CUTTING THE WIRES.

Orange Free State Troops Helping the Boers.

Communication Interrupted and Dundee Surrounded.

Several Towns Put Under Strict Martial Law.

BIG MEETING IN LONDON.

Cape Town Oct. 16.—The Orange Free State troops cut the telegraph wires and destroyed the railroad track at Norvaipont, just across the Free state southern border.

A dispatch from Dundee, Natal, says the Boer command estimated at 2,000 men, with sixteen field guns have reached Dundee, northeast of Dundee, with the probable intention of surrendering Dundee and cutting off the garriens from communication with Dundee and Ladysmith. It is supposed that the force is commanded by Commandant Viljoen and comprises the German gunners.

The fact of the Boer force from New Castle is believed to be marching around Ladysmith. As the refugees at Cape Town noted and in a number of leading dispatches, there is some expectation that martial law will be proclaimed.

FAITH IN ENGLAND.

Big Meeting in London—Sustaining the Government.

London, Oct. 16.—The narrow city streets adjoining Guild hall and the stock exchange were crowded today. The immediate occasion was a meeting convened by the lord mayor of London to declare the confidence of the business men of the city proper in the South African policy of the government. A band led off in patriotic airs, which were taken up by the audience amid the waving of numerous union jacks. A resolution extolling Premier Salisbury, and Secretary of State for the Colonies, Chamberlain, was proposed by the Lord Mayor, seconded by Sir John Lubbock, a Union member of parliament, and was enthusiastically adopted.

TELEGRAPHIC COMMUNICATION CUT.

Accurate News of the War Very Hard to Obtain.

London, Oct. 16.—The gradual cutting off of outlying points at the scene of hostilities in South Africa from telegraphic communication, has reduced accurate news obtainable to a minimum. Thus far, however, no reliable information has been received of any actual fighting outside of Africa, except at Kragstad, an occasional exchange of shots at various outposts. The only reliable facts in this morning's telegrams are that the Boers advanced beyond New Castle, Dundee, Klip River, Uagana and the upper Tugela divisions, the reason given is the belief that Natal subjects joined the invading Boers, and assisted the enemy. The other gazette reminds the British subjects of their obligations to the queen and warns them to abstain from intercourse and trade with the Transvaal of the Orange Free State.

MATIL LAW PROCLAIMED.

In Small South African Towns—Trade With Transvaal Stopped.

Durban, Oct. 16.—Two extraordinary gazettes have been issued. The first proclaims martial law at New Castle, Dundee, Klip River, Uagana and the upper Tugela divisions, the reason given is the belief that Natal subjects joined the invading Boers, and assisted the enemy. The other gazette reminds the British subjects of their obligations to the queen and warns them to abstain from intercourse and trade with the Transvaal of the Orange Free State.

NO CHANGE IN SITUATION.

London War Office Bulletins As to Conditions.

London, Oct. 16.—The war office issued the following note this afternoon with respect to the situation in South Africa: Dispatches received do not point to any material change in the situation. Small bodies of Boers are reported to have crossed the Natal frontier at various points, and entrenchments have been thrown up at Van Beman's pass.

The Rincos Boerby.

Rincos, N. M., Oct. 16.—The postoffice at Rincos was broken into between the hours of 12 and 3 a. m. on Monday morning, damage to the amount of about $140 and each to the amount of $15 were stolen. The front door and been burst open, two railroad pickpockets were found in the store and a copy of a Los Angeles paper, a $5 bill out of the store till laid on the floor, having been dropped in the hurry of getting away. Mr. Elliott, deputy postmaster, who slept in a room in the warehouse, did not awake, as the high wind was making everything rattle and the thieves made little noise.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Frank Ross Shot Himself and Narrowly Escaped Death.

At an early hour Sunday morning Frank Ross met with a serious accident, which nearly cost him his life. He was on his way to his father's Los Angeles paper, a $5 bill out of the store till laid on the floor, having been dropped in the hurry of getting away. Mr. Elliott, deputy postmaster, who slept in a room in the warehouse, did not awake, as the high wind was making everything rattle and the thieves made little noise.

Sheff Tweed is also dead. The San Marcial Rev. in its article about the killing of Tweed and the shooting of Martin (the latter's death occurring a few hours later) says:

The next performance of Martin was to defy arrest, and he headed for the recesses of the near by mountains, free of instant pursuit. J. H. Tweed who is a deputy sheriff, soon secured a rifle and took the trail of the murderer. When sighted he was called on to surrender in the name of the law. As a reply he raised his rifle to his shoulder and was drawing a head on Tweed when the latter scored first and planted a ball in the neck of the murderer. This brought him to time and without further difficulty he was disarmed and placed under arrest, which was followed by his death.

Attempted Assault.

What might have been a tragedy was averted Saturday evening by the coolness of Mrs. Henry Westfield, the wife of the Railroad Avenue cigar manufacturer.

Just before bed time Mrs. Westfield sent her two little children out in the yard to look up the chicken house. The little boy, walking alone a few steps behind his sister, saw a man in one of the outhouses and called his sister's attention to it. The sister, thinking the latter was mistaken, proceeded to investigate. As she entered the outhouse she was grabbed by the throat and dragged inside. The little boy, seeing his sister thus roughly handled, cried out and attracted the mother's attention. This frightened the man who ran. Mrs. Westfield, who was sitting quietly at the table, fired three shots in the air. A crowd soon gathered, and with the officers, who were promptly on hand, sought to trace the offender but without avail. The little girl describes her assailant as a burly negro. He had three shotguns in plain view, strapped on his waist, and a false nose and a disguise.

THOS. CARLYLE

The Best 5 Cent Cigar of the year.

CARLYLE CIGARS are rolled by the million. This enormous output makes it possible to use a superior leaf in their making. Just a mite of profit on each one, but enough are sold to balance up things. If Carlyle's weren't so good, so many wouldn't be sold. If so many weren't sold, they couldn't be produced as good. Many a 10-cent Cigar is put to shame by the Carlyle.
