BATTLE IN PROGRESS.

Second Battle at Modder River Between Boers and British.

British Receiving Reinforcements and Taking the Offensive.

Boers Attacking Ladysmith With a Dynamic Gun.

CAPE POLICE SKIRMISH WITH BOERS.

Pretoria, Dec. 6.—Fighting commenced near Modder river at 6 o'clock this morning.

MAKING RELIEVED.
London, Dec. 8.—While nothing in the latest messages from the British camp at Modder river indicated an immediate advance, it appears that Pretoria has news of fighting having been resumed on Wednesday. It is not shown, however, whether General Methuen advanced on the new position taken up by the Boers or was merely engaged in reconnaissance in force. Reports were again current at Orange river on December 5 that Mafeking had been relieved. It is known through dispatches from Magalapa that preparations were completed there to advance in force on November 15 from Rho-denia for the purpose of repairing the railroad line and restoring communication with Colonel Buller.

The Boers, however, were strongly entrenched near Mafeking, midway between Magalapa and Mafeking.

Reinforcements are rapidly arriving at Berkhamstead to strengthen General Buller's army, including much needed artillery.
Authorities expect special news of General Buller's advance, which is being diverting a portion of the Orange Free State forces now obstructing the advance of General Buller.

A detachment of Cape police had a skirmish with the Boers on December 6 from Naauwpoort, showing preparations of an attempt to restore some British towns occupied by burghers.

A war office dispatch from General Buller confirms the statement that he has established with Ladysmith and General Buller and General White are conferring as to their future movements.

BOERS USE DYNAMIC GUN.
Latest advice from Pretoria shows that the bombardment of Ladysmith continued to December 7. A pneumatic dynamic gun on Umbulwani hill has commenced work.

According to a special from Pretoria, General Buller recently proposed the exchange of prisoners, especially Lady Smith's wounded men, for Boer prisoners taken at Mafeking. Lady Smith's wounded men, especially Captain C. O. Wilson of the Royal Horse guards, have been active in the double capacity of newspaper correspondent and Red Cross nurse. Lady Smith left Mafeking on horseback with her maid as sole companion and was reported to have reached Setaigoli.

REPORTED DISSENSION.
New York, Dec. 8.—A dispatch to the Herald from London gives the following advice from Modder river: "No further advance has been made, but serious dissensions have broken out in the Boer camp between the Transvaal forces and the Orange Free State forces. The Transvaal forces, under General Cronje, are in command of the Free State forces and says the latter will not fight a Transvaal force, who refused Cronje and Commandant Weesels away in a cart after the battle of Modder river. They quarreled through the journey. Weesels blamed the Transvaal for not coming to the assistance of the Free State. Jacobson is reported to have been in the line of communication behind General Methuen, who apparently is now fighting."

REINFORCING.
Washington, Dec. 8.—A message in a cable message received at the state department to-day dated Pretoria, announces that he will sail on the 15th inst. for the United States for the purpose of cablegram granting his application for leave of absence. Adelbert Hay, who will replace Macrae, begins his journey tomorrow.

INSLEY-CURTIS MARRIAGE.
Readers of THE CITIZEN will remember her Tom Insley, who deserted his wife and children, leaving the city with Mrs.

Hattie Curtis, wife of a Santa Fe Pacific freight conductor. This was several years ago, and although Sir Thomas and Mrs. Curtis were heard from quite frequently, they absolutely refused to pay their respects to their friends here by returning. Now they are married, after traveling together in southern California and northern Mexico, and the nuptial knot was tied in Cripple Creek, Colo., last Saturday night.

CHICKEN THIEVES.
Thirteen hens and one rooster constitute a pretty fair haul from one house in a night's raid. Such was the case just about dark last night, when chicken thieves called at the outhouse in the rear of the residence occupied by W. T.
McCreight on west Railroad avenue and helped themselves, leaving behind three non-laying hens and one young chicken.
Marshall McMillin was promptly notified and he is now working on the case.

FOOT BALL TO-MORROW.
The foot ball team of the prominent Indian school at Santa Fe will arrive here to-night, and to-morrow afternoon at the fair grounds they will meet the crack foot ball eleven of the same government Indian school. It is stated, by those who have seen the Santa Fe Indians play, that they are exceedingly strong and will keep Santa Fe Indians and boys guessing to win.

POVERTY BALL.
The ball at Orchestration hall will be given Friday, December 15, instead of the 16th, as first noticed. A mistake in dates at Orchestration hall is the reason of the change. It will be given on the 15th, positively.

THE BODY IDENTIFIED.
Remains of Unknown Man Found to be Ferdinando Giannini.

B. Totti, who went to Jack's canyon, to identify the remains of a man found dead there some time ago, returned to the city the other evening, bringing with him a piece of the clothes worn by the dead man and a few relics found in his pockets. These were fully identified this morning by Mrs. Totti as belonging to her brother, Ferdinando Giannini, who mysteriously wandered away from this city sometime last spring. Mr. Totti called at THE CITIZEN office this afternoon and stated that the deceased was 25 years old, and that an inquest was held on the remains at Winslow on November 22.

THE CLOSING NIGHT
Of the Feast of Days Festival a Big Success.

The St. John's Episcopal ladies closed their successful "Feast of Days" entertainment last night, and like the previous evening they were greeted by a large crowd.

The booths were liberally patronized, and the musical articles were actioned off by B. Ruppe, who officiated as an-cillator in a most satisfactory manner.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorna Lester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Lester, were the winners of the most popular little girl.
Master Isaac Singer rendered a violin solo, accompanied by Prof. M. Mauro and Miss Hawthorne.

Ralph Riggs created considerable fun by singing some humorous Irish songs, while Miss Benson followed with a soprano solo.

Mrs. Knightlinger sang a familiar old ballad, which Mr. Albors delighted those present with a solo, followed by a song from the Episcopal church quartette.

The play of "Ingomar" was then commenced, and Miss Rose Stillman and Frank Lee acquitted themselves with great credit.

The festival was a big financial success, and the ladies who had charge of the affair are to be congratulated for the manner in which all the little and many details were carried out.

REMAINS EXHUMED.
The remains of the late Mrs. Mary Lowe were exhumed this afternoon and taken to the undertaking establishment of O. W. Strong. It will be remembered by the residents of this city of the death of Mrs. Lowe at her home, corner of Main and Fourth streets, about five years ago. The remains will be shipped to Birmingham, Mich., to-morrow evening for final interment.

STATUS OF THE ROBERTS CASE.

Washington, Dec. 8.—Mr. Roberts, Mormon representative elect from Utah, was not in the house when the house convened to-day.

Dalzell, Pennsylvania, from committee on rules, presented amendments to the bill agreed upon by the committee for the creation of a committee on insular affairs to consist of seven members, to have jurisdiction over all matters (excepting those affecting revenue and appropriations) pertaining to the territories which came to the United States through the treaty of 1893, with Spain, and to Cuba, and to increase the membership of the committee on foreign affairs, merchant marine and fisheries, public lands, military affairs, naval affairs and District of Columbia from sixteen to seventeen members and the committee on territories from thirteen to fifteen.

Mr. Roberts, who was elected to the house in 1898, was not in the house when the house convened to-day.

The bill on the subject of insular affairs, which was introduced by Mr. Dalzell on March 1, 1898, and which has been pending ever since, was taken up to-day.

The bill provides for the creation of a committee on insular affairs, to consist of seven members, to have jurisdiction over all matters (excepting those affecting revenue and appropriations) pertaining to the territories which came to the United States through the treaty of 1893, with Spain, and to Cuba, and to increase the membership of the committee on foreign affairs, merchant marine and fisheries, public lands, military affairs, naval affairs and District of Columbia from sixteen to seventeen members and the committee on territories from thirteen to fifteen.

VICE ADMIRALS.
New York, Dec. 8.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: President McKinley during an interview with Senator Wellington expressed himself in favor of retaining the grade of vice admiral in the interest of both Rear Admiral Sampson and Rear Admiral Schley.
He believes this is the simplest solution of the whole Sampson-Schley controversy, and it is expected that Wellington will introduce a bill in a few days providing for the appointment of two vice admirals, without specifying names.

COUNTING THE VOTES.
Two of the Kentucky Election Commissioners Favor Taylor for Governor.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 8.—The situation this morning was the same as last night.
The board of election commissioners stands two for Taylor and one for Governor. Judge Pryor, chairman, said it will require all of to-day and probably a portion of the evening to prepare an opinion, and there was no prospect of being read before to-morrow. It is understood that Commissioner Poyntz will prepare the minority report, Poyntz to that of Killa and Pryor.

Dalzell held that there was nothing in the resolutions which intimated that the committee was to deal with our islands permanently. The resolution was adopted without division.

Dalzell then offered a resolution for the consideration of the currency bill.
He said there was no disposition upon the part of the majority to unduly press the bill. It presents propositions which have been debated in the house, and the committee on rules was of the opinion that the resolution offered ample time for debate.

Richardson, on behalf of minority, said he dissented most emphatically from the proposition advanced by Dalzell that the bill be considered contained nothing radically new. For the first time in the history of the country it was proposed by statutory provisions to fasten the gold standard upon the country.

If such a suggestion had been made two or three years ago, he said, half of the thesauri would have been up in arms against it. But one year ago, while the minority to study a bill, while the members of the majority had six months to prepare themselves. Richardson thanked the majority for sudden change of base.

Bayley, Texas, declared that the proposed course of the majority was without precedent or defense. He made an orate argument to prove that it was a proposition to hastily determine a question to which it is best and most careful consideration should be given.

Dalzell closed the debate for the special order.

The special order was adopted 163 to 144, a strict party vote. At 1:30 p. m. the house adjourned until Monday.
