NUMBER 65.

A LADYSMITH RUMOR.

Boers Said to Have Defeated the British Garrison.

President of Stanford University Denounces South African War.

London Celebrated Departure of Several Thousand Volunteers.

LORD KITCHENER IN CHIEF COMMAND.

Vienna, Jan. 13.—The Neue Freie Presse today publishes a dispatch from Brussels, saying that news is received there from Pretoria to the effect that the Boers stormed all the heights around Ladysmith and the capitulation of that place is hourly expected. It is possible that the news may refer to the fighting of Saturday last.

THE REAL BOSS.

New York, Jan. 13.—A dispatch to the Herald from London says: "It now looks out that Lord Kitchener is really chief in South Africa at the head of the British troops and that Lord Roberts is a figurehead."

NEWS SUPPRESSED.

London, Jan. 13.—An absolute veil has been dropped over the occurrences in the theater of war. The country is in complete ignorance of what is happening.
Further news of Buller's movements are awaited with eager anxiety.

WAR EXPENSES.

London, Jan. 13.—The London Sun today reports on the resumption of parliament on January 30, that the government will immediately ask a further war credit of £20,000,000.

BOERS REFUSED.

Bomburg, Cape Colony, Jan. 13.—A strong force of British troops advanced this morning under cover of brisk artillery fire, and encamped at Brinkersfont-ein on the Boers' eastern flank. The Boer patrols retired, but subsequently the Boers attempted to seize the position, threatening communication between the New Zealanders and Hensberg. The New Zealanders, with a brilliant dash frustrated the attempt and seized the position first and fired volleys at the enemy, who retired in the direction of Colesburg.

The movement of French troops in the vicinity of Coliberg this morning is taken to indicate that General Lord Roberts has recognized the importance of French's objective, namely, to obtain command of both bridges across the Orange river, and has hastened to send him reinforcements. It is also thought to partially confirm the suggestion that Buller's plans include moves in all spheres of operation.

About 4,000 troops sailed for South Africa this afternoon.

VOLUNTEERS LEAVE LONDON.

London, Jan. 13.—Though many stirring scenes have marked the departure of the British troops for the front during recent months, to-day's outburst of patriotism, on the occasion of the starting of the London volunteers, was quite unprecedented since the jubilee. It is the first time that British volunteers have been permitted to serve side by side with the regulars in real warfare and the people turned out in hundreds of thousands to bid them farewell. The volunteers entrained and departed amidst the comingling of band music and cheering and singing "God Save the Queen" and "Rule Britannia." The lord mayor, sheriffs and councillors in state robes, accompanied by many ladies, took another special train for Southampton to bid farewell to the volunteers on board the transport Briton.

Unknown Steamer Wrecked.

St. Johns, N. F., Jan. 13.—No word has been received from Peters River in regard to the unknown steamer wrecked and afire on the reef in St. Mary's bay.
The storm is still raging and boats cannot put off from land nor can sailing

SHIPMENTS ROUTED.

Two Bands of Insurgents Dispersed by American Troops.

Col. Bryan Hedges Somewhat on the Expansion Question.

More Testimony in Proof of Corruption of Senator Clark.

WEEKLY BANK STATEMENT.

Manila, Jan. 13.—Advices from Cuba report a sharp fight on January 8 between a battalion of the Nineteenth Infantry and Filipino insurgents occupying a strong position on Siete Anchos mountain. The enemy was routed, the Americans capturing a smooth bore cannon, some rifles and destroying the fortifications.
Five Americans were wounded.

Insurgent General Flores, having established a rendezvous with one hundred men at Humingun, province of Nueva Viceaya, Captain Benson, with two troops of the Fourth cavalry, was sent to dislodge him. The insurgents were sear-tered, their horses captured and the position burned. The Americans sustaining no losses.

The American forces yesterday occupied Magallanes, province of Cavite, capturing twenty insurgents, including a colonel.

INVESTIGATION OF CLARK.

The Montana Senator Bought His Seat at Heavy Expense.

Washington, Jan. 13.—When the senate committee on elections began its session today in the Clark case, M. L. Hewitt, miner, who was in Helena during the session of the legislature in 1899, and Charles Clark asked him to see Senator Meyers and offer him $1,000 for his vote for Clark for senator. He accordingly talked with Meyers, and testified that gentleman told him to say to Clark if he was disposed to do so he could put $10,000 in the hands of Whitehead to be paid him (Meyers) in case he should vote for Clark.
Hewitt said Clark's son stated that this arrangement was satisfactory and afterward told him the money for Meyers had been given Whitehead.
Hewitt said he talked frequently with Senator Clark. Once he had remonstrated with the senator concerning Whitehead, as he was a well known supporter of Daly. The senator believed Whitehead's fidelity was assured. Witness had seen Senator Clark a short time after the Whitehead exposure and asked him what he proposed to do. The senator replied:
"There is only one thing to do and that is to make the people believe that the Daly gang furnished the money and put up a conspiracy against us."

On cross examination Hewitt said that he was a republican and not especially interested in any senatorial candidate.
He "just drifted into the contest." He pronounced incorrect the report of the testimony taken before the grand jury furnished by the memorialists, and he had not told anyone until he had given details to Mr. Birney, one of the attorneys for the memorialists, in Washington a few days since.

Witness declared emphatically that he "received nothing and no promise of anything from the anti-Clark people for his part in the proceedings." He received no pay from Clark for his services.

CLARK ON EXPANSION.

He Tried to Straddle on the Important Question.

Kansas City, Jan. 13.—W. J. Bryan passed through Kansas City this morning for Columbia, Mo., where he is to speak this afternoon. When asked about an interview in which he was reported expressing views favorable to expansion, Bryan said: "I have not seen the interview as sent by the Associated Press. I saw it as it appeared in one of the Minneapolis papers and it contains somethings I did not say. I have for one year been discussing imperialism and I tried to distinguish between such extension of the nation's limits and limits as would not change the character of the government, and expansion which converts a homogeneous republic into a heterogeneous empire.
When annexation of any given territory is under consideration, the question is, first, whether the people want to come in; second, whether the people are capable of sharing in the government and destiny of the nation. I believe all people are capable of governing themselves, and the Philippines should be allowed to govern themselves, but I do not think they are sufficiently advanced to share with us in the government of the nation. If the Philippine islands are annexed the people there must either be citizens or subjects. I am not willing to admit them as citizens and do not believe the republic can have them as subjects, therefore I want this nation to give them independence, and then protect them from outside interference. Each proposed annexation must be considered upon its own merits. But in considering these merits, the condition of the people should have more weight than geographical position or commercial advantages."

Weekly Bank Statement.

New York, Jan. 13.—The weekly bank statement shows a surplus reserve increase of $1,949,625; loans, decrease, $1-558,900; specie, increase, $1,564,400; legal tenders, increase, $3,708,500; deposits, increase, $334,300; circulation, increase, $82,830.

The banks now hold $16,707,359 in excess of legal requirements.

SHOT TO KILL.

Lawyer in Denver Shoots Proprietary of Evening Post.

Democrats Will Give Bryan a Reception at Belmont's Residence.

Young American Kills a Rich Frenchman in a Railway Car.

NEW YORK BANK ROBBERED.

Denver, Jan. 13.—H. H. Tammen and Frederick H. Bondie, proprietors of the Denver Post, were shot at noon today in the office of that newspaper by W. W.
Anderson, attorney. Both are severely wounded.

Anderson fired five shots. Two are said to have wounded Bondie, one in the side and other in the arm. Tammen was shot in the shoulder, the bullet going into his breast. Physicians, from hasty examinations, declared the wounds not dangerous, although closer examination might show them to be otherwise.

Anderson was permitted to leave the office unmolested. He was later found at his office by the police and arrested.
It is understood that the publishers and the lawyer quarreled over a fee resolved by Anderson as attorney in the Fackler case. The Post has been endeavoring to obtain a pardon for Fackler, known as the cannibal, who is serving a term in prison for murder. As Anderson was leaving the Post office the lawyer said that Bondie and Tammen both attacked him and he used his revolver in self defense.

Tammen and Bondie said that Anderson walked into the office and commenced shooting without more ado.
Tammen said: "He shot Bondie, then came after me. He followed me up and hemmed me in one of the corners. Polly Pry jumped in front of me and tried to shield me. She saved me from being killed."

Anderson refused to talk when seen at the police station, but his condition shows that he was roughly handled.

Bryan to Visit New York.

New York, Jan. 13.—In connection with the approaching visit of W. J.
Bryan the Evening Post says: "It was learned today that great effort will be made to get Bryan, while here, to treat imperialism and trusts as the main issue of the campaign and avoid giving undue prominence to the 16 to 1 issue."

The dinner so given to Bryan by Mr. O. H. P. Belmont on January 22, will be sort of preliminary. Many party leaders of the state as well as representatives of the Chicago platform democrats will sit at the Belmont table, and it is said an attempt will be made to bring both wings of the party together in order that a harmonious delegation can be sent to the national convention.

Death of Mrs. Sulzer.

This morning J. F. Sulzer, Jr., received the intelligence of the death of his wife at Lagrange, a suburb of Chicago, last night. Mrs. Sulzer had been an invalid for years, and a few months ago went to Chicago in the hope that the change in climate would prove beneficial. She was at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. H. Bingham, when her death occurred.

The remains will be embalmed at Chicago and brought to this city for burial.

The deceased was 55 years of age and leaves a husband and three daughters.
Mrs. S. H. Bingham, and two sons, Frank and Ray Sulzer to mourn her death.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

Judge J. W. Crumpacker, who was at Santa Fe as a member of the territorial supreme court, came home last night.

Hon. Nell B. Field, who was in Santa Fe, where he had several important cases before the territorial supreme court, returned to the city last night.

Judge Stanbury, who has been north on business connected with the settlement of Indian depredation claims, returned to the city last night.

J. H. O'Reilly and Tally McKinley, representing the Mutual Life Insurance company, who were out west in the interest of the above excellent company, returned to the city last night.

John Terry, president; Miss Myrtle Williams, vice president; Miss Olive Hawley, secretary; Richard Armijo, treasurer, are the new officers of the Pueran society of the New Mexico university.

Last evening Miss Laura Conley entertained a number of her young friends at her home on Williams street, in south Albuquerque. The time was spent in games and music, and the young hostess served appetizing refreshments.

The city officials have procured permission for the admission of Wm. McAllister to St. Vincent's hospital at Santa Fe. He was sent up to-day. McAllister is very sick. For a time he had charge of the Silver State restaurant on south First street.

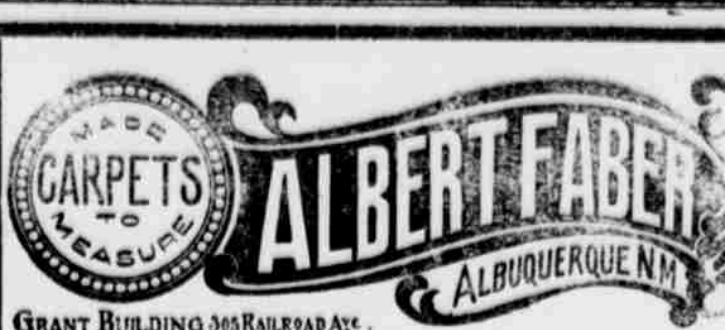

After a short visit here, during which time they were actively engaged in assisting the local officers, Major and Mrs. Peabody of the Salvation Army, went down to El Paso. The lady and gentleman have charge of a large territory in their evangelical work.

C. L. Fancher, who is connected with the land department of the Santa Fe Pacific, is in the city to-day, returning from Santa Fe to his home in Los Angeles. Mr. Fancher and his family have many friends in Albuquerque. He will go west to-night.

Mr. Wind, an energetic agent of the government Indian school service, arrived from the west last night, bringing with him five Moqui Indian boys to be placed in the local school. This is quite a feather in Mr. Wind's bonnet, as it is difficult to obtain any Moqui children. The tribes are beginning to appreciate what Uncle Sam is doing for their little ones.

Frank Kirker, the cigar manufacturer, and Don J. Rankin, of the southwestern Brewery, and Joe company, returned to the city last night from a business trip to Miami.

Capt. Chesbro, superintendent of the Bland mill up in the Cochiti district, came in from the north last night and is stopping at Sturges' European.

COMING EVENT

Supreme Secretary of Fraternal Union Counting—An Open Meeting.

Next Tuesday night Albuquerque Lodge, No. 88, Fraternal Union of America, will hold an open meeting to welcome the Hon. John L. Handley, of Denver, the supreme secretary of the order, who will pay the lodge an official visit. The meeting will be public, and friends of the members are invited. It will be held in the Knights of Pythias hall on Gold avenue. During the visit of Mr. Handley, a special dispensation will be issued to admit new members to this popular insurance organization at a nominal fee of $3.50. It is expected that quite a number will avail themselves of this opportunity. The officers of the lodge are arranging an interesting program of exercises for Tuesday night.

Death of a Railroad Man. C. M. Carey, a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, died yesterday at 1200 South Second street. He was 32 years old, and came here two months ago from Minneapolis, Minn., where his parents reside. The remains will be sent to Minneapolis for burial to-night.

The war in Africa goes on. Ladysmith still holds out and the elegant hot free lunch that will be served at Melini & Eakin's to-night will all be gone by midnight. So call early.

The Sunday Dining Parlor. The Sunday dinner at Ginter's dining parlor, on Gold avenue, has become a feature that many look forward to. Everything that the market affords, cooked and served in the most approved manner, attracts many who are thus relieved from the toil of preparations for the principal meal of the day on Sunday from 12 to 2 p. m. to-morrow.
