BOOM FOR GORMAN

Understood in Democratic Circles That the Maryland Senator Will be Named.

A $5,000,000 FAILURE

The New York Stock Brokerage Firm of Hurlbut, Hatch & Smith Suspends Business.

Denver, Aug. 5.—A special to the News from Pittsburgh, Pa., says: It has been learned here that the national Democratic leaders have selected Senator Arthur P. Gorman of Maryland to be the Democratic standard bearer next year. Pennsylvania will be in line for him. It is also known that J. K. Jones, national Democratic chairman, Senator W. J. Stone of Missouri, and others are working in Gorman's interest, or will be ere long. It is intimated that even W. J. Bryan will be brought into line. It is Congressman J. K. P. Hall, Democratic state chairman, who has been getting busy in the Maryland man's behalf. The action is evidently taken under orders from a higher authority.

Nothing will be done at the Democratic state convention at Harrisburg next month to indicate how the Pennsylvania delegation to the national convention will line up. It will not be necessary. It has been intimated from Philadelphia that ex-Governor Robert E. Pattison will receive the Pennsylvania vote. This plan has been laid aside.

The boom for ex-Judge George Gray of Delaware, who was a member of the hard coal strike commission, has also been laid aside. It was told here today that Gorman will have a solid delegation from the south. Milwaukee and Baltimore have put in bids for the Democratic national convention. Chicago is favored by the national committeemen.

STOCKS FALL, BUT RISE AGAIN.

New York, Aug. 5.—There was a sharp decline in prices in many of the stocks today immediately after the opening which carried them to the lowest price of the year. The selling brought out good support under which there were substantial rallies after the first ten minutes. Shortly after 11 o'clock the suspension of Sharp & Bryan was announced. The market was not greatly affected by the news.

During the noon hour the market went off lower than before. Fully a dozen of the more active and better class touched low prices for the year.

Hurlbut, Hatch & Co., members of the stock exchange have failed.

The firm of Hurlbut, E. S. Hatch and J. E. Smith. The partnership was formed September 12, 1890. The liabilities will reach $5,000,000, mostly secured.

STOCK EXCHANGE FAILURE.

New York, Aug. 5.—The suspension of the firm of Sharp & Bryan was announced on the stock exchange today. The firm had a rating of from $200,000 to $300,000. The firm's specialties were known to be Virginia-Carolina Chemical, United States Realty and Construction and Southern Railway.

GLYCERINE WORKS BLOWN UP.

Decatur, Ind., Aug. 5.—The Empire glycerine works near Bluffton have been blown up. The particulars are not known, but it is believed that several people were killed.

It is also believed that a visitor who had just entered the plant before the explosion was killed. Pieces of machinery were blown 500 feet. It is supposed that the explosion was caused by a driver dropping a can of nitroglycerine.

OBJECTS TO LOTTERY FEATURE.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 5.—Postmaster Harris today held up the wall of the Monarch Investment Company and the Oklahoma Townsite Company on a fraud order issued by the postmaster general on the ground that it was doing a lottery business. The company sold $90,000 worth of lots at Apalachia, Okla., and disposed of them at a drawing held July 22 and had advertised another drawing at Warwick, Okla., for August 10. There was no fraud, but the government objects to the lottery feature.

JURY FAILED TO AGREE.

Casper, Wyo., Aug. 5.—The jury in the trial of E. S. Murphy, charged with the murder of a sheepherder named Fritz Kaespan, reported this afternoon as having failed to agree. Eleven men stood out for conviction and one for acquittal. This is the second trial, the previous jury having disagreed. Murphy is one of the wealthiest stockmen of Natrona county.

NEW POPE TO CONTINUE THE POLICY OF LEO XIII

Paris, Aug. 5.—Monsignor Boeglin, a prominent ecclesiastical writer, has a lengthy article in the Temps on the political meaning of Sarto's election. He declares it means that the policy of Pope Leo will be continued. Next to Rampolla, Sarto was the obvious successor, he completing the edifice that Leo began. The writer asserts the result of the conclave indicates the complete collapse of the coalition of Austrian, English, German, and American cardinals, which aimed at the supremacy of the Anglo-Saxon and German races in the direction of the Catholic church and at the overthrow of the French policy of the papacy. He makes sarcastic allusions to Cardinal Gibbons taking part in this European coalition in favor of reaction, and declares Pope Leo foresaw this coalition and consequently strengthened the Italian element in the sacred college in order to defeat it. In conclusion Mgr. Boeglin says the defeat of the anti-French coalition is most auspicious both for the republic and the church which have every reason to be satisfied with the result of the conclave.

BLOODHOUNDS TO TRIAL THE ESCAPED CONVICTS

Placerville, Cal., Aug. 5.—If the expectations of Sheriff Bosquit, of Eldorado county, are realized, there will be a fight in what is known as the Weber creek country before another day has passed, between the posse from Lotus and Placerville and the escaped convicts, who, on several occasions, during the past few days, forced by hunger, have had to show themselves at ranches and other places to obtain food.

A posse has been organized at Lotus by Guard Taylor, of Folsom prison. Another was organized by Sheriff Bosquit in Placerville. The latter is composed of five men and includes C. H. Ferrell, of Reno, who arrived here late today with a pack of trained bloodhounds. The outlaws have more than a day's start on the hunters, but as they doubtless are footsore it is expected to come upon them before Wednesday night.

PROMINENT MEXICAN WANTS IRRIGATE RICH LANDS

El Paso, Aug. 5.—A special to the Herald from Chihuahua, Mexico, says: Dr. Don Rafael Chavez Balderrama, of Jimenez, Chih., has applied to the government of this state for a concession to construct in the canon de la Boquilla de Talamantes, municipality of Allende, a great dam for the impounding of water to irrigate several thousands of acres of the fertile land between Allende and Jimenez.

Dr. Balderrama has contracted with Engineer Don Manuel Marroquino to make plans and surveys for the dam and canals and these are expected to be finished within four months. Dr. Balderrama has made arrangements for the formation of an agricultural and irrigation company that will operate the great scheme. The land to be irrigated is among the richest in the state and is well adapted to all the cereals and cotton and all descriptions of fruit.

TO PERFORM OPERATION ON SON OF BREWER BUSCH

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 5.—There is a difference of opinion between the noted Austrian surgeon and physician, Dr. Adolph Lorenz, and Dr. Robert Luedeking, of St. Louis, who is the physician for the family of Adolphus Busch, regarding the advisability of performing an operation upon Carl Busch, the 18-year-old son of Mr. Busch.

Dr. Luedeking, it is said, declared when the matter was first broached, that the youth was physically incapable of withstanding the shock of such an operation. Dr. Lorenz, it is claimed, thinks differently.

Young Busch is now at Hotel Amersand, Amersand, N. Y., under the care of a trained nurse, and is said to be preparing for the prospective operation. He is in a practically helpless condition, having been a sufferer all his life from spinal and hip trouble.

HAPPY DINNER PARTY.

Atchison, Kan., Aug. 5.—Ike Peck, the Halls Station farmer, recently invited his six children to take dinner with him. When dinner was over and the married ones were preparing to go home, he handed each a check for $2,000, the gift amounting to $12,000 in all. The married children are John, Maillard and Joe Peck and Mrs. Mary Frakes. Two unmarried daughters, Misses Nellie and Jennie Peck, live at home.

Ike Peck owns 600 acres of land near Halls Station. His children are industrious and deserving.

AMERICANS FIRST TO GREET POPE.

OUTRAGER LYNCHED

A Mob of 1,000 Men Take Ravisher and Murderer From the Sheriff.

A WELL-TO-DO FARMER

Telephone Pole Served as a Gallows But the White Brute Was Not Tortured.

Asotin, Wash., Aug. 5.—Despite the efforts of the little victim's father, Sheriff Richards of Asotin county, who had sworn in twenty-five deputies to guard William Hamilton, the well-to-do farmer and self-confessed outrager and brutal murderer of Mabel Richards, he was forcibly taken from Asotin county jail shortly after midnight and lynched by a mob of over 1,000 men which had been congregating all day from all parts of Asotin county. He was hanged from a telephone pole and not mutilated, though many favored torturing the brute before taking his life.

MEXICO MAY ADOPT THE GOLD STANDARD

Mexico City, Aug. 5.—The third subcommittee on the monetary conference has adopted the report made by Ricardo Garcia Grandos, which, after showing figures regarding the world's present stock of gold, says these figures demonstrate that gold at present is nominally "not scarce" but tends to predominate absolutely as the sole standard and measure of values, silver being relegated to the secondary and subsidiary role as token coinage. The report continues:

"Our commerce is carried on at present almost exclusively with gold standard countries, and if we wish to avoid or mitigate a monetary and mercantile crisis it is imperative that we introduce monetary reform that will give stability to our currency."

The adoption of this report by the commission is taken to indicate that the gold standard is likely to be recommended in a modified form.

The entire monetary commission which met today for the first time in full session.

WIRES CUT—BRIDGE DYNAMITED.

Salonica, European Turkey, Aug. 5.—A railroad bridge at Ekisoon, which is 87 miles northwest of Salonica, and a railway storehouse at Bonitza have been dynamited. The telegraph line between Salonica and Monastir has been cut. Great uneasiness exists in the highest and best informed circles, and a renewal of the bomb-throwing outrages is apprehended. Several nihilists of an extreme type are known to have arrived recently and it is feared a serious outbreak has been planned for September 1, the cult's festival day, though none would be surprised if it occurred earlier.

MUST REMOVE FENCES.

Topeka, Kas., Aug. 5.—A. H. Burtis, government land inspector, has returned from Washington, where he has been working for a month in the interior department. Mr. Burtis received instructions while in Washington to begin proceedings against the Kansas cattlemen who have not taken their fences from the government land. He will make a trip through the cattle country within a short time to enforce the order.

PROSPEROUS COUNTIES

Register Galles Talks of Conditions and Prospects of Sierra and Dona Ana.

A DELIGHTFUL CLIMATE

The Many Varied Resources Are Rapidly Adding to the Wealth of That Portion of the Territory.

Hon. Nicholas Galles, register of the United States land office at Las Cruces, is in the city on business. He paints a very rosy picture of conditions in Sierra and Dona Ana counties when speaking of conditions prevailing there. In conversation with a New Mexican reporter last evening he said in part: "The outlook for fruit in our section is the finest we have had for years. The alfalfa crop is about all that could be hoped for. Already two good cuttings have been saved and in some instances three cuttings have already been harvested. It looks very much like getting as much as four cuttings of alfalfa from the fields around Las Cruces this year. This finds ready market at good prices and is shipped to various places. The fruit and vegetables are in abundance. Apples and apricots are fine and what corn and wheat were planted have made good yields. The Mesilla valley is nearly all under ditch where irrigation is practicable, and this section has as good a system of ditches, perhaps, as any section in the Territory. The land is fertile and the yield is great."

HEALTHFUL CLIMATE.

"Not only is Dona Ana county one of the finest agricultural counties, but the climate is as fine as there is to be found in the world, especially so for pulmonary troubles. People in bad health who find they must seek a healthful climate, can go to this county and for a reasonable amount purchase a small farm under ditch where they can make a living and at the same time have a home and the benefits of the climate. Many people from other states have done this very thing and have shown that it is a good plan for those who find it necessary to come to this climate and who have only small means."

MINING AND STOCK RAISING.

"Sixteen miles east of Las Cruces is the Organ Mountain mining district. It is one of the best in the Territory. The Torpedo mine is now shipping more ore than any other mine in New Mexico. All the teams that can be hired are put to work transporting ore from the mine to the Las Cruces depot, and more would be employed if they were to be had. There are other mines there which have passed the experimental stage and it will only be a matter of time till there will be many extensive mining properties operated upon a paying basis in the Organ Mountain district. The minerals produced are copper, silver and lead."

"Extensive breeding and raising of cattle is carried on in Dona Ana county. Live stock is in very good condition, and the ranges promise to be fair for some time to come, although a rain would be very good for them. The snows of last winter and the spring rains have done much to furnish good ranges through the summer. Very few sheep are owned in this immediate section."

"Quite a number of people have settled in this county from the states within the past twelve months and more continue to come all the time. They are all doing well, and are satisfied with their surroundings. At Las Cruces there are a number of educational institutions, among which are the denominational schools, the public schools and the Agricultural college, so that the children have a very good opportunity to get the benefits of an education."

"Sierra county is a mineral county. It has produced more silver than any county in the Territory. There are located there many mining enterprises and paying mines. One of the largest mills in the whole Territory will soon be erected. After this mill is completed Sierra will at once take a place as the banner ore producing county in New Mexico. The county is noted not alone for its gold and silver mines, but has many valleys that are settled by a thrifty and industrious people, who grow fruits and vegetables in profusion."

ANGORA GOATS.

"And the raising of Angora goats is one of the leading and growing industries. Fortunes have been made in this industry within the last few years. The mohair brings from 30 cents per pound up. The flesh is very agreeable as a food, and commands a good price. It is figured that the rate of increase in Sierra county is 90 percent per year."

"This county is a good grazing country, and many cattle and sheep are pastured there. The ranges there are also in fairly good shape and the condition of live stock was never better at this time of the year. The rate of taxation in Sierra county is the lowest in New Mexico, and the county seat, Hillsboro, is one of the most promising little towns to be found. It is located about 15 miles from the Santa Fe railroad.

ELEPHANT BUTTE DAM.

"The Rio Grande flows through the county from north to south, and there are several tributary streams, the valleys of which can be irrigated. There yet remain subject to homestead entry many sections of public land that can be irrigated and made perfect gardens. The United States government surveying corps is at the old Elephant Butte dam site, making investigations with a view to constructing a reservoir, and it is really one of the best places for a large reservoir in the country, and if constructed it would furnish water for large portions of both Dona Ana and Sierra counties and give El Paso the relief desired. It looks now as if there might soon be a satisfactory agreement reached between the city of El Paso and the people of New Mexico on this question of irrigation water and rights. If Delegate Rodey will take up this question of getting a United States dam constructed at the Elephant Butte site, he will win the gratitude of the people of this section."

"Yes, taken all in all, our people are happy and prosperous and there is no community anywhere that can outstrip them for progressiveness."

TWO ROADS--ONE DEPOT

A Handsome Structure for Santa Fe Central and Denver & Rio Grande.

MODERN CONVENIENCES

Fine, Comfortable Passenger Waiting Rooms, Commodious Offices and Shaded Wide Brick Walks.

The union railway station to be erected at the corner of Guadalupe street and Metropolitan avenue jointly by the Santa Fe Central and Denver & Rio Grande railways, bids for which are called for in the New Mexican, will be a modern and beautiful building, and will compare favorably with stations found in cities much larger than Santa Fe.

The structure is to be of red brick throughout. The total length is 100 feet from end wall to end wall, and the building will be 22 feet in the clear from side wall to side wall. It will be finished throughout in natural wood colors, with a hard-wood floor, and glass doors to all the waiting rooms.

The ladies' waiting room is in the end of the building, being 22 feet by 18 feet, then a passage way 8 feet wide and 12 feet long connects this with the gentlemen's waiting room which is also 22 feet by 18 feet in dimensions. The ticket office, 11 feet by 12 feet, is situated along this passageway, and facing the front of the building, having three large glass windows in the front of the building, forming a bay window which makes a handsome front to the station building. There is a ticket window facing the passageway, and a railing separates the window into a gentleman's window and a lady's window. Just opposite the ticket office will be located up-to-date toilet rooms for both ladies and gentlemen, equipped with washstands, towels, and mirrors. Both sitting rooms will be equipped with seats of modern pattern and of capacity sufficient to accommodate large numbers of passengers. The ceiling will be 14 feet high.

Next to the gentlemen's waiting room is the baggage room, 12 by 22 feet, then the express room of the same dimensions, then the agent's room, 23-1-2 by 22 feet inside. The same scheme of finish and height of ceiling will prevail throughout the building.

There will be six large windows and five doors in the front of the building, and five doors and six windows in the rear. All windows are to be of large panes.

Along the track there will be a brick walk extending for 250 feet. Along the front of the station a walk, constructed of brick and 20 feet wide, will be laid, and at the ends of the building walks 25 feet wide will be laid of brick. These walks will be partly shaded by roofs projecting from the main building.

The station building is to have a steep roof of terra cotta, with Boston hips at each end and over the bay window which forms a part of the ticket office.

All passenger trains on both the Santa Fe Central and the Denver & Rio Grande roads will stop at this station both to receive and discharge passengers.

QUAY COUNTY.

New Modern School House at Tucumcari—Logan in Eastern Part is Growing Rapidly.

The Tucumcari Times reports that while diphtheria has been apparently checked at Cuervo, it has broken out with great virulence at Montoya.

Dr. Brown of Quanah, Texas, was in Tucumcari last week with a view of locating.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Beaty and Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Cooper of Tucumcari, last week enjoyed an excursion to Logan and caught a number of fine channel cat fish in the Canadian.

H. C. Spence, an attorney at Blackton, Iowa, has gone home from Tucumcari to dispose of his property, after which he will locate permanently in the latter town.

Work on the fine modern school house for Tucumcari will be started as soon as the county surveyor locates the corners of the school district.

Tucumcari is crowded with men thrown out of employment by the suspension of the work on the Choctaw extension. It is also reported that the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe has called in its surveyors on the survey from Liano to Dodge City via Tucumcari, having arranged a traffic agreement with the Rock Island.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Lucero of Logan, died last week while the family was visiting at Tucumcari.

Logan, a settlement in eastern Quay county is getting to be quite a trade center. It is surrounded by a vast amount of fine grazing land and near the town are a large number of cattle and sheep ranches. The Canadian river affords an abundance of water for the stock which ranges on the pasture land near the river. The town has a commodious Rock Island depot, a splendid well and tank and large stock pens where thousands of cattle and sheep are loaded every fall for eastern markets. It has two stores doing an extensive business.

The Reinken Mercantile Company is erecting a commodious store building. John Burns is the other merchant. He has just finished a fine residence across the street from his store.

SOCORRO COUNTY.

A Big Reception Tendered Judge Clement M. Smith—A Good Weather Crop.

Mayor M. Cooney of Socorro, tendered an elaborate reception to Judge Clement Smith upon the visit of the judge to the Gem City. Over two hundred of the best citizens of Socorro called and tendered respects. All were favorably impressed with the judge.

Socorro wants a steam laundry and considering that Kelly, Magdalena, Water Canon, San Antonio and Carthage would contribute to the support of such a laundry, it seems that it would be a paying proposition.

George F. Walker, an old veteran, formerly of Socorro, died recently at the Soldiers' home, at Santa Monica, California.

There is such a waste of fruit around Socorro as to lead El Republicano to say that a cannery is very much needed.

Z. Gibbons has two steam threshers at work threshing wheat in the Rio Grande valley, and has still two weeks work ahead before completing his work. Water canon, where the New Mexico National Guard encampment will be held this month reports good rains and very cool weather.

A good quality of well dried alfalfa is being brought into Socorro from surrounding farms.

Fruit of all kind is reported plentiful at Socorro and sells much cheaper than at other places in New Mexico.

The Rio Grande is reported dry above and below the Socorro county lines. The Rio Puerco and the Salado keep the river and ditches full of water in Socorro county.

H. Maynard Sowers, who died at Silver City recently, was a former resident of Socorro.

Andrew Lane, who came to Socorro in the last stages of consumption, died at Socorro last Thursday. He was buried there with Masonic honors. He leaves a wife and child.

L. A. Carr, carpenter for the Santa Fe Railway at San Marcial, last week completed his eighteenth year of service in the employ of the company.

The carpenter work on the new depot at San Marcial is completed and the painters expect to finish their work this week, when the handsome new structure will be ready for occupancy.

PUTS AN END TO IT ALL.

A grievous wall oftentimes comes as a result of unbearable pain from overtaxed organs. Dizziness, backache, liver complaint and constipation. But thanks to Dr. King's New Life Pills they put an end to it all. They are gentle but thorough. Try them. Only 25c. Guaranteed by Fischer Drug Co.

D. & R. G. CHANGE OF TIME.

Until further notice the Denver & Rio Grande train arriving here in the evening will be run as an extra from Espanola to Santa Fe, arriving at Santa Fe about 5 p. m.

DYSENTERY CURED WITHOUT THE AID OF A DOCTOR.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by all druggists.

THE DEATH PENALTY.

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cuts or puny boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve ever handy. It's the best salve on earth and will prevent fatality, when burns, sores, ulcers and piles threaten. Only 25c. at Fischer Drug Co.

NOT OVER-WISE.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglecting to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of cyclones a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by all druggists.

HERBINE

Renders the bile more fluid and thus helps the blood to flow; it affords prompt relief from biliousness, indigestion, sick and nervous headaches, and the over-indulgence in food and drink. Herbine acts quickly, a dose after meals will bring the patient into a good condition in a few days.

G. L. Caldwell, Agt. M. K. and T. R. R., Checotah, Ind. Ter., writes, April 18, 1903: "I was sick for over two years with enlargement of the liver and spleen. The doctors did me no good, and I had given up all hope of being cured, when my druggist advised me to use Herbine. It has made me sound and well." Fifty cents at Fischer Drug Co.

It is an admitted fact that real estate, financial men and merchants all say that quickest and best results are obtained by advertising in the "New Mexican."

END OF BITTER FIGHT.

"Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an abscess on my right lung," writes J. F. Hughes of Du Pont, Ga., "and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. As a last resort, I tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. The benefit I received was striking and I was on my feet in a few days. Now I've entirely regained my health." It conquers all coughs, colds and throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed by Fischer Drug Co. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free.

112 San Francisco Street, Santa Fe, N. M.
CITY PROPERTY.

I have a nice cottage (double) six rooms on one side, 4 on the other; owner occupies 4 rooms and the rest rent for $25 a month; good neighborhood; ample space to erect other buildings on same street; stables and other outbuildings; the price asked is very low.

Can sell at a bargain a cosy home on Manhattan avenue, an adobe brick house, 7 rooms; fruit and vegetable garden; city water, hydrant and tank; 70 choice fruit trees; currant and raspberry bushes; lot 80 by 265 feet.

I can show you a tract of land west of town, 40 acres, with two adobe houses, one with 4 rooms, the other 2; 15 acres in alfalfa; 800 fruit bearing trees; 2 wells; alfalfa sold for $300 last season; very cheap.

I also have a fruit ranch in a high state of cultivation, in the suburbs, with a building site overlooking the entire city of Santa Fe. On it there is an artificial reservoir, the only one of its kind in the city, 12 feet or more in depth, holding over 125,000 gallons of water, constantly replenished, from which the whole place can be irrigated daily during the summer, and which could be stocked with fish. The land contains many hundreds of young trees of the finest and most valuable varieties of apples, peaches, pears, plums, apricots, cherries and other fruits, the greater part of which already bear; a young bearing vineyard, thousands of bushes of currants and other small fruits; extensive beds of asparagus, rhubarb, and other fine vegetables. To be sold on easy terms, and for much less than it cost, owing to ill health of the owner.

OUTSIDE PROPERTY.

Examine a 23-acre tract east of the Wieland place, and then ask me its price; you will be surprised.

I am authorized to dispose of the Congregational Church, on the south side, convenient to the contemplated Union Depot. It stands upon two lots, and will be sold cheap, or the building will be repaired and leased to responsible parties.

On lower San Francisco St., east of the railroad track, I can sell you properties desirable for homes or business propositions; these will bear examination. I will take pleasure in showing prospective investors desirable building sites in the neighborhood of the Capitol, and in the vicinity of the Presbyterian Church, which in a few years will be worth double the present asking price. About two blocks west of Guadalupe church, on De Vargas St., I can sell you three small homes.

At El Cuervo, 10 miles from the Rock Island road, I can sell you about 640 acres; patented; excellent grazing land.

Convenient to Las Vegas, I have for sale several large tracts of desirable land which I am permitted to sell at very low figure. One tract contains about 3,500 acres, and is located about three and one-half miles southwest of Las Vegas; nearly all of it is under fence; good grazing and water for stock; some timber. Another tract of 550 acres, 7 miles from Las Vegas; timber and grazing, with an excellent stream of water passing over it. Still another tract of 350 acres of farming, grazing and timber land, 8 miles west of Las Vegas, with running water upon it.

MINOR CITY TOPICS

The Weekly Bulletin has made its appearance. It will be published every Saturday.

Train No. 7 from the east on the Santa Fe was three hours late last evening and train No. 1 two hours late.

The four-room adobe cottage on Upper Palace avenue now being built by Henry Pacheco is nearing completion. Ricardo Alarid, night watchman at the capital building, who has been in Albuquerque for several days, returned to the city yesterday.

Residents on Palace avenue are complaining that this thoroughfare is not visited by the city sprinkling cart. Mayor Sparks should look into this matter and see that it is remedied.

Daniel Coughlin, formerly train dispatcher at Dodge City, Kas., for the Santa Fe railway, has been promoted to be trainmaster of the Rio Grande division of the same road, with office at San Marcial.

Bowling is a very popular pastime in this city. Many people are now getting private balls for their own exclusive use, and Santa Fe is going to furnish the country some champion bowlers for many years.

The report is that the potato market in the potato district of California is excited and it may be reasonably expected that the price of the tubers all over the southwest will take a rise on the strength of this. Local merchants think so.

Superintendent Bursum of the Territorial penitentiary, today visited the convict camp in the Santa Fe canon and examined the construction work on the Scenic Route road. Upon the request of several citizens he is investigating the surveyed route more thoroughly and the work thus far accomplished.

It is understood that with the entrance of the Santa Fe Central into the capital city, all the roads here will take steps to look very closely after business here and it is probable that one or more assistant general freight agents will make this city their headquarters.

Judge W. H. Pope will reopen a law office in this city in a few days and re-enter the practice of law. He has fully regained his health and will be ready shortly for all the legal work his clients will supply. Before going to the Philippines Judge Pope enjoyed a lucrative and good law practice here which will no doubt come back to him in an increased measure in due course of time. Every available conveyance in the city, stables and owned by private parties was engaged today to transport Santa Fe people to Sunmount this afternoon. The crowd was very large and representative. Splendid views were taken by the photographer. Many people were prevented from being at Sunmount owing to the lack of convenient transportation.

Among the politicians it is said that R. L. Baca, clerk in the office of Colonel J. Frank Chaves, Territorial superintendent of public instruction, and member of the 35th legislative assembly, has been endorsed for the position of clerk of the fifth judicial district court at Socorro by Hon. Solomon Luna, Colonel J. Frank Chaves and other prominent citizens. There are several other candidates for the position.

The visitors from Montreal and Toronto who were in Santa Fe yesterday were delighted with the city. One enthusiastic lady who has traveled much, said: "You know Montreal and Toronto are beautiful cities indeed but I have found more to interest me here than at any place I have yet visited and as far as climate is concerned, this is the most delightful city climatically that I can remember. You have the making here of one of the most beautiful and most prosperous cities in the west, and," she added prophetically, "it will not be many years before the world will recognize your worth."

In the office of the probate clerk there was filed this morning the certificates of marriage for the following couples: Richard James Barnes to Lida Wright, married April 12, 1903, in Santa Fe, by Rev. W. Hayes Moore. William E. Parsons to Veldera E. Slaughter, married in Santa Fe, April 15, by Rev. W. Hayes Moore. Sam Hartley to Sadie Crow, married in Santa Fe August 3, by the Rev. W. Hayes Moore.

The parties who attended the Santa Domingo Indian dances on August 4, have returned and say they were well paid by the dances and performances.

they visited, for the journey to the habitation of the red men.

Our hobby is selling high grade hardware for cash at Goebel's.

About twelve houses are under construction in Santa Fe at present.

The smelter at Cerrillos has closed down for repairs, several jackets having burned out. The present superintendent has tendered his resignation.

The country between Santa Fe and Lamy is literally alive with rabbits and if a war of extermination is not waged upon them they will become a great nuisance.

The Harris track laying machine of the Santa Fe Central Railway, was ten and a half miles from the city last night, and tonight expected to have twelve miles of rails laid out of the city, reaching a point six miles from Vega Blanca.

Good rains have been falling in southern Santa Fe county, and the range south of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway looks very well. There is considerable water in the Galisteo and some water in the Canoncito.

Dr. W. S. Harroun has torn down the adobe building adjoining his residence to the west and is veneering the exposed wall with brick. Digneo Brothers are doing the work. This will greatly improve the appearance of Dr. Harroun's residence which now has a garden on both sides of it.

The predictions are for partly cloudy and threatening weather tonight and Thursday, with slightly cooler weather tonight in the northern portion of the Territory. The maximum temperature yesterday was 85 degrees at 4:25 p. m., and the minimum was 57 degrees at 5:10 a. m. The temperature at 6 o'clock this morning was 60 degrees.

A number of local businessmen are urging the Santa Fe Central Railway Company to run an excursion from El Paso and Alamogordo to Santa Fe upon the occasion of the opening of the road from Santa Fe to Torrance. The Santa Fe businessmen's excursion which is spoken of might run to Torrance early in the morning to meet the visitors and escort them to the capital where a grand barbecue might be held either at Sunmount or on the Fort Marcy Reservation. It is suggested that an ox be roasted and other edibles supplied to feed the great crowd which would be certain to come from hot El Paso and Alamogordo to enjoy the cool breezes of Santa Fe.

Under the personal direction of D. L. Miller, superintendent of the capitol building and grounds, good work is being done in repainting, revarnishing and overhauling the territorial capitol building. Most of the outside painting has been finished, and this adds a great deal to the beauty of the building. The interior has received many retouches which have conduced to the interior appearance also. In the cellar a new brick floor is being laid and many other repairs have been made. In the meantime the grounds surrounding the edifice under the magic influence of irrigation and careful cultivation are taking on a beautiful appearance, and it will not be many years until the capitol grounds will rival the finest parks in the west for beauty, quietude and loveliness.

Go'd in the Black Hills.
The Burlington Route has recently issued a 48 page booklet bearing the title "Mines and Mining in the Black Hills."

The book is one which should be read by every mining man in Colorado. It gives more information about the mines of the Black Hills than has ever before been placed between two covers. A copy will be mailed free on application to the undersigned.

The Black Hills need Colorado men and money. Several of the shrewdest men in this state have already invested heavily in the Hills. The results so far have been more than satisfactory. The completion of the Burlington's new line to the Northwest brings the Black Hills within a night's ride of Denver. You can leave Denver tonight and be in Deadwood or Lead City tomorrow afternoon.

MINES AND MILLS

The Milling and Mining Division Company intends to resume operations in the near future at Estey City, Socorro county, but for the present, the camp is exceedingly dull, only two families and three prospectors comprising the present population of the camp. The Milling and Mining Company is negotiating for more claims in the district.

South of Tucumcari several copper prospects are being developed and the way is looking now Quay county will not permit itself to be ruled out from among the mineral producing counties of the Territory.

The Colorado Fuel and Iron Company is negotiating for a valuable piece of copper property in the Burro mountains.

A large number of the claims of the Pinos Altos Gold Mining Company at Pinos Altos have been subleased by C. E. Derbyshire. The leasers, without exception, are reported to be making a good thing out of their leases.

Quite an excitement has been produced by the gold strike recently made at Gold Gulch, three miles from Central, Grant county. The ore in the vein runs $700 to the ton and the find was made on the Owl by the owner, A. A. Hamilton. The assay was made by C. P. Crawford in Santa Rita. The pay streak runs from twelve to fifteen inches in width, the entire vein matter being about 46 feet wide. The find was made at a depth of fifteen feet in a mass of decomposed quartz. The foot-wall consists of decomposed iron and granite and is very clearly defined at this depth. The shaft itself is sunk in the side of a knoll near the bottom of an arroyo so that floods frequently reach the shaft, seriously impeding the work.

The following are the figures given of the gold, silver and copper production of the Cooney district, Socorro county: The 150 mining locations in the district have produced $5,000,000, one-third of them having shipped ore assaying more than $100 a ton. The Cooney mine alone has produced more than a million dollars. One shipment of three car loads of ore, 30 tons, netted $30,000. Several tons shipped from the Nancy Hanks gave $185 per ton. The Helen Mining Company has taken $1,300,000 out of the district. The Last Chance makes a concentrate that runs from $800 to $1,100 per ton. The Maud S. has produced $750,000. The Little Fannie has produced $1,250,000; the Grey Hawk $75,000 and the Leap Year $150,000. Thirty-three consecutive car loads of ore from the Cooney returned $121,396.90 net over all treatment and transportation charges.

A strange mineral discovery is reported from Jarilla, Otero county. A cross cut drift on the Orion Extra mine from the sixty-foot station in the shaft, driven to prove the width of a sulphide vein, is now in 35 feet and encountered a spring, seep or vein of some sort of liquid mineral. It produces about four gallons a day of a fluid thicker than water, of a dark red color, that eats dyes, clothing, dissolves lime rock and produces a gas in the mine that suffocates the workmen unless fresh air is supplied continuously. Samples have been sent east for analysis.

The Three Bears Mining Company is developing its holdings at Jarilla under the management of F. B. Schermerhorn. Last week a four-foot vein of ore was encountered at the 200-foot level that runs $40 per ton in gold and copper values, picked samples assaying over $70 per ton. The principal stockholders of the company are Philadelphians. The shaft will be sunk to a depth of 1,000 feet.

A well is being sunk to a depth of 900 feet at Jarilla to furnish water for the placers. The well is now down 200 feet and indications are that an abundance of water will be struck. G. F. Moffit is superintending the work.

Mrs. Mollie Allen of South Fork, Ky., says she has prevented attacks of cholera morbus by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when she felt an attack coming on. Such attacks are usually caused by indigestion and these tablets are just what is needed to cleanse the stomach and ward off the approaching attack. Attacks of bilious colic may be prevented in the same way. For sale by all druggists.

THE ALIEN'S FAREWELL.

If I should die, Love! here to-night,
An alien, under unknown skies,
It would not be the heathen's cry
That press the anguish on my sight,
Or any doubt in Him who gave
The faith that made the human soul;
But, somehow, ere the deeps unroll,
I want your hand to make me brave.

One parting more! Not all the past
Farewells and greetings were as sweet
As the near music of your feet,
That came to see me at the last.

One kiss! But I would not awake,
But bear the seal to Paradise;
The imprint of your lips and eyes,
That I would treasure for your sake.

Your hand! That I, across the dark,
May know the path you chose of old,
When some affinity had held
Us kindled by a kindred spark.

It cannot be you will forget!
And so I will not say farewell;
I loved you more than I can tell,
And waited till the last star set.

The Last of the Tonkawas

By JOHN H. RAFFERTY.

TO BEGIN at the beginning, I must say that I had a very poor opinion of Sylvester Baffin until I met him. Indeed, I heard of him quite accidentally at Chickasaw, where Tom Pepper, one of the old-time "drummers"—he's dead these six years—told me what he knew, or rather, what he didn't know, about Baffin. It was in the old days before the government was half ready to open up the Kiowa and Comanche country, and the few traveling men who got into the traders had to drive in by wagon. The Rock Island was surveying, I think, but there wasn't a mile of road west of the Chickasaw line.

The case that Pepper made out against Baffin came pretty near being the prize hard luck story, with Baffin as the victim. Baffin was a trader in those days, and might have prospered if he were not everlastingly "burning out." What struck me as singular was that, in spite of the numerous fires which followed his wanderings, Baffin never carried any insurance, never whined over his losses, and never computed his debts. But fire was not the only cause of his misfortunes. Whenever he bought a few cattle they would get straggled or maimed on somebody's barb wire fence. If he put out a crop a herd of ponies was sure to invade and destroy it. Ill luck, according to Pepper, seemed to follow Baffin, till every white man in the reservation except himself believed that the young trader had enemies among the Indians.

However, as I was looking for trade, and had a mind to prospect a bit in the Wichita hills, I put down Baffin's address, and set out on horseback for Cloudchief, near which Baffin was then running a small post. His place was about four miles up the dry fork of the Washita river, and there I found him one March evening about an hour before sundown. In spite of the descriptions I'd had of him, I was a little surprised to find him such a splendid looking fellow. He was sitting on a keg in front of his log home smoking his pipe and gazing at me steadily as I came slowly out of the bare timber. When I got into the clearing he stood up, the shadow of a smile hovering across his swarthy face, and said: "How do, sir. Won't you come in?" He was very tall, more than six feet, his hair and eyes were very black and brilliant; he wore a thick, dark mustache, and though the evening was cool, he was in his shirt sleeves. A true frontiersman, he said very little, though he was hospitality itself and seemed glad to hear me talk. I'm quite sure that I took a great fancy to him from the start, and I think he liked me, because he finally lapsed into an almost talkative mood and told me a few Indian legends of extinct tribes which I cannot remember having heard anywhere else.

I was going to bed before he asked me the rather singular question, "Did you stop in any Comanche villages on your way up?" and when I said no, I thought he seemed rather relieved. We slept in the store that night, I on a bale of coarse duck that made a very good bed, and he on the counter with his head on a bundle of brown wrapping paper. The only other occupant of the house was an old Indian squaw, very withered and very silent, who seemed to carry on the simple housekeeping pretty much as it suited her.

I went away in the early morning, after a coarse but wholesome breakfast, and a rather cordial handshake from Baffin. After three profitless days of prospecting I came back to find that the log house in which I had so lately been a guest had been burned in his absence. Nothing but a few mounds of yet smoldering ashes marked the place. Baffin was gone, nor was there any trace of life at hand. In Cloudchief I asked about him, but nobody knew more than that he had been burned out during the night, and that he had bought a cart from some Wichita Indians and started for the Canadian river country. I met him twice after that at Taloga and once at Watonga, but though we got along famously together, he always evaded any questions about his misfortunes. He had given up any idea of trading for the future, and at that time showed extraordinary interest in mining. I told him all I knew, warning him of the precarious chance of finding any considerable mines in the Wichita, where I had so often failed, but advising him to turn his attention to coal or oil, or even to asphalt, indications of which I had found in many accessible localities.

He showed a particularly keen interest in asphalt and its possibilities, listening with wide-eyed delight to my description of its uses and values in the big cities. Though he never told me till later, I was already sure that he had never been in the states, but he was so keen for information, so ambitious for work, so apt in grasping ideas, that I never could make up my mind to believe that he had any Indian blood in him.

When I left him that time his mind was fully made up to go prospecting for asphalt, and sorry as I felt for him, I couldn't help but admire the splendid optimism which seemed to surmount all his strange ill luck and lead him always on to new enterprises. I gave him two or three addresses, where letters might reach me during the next year, and promised in case he should find a considerable deposit of asphalt, to rejoin him, and if possible unite with him in the business of acquiring leases and developing the property.

I was in Pittsburgh late that summer, when I got a letter from Baffin, dated at Ardmore, in the Chickasaw country, telling me that he had found a great and hitherto unknown deposit of asphalt in the black hills above Talia, at seven miles to the northwest by the trail. It was nearly six weeks later, after a day's mean riding, that I got well up into the rocky hills into which the trail had led me. I had a pack mule, besides my saddle pony, for I didn't know how Baffin was situated, and I had stopped with the intention of frying some bacon for my dinner when I heard a rifle shot sound across the valley, reverberating against the high rocks with a roar that lingered like receding thunder. I looked about and at last saw Baffin standing on a point of rock far above me, his rifle on his arm and eyes searching across the deep canyon. I called his name, and was astonished to see him drop flat on his face like a man pursued, and peer over the edge of his hiding-place.

I scrambled into my saddle and was soon within speaking distance of him. He came out with a glad smile, but I noticed that there was a hunted look in his wide, black eyes, and some gray hairs above his temples that I had not noticed before. He asked me if I had heard the shot. "Of course," said I, "what were you shooting at?" But he said that he didn't shoot at all, that it was somebody else, and so led me up the narrow passageway between the rocks till we came into a little clearing at the top. I saw that he had built a good shanty there, and I also saw that the old squaw was yet with him, for she was sitting there by the front door as if dozing in the westerling sunlight.

But I was not prepared for the sudden change that came over Baffin when he saw her. With an awful oath he stopped me, and when I looked at him his face was ashen and his fiery eyes were fixed upon the old hag. I was afraid he was ill, and asked him, but he said no, and then, becoming quite calm, he sat down on a shady rock and said:

"Did you ever hear that story, what you might call a legend, about the massacre of the Tonkawas?"

I thought it a queer, irrelevant question, but I sat down and said I had not.

"I never believed it," he resumed, "and I never heard it before, but I'd rather you heard it from me than from someone else. It is said that in the old days the Tonkawas ate their prisoners. They were cannibals, as you call them. It must be a lie. But the Apaches and the Iowas, as well as the Comanches, wish to believe it. I don't know how long ago, but some time when the Tonkawas were at war with the Comanches, they stole a baby from the Comanche village that was in the West Cache, near the foothills of the Washita, and cooked it for the Tonkawa chief. It was two nights later that 600 Kiowas and Comanches fell upon the Tonkawa camp in the rock gorge of Bloody mountain and massacred the whole tribe. They slew and burned till there was not a Tonkawa left, and when they had counted the scalps they knew that every fighting man was dead. But when they came back into the valley they found that one woman and her baby had escaped."

There were tears in his eyes when he looked across the sunlit clearing toward his shanty, and, pointing his big, brown hand at the old squaw, said:

"There she sits. She was the last of the Tonkawas, unless I can be called Tonkawa."

"You?" I said, not understanding; but he went on: "She was my mother's mother. My father was Gerald Baffin, an English trapper. He married the Tonkawa baby. But the Comanche followed them as they have followed me. They shot my mother while she was nursing me. My father disappeared, but old Shaiga hid me and I have repaid her well till now."

"She must be very old," I said, not knowing why he bowed his tousled head so low.

"More than a century!" he answered.

"And you think it was your enemies who burned your houses and maimed your cattle?"

"It doesn't matter. I didn't mind that, but this—" he had risen and I followed him toward the shanty where the old woman was sitting motionless—"this is hard to forget. It was that shot you heard."

The old squaw was quite dead.—Chicago Record-Herald.

has been made since the first Studebaker wagon was made. Indeed the Studebaker wagon helped to make the West. It has been one of the most efficient aids to the advancement of civilization by making transportation easy for the pioneer. Many of the first men in the West took the Studebaker with them. They are still buying Studebakers, having learned their value by experience. The Studebaker is better to-day than ever before.
