DETAILS OF BATTLE.

The Boers Completely Routed and Demoralized.

Many British Officers Killed and Wounded.

The Boers Practically Whipped and Refuse to Take Risks.

WOUNDED GEN. SYMONDS PROMOTED.

London, Oct. 21.—Earliest dispatches regarding yesterday's battle conveyed the impression that the whole affair was over in a couple of hours, the British artillery silencing the Boer guns and infantry and then simply charging right over the hill. According to latest advice, however, the battle lasted eight hours, and nearly seven hours elapsed before the last Boer gun was put out of action. The Irish Fusiliers and King's Rifles meanwhile advanced to the assault and were shooting their way up the hill, driving the Boers back from shelter until the final rush of the British carried them to the summit. It was a bright clear morning, which enabled operations to be followed without difficulty. A curious fact was that several times a full occurred in the firing on both sides, the British apparently taking a breathing space in the still climb, the Boers also holding back their fire. The magnificent practice of the British guns was an immense help, and the success of the assault is greatly due to them. As soon as the British bayonets showed on the top of Kopje the Boers retreated, and when, on descending the other side, they found a British battery and British cavalry outflanking them, the retreat became a rout. The British guns followed, and unlimbering from time to time, threw shells into the flying foe. The latter did not try to make a stand, but the British and the mounted infantry were apparently seldom gotten near enough to deliver effective volleys. This policy was continued until dusk, when the Boers were completely demoralized. A heavy rain began to fall during the afternoon, which naturally impeded artillery operations.

KILLED AND WOUNDED.

Large Number of Officers Killed—Boers Practically Whipped.
London, Oct. 21.—The list of officers killed and wounded strikingly shows, while the British victory was complete, it was bought at a heavy price. In addition to Sir William Penn Symonds, who is mortally wounded, two colonels, three captains and five lieutenants were killed, and one colonel, three majors, six captains and ten lieutenants wounded. This heavy loss among the officers was due, as the latest dispatches from the front show, to their valiant but insane conduct in sticking to the traditions of the British army and refusing to use cover, of which the men availed themselves, during the storming of the Boer position on the summit of Kopje. The second rank and file of the Hussars had seven wounded; of the artillery, one killed and three wounded; the Leinstershire regiment, one wounded; King's Rifles, eleven killed and sixty-eight wounded; Irish Fusiliers, fourteen killed and thirty wounded; Dublin Fusiliers, four killed and forty-one wounded; Natal police, two wounded.

Col. Scherren, who was killed, was a nephew of General Lord Frederick Roberts. As his aide de camp he went through the Afghan war, accompanying Lord Roberts on his famous Kandahar march. Col. Gunning, also killed, went through the Zulu war and was also in the Burman campaign.

The Outlook publishes a dispatch from Cape Town, dated yesterday, alleging the Boers are not likely to make any further considerable offensive movement. The correspondent says: "They are utterly demoralized and the men refuse to take risks."

Gen. Symonds Promoted.
London, Oct. 21.—The war office has issued the following announcement: The queen has been pleased to approve the promotion of Lieutenant General Symonds, commanding the Fourth division of the Natal field force, to be major general supernumerary to establishment, for distinguished service field.

FROM THE BASUTOS.
The Orange Free State Burghers Somewhat Routed.
London, Oct. 21.—A dispatch from Cape Town announces the British force, with field guns, landed yesterday at Simonstown and took the train for the north. The exact destination is not revealed, but probably is to some point on the southern frontier, of the Orange Free State, where the Boers are assembling. Paramount, of the Basutos, according to a dispatch from Cape Town asked permission to assemble other Basuto chiefs, with a view to inviting them to pledge loyalty to the queen. This is assumed to be a forerunner of the Basuto movement, and

REBELS SURPRISED A BOAT'S CREW.

Freemont, Ohio, Oct. 21.—The Bryan-McLean train stopped a few moments, during which time Bryan appeared upon the platform in response to calls. Comments were numerous regarding the hissing of Bryan at the opera house, Findlay, last night. Bryan said: "Ohioans do not approve of that, Mr. Bryan; we will resist it at the proper time and in the proper way." "Oh, well, those things are incidents of warm political condition," replied Bryan, "if they can stand it, I can."

ARCHBISHOP CHAPPELLE.

The Apostolic Delegate to the Philippines Calls on the President.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Archbishop Chappelle, of New Orleans, apostolic delegate to the Philippines, had a long talk with the president to day on church situation in the Philippines. In view of his coming trip to Manila, Archbishop Chappelle was anxious to secure from the president some assurance as to the future of church property there. He assured the president he would make a full and impartial investigation on alleged church desecrations as soon after his arrival as possible. Chappelle said he would be in Washington some days; did not know just when he would sail for Manila, but he would be there in time to meet the president. Another important question that will develop during Archbishop Chappelle's visit here will be the future of the Catholic church in Cuba.

SAMPSON AND SCHLEY.

As Soon as Congress Convene Nominations Will be Sent to Senate.

New York, Oct. 21.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: President McKinley intends to send to the senate immediately after congress convenes the nominations of Rear Admirals Sampson and Schley and other officers recommended last year for advance as a reward for gallant conduct in action. This decision of the president and Secretary Long, it is said, has been influenced in no small degree by the sentiment of the country as gauged by them on the recent trip to the west.

SURPRISED BY INSURGENTS.

A Boat's Crew of Four Men Engaged the Rebels in a Fight.

Washington, Oct. 21.—The secretary of the navy received the following telegram from Admiral Watson, dated Manila, to-day: October 16 the insurgents surprised a boat's crew of four men from the gunboat Marbles, who under a white flag were landing non-combatants from the captured Fort at Siguan Island. William Jurasschick, boatswain's mate, first class, was captured. An armed crew of ten attempted to rescue him unsuccessfully. Sydney N. Hoar, landsman, was fatally wounded; Frederick Anderson, apprentice, first class, was severely wounded in the groin; Nicholas Parre, coxswain, wounded in the leg. The gunboat Concord and Marbles will punish the rebels, if possible.

President Patton, on behalf of the faculty and trustees, conferred the degree of LL. D. upon Whitehall Field, and made the introductory address, in which he announced that the Stanford Little Institute would be filled by Grover Cleveland, ex-president of the United States. Mr. Field spoke on expansion.

No Meeting.

Washington, Oct. 21.—It is learned that owing to the temporary character of the settlement of the Alaskan boundary question, there will be no meeting of the Canadian joint high commission in the immediate future.

Prompt Payment.

The local office of the Equitable Life Assurance Society in this city has to-day forwarded to their agent for western Texas a check for $10,000 in payment of a death claim under their policy No. 58,675. Proofs of death were received in Albuquerque on October 12th, reached the home office in New York on October 16th and a check is back here by return mail.

The Equitable leads all other companies in the promptness with which it settles its death claims, and this is a very important feature when the head of the family is taken away and ready money is needed to protect the estate against the demands of creditors.

A WARNING.

Frank Jolly Punished for Tearing in a False Fire Alarm.

The case of the city against Frank Jolly, the boy who was charged with having turned in a false fire alarm from Third and Tigner streets day before yesterday, came up before Judge Crawford this afternoon. Judge Hancock appeared for the defendant and asked for a jury trial, which was denied. He then asked for a change of venue which was also refused. Judge Hancock asked that those rulings be recorded for future reference.

The first witness called was Miss Annie Boisen who testified to having seen the boy break the glass in the fire alarm and to having met him afterwards when he stated to her that he had done it for fun.

Judge Hancock took the witness and endeavored to prove that she had some personal motive in appearing as the prosecuting witness.

The defense introduced several witnesses whose testimony tended towards proving an alibi, but the court in summing up the evidence came to the conclusion that the boy was guilty and he was sentenced, in accordance with the ordinance bearing on the case, to pay a fine of $100 or ninety days in jail.

Judge Hancock immediately gave notice of appeal and the court fixed the bond at $200, which was executed.

The court took occasion to denounce the practice of turning in false alarms, pointing out wherein it was not only an expense to the city but was demoralizing to the fire department and destroyed the confidence of the property holders, they never being sure that a bona fide alarm would be responded to by the full force when they were so often fooled by false alarms.

The practice is bad and it is certainly hoped that this enforcement of the law will have a salutary effect.

The ingratitude of human kind has again been exemplified. Mrs. W. H. Little, of 1023 South Second street, who was with simply working the above hardships on Mrs. Little, he writes her an insulting letter disclaiming his intentions of ever paying her. The wording of his letter may get him in trouble with Uncle Sam through the postoffice department.

A poor unfortunate this morning purchased a brand new Santa Fe new from some unknown place and proceeded to sell it for fifty cents. He was caught almost in the act and acknowledged the theft. A search of his person disclosed the fact that he was a morphine fiend and he was locked up to keep him out of further mischief.

Fourth street is now opened from Pacific avenue to Los Corrales, making it the longest thoroughfare in the city. It will make a splendid boulevard for driving if the city fathers will only give it the proper attention in the way of grading and then keep it sprinkled.

M. H. Donahoe, of the Donahoe Hardware company, is still in the White Oaks country, and is doing a good business for his Albuquerque house.

Hon. Solomon Luna, who was in the city yesterday, left this morning for his ranch near Magdalena, Socorro county.

Dewey has Cancelled all Invitations For the Time Being.

Number of People Injured in a Brooklyn Accident.

President Andrade Finally Blames the Venezuelan Insurgents.

THE DEWEY HOME PURCHASED.

Washington, Oct. 21.—By the advice of his physician, Admiral Dewey cancelled his proposed trip to Philadelphia and Atlanta and will accept no more invitations before next spring.

The following official statement was made at his office here to-day: "Acting on the advice of his physicians, Admiral Dewey finds it to be necessary to cancel engagements he entered into to visit certain cities and decline all invitations for the present. He finds the mental strain incident to such visits seriously affecting his health."

It was said by one of Dewey's friends that this should not be taken as an indication of any alarming change in the admiral's health, but to a man of his temperament the excitement and mental strain of the various public functions in which he has been a participant proved unusually trying. He will remain as quiet as possible the balance of the winter.

THE DEWEY HOME.

Purchased by the Committee in Charge of This Matter.

Washington, Oct. 21.—The committee in charge of the purchase of a home for Admiral Dewey selected house No. 1747, Rhode Island avenue, northwest, known as the Fitch house. The house is one door removed from the corner of Connecticut avenue, in what is regarded the most desirable section in the city. It is understood the amount of popular subscription is sufficient to cover the cost of house, furniture and all incidental expenditures.

BROOKLYN ELEVATED ACCIDENT.

A Number of Persons Seriously Injured—Death From the Shock.

New York, Oct. 21.—Five men were seriously injured and a woman died from the shock as a result of an accident to the Brooklyn Elevated to-day. The East New York Elevated train, bound for the bridge, stalled on Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn. Several persons got off the train and attempted to walk over the structure to the nearest station. The train moved suddenly and threw several persons to the pavement, a distance of thirty-five feet. The following were seriously injured: William J. Moody, Frank and William Royston, Charles Wright and Frank Snyder, the latter is likely to die. Lizette Hill, colored, who was on the street, witnessed the accident and died from the shock.

ANDRADE ESCAPES.

He Sailed On a Gunboat With Destination Unknown.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Commander Hemphill to-day cabled secretary of the navy from La Guayra, Caracas, Venezuela: "Andrade, with a partially disbanded army brought with him yesterday from Caracas, sailed early on the morning of the 21st on a gunboat and the other vessel westward; destination unknown. All electric communication with Caracas has been closed since noon of the 20th. I have communicated with the minister by rail. All quiet there."

Gen. Andrade's Flight.

Caracas, Venezuela, Oct. 21.—A vigorous attempt will be made to prevent Gen. Andrade, who died yesterday morning to La Guayra without transferring power, from leaving that point with gunboats and valuable government supplies. United States Minister Loomis, dean of diplomatic corps, was appealed to with a view of obtaining his assistance for the provisional government, but he declined to interfere with the flight of Gen. Andrade.

A school girl in Wabash, Ind., is suffering from paralysis of the muscles of the mouth, caused by too persistently chewing gum. As a result the left side of her mouth is drawing up toward the ear, and whether the affliction will yield to treatment, aided by refraining from the practice is still problematical.

THREE powerful syndicates in the City of Mexico are engaged in a merry war over street transportation. One of them is an American, another an English and the third a South African syndicate. When such a fight comes to pass, average people are like a crowd at a dog fight—they are reluctant to spoil sport.

THE Durango, Colo., fair must have been a failure, the Herald complaining that the "fair is only a sample of what it would have been had it been well advertised." As far as the fair has been able to learn, up to date, the New Mexico fair held in Albuquerque in September was the only successful fair, financially and otherwise, held in the western country this year. Put another score down to the credit of Albuquerque.

THE war department is determined to have a medical corps in the Philippines sufficient to meet every contingency that arises, and at the same time the reinforcements are going forward, surgeons are also being sent in addition to those regularly belonging to every regiment. The hospital corps and trained female nurses are being strengthened as well. These facts show the carelessness with which all preparations for the care of the army are made.

NEW CUP FOR COPPER.
Scarcely a day passes that a new use for copper is not found. The latest of any considerable importance was discovered by the management of a Massachusetts railroad. The discovery consists of the fact that thin sheets of copper are not only better than paint as a covering for freight cars, but also that it is cheaper in the long run. The Pittsburgh road in that state is using the sheets, and probably many others may eventually use them instead of paint. The Western Mining World says that the present high price of the metal may limit its application in that direction until its production exceeds the demand, but that it will thus be used in the future.

Ordinarily, of course, it is considered good business for one to get all he can for his goods. That is quite natural. Just now copper producers could advance the price of the metal to twenty cents or over and then find ready sale for their output. But the advice of certain level-headed mine-owners who believe that a grasping avaricious policy would not only injure their business, but that of trade in general, seems to have prevailed, and copper stands at about eighteen and a half cents without any noticeable rising tendency.

ACROSS THE SEAS.
There is a comparison to be drawn between the United States and England at this time that does not put the people of the United States in an altogether favorable light. During the negotiations with President Kruger many prominent liberals dissented from the opinions of the Salisbury ministry. Some came out into open opposition and condemnation of the course pursued toward the little republic, censuring motives and criticizing policies. That was in the days when England was at peace. War came. The voices that had been raised against the demands upon the Transvaal were still in that key but in one mighty shout they went up with the other millions of Englishmen in singing "Rule Britannia," and "God Save the Queen."

It was an American who uttered those words that should be the gospel of every word of every race. "My country, right or wrong," but it has remained for Englishmen to exemplify it as a principle of national life. In no country in the world is there more universal criticism of the course of government than in England. Nowhere is there more unrestricted popular participation in consideration of affairs of state than in England. But in England when the Union Jack is hoisted partnership comes to an end. Never has there been there an end. Never to a great party to which a foe looked as a friend as does Aguinaldo look to day to the democracy of the United States. British spirit would not allow it. The right title here may not be able to build yachts to carry off the America's cup but she can give us a valuable object lesson at this time in support of government in time of war.

BLAND SERVICES.

There is a bright prospect of a telegraph office being established at Allerton in the near future.

The price of messages between Bland and Thornton over the telegraph line has been reduced from forty to twenty-five cents.

Harry Cooper has commenced the construction of his new livery and feed stable, on the lot adjacent to his residence. He is ready for business in the line of hauling and general freight service.

On Wednesday N. M. Chaffee sold to Dr. Benham a match team of colts. The doctor is going to use them as a driving team. He has a right to be proud of them as they are beauties.

W. H. Rogers will shortly set up a first class short order restaurant in the Van Allen building. It will be open for custom about the first of the month. Mrs. Rogers has the reputation of being one of the most skillful cooks in the district.

G. W. Wheeler has resigned his position as express agent in order to give his entire attention to the manipulation of the telegraph key. The telegraph office has been removed during the week from the express office to the Wheeler &amp; Rhodes general merchandise store.

Mrs. T. H. Benson will soon have in completion a two-story addition to her already large boarding house. The lower story will be used as a kitchen and the upper story to be divided off into several small bedrooms. Various other improvements will also be made in the general hotel.

L. F. Lamb, formerly of A. L. Finch's general merchandise store, has removed to Santa Barbara, Cal. He intends to set up a shoe store at that place. His mother, Mrs. E. Breckman, accompanied him as far as Los Angeles where she will make her home. Mr. Lamb was at one time a successful editor of the Herald.

The night before it had been chilly and uncomfortable and during the day of Sunday it continued in the same condition. The snow soon disappeared after the sun appeared.

W. F. Powers, president of the Albuquerque Bland Telephone and Telephone company, arrived in town Monday on a tour of inspection and to superintend the removal of the telephone office. Mr. Powers was greatly surprised at the rapid growth of Bland and took advantage of the rise in real estate to dispose of some town lots at a handsome margin.

M. F. Meyers, late of San Pedro, has opened up a first class boarding house on the S. W. Young property. A large addition has been built for general accommodations. The big public dinner which will officially open the new establishment to the public will be held Sunday and will be on a grand scale. In the near future a large lodging house will be erected on the lot opposite the Young property which Mr. Meyers will also be in charge of.—Bland Herald.

Heroes of Philippine War.
Tales come to us of the sufferings endured by our brave soldiers in the Philippines. The papers ring with them and sympathy is freely given. And yet there are people in our midst of whom we hear nothing who are just as brave. They are suffering silently and fight bravely with the greatest enemy of mankind—dyspepsia and all its terrible ills. There is relief for them if they will take Hostetler's Stomach Bitters faithfully. It will cure dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation, malaria, fever and ague and liver and kidney troubles. It tones up the whole system. Get it from any drug store and see that a private revenue stamp covers the neck of the bottle.

W. S. Praeger, of Roswell, passed through yesterday on No. 17 for Albuquerque. W. L. Trimble, the liveryman of Albuquerque, passed through yesterday afternoon for home, from Missouri, where he purchased twenty head of mules that will be used in freighting between Thornton and Cochiti.

T. Y. Maynard, the Albuquerque jeweler, who has been stopping at the Las Vegas Hot Springs, soaking rheumatism out of his system and mud bath treatment, left for home yesterday, greatly improved in health.—Optic.

THE CITY COUNCIL.
David Denham Threatens to Take the Law into his Own Hands.

At a special meeting of the city council there were present: Mayor Marmon, Aldermen Neustadt, Kieck, Hopping, Rogers, Burkhardt and McKee.

The petition of R. P. Hall to be allowed to purchase and close up certain portions of Highland avenue and alley was strongly objected to by David Denham, who lives in the neighborhood.

Mr. Denham argued quietly for a while, but failing to see any evidence that he was impressing the members of the city council with his arguments, he threatened to take the law into his own hands, and maintain what he considered his rights with a shot gun if necessary.

When Mr. Denham had finished the council passed the following:
"Whereas, that portion of Highland avenue hereinafter described and that portion of the alley running east and west between the Highland addition south and the C. W. Lewis Highland Addition No. 1 hereinafter described, are not used and are of no use to the citizens of the city, and
"Whereas, R. P. Hall has offered to pay into the city treasury the sum of $125, provided that said portion of Highland avenue south and said alley be vacated and that the city of Albuquerque, by proper conveyance, quit-claim and deed, should convey to said R. P. Hall the said portion of Highland avenue and said alley."

The question of running pipes through the city ditch to carry off the waste water at certain crossings was then taken up. I. R. Sheekies was granted permission to address the council, and in a very loud manner, with the aid of carefully prepared drawings, explained the proper method for making the improvements desired. On motion the city engineer was directed to draw plans and specifications to be submitted to a subsequent meeting of the council.

The report of the street committee recommending that the city ordinance be not voted by grant permission to the owners of the Highland hotel to build a porch extension, was adopted.

With Remedy on Yourself.
Why remember of doubtful utility when you can get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which has stood the test of time for twenty-five years? It has been proven that remedy to be a certain cure for colds. It will cure a cold in a day if taken as soon as the cold has been contracted and before it has become in the system. Sold by all druggists.WOOL MARKET ACTIVE.
Renewed Strength Developed Since a Week Ago.

The American Wool and Cotton Reporter of Boston Thursday said: "Renewed activity and strength have developed in the wool market since a week ago, and it is safe to say that the situation as a whole today presents the strongest appearance seen in years. The business of the week foots up a total of over 8,000,000 pounds, which is certainly a most remarkable record, in view of the fact that the large worsted mills in the combine have not been among the purchasers. There is no mistaking the strength of the situation and the tendency of prices. If there was anything wanting to demonstrate beyond any doubt the underlying strength of the position of wool in the world's markets it has been the remarkable activity and advance in the Australian Sydney market, which is excited and firm, and continental buyers have been taking wool at almost any price. At the Melbourne sales there was a large attendance and very active competition at advanced prices. There is a world wide demand for fine wools, and further exportation of the territories is likely to occur."

REV. S. A. DONAHOE.
Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
On the 10th day of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor of the Methodist church, South Pl. Pleasant, W. V., contracted severe cold which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so-called 'specifics,' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most heartily recommend it to the public." For sale by all druggists.The Java Grocery Company.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a bath room addition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. These physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle cured me. I used three bottles, then tried their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim. No one should fail to try them. Only 50c. per bottle, guaranteed, at J. H. O'Reilly &amp; Co's."

SANTA FE COMING TO LIFE.
Queer Things Seen by Santa Feans Since the "Winter" Story.
Since the publication of the "winter" story yesterday other persons have seen queer things of sights they have seen and sounds they have heard. The one of latest occurrence is supposed to have happened to three well-known young men who were out celebrating and returned late at night. In passing the cemetery at the Guadalupe church they think they saw a woman no larger than a child but with long claws on her hands. She made a dash at one of the young men and one of his companions pulled a revolver and shot her. The third said his prayers, whereupon the woman vanished in the air uttering a curse. The trio firmly believe that they saw his royal satanic majesty in person and wouldn't pass that graveyard again at night time for a good deal. Another story is told of a well-known citizen. One night he got into a quarrel with several others at a dance and they were about to thrash him when he thought it best to take to his legs. He was pursued as far as the graveyard. The others were afraid to pursue him into the cemetery and returned home saying that the man they pursued is a wizard for they had seen him hug the ghosts of the departed people buried in the graveyard.—New Mexican.

TWO GOOD MINES.

What the Bland Herald Says About the Albemarle and Crown Point.

A representative of the Herald took a very pleasant trip to the Albemarle mine last Saturday. Superintendent F. Milton Johnson upon hearing the request of our representative to go through the mine, very graciously granted his wish, thus giving him the privilege of examining one of the greatest and best mines in the southwest—greatest in its relation to its productivity and extensive amount of development; and best in point of management and the use of up-to-date machinery.

After requesting Assistant Superintendent A. L. Hall to be one of the party they arrived at the mouth of the shaft which is but a short distance from the company's office. Here the trio stepped upon a cage and was rapidly but safely lowered down the shaft which is upon an incline of probably seventy degrees. Then the wonders of the widely known Albemarle mine was open to their inspection as they journeyed from level to level.

There are seven levels in all, the seventh and lowest being only recently opened up and is located between 600 and 700 feet below the earth's surface.

The vein, upon which this immense Cochiti mine is in operation, is of great width and depth, and crops out at various points of the surface to different heights. The vein has a width of twenty-five feet in some places and has been good paying material for mining from the very surface.

As the shaft was sunk and the levels formed and developed it was found that the vein widened out in many places to a width not yet ascertained. At one place the vein was seen to cross out to a width of sixty-five feet in one level. The average width is thought to be between thirty-five and forty feet.

Over 5,000 feet of drifting and cross-cutting has been accomplished. This has been entirely through pay rock and has been very fruitful in productivity.

Only in a few instances in these tunnels have there been any stoping done; everywhere else the immense body of ore lies exposed along the walls and roofs. Only in a few places also has the hanging wall been reached. In the tunnels life are being formed and these serve the double purpose of easy access from one tunnel to another and permitting a free and perfect circulation of air. In fact the atmosphere at the lowest level, the seventh, is fresh and nearly as pure as at the surface.

Several air drills are used in the mine which are very valuable in getting at the ore of which 100 tons are taken out daily.

THE CROWN POINT.
The work in the Crown Point mine is going steadily forward. During the last thirty days they have excavated a new tunnel 434 feet for a distance of 150 feet. Foundations were laid this week for new machinery consisting of an engine, air compressor and its accompanying drills. The prospects are bright. P. J. Forsythe the foreman, is in charge of the mine in the absence of Superintendent Miliken.GRAND CENTRAL.

The yacht race is over, and we win. The event will be celebrated to-night at Melini & Eakin's. Hot free lunch to all comers.

The young people of the Congregational church entertained quite a little assembly of their friends last evening in the parlors of the church. Little Myrtle and Berna Reynolds delighted those present with their quaint little recitations. Thomas Hall rendered a pleasing solo and Prof. Charles Holgren read several poems by the negro poet, Lawrence Dunbar. Refreshments in an adjoining room served to complete an altogether charming evening's entertainment.

Strangers in our city, who want to find the good places, are invited to visit the White Elephant to-night. An extra fine free lunch will be served.

THOS. CARLYLE

The Best 5 Cent Cigar of the year.

CARLYLE CIGARS are rolled by the million. This enormous output makes it possible to use a superior leaf in their making. Just a mite of profit on each one, but enough are sold to balance up things. If Carlyle's weren't so good, so many wouldn't be sold. If so many weren't sold, they couldn't be produced as good. Many a 10-cent Cigar is put to shame by the Carlyle.
