RAMPOLLA IN THE LEAD

Cardinals Ballot All Day Without Electing a Successor to Pope Leo.

GOTTI MAY BE THE MAN

Balloting Is Slow and Tedious and but Little Progress Has Been Made Toward a Selection.

Paris Newspaper Claims It Has Information That Cardinal di Pietro
Will Be Successful.

Present Conclave Is the Most Largely Attended in the History of the Church of Rome.

Rome, Aug. 1.—The cardinals were awakened early this morning by the loud ringing of a bell. Mass was said in the Pauline Chapel by Cardinal Oreglia, who afterwards administered communion to each cardinal. At 10 o'clock all the cardinals except two who are ill in their cells, assembled in the Sixtine Chapel for the first ballot. The balloting took a long time, as many cardinals, owing to advanced age and illness, moved slowly and were obliged to have assistance from their colleagues. On a count it was found that no cardinal had received the prescribed two-thirds of the votes and a supplementary ballot was taken, with no better result. Consequently, all the ballots were burned.

Second Ballot Fails to Elect.
Rome, Aug. 1.—6:15 p. m.—The second ballot has been taken without resulting in the election of a pope.

Very Little Progress Made.
Rome, Aug. 1.—The balloting this afternoon did not differ in form from that of this morning. From what has leaked out from the conclave it does not appear that much progress has been made toward a result although it is stated that the Rampolla party remains compact with a tendency to increase its strength.

Thinks It Will Be Di Pietro.
Paris, Aug. 1.—Le Temps this afternoon announces that it has a special reason for believing that the outcome of the conclave will be as follows: Cardinal Rampolla having secured the greatest number of votes, but not sufficient to elect, will withdraw in favor of Angelo Di Pietro, who is his intimate friend and co-worker and who, if elected, will name Domenico Ferrata, prefect of the Congregation of Bishops and regulars, as his secretary of state.

Votes Much Scattered.
Rome, Aug. 1.—7:50 p. m.—According to a reliable source of information it is stated that at the first ballot this morning, Cardinal Rampolla received the largest number of votes, followed by Serafino, Vannutelli, Gotti, Oreglia, Di Pietro, Agliardi, Svampa, and Capellatro. Other votes were scattered. It is impossible to verify this report.

Rampolla in the Lead.
Rome, Aug. 1.—8:15 p. m.—Apparently reliable information which, however, it is impossible to verify, is to the effect that Cardinal Rampolla received 20 votes, Serafino Vannutelli 12, Gotti 7, Oreglia 5, Di Pietro 4, Capellatro 4 and Agliardi 3. The rest being scattered.

Largest Conclave in History.
The largest conclave in the history of the Catholic church is now assembled in the Sixtine chapel for the purpose of electing a successor to Pope Leo XIII. Sixty-two cardinals with 200 clerical and lay attendants are to all intents and purposes prisoners within the Vatican. One of them, Cardinal Herrera Espinosa, archbishop of Valencia, was prostrated immediately after entering the conclave and lies ill in his cell. The general impression now exists that within two or three days, the new pope will have been chosen. But no matter how long a time may be required, the absolute seclusion of the princes of the church from the outer world must, according to the church law, continue until a choice is made. Prognostications as to who will wear the tiara as Leo's successor have little value, as even the cardinals who this evening entered their cells seemed to be without definite ideas as to the issue. Cardinals Rampolla, Serafino, Vannutelli, Di Pietro, Botto and Oreglia

STATE LOSES SUIT

United States Circuit Judge Decides in Favor of Magnate James P. Hill and His Corporations.

NO EFFECT ON FEDERAL CASE

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 1.—Judge Lochren today in United States circuit court handed down a decision in the case of the State of Minnesota vs. the Northern Securities Company, The Great Northern Railway Company, the Northern Pacific Railway Company and James J. Hill, as president of the Northern Securities Company, and individually, in which he sustained the contentions of the defendants and dismissed the bill of complaint of the state. The court finds that the Northern Securities Company has not violated the state laws forbidding consolidation of parallel and competing lines of railway, through its ownership of stock of The Great Northern and Northern Pacific Railways; refuses injunctions asked by the state of Minnesota to restrain the Securities Company from voting stock of the two railroad companies or either of them.

This decision affects the results of the federal government's victory in the circuit court in no way whatever. The federal suit involved the same defendants and the same general state of facts, but was based on a totally different contention of law.

The federal suit in which the Securities Company was beaten was a prosecution of violation of the Sherman anti-trust law passed by the federal congress. The state suit, in which the Securities Company wins, was based on the allegation that the defendants had violated the acts of the Minnesota legislature, forbidding consolidation of parallel and competing lines of railway. The hearing of the state suit was begun Friday, June 5, before Judge Lochren in the federal circuit court. It was followed by the submission of much testimony by both sides for many months, in which Frederick G. Ingersoll of this city acted as referee. The final argument lasted five days, in which Attorney-General Douglas, former Attorney-General George B. Wilson and Attorney M. D. Munn spoke for the state, and George B. Young, M. D. Grover and C. W. Bunn for the defendants. The case was submitted Wednesday, June 10. An appeal to the United States supreme court is now pending in the federal suit.

STILL IN ELDOORADO COUNTY.

Believed That Escaped Convicts Are in Hiding in Old Shafts and Tunnels.

Sacramento, Cal., Aug. 1.—A special to the Bee from Folsom says that news has been received that two men, believed to be escaped convicts, have been seen near Georgetown, Eldorado county, going in the direction of Lake Tahoe. A posse has started in pursuit. Other fugitive outlaws are believed to be still in Webster creek bottoms among the deserted mining shafts and tunnels which abound there.

CHANDLER DID NOT RETURN.

Financial Secretary of the Idaho Springs
Miners Fails to Show Up.

Idaho Springs, Colo., Aug. 1.—The wife and children of J. E. Chandler, financial secretary of the Miners' Local union, who have been visiting Kansas, returned home today without Chandler. Had he been with her, he would have been arrested on a charge of inciting arson and murder. It is believed Chandler is in Denver and the authorities have been notified to take him into custody. If he is in Kansas, an effort will be made to arrest him there. A warrant has been sworn out here for the arrest of Charles Moyer, president of the Western Federation of miners for inciting arson.

Quiet Day for the President.

Oyster Bay, New York, 1.—President Roosevelt passed a quiet day at Sagamore Hill. No formal callers were received. After disposing of routine business brought to his attention by Secretary Barnes, the president devoted the rest of the day to his children.

Gotti the Man of the Situation.

Considering all things, Gotti is believed to be the man of the situation. It is said he has the cordial support of Germany and Austria, that Italy is favoring him, and France would not oppose him. His good qualities are recognized by all the European powers who do not forget his work in Brazil. It is not generally known that when Gotti was in Brazil he was officially appointed by many European governments to do his utmost to check the civil war which broke out at St. Paulo, against President Peimote. He is prefect of the propaganda, an office of such importance that the cardinal holding it is often called the red pope.

MANY FALL INTO RIVER

Section of Oregon Bridge Gives Way and Three Persons
Are Drowned.

FIFTY SLIGHTLY HURT

Damage Suits Will Probably Be Commenced by People Injured in the Accident.

Portland, Ore., Aug. 1.—A section of the bridge which spans the Willamett river at Morrison street collapsed shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, precipitating more than 100 people forty feet into the water. Three people are known to have been drowned and it is feared the list of dead will be much larger when all are accounted for. The known dead are: MINNIE RAYMOND, aged 18. LOTTIE CAMERON, aged 16. Unidentified boy, aged 13. Thousands of people had gathered on the Morrison-Madison street bridges and along the docks to watch Clarence Lutz, an armless man, swim the river, which is about three-eighths of a mile wide at this point. As Lutz was climbing out of the water the crowd rushed to the south edge of the bridge to get a good view. A section of the passenger walk gave way under the heavy weight.

Portland, Ore., Aug. 1.—No additional deaths were reported this afternoon as a result of the collapse of the Morrison street bridge yesterday, when over 100 people were precipitated into the river and two were drowned. It is probable that a large number of damage suits will be commenced by those injured in the accident. About fifty people received injuries, though about half of this number were merely scratched and went home immediately after the accident.

ALMOST AT SANTA FE'S DOORS.

Active Mining Operations Within Twelve Mile of the City in Dalton Canon.

William D. Steadman, manager of the Dalton Mining Company, which is developing a group of ten claims in Dalton canon, about a dozen miles from Santa Fe, is in town completing the incorporation of his company. Mr. Steadman is an old-time Colorado mining man and has also had considerable experience in mining in Utah and New Mexico. The Dalton group comprises ten claims covering an area of about 200 acres, and is located on the Pecos forest reserve. The company has done considerable development on each of the claims in the group and has recently started work upon the Copper King, one of its most promising looking locations. A shaft has been sunk 20 feet and will be continued to a depth of 100 feet when drifts will be run and the deposit thoroughly explored. The ore, which was encountered at the grass roots consists of chalcopryrites and boranite. The ore is found in deposits and is in crystalline schist. The company has had six men at work for a couple of months. Mr. Steadman is an experienced assayer and chemist and has made a large number of experiments and tests of the ores in an endeavor to ascertain the most successful and economical method of treating the product of this district. The ore averages from four to six per cent in copper, with occasional pockets which yield as high as 50 per cent copper. The ore is so low-grade that it must of necessity be treated near the mines, as it would not stand shipment charges even to the smelter at Cerrillos. Mr. Steadman says that development work will be continued, and he is positive in declaring that not only will some of the claims in the Dalton Company's group develop into mines, but that the district will soon have a number of steady producers.

S. W. Smith, Antonio Winsor and Warren Reynolds have a group of eight claims lying alongside the Dalton Company's property. On one of these claims a shaft has been sunk 40 feet, and will be continued to a depth of 100 feet. The shaft has been in ore from the surface, and the values run from 7 to 8 per cent in copper. They have a good showing in another property on which they have run a tunnel.

Mr. Steadman says that this district will furnish some specimens for exhibition at the St. Louis Exposition.

The New Mexican is sending about 50 copies each week to parties desiring information about Santa Fe. This is done for the public good, and free of charge, although it is quite expensive.

MANDAMUS IS DENIED

Judge McFie Holds That Treasurer Vaughn Is Right in Strict
Construction of Law.

COLLEGE GETS $2,800

A Legislative Act Must Definitely and Correctly Describe the Funds to Be Transferred.

Associate Justice J. R. McFie handed down a decision today in the mandamus case of the regents of the College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts at Mesilla Park vs. J. H. Vaughn, territorial treasurer, substantially in favor of the defendant. At the last session of the legislature, cash appropriations were made to several of the territorial institutions, in addition to the tax levy they receive, and for various deficiencies, amounting in all to $145,000. There being no money in the treasury available to pay these appropriations, the legislature attempted to provide a fund by using all of the money in the two sinking funds and the World's fair fund by way of a loan, the treasury to be reimbursed later from the sale of lands belonging to the public institutions. But in the law directing the territorial treasurer to transfer the funds to a new fund designated the "Provisional indebtedness fund," a mistake was made in describing the two sinking funds sought to be transferred. In failing to use the names which the statute created, and in which the treasurer was required to carry the sinking funds on his books. The treasurer refused to transfer the sinking funds because of this error in the law and a mandamus was brought by the College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts to compel the treasurer to transfer those funds amounting to about $134,000.

The treasurer in his return denied that there was any money in his custody to the credit of the fund named in the late law, and therefore he could not transfer any funds to the temporary provisional indebtedness fund.

In his decision, Judge McFie sustains the position taken by the treasurer as to the sinking funds, upon the ground that the legislatures which created those sinking funds specifically designated the names by which they should be carried upon the books of the treasurer, and the legislature failing to use the names in which the treasurer was by law required to keep the funds, but using different names, it did not become the ministerial duty of the officer to transfer the funds, and the court declines to compel him to do so.

The World's fair fund was correctly described as the "Louisiana purchase exposition fund" and the return showing the transfer of such fund and there being a balance of $2,876.07 in the temporary provisional indebtedness fund at the time this proceeding was brought, the court holds that the college is entitled to the balance under the pleadings.

BOARD OF TRADE.

Will Amend By-Laws—Important Meeting to be Held August 15.

The trustees of the Board of Trade held a meeting last evening at the residence of the President, Hon. L. B. Prince, the object of which was to arrange for certain needed amendments to the by-laws, and to provide for the appointment of standing committees to have charge of the various branches of work to be performed by the board.

The president was authorized to appoint all necessary committees and report same at the next meeting. A number of matters of interest were discussed and measures taken to increase the efficiency of the board. It is proposed to make the August monthly meeting, which will be on Friday, 15th, one of much general interest. The new president will make his inaugural address on the future of Santa Fe and the various ways in which the board and all citizens can advance the prosperity of the city. Various local subjects will be presented and discussed by those who have given them special attention.

A number of new members are joining the board and it looks as if it would do much important work during the next twelve months.

All members are requested to hand their annual dues to the secretary, W. N. Townsend, at the Santa Fe Hardware Company's store at once.

New Mexican want and miscellaneous ads always bring good results. It is an admitted fact that real estate, financial men and merchants all say that quickest and best results are obtained by advertising in the "New Mexican."

IS PLEASED WITH CITY

President Torrance Thinks Santa Fe Is Steadily Improving and Progressing.

PRAISES FINE CLIMATE

Expects the New Road to Be Ready for Passenger and Freight Business
Not Later Than August 15.

The Santa Fe Central Will Be the Connecting Link for a Direct Line to El Paso and the East.

Branches of This Road Will Be Built to Roswell, Durango, Colorado, and the Hagan Coal Fields.

"I like Santa Fe; I like its antiquity, its scenic beauty, its healthful climate, and its historical legends," The speaker was General Francis J. Torrance, president of the Santa Fe Central Railway Company. "And when we get our road in shape for business, we are going to show the outside world," continued the General, "what there really is to be seen in Santa Fe. We are going to advertise the place, with all its attractions, its history, its climate and see that the tourists who ought to come here every year know what attractions await them, and do come. Santa Fe has not had her share of the tourists' business heretofore, but it will be the policy of the Santa Fe Central Company to see that this city, with its antiquity and its attractions, its fine climate, its advantages as a residence and as a business city, is properly placed before the world."

When asked by a New Mexican representative what were his impressions of the country, General Torrance said:

Santa Fe Steadily Improving.

"My impressions are that this place is steadily improving; I can see plainly the lines of progress made since my last visit to Santa Fe. The territory is making wonderful strides in progress and is marching right along to an upper place in the column of progress in the list of states and territories of the Union. Irrigation and the introduction of better livestock are each doing its part to bring about the desirable results. Where barren valleys a few years ago were grazed by a few scrawny cattle, today we see flourishing farms, blooded stock and happy, vine-clad homes, inhabited by a thrifty, contented people. Railroads are building, people from the east and south are coming into New Mexico, and I can see the advancement on every hand."

"When will the Santa Fe Central be open for business to Torrance," was asked.

Be Ready for Business August 15.

"We expect to be ready for both passenger and freight business not later than August 15. If we are not ready by that time it will be through some unforeseen contingency, like the non-arrival of equipment which is due now. I am satisfied that we will be in shape to take care of all business by that date. We have already received five of the finest type of new locomotives, equipped with all the latest patents and improvements, including electric headlights. They are each ten-wheel machines, of 84 tons weight, and are the finest engines in service in this territory today. Our people are building shops, round houses, repair shops, train sheds, etc., at Estancia.

"Complete traffic arrangements have been made with the Denver & Rio Grande road whereby a very satisfactory service will be furnished the people of Santa Fe. Our traffic arrangements are satisfactory to both roads and perfect harmony exists between the two, but as to what the plans or the policy of the Denver & Rio Grande are as to making the line a standard-gauge out of here, I cannot say. If they do decide to do so, it may mean a great deal more to this city than merely another standard-gauge road, for then it would be feasible for that line and the Santa Fe Central to have shops and other works here together, did they see fit to do so."

"When we are ready for business we will give Santa Fe and other points touched, a through Pullman service from here to El Paso, to Chicago, and to all points east, via Torrance and the Rock Island. At present we are closing the gap between here and Kennedy as rapidly as men and money can do the work, and when that is completed we will take up the work of construction of the Albuquerque branch. QUAY COUNTY.

Work on the Choctaw Division Stopped—The Postmaster at Tucumcari Has Resigned.

J. Q. Adams, postmaster at Tucumcari, has resigned. Colonel Theodore W. Heman is mentioned most prominently for the place.

Work on the Choctaw Railroad extension to Tucumcari has been suddenly stopped, two causes being mentioned, one an alliance of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific with the Colorado & Southern Railroad, and the other, the quarrel of the Rock Island people with the railroad commission of Texas. The greater part of the extension had been graded and the graders were only a few miles from Tucumcari. It is believed that sooner or later construction work will be resumed.

President Luther Foster of the College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, and Professor J. D. Tinsley of the Experiment Station at Mesilla Park, were at Tucumcari last week and looked over the surroundings for possible reservoir sites. Professor Tinsley made a trip along the Pajarito and selected a good place for the establishment of a pumping station as a nucleus for an irrigation system. He declared the soil to be similar to that around Portales and other parts of Roosevelt county where crops are raised without irrigation.

Says the Quay County Democrat: "There are three towns along the Rock Island in New Mexico which have futures and can hold down any rival that may pop up its head and those towns are Alamogordo, Santa Rosa and Tucumcari, all of which are division points on the railroad, with roundhouses and machine shops and are surrounded by fertile lands which are rapidly being settled."

An engineering corps of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company, is surveying a line one and a half miles north of Tucumcari. The Dawson railroad is crossed about two miles west of Tucumcari.

Tucumcari now boasts of two bowling alleys.

Quay county is concerned over the probability that it will not have a term of court for two years. Most of the citizens are of the opinion that a term of court should be held sooner.

William C. Roy of Tucumcari, is interested in a town site that has been laid out at Roy in San Miguel county, not far from the Quay county line. A well 775 feet deep has been bored and it contains 450 feet of fine water. Twelve hundred lots have been laid off. Roy is on the Dawson railroad and will have a roundhouse and shops. The town claims 400 inhabitants already.

Colonel J. Taylor Bradley of Aline, Okla., has located at Tucumcari and has been elected president of the First National bank at that place.

M. Miller has purchased the telephone system of the Tucumcari Telephone Company of which John F. Baker was the principal stockholder.

DYSENTERY CURED WITHOUT THE AID OF A DOCTOR.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by all druggists.

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cuts or puny boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve ever handy. CURES SCIATICA.

Rev. W. L. Riley, L.L.D., Cuba, New York, writes: "After fifteen days of excruciating pain from sciatic rheumatism, under various treatments, I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment; the first application giving me first relief and the second entire relief. I can give it unqualified recommendation." 25c, 50c, $1.00 at Fischer Drug Co.

RHEUMATISM.

When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment gives prompt relief. E. W. Sullivan, Prop. Sullivan House, El Reno, O. T., writes, June 6, 1903: "I take pleasure in recommending Ballard's Snow Liniment to all who are afflicted with rheumatism. It is the only remedy I have found that gives immediate relief." 25c, 50c, $1.00 at Fischer Drug Co.

Captain D. H. Clarke, commandant of the University of Florida at Lake City, who was one of the first settlers in the Pecos valley and lived at Roswell from 1891 to 1899, was a visitor at Roswell this week and expressed himself astonished at the progress that has been made the past four years by the Pecos valley metropolis.

Graham & Brown are erecting a $3,000 bowling alley at Roswell.

Samuel Redden of Roswell, went to Carlsbad with J. L. Bennett to purchase the Carlsbad Steam Laundry from L. J. Newman. After they had closed the deal, the two new proprietors had a falling out and both left for Roswell without paying Newman. Newman swore out a writ of attachment for a hack and mules which were conveying Redden to Roswell and the team was returned to Carlsbad. Redden and Bennett paid damages to Newman and then shook the dust of Carlsbad from their shoes.

Charles Whitman of Roswell, has secured two large eagles which were caught in the Capitan mountains. A steel trap baited with lambs was used to capture the birds.

NOT OVER-WISE.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglecting to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber three of cyclones a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by all druggists.

GRANT COUNTY.

Excellent Range Conditions—The Mimbres Valley Has Recovered From Last Year's Floods.

Considerable fruit is being shipped out of the Mimbres valley as most of the ranches have recovered from the effects of last year's disastrous floods. There was a good crop of early peaches and within a week the so-called second crop will be ready for the market. The apple crop will not be so plentiful but nevertheless, Mimbres ranchmen are getting on their feet again.

This has been a favorable year for cattlemen thus far in Grant county. Cattle are in splendid condition and have been sought after for immediate movement. Up to June 1, 45,000 head had been shipped out of Grant and Luna counties, most of them consigned to the Kern County Land Company, Bakersfield, Cal. To Colorado 9,000 yearlings were consigned at $15, $17 and $20 and 10,000 were contracted for fall delivery to California at $14, $17 and $20 per head. The calf crop was 80 per cent and the October round-up will yield a big branding.

A special meeting of the board of county commissioners was held at Silver City to see what could be done to provide a crossing over the Mangus, the road having been so badly washed out as to close all traffic between Silver City and the western part of the county. The commissioners made a personal inspection but found that the building of a new bridge would be so expensive that for the present a temporary crossing over the Mangus draw will have to suffice.

A lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen was this week instituted at Hachita, being the first fraternal order of this new town.

HERBINE

Renders the bile more fluid and thus helps the blood to flow; it affords prompt relief from biliousness, indigestion, sick and nervous headaches, and the over-indulgence in food and drink. Herbine acts quickly, a dose after meals will bring the patient into a good condition in a few days.

G. L. Caldwell, Agt. M. K. and T. R. R., Checotah, Ind. Ter., writes, April 18, 1903: "I was sick for over two years with enlargement of the liver and spleen. The doctors did me no good, and I had given up all hope of being cured, when my druggist advised me to use Herbine. It has made me sound and well." Fifty cents at Fischer Drug Co.

Business Men of Gallup Ask to Have the Brick Plant Rebuilt—The Zuni Mountain Lumber Company.

The business men and other citizens of Gallup held a mass meeting on Wednesday evening of this week and passed a resolution asking the American Fuel Company to rebuild its brick plant which was burned to the ground Friday a week ago. The plant was an entire loss and 25 men were thrown out of employment by its destruction. Should the company rebuild, it will do so on a much larger scale as the plant that was destroyed was only an experimental plant that utilized the coal dust and dirt of the coal mines around Gallup, compressing it into bricks that made an excellent fuel.

The Zuni Mountain Lumber Company has its saw-mill located now in the mountains 15 miles south of Gallup. The mill-spot is an ideal one in a dense forest with a spring only a few rods from the mill, supplying cool and clear water for the entire plant. Forty men are employed and 20,000 feet of lumber are turned out daily which is hauled by teams to Gallup and there loaded on the railroad cars. The company will erect a lath mill in connection with their plant.

A game of baseball between the Gallup and the Fort Wingate teams this week resulted in a score of 24 to 7 in favor of Gallup.

Emil Willmunder was run down by a team driven by Arthur Smith at Gallup and sustained painful though not serious injuries.

William Kelley has resigned his position at Gallup as manager of the Colorado Supply Store and will go to Prescott, Ariz., as soon as relieved.

M. Maple, day telegraph operator at Gallup, has resigned his position and will return to Chicago.

The Italian Society at Gallup will hold its annual picnic at Casna's mine on Sunday, August 16.

Local and outside capital has decided to establish a bank at Gallup in the very near future.

Jean Karrison has resigned as day foreman at the roundhouse and has gone to Needles, Cal.

Several picnic parties went out from Gallup this week. One of the parties camped at the Milk ranch and was composed of Mrs. W. H. Loughrey, Misses Bowman, Cunningham, Plinney, Pattison and Messrs. W. W. Jones, D. W. King, William Winton and William Kelley. Another party went to Red Rocks. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Loughrey, the Misses Bowman, Cunningham, Pattison, and Messrs. Washburn, Johnson, Kenney, Kelley, Pease and W. W. Jones.

END OF BITTER FIGHT.

"Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an abscess on my right lung," writes J. F. Hughes of Du Pont, Ga., "and gave me up. Every-body thought my time had come. As a last resort, I tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. The benefit I received was striking and I was on my feet in a few days. Now I've entirely regained my health." It conquers all coughs, colds and throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed by Fischer Drug Co. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free.

Mrs. Mollie Allen of South Fork, Ky., says she has prevented attacks of cholera morbus by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when she felt an attack coming on. Such attacks are usually caused by indigestion and these tablets are just what is needed to cleanse the stomach and ward off the approaching attack. Attacks of bilious colic may be prevented in the same way. For sale by all druggists.

A BIG NEW BLOCK

San Francisco Street to Be Improved by the Erection of a Three-Story Business and Office Building.

OPERA HOUSE IN TOP STORY

Salmon & Abouseleman, the live dry-goods merchants on San Francisco street, who have recently purchased the Gonzales property on the north side of that thoroughfare, are having plans prepared for a three-story brick edifice with a front on San Francisco street of 58 feet and a depth of 115 feet. Glass fronts are to be used on San Francisco street as well as in the rear. An opera house is to be put in the third story, the second story is to be used for offices, while the first or ground floor will be utilized for the extensive business establishment of the firm. This improvement promises to be one of the most important made in Santa Fe for many years.

ment, and he has accepted an invitation from Judge McFie to visit Santa Fe and deliver an address on his way home from the coast. General Black was a brave soldier, and bears many scars of war on his body and is one of the finest orators in the country.

Mrs. J. Skinner and daughter, Mrs. John Harrison, who have been here for several months, have returned to their home in Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Harrison was a helpless invalid when she came to Santa Fe, but returns home well.

A dinner was given at the Governor's residence on Monday evening in honor of General Baldwin and party. Music was furnished by the First Cavalry band which was stationed out on the lawn. The following were present: General Baldwin and Mrs. Baldwin, Mrs. Bergere, Miss Moseley, Colonel Pope, Lieutenant Drum, General Bartlett, Judge McFie, Secretary Reynolds, and Major Palen.

General Frank D. Baldwin and party spent Monday in town the guests of Governor and Mrs. Otero.

Quite a number of parties are being organized to attend the Indian feast at Santo Domingo, August 4. Among those who will go may be mentioned Hon. and Mrs. L. B. Prince, Mrs. Gilchrist, Miss Davis, and Rev. W. R. Dye. Also a party including Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ireland, Mrs. Sherman, and Miss Alice Atkinson.

After the regular lessons, word building in Spanish was taken up. Refreshments were afterwards served. The class will meet next Saturday with Miss Alice Atkinson.

Last Wednesday Mrs. Charles E. Easley gave a reception in honor of her guest Mrs. W. E. Dame of Albuquerque. The Easley home on Galisteo Street was beautifully decorated in pink and green. The hollyhock and sweet peas were in profusion. A large number of ladies were present. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Laughlin, Mrs. Schooley, Mrs. Gerdes, Mrs. W. H. Bartlett and the Misses Walter, Cross, Cassie Cross, Boyle and Marsh. The afternoon was very pleasantly passed by all present. Refreshments were served, consisting of punch, sherbet and cake. Miss Anita Bergere gave a dancing party at Post Hall last Thursday evening. the smoothness and brilliancy which characterize all functions given at the executive mansion. The beautiful grounds and broad vine covered verandas about the Governor's residence make it an ideal spot for such a gathering and the liveliness of the occasion was further enhanced by the presence of the First Cavalry band which furnished the music. IS PLEASED WITH CITY grading of sixteen miles of the Albuquerque Eastern road has been finished and is ready for the ties and steel which will be put down just as soon as we can get to the work; then follows the building of the branch into Hagan. We have the choice of three routes, but are not yet ready to announce which one will be used; however, I can say that the survey is completed and ready for the workmen. It will be taken up at once and Hagan will have a standard-gauge road, the equipment and material for which have already been purchased, and the work on which will begin in a short time. The line into Roswell has been surveyed and profile maps of same completed, and workmen will begin on the grading of this as soon as we can get to it, and then will follow the line into Durango. We are not waiting for funds, or anything of the kind; the work will be taken up in the order named just as rapidly as we can get through with the previous job and reach it."

Concluded from First Page.

The Pennsylvania Development Co.

When asked about the Pennsylvania Development Company and what it is doing, General Torrance said that this company is doing great things in New Mexico. He continued: "The Pennsylvania Development Company is doing a very satisfactory business, and has plans and projects that are not yet ready to be announced to the public, but I can say this much, that there are some of these plans and projects which, when they are carried out, will be of as much interest to the people of this city and of other places in this territory as the building of a new line of railroad ever was. The whole community will be benefited by these projects, and the company will make announcements at the proper time."

"The coal fields at Hagan have been worked some and coal of a good quality has been taken out. At present, the work of mining coal has been shut down to make certain changes and improvements, but will be resumed in a very short time when more coal than at any time will be mined. We are well pleased with the Hagan field and expect to fully develop it, beginning in the immediate future."

When asked what the position of Pennsylvania senators and congressmen would be upon the question of statehood for New Mexico, General Torrance said:

"Our senators and representatives will support the proposition to give New Mexico statehood. This territory is full of people who are capable of self-government, and there is no real reason why it should not be granted the boon of self-government, which is so highly prized by the liberty-loving people of the United States. We believe in statehood for a people who are capable of exercising the privileges carried with it, and we think the people of New Mexico are abundantly capable of doing this. The people of this territory can depend upon the support of the Pennsylvania delegation in both houses of the national congress when they ask for statehood again."

General Torrance and party left for Albuquerque last night, from which place the General returns to Pittsburgh on tonight's train.

CITY PROPERTY.

I have a nice cottage (double) six rooms on one side, 4 on the other; owner occupies 4 rooms and the rest rent for $25 a month; good neighborhood; ample space to erect other buildings on same street; stables and other outbuildings; the price asked is very low.

Can sell at a bargain a cosy home on Manhattan avenue, an adobe brick house, 7 rooms; fruit and vegetable garden; city water, hydrant and tank; 70 choice fruit trees; currant and raspberry bushes; lot 80 by 265 feet.

I can show you a tract of land west of town, 40 acres, with two adobe houses, one with 4 rooms, the other 2; 15 acres in alfalfa; 800 fruit bearing trees; 2 wells; alfalfa sold for $300 last season; very cheap.

I also have a fruit ranch in a high state of cultivation, in the suburbs, with a building site overlooking the entire city of Santa Fe. On it there is an artificial reservoir, the only one of its kind in the city, 12 feet or more in depth, holding over 125,000 gallons of water, constantly replenished, from which the whole place can be irrigated daily during the summer, and which could be stocked with fish. The land contains many hundreds of young trees of the finest and most valuable varieties of apples, peaches, pears, plums, apricots, cherries and other fruits, the greater part of which already bear; a young bearing vineyard, thousands of bushes of currants and other small fruits; extensive beds of asparagus, rhubarb, and other fine vegetables. To be sold on easy terms, and for much less than it cost, owing to ill health of the owner.

OUTSIDE PROPERTY.

Examine a 23-acre tract east of the Wileland place, and then ask me its price; you will be surprised.

I am authorized to dispose of the Congregational Church, on the south side, convenient to the contemplated Union Depot. It stands upon two lots, and will be sold cheap, or the building will be repaired and leased to responsible parties.

On lower San Francisco St., east of the railroad track, I can sell you properties desirable for homes or business propositions; these will bear examination. I will take pleasure in showing prospective investors desirable building sites in the neighborhood of the Capitol, and in the vicinity of the Presbyterian Church, which in a few years will be worth double the present asking price. About two blocks west of Guadalupe church, on De Vargas St., I can sell you three small homes.

At El Cuervo, 10 miles from the Rock Island road, I can sell you about 640 acres; patented; excellent grazing land.

Convenient to Las Vegas, I have for sale several large tracts of desirable land which I am permitted to sell at very low figure. One tract contains about 3,500 acres, and is located about three and one-half miles southwest of Las Vegas; nearly all of it is under fence; good grazing and water for stock; some timber. Another tract of 550 acres, 7 miles from Las Vegas; timber and grazing, with an excellent stream of water passing over it. Still another tract of 350 acres of farming, grazing and timber land, 8 miles west of Las Vegas, with running water upon it.

MERCANTILE PROPOSITIONS.

To those desiring an investment in a good mercantile business located in a thriving town in Rio Arriba county I can suit them with the chance of their lives; general merchandise, large stock; store, two cottages, stables, and other buildings; large tract of land, with big orchard, producing the last season $1,400; merchandise business pays from $2,500 to $3,000 a year and can be increased; fine fishing, boating and bathing; with horses, wagons, etc., 20 varieties of choice roses and other flowers in abundance; owner will allow prospective purchaser to thoroughly investigate before buying; good reason given for selling.

I have several other commercial and business propositions to submit those desiring to enter mercantile life and to grow up with the new era of prosperity now coming in with the Santa Fe Central, and an eight page daily; who says that the world don't move, and our city with it.

HOUSES TO RENT.

One 9 room house, with all modern conveniences, excellent neighborhood. A new 6 room cottage, bath, stationary range and all modern conveniences. Also the building corner of Water St. and D & R G railroad track lately used as a saw mill.

Several small houses, some adobe, some brick, others frame, upon my books, which I would be glad to show an intended purchaser. They are desirably situated, and will be sold cheap.

UNFURNISHED ROOMS.

I can rent several rooms in the Hersch building on lower San Francisco street, or will lease the whole building. I have 3 or 4 rooms, and stable, that I will rent, on De Vargas St., two blocks west of Guadalupe church.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOMS. I can rent you 3 furnished rooms in a desirable location on the south side, water in the house and yard; or I can sell you the house 6 rooms at a bargain if you would rather have it so.

FARMS & RANCHES.

I have inquiry from outside party for ranch in the Espanola valley; also for ranch in the district between Tesuque and Espanola; price must be reasonable.

MINOR CITY TOPICS

Twelve years today have our doors been open to the public at Goebel's.

The board of county commissioners of this county will meet in special session on August 10 for final examination and approval of the assessment rolls of the county for the year 1903.

The amusement and dancing pavilion at the Tent city is approaching completion and the management expects to have it ready for business about the middle of the coming week.

The board of penitentiary commissioners will meet at the penitentiary Monday next and will open bids for the furnishing of certain supplies for the prison for the coming six months.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church met yesterday with Mrs. C. L. Bishop, nearly every member of the society being present. The society selected a new carpet for the church which it will pay for out of its own funds.

The following new professional cards appear in the columns of the New Mexican today: Frank W. Clancy, attorney-at-law, Albuquerque; A. B. Renahan, attorney-at-law, Santa Fe; and David M. White, civil engineer, Santa Fe.

The predictions are for local showers and thunderstorms tonight and Sunday. The maximum temperature yesterday was 81 degrees at 4:10 p. m., and the minimum was 60 degrees at 4:40 a. m. The temperature at 6 o'clock this morning was 56 degrees.

The receipts of the Santa Fe postoffice for July this year exceed those of July last year by ten per cent, while the increase in the number of registers sent out during the month was 25 per cent over the corresponding month of last year.

Eight new tents of the Dr. Holmes' sanitary pattern were put up at Sunmount yesterday; five of these were immediately occupied by persons who had engaged them and arrangements for renting the remaining three are now being made.

It will be a busy day at the capitol on Monday. The capitol custodian committee, the U. S. land commission and the territorial land board will be in session during the day for the transaction of business. The attention of the capitol custodian committee is called to the fact that a decent brick sidewalk in front of the old Palace is very much needed.

A letter from the postoffice department to Postmaster Paul A. E. Walter, says that the matter of free delivery for Santa Fe will soon be taken up by the department and the assistant superintendent of the free delivery service will be in Santa Fe before long for the purpose of arranging the letter carrier routes and holding the necessary civil service examinations.

There was filed in the district court for Santa Fe county yesterday a suit styled, Marcelino Garcia vs. Pedro Delgado for the collection of a note and other accounts. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant is indebted to him $87.50 with interest from July 1, 1898, $53 with interest from May 1, 1900, and also $200 with interest from January 1, 1903, and prays for judgment for same.

The management at Sunmount has erected two new rustic pavilions for the accommodation of residents of the Tent city. One of them is situated in the Arroyo Chamiso, where, on the windiest of days, the atmosphere is calm, the location being in a protected hollow where winds cannot strike it. The other one is on the east side of the administration building and specially adapted for hammocks and afternoon siestas.

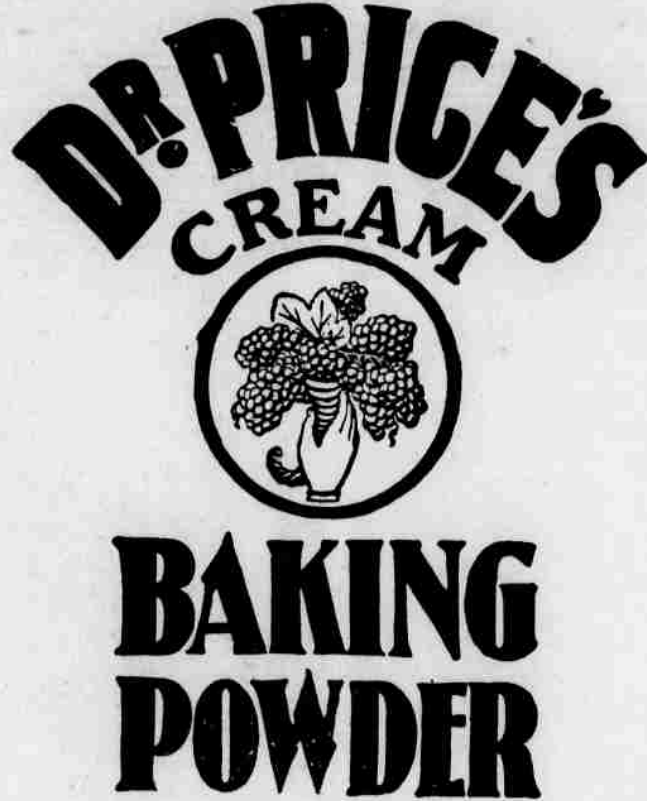

Dr. Wheelon, the osteopath, who recently located in the city, is working up a good practice. Osteopathy is well and favorably known in the east and large cities, but there are only three osteopaths in the territory, one at Albuquerque, one at Las Vegas and one here. Osteopathy is a manipulative system of treatment and is especially adapted to chronic diseases. It rarely fails in cases of indigestion, biliousness, colds, sore throat, grippe, sciatica, rheumatic conditions and the like.

The following business firms come to the front in today's New Mexican with display advertisements: The Seligman, Bros. Company, H. B. Cartwright & Bro., J. Lowitzki, C. C. Closson, A. F. Spiegelberg, J. E. Lacombe, Capital Coal Yard, J. V. Conway, C. G. Kaadt, Santa Fe Liquor House, H. C. Kinsell & Co., C. W. Dudrow. These new advertisers will find in due course of time that this will pay them, will increase their business, will add the town and will be beneficial in every respect.

The administration building at Sunmount is being improved and enlarged. The new dining room has been increased in size and is now 28x14 feet. A porch is being constructed at the east end of the building for the accommodation of guests. Plenty of easy chairs have been provided and the library has been supplied with late New Mexican and eastern daily and weekly newspapers and magazines. The fine lavatory and comfortable bath room is finished and is proving a great convenience to sojourners at the Tent city.

The 300-horse power Corliss engine recently purchased from Captain W. E. Dame by the Territorial Penitentiary authorities has been set up at the territorial prison and will be ready for work as soon as a large pulley-ordered from eastern manufacturers is received. This is expected daily. The penitentiary authorities did excellent and quick work in the transferring of this lot of machinery and in setting it up in a remarkably short space of time. Had it been possible to obtain a pulley the engine would have now been running on full time.

S. G. Ribout of Canon City, Colo., who arrived at the Tent city on Thursday, is very favorably impressed with its location and climatic advantages. He proposes to spend the remainder of the summer and probably the entire fall at Sunmount, believing that a sojourn there will greatly benefit his health.

The commission to appraise the value of certain lots on the south side owned by Mrs. B. M. Thomas, P. E. Moisson and W. M. Berger, met this morning at the office of Charles F. Easley, Esq., and organized. Charles H. Haspelmath was elected chairman. The commission adjourned until Friday next, at which day they will visit the lots in question, appraise their value and report to the district court.

The annual festival of the Indians at the Pueblo of Santa Domingo on the Rio Grande in Sandoval county, will take place Tuesday next. The Pueblo is about 30 miles from this city and the distance can be made in a buggy or in a light carriage in about five hours over a pretty good road via Cienega or the road via La Bajada, which is more difficult, but also more picturesque. Quite a number of people from this city will take in the dance as it is the best, most characteristic and the most picturesque of all such dances in New Mexico.

There has been filed in the office of the probate clerk and ex-officio recorder of deeds, the following mining deed, wherein Albert Kohler transfers to J. P. McNulty, the Saura M. turquoise mine, situated in Santa Fe county in the Cerrillos mining district, for the consideration of $600. A mining deed, wherein S. W. Smith and wife transfer to Antonio Winsor, a one-fourth undivided interest in the Dandy lode mining claim, situated in the Dalton mining district, near Monument Rock in Santa Fe county, for the consideration of $1 and other valuable considerations. A land deed wherein Tiburcio Montoya and wife, for the consideration of $175, transfers to Santiago Villas and wife, a house and lot situated in precinct 4, and ward 2, of the City of Santa Fe, being on Galisteo street.

The Woman's Relief Corps will meet at Post Hall, at 9:30 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Among the new advertisers today are Salmon & Abous'eman, dry goods merchants on San Francisco street.

The regular meeting of Carleton Post, G. A. R., will be held this evening at 8 o'clock sharp. Post Commander J. R. McElie requests a full attendance of members as business of importance to the post in connection with the national encampment to be held this month in San Francisco, will be up for consideration. Visiting comrades are cordially invited.

MINES AND MILLS

GRANT COUNTY.

Today the concentrator at Santa Rita, Grant county, stops treating the output of the Santa Rita mines. This is only a temporary curtailment of production caused by the decline of copper to a little over twelve cents. Manager Thayer, however, will keep his new Wilfley tables running on the tailings, a new process having been recently installed which results in a large saving at the dumps. Development work will be continued on all of the shafts and on the 300-foot level. Probably 35 men will be thrown out of employment altogether but the leasers will not be affected in the least.

The Tarantula is a new property that Charles Morrill and W. H. Wayland are opening up in the Burro mountains.

The McKinley mine in the Burros is making a good showing. Thompson & Westlake are now down 120 feet and have exposed large bodies of ore.

Dr. B. F. Copp has sold his half interest in the Virginia mine in the Burros to Judge Lucius P. Deming of the Alessandro Mining & Milling Company. Judge Deming is now the sole owner of the Virginia. He has a force of miners at work sinking a shaft to connect with a 30-foot winze which is in a drift off from the main shaft and which will give excellent ventilation as well as open large bodies of ore.

Jo E. Sheridan and his family are in the Burro mountains where Mr. Sheridan spent several weeks doing assessment work on his properties and incidentally preparing his annual report as United States coal mine inspector in New Mexico.

On the Sampson group in the Burro mountains, a force of miners has started work to sink a shaft on the opposite side of the gulch from the main shaft of the Sampson mine. The main shaft will be connected with the new shaft by a drift. A hoist will be erected on top of the new shaft. The work of erecting a whim on one of the other shafts has been completed and ore will be taken out in a short time. C. W. Bayne is the superintendent.

The erection of a whim on the St. Louis in the Burro mountains has been completed and ore will be turned out next week. The work will be carried on above the water level. Theodore Carter, who is operating the St. Louis, also has several men at work on the Colwell near the St. Louis and is getting out some good ore.

A four-foot vein of rich gold ore has been uncovered by W. H. Chandler with a small force on the Mountain Key at Pinos Altos. The mine is a little over 700 feet deep. Chandler has been working three shifts for some time getting out the sumps for the shaft. He is concentrating his second-class ore at one of the mills near Pinos Altos and is shipping first-class ore.

The Shamrock Gold and Silver Company is working a force of men on the Pacific at Pinos Altos, having secured a lease from the Hearst estate. Large quantities of sulphide ore are being taken out to be used at the smelter for fluxing purposes.

The owners of the Aztec group at Pinos Altos will erect a sixty-ton concentrator for the use of the lessee, William McAllister. The concentrator will handle the low-grade ores of the Aztec which consist of gold and silver sulphides. The engine, boiler, timbers and other material of the old Aztec mill, just north of Silver City, will be removed to south of Pinos Altos. The new concentrator will have rolls, screens, jigs and a patent dry concentrator table, the invention and property of the owners of the Aztec group. The plant is to be in operation by November.

SOCORRO COUNTY.

A 13,500-lb boiler consigned to the Mogollon Gold and Copper Company was started on its journey from Silver City to Cliff this week. Eight horses were required to draw the wagon.

The Helen Mining and Milling Company at Graham is not working its properties at present but is keeping everything in such condition as to be able to resume work at 24 hours' notice. The timbering of the Confidence mine has just been completed. 30,000 feet of timber having been used in all. It is understood that the shut-down is only temporary. Blakely Graham is in charge of the property.

NEW MEXICO.

The following song was written by Perry E. Brochus at Washington City in 1859 as a tribute of affection to New Mexico, and was respectfully inscribed to Hon. M. A. Otero, then the delegate to congress from New Mexico, and father of the present governor of this territory. It was published in the New Mexican in September, 1867, and was clipped from the paper at the time by Marcus Eldott, who has had it in his possession ever since.

SONG.

NEW MEXICO.

I love the land of brilliant clime,
As bright as mortals ever know.
With lovely vales and hills sublime:
The land of bright New Mexico,
The land of bright New Mexico.

I love the valleys deep and green,
Where crystal water laughing flows.
In wild romance the hills between:
The valleys of New Mexico,
The valleys of New Mexico.

I love the prairies broad and free,
Where the elk and deer unfettered go.
With tranquil brook and lonely tree:
The prairies of New Mexico,
The prairies of New Mexico.

I love the peaks beyond the cloud,
That glisten with perennial snow.
The glorious summits of the proud
Sierras of New Mexico,
Sierras of New Mexico.

I love the hues that gild the West,
At evening, with supernal glow.
And crown the hills with dazzling crest:
The sunset of New Mexico,
The sunset of New Mexico.

I love the soft, mellifluous tongue,
That from the lips doth sweetly flow.
Like strains with harp and timbre sung:
The language of New Mexico,
The language of New Mexico.

I love the silence deep and grand,
That reigns around, above, below:
From mountain top to river strand:
The silence of New Mexico,
The silence of New Mexico.

I love the skies so fair and bright,
That o'er the earth the radiance throw.
Serene by day; so grand at night:
The skies of fair New Mexico,
The skies of fair New Mexico.

Oh, I would haste, would haste away,
More swiftly than the light can go.
And there forever fondly stay,
In the hills of far New Mexico,
In the hills of far New Mexico.

Oh, yes, beneath that gentle sky,
Where moon and stars so softly glow,
There I would live, there I would die,
On the wilds of dear New Mexico,
On the wilds of dear New Mexico.

Then, bury me on the mountain's high,
Through whose deep vales bright waters flow—
Whose summits pierce the deep blue sky,
The mountains of New Mexico,
The mountains of New Mexico.

STOP THAT COUGH!

We have used it for several years; it always gives immediate relief, is very pleasant and gives perfect satisfaction." 25c, 50c, $1.00 at Fischer Drug Co.

PEOPLE WE KNOW.

They Are Santa Fe People and What They Say is of Local Interest

When an incident like the following occurs right here at home, it is bound to carry weight with our readers. So many strange occurrences go the rounds of the press; are published as facts, that people become skeptical. On one subject skepticism is rapidly disappearing. This is due to the actual experience of our citizens and their public utterances regarding them. The doubter must doubt no more in the face of such evidence as this. The public statement of a reputable citizen living right here at home, one whom you can see every day, leaves no ground for the skeptic to stand on.

Tomas Quintana of San Miguel st., says: "When I noticed Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in a Santa Fe paper, I came to the conclusion that they would be just the treatment required by Mrs. Quintana. She suffered from backache I cannot tell for how long, but very often she was unable to do the slightest household work. More than once I have seen her scarcely able to move about the house. With the intention of testing the remedy thoroughly, I went to Ireland's Pharmacy for a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and she commenced the treatment. She took a second box and then a third when the last attack of backache stopped and for eight months she has had complete immunity from pain. Something novel in her existence."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

DENVER

THE WHITE KNIGHT.

The silver birch's rind has caught
A powder light as frost;
And, round and white, like milky veins,
The grapevine threads are crossed.
The hollyhock has its purple plume
To the edge of her stiff gray hood,
And willow and rose and oak bend low
To the White Knight in the wood.

A shrill east wind the forge-blaze fanned
Where the ice-smith wrought amain,
And clear and fierce the fire
Are the links of his armor—
But his step is still on the snow,
And the White Knight's quest is found.

No point of the grim North King
Who stalks from the black beyond
Can smite, through the sweep of his broad, pure shield
The brake's most helpless frond.
The tender things of the wood are held
In a long and a peaceful spell,
Though the snarling blast be fierce and fast.

For the White Knight guards them well.

All for the Love of a Girl

By JAMES M. FREER.

A WOMAN, tall and straight, whose face was hidden by a shawl thrown over her head, was walking down the "Ramper," the raised road which ran straight as a stretched string across Sutter marsh.

It was the dull dusk of an autumn evening, and a raw wind from the sea moaned across the flats and caused Selina Pritchett to put her wrap closer about her face.

Presently, far in the distance, the girl discerned a figure outlined against the fading yellow of the evening sky. She gave a shrill call:

"Joe! Joe!"

The man stopped and looked round. Selina pressed on and soon joined him. He met her with outstretched hands, and a kiss passed between them.

"Joe, I came out on purpose to see you. I wanted to speak to you where no one could ever hear us."

"I reckon we're safe enough here, lass," smiled the man. "There's not a soul'll venture within a mile of us. Folk don't love the 'Ramper' on a night like this."

But neither of them noticed a rustle in the tall dead reeds which fringed the narrow road or in the quick gathering gloom a pale face, which appeared ghostlike above the heavy screen.

"Did you hear the dyke's finished, Joe?" Selina spoke with concentrated bitterness.

"Aye, lass, I know it," Joe responded, shortly.

"And next summer they say all the marsh will be inclosed and parceled out with fences."

"Yes, I've heard that, too. 'Tis a wicked job."

"Wicked! Wicked! I tell you, Joe, father will be a ruined man. Where'll be any grazing for the cows or the geese? Where'll he shoot any wild fowl? Where can we cut reeds for thatching or turf for fuel? Why, we shall starve!"

"Not while I live," broke in Joe. "Tell you what, lass, when we're married we'll move out of this country and go back to my old place."

"What, and leave father here to starve!" the girl flamed out. "Not me; and I'll tell you what, Joe Reave, I vow I will never marry you without we can settle here in our old home. O, I only wish I were a man! I'd do something to stop these commissioners at their wicked work."

The man, big, heavy fellow that he was, quailed at her fury.

"What would you do?" he asked at length.

"Do? Why, I'd shoot old Squire Duckett. He's the head of it all, or no, I'll tell you what I would do, Joe." She spoke now more quietly, but with intense emphasis. "This is what I'd do. Wait for a flood and cut the dyke."

"You don't mean that, Selina?" gasped Joe.

"You wait and see if I don't," she replied.

Joe seized both her hands and gazed straight in her face. The figure behind the reeds craned his head forward to listen.

"You shame me, lass," Joe said, his rather heavy face lighted up with a passion of admiration. "It's what we should have thought of long ago. Wait, I'll do it, see if I don't!"

Selina looked up at him a moment. There was no doubt he meant what he said.

"Very well, Joe," she said. "The day after the water runs back over our marsh lands, that day I'll marry you. And now I must go home. Father'll be waiting for his supper. Good night."

The figure in the reeds shrank back and hid itself as the lovers parted. Selina walked sharply homeward to where, across the flats, shone a faint light from the cottage. Joe strode along with long, swinging steps in the opposite direction.

When he was out of sight the man who had been in hiding crawled from his concealment upon to the "Ramper" and shook his fist in the direction the other had disappeared.

"Ah! my fine fellow," he growled, with an ugly laugh. "I have you now. So sure as my name's Vane Meritt, I'll be even with you."

who had common rights over these vast expanses, they were all in all. Millions of sea fowl lived and bred in these recesses. Cattle, herds of geese and marsh ponies grazed on the coarse grass. Turf to warm themselves during the bitter winter, and reeds to thatch their roofs; all these were the benefits the marshmen received from the lands. And all these would be lost by draining and inclosure.

What wonder they were furious. Yet what could they do?

For many months hundreds of men had been at work. The Sutter, through which hitherto the salt tides had made their way up into the marshes, had been confined within its banks by huge dykes. Drains and floodgates had been constructed. The marshes were drying rapidly, and all was ready for parceling out the land with fences and turning it over to the plow and harrow.

Old Pritchett, Selina's father, was one of the best known "sloggers." All his life he had shot and trapped over the marshes, and his daughter inherited his intense love for these vast expanses of breezy flats.

Selina was an exceptionally handsome girl, and naturally had many admirers. But Joe Reave and Vane Meritt were generally allowed to be the only two who had any chance.

Vane Meritt, it might have been supposed, would have been more likely to win her. He was the son of a small farmer in the neighborhood, and his expectations were far better than Reave's, who was but a marshman like Selina's father, although better educated than the majority of his class.

But, as we have seen, there was no doubt in the world which Selina preferred. This Meritt knew, and had sworn to get even with Reave.

Black night in mid-December. The soft marsh lands, soft in deep, sticky mud, and the Sutter swollen with heavy rains, brimming to the top of the new embankments, and striving with fury against its unaccustomed bonds. It had been a wet autumn, which had culminated in a three days' downpour, giving the river and the great new drains much ado to carry down into the sea the overflow from the higher grounds inland. This night a strong northeaster had arisen and torn away the canopy of cloud, allowing the winter stars to sparkle in the black waters beneath.

On the embankment, just where the Sutter curves into West Marsh, stood a man—a tall, powerful figure. He carried a wide-bladed pickaxe and a heavy shovel.

Laying these down, he walked to the top of the dyke and a few yards along it, testing the ground with his iron-shod heel. The water was within six inches of the top of the bank, and the current, usually so slack and lazy, swinging along with terrific force and power.

"This'll do," he muttered to himself. He returned to where his tools lay, picked them up, and began a savage onslaught on the soaking soil. Beginning about four feet below the top of the dyke, at a point just beyond the elbow of the curve, he soon had cut a gaping hole in the wide, new rampart. The whole force of the current here impinged on the dyke and he reckoned that, once gapped the river would do the rest, and, bursting through, speedily tear a huge rent and spread once more across the marshes.

Twenty minutes passed. He was more than half way through, and the river still rising.

Suddenly he stopped, pickaxe in hand, and listened hard. Bah, it was but the wind crying through the upper air. He went on digging, his mattock thudding into the soaking soil. The sound again—men's voices. Yes, and approaching from the west down along the dyke. But nothing was visible.

"They won't see me, whoever they be," he said to himself. "The curve of the bank hides me, so I'll see them first." And again he hacked at the rapidly thinning bank.

The voices ceased, but instead there came a sound of hurrying feet. Joe worked with desperate energy. Figures came in sight running towards him.

"Here he is," shouted some one. Joe ground his teeth, as he recognized Meritt's voice, but never an inch did he budge. The marshman's blood was up. Thud, thud, the water was beginning to trickle through.

They were upon him, three deputy sheriffs and Meritt, Meritt a little in advance of the others.

"Ah! you sneaking spy," roared the big marshman, as the other, with stick upraised, rushed upon him.

With a flail-like sweep of his mattock he dashed him aside, stick and all, sending him rolling over and over down the steep dyke side.

The sheriff's men were upon him, but as he fell seized Reave's leg and pulled him down; the others closed, and in a struggling mass all four went rolling where Meritt had already fallen.

Boom! and a black mass of icy water spouted from behind them in a solid flood, rolling them over and separating them as a pail of water will a pair of fighting dogs. The bank had given and the water was returning to its own.

As Joe said afterwards to Selina: "Twas lucky for me I was born and bred to it. No one else could have stood the water, 'twas that cold I was more'n half dead when I was washed against the old causeway. I was sorry for them sheriff chaps, but as for that danged scoundrel Meritt, it served him right."

No proof remained against Reave, though many had suspicions. The work of months was undone in that night, and it was years before an attempt was again made to drain Sutter marsh or deprive the "sloggers" of their privileges.—Chicago Tribune.

The Great West

has been made since the first Studebaker wagon was made. Indeed the Studebaker wagon helped to make the West. It has been one of the most efficient aids to the advancement of civilization by making transportation easy for the pioneer. Many of the first men in the West took the Studebaker with them. They are still buying Studebakers, having learned their value by experience. The Studebaker is better to-day than ever before.

Studebakers also make a full line of all kinds of vehicles, harness, etc. They control entire output of the World Buggy Co. and make the "Lizzer Line" of vehicles. All dealers handle Studebaker goods. Write us for catalogues, etc.
