THE ULTIMATUM.

Expires Within Another Twenty-Four Hours.

After Which the Landing of Troops Means War.

The Demand of Boers Must be Complied With.

THE SITUATION SERIOUS.

London, Oct. 10.—The Transvaal ultimatum, it is understood, is on the way to the British foreign office, and is expected to arrive there to-morrow afternoon at 5 o'clock. When it does, the Boers are expected to be notified of the ultimatum, and the Boers are expected to be notified of the ultimatum, and the Boers are expected to be notified of the ultimatum.

The fact that the Boers have taken the initiative is regarded as increasing the hopefulness of averting war.

The new South Wales Lancers have arrived at the railway station at Fouriesburg, and the Boers are expected to be notified of the ultimatum, and the Boers are expected to be notified of the ultimatum, and the Boers are expected to be notified of the ultimatum.

London, Oct. 10.—The Transvaal ultimatum, which is signed by F. W. Reitz, secretary of state, concludes with the following four demands:

First. All points of mutual difference are regulated by a friendly recourse to arbitration or by whatever amicable way that may be removed from the government and her majesty's government.

Second. All troops on the borders of the republic shall be instantly withdrawn.

Third. All reinforcements of troops which arrived in South Africa since June 1, 1898, shall be removed from South Africa within a reasonable time to be agreed upon with this government, and with a mutual assurance and guarantee on the part of the government, that no attack upon or hostilities against any portion of the republic shall be made by this government during further negotiations within a period of time to be subsequently agreed upon between the government and the republic.

Fourth. That her majesty's troops, which are now on the high seas, shall not be landed in any part of South Africa.

THE INSURGENTS ROUTED.

And to Get Even They Have Threatened
The Hospital.

Manila, Oct. 10.—Major Bell, with 120 picked men of the Thirty-sixth regiment, made a reconnaissance yesterday in the direction of Florida Blanco, four miles out of Guagua, and encountered a body of 100 insurgents when they routed, capturing a lieutenant and three armed privates. Near Florida Blanco they met another body of insurgents and routed them, capturing another armed lieutenant and one private, returning with twenty-seven men. Major Bell encountered the enemy for the third time. A round reconnaissance resulted in scattering the insurgents of the locality.

The last two days witnessed considerable outposts firing by small bands of insurgents on the northern lines. Simultaneously with the firing, some church yesterday, the outposts of the American forces at Calocan, Reposto and Marivina were fired on. It appears the insurgents in the neighborhood are operating in bands of from five to twenty. It is rumored that attacks are to be made upon the hospitals. The uprising in Manila will result in a vigilance on the

ARRAIGNMENT OF CASES.

The city council held a special meeting last night, and disposed of a long list of bills that had accumulated. The clerk was ordered to draw a check for the amounts, and creditors can get their money by calling at the clerk's office.

The following petition was read: "At a meeting of the club held on Tuesday evening, October 3, 1899, for the purpose of devising ways and means for obtaining better hotel facilities for Albuquerque, the following motion prevailed: That this club, as an organization, request the city council of Albuquerque to draft suitable resolutions to forward to the A. T. & S. F. railroad company, urging it to erect a first class hotel in this city."

"Hoping your honorable body will favorably consider the matter, I am very truly, A. K. D. CARROLL, Sec."

In response to the following communication a reward of $50 was ordered for the production of the Spanish and English editions of the following:

"In the matter of the claim of the city against the United States for condemnation of a grant, as you are doubtless well aware, the supreme court of the United States reversed and remanded the case with directions to permit the city to amend its petition, make new parties and thereafter to have further proceedings in the case. I have obtained formal leave in the land court to amend the petition, but have not yet obtained the names of the persons who are to be made new parties. I propose to file an amended petition setting up a claim to a grant running from the river to the mountains and I believe that a considerable amount of testimony can be found in support of such a claim. I am quite confident if we could discover the records of the old Villa de Albuquerque they would disclose unmistakable evidence of the existence of municipal ownership of all the lands east of the city as far as the mountains. It is hardly credible that these records have been destroyed, but such inquiries have been able to make as to their existence have produced no result. If the city would offer a moderate reward for the production of these old records, it is possible that they might be brought to light, and, if successful, I am sure that the expenditure would be justified. If such a step should be taken the offer of reward should be circulated in Spanish as well as in English and brought to the attention of residents of all the towns from Bernalillo to Socorro at once."

"Very truly,
F. W. CLANCY."

The sewer committee was directed to investigate a complaint representing that the city plumbing inspector was partial in his dealing with the plumbers of the city. Several cases were cited in which plumbing was not in accordance with the ordinance.

The following resolution was referred to the street committee: "Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Albuquerque: That the city shall be held responsible for the maintenance of all telephonic, telegraphic and electric wires running through any street, alley, by-way or thoroughfare in the city of Albuquerque shall be at a distance in height above such street, alley, by-way or thoroughfare of twenty feet."

"Section 2. All such wires named in section 1 of this ordinance, and of a less height than therein stated, shall be removed within thirty days from the passage thereof. And any person, persons, corporation or corporations, owning or operating such wires, failing to comply herewith, shall upon conviction thereof be fined in any sum not exceeding $500, and each week thereafter that such wires so placed or constructed is permitted to remain at a height prohibited shall constitute a separate and distinct offense."

"Section 3. Any person, persons, corporation or corporations, heretofore placing or constructing any such wires designated in section 1 of this ordinance, at a height prohibited by said section, shall upon conviction thereof be fined in any sum not exceeding $500, and each week thereafter that such wires so placed or constructed is permitted to remain at a height prohibited shall constitute a separate and distinct offense."

The bonds of plumbers were referred to the city attorney.

Henry Carpenter, the captain of Comodore Kent's fleet of iron clads in Tijuera canyon, came in from the mountains this morning to consult with the commodore, whose flagship is tied up at the harbor wharf. The captain stated that he and his subordinate desired fourteen barrels of vinegar for the purpose of preserving beef killed on the plains. His demand was so natural that Commodore Kent seconded the proposition, after which Captain Carpenter returned to the raging waters of Tijuera canyon, while Commodore Kent was noticed wending his way in the direction of his real estate office on Third street.

Small Kleinwort, proprietor of the Third street meat market, returned late last night from Bernalillo, where he had gone after the butcher's picnic on Sunday afternoon to purchase a few fat steers for his market here. He states that the Rio Grande valley, especially above the city, is looking its best, and that he found stock of all kinds in fine condition. He met Billy Noedel's at Bernalillo, and he was on a high horse on account of the ball Bernard Reinken knocked through his skylight. He wants $1,000.00 damages.

Another Murder Mystery in New York City.

OTHER TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—President McKinley scarcely finished his breakfast this morning when a delegation of laboring men called. The president was dressed with them for half an hour, discussing conditions relative to labor in Chicago. The party was made up principally of members of the bricklayers' and stone masons' union, which some weeks ago made the president an honorary member.

The president declared he considered the bricklayers' union to be the bricklayers' union. Mr. McKinley drove to the G. A. R. memorial hall where he was greeted by the army of the Tennessee which is holding its reunion. The hall was packed with spectators who cheered frantically.

The president with his wife, next went to the hall of the Woman's Athletic club where a light luncheon was served in their honor.

An exhibition of swimming was given. Mr. McKinley returned to the hotel while the president, cheered all along the route, took himself to the press club where he spent an hour receiving members.

ANOTHER MYSTERY.

The Waters Give Up Their Dead in Course of Time.

New York, Oct. 10.—The upper part of a woman's body was found on the beach near the quarantine station at 7 a. m. today. That portion of the body found was from the waist line to the neck. The left thigh was picked up at Seventeenth street, near seventh avenue. The left arm was recovered from the river and fitted upon the upper portion of that found in the street.

Dispatch From Otis.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The war department received the following from General Otis, dated at Manila Oct. 10:

"General Schwan's column moved early this morning from Santa Cruz de Malabon and are now believed to be in San Francisco de Malabon, and not meeting a very determined resistance; matters are quiet in the Luna section. General Young, with a column, starts northward to march morning from San Fernando. Col. Bell cleared the country yesterday of insurgents and including Florida Blanco, making captures of officers, men and property."

No More Postponements.

Steady work, Oct. 10.—The committee decided that the next yacht race will be the 1000 ton race, and the race will be on succeeding days thereafter, except Sunday, until the contest is decided.

THE MASSACHUSETTS WAY.

The Massachusetts republicans indorsed President McKinley and his administration in unmistakable terms. In the state convention held at Boston the other day, the following plank was unanimously adopted amid the wildest enthusiasm:

We express our confidence in the patriotic ideals of President McKinley and the high qualities of statesmanship with which he has impressed them on his administration.

He has enforced an efficient conduct of affairs in every department of the government; he has so conducted the diplomatic service as to win for the United States the respect and admiration of foreign nations.

The recent war with Spain, which was necessitated by humanity, has been overwhelmingly vindicated by the results so speedily and splendidly attained.

We commend the fact, the patience and the skill and statesmanlike spirit with which the president has approached the perplexing problems arising from the war.

Under the law of nations put upon the United States the responsibility for the peace and security of life and property, the well being and the future government of the Philippine Islands. Accepting this responsibility it is our profound trust that the present hostilities can be brought to an early termination and that congress, guided by a wise and patriotic administration, will establish and maintain in these nations, hitherto the home of tyrants, a government free, as liberal and as progressive as our own.

This is the way to put it, and the ren-dement expressed, will be endorsed not only by every republican in the country, but by every true American citizen. While many good citizens are honestly and conscientiously opposed to so-called "expansion" where war is undertaken for the purpose of conquest, all will agree that in our case the "expansion" was literally forced upon us, and having once taken hold we cannot in honor turn back in any event, say nothing of giving up in the face of armed resistance to our lawful authority. Such action would be such an exhibition of weakness that our people would become the laughing stock of the world. Possibly Edward Atkinson, of Boston, and his followers might favor such action, for they are lost to shame, but no American, be he republican or democrat, would ever advocate any policy that would tend to humiliate his flag. The plank of the Massachusetts republicans would be incorporated in every platform in the country.

STEAMSHIP ROUTES.

A map of America, showing the transportation routes of North, Central and South America, just issued by the treasury bureau of statistics, gives some interesting data on the relative distance between the commercial centers of the United States and those of other parts of the world via the various existing and proposed water routes. It shows especially the routes followed by steamships in the commerce between the eastern and southern parts of the United States and of Central and South America, and the western coast of the United States.

The contrast between the distances now traversed in commerce of eastern United States with western coast of America and those which would be made practicable by an isthmian canal is interesting.
The fact that the Isthmus of Panama lies almost directly south of the Atlantic coast ports, and that all commerce for the western coast of South America must now travel eastward a distance of over 2,500 miles and again back to the west a like distance before reaching the western coast of South America indicates in some degree the loss of distance and steam power which must be utilized in reaching the western coast of South America, contrasted with that which will be practicable should a water route be opened across the isthmus.

From New York to Valparaiso, on the western coast of South America, via the Strait of Magellan, is shown to be 8,400 miles, while via Colon and Panama it is but 4,722 miles; while from New York to San Francisco via the Strait of Magellan is 13,600 miles, while via Nicaragua it is 4,867 miles. The commerce of the west coast of South America, as shown by the publication of the bureau of statistics, which this map accompanies, now amounts to over $100,000,000 annually, and of this sum but $15,000,000 is with the United States. The imports of Chile, Peru, Ecuador and Bolivia, amounting in 1897 to over $50,000,000 and of this amount less than $5,000,000 was from the United States.
Thus in that part of the commerce in which the United States producers and manufacturers are most interested, the export trade, the United States now obtains less than 10 per cent of the trade of the Pacific coast of South America.

These Grateful Women Who Have
Been Helped by Mrs. Pinkham.

Women who have suffered severely and been relieved of their ills by Mrs.
Pinkham's advice and medicine are constantly urging publication of their statements for the benefit of other wom-

Mrs. LIZZIE REYNOLDS, 238 Merrimac
St., Lowell, Mass., writes:
"It affords me great pleasure to tell all suffering women of the benefit I have received from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I can hardly find words to express my gratitude for what she has done for me. My trouble was ulceration of the womb. I was under the doctor's care. Upon examination he found fifteen very large ulcers, but he failed to do me good. I took several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, also used the Sanative Wash, and am cured. Mrs. Pinkham's medicine saved my life, and I would recommend it to all suffering women."

Mrs. AMOS THOMBLEY, Ellensburg
Cir., N. Y., writes:
"I took cold at the time my baby was born, causing me to have milk legs, and was sick in bed for eight weeks. Doctor did me no good. I suffered thought I would die. I was also troubled with falling of the womb.
I could not eat, had faint spells as often as ten times a day. One day I fainted so I was taken to the hospital.
I had been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and the doctor advised me to try it. I did so, and had taken only half a bottle before I was able to sit in a chair. After taking three bottles I could do my own work.
I am now in perfect health."

WHY EVENING PAPERS GROW.

Also Why They Have Outgrown and Are Replacing Morning Papers.

Many persons have wondered why of late years the afternoon newspapers have outgrown the morning journals in every city. The following from the San Francisco Bulletin presents the reason in very clear form.

"The day is ended. Fortunes have been won and lost. Statesmen, soldiers, writers, adventurers have done the deeds of the day; and night has fallen. The news has been gathered by a marvelous system from all continents and the far corners of the earth. It has been sifted, arranged, illustrated, commented upon, printed and published, and is served hot from the press, still palpitating, as it were, with the action of the event, recorded, interesting and startling with the freshness and excitement of the present. Readers over their soup learn what has happened in the world while they have been busy, each in his little round of duties, telling in his shop, arguing his case in court, earning his daily bread. They sit at ease and read at leisure. The evening is ahead of them, and a needed rest after the fatigues of the daylight hours will cap it all.

Fourteen hours later, while he cloaks his breakfast with one eye on the clock and a brain already busy with the cares of the day, the morning paper is handed to the citizen. If he has time to read the headlines he is doing well. In the night he has leisure to think of the affairs of the human race; in the morning he must think only of his private affairs. Add that he can read in the morning papers only what the Bulletin informed him of at dinner the day before,
and you have a sufficient explanation of the decay of the morning paper.

Advertisers have seen this state of things and have taken the consequences from the morning to the afternoon newspaper offices. What has been the consequence?

Says the Des Moines Union: "The increase observed that the evening papers not only gave the verdict in the Dreyfus case, but that they gave the testimony each day as it proceeded. The past year or two has been a great educator to the people in the matter of newspapers. They have pretty thoroughly learned the lesson that the evening newspaper gives the news the day it happens and twelve hours ahead of the morning papers."

city. The following from the San Francisco Bulletin presents the reason in very clear form.

"The day is ended. Fortunes have been
won and lost. Statesmen, soldiers, writers, adventurers have done the deeds of
has been gathered by a marvelous system
from all continents and the far corners of the earth. It has been sifted, arranged,
published, and is served hot from the
the action of the event, recorded, inter-
and excitement of the present. Readers
in the world while they have been
busy, each in his little round of duties,
telling in his shop, arguing his case in
court, earning his daily bread. They sit
at ease and read at leisure. The evening is ahead of them, and a needed rest after
the fatigues of the daylight hours will
cap it all.

Fourteen hours later, while he cloaks
his breakfast with one eye on the clock
affairs of the human race; in the morn-
affairs. Add that he can read in the morning papers only what the Bulletin
informed him of at dinner the day before,
and you have a sufficient explanation of
the decay of the morning paper.

Advertisers have seen this state of
paper offices. What has been the consequence?

Says the Des Moines Union: "The increase observed that the evening papers
not only gave the verdict in the Dreyfus
case, but that they gave the testimony
each day as it proceeded. The past year
people in the matter of newspapers. They
have pretty thoroughly learned the lesson
that the evening newspaper gives the
hours ahead of the morning papers."

THEY WANT TO TELL

Been Helped by Mrs. Pinkham.

Women who have suffered severely
and been relieved of their ills by Mrs.
statements for the benefit of other women. Here are two of the letters:

Mrs. LIZZIE REYNOLDS, 238 Merrimac
St., Lowell, Mass., writes:
"It affords me great pleasure to tell
all suffering women of the benefit I have received from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's
find words to express my gratitude for
was ulceration of the womb. I was under the doctor's care. Upon examination
he found fifteen very large ulcers, but he failed to do me good. I took several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, also used the Sanative Wash, and am cured. Mrs. Pinkham's
recommend it to all suffering women."

Mrs. AMOS THOMBLEY, Ellensburg
Cir., N. Y., writes:
"I took cold at the time my baby
legs, and was sick in bed for eight weeks. Doctor did me no good. I suffered thought I would die. I was also troubled with falling of the womb.
I could not eat, had faint spells as often as ten times a day. One day I fainted so I was taken to the hospital.
I had been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's
taken only half a bottle before I was
three bottles I could do my own work.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

William Daze, the traveling engineer for the Santa Fe Pacific, is at Sturges' European from Winslow.

Whitney Company on yesterday shipped two car loads of Indian pottery to private parties in England.

Mrs. R. B. Burns and Mrs. George B. Cash, of Williams, Arizona, are visiting with friends in the city for a few days.

The home of Prof. and Mrs. R. S. Goss was happily blessed by the arrival of a brand new baby girl yesterday afternoon.

The Albuquerque Guards extend a general invitation to the inspection and dance on Thursday evening, October 12.

Mrs. L. H. Sheekles has received a letter from Mrs. Wallace Holmes, telling of the death of Mr. Holmes after his arrival in St. Louis.

Jeweler T. Y. Maynard has gone to the hot springs near Las Vegas, where he hopes to be relieved of a serious attack of rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bryce are rejoicing over the arrival at their home last night of a bouncing baby girl. Mother and child doing nicely.

John Pfingger, the wide-awake general merchant and stock buyer of Lamy Junction, is in the metropolis to-day and has his name on the Sturges' European register.

D. C. Hobart, one of the best known politicians in southern New Mexico, came in from Silver City last night and registered at Sturges' European. He is here on business and will return south this evening. Mr. Hobart was a pleasant caller at this office to-day.

Mrs. M. W. Plourdey, the popular and worthy better half of the vice president of the First National bank, has returned from her trip east, and the lady this morning reports having had a most splendid time among relatives and friends of the far off east.

The New Mexican says: Superintendent K. A. Allen and Mrs. Allen, of the Albuquerque government Indian school, and Mrs. Estella Laury, matron of the school, were the guests yesterday of Superintendent and Mrs. Vets at the government Indian school of this city.

Rev. J. N. McClure, the new pastor of the Highland Methodist church, will reach the city to-night from the south on the 4:50 train. He comes highly recommended, and we bespeak for him a hearty welcome to the ranks of Christian workers in our city. Mr. McClure is a graduate of Kentucky and Henry college, and also of Vanderbilt university.

The Albuquerque Guards has already an active membership of over sixty, and the applications for associate membership are coming in so rapidly that it may be decided at future social events to extend invitations to the members only.

To the initial ball, however, a general invitation has been issued, and no doubt a large assembly will grace the Army hall on Thursday evening next.
