TRANSVAAL SITUATION

War Is Inevitable Between British and Boers.

Orange Free State Resolves to Join With Transvaal.

Action Will Naturally Stiffen the Boers Independent Attitude.

BRITISH MUST FACE SITUATION.

London, Sept. 28.—The decision of the Volksraad of the Orange Free State to join with Transvaal in the event of hostilities is the leading news to-day and will naturally stiffen the Boers independent attitude. The Volksraad has made the brotherhood of arms between Transvaal and the Orange Free State an absolute certainty. The British will have to face the situation.

The Volksraad resolution reads: Considering that the Transvaal government during negotiations with the imperial government during the past several months, has made every endeavor to arrive at a peaceful solution of the differences raised by the claims of Transvaal, and taken up by the imperial government, is our own cause, which endeavors have unfortunately had only this result, that British troops have concentrated on the border of Transvaal, and are still being strengthened.

Resolved, That we instruct the government to still use every means to maintain and insure peace, and in appropriate manner contribute towards the solution of existing difficulties.

Provided, That it be deemed not violating the honor and principles of the Free State and Transvaal, and that the wishes of the ministry be made known, and that its opinion is that there exists no cause for war, and that war can be caused by the imperial government, will morally be a war against the whole white population of Africa, and in the consequences criminal, for come what may the Free State will honestly and faithfully fulfill its obligations towards Transvaal by virtue of a political alliance between the two republics.

Intense excitement continues to prevail in Pretoria, where apparently, it is believed there is no escape from war. The field cornet of Pretoria is again serving out rifles. The burghers are getting uneasy at the concentration of British troops between Lily Smith and Laings Neck, especially at Glencoe and Dundee. The enforcement is the protection of the Dundee coal fields, but burghers shrewdly suspect the real reason for the formation of the force, which will advance across the Transvaal frontier at Verheid as soon as war is declared. The Boers do not intend to be caught napping and now are massing around Verheid and will be prepared to make a dash in force through that portion of Zululand crossing the Buffalo river, at a point below Rorke's Drift, and then seizing the railroad cut off the British garrison at Dundee and Lady Smith from the south which would not only interrupt the British lines of communication, but would seriously interfere with their forward movement. In order to watch this portion of the railroad, from exposed Boer incursion the British post will be established at Rorke's Drift.

From Cape Town comes the news that at a meeting of the ministerials there it was unanimously resolved to petition Queen Victoria deprecating the idea of war, urging that a joint injury to the effect of the Transvaal franchise act as proposed by the imperial government be accepted by President Kruger.

A cable dispatch to the Times from Cape Town, says: Several responsible people here, who long cling to the belief in an ultimate peaceful settlement, now regard war as inevitable. The Hirmingham Post says: Two cargoes of arms and ammunition leave Hamburg or Rotterdam Friday for Transvaal, comprising 50,000 improved snipers, 500,000 cartridges and several mortars for dynamite charges.

VENEZUELA REVOLUTION.
Insurgents Winning Battles as They Move Along.
New York, Sept. 28.—A dispatch to the Herald from Port of Spain, Trinidad, says: Caracas is practically invested by revolutionists. General Castro's forces are moving from Valencia and Victoria separated into three divisions.

The right wing has already captured San Casimiro and Ocumare, and are now occupying the valley of the Tuy river and commanding the road to Caracas, which is thirty miles distant.

The left wing is occupying Cara Lucua and the entire sea coast to Puerto Cabello and are moving toward Lagayra with the special object of cutting off the escape of President Andrade.

The center and main division of the rebel army, under the personal command of General Castro, is moving on Los Teques and purposes to combine with the

AN AMERICAN VICTORY.

Insurgents Driven From their Trenches at Porac.

Movement Conducted Personally by General MacArthur.

Assisted by Gen. Joe Wheeler, and General Wheaton.

REPORTED AMERICAN LOSS SMALL.

Manila, Sept. 28.—10:10 a. m.—The movement against Porac, about eight miles from Bacolor, in Pampanga, province, which began at daybreak this morning, is conducted personally by General MacArthur. General Wheeler, with the Ninth regiment and a battery, is advancing by two roads, while Wheaton, commanding the Twelfth and Seventeenth regiments, is moving to block the insurgents from retreating to the north. The Thirty-sixth regiment accompanies MacArthur. Firing has begun near Angeles.

Two Filipino majors came to the American lines last night with messages regarding the American prisoners, who were to arrive this morning. They also requested permission for general Alejandro, one colonel and two lieutenant colonels to visit General Otis. They were refused entrance to the American lines until noon on Friday on account of today's fight, and General Alejandro alone will be allowed to visit Otis.

The insurgents recently entrenched and garrisoned the town of Pao, on Laguna de Bay, in the province of Laguna. Subsequently Captain Larson, commanding the gunboat Napidan, landed for a conference with the citizens. As he was passing up the main street of the town with a squad he was received with a volley from a hidden trench. The party retreated to their boat under cover of the buildings and regained their vessel. The Napidan then bombarded the trench for an hour, completely destroying it.

General MacArthur entered Pao after a half hour's fighting. The American loss is slight and the insurgent loss is not known. The enemy fled to the northward. When the Americans entered the town they found it practically deserted. The attacking party moved on Porac in two columns. The Ninth infantry, with two guns, from Santa Rita, commanded by Wheeler, and the Thirty-sixth infantry, under Colonel Bell, with one gun, accompanied MacArthur from San Antonio. Both columns struck the town at 9 o'clock and opened a brisk fire, which was replied to by the enemy for half an hour. Then the insurgents fled and the Americans marched over their trenches and took possession of the place. Just before 1 o'clock Smith's command, at Angeles, made a demonstration by firing their rifles up the railroad track.

Lieutenant reported one casualty; Bell reported four men of his regiment wounded. The artillery did not have any men injured.

Manila, Sept. 28.—To-day's movement is a strategic success and resulted in the possession of Porac and clearing several miles of country thereabout. Two columns, one from Santa Rita and the other from San Antonio, united before Porac, according to the program, stretching around the place for some miles.

The insurgents are estimated to have numbered 600 men. Ten dead Filipinos were found and a captain and commissary of MacArthur's command were taken prisoners. The American loss is five killed, but there are many prostrations from heat. Englishmen from the insurgent lines report that the rebels at Bamban have 7,000 Japanese rifles.

Somewhat of a surprise comes in the announcement of the marriage in Chicago of Edwin E. Matthes and Miss Kibel Ray. Mr. Matthes formerly lived here and was well known. He recently came to Chicago. Miss Ray and her mother have been visiting in Grand Rapids, Mich., and on their way home stopped in Chicago, where the little wedding got seems to have brought about a consummation of the work he began while the young folks were in Albuquerque. They were married at the residence of the bride's uncle, G. P. Duncan, 2144 Jackson boulevard, by the Rev. E. J. Fleming, pastor of Calvary Presbyterian church. The young people had many friends here and were both very popular.

Miss Kibel Ray is one of Albuquerque's most popular and pretty young ladies and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ray. THE CITIZEN with their many friends extend congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Matthes will reside in Chicago.

HERO OF MANILA BAY.

Admiral Dewey Fatigued By Visits and Receptions.

While He Is Being Cheered His Men Are Not Forgotten.

Bronze Medals Presented Them By an Appreciative Government.

NAVAL PARADE TO-MORROW.

New York, Sept. 28.—Admiral Dewey, considerably fatigued by the rounds, visits and receptions yesterday, did not rise until later than usual to-day. He breakfasted at 7:30 and remained in quarters attending to his mail. A large crowd of sightseers, out early in excursion boats, launches and rowboats, became very enthusiastic when the colors sounded and officers and crews gathered on the decks of the various warships, while half a dozen bands played "Star Spangled Banner."

After finishing his correspondence Dewey appeared on the quarter deck and passed up and down for a constitutional. The people cheered wildly and the admiral was kept busy bowing in return.

It was learned definitely to-day that but one organization of troops from Texas will take part in the land parade on Saturday. The state authorities tried to make arrangements for a favorable parade with troops from Texas, but without success. The organization to be here is the Tenth Cavalry, of Fort Huachuca. Their expenses will be paid by W. D. Garrity, the founder of the Tenth.

According to the weather bureau at Washington there will be bad weather in store for the naval parade to-morrow. Willie L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau, Washington, predicts showers, with out to west winds, so strong as to be inconvenient to large, and dangerous to small craft.

Three hundred and fifty men, who fought under Dewey at Manila, were presented this morning, on board the Olympia, with bronze medals, awarded them by congress. Captain Lamberton made the presentation, planning the medals on the breast of each man as his name was called. The medals bear the admiral's face in relief. Dewey's Chinese servants were also decorated.

Rear Admiral Wilson was an early visitor to the Olympia. Howson said to-day that the Chicago would appear in the naval parade, but would not take precedence over Sampson, the Chicago being assigned to last place in line.

The committee from Washington reached the Olympia at 11 o'clock. Admiral Dewey and officers and men on the Olympia were formally welcomed to the state of New York, this afternoon, by Governor Roosevelt and the chief officers of the national guard of the state. Roosevelt was received with a salute of thirteen guns. He was met at the gangway by Dewey who conducted him to his cabin.

Major General Wesley Merritt, who is in command of the department of the east, said his respects to the admiral, accompanied by his full staff. Dewey met Merritt at the head gangway and after a word or two of greeting the different officers were presented. The call lasted half an hour, and as the many officers left the flagship a salute of thirteen guns was fired in honor of Merritt.

When the committee from Washington reached the Olympia, each member of the committee was cordially greeted by Dewey.

Admiral Geo. W. Fair, who sailed with Farragut and Dewey in the Gulf squadron in 1861, unrolled a package, which he had carefully guarded all the way to the Olympia, and displaying a faded blue admiral's insignia, upon which was stitched four white stars, he said to Dewey: "Admiral, I wish to present to you the first admiral's flag ever broken out in the navy of this country. The admiral, whose name and memory we all so reverently hold, first hoisted this ensign upon the good ship Hartford before New Orleans, and afterwards upon the Franklin, and since it came down from that masthead it has never been whipped by wind or worn by the elements. You are a worthy successor of that great admiral, whose tactics you so successfully followed a short while ago, and I deem now the proper person for Farragut's mantle to fall upon."

The admiral was deeply affected, and tears were in his eyes as he gazed at the souvenir. It was several moments before he recovered his voice. Finally he said: "I'll fly it; I'll fly it at the masthead. I'll fly it in the parade; I'll fly it always—until—and when I strike my admiral's flag, this shall be the flag I shall strike."

This was the most impressive scene that occurred on the Olympia since she sailed from this port for and some time one spoke.
