an Abused Man.

COUNTING THE KENTUCKY VOTE.

Chicago, Dec. 6.—A special to the Record from the City of Mexico says: Judge Mariano C. Burch, of Grand Rapids, Mich., arrived in the City of Mexico today. He comes as special counsel for the department of justice at Washington on an errand relating to the Rio Grande valley irrigation dispute, the only point of disagreement between the United States and Mexico, the latter country having filed a claim for $20,000,000 damages. The normal flow of the Rio Grande for centuries has been sufficient for the people of both sides adjoining. During the last few years irrigation in Colorado and New Mexico has consumed so much from the headwaters that the stream along the international boundary has been lowered proportionately. Above and below Rio Paso ancient irrigation ditches are now dry, and fertile fields and orchards are waste. This is the basis of the claim of Mexico. The American government will endeavor to arrange the question on its equities.

During President Cleveland's administration an English architect started a dam in the river at Elephant Butte, 125 miles above Rio Paso, to thus control the water for irrigation. The syndicate offered to sell water there impounded in the reservoir to farmers for 200 miles down the valley on the American side. The Mexican government claimed that the scheme was a violation of the Guadalupe treaty and an injunction was filed on the British company on behalf of both countries. Meanwhile the suggestion of General Anson Mills, negotiations were commenced for building an international dam near Rio Paso, whereby the ancient water rights might be equitably restored. The English company sought the government scheme. The injunction obtained was dissolved by the territorial court of New Mexico, but the supreme court of the United States reversed the decision and the case was reopened before the court at Las Cruces in governmental defense. The case is now classified as a navigable stream and the claim is made that the English dam would impair the usefulness of the river. Judge Burch is here to obtain proof on this head and will appear for the United States at Las Cruces, Dec. 12.

POLYGRAPHIST ROBERTS.
He Thinks Congress is Doing Him a Great Injustice.
New York Dec. 6.—The World has published the following members of Congress: "The action of the house in my case was not a surprise to me. The whole matter was evidently pre-arranged and the members made up to follow the course outlined. When the question comes to be considered by the members of the house, at the pressure of public opinion is removed, I think the case will stand a vigorous violation of well established precedents which are all fixed rules of the house. A precedent has been established which will yet excuse the same denial of the rights to a Roman Catholic, Presbyterian, Agnostic or anyone who may be unfortunate enough to stand under the condemnation of popular sentiment. I am not yet formed any plans concerning my case. I will follow before the committee. I shall devote my attention to it as much as I can. I will not consider my case lost."

COUNTING KENTUCKY VOTE.

Vote of Nelson County Counted by the Returning Board.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 6.—It is likely that all of today will be taken up by the argument of the contested election cases. Arguments will be heard on two propositions, the chief one being the right of the commissioners to go behind the certified election returns for governor and lieutenant governor when sitting as a contesting board, and the right of the commissioners to accept amended returns. Yesterday the democrats allowed without comment the vote of Nelson county to be tabulated, but it was for Ruppe's purpose of making a hard fight upon it.

SEIGE OF LADYSMITH.

English Garrison Suffering from Effective Boer Artillery.Gen. Joubert Reported at Volksrust for Medical Treatment.Fifteen Boers Killed and Wounded in Skirmish at Frere.

ALL QUIET AT KIMBERLEY.

London, Dec. 6.—The budget of news from Ladysmith which arrived today brings the history of the beleaguered garrison up to November 25. In spite of rumors of a retrograde movement upon the part of the Boers, the stories just received show that the garrison, although still strong, was suffering from confinement, restricted diet and increasing volume of the Boer artillery fire, especially the additional heavy caliber guns placed in position 5,000 yards from the western defenses. The dispatches relate that the shelling was becoming disagreeably effective. Rations had been reduced and there was a great deal of sickness. Nevertheless the garrison was preparing to meet the assault which it was anticipated the Boers would make in a final effort to reduce the city.

INDIANS DEFEATED.

Mexican Troops Vanquish Yaqui Indians and Drive Them to the Mountains.

Ortiz, Mex., Dec. 6.—Courier has arrived from the scene of the Yaqui war with dispatches from General Torres for the war department. He reports that fighting between the Yaqui Indians and General Torres' troops ceased on Nov. 25, the Indians retreating toward Tonitini. Several hundred Yaqui who have been in a strongly fortified position near Sahuarita, it is thought, are preparing to join the main body of braves driven back by General Torres' signal fire indicating that a concentrated movement by the Indians was being planned. The courier says that the Yaqui losses in killed and wounded were heavy. The Mexican losses are estimated at 300. Mexican losses fifteen killed and thirty wounded.

HORRIBLE CRIME TERRIBLY EXPLAINED BY A Kentucky Negro.

Mayfield, Ky., Dec. 6.—Dick Coleman, the negro murderer of Mrs. John Lashbrook, was taken from the officers by a mob of 1,000 men today and burned at the stake. The mob was led by the husband of the negro's victim, who dragged the criminal through the principal streets of the town, bound him to a small tree and set fire to the brush heaped about him and stood guard until he was dead.

He was brought this morning from Covington, where he had been kept in jail, to the scene of the crime.

The crime for which Coleman was burned is the murder of Mrs. John Lashbrook, who had given him a home and food. She was enticed by him to enter a house which he knocked her down with a club and assaulted her. The blow did not kill her and Coleman, notwithstanding her cries for mercy, procured a razor and cut her throat.

"REMOUVEN."

You can enjoy spending several hours here and quite forget how time flies when looking over this carefully selected collection of books. The action of the house in my case was not a surprise to me. The whole matter was evidently pre-arranged and the members made up to follow the course outlined. When the question comes to be considered by the members of the house, at the pressure of public opinion is removed, I think the case will stand a vigorous violation of well established precedents which are all fixed rules of the house. A precedent has been established which will yet excuse the same denial of the rights to a Roman Catholic, Presbyterian, Agnostic or anyone who may be unfortunate enough to stand under the condemnation of popular sentiment. I am not yet formed any plans concerning my case. I will follow before the committee. I shall devote my attention to it as much as I can. I will not consider my case lost."

Kind reader, call and be convinced; our stock you must see to appreciate.

Fleeing Filipinos.

WOOD TO BE A MAJOR GENERAL.

Manila, Dec. 6.—Lieutenant Colonel Parker, of the Forty-fifth infantry, commanded at Vigan, in the province of south Iloilo, when that place was attacked on Dec. 4, by the insurgents. The American force consisted of Company S, Thirty-third regiment and 150 sick men. The first attack was made at 4 o'clock in the morning and lasted until 8 o'clock. The Filipinos, who were estimated to have numbered about 800 men, commanded by Gen. Mino, came from the outside to the town to the post. The fighting was from house to house and almost from hand to hand. The Americans captured eighty-four rifles and several prisoners. The official report says that three Americans were wounded.

Col. Elbee is sending reinforcements to Vigan on the groundboiling.

Col. Parker prides the bravery of the sick American soldiers. Every man able to stand handled a rifle during the attack.

Pursuing Aguinaldo.

Washington, Dec. 6.—General Otis today called the war department that he had had no word from General Young in a week. This is taken as an indication that Young is continuing in hot pursuit of Aguinaldo, probably in a country where he regards it unsafe to use couriers. The Otis dispatch also gives an official account of Lieutenant Colonel Parker's engagement at Vigan.

New Brigadier Generals.

Washington, Dec. 6.—The president sent the following nominations to the senate: Houston W. Harrison, to be colonel of Mannheim, Germany; Colonel to be brigadier general; Edgar R. Kellogg, Sixth United States infantry; Gilbert S. Gardner, Eighth United States infantry; William L. Kober, Thirty-fifth United States volunteers; J. Franklin Thirteenth United States volunteers.

Finance Bill Approved.

Washington, Dec. 6.—The republican caucus unanimously approved the house financial bill and recommended its immediate passage. The bill was not amended except in two minor particulars.

Made a Major General.

Washington, Dec. 6.—The president nominated Brigadier General Leonard Wood to be a major general of volunteers.
