NUMBER 48.

CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE.

The Distinguished Visitors From Washington in the City.

LET'S ALL PULL FOR STATEHOOD.

This morning, the following committee of local gentlemen to meet and escort the congressional statehood committee to this city left for the north:

Judge J. W. Crumpacker, associate justice of the territorial supreme court; Mayor O. N. Marron and ex-Mayor F. W. Clancy, ex-delegate to Congress; M. S. Otero and H. B. Ferguson, United States Attorney W. B. Childers, K. V. Chavez, A. A. Kuen, T. N. Wilkerson and W. L. Hathaway.

They rode in private car No. 98, of the Southern California road, which was in charge of Capt. A. P. Maguinness, a well-known railroad official, and the party will doubtless meet the distinguished visitors at Lumy Junction, and from there will either escort them to the territorial capital or return direct back to Albuquerque.

In any event the special train carrying the congressional committee, with Governor N. O. Murphy, of Arizona; Governor M. A. Otero and Hon. Solomon Luna, of New Mexico, and several gentlemen from Santa Fe and the local escort committee, will reach this city at or near 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The first regiment band has been engaged and will be at the depot on the arrival of the special train. Hacks and carriages have also been engaged, and the visitors will at once be driven to the Commercial Club, where a public reception will be tendered them from 7 to 9 o'clock p. m.

The visitors, accompanied by error Murphy, will continue west a short distance, and will make short of the principal towns in Arizona. Maguinness will also accompany the visitors on their Arizona tour.

THE VARIOUS COMMITTEES MEET.

THE CITIZEN last Saturday afternoon published the full proceedings, with the appointments of committees of the Commercial Club and city council.

These committees per adjournment met at the Commercial Club late Saturday afternoon and discussed the manner of entertaining and showing proper courtesies to the distinguished visitors.

T. A. Pincus was appointed chairman of the consolidated meeting, and A. R. D. Caraceni secretary.

It was then moved and seconded that an executive committee of five be appointed, and the chair named the following gentlemen: O. N. Marron, T. A. Pincus, R. P. Hall, Summers Burkhardt and J. K. Saint.

The consolidated committee's meeting then adjourned, whereupon the executive committee held a meeting later on and organized by choosing J. K. Saint as chairman.

Entertained at Dinner.

An old fashion turkey and plum pudding dinner was served to-day to a number of friends by S. Vann and family at their hospitable home on north Third street. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hahn, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Shoemaker, Miss Strong and George Kneamen.

Back From Fort Wingate.

By invitation, Rev. J. P. Watson, pastor of the local African Methodist Episcopal church, recently spent several days in Fort Wingate, where he held a series of revival meetings, in the interest of troop "H," Ninth United States Cavalry. He reports an exceedingly pleasant stay both spiritually and socially, while at the fort, and feels highly gratified over the results achieved in the cause of Christ. While there he officiated at three marriage ceremonies, one of which was quite novel, in that the contracting parties were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by means of telegraph. The young lady at the time this ceremony was performed was in Winchester, Ky., while the prospective husband was at the fort. However, the record shows that distance was no obstacle to them, and the knot was tensely tied by means of telegraph. Rev. Watson was royally entertained while at the fort, not only by the gallant members of troop "H," but by their popular leader and captain as well, Captain Fuller, who showed him every courtesy possible during his stay there.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Joseph Deutch came in from El Paso this morning to spend Christmas day with his wife. He will leave to night for Chicago.

Oliver Springer, the carpenter and miner of the Cochiti gold mining district, was an incoming passenger from the north last night.

Calvin Whiting returned from Bland last night where he transacted business in the interest of the Equitable Life Insurance company.

Henry McGowan, of Bland, spent Christmas in the city. He reports everything as moving along nicely in the Cochiti district.

W. S. Holsinger, instructor in the Indian Pueblo Santa Domingo schools, was in the city Saturday on business, returning to his home in Thornton on the late train.

H. H. Hiles, the contractor and builder, has been quite sick at his home on Fifth street for the past week, and is to drive out this morning for a short while.

J. J. Frey, the general manager of the Santa Fe railway, came in from the north last Saturday night to enjoy his Christmas dinner with his wife and children.

The mail carriers of this city are arranging to give a ball early in the new year. It will be the first by their organization, and without a doubt will be a success.

Frank Lee and Al Coddington accompanied the local government Indian football team to Las Cruces, where the latter will play the Agricultural college this afternoon.

The Silver City Enterprise says: Mrs. J. J. Sheridan arrived Monday from Albuquerque and will remain during the holidays with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Warner.

S. W. Cove, representing the J. and E. Goldman dry goods establishment of New York, came in from the west Saturday night. He ate his Christmas dinner in the city and will leave this evening for Las Vegas.

The scholars of the African Methodist Episcopal Sunday school, in connection with their Christmas ship, will present a grand Christmas Cantata Monday evening, Dec. 25, at 8 o'clock. Libretto by Lia Reed Smith. Music by T. Martin Towne.

Lowenthal & Meyers are busily engaged to-day in the removal of their stock of liquors, cigars, etc., to the building on the corner of Fourth street and Railroad avenue. The business of the firm has increased to such proportions that the old quarters are inadequate, hence the change of location. It will be a week before the firm can make a transfer of all the goods.

Funeral Sunday.

A large concourse of friends and relatives assembled at the church of Immaculate Conception at ten o'clock Sunday morning to pay their last tributes to the late Joseph Powers, the young man who came to his death last Wednesday afternoon while in the employ of the railroad company. The deceased was held in high esteem by his fellow workmen and the Young Men's Catholic club, of which he was a earnest and consistent member. Rev. Father Mandarini conducted the funeral ceremony which was impressive. The church was thronged with friends and relatives, who, with the Young Men's Catholic club, acted as escort from the home to the Santa Barbara cemetery.

The bereaved family desires THE CITIZEN to extend their thanks to their many friends for the manifest sympathy expressed over the sad death of their son and brother, Joseph Powers.

HOLIDAY AMUSEMENTS.

SHOW AT 9:30 TO-NIGHT.

On account of the social function at the Commercial club and other places the show at the Orpheum hall at 9:30 to-night was to give everyone a chance to see Paul Gilmore in "The Dawn of Freedom."

RAM HUNT.

Commencing to-morrow night and for five nights "The Sam Hunt Stock Co." will play in Albuquerque at popular prices. The opening bill will be "Always on Time." Prices fifteen cents, twenty-five cents, thirty-five cents and fifty cents. Ladies free opening night.

PAUL GILMORE.

Mr. Gilmore for the first time since his accident at Phoenix, went on last night and played "L'Artisan" as he had never played it before. Everything has been said about Mr. Gilmore that is good by every critic of note in America, and we in our small way could not improve his artistic condition by three columns of praise. We can simply say considering his youth, he is to-day the best actor in America. Youth, education, fine sensitive mind, a gentleman both in education and birth, with all this and already a large varied experience, as a stock actor in the best schools he is bound to be the coming man. The company acquitted themselves well last night. A Christmas day matinee will be given to-day, and to-night at 9:30 on account of the many social functions he will present his new play "The Dawn of Freedom."

Justice of the Peace Refrino Crockett, Attorney M. C. Ortiz, M. C. de Baca, Nestor Montoya and other citizens of El Albuquerque have constituted themselves into a committee to represent the Old town before the congressional committee on statehood. Any and all questions will be answered by them relative to statehood in case it is necessary.

A couple of gangs with bruised heads were gracing the streets this morning as a result of a lively skirmish engaged in early Sunday morning. One of the participants made his escape when the police put in an appearance, while the other fellow, who seemed to have got the worst of it, was allowed to go his way.

Rev. Father Person, parish priest of San Felipe de Neri, has announced that a midnight high mass will be held in the church on next Sunday night. This will be an unusual event as the order comes from the Pope, and the occasion is to be celebrated with this special ceremony.

G. Palladino, the north Third street merchant and architect, returned last night from El Paso, and will visit with his family during the holidays. He has several building contracts yet to complete in El Paso, and will return to that city after the holidays.

The new delivery wagon of H. A. M. Palladino has arrived and was put into service this morning. It was built by the Mitchell Wagon company and is put up in the latest improved fashion.

J. D. May, who has been on a tour of inspection in the various mining districts near Cerrillos and Bernalillo, arrived in the city yesterday.

K. L. Medler, the attorney, who was at Las Cruces as one of the stenographers in the Elephant Butte dam case, has returned to the city.

Henry Lockhart, the expert milking magnate of the wealthy Cochiti, is in the city on a visit to his family during the holidays.

BOERS TELL OF SUCCESS.

Fatal Railroad Wreck on Local Train in Southern California.

QUIET CHRISTMAS AT WASHINGTON.

Pretoira, Dec. 17.—Over five hundred British prisoners who were captured at the battle of Stormberg have arrived here. They have been taken to Waterfall to join the other prisoners. The official account of the Boer casualties at the Tugela river says that thirty men were killed and wounded.

General Schalkbarger's report of the battle dispatched from the laager, Dec. 16, says: Friday at dawn, the long expected arrival. The Pretoria detachment of artillery gave the alarm. General Buller's Lady-smith relief column was in battle array advancing on the Boers position close to the Tugela river and Colenso. The centre consisted of an immense crowd of infantry, flanked on each side by two batteries, with strong bodies of cavalry, supporting. The Boer artillery preserved absolute silence, not disclosing its position. The two batteries came within rifle distance of our foremost position and opened fire with deadly effect. Our artillery also commenced and apparently absolutely confused the enemy, who were allowed to think the bridge was open for them to cross. Their right flank in the meantime attacked the Boer's southernmost position, but the Mauser rifle fire was so tremendous that they were rolled back like a spent wave, leaving ridges and ridges of dead and dying humanity behind.

Again the British advanced to the attack, but again fell back, swelling the heaps of dead. The cavalry charged to the river where the Kameels commando delivered a murderous fire that two batteries of cannon had to be abandoned, which the Boers are going to bring here. Twice the British essayed to bring horses to remove them. The first time they succeeded in hitching on to the cannon and on the second trial the horses and men fell in a heap. Then the British were in full retreat to their camp, when they sent a heavy shrapnel fire on the Bulwer bridge across the Tugela to prevent the burghers from re-taking the canon.

The French attaché, Villabois, and the German attaché, Braun, say the fight could not have been improved upon by the armies of Europe. Generals Botha and Trichard were always at the most dangerous points of the fighting. Eleven ambulances removed the dead and wounded. Such a tremendous cannonade has seldom been heard. The valid for miles were covered with dead and wounded. It was a most crushing British defeat. Nine of the cannon have since been brought across the river. The British asked for and were granted 24 hours armistice.

Generous to Employes.

Cleveland, Dec. 25.—Ever employes of the American Express company throughout the country to-day received a check for five dollars as a Christmas gift from the company.

Fatal Train Wreck.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 25.—A local train for Pomona was wrecked near that place last night by a broken wheel on the engine. The coach was overturned and caught fire. A woman was killed whose name is supposed to have been Shanklin. Lyman White of Colton, sustained a fracture of the skull and will probably die. Others seriously injured are: David Johnson, engineer; Wm. Scott, San Bernardino; August Lafardie, North Cucamonga; Milton Monroe, Monroville; Lee Rifter, brakeman; K. H. McClung, Conductor; Frank Dennatin. Eleven others sustained lesser injuries.

The Lawton Fund.

New York, Dec. 25.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: Adjutant General Corbin estimates that the Lawton fund including subscriptions received and pledged amounts to $30,000. It has been decided by the committee to have the fund reach $50,000, enough to pay off the mortgage on the Lawton homestead in California, and place Mrs. Lawton and the children above want.

TO CLOSE JANUARY 2.

The total subscribed to the Lawton fund up to noon of Christmas day was $14,339. The committee have determined to continue the work at least until the second of January. It is not probable that the fund will eventually reach $50,000.

Destructive Fire.

Hastings, Minn., Dec. 25.—Nearly three blocks of buildings in the business portion of town, fronting on Vermillion street, were burned early to-day with a loss of about $200,000. The fire broke out in H. C. Libby & Co's sawmill, evidently the work of an incendiary, and the entire plant with planing mill, storehouse, lumber, office, sheds etc., were consumed.

British Steamer Lost.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 25, 1899.—The British steamship Ariete, Captain Baines, bound from Grayston to Hamburg, ran ashore in a fog yesterday morning, six miles south of Hatteras, N. C., and twenty-one of the crew were drowned. Captain Baines and eight of the crew were saved by the heroic efforts of the Cochrane life saving crew, under Capt. James Howard.

Chillicothe Tragedy.

Chillicothe, Mo., Dec. 25.—Wm. J. Thomas, a farmer, killed his three children, set fire to the house and killed himself. A year ago his wife choked herself to death. Mrs. Thomas told the neighbors on her deathbed that she made him promise to kill the children and himself. The family had suffered financial reverses.

Looking After American Interests.

New York, Dec. 25.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: Secretary of State Hay will have a thorough investigation made of the reported seizure by British cruisers of several cargoes of American flour off Delagoa Bay, South Africa.

Recovering the Bodies.

Brownsville, Pa., Dec. 25.—The work of recovering the bodies of the miners killed by the explosion at the Brannell mine on Saturday progressed slowly. The total number of killed is over forty. The bodies are horribly mutilated.

Cold as Christmas.

Cleveland, Dec. 25.—A furious snow storm accompanied by a forty-five mile gale has been raging throughout Northern Ohio and over Lake Erie for the past twenty-four hours. The thermometer registers 16 degrees above zero.

Earthquake in California.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 25.—It is reported here that the towns of San Jacinto and Hemet, in Riverside county, have been badly damaged by earthquake. The report says that $5,000 damage was done at San Jacinto.

..CIGARS..

Taste Good or Bad, According to the Manner of Their Making. A Poorly Made Cigar Burns Unevenly and Becomes Rank.

Santa Fe Route Cigars

Are made as carefully at two-thirds of the 10-cent brands. They burn with a hard ash. They are good and clear to the stump and their flavor is delicious. They are sold by the following dealers:

Albuquerque Grocery Co.
Bigelow's Candy Store,
Berger's French Bakery,
Fletcher & Rosenwald's Cigar Store,
Horner's Cigar Store,
Jaffa Grocery Company,
Mann's Drug Store,
Matson's Stationery Store,
Newcomer's Stationery Store,
Richards' Cigar Store,
O'Reilly & Co.'s Drug Store,
Walton's Drug Store.

CAUTION: See that the word "SANTA FE" is stamped on Each Cigar.
