WAR IN CHINA!

Europeans Surrounded in Tien Tsin.

Roosevelt Notified of His Nomination.

Sir Robert Hart's Last Message on June 25.

LACK OF HARMONY IN ALLIED ARMY.

London, July 12.—The British admiral today received the following dispatch from Vice Admiral Seymour: "Tien Tsin, July 12.—The Chinese continue fighting, often shelling the settlements. They are extending their lines along the Lu Tai canal to the east and are appearing in greater force to the west of the city."

"Yesterday we bombarded the city and immediate suburbs, which stopped the Chinese gun fire for some time. The French settlements and stations are most subject to attack. To-day we had another bombardment. An steady getting up more guns. Two thousand troops are now here. More are required but both Russians and Japanese are expected."

Last Message.
New York, July 12.—A dispatch to the Journal Advertiser from the Che Foo, dated July 8, says: "A courier from Sir Robert Hart, in Peking, has just arrived, bringing this message, dated June 25: 'Close to good-bye. Near the end.'"

LAST LEGATION NEWS.

Europeans in Peking are undoubtedly all massacred by the Chinese.

Paris, July 12.—The Temps announces that it is in a position to affirm that contrary to the statements from various sources that no European telegram has been received from Peking since that of Sir Robert Hart (inspector general of Chinese customs) dispatched on Sunday, June 24, declaring the situation desperate. Continuing the Temps says: "The subsequent silence is sinister. If it is true that the legations are safe they could communicate with Europe. If they cannot, it is because the Chinese have juggled dates and the massacre took place as announced on June 30 or July 1."

ROOSEVELT NOTIFIED.

The Next Vice President Officially so Informed.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 12.—Governor Roosevelt was today officially notified of his nomination for the vice presidency at his country home, Sagamore, near Oyster Bay. The notification committee appointed by the republication convention came by railroad to Oyster Bay, where carriages were in waiting to convey them to Sagamore. Several invited guests accompanied the party, most of them prominent New Yorkers.

It was noon when the party arrived at its destination. Governor Roosevelt received them on the wide vine covered porch at Sagamore, and presented each of them to Mrs. Roosevelt. Shortly after 12 o'clock Senator Wolcott called the committee to the porch and read the formal notification in his clear, resonant voice.

When Wolcott concluded, Governor Roosevelt, in a clear, firm voice, said: "Mr. Chairman—I accept the honor conferred upon me with the keenest, deepest appreciation of what it means, and, above all, of the responsibility that goes with it. Everything that it is in my power to do will be done to secure the re-election of President McKinley, to whom it has been given in this crisis of national history to stand for and embody the principles which lie closest to the heart of every American worthy of the name.

"This is very much more than a mere party contest. We stand at the parting of the ways. We have now to decide whether they shall go forward along the path of prosperity and high honor abroad, or whether they will turn their backs upon what has been done during the past three years, whether they will plunge their country into an abyss of misery and disaster, or, what is worse than even misery and disaster—shame. I feel that we have the right to appeal, not merely to republicans, but to all good citizens, no matter what may have been their party affiliations in the past, and ask them to help strengthen the record that President McKinley has made during the past three years, and on the strength of the threat implied in what was done at Kansas City a few days ago, to stand shoulder to shoulder with us in perpetuating the conditions under which the country has been placed. For these reasons I feel we have the right to look forward with confident expectation to what the verdict of the people will be next November, and ask all those whom the well being of the country and the honor of the national name are dear, to stand with us as we fight for prosperity at home and the honor of the flag abroad."

Applause broke out as the governor concluded, but he checked it instantly by saying: "Gentlemen, one moment, please. Here Ned," he cried to Senator Wolcott. "This is not to the national committee, but I want to say this to my friends, friends of my own state, who are here. Just let me say how I appreciate seeing so many of you here to-day. I want to say I am more than honored and pleased at having been made a candidate for vice president on the national ticket, but you cannot imagine how badly I feel at leaving the men with whom I have worked for six years, and the cause of which I have been so proud to be a part."

TOO MANY GENERALS.

Lack of Harmony in Operations of the Allied Armies.

Tien Tsin, July 4. Via Che Foo, July 8, Shanghai, July 11.—(Copyright, 1900, by the Associated Press.)—The homogenous army of half the strength of the allied forces could do better work than is being done by them. Operations are being dangerously handicapped, and the safety of the city imperiled by the lack of organization and one commander to control all the forces. There is a great need of more troops. The present force of 10,000 men is attempting to hold a line of fifteen miles in length around the city. There is also great need of rebuilding the railroad to Taku and getting artillery equal to the guns with which the enemy are daily bombarding the position of the allied forces. The foreign population are greatly aroused concerning the apparent apathy of the powers. While the city is being bombarded they are likely to suffer heavily; and they cannot understand the apparent negligence of the governments to furnish relief and why reinforcements are not coming on faster. The Americans are particularly disheartened, because, though they have one of the smallest representations, their interests are second to none.

MCKINLEY ACCEPTS

Delivers a Key Note Speech.

Demand for News of Min- ister Conger.

Three Fusion Conventions in Ses- sion at Lincoln, Neb.

WEST VIRGINIA REPUBLICANS.

Canton, Ohio, July 12.—The second notification of William McKinley that he has been selected as the nominee of the republican party for president was made to-day. Chairman Lodge and the members of the notification committee, together with Chairman Hanna and the members of the national committee, arrived on a special train from Cleveland at 11 o'clock, and were met by the citizens' committee and band, and escorted to the home of President McKinley, where a great crowd had collected.

President McKinley greeted the arrivals cordially. Many distinguished men occupied seats on the porch, among them being Senator Hanna, Postmaster General Smith, Cornelius N. Bliss, Henry C. Payne, Judge Day, H. C. Kereans and Representative Taylor.

Senator Lodge mounted a small standing block and delivered the speech of notification. The senator's remarks were frequently interrupted with applause. When Lodge closed, President McKinley mounted the stand and the vast concourse cheered lustily. It was some moments before the president could proceed. He had manuscript, but referred to it only at long intervals. When he mentioned "this new people under our care," there was a hearty burst of applause. The audience appreciated the debt which McKinley gave imperialism and cheered most heartily.

After expressing appreciation of the honor done him and relating how his promises of four years ago had been kept, the president continued:

"Unfortunately the worst of 1896 has just been renewed by the allied parties without abatement or modification. The gold bill has been denounced and its repeal demanded. The menace of 16 to 1, therefore, still hangs over us with all its dire consequences to credit and confidence, to business and industry. The enemies of sound currency are rallying their scattered forces and the people must once more unite and overcome the advocates of repudiation and must not relax their energy until the battle for public honor and honest money shall again triumph."

"A congress which will sustain and, if need be, strengthen the present law can prevent a financial catastrophe which every lover of the nation is anxious to avert. Not satisfied with the currency of the government, our political adversaries condemn the tariff law enacted at the extra session of congress in 1897, known as the Dingley act, passed in obedience to the will of the people expressed at an election in the preceding November, a law which at once stimulated our industries, opened our life factories and mines and gave to the laborer and to the farmer returns for their toil and investment. Shall we go back to a tariff which brings a deficiency to our revenues and destruction to our industrial enterprises?"

The president then reviewed the results of the war, and said: "China has been liberated and our guarantees to her people will be sacredly executed. A beneficent government has been provided for Porto Rico. The Philippines are ours and American authority must be supreme throughout the archipelago. There will be amnesty, broad and liberal, but no abatement of our rights, no abandonment of our duty. There must be no acquiescence. We will fill in the Philippines the obligations imposed by the triumph of our arms and by the treaty of peace; by international law, by the nation's sense of honor, and more than all, by the rights, interests and conditions of the Philippine people themselves. Organized forces, which have been misled into rebellion, have been dispersed by our faithful soldiers and sailors, and the people of the island, delivered from anarchy, pillage and oppression, have recognized American sovereignty as the symbol and pledge of peace, justice, law, religious freedom, education, security of life and property, and the welfare and prosperity of their several communities."

"We reassert the early principle of the republican party, sustained by unbroken judicial precedents, that the representatives of the people in congress assembled, have full legislative power over territory belonging to the United States, subject to the fundamental safeguards of liberty, justice and personal rights, and are vested with ample authority to act for the highest interests of the people entrusted to their care."

Shoes That Satisfy.

The customer that looks to dollars and cents doesn't want one extreme or the other in Shoes. Quality and Style should balance. Some Shoes are made of poor materials and go to excess in Style—All Style and No Wear. Others are made of honest materials but run through the factory in grist mill fashion and look like Brick Bats—the other extreme.

What we do is to give you a happy combination of Superior Quality, Clever Workmanship and Popular Styles and prices that you can and will pay. If this is your idea of Shoes you should take your first chance to see, examine and try our Men's Ladies' and Children's Shoes.

Charles Crane and family are enjoying life at the Jones hot spring.
J. W. Thurber, a well-known citizen of Williams, is in the city to-day.
J. J. Alsop, representing a well-known sheep dip, is in the city to-day.
Dr. W. N. Burdick, of Denver, came in from the north last night, and stopped at the Hotel Highland.
William Cassman, an attaché of the Metropole, was at the depot this morning, where he met a lady from the north.
Mrs. J. H. Long, a lady from Williams, Ariz., reached the city to-day and will leave to-morrow morning on a visit to El Paso friends.
D. A. Craig and family were passengers to the city this morning from Fort Wingate and have secured a good room at Sturges' European.
Max H. Pich, from Magdalena, is in the city. He and family are arranging to leave for Southern California, and will probably go west to-night.
Triple Link Rebekah lodge will give a dime social at the home of S. Vann, on North Third street, Friday evening, July 12. Everybody cordially invited.
C. A. Stephens, interested in the future of Bland, came in from the Cochiti mining district last night and took at room at the Grand Central.
Mrs. Sol Block, the Grants general merchant and Indian trader, came in from the west this morning and is doing some trading with Albuquerque retail merchants to-day.
This office has received notice that Colonel T. B. Mills, of Las Vegas, has gone into bankruptcy, and advising creditors to present their claims against the gentleman on the 14th of July.
"A full house this morning," echoed F. C. Gellenback, manager of the Hotel Harvey eating house, as he saw every seat around the counter taken and half a dozen hungry passengers standing waiting for places.
Walter L. Decker, from Magdalena, is stopping at the Hotel Highland. This morning he was noticed in conversation with mine host, F. H. Mitchell, and told that gentleman that the whole population of Magdalena was preparing to visit Albuquerque in September when the territorial fair was in full blast.
Serapio Romero was here last night, leaving this morning for Las Vegas. He has the contract for hauling ore from the Handscribble mine for the Magdalena Mining and Milling company, at Magdalena. He states that about a carload of ore is loaded daily for shipment to the company's smelter at Cerrillos.
The black horse, the old and faithful buggy animal of Mrs. T. J. Shinnick, reached its 25th birthday last March, and is good for a few more years of general driving. "Betty" is the name of the animal, and she came of high-bred Kentucky stock. As old as she is, for a short distance, "Betty" can carry a buggy with two people at a 2:30 clip.
Frank Lee, who will appear with the Riggs Stock company in their production of "In Old Kentucky," Monday night, at the new theater, assumes a role in the character of Frank Layson, different from any of his characters heretofore. His many friends who have seen him in so many different roles will watch with interest his work in this beautiful southern piece.
H. E. FERGUSON RETURNS.
He Attended Democratic Convention—Visited Chicago for Territorial Fair.
Hon. H. E. Ferguson, the democratic national committee man, who attended the convention recently held at Kansas City, returned to the city last night. At the request of the president of the convention, Mr. Ferguson went to Chicago and had a talk with railroad officials as to cheap rates for visitors to the fair to be held in this city in the fall. He was assured that the railroad company would do the best they could in the way of rates. In the meantime, however, the fair association president had written letters asking for the cheapest rates possible, and it is hoped that the company will be more liberal this year than last in dealing with this important matter, for the right kind of rates will bring a tremendously large crowd to the territorial metropolis in the coming September.
For Cooling the Theater.
Arrangements have been made with the electric light company by the management of the new theater to cool the auditorium on these warm summer evenings. Three immense electric fans have been placed in position on the lower floor, which will, between the acts start a circulation of cool air and give great comfort to the audience. The fans will be in operation on Monday evening at the opening of the Riggs Stock company's engagement.
Notice.
The natorium is reserved to-night for Frank Quier and a party of friends.

A MONKEY AND PARROT TIME!

You know the whole story. There's the mischief to pay, and somebody must foot the bill. The moral of it is: buy good furniture—such as will stand wear and tear the best, for monkey and parrot are everywhere, in some form or other. We want to add that furniture figures as a necessity, a convenience and a luxury. All these points are covered handsomely in a good representative stock, such as we are showing. Just study the economy in our prices.
