NEAR KROONSTADT

British Army Closing on the Boers.

Bloody Battle Imminent at any Time.

Boers Evacuate First Line of Entrenchments at Kroonstadt.

BOERS ACCUSED OF TRFACERY.

London, May 12, 2:30 p. m.—The war office has received the following from Lord Roberts: "Bohrand, May 12, 9 a. m.—I am eight miles south of Kroonstadt. The enemy evacuated the first line of entrenchments during the night. We are now reconnoitering toward Kroonstadt. General French's cavalry seized the drift over Vaal river last evening, just in time to prevent the passage being opposed by the enemy."

Boers Pushed Back.
Eden, May 11.—The Boers retired today, but it is impossible to say where they may turn up next, owing to their great mobility. General Grenfell succeeded in pushing them back near Hapushop, while General Brabant pushed forward in the direction of Brand's drift, along with General Campbell and the Sixteenth brigade.

ON THE RUN.

Boers Expected to Retreat from Kroonstadt Without a Fight.

London, May 12.—Lord Roberts is now face to face with the Boer position at Kroonstadt, and despite reports of its strength the result of the meeting of the opposing forces is expected to be very similar to the outcome following the British advance on Brandfontein and Zand river. Roberts is apparently keeping the federals moving fast to quick to give them no time for occupation of any position near him, and though numerous kopjes in the neighborhood of Kroonstadt afford strong positions from which delaying action may be made, it is anticipated by the best experts here that the Boers will now hurry on to Vaal river, where they will once more attempt to stem the passage of the invading army, while the bulk of the federals will prepare for what will perhaps be a decisive battle on the ridge running east and west toward Johannesburg, where the open ground is so favorable toward the defenders' splendid advantage over any attacking force.

Boers Evacuate Entrenchments.

London, May 12.—Lord Roberts telegraphs the war office from Geneva Sliding, May 11, evening: "My headquarters, with the 1st division, marched twenty miles to-day and are now at Geneva Sliding, four miles from Kroonstadt, about six miles from Bohrland, where the Boers are holding entrenched positions. Gordon's brigade is in touch with them; Tucker's division is a short distance southeast, and Hamilton's force is still further east. Brouard's brigade overtook a part of the enemy's convoy at Potgieter's laager, southeast of Ventersburg, and captured several wagons and some prisoners. French, with Porter's and Dickson's brigades, and Hutton's mounted infantry, is some distance due north of this place. We have taken nearly 100 prisoners in the last two days. All the Boer States who could give an account of themselves have been disarmed and allowed to return to their farms. The nights are getting much cooler."

Sympathy for the Boers.
Boston, Mass., May 12.—The Ancient Order of Hibernians passed resolutions of sympathy with the Boers. Recent utterances of Lord Salisbury regarding the people of Ireland were strongly condemned. The convention voted against any alliance with England or any other nation, and favored the introduction of English history written by Americans into the schools.

St. Louis Exposition.
Washington, May 12.—The house committee on the Louisiana Purchase exposition at St. Louis in 1904, to-day practically completed a bill covering government participation, although

BACK FROM GALLUP.

A Few Pointers Gleaned in a Talk With W. W. McClellan, book-keeper for Bachechi & Glom, returned on the delayed train from Gallup this morning, the train having been delayed several hours at McClellan's station by an accident to one of the coaches.

Mr. McClellan, in a short talk with The Citizen representative, gave the following paragraphs about Gallup and her people:

W. A. Maxwell, formerly of Albuquerque, has returned to Gallup from his trip to Washington and Oregon, where he is interested extensively in the timber industry.

The people of Gallup are at present agitating the question of a new depot, and some of the officials of the Santa Fe Pacific road are favorably inclined to the proposition.

"It is safe to say," said Mr. McClellan, "that Gallup will send a strong delegation to the next Territorial Fair. Everybody who attended last fall was well pleased, and they, with many others, are now laying aside some funds to visit Albuquerque this fall."

The postoffice is being newly papered and repainted, and a new floor will also be laid.

The Southwestern Brewery & Ice Co. of Albuquerque, will erect an ice house for the storage of beer at Gallup, plans and specifications having already been submitted.

Mino Bros., wholesale liquor merchants, have removed their quarters to a store room adjoining Kennedy's opera house.

C. N. Cotton, the well known Indian trader, is feeling the impulse of prosperity, and will make some up-to-date and extensive improvements to his residence.

The merchants of Gallup are agitating the question of sprinkling the streets, thus keeping down "real estate" during windy days.

A grand ball was held at Odd Fellows hall the other evening, and it proved to be one of the nicest dances ever held in Gallup.

Base ball has struck Gallup in good bad chunks and several clubs of local players have been organized. A game between two local teams will be played tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon.

PARTY ON THE MESA.

University Students Entertained in Fine Style Last Night.
Prof. C. E. Hodgins and wife, and Prof. E. P. Childs and wife entertained in royal style, last night, the classes of the New Mexico university, the entertainment taking place at the home of Mrs. Childs, now occupied by Professor Childs.

Louis Becker won a little volume on courtesy by Rudyard Kipling by pinning a man in his proper position on the bicycle.

Miss Elizabeth Powers received the booby prize on the bicycle proposition. Several other interesting tricks and games were indulged in, after which partners were selected and substantial and delicate refreshments were then served.

The jolly students then indulged in singing, and just as they were ready to depart for the evening three cheers and a big "Tiger" were given for the two popular professors and their wives.

JEFFRIES WON!

Result of Exciting Prize Fight.

United States Exhibit at the

Seven Persons Killed in a Railroad Accident Near Philadelphia.

ST. LOUIS STREET CAR STRIKE.

New York, May 12.—Kid McCoy summarized the Jeffries-Corbett fight as follows: "Jim Corbett lost the battle with Jeffries, but he made a magnificent struggle, leading all the way until he was suddenly dropped with a left upper-cut on the jaw after two minutes and eleven seconds fighting in the twenty-third round. He showed he was just as speedy and clever as ever and made a show of Jeffries right up to the last round. He was fighting the big fellow carefully and made him look like a novice for an hour and twenty minutes. What beat him was Jeffries' youth, strength and heavier weight. If Corbett could meet Jeffries again I would not be surprised to see him win, although he would always run the risk of being knocked out just as he was last night. There is no denying that Jeffries is fully entitled to his championship honors. He won them honestly and is wonderfully clever for such a big man. He took a good deal of jolting and jabbing from Corbett and kept enough recuperative powers left to finish him at the last."

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

Seven Persons Killed in a Tunnel Collision at Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, May 12.—Seven persons were killed in a disastrous freight train wreck early today in a tunnel of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad under Twenty-fifth street, just outside Fairmount park. Five followed the wreck, and while extinguishing the flames more than a dozen firemen were injured or overcome by smoke.

Frank Lantel, tower operator, it is claimed, slept at his post. A disastrous rear end collision resulted, causing the death of Engineer Geo. Loeb, fireman George Hickman, and it is believed, five tramps. All the dead are in the burning wreckage. Four men were killed in the collision. The loss to the company is estimated at $140,000. Lantel disappeared.

The four firemen who were most seriously injured are: John J. Lantel, hailing from May die, John Ackerman, burns and internal injuries; Joseph Davis, burned; Charles Hays, burned. Twenty additional firemen have been treated for minor injuries. Each of the four killed carried about 4,000 gallons, and the burning oil spread with great rapidity to other cars. At noon the fire was not under control and firemen were experiencing the greatest difficulty in fighting the flames.

ST. LOUIS STRIKE.

Few Cars are Running on the Street Car Lines.
St. Louis, May 12.—Both sides of the street railway strike remain firm. Although a few lines are operated, the public suffers great inconvenience. As yet no warrants have been issued against the strike leaders.

At 10 o'clock the first car to run over the Lacade avenue division of the Transit company since the strike began was started down town, carrying the usual complement of policemen. By 11 o'clock six cars were operating on that division. Except for the yells of derision that greeted the appearance of the cars, there were no attempts at interruption. General Manager George W. Baumhoff, of the Transit company, said the present police protection was inadequate and the company would not carry any car later than 7 p. m. He said the firemen were forced from his premises on account of non-protection by police.

The strike leaders, under National President Mahon, were in conference with prominent business men headed by C. B. Woodward, for three hours today. Mr. Woodward and conference submitted a proposed basis of settlement between the strikers and the company. All the conditions suggested by Woodward were agreed to save one which is an alteration of the union's original demand for recognition.

Chief Campbell announced that policemen would not be furnished to guard street cars on Sunday, as the men needed rest.

JEFFRIES WHIPPED CORBETT.

He Still Holds the Heavy-Weight Championship.
Last night at the Seaside club, of New York, the Jeffries-Corbett prize fight took place, and Jim Jeffries, the still heavy-weight champion pugilist of the world, defeated Jim Corbett in the 23rd round of their fight with a decisive knock-out. The finishing blow came as a sudden and startling surprise. Corbett had been making a wonderful battle. His defense was absolutely perfect and while he was lacking in strength he had more than held

STRIKE IN KANSAS CITY.

New York May 12.—In the police court to-day Magistrate Zoller issued a summons against the officers and directors of the American Ice company, commonly known as the ice trust, ordering them to appear on Monday next to show cause why they should not be proceeded against for conspiracy in combining to control the price and production of ice contrary to law. The summonses were sworn out by a representative of a morning newspaper.

KANSAS CITY STRIKE.

Street Cars Running With Small Force of Men.
Kansas City, May 12.—The union street railway employees voted this morning to order a strike on all the lines of the Metropolitan street railway. Not enough men responded to the call of the main lines. About 500 of the 1,500 conductors, motormen and gripmen quit work. Many men not already members of the union are joining since the strike leaders have taken a stand and it seems likely that a general tie-up will result before the day closes. The strikers showed great strength in the Twelfth street powerhouse, where only six conductors and two gripmen out of a total force of ninety men reported for duty. The strikers gathered on the corners a deputy. Chiles said he intended to protect property and life if he had to swear in all the men in the county. All the allied unions of the two cities will likely aid the street car strikers by boycotting the cars.

One of the American companies to be absorbed is the Arizona, Eastern & Montana, which has mines at Tombstone, Cochise and Mayer, Arizona, and runs a smelter at Big Butte, Arizona.
