BLOODY FIGHT.

Boers Hold Their Entrenched Position at Paardeberg.

Boers Lose Six Hundred in the Fight Last Sunday.

British Capture a Kope and Fifty Prisoners at Paardeberg.

LADYSMITH NOT YET RELIEVED.

Paardeberg Drift, Orange Free State, Feb. 20, via Modder River.—One of the fiercest actions of the war occurred at Paardeberg drift, Sunday, February 19. General Buller's army, in pursuit of General Cronje, caught his rear guard at the Klip drift, and followed the burghers to the Boers' laager at Koodoosrand. At the drift action began at daybreak, the mounted infantry driving the Boer rear guard up the river towards the main body, while another body of mounted infantry maneuvered to the right front and flank of the Boers. The British main body advanced to outflank the Boers' laager on the north bank of the river. Kelly Kenny having seized two drifts found the Boers strongly entrenched and ordered an attack with Highland brigade on the left and General Knox's brigade on the center and right, while General Smith-Dorrien's brigade crossed the river and advanced along the north bank. On both the north and south banks the ground is level, and the advance across the river was deadly, and the British losses were heavy. The battle was an exact replica of Modder river. The soldiers were under fire all day, and all the fighting had no definite result as the Boers' laager was well entrenched and they remained there. The British guns shelled the laager vigorously, and the Boers confessed to a loss of over 600 men. Terrible shelling was resumed on Monday, when Cronje asked for an armistice. Shelling was continued on Tuesday, over fifty guns pouring lead into the Boer camp.

CAPTURE A KOPE

Paardeberg, Feb. 21, 6:30 p. m.—A Boer kope has been captured with fifty prisoners. Cronje's position is unchanged.

BOERS HARBOR LADYSMITH

London, Feb. 22.—The Morning Post's second edition publishes a dispatch from Ladysmith, dated February 19, which says that the bombardment continues with unusual persistence and activity from Bulwain and Bannabank but is doing small damage. The garrison is in good spirits over General Buller's success and the advance of Buller, which is now visible.

BRITISH LOSS

London, Feb. 22.—General Buller reports that his casualties on Feb. 19 were: Killed—Captain Thornburg, of Royal Fusiliers. Wounded—Two officers and fourteen men.

SEVERE FIGHTING

London, Feb. 22.—3:37 p. m.—A special from Paardeberg, dated Wednesday, February 21, says: "Commandant Botha has been attempting to relieve General Cronje. There has been severe fighting. Botha's forces are scattered with heavy losses."

BOERS MAKING STUBBORN FIGHT

Chiefly Camp, Natal, Feb. 21.—The steady progress of the relief column is uninterrupted. The Boers on Tuesday were forced from their last position, south of the Tugela, resulting in the evacuation of Colenso, which was promptly recaptured by the Dublin fusiliers and Thorneycroft's horse. A Transvaal flag was captured. The Boers heavily shelled Hlangwani hill and Colenso on Wednesday, February 21, and the British advance infantry was subjected to a severe musketry fire, but had excellent cover and casualties were few. The Boers have the railroad running to Bulwain. The British continue discovering large quantities of ammunition. The Boers are well supplied with food, and a quantity of provisions was left behind. It is expected that further resistance will be half-hearted and that Ladysmith will be relieved in a few days.

BOERS DEFEATED.

London, Feb. 22.—4:17 p. m.—The war office has received from Lord Roberts the following message, which was delayed in transmission, dated Paardeberg, Wednesday, February 21: Yesterday afternoon I was satisfied by careful reconnaissance in force of the enemy's position that I could not assault it without very heavy loss, which I was most anxious to avoid. Accordingly, I decided to bombard him with artillery and turn my attention to the enemy's reinforcements. The result was most satisfactory. The Boers were driven off in all directions, losing a good many killed and wounded and about fifty prisoners, who say they arrived from Ladysmith two days ago by railroad. They also say that it was our artillery fire which caused them to abandon the kope they were occupying. Our loss was two officers, Captain Campbell, of the Ninth Lancers, and Lieutenant Houston, of the artillery, and four men, all slightly wounded.

CRONJE SURROUNDED.

London, Feb. 22.—From information received here it appears that Lord Roberts completely surrounds Gen. Cronje with artillery, thus releasing other arms, of which military experts assert he has plenty to defeat all reinforcements of the Boers as they arrive in detail. The fact that Cronje asked an armistice points to great losses as well as indicating that he recognizes his only hope lies in delay in order to allow the Boer reinforcements to create a diversion in Lord Roberts' rear.

MORE BIG GUNS.

London, Feb. 22.—Artillery officers received hurry orders to-day to proceed to South Africa with fifty-one pound Maxim-Nordenfled guns.

NO AGREEMENT.

London, Feb. 22.—In the house of lords to-day, replying to a question of the premier, Lord Salisbury declared that the government had no engagement whatever with any power in respect to the course to be taken in the ultimate settlement with the Boer republics. No power, he added, had suggested entering into any arrangement.

DEBATING PORTO RICO.

Washington, Feb. 22.—The house began holding early sessions to-day, meeting at 11 a. m., owing to pressure for time for the Porto Rico debate. McClellan, (N. Y.) opened the debate, speaking in opposition to the bill.

CLARK CASE.

Testimony of the Son of the Montana Senator.

Grand-daughter of Gen. Grant Sick With a Fever.

House Military Committee Investigating the Idaho Mine Troubles.

DEATH OF GOOD INDIAN CHIEF.

Washington, Feb. 22.—In the Clark investigation to-day, W. C. Clark, son of the senator, was called. He was treasurer of the Clark campaign committee. The first effort of the committee, he said, was to take the state convention from the day people, and next the election of a democratic state legislative ticket, making practically two campaigns. Money was placed in his hands for the purpose of covering both these campaigns. Clark thought there were an average of 170 persons in Helena in his father's behalf just before the election, and there were fully 300 people there from first to last. Most of these had come with a view of helping Clark, but the witness had no doubt some of them came "with the hope of earning a little expense money." Clark said he never authorized Mr. Whitelaw to see members of the legislature on his father's behalf; never told him that any state senator or legislative member was to get any specified sum for his vote. He denied all incriminating testimony given by Whitelaw. Clark said that at the first meeting with Whitelaw, the latter said he was tired of the day people; he was unemployed and wanted to support Clark. He said he did not want any money, but wanted an equal chance with others in bidding upon buildings contemplated by his father. This was promised. Whitelaw then said he would vote for Clark. Rev. Albert R. Martin, principal of a female seminary at Deer Lodge, produced a letter written to him by Senator Clark last October, which the doctor had taken to Chief Justice Bentley. The letter was as follows: "Dear Dr. Martin:—If you could see our mutual friend, Judge B., and state to him what John R. T. told you of outlining a plan of campaign, which practically showed that everything was being pre-arranged, I am sure he would have a better understanding of the well-known proceeding and would not allow that splendid man to be disgraced. He has a lovely wife and children, and it is a shame that he should suffer disgrace through two such disreputable men as Whitelaw and my namesake, W. A. Clark, of Madison county. (Signed) "W. A. CLARK." Martin said: "Our mutual friend, Judge B., was Judge Bentley and John R. T. was John R. Toole," who told him that the reports concerning Senator Clark's methods would be investigated by a committee. He felt interested in Wellcome because his father-in-law was an old Presbyterian minister. He hoped he could influence the supreme court to send the case back to the Silver Bow county court, and saw no indecency in doing that. C. W. Clark was recalled and made specific denial of the testimony of witnesses for the prosecution. Penrose consented to let the Gray case go over until to-morrow. Senate adjourned.

Investigating Idaho Mine Troubles.

Washington, Feb. 22.—When investigation of the Idaho labor troubles was resumed to-day before the house committee on military affairs, Chairman Hull stated that Governor Steuneger, of Idaho, who is attending the investigation, had protested against the line of procedure which impugned the state officials. Hull said that the governor held that the testimony in effect placed the state officials on trial, and they were entitled to be present and represented by counsel. The chairman called on Governor Steuneger to make a statement. Representatives Lantz and Hay, of the committee, energetically opposed this procedure. The governor's statement was deferred. The committee will ask permission of the house to hold afternoon sessions. Mr. Barnette, Georgia, spoke against the bill and particularly the future of the Philippines. He declared that the new Philippine commission could accomplish nothing, and if it went to the Philippines at all it would go with authority and power which congress alone could grant.

Grosvener, (Ohio) followed in support of the bill.

Grosvener said that speaking as an individual and knowing all things involved in the situation he thought nothing would give the president greater sorrow than the defeat of this bill and turning over this house to the democratic minority. McClellan, (Mass.) the only republican member of the ways and means committee to dissent from the majority report, followed in opposition to the bill.

Sick With Fever.

New York, Feb. 22.—Princess Cantacuzene, who was Julia Dent Grant, grand-daughter of General U. S. Grant, is ill with typhoid fever, in St. Petersburg, Russia. Her mother, wife of General Frederick Dent Grant, now in the Philippines, called on the American liner St. Louis yesterday to join her.

Washington's Address.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Washington's farewell address was read by Senator Foraker.

Death of Christian Indian.

Chicago, Feb. 22.—A special to the Tribune from Claymont, Wyo., says: Washable, chief of the eastern Shoshone Indians, died at Wind River reservation last evening. He was 93 years old. Fifty-three years he was at the head of his tribe. He was a devout Christian and by example and teachings brought the Shoshones up to a high standard of intelligence.

Macrum, the Microbe.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 22.—Lyman J. Sage, secretary of the treasury, arrived here to-day to speak before the Commercial club to night. In an interview, Secretary Sage said of the case of ex-consul Macrum and his charge against the English government: "The administration thinks of Macrum exactly what every reasonable man must think—that he is an ass. I am convinced that his charges are absolutely without foundation, and have been made in spite to embarrass the administration."

Indiana Congressman.

Indianapolis, Feb. 22.—James Overstreet, author of the house financial bill, was re-nominated for congress in the Seventh Indiana district by the republican convention this afternoon.

Funeral of Frank Bowden.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the funeral of the late Frank Bowden was held at the residence on west Pacific avenue. An impressive funeral service was delivered by Rev. W. Jaggard. A large number of sympathizing friends were present and followed the remains to Fairview cemetery, where interment was made. Members of the school board acted as pall bearers.

A CARD.

To the Gentlemen Dressers of Albuquerque:

FASHION DICTATES that the first Spring Season of the new Century shall inaugurate many radical changes in the cut of men's garments and the textures from which they will be made. Instead of the narrow shouldered, loose-fitting garments of the past, those who aim to dress properly will wear them broad shouldered and very close-fitting. The trousers will also be an extremely different cut. The popular vest will be double-breasted with a collar. The tailoring house that we represent is on Broadway in New York City and they cater to the fine retail trade of that city and with our system of measurement it stands to reason that the most fastidious dressers can be pleased. Another thing: In our fine goods we remove the sample after an order which makes it impossible to duplicate. Our Spring Samples have arrived; also fashion plates by America's style dictator.

Washington's birthday was quite generally observed to day in this city by the closing of a number of business houses. Sunday hours were observed at the post office, and the public schools, banks, kindergarten, and the offices at the court house were closed during the day.
 J. K. Hurley, division superintendent, who passed through the city Sunday night in his private car, the 9 spot, was accompanied from the south yesterday by Assistant George Ayer, of San Marcial.
 Michael O'Donnell, of Oswego, N. Y., who came here a short time ago with his family, purchased the Louis Baer residence property yesterday and will make this city his future home.
 Anna Fisher is here from San Bernardino, and registered at the Highland.

RAILROAD IMPROVEMENTS.
 Expensive Improvements to Be Made in This City by the Santa Fe.

A couple of weeks ago mention was made in these columns with reference to the improvements on south First street within eighteen months, and it begins to appear that something will transpire in a very short time. When Division Superintendent J. K. Hurley arrived from the south early yesterday morning he held a consultation with Mayor O. N. Marron, and presented him with a copy of the proposed plans for a new hotel and depot in this city. The map as prepared by President Ripley and officials of the Santa Fe system show that the depot will be about 200 feet in length, and will occupy a space midway between Silver and Coal avenues, and the hotel, which will contain sixty rooms with all modern improvements, has been estimated at a cost of $100,000, will be located on First street between Gold and Silver avenues. The company officials have decided on these plans as the most suitable and profitable for the people of Albuquerque.

Their object in thus placing the new structures on the above named sites is that trains arriving in the city would in no wise obstruct Railroad avenue for any great length of time.
 In consideration of all these improvements, Mr. Hurley asked the mayor if the people of Albuquerque would bear the expense of a viaduct across the tracks on Coal avenue? The mayor said he would consult with the citizens, and would probably be able to give him more information on that point in a few days. The superintendent will visit this city next Monday, and in the meantime, the mayor will learn the opinion of the city officials and citizens on the subject.

It is understood the old freight depot will remain on the present site for a time at least.
 It will be remembered that in 1892, a viaduct across Coal avenue was considered, and the expense of material and construction amounted to about $15,000. With the present cost of steel the same structure will cost in the neighborhood of $30,000.

However, the railroad company has estimated the hotel building at a figure not to exceed $100,000, while a depot, with all the latest improvements, would amount to nearly one-half that figure.
