American Troops Cleaning Up
Ends of the Insurgents.

Romantic Marriage of a Trooper at Fort Wingate.

Yaqul Indians Have Retired to the Mountains in Mexico.

THE WAR IN SOUTH AFRICA.

Washington, Dec. 23.—The following is received from General Otis: Manila, Dec. 23.—General Young reports under date of the 21st, from Vigan, that Coles, Hare and House were heard from on December 17, are still in pursuit, through the mountains, of the insurgent column having our prisoners, of whom four were captured, Captain Gilmore remaining a prisoner. The insurgents are one day in advance of pursuit, which is continued. These pursuing troops encountered great hardships, but will probably strike Appari.

Two hundred and one Spanish prisoners from Appari were received this morning and two hundred more in that see- ing, mostly friars, are awaiting trans- portation to Manila. The entire six- teenth infantry leaves for Appari to- morrow for stations from that point, as far south as Bayombong. Bacheider's bat- talion of the Twenty-fourth is now on the lower Rio Grande in good condition to return to the San Jose country. The forty-fourth infantry being sent to Hughes at Iloilo, who reports Panay, Negros and adjacent islands are quiet. Arriving troops and supplies being un- loaded through services on the Manila Dagupan railway of two trains daily. All ports of Northern Luzon open on January 1.

Yaqul Indian War.

Austin, Texas, Dec. 23.—A dispatch from Ortiz, state of Sonora, Mexico, says that General Torres' troops retired to Potam, to await the arrival of the Twen- tieth infantry regiment and other rein- forcements. A large force of Yaqul, who resisted the advance of the govern- ment troops so successfully, followed the retreating command all the way to Potam and picked off a number of men. The Yaqul have again withdrawn to the mountains and the only fighting during the last few days is between marauding bands of Indians and scouting parties of government soldiers.

ROMANTIC MARRIAGE.

Galatit Trooper at Fort Wingate Married By Telegraph.

Chicago, Dec. 23.—A special to the Tribune from Winchester, Ky., says: Miss Lizzie Hummons, of this city, and trooper Sam Wheeler, at Fort Wingate, N. M., were married by telegraph a year ago both lived at Winchester, and Wheeler enlisted in the United States regular army. He was transferred from Kentucky to New Mexico and was made a trooper of the Ninth cavalry, stationed at Fort Wingate. He corresponded with the girl. She promised to go to him and be married. He sent her sufficient money for the railway fare, but Joseph Hum- mons, her father, refused to let her go. Wheeler tried to secure parole and failed. The young soldier couched in Chaplain Foster, of Fort Wingate. The scheme of securing electricity to love was thought of. The plan was tele- graphed to his sweetheart, Mr. Hum- mons, the girl's father, approved of it. Through circuit was established over the company's wires between Winchester and Fort Wingate. Rev. S. P. Young officiated for the bride at this end of the wire. Chaplain Foster acted in a like capacity for the groom. The only wit- ness was the bride's father, who gave her away. The ceremony cost the young couple for telegraphic tolls, $26.50. After the ceremony the bride departed for New Mexico.

Aguinaldo a Fugitive.

Manila, Dec. 23.—Colonel Wilder tele- graphed to Vigan from Bayombong that Aguinaldo crossed the mountains near Bayombong, going southward. His wife died at a village in that vicinity.

Cheiveley, Dec. 17.—The British army is occupying its original camping ground. The naval brigade fired a few shells at the fort position. The result not known, but firing is taken to show that the na- val guns are able to command the Tuga- la bridge.

Disaster in Italy.

Rome, Dec. 23.—It now appears that the disaster at Anagni, on the Gulf of Salerno, yesterday afternoon, was caused by the rock on which stood the Capaci- tal hotel sliding bodily into the sea, was not so extensive as first supposed, only ten persons being killed.

Moody's Funeral.

East Northfield, Mass., Dec. 23.—Yield- ing to pressure brought to bear by the friends of the family of Dwight L. Moody, it was decided to defer the funeral of Mr. Moody until Tuesday afternoon.

Joe Ortega has demonstrated the fact that he is quite an artist in the deco- ration of fresh meats, and to prove the assertion, Frank Wilson, manager of the Blanchard Meat and Supply company, invites the public to call and take a peep at the front window. The big side of corn-fed beef, the highly decorated pieces of mutton, veal, pork and the hams, so says Mr. Brown, are all home-grown and can't be beat.

Attached to No. 17, from the north last night, was the private car of Philip D. Armour, the Chicago meat packer, mil- lionaire and philanthropist, who with a party consisting of his wife, Dr. J. I. BLOODY BATTLES.

European Civil and American Civil War.

At Vitoria there were 432 killed and wounded. Such a mortality, great and regrettable as it is, does not begin to compare with that of our battle fought within the country. As the number of men engaged was only about 8,000, according to the British reports, and Mathews is in command of only one division of the British army sent to the Transvaal, no battle between those forces could have been the bloodiest of the century unless the slaughter of both armies was complete. At the battle of Austerlitz, Dec. 2, 1805, the French lost 7,000 officers and men, and the killed and wounded of the allies numbered more than 30,000. The French losses at Buzen, in 1813, were 12,000, and at Wagram, in 1809, they lost 18,000, a though in that battle they took 60,000 Austrian prisoners. At the Moscow, on the retreat from Moscow, they lost 30,000. At the great battle of Leipzig, in 1813, a three day's battle, the French losses were 65,000. More than 40,000 of the French perished on the field, altogether 80,000 perishing on the field.

At Waterloo the British lost 6,532, the French, 28,840. The total losses of the allied armies there were 4,266 killed and 14,539 wounded, besides 4,231 missing. In the last great battle on September 8, 1825, the French lost 1,646 killed and 5,509 wounded, besides 1,400 missing, and the English lost 835 killed, 1,886 wounded and 175 missing. At Plevna between 18,000 and 25,000 Russians were killed and wounded. The Turkish loss being about 5,000 less than the Russian. About 16,000 men were killed on both sides. In the war between Germany and Austria in 1866 the Prussians lost 8,172 and the Austrians 44,314 at Koenigsberg. At Saebod the Prussians lost 1,312 and the Austrians 4,787, and at Skatitz the Prussians lost 1,365 and the Austrians 5,777.

In the Franco-Prussian war the Germans at Walschbach lost 12,914 and the French 5,000 killed and wounded, besides which the French lost 25,000 prisoners. At Vionville-Mars-la-Tour the Germans lost 12,799 or 22 per cent of their army, the French loss being equal in great. The Germans at Colmar-Nuitly lost 4,907, and at Epikern 4,871. At Gravelot St. Privat the German loss according to a German authority, was 20,173. Another authority puts it at 25,000, and the French loss at 10,000. At Sedan the Germans lost 8,031. The French army of the north consisted of 160,000 men, and the three armies of Germany of 250,000 men. In that three days' battle in which 22,000 French were taken prisoners. In the American civil war the aggregate losses at the battle of Stone's river were 13,249 on the Union side and 10,296 on the Confederate side. These figures include killed, wounded, captured and missing.

The Union killed were 1,730 and the Confederate 1,294. At Antietam the Union killed numbered 2,108, the wounded 9,540. At the first Bull Run battle 470 Union men were killed and 1,071 wounded, the Confederate figures being 387 killed and 1,782 wounded. At Fredericksburg 1,284 Union men were killed and 596 Confederate, the wounded numbering 6,800 on the Union side and 4,705 on the Confederate. The total losses at this battle were 12,653 for the North and 5,315 for the South. Five hundred were killed on the Union side at Fort Donelson and 406 on the side of the South, the wounded numbering respectively 2,108 and 1,834. The South lost in captured and missing 13,820 and the North 234. In the two days' battle of Shiloh the Northern dead numbered 1,724, the Southern 1,723; the Northern wounded 8,408 and the Southern 8,012. At Fair Oaks 700 Northern men and 880 Southern were killed, the North losing in wounded 3,054 and the South 1,749. At Gaines' mill the North's aggregate loss was 6,056 and the South's 8,751. At Cedar Creek 614 were killed in the Northern army and 320 in the Southern, the wounded being 3,430 and 1,540. Chickasaw's two days' battle resulted in dead 1,656, wounded 9,749 on the Union side and 2,312 dead and 14,674 wounded on the side of the Confederate. At Gettysburg the Union losses in killed were 3,070, wounded 14,497, and the Confederate 2,952 dead 12,760 wounded. The killed in the Union army at the Wilderness numbered 2,246, wounded 12,087. This like Gettysburg is a three days' record, and the figures for Chancellorsville, one day longer are: Union dead 1,696; wounded, 9,762; Confederate dead 1,990; wounded, 9,581.

ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO.

DOLLS AND TOYS.

Increase of a Wonderful Business in the United States.

Right or ten years ago scarcely any dolls and Christmas toys were made in the United States. They were nearly all imported from Germany, Switzerland and France, and a large part of the output still comes from those countries. There are now, however, three large doll factories in New York and some are made in Chicago also. In the making of dolls the head comes first. This is cast in a mould, then polished carefully, and it is then handed over to girls, who put on the rosy cheeks which are the delight of childhood. After the head is thus prepared it is sent to another department, where it becomes a brunette or a blonde according to taste or fancy by the addition of hair. The other parts are made separately, after much the same process, and when all the parts are finished they are sent to a joining room, where they are put together. Even then the travels of the dolls are not over. They next go to the dressmaker, where they are arrayed in wonderful costumes, and, thus prepared for their adventures, they are taken to the packing room and placed in boxes for shipment. Toy drums, and in fact nearly all the paraphernalia of childhood, are prepared in a similar methodical and wholesale fashion, and thus the storehouse of St. Nicholas is filled awaiting his orders for distribution. This new industry now affords employment to thousands of people and is growing in importance every year. Already the United States ranks fourth among the nations of the world in the production of Christmas toys, though perhaps the finest and rarest still comes from Nuremberg, Bern and Paris.

My son has been troubled for years with chronic diarrhoea. Sometimes I persuaded him to take some of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy. After using two bottles of the 5-cent size he was cured. I give this testimonial, hoping some one similarly afflicted may read it and be benefited.—THOMAS C. BOWEN, Gloucester, O. For sale by all druggists.

Sheepmen Ask Grazing Privileges. The sheep owners living on the Forest reserve are circulating a petition to the general land commission asking that they be allowed to graze their sheep on the western slope of the Santa Fe mountains. They assert that they lost half of their sheep through the drought last summer, and that they will lose the other half if these are not allowed to graze on the reserve this winter. They also state that they and their forefathers have been grazing on the reserve for 200 years, and that being deprived of those privileges at this time would necessitate abandoning their homes and their present means of livelihood. It is also asserted that the grazing of sheep prevents forest fires.

No Right to Ugliness. The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at J. H. O'Reilly & Co's drug store.

Wish to be Enumerators. The following numbers of applications for census enumerators have been received by Census Supervisor Pedro Sanchez from the different counties of the territory: Santa Fe, 26; San Miguel, 17; Rio Arriba, 16; Colfax, 16; Mora, 16; Taos, 14; Bernalillo, 12; Socorro, 7; Dona Ana, 7; Valencia, 3; Otero, 2; San Juan, 1; Lincoln, 1; Sierra, 1; Chavez, 1, making a total of 149 applications. As each county is entitled to probably twelve to twenty enumerators, only a few of the counties have a sufficient number of applications to their credit.

"I was nearly dead with dyspepsia, tried doctors, visited mineral springs, and grew worse. I used Kodol, Dyspepsia Cure. That cured me." It digests what you eat. Cures indigestion, scurvy, stomach, heart burn and all forms of dyspepsia. Berry Drug Co.

Territorial Funds. Territorial Treasurer Vaughn has received $70.83 from the First National bank of Las Vegas, interest on deposits; $314.05 of 1898 taxes from John H. Sargeant, collector of Rio Arriba county, of which $188.94 is for territorial purposes, $55.33 for territorial institutions and $70.78 for 1895 taxes from Henry Lutz, collector of Lincoln county, who also remitted $117.28 of 1898 taxes, of which $71.67 is for territorial purposes and $45.61 for territorial institutions, and $114.55 of 1895 taxes, of which $60.71 is for territorial institutions and $53.84 for 1898 taxes from John L. Burns, collector of Grant county, of which $93.59 is for territorial purposes and $24.58 for territorial institutions; also $2.93 of 1895 taxes.

Notice For Bids. Bids for the recovering of the Corrales bridge with three-inch lumber, a total of 24,948 superficial feet, will be received by the board of county commissioners of Bernalillo county, up to noon of Monday, the 8th day of January, 1900, the board agreeing to pay cash the full amount of the accepted bid, in four equal quarterly payments. The board reserving the right to reject any or all bids.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York

RICHARD A. McCURDY, President.

The general public attention which has been concentrated upon the new policy of The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, has demonstrated the fact that as a liberal and attractive contract its equal has never been offered to the public; it is possible that some of its advantages may be overlooked by you, and it is to this end that we desire to call your attention to the following comparisons with the guarantees of other companies, which will prove conclusively that this policy is not equalled by that of any other company.

For comparison we will use a $10,000 Limited 20-Payment Life Policy, 20 Year Distribution, at age 35, which is the kind of policy usually illustrated by different companies:

MUTUAL LIFE.

All of the above figures are taken at the end of a 20-year period, although the guarantees given by this Company all through the different years are larger than those of other companies. It should be remembered that the surplus results are not taken into consideration in these comparisons, which, with the fact that the Mutual Life dividends on distribution policies are very large proves conclusively that there is no policy like this new contract.

SOCIETY.

From the Chieftain.
Joseph Emerson who has been quite sick and confined to his bed for a month, is some better this week.

Hugh H. Price, former superintendent of the Helen Mining & Milling company at Graham, was in this city. Mr. Price is now located at Phoenix, Arizona.

William Lunde, a Socorro lad, now a member of troop "A," Eleventh United States cavalry, is in the Philippines, assisting in the chase after Aguinaldo.

J. J. Aragon, of Monticello, has sold his cattle to Levi Baldwin and his mercantile business to Alphonse Bourquet, of the same place, and will remove to some other point, probably Alamogordo. The Carrizosa Cattle company sold the past week four hundred head of graded yearlings, Bar W brand, to an eastern buyer. The price is stated to have been $16 a head, which is considered by the old timers to be the top notch.

O. S. Williams, Reg. son of the late W. S. Williams, arrived in the city from Los Angeles. Mr. Williams will remain in the country some time to arrange the affairs of the deceased.

A. H. Hilton, of San Antonio, is trying to secure special freight rates on coal from White Oaks to El Paso. The Old Abe company is awaiting Mr. Hilton's agreement to take a stipulated amount of coal to put in steam heating machinery at their coal mines.

J. K. Griffith, district clerk, and Mrs. Griffith went to Albuquerque Sunday morning, returning Monday. Miss Jennie Griffith, sister of Mr. Griffith, a student at the university, returned with them and will remain in Socorro until after the holidays.

MILLSBORO.

From the Advocate.
Vitalito Trujillo has accepted a position with F. H. Winston & Co.

Mrs. C. B. Rogers, who left for California this summer to receive medical treatment for an affection of the throat, will return to Hermosa the latter part of this month.

John Dameron and family have moved to Fairview to give the children the benefit of the school, which is now in session under the supervision of Prof. A. Mayer.

Mrs. M. Sullivan, of Wild Horse, is meeting with considerable success as a wolf hunter. Her traps have caught two of these wily destroyers of cattle, and a dose of poison prepared by her has stretched another to his death. The first wolf caught was that of the trap but was trailed by our local Diana, who pluckily stoned the creature to death. Mrs. Sullivan's bravery finds compensation in the bounty—$48—offered by the cattlemen of this section for each wolf killed.

DEMING.

From the Headlight.
Charles A. Ament returned from a week's trip to Texas, where he was called on important business.

The Presbyterian Sunday school will hold their Christmas exercises in the opera house on Monday evening, Dec. 25th.

Judge C. K. McDaniels, of Cooke, spent several days in Deming. He reports everything as being in a prosperous condition at the Peak, and everybody busy. Many of the mines are now doing seasonable work for the past year.

H. A. Jastro returned from a hurried business trip to Bakersfield, California. Mr. Jastro expects the first drive of about 1,500 head of cattle to arrive from Mexico about the 15th of this month. These cattle, the property of the Victoria Land and Cattle Co., will be shipped to California, as fast as they arrive.

ROSWELL.

From the Record.
Mrs. Emma Wood died of typhoid fever in a tent near the depot on Sunday night. She leaves a husband and two little girls.

A flow of about 200 gallons of water per minute was struck in the well on F. H. Pearce's lot Wednesday. Drilling will be continued until the flow is materially increased.

President J. J. Hagerman and wife, Vice President O. S. Treasurer Peter Hagerman and Solicitor Campbell and General Manager Nicholas of the Pecos Valley Railway company, came down from Colorado Wednesday on a kind of an annual inspecting trip, and to attend a meeting of the directors of the company which was held at Carlsbad.

Amariah Dana has purchased the entire herd of short-horns of Jean Krantz, at Canadian, Texas; 216 head, and will remove them to his new farm as soon as it is ready to receive them. It is understood the price was something over $10,000. The herd is headed by the famous sire King Sandusky II, one of the finest of his class in the country.

FROM ROSWELL REGISTER.

G. L. Taylor has been nursing his right arm and shoulder for some time, the result of a fall from a ladder.

B. J. Franks has filed on land down the valley next to the tract owned by Loper. Charles and Gambrell and will have an arduous well drilled, and otherwise improve and develop the tract.

Lieut. Ballard has written home from Manila. He was with his regiment, camped eight miles from the city, and the weather was quite warm and a great deal of rain falling. He is satisfied it is a healthy country.

Mrs. M. M. Lutz has donated a handsome flag 5 1/2 by 11 1/2 feet to the public schools of Roswell. It was a graceful act and very thoughtful in Mrs. Lutz and will not be forgotten by the boys and girls of Roswell and their parents and friends.

L. Hills returned from a trip to several mountain towns, including Captain, the terminus of the El Paso & Northern railway. He says a great deal of work is being done there, the company now being engaged in extending their road to mine No. 4, at the mouth of Magado canyon, a distance of over a mile from Captain.

We have a full assortment of Russell's "Cyclo" bearing carpet sweepers at prices ranging from $25.00 to $50.00. Albert Faber, Grant Building.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR 1900

SANTA FE THIRD.
Pennsylvania Is Now the Longest Railroad in the World.
Construction and purchases have materially increased the mileage of some of the great railway companies during the year and have made some changes in the order of precedence, says the Railway Age. There are now five railway systems in the world, representing over 7,000 miles each, and by the end of the year their mileage will stand in round numbers about as follows: (1) Pennsylvania, 9,300; (2) Chicago & Northwestern, 8,400; (3) Atchafalaya & Santa Fe, 7,800; (4) Canadian Pacific, 7,700; (5) Burlington, 7,500. The class between 6,000 and 7,000 miles will be represented by (6) Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul; (7) Southern railway; (8) Southern Pacific, followed by (9 and 10) by Union Pacific and Missouri Pacific, approximately 5,500 miles each. The completion of lines now under way will permit of more exact statement by the end of the year.

Men and Women Quoted.
Call a girl a chick and she smiles; call a woman a hen and she howls. Call a young woman a witch and she is pleased; call an old woman a witch and she is indignant. Call a girl a kitten and she rather likes it; call a woman a cat and she'll hate you. Women are very queer. If you call a man a gay dog it will flatter him; call him a pup, a hound or a cur, and he will try to alter the map of your face. He don't mind being called a bull or a bear, and yet he will object to being mentioned as a half cub. Men are queer, too.—R.

What Do You Think of a Proposition for a Telephone from Roswell to White Oaks via Pecos, Lincoln, Richardson, Fort Stanton, Gray and Nogal?
It would be a great convenience to stockmen and everybody else along the line, as a means of quick communication. It is often that a drive of several miles and the necessary expense of a trip between these points could be saved if we had a telephone line along the proposed route.
Send your telephone man over the proposed route and see if he doesn't find the different towns ready to take hold of the enterprise.—White Oaks Eagle.

AID IN BUYING WATCHES.
Santa Fe Will Help Employees in the Purchase of Time Pieces.
The following circular has been sent out from the office of the general manager of the Santa Fe, and is of interest to employees, especially those intending to buy new watches:
"Commencing January 1, 1901, the local watch inspectors appointed by this company will sell to any employee of the company in any class of service, who may desire to purchase a watch, any make or grade of watch, and the cost of same will be deducted from the pay of such employee by our treasurer in monthly installments as may be agreed upon, but the minimum deduction shall be $5 per month. It is not the purpose of the company to endeavor to influence its employees to purchase watches from local inspectors and this arrangement is made only for the accommodation of employees who may desire, as a matter of convenience, to secure watches in this way. It being optional with employees to purchase watches wherever they may see fit. Time table rules define the requirements of the company with reference to watches to be carried by the train men and engine men, while on duty, and a compliance with these rules is all the company expects or desires."

GAIN the tides that flow from time into eternity have borne to the world the blessed anniversary which marked the dawn of hope for humanity, the day when man saw the ultimate victory over death and the triumph of the immortal over the mortal. Through the darkness the watchers under the midnight skies saw the rising of a glorious star, and its light is still shining upon the world to be a beacon amid the storm, to lead generations yet unborn to the humble manger sanctified by infinite love and compassion, and made holy by the birth of a hope that should lift the lowliest man to the divine heights where he could look unafraid upon the face of his God.

"Peace on earth, good will to men," sang the heavenly hosts, and the war-worn world thrilled to the anthem, for in it was heard the thanksgiving of the slave, whose chains were to be made light by the love of the Christ, whose stripes were to be soothed by the hand that touched the leper and cleansed him of his foulness, whose shame was made glorious by a brotherhood with the carpenter's Son of Nazareth, who came to preach the Gospel to the poor, "Peace on earth," the Christmas bells today ring out the message that was sung to the winds of night by the angel voices on the plains of Bethlehem, and from the uttermost ends of the earth men come to bow down and offer their gifts of frankincense and myrrh, the incense of grateful and loving faith, at the feet of the infant Jesus who was born King of the Jews, but who reigns Lord of the earth, proclaiming now, as in the hour when He took upon Himself the likeness of man, that good will that endures through generations to generation, and that pities the shortcomings and failures of man with a boundless tenderness.

What strange ye, who come today to look upon the holy mystery of the Christ-birth, as an offering acceptable to the Saviour of men, what treasure that shall not perish; what income that shall be of goodly store. No longer do men don armor of proof, and buckling on their armor bid farewell to home and friends, seeking faraway lands that they may slay the heathen who believe not in Him, and rescue from impious hands the sepulcher in which His mortal part lay a few brief hours. Christ has revealed Him, self as the Saviour of those who know Him not, the lover of peace and the hater of wars. "The captains and the kings depart," the stillness of death hushes the shouting of the multitude, the laurel withers upon the brow of the conqueror, the gold rusts in the coffer of the miser. What are honor, renown, riches, as a sacrifice to the King who had nowhere to lay His head, to the conqueror who vanquished death, to the Creator of the world and the fullness of grace?

Oh ye who seek the Christ that ye may bow down and worship Him, remember: "Still stands the ancient sacrifice: An humble and a contrite heart." If Christ be truly born unto your souls, let your lives proclaim the message that the bells ring out this Christmas day. The adoration which strengthens your soul aces for the conflict of life should be like a glorious flame, shedding its perfume on the winds that sweep around the world, a purifying influence and a beauty which even the most careless eye can see. Gather up some wandering ray from the star shining over the manger, and bear it into the dark places of the earth, that it may light some soul in the midnight of despair, and lead it to the source of immortal radiance. Catch some wandering tone of the angelic song, and repeat the strain above the pillow where Pain wakes off the tender hand of Sleep, where Regret sounds the dirge over wasted hours, where Burrow moans in some haunted chamber in which the ghosts of last days walk waiting for the sweet sin that left such deep and stinging wounds. He who bows the graceful of men years over the wandering sheep, and who have seen His face, who have read the tender message of His love, who have trodden with Him the road from Bethlehem to Calvary, remember on this Christmas day that again He is born unto you and unto the world. You are the messengers who are to bear the peace and good-will that the Heavenly choir proclaimed on that first Christmas night, you are to interpret the meaning of God be come Man, you are to indicate the martyrdom that brought the highest good with incarnate Virtue, for "unto you is born this day a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord."

An Awful Death.
He-I understand Miss Goodgirl, the Sunday school teacher, is dead. What was the trouble?
She-She died. She ate some of the candy that was hung on the Christmas tree.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

A CHRISTMAS COMEDY.

Rather Exciting, But All Concerned Are Expected to Recover.

ELL, how did Christmas come off at your house?" Mrs. Spikins asked, after she had told Mrs. Spikins exactly how much each of her own gifts had cost and what she had exchanged them for afterwards.

"Oh, pretty well. We hope to be fully recovered from the effects of it in a week or two. You see, on Christmas Eve the children were so excited about the coming of Santa Claus that they couldn't get to sleep. Young Mr. Fizzleton, who is a very regular and obedient boy, was the first to get up. He said, 'I'll wait up and do it—' I'm a poor sinner, anyhow. Why, I never saw my eyes until I've made Mr. Spikins get up and investigate the smell of gas in the room."

"Yes, isn't it odd that it only smells after all the jots are turned off? I never used to smell gas until after I was married, but now, I—"

"I smell it every night! So do I. Mr. Spikins said he'd get up and hang the stockings, said he could wake at any moment he chose. It seemed a pity that he never chooses to wake at the regular hour for getting up, but I said nothing—at least very little. Elhel wasn't sleepy and wanted to hang them, but her father said he'd be thinking of young Fizzleton and forgot to notice whether the children were asleep or not. Why, she makes enough noise after he leaves at night to wake the dead!"

"Mum, well, I knew I'd have to hang those stockings, and when it was time to go down to get them, we had left them on the dining table, and they were gone!"

"Mercy, burglars!"

"I know that, and flew upstairs. As I reached the head of the stairs, I heard some one creeping along the hall. In a second I was in the bedroom, with the door locked, but Mr. Spikins was there!"

A CHRISTMAS SURPRISE.

How a Rejected Suitor Got Even with His Successful Rival.

O MY cousin Robert has written that he is sending on a little Christmas surprise," said Mrs. Meekins, for the tenth time, "I felt sure that if he could once be induced to visit our happy little home he would forget that I was a rejected suitor."

"Not at all," sighed her husband, "he was most inconsiderate. He—"

"However, a woman's tact has bridged the difficulty, as usual. I flatter myself that I did a clever and original thing in naming one of the twins for him. Who would be so apt to appreciate such a compliment as a rich old bachelor, I'd like to know?"

"No one, I'm sure, but he was as soon as he had seen our six little cherubs. How he laughed when little Josiah rode on my back and playfully kicked me in the eye!"

"And how merry he was when Ariadne spilled milk on my best dress. What a pleasure it must have been to witness such a display. I remember his rage when he found that I had married his little fairy, as he called you. Odd, isn't it, that he has forgiven me now that you weigh twice as much!"

"Humph, I may weigh a few pounds more, but my hair is intact, and that is a Christmas gift. He is sending us a Christmas box. I wonder what it contains? The children will be up at daylight to find out. Well, properly we will not change our minds."

"And now he is sending us a Christmas box. I wonder what it contains? The children will be up at daylight to find out. Well, properly we will not change our minds."

"I know that, and flew upstairs. As I reached the head of the stairs, I heard some one creeping along the hall. In a second I was in the bedroom, with the door locked, but Mr. Spikins was there!"

"Only the First Step is Difficult."

The first step in Spring should be to cleanse Nature's house from Winter's accumulations. Hood's Sarsaparilla does this work easily. It is America's Greatest Spring Medicine. It purifies the blood, as millions of people say.

It makes the weak strong, as nervous men and women gladly testify. It cures all blood diseases, as thousands of cured voluntarily write. It is just the medicine for you, as you will gladly say after you have given it a fair trial.

Bad Blood.—Although past 70 years of age I am thoroughly well. It was three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla that made me so after spending over $50 in medical attendance. My trouble was a raw sore on my ankle. Mrs. LOUISA MARSH, Court Street, Lowell, Mass.

Burning Cough.—Five years ago I had a consumptive cough which reduced me to a skeleton. Was advised to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I did and recovered normal health. I have been well ever since. MARTIN HANCOCK, Cor. First and Chestnut Sts., Jeffersonville, Ind.
