American Stock Exchange (amex) Campaign To Attract Mexican Companies

by Steven Ranieri

Category/Department: General

Published: Wednesday, May 20, 1992

During a visit to Mexico City in early May, Nicholas Platt, international division vice president of the American Stock Exchange (AMEX), told reporters that the exchange is implementing a campaign to compete with the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) in attracting large- and medium-scale Mexican companies. At present, only Tubos Aceros Mexicanos (TAMSA) is listed on the AMEX. (Source: El Financiero International, 05/11/92)
