prepare their bids. Here is an opportunity to make some extra funds.

The Question of Money is all important with a thrifty housekeeper. The carpet values here offered for a dollar are simply wonderful. The pattern, quality and material shine at their best in these temptations to floor coverings. Few people like what they don't want because cheap, but when things sought for come at prices that are neat fits for the pocketbook, they challenge quick taking.

They Object to Meeting with the Grand Army of the Republic.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 20.—General John B. Gordon, commander in chief of the United Confederate veterans, has prepared a reply to the recent resolutions adopted by the camp of veterans at New Orleans, condemning the blue and grey reunion at Atlanta, and recommending that no more similar reunions be held, and protesting against Gordon accepting the invitation of the G. A. R. reunion at Chicago. He says that circumstances prevented him accepting the Chicago invitation, but adds: "But in this connection I wish to say I must be the judge, now and hereafter, of the propriety of accepting of invitations from any section of the country or any class of my fellow countrymen."

Mrs. W. J. Leavitt, accompanied by her son and daughter, arrived yesterday morning from California, where they have been enjoying themselves the past month at the various popular watering places.

LOST TWO GAMES!

The El Paso Colts Took Both Games.

Fine Exhibitions of the Great National Sport.

Visitors Royally Treated by the El Paso People.

BATCH OF INTERESTING NOTES.

The Browns base ball club, under the management and captaincy of Roy McDonald, visited El Paso, Texas, last Saturday and played a series of two games.

On the arrival of the train Saturday morning, June 8, Hart, editor of the Times; Manager Jacoby and his wife, and a platform full of El Paso citizens, were at the depot and royally greeted the coming of the Browns and their friends.

The Browns and a few friends were assigned comfortable quarters at Hotel Ordorff, Charles De Goff, proprietor, while others of the party went to the Hotel Zeigler, Charles Zeigler, proprietor.

In the afternoon, at 4 o'clock, the first game was called, with Edward Pickard, of this city, as umpire. He also umpired the second game.

The score by innings was as follows:

El Paso 0 1 2 0 0 5 11

Browns 0 0 1 0 0 0 2

Batteries—For El Paso: Pritchard, pitcher; Krause, catcher. For Browns: Stern, pitcher; McDonald, catcher.

A very unfortunate accident occurred in this game, Captain McDonald, in the last half of the fourth inning, having the little finger on his right hand broken at the second joint. A doctor was called from among the spectators and the injured finger placed in a bandage.

Although requested to put a substitute behind the bat, the captain refused to listen to the entreaties of friends and pluckily caught out the remainder of the game. Up to this accident, the game was a "bustle" but errors then followed and the Jacoby Colts, taking advantage of every opportunity, easily outplayed to the front winners.

SECOND GAME.
The second game was played yesterday afternoon and proved one of the very best and most exciting games ever played in El Paso. So stated "Give-a-Dam" Jones at the depot last night, just before the train pulled out for the north.

Long was the pitcher for the Colts and Krause was his receiver. The Browns had in the pitchers' box "Biondini" Winkowski and Captain McDonald, with his broken finger, was behind the bat.

The score by innings was as follows:

El Paso 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Browns 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 2 3

This game was replete with some of the prettiest and most perfect infield plays from both teams imaginable, and at times the transfer of the ball in several double plays was positively as quick as lightning. In the third inning, when El Paso was at the bat, only three balls were pitched by Winkowski, each batter up hit into the field and each baseman ducked at first base. While there were many brilliant plays, still there were errors, and these errors were responsible for at least three of the Colts' runs. On the other side, errors gave the Browns at least two runs. Therefore, leaving out the errors and coming down to the solid facts that the Colts presented a stronger team, the score should have been 3 to 1.

SHORT PARAGRAPHS.
Frank J. Cramer, who resided in this city a few years ago, is at El Paso, and was an interested spectator of the games.

C. B. Dixon and his brothers, Ed, and Jack Dixon, are in El Paso. They attended the games and yelled for the Browns.

George Kester, formerly a barber at Thein Bros, is now running "The Parlor" shops at El Paso. He "rooted" for the Browns and got left.

The Browns base ball club and several of the "fans" returned to the city this morning. They all had a fine time and are loud in their praise of the treatment given them.

Carl Enke, you see a resident of this city, now in the cigar and tobacco business at El Paso, helped to make the stay of the Albuquerqueans in the city very pleasant.

The visitors to El Paso, including the Browns base ball club and the fans, are under great and lasting thanks to Captain Juan S. Hart and other prominent citizens of the Paso City for courtesies extended them. They were treated like kings; nothing was too good for them, and at places instructions were positively given "to take no Albuquerque money." The friendliest feeling existed, and the Albuquerque visitors were assured that El Paso would be largely represented at the fair to be held in this city from September 18 to 22.

Yesterday afternoon, The Citizen representative and A. B. McGaffey were guests of the famous McGinty social club. The gathering was for the purpose of welcoming back to El Paso William Waite, president of the Water company, who had been absent in Arizona for some time. This organization is composed of the principal business men of the Paso City, and they, with the famous McGinty band and orchestra, were present. It was a genuine love feast and the Brunswick stew was an exceedingly palatable dish. Short speeches were made and each orator announced that they were pleased to extend courtesies to the Albuquerque visitors, hoping to reciprocate by visiting the Duke City during the fair.

One of the old-time players on the Colts' side was "Red" Sullivan, who tossed ball when the Browns were wearing knee pants. He is not only a good ball player, but he is one of El Paso's crack fencers. He is foreman of the department of that city and delighted the visitors by giving several practice "ring outs" of the horses. The animals showed that they had been well trained and their work was perfect. El Paso can truly be proud of her fere department, for the apparatus is of the best and the system cannot be improved on. Frank Powers, a well-known merchant of that city, is chief of the department.

Fifteen citizens of Albuquerque accompanied the Browns base ball club to El Paso last Saturday and the whole party, including the base ball players, did fine missionary work for the territorial fair. The president of the association accompanied the boys, and he secured propositions from two famous bands of Chihuahua, and the celebrated McGinty band to play here during the week. These propositions will be considered at the meeting of the fair executive committee at the city building Wednesday night. There will be plenty of music at the fair and biggest hostilities in the southwest and has a wonderful trade.

J. M. Wingo, who was connected with the Journal-Democrat a few years ago, is now cashier of the Loscher National bank of El Paso. He attended the games and was pleased to see his former Albuquerque friends.

W. G. McCormick, trainmaster of the Mexican Central, still has a soft spot in his anatomy for Albuquerque and her people, especially the base ball club. He took in both games and yelled when a fine play was made by the Browns.
