GRAND PARADE.

Through Walls of People and Wildly Cheering Multitudes.

Greatest, Grandest and Most Glorious Day in Albuquerque.

A Glittering Pageant, Beating Any Circus
On Earth.

DESCRIPTION OF THE GRAND PARADE.

As early as 11 o'clock the crowds began to line the sidewalks along the line of march of the grand parade.

Every one was in good humor; the ranger pleased with himself for having come to the Albuquerque Fair; the resident proud of his city; the merchant busy selling goods and everybody gratified for what is, however only typical New Mexico fall weather.

The various floats began to assemble promptly at 1:30, and Grand Marshal Chamberlain soon had them formed and started on the following route: South on First to Coal, west on Coal to Second, north on Second to Copper, west on Copper to Fifth, south on Fifth to Railroad, east on Railroad to First, south on First to First, west on First to San Felipe and disband.

By this time the crowds had filled the streets and the procession passed through veritable banks of humanity.

The procession was led by the Ninth Cavalry band, followed by the Hon. O. N.
Marron and members of the city council in carriages; then the president of the Fair association with members of the executive committee, immediately followed by Captain Fuller and his San Juan horse.

Next in line came the commercial part of the parade, each float of which deserves special mention.

THE CHRISTOPHER COLOMBO BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

This society turned out sixty members who, some in sailors dress, added greatly to the variety of the parade.

DAVID A. BITTNER.

Decorated wagon load of tempting fruits, including bananas, coconuts, grapes, etc.

J. KORKER & CO.

Four horses pulled a large float, surrounded by a Columbus buggy and various wheels and parts of wagons and carriages.

C. B. HOFFING.

Boat-shaped vehicle mounted on bicycle wheels, and manned by a wheel placed in the center.

GYPSY CAMP.

A large wagon filled with groups of dainty maidens surrounding Miss Nora Werner, the May queen. This is the work of Mrs. W. Y. Walton.

KIBSTER BROS.

The cigar factory of Kibster Bros. was represented and four cigar makers were busy in the manufacture of their favorite goods.

GOOVER LIVER PILLS.

The Goover liver pills were being distributed along the route by members of the company, who were riding in a beautifully decorated tally-ho.

E. E. STOFFEL.

This float drawn by four horses, caught the eye and was much admired. Upon a handsomely decorated truck, Mr. Stoffel placed a finely-furnished gilded horse with a silver harness, the latter the work of Mr. Stoffel himself. In addition he showed many varieties of harness and saddles.

STREET HALLOW.

The sign "Albuquerque Street Hallow" was noticed on a vehicle which was being driven by A. A. Trimble and wife.

E. J. POST & CO.

Bright, shiny hardware of all kinds shown from a black background of a very attractively built float, which was drawn by four horses and surmounted by a lucky horse shoe.

MRS. MCNEIGHT.

Nothing in the parade was as pretty and dainty as Mrs. McNeight's two-seated survey, trimmed profusely with violets; on the back seat were two little misses attractively dressed and wearing hats which were the envy of all ladies and a tribute to Mrs. McNeight's excellent taste. A young coachman in white satin in the front completed the appearance of this beautiful feature.

GRUNSFELD BROS.

A fine display of dry goods, blankets, shawls and huge piles of sheeting artistically arranged on a float drawn by four horses.

Also an attractive arrangement of sample trunks on a truck, the horses being driven in tandem and managed without difficulty.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.

Large wagon carrying an immense log of wood surrounded by Woodmen with axes and drawn by four oxen. The wagon was followed by members of Albuquerque Camp No. 1.

INDIAN SCHOOL.

A company of boys from the Indian school, led by the school band and followed by a four-horse wagon, in which sat Uncle Sam, teaching a school room full of Indian children.

MAUSARD'S MILLS.

A tastefully decorated float containing sacks of the various popular brands of flour manufactured by Chas. Mausard.

GOLDEN RULE BAZAAR.

A neatly ornamented delivery wagon suggestive of quick delivery and general excellence of goods.

ALBUQUERQUE GUARDS.

Three gallant boys were in line commanded by Captain Kide and preceded by the excellent First Regiment band of music.

SCOTT MOORE ROSE CO.

These always popular boys in their bright uniforms and with their horse cart handsomely decorated added greatly to the appearance of the parade.

SANTA FE PACIFIC BOILER SHOP.

Men at work on float riveting and showing the different kinds of work done in the shop, very handsomely put up and a "noticeable" feature of the parade.

SANTA FE PACIFIC MACHINE SHOPS.

A small corner of a fully equipped machine shop, and most attractive to all of a mechanical turn of mind.

GROSS, BLACKWELL & CO.

A large wagon containing a pyramid of boxes of Diamond "C" soap. Samples were distributed among the crowds.

BAHN & CO.

An artistic pile of Corbello and Gallup port upon a handsomely decorated wagon.

ST. CHARLES EVAPORATED CREAM.

Mr. C. C. Hall's quartette of darlings in a carriage made music and distributed samples of St. Charles cream.

W. L. TRIMBLE & CO.

Up to date Mr. Trimble, introduces the only automobile, the complicated steering apparatus of which was ably handled by Col. Dwight Wheeler, who harangued the crowd in true "Rube" style.

W. V. FETTERLEE.

A pretty grouping of wicker chairs, suggestive of rest for the weary.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Albuquerque Hose No. 2 and 3 and the Hook and Ladder wagon, all tastefully dressed, deserve thanks and commendation.

MELINI & EAKIN.

Neat little wagon, tastefully decorated and showing to advantage signs of the various good things always to be found at Melini & Eakin's.

MANN, SADDLERY.

A small cart drawn by a man and labeled, "Horseless Carriage." It was in truth a "manocycle" with a patent to be applied for when the ancients are resurrected.

ALBERT FAHER.

It took four horses to pull the exhibit of Mr. Faher's carpets, mattings and every floor covering imaginable in a well-designed float.

THE THREE SINGERS.

A buggy containing a handsome up-to-date singer sewing machine and two pretty young girls—the combination making the three singers.

MANDELL & GRUNSFELD.

A "comic mule" on horseback with an umbrella, displayed signs which proclaimed him in the parade in the interest of Mandell & Grunsfeld.

THE COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS.

A four-horse old-time "bus" filled with "knights of the trip," whose aim in life is philanthropy and full of big hearted and liberal acts, came next in line.

TO-NIGHT'S PROGRAM.

Interesting Events Not Only To-Night But
Also To-Morrow Afternoon and Evening.

Directly in front of the grand stand on West field avenue, the following interesting program will occur to-night:
7 p. m.—Battle of Manila.
7:30 p. m.—Ballroom session with particular leap.
7:30 p. m.—Illuminated hub and hub house race.

8 p. m.—Grand fireworks.
To-morrow night the Ninth cavalry will repeat the interesting mounted and skirmish drill.

The famous Hansard children—Johnny and Nellie, two sweet little people—who will give an interesting exhibition of a cake walk in front of the grounds to-morrow night.

A most interesting program, full of exciting events, will take place before the grand stand to-morrow afternoon.
First Citizen's arted wagon on the ground
last night, and took supper at Prof.
Zeno, the balloonist, as he sailed into the air. The first cut represents the professor leaving the earth.

And the second view represents the famous aeronaut coming back to earth hanging to his parachute.

THE LONDON EDITION OF THE STANDARD AND DIGGER'S NEWS.

There will be a meeting of the local
and territorial W. C. T. U. to-morrow at 3 p. m., at the Lead avenue Methodist church. All members and visiting friends of the work are cordially invited to be present. A program of interest will be rendered.

Regular meeting of Adah Chapter No.
5, O. E. S., Friday evening at 8 o'clock, of Denver, will readily see how we retain our supremacy in these lines.

Best work, best prices. Cobb's, 210 West field avenue.

J. F. Kelly, a rancher from near Water Canyon, will mingle with the visitors to the carnival.

M. Spelman, a merchant from San Acacia, is in the city circulating with the visitors.

Beckstein, is a Waco, Texas, gentleman, who is doing the fair in up-to-date style.

An invitation is extended to all visitors in the city to have a fine PHOTOGRAPH taken at the ALBRIGHT Parlors, 113 North Third St.

A New Find.

This morning W. S. Toomey, formerly proprietor of the Albermarle cafe, called at THE CITIZEN office and exhibited a few pieces of rock which he extracted from a mine near Sabinal. The claim is a new find.

Chicago Wheat Market in Excited and Frenzied Condition.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—There was a bear panic in the wheat market just before 11 o'clock today, when the suspension of Barrett, Farnum & Co. was announced.
Brokers for that house have been heavy sellers of wheat for the past three days, their sales on Tuesday having amounted to over 5,000,000 bushels for December deliveries. Opening trades today were 71 1/2 c., and the market easily slid off to 51 1/2 c. Around this figure brokers for the firm of Barrett, Farnum & Co. appeared heavy buyers. The market rose to 72 cents. At that point the suspension of Barrett, Farnum & Co. was announced.
For a moment the market looked very silly, and the price of wheat fell to 72 cents. At this figure enough support was forthcoming to check the decline.

ment work in the way of tunnels and 50 cents per ton.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT.

In the United States court the grand jury was best empaneled and charged and is now investigating offenses committed against the laws of the United States. Don. Tomas G. Gutierrez was appointed foreman of the jury.

A. James C. May, a citizen of Great Britain, was admitted to citizenship on presentation of honorable discharge from the United States army.

Giovanni Mino, Battista Scaramella,
Antonio Pasqualone, Battista Grimalano, Frank Dignotti, Domenico Garbagli, and Battista Pasqualone renounced their al-ligiance to the King of Italy and were admitted to citizenship under the stars and stripes.

On the territorial side of the court. In the case of Alice H. Lowe vs. William S.
Lowe, the court upon hearing granted plaintiff an absolute divorce on the ground of abandonment.

In the case of Grunsfeld Bros. vs. Jones Armstrong & Jaramilla, the court gave judgment in plaintiffs favor for $400.

In the case of the Territory, ex rel John A. Lee, executor of the last will and testament of William K. Labott, deceased, vs. Frank A. Habbell, judge of probate court, in conformity with a decision of the supreme court, and order was made dismissing the writ of mandamus and appeal.

In First National Bank of Albuquerque vs. Lesser & Lawinon, order was entered restraining the cause on docket and granting a new trial.

In the case of Whitney Company vs.
Frank P. McClure et al., known as the Opera House case, the court refused to make permanent the preliminary injunction heretofore granted. The attorneys for the intervenors, Fintal, Badaracco and Viviani then moved for the appointment of a receiver. The court stated that the only solution of the difficulty seemed to be the appointment of a receiver. On suggestion of counsel for McClure that he believed that within forty-eight hours he could take care of all the liens filed against the property, the court refused to act immediately on the petition for a receiver, and set the matter for hearing on Saturday.

Lost.

A thirty-second degree Masonic charm and a Knights Templar charm was lost at the depot last Sunday evening by Dr.
Nichols of the Ninth cavalry. Finder please return to Ninth cavalry camp on West field avenue and receive $5 reward.

FAIR NOTES.

At the ball game this morning the San Juan's and Montezuma's sold crossed bats and played an exciting game of eight innings, resulting in a score of 13 to 4 in favor of the San Juan's. Captain Fuller and Dr. Nichols were present.
4000 spectators this morning and helped to make the soldier boys so successful.

SHAM BATTLE AND ARTILLERY DRILL TO-MORROW NIGHT.

One of the most stirring features of the fair program is the sham battle and artillery drill by the Ninth Cavalry.
This feature alone is worth a visit to the fair, and will be repeated Friday night in all its completeness. Quite a good idea can be obtained of a real battle, for it is handled with a tactical drill exactly as in real warfare, and the power is real at least.

VEHICLE PARADE TO-MORROW.

Everybody who rides a wheel are requested to take part in the parade tomorrow, and to decorate their wheels and wear such costumes as they choose. There are enough riders in the city to make a large turnout, and it is hoped that all will take part.

The Very Best.

Rooms of the nearest, finest of the cleanest and the all around best accommodations are to be found at the Hotel Highland.

There will be a meeting of the local
and territorial W. C. T. U. to-morrow

Will pay fare to visitors to the Territorial Fair if you call on us for wagon, etc., J. Korbler & Co., Copper Avenue.

"Great Scott!! We nearly passed it." "Passed what?" "Why, Melini & Kakin's, the best drink and luncheon in town."

Quick delivery, good quality, full weight and courteous service necessarily make J. L. Bell & Co. the most popular grocers in town.

Simpson for loans on all kinds of collateral security. Also for great bargains in unredeemed watches. 209 South Second Street, near the postoffice.

Don't forget to call at C. May's, the new and popular shoe store at 208 West Railroad Avenue. The entire stock is brand new and comprises all the popular makes.

If you need glasses and wish to be fitted correctly and scientifically, call and see Mrs. H. H. H. & Kornblum. Their diplomas are of the best optical colleges

WELCOME!

The Fair this year affords us the most agreeable opportunity of welcoming vast crowds of strangers and sight-seers to our city. In so doing we at the same time wish to extend to you our most cordial invitation to make our store your store, with the assurance of our most ready willingness of rendering any assistance necessary.

We furthermore take pleasure in calling your attention to a few well founded facts:

Having just ransacked the principal eastern markets for a complete line of everything in wearing apparel, we feel confident that we are showing a line of goods that would do credit to any of the most fashionable eastern establishments at prices which will be sure to please everybody.

Our line of ready-to-wear garments, such as ladies' waists in silk, wool, mohair; skirts in every conceivable novel texture; ladies' wrappers and dressing gowns, outer garments such as capes, jackets and reefer in cloth, plush and fur; children's ready-made dresses is one in which we feel confident of finding your most hearty approbation.

In furnishing goods such as underwear, hosiery, neckwear, corsets and all kinds of novelty goods, we are certain of pleasing even the most fastidious.

Space will not permit us to go into detail about every one of our departments. We simply ask you to come whether you buy or not for we take pleasure in showing you the most complete line in the city.

We call attention to our window display.

MINERAL EXHIBIT.
 Fine Displays From Several Producing States of the Territory.

Exhibition hall, which is at the corner of Railroad Avenue and Fourth Street, is one of the scenes of much activity during the Fair, and scores of people are passing in and out almost constantly. Although all the exhibits have not yet been received, there is already a fine display of mineral and agricultural products from nearly every section of the territory. A large amount of grapes and tobacco, as taken from the vineyards and fields from the extensive ranch of R. M. Stockton, near Helen, is being exhibited and attracts considerable attention of the visitors. A big assortment of apples, pears and peaches from the rich soil of Mesilla Park, is quite tastefully arranged on tables. Also pears, plums and peaches bottled in alcohol, form a magnificent display, and by one glance at these specimens one can readily understand the productiveness of New Mexico's fertile soil when once under proper irrigation.

The miners and mine owners of nearly every district in the territory have made a very creditable showing for the miner at exhibit, and clearly demonstrate the interest they have taken in the fair. As a rule the miners can always be depended upon to carry out their part of the program, and by their united work have sent to the managers of the Fair association a very fine collection of specimens.

With few exceptions the various mining districts of New Mexico are well represented, as can be seen on the labels of each piece of work.

Horse Races Saturday.
 All lovers of horse racing will enjoy the races which will take place Saturday afternoon at the race track in old town. # Fixing for Fall.

Changing the complexion of the store; bringing the fresh, new lots of merchandise to the front as fast as they arrive; shaping a selling policy for the new season that will make this the most satisfactory season in the store's history. Not all the new things can we show you, but enough to assure you that we're wide-awake to your autumn needs. There's a new string to the fiddle and it's going to emit some very catchy price music from now on.

SILKS FOR AUTUMN. New lines to show you; rich, warm, seasonable tints; exclusive styles for waists. Try to get first choice of all this freshness.

Beautiful woven silk at 90c yard. Fancy silks all kinds from 75c the yard. Silks for weddings and parties. Special line silk fabrics—See them.

NOBBY DRESS GOODS. The beginning of the dress goods season brings many of our public to investigate the new styles; there's much early buying too; hence we always make it a point to be among the first in the field.

Dress goods from 10c the yard upwards. Every new design and wave for this coming fall and winter wear.

OUR BLACK CREPONS. More popular than ever—better fortified than ever to meet the demand for these rich, glossy bulged materials. You'll be interested in the price story.

We have them from 75c to $3.00 the yard. Special line of crepon at $1.65 the yard, cannot be matched elsewhere.

FOR SCHOOL DRESSES. An excellent assortment of plaids and neat mixtures for school gowns. These at very modest cost and just suited for the fall school wear.

Outing flannel dress, 40c; plaid dresses trimmed at 75c; plaid dresses, finer quality, $1.15; other styles and larger sizes from $1.25 to $3.00 each.

SCHOOL STOCKINGS. The strong-threaded, durable sorts; honest in weave; honest in dye; picked for their complete fitness, and priced as you'll always find things priced here—right.

For boys and girls. Heavy, good quality, seamless, fast black stockings at 12 1/2c the pair—a regular 20c quality. Another seamless fast black stocking for boys and girls, 3 pair for 25c.

SEPARATE SKIRTS. Here are four items of Separate Skirts for fall, which invite your particular attention. They are very strong values indeed and special prices.
