BOERS ATTACK!

Methuen's Army at Boshof.

They Also Attack British at Dewetsdorp.

Several Chinese Die from Bubonic Plague at Manila.

WEEKLY BANK STATEMENT.

Boshof, Orange Free State, April 21.—At midday yesterday General Methuen's field force at Swart Kopjesfontein was ordered to return to Boshof. Its convoy extended over six miles. The escort took up a position on a hill commanding the road, just in the nick of time, as 2,000 Boers, with two guns and a pom-pom suddenly appeared in the vicinity and opened a heavy fire. The British, however, held them in check until the column reached a point of safety, when they retired. The British had several casualties. The Boers fought determinedly, and must have suffered considerably as they once advanced to within 300 yards of the hill, when a concealed detachment of the British opened a heavy fusillade on them.

Boiler of Wagoner.
London, April 21.—General Chermide's and General Rundle's divisions were only twenty miles from Wepener yesterday, so unless unforeseen difficulties arise they should be getting in touch with the besieged colonial force and by tomorrow have accomplished the relief, the two divisions being overwhelmingly superior to the Boer forces. As governor of the Free State, Major General Potgieter is organizing a corps of mounted police and dividing the country into sections to be administered by commissions, probably of army officers. Lieutenant Girardot, director of railroads, is forming a railroad corps with prospects of permanent employment.

The transport, Portugal, with 800 troops from Lisbon, arrived at Lorient on March 25. The presence of these reinforcements will make Portugal feel easier regarding the Boers' protest against the British use of force. From Ladysmith comes news that firing was heard yesterday morning in the direction of Sunday river. It was maintained about an hour. Sniping and Boer activity are reported at Klipdam.

Schishew With Boers.
London, April 21.—The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Roberts:

Bloemfontein, April 21.—Rundle's force came in contact with the enemy yesterday four miles southwest of Dewetsdorp. They occupied strong positions covering the town. The Yeomanry and mounted infantry seized another position, which enabled Rundle to drive the enemy off and occupy the high ground the enemy was occupying. Rundle advanced this morning early and is now again engaging with the enemy. Our casualties yesterday were two men severely wounded. Lieutenant O'Connor and seven men slightly wounded.

Declines Chicago Invitation.
Chicago, April 21.—The reception committee of the Dewey celebration has received formal notice from President McKinley of his decision of the invitation to come to Chicago during the festivities in honor of the admiral.

Deaths from Plague.
Manila, April 21.—Deaths of Philippine and Chinese in the Quaiosa market led to an investigation, showing that fifteen cases of the plague, fourteen fatal, had occurred within a week. The market is in the center of the city. Total number of Filipino deaths, 119; Chinese, 66; Filipinos. The plague elsewhere is suppressed.

Printing Office Burned.
St. Louis, April 21.—Buildings on South Sixth street, occupied by the St. Louis Chronicle, were gutted by fire today. Typing machines, stereotyping machines, whole fonts of type and three Potter presses were destroyed.

New Mexico Census.
Special to The Citizen.

Washington, April 21.—Hopkins reported that the New Mexico census supervisor would probably expend seven thousand dollars, and recommending increase of his pay $150.

HOSPITAL AND SANITARIUM.
A proposition from Mother Sebastian for such an institution.

A few days ago The Citizen contained a brief personal paragraph about the arrival here of Mother Sebastian, superior of the order of Sisters of Charity in the United States, and her secretary, Sister Evelyn. These good Sisters remained here for a few days and then visited Santa Fe.

Yesterday Mother Sebastian returned and she is here on a most worthy mission—the establishment of a hospital and sanitarium.

"If satisfactory arrangements can be made with the people of Albuquerque," said Mayor Marron, who has been in conference with the Mother Sister, "for the contribution of a certain amount, say $5,000, to show their good faith in such a worthy cause, I am informed that the order of the Sisters of Charity will expend between $25,000 and $30,000 for a hospital and sanitarium here as a starter, and make addition to same as necessity requires."

This morning, Mother Sebastian, with Father Mandalar, Mayor Marron and Sister Hyacinth visited the different proposed sites for the location of the hospital—drove on the mesa, through the Highlands and through the lowlands of the city, and the site that best suited her was a piece of ground known as the gentle property and located just north of the First ward public school. The ground had already been presented to the order of the Sisters of Charity, and the inspection this morning proved it a capital site for the proposed institution.

Mother Sebastian is very much impressed with the needs of a hospital and sanitarium here, and this is an opportunity to secure such an institution as proposed by the visiting Mother Sister.

This good lady will leave Albuquerque Monday morning for Cincinnati, Ohio, being joined at Lamy Junction by Sister Evelyn.

MURDER TRIAL.

Case of Eugenio Hurtado and Miguel C. de Baza given in duty to-day.

The last of the testimony in the Hurtado and Miguel C. de Baza, which has been on trial in the district court the past few days was given to the jury this morning. The defendants are charged with having conspired with intent to kill one Antonio Luera, in May of last year. The evidence tended to prove that the confederate parties were each in possession of bands of sheep and were operating in an opposite direction and meeting in a narrow canyon, the defendants undertook to drive the sheep of the prosecuting witnesses in order that they might not get mixed with the other herds. The prosecuting witness, not possessed with their conduct, presented, when a general fight ensued, in which the prosecuting witness was struck in the back with a knife. The defendants on trial were jointly indicted with a third defendant, who has not been arrested, and they defended by denying that they had anything to do with the cutting, while the witness for the prosecution testified that Miguel C. de Baza contained

TORN TO PIECES!

Under the Wheels was Conductor Hill.

Body Frightfully Crushed and Mangled.

Remains Shipped to East Las Vegas This Morning.

NO WITNESSES TO THE ACCIDENT.

The remains of Conductor George M. Hill, whose frightful death occurred last night at Bernalillo, under the wheels of the passenger train he was in charge of, were shipped to East Las Vegas, his bereaved home, by Undertaker Strong this morning.

The particulars of the tragic death of the well-known and popular railway conductor are about as follows:

Conductor Hill was in charge of passenger train No. 1, which reaches this city at 7:45 p. m. from the east, and does no special local work, hence makes no stops at small, unimportant stations. When the train reached Bernalillo, the engineer was alerted to "pull out." W. R. Gibble, the head brakeman, and W. O. Hynde, the rear brakeman, busied themselves in freeing the train of several tramps who were attempting to steal a ride in this city. In so doing Gibble was compelled to ride into the city on the blind baggage, leaving the entire train in charge of Conductor Hill (as he supposed), and the rear brakeman.

The conductor was not missed until the train reached Albuquerque, when a Western Union operator, on receiving a query from Bernalillo, asked "if Conductor Hill was on the train."

Investigation then revealed the fact that Conductor Hill had fallen from his train at Bernalillo, and that his remains, horribly mangled and mutilated, had been found about a hundred yards from the Bernalillo depot.

When the No. 1 passenger train reached Bernalillo about an hour later the remains of the conductor—parts of which were picked up and brought to this city. They were turned over to Undertaker Strong, who embalmed and patched up the body the best he could, and shipped it to East Las Vegas.

The theory being advanced that tramps might have been responsible for the horrible affair, Justice Crawford was summoned and he appointed a coroner's jury of Arthur Spencer, A. D. Whitson, Dwight Wheeler, Al Coleman, Tony Ortiz and W. R. McLaughlin.

Mayor Gibbons, one of the tramps ejected from the train, stated that three others had been put off the front part of the train by the head brakeman. He noticed the conductor give the signal with his lantern, for the train to move out, and then the light disappeared underneath the train. When the train had passed on, Gibbons and his fellow tramps, feeling sure that some accident had happened, walked up the track and met a Mexican, who said that somebody had been hurt. They then found the dead body of the conductor, which has been run over and horribly mangled. Gibbons stated that he had no words whatever with the conductor.

The Mexican, who was with Gibbons, gave his testimony substantiating that of Gibbons as to the light disappearing underneath the train, and something fell, and as to the finding of the body. The testimony of Gibbons and Hynde, brakemen, brought out no evidence that tramps were responsible for the death of Conductor Hill. They related the story of putting off the tramps, and Hynde said that he had seen the conductor give the signal for the train to move on, as he was in the act of stepping on the platform of the rear end of the smoker.

George M. Hill was one of the oldest passenger and freight conductors on the Alhambra, Topeka & Santa Fe railroads coming to New Mexico from Pennsylvania in 1881. He was a first-class railroader and had many warm, personal friends scattered along the Santa Fe route. He carried considerable wealth on his life and was the owner of some valuable real estate in Las Vegas. He leaves a wife, a daughter and a step-daughter to mourn his untimely end.

DAMAGE BY FLOOD.

Mississippi and Alabama Heavy Losers by Heavy Rains.
Meridian, Miss., April 21.—Extensive rains over Mississippi and parts of Alabama for seven days, making the rivers and smaller streams to rise to an unprecedented extent and overflow the lowlands, is causing great suffering and loss of property. Thousands of acres of farming lands are devastated and early crops are a total loss. Homes are destroyed, some lives lost, and thousands of head of stock drowned. Railroad traffic is interfered with to such an extent that in some small towns fears of scarcity of foodstuffs are entertained. No road running through the lowlands escaped. Some have been totally blocked for two days at a time. It is thought the aggregate loss to the railroads will amount to more than a million dollars. To-day the situation seems little improved. There is little prospect of a resumption of traffic over the five roads centering here before Monday or Tuesday. Large streams south of here continue to rise. The village of Hickory is completely surrounded by water. It is feared that great suffering will result. Jackson is threatened with a water famine as all around the pumping stations have been flooded.

A baby girl was born to Mrs. Bocklett at Gallup on Sunday last. Her father, Engineer Bocklett, was accidentally killed by being run over by his train last month, as reported in The Citizen at the time.

THE ACME OF PERFECTION

Is a description which is but slight praise when speaking of our Shirt Waists. They are ideal, embodying as much honest and intrinsic value as is capable of being crowded into any one garment. Their style is chic; their fabric wool; their workmanship the best, and their fit perfect. This is not only our opinion, but that of the wearers of these garments. Accompanying cuts portray but two representative styles. Space does not permit of more.

FANCY LINEN WAISTS.

Our line of White India Linen Waists is immense. Special prominence is given this season to those made of fine all-over embroideries, of which we have a vast assortment. Above cut shows a very fine India Linen Waist, with four rows of Swiss insertion, the entire back being of very narrow tucking, and the sleeve an elaborate dress sleeve. It sells for the low price of $2.25. We show a very pretty line, ranging from 90c to $3.00.

Temperance Meeting.
The parlor meeting of the W. C. T. U., which was entertained by Mrs. Menz and Miss Hattie Evans at their home on North Second street, Friday afternoon was a very pleasant affair.
