STILL ALIVE!

Russian Minister not Killed at Peking.

He Sends Message to St. Petersburg.

Czar Gives Him Permission to Leave Chinese Capital.

ANOTHER MESSAGE FROM CONGER.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 11.—The official Messenger to-day publishes the following:

The foreign office received a telegram to-day direct from M. De Giers, Russian minister at the Chinese capital, from Peking. The dispatch was evidently taken by special courier to the capital of Peking, and the telegram was received on August 7 by the local wires.

De Giers announces that the siege of the legation, still continues, and that the besieged still had some provisions left. The Chinese government proposes to transmit ministers' messages, and that they leave Peking. As the ministers had not sufficient guarantee, they replied that they must receive the permission of their governments before leaving the city.

The Messenger announces that the czar's approval has been given for De Giers to start to Tien Tsin, with his entire staff and a marine guard, on condition that the existing government at Peking and the emperor afford them a guarantee that the journey can be undertaken without danger.

At the same time De Giers is expected to call the attention of the Chinese authorities to the heavy responsibility the Chinese government will incur if there should be the slightest infraction of the inviolability of the persons accompanying them to Tien Tsin.

DISPATCH FROM CHAFFEE.

Americans Carried First Line of Defense at Yang Tsun.

Washington, Aug. 11.—The following telegram was received at the navy department to-day from Admiral Remey:

"The Foo, Aug. 10.—Chaffee telegrams from the front on August 6th, Yang Tsun was occupied. Casualties, about sixty in my command, two marines wounded. Many prostrated by heat and fatigue. The next move is as yet unknown. The general commanding the British at the front, telegraphed: 'Marched from Pei Tsang nine miles toward Yang Tsun, then formed for attack with the Americans on the right, and the Russians on the left. After a rapid advance of three miles under a hot rifle and shell fire, our troops carried the first line of defense. Casualties, about fifty killed or died from sunstroke.'

REMEY.

WHOLESALE POISONING.

Texas Town Suffered Over Fatal Watermelon Poisoning Case.

Cherokee, Texas, Aug. 11.—At Buffalo, an isolated place west of this city, the people are greatly worked up over an alleged wholesale poisoning. A number of boys went into a farmer's melon patch and ate and destroyed a great many melons. A few days later the boys wrote the farmer a note telling him that they were going to visit his melon patch and would get more melons than on the previous visit. The farmer split the stems of some of the melons and inserted strychnine. Six boys visited the place and ate the melons. Two of the boys died in the patch and two died on the way home, and two died after reaching their homes.

Chinese Protest.

Washington, Aug. 11.—The viceroys of China, including Li Hung Chang, have addressed a request to the United States government to use its good offices with the powers to prevent the landing of foreign troops at Shanghai. The state department received the communication from Minister Wu, who received it last night. The document states that an agreement was made about a month ago by which the foreign governments exercised the right of protection over the city of Shanghai. This protection, it is claimed, can be amply carried out without the landing of troops, as twenty foreign warships are now in the harbor, and are able to protect the interests of foreigners and maintain order. The viceroys also urge that the landing of troops will incite disorder.

Next Week

We will move into our new store. Until then we will sell CLOCKS, CUT GLASS, SILVERWARE at any old price.

EVERITT,

Leading Jeweler, Railroad Avenue.

Speaking of China,

We are probably in a better position to talk with you on the subject than any one else in the Territory, and will gladly give you our ideas if you will drop in. It's a great subject, especially when our low prices are the immediate subject of discussion. We are also strong on glassware, kitchen utensils, freezers, etc., etc. We show weakness only in our prices.

LATE FAIR NOTES!

Brief Pointers Regarding the Big Fair.

Changes in the Lawn Tennis Committee.

The Handsome Central School Building Accepted.

ARCHITECT CRISTY'S GOOD WORK.

Ten thousand letter heads and envelopes, announcing the fair, have been furnished the merchants of the city, and they are being used judiciously. The Indian school band at the Phoenix government school would like to take part in the fair festivities. The proposition of James Devine, the band master, is now being considered. The time for the opening of the bids for the erection of the grand stand and the platform has been extended until 7:30 o'clock this evening at Hill & La Driere's office in the Grand building. The president of the fair association is now figuring with an eastern concern who has a small railroad novelty, and if his terms are not too high all visitors to the new fair grounds will be carried on a diminutive railway train.

Pitt Ross, the city surveyor and engineer, will survey the Midway Plaisance lot and the diamond for the base ball games and athletic sports Monday next. As soon as he submits his drawings, the fair committee will be ready to offer for sale privilege space.

Fair contributors are requested to pay promptly on the call of the collector. Contracts have been signed and funds have got to be on deposit in the bank. The fair is an assured go-no power can stop the tidal wave; it will here from September 18 to 21, 1900.

As there will be considerable work on the daily programs of the fair, and also time needed in securing fair souvenir medals and badges, the president of the association invites proposition bids and bids on these two privileges before the complete list of privileges are announced.

As the lawn tennis tournament committee is lacking in working numbers, it has been suggested that F. H. Newman and R. A. Starnum be appointed instead of T. N. Wilkinson and L. C. Brooks, who are out of the city on their vacation. Messrs. Newman and Starnum are therefore appointed on the committee, and are requested to confer with Miss Margaret Kent, the other committee member.

It is learned to-day that several merchants, who helped to beautify Railroad avenue and Second street with outside booths last year, kept their booths in place and will bring them out for the coming fair, with some needed improvements. Outside booths, with the fronts of stores and the windows appropriately decorated, will add much to the appearance of Albuquerque during fair week.

This morning the fair committee secured the use of an armory hall for the big fair carnival ball, which will be held on Friday night, September 21. Samuel Pickard has charge of this exceedingly interesting adjunct to a street fair entertainment, and he will announce his assistants in a few days, when good work toward making this feature a big success will be promptly inaugurated.

The Santa Fe railway, through General Passenger Agent Black, and the Santa Fe Pacific, through General Passenger Agent Byrne, are now rendering their aid to the fair committee by securing the use of the railway for the coming big fair. Circulars announcing the cheap rates from and return to towns along the two roads, have been issued, while the station agents have been supplied with flaming fair posters.

A lady in Galveston, Ill., has written a lengthy letter to the fair committee on the subject of "Cooking." She would like for the association erect a booth and start a "cooking school" among the many attractions. Should the committee favorably decide upon her plan, she will come and give "demonstration lectures in the delightful art of cooking" for $100 and her expenses. This is a new novelty that had not entered the imaginary and fertile brain of the committee, but will be freely discussed at the next meeting.

It is now an assured fact—these deductions being made from letters received from all over the southwest—that the biggest crowd in the history of Albuquerque will be here the third week in September, and the good people of Albuquerque should begin at an early day to make arrangements to comfortably house and feed the visitors. All those who will have spare rooms ought to send in their names, with the number of rooms for occupancy, to Ralph Hunt, who has charge of the bureau of information. He will list the names and see that proper recognition is given.

The voting coupon contest for the "Queen of the Carnival" is starting up nicely and the names of the following
