ACCUMULATIONS ON PRESIDENT'S DESK NOW HAS HIS ATTENTION

Both Mexican and Submarine Problems Are Regarded as Presenting Grave Possibilities.

SEVERAL MEMBERS OF CABINET MAY QUIT

Tariff Revision Is to Be Considered if Board Finds Changes in Present Law Should Be Made.

Washington, Nov. 13.—President Wilson, back in the White House for the first time since the campaign began two months ago, plunged into work today in an effort to clear his desk of accumulated business. This he granted that he had been reluctant to do, but did display anxiety over the political complexion of the next house of representatives. Through an interview with Secretary Lansing, the president got in touch with pressing foreign problems, including the blockade issues, and in a brief meeting with the cabinet, he discussed the finance committee of the democratic national committee, he became acquainted with the latest developments in the political situation.

Foreign Policy Unchanged.
It was stated definitely by officials in the confidence of the president today that his re-election will make no change in any of his policies, although as soon as the war is over, the president will recommend a revision of the tariff, as he feels it is justified by the facts to be gathered by the tariff commission, created by congress in 1912.

Begin Preparation of Measure.
On domestic measures, Mr. Wilson told his friends that as soon as the cabinet members, he will begin the preparation of his message to congress. Because of the probability that the next house will be republican, he will seek to get through as much business as possible during the short session ending March 4.

May Enter Cabinet.
Vance McCormick, chairman of the democratic national committee, and Arthur Walsh of Montana, who had been impressed by the president's policy, and it is more than likely that one of them will be asked to join the cabinet or in other important posts, both of them will be asked to join the administration. Harry A. Garfield, president of Wilson's college, and a son of former President James A. Garfield, also is said to be looked upon as being of cabinet caliber.

He also declared that he had received information from General Obregon, minister of war, stating that 5,000 Yaqui Indians of General Obregon's old command were being sent north from Mexico City under General Salazar's escort. A column of Villa's troops was reported to be moving toward Santa Ysabel from Satevao and army men here predict an early attack upon Chihuahua City by Villa's entire command.

Foreign Policy Unchanged.
It was stated definitely by officials in the confidence of the president today that his re-election will make no change in any of his policies, although as soon as the war is over, the president will recommend a revision of the tariff, as he feels it is justified by the facts to be gathered by the tariff commission, created by congress in 1912.

RAILROAD STRIKE MAY BE CALLED BY BROTHERHOOD SAY OFFICIALS

Conference Between Employees and Employers Fails to Reach Agreement in Conference of Representatives.

New York, Nov. 13.—Dinner of a nationwide railroad strike, which was believed to have been averted by the passage of the Adamson eight-hour law, has not entirely disappeared. It developed here today when representatives of the railroad and the four brotherhoods, comprising 100,000 employees, failed to reach an agreement as to the proper application of the new law. The striking block, both sides admitted, was the existing mileage system of compensation.

ADAMSON LAW CAUSE OF PRESENT TROUBLE

Men Insist That Provisions of Measure Shall Not Be Evaded by the Managers Through Injunction.

New York, Nov. 13.—Dinner of a nationwide railroad strike, which was believed to have been averted by the passage of the Adamson eight-hour law, has not entirely disappeared. It developed here today when representatives of the railroad and the four brotherhoods, comprising 100,000 employees, failed to reach an agreement as to the proper application of the new law. The striking block, both sides admitted, was the existing mileage system of compensation.

Fail to Agree.
"We met," said Elisha Lee, chairman of the railroad managers and the conference, "for the purpose of exchanging ideas on the application of the Adamson law. We failed to reach an agreement and we are not certain that another meeting will take place."

Brotherhoods Asked Conference.
"The brotherhoods asked for this conference," said Mr. Lee. "At the morning session we discussed the application of the law and the fact that there was no basic union law. We could possibly agree. Another set-back, besides the elimination of the mileage system, was the determination of the railroad to continue their suits to determine the constitutionality of the Adamson law."

Do Not Understand Law.
"Frankly," said Chairman Lee, "at the conference committee, in discussing this phase of the situation, the trouble lies in the fact that neither side understands the Adamson law. We have our own ideas as to how the law should be applied—if at all. As suits to test its validity are now pending, while the brotherhoods have their own ideas."

CARDINAL TELLS HOW BELGIANS ARE CARRIED TO GERMAN SLAVERY

Brave Belgian Prelate Exposes to World Horrors Now Perpetrated on Innocent People.

London, Nov. 13.—Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium, has issued a protest to the civilized world against the deportation of Belgians to Germany for forced labor. The protest is dated November 13, and is signed by Cardinal Mercier in behalf of all the Belgian bishops except the bishop of Bruges, with whom he was unable to get in touch.

Work Prohibited in Home Country.
Among the principal passages contained in Cardinal Mercier's protest are the following, which the Echo Belge will publish tomorrow, according to a Reuters dispatch from Amsterdam.

Make Slaves Perform Labors in Fatherland so That More Teutons Can Be Sent to the Trenches.
"The military authorities are daily deporting thousands of innocent citizens in order to set them at formal labor."

HEAVY FIGHTING ON MACEDONIAN AND RUMANIAN BATTLE FRONTS

Teutonic Allies Take Important Towns and Score Advances All Along the Northern Front Is Claim.

London, Nov. 13.—The fighting on the Macedonian and Rumanian fronts has been little fighting of great importance on any of the fronts, aside from British gains in France. In the Transylvanian Alps region, Bucharest admits that the Rumanians in the Alt river sector have been compelled to yield ground to the Austro-Hungarians, but asserts that King Ferdinand's men have held their own against attack in the Campulung district. Both Vienna and Berlin record further advances for the troops of the Teutonic allies all along the front, having taken the towns of Dila and Arad in the north in the Tzerzyo mountains, and Candesti, northwest of Campulung in Rumania.

Mackensen Retreats in Dobruja Region.
In Dobruja, according to Petrograd advices received by wireless at home, the troops of Field Marshal von Mackensen are still in retreat and the Rumanians have crossed the Danube from the western bank and reached two points south of Tchernavoda on the eastern bank. Berlin asserts, however, that the Teutonic allies have defeated the Russians and Rumanians who were coming down the western bank of the river.

German Tide Hard Hit.
Once again the German line in France has been hard hit. Starting on an offensive running from the southern tip of the Ancre river northward over a front of about five miles, the British forces have captured the towns of Beaumont-Hamel and Hamel, and forced the Germans to retreat. The British line of attack was forced to concentrate further to the south.

A Never Failing Way to Banish Ugly Hairs
(Aids to Beauty)

No woman is immune to superfluous growth, and because these are likely to appear at any time, it is advisable to always have some delicate powder handy to use when the occasion arises. You will find that your skin is entirely free from hair or fuzz. Be sure, however, to get real delicate.

AMERICANS ARE HELD PRISONERS BY GERMAN SUB

Captain of Steamer Columbian Tells of Experiences After His Vessel Was Torpedoed; Crew Saved.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
Capt. Frederick Curtis of the American steamer Columbian, which arrived here with the rescued crew of the steamer, declared to a representative of the Associated Press today that he and his crew were on board the German submarine U-49 for six days after the destruction of his vessel.
All of the 165 members of the Columbian's crew were saved. Captain Curtis stated.
Captain Curtis said the Columbian was warned before she was torpedoed and sunk by the U-49. The crew was left in lifeboats and the captain was taken on board the submarine.
Capt. Arthur Patterson of the British steamer Beatrice says that he also was a prisoner on board the U-49 for eight days, during which time he heard the guns of the submarine in action and also heard distinctly the explosion of the torpedo which sank the Columbian.
The Norwegian ship Fordealen joined him in the narrow prison on board the submarine, where they were joined on the following day by Captain Curtis.

Stopped on Command.
"My ship, registered at New York," said Captain Curtis to the correspondent, "carried a cargo of about 2,000 tons, and a crew of 165, all of whom were saved. I stopped on the command of the submarine, whose commander ordered me to abandon ship with the crew immediately. We did not without other baggage than two suitcases with documents and money."
"Submarine U-49 fired at once two torpedoes at the Columbian, which sank immediately. The crew was left in lifeboats while I was taken on board the submarine, which plunged immediately after I was taken into the small quarters of the submarine, where I found the captain of the Beatrice and the Dalte. After me, came Captain Yelgusson of the Fordealen."
"The cabin was very small. It contained a little folding table, a folding chair and three bunks. Everything was permeated with the odor of benzine. There was no communication with the exterior and the cabin was absolutely dark, night and day."
"We were fed in the morning with a few morsels of black bread, a cup of corn, and a small portion of hot butter; at noon, with a stew of canned meat and soup, and at supper at 10 o'clock, with coffee or tea and black bread with butter or marmalade. The hours spent in this narrow prison were very long and disagreeable."
"The captain of the submarine, Captain Curtis said, was about 36 years old, while his crew of forty sailors were all very young. All were attired in clothing of glossy leather."

CREW OF COLUMBIAN REACHES PORT IN SAFETY

Paris, Nov. 13.—A wireless dispatch from Madrid says that 155 persons from the American steamship Columbian, which was reported to have been torpedoed by a German submarine yesterday on sailing vessels at the small port of Caborinas. Twenty-five men from the Norwegian steamship "Dalte" and twenty-five from the Norwegian steamer "Fordealen" also were taken to the port on the same day, of which there were four. The dispatch says all three vessels are reported to have been sunk by torpedoes from a German submarine.

A Paris dispatch yesterday says the Columbian, Dalte and Fordealen had been sunk by a German submarine. The crew of the Columbian was reported to have arrived at Caborinas, Spain, in lifeboats.

POLAR WEATHER VISITS NORTHERN ROCKY MOUNTAINS

Heavy Frosts Are Expected in California; Frigid Area Is Extensive; Helena, Mont., 21 Below Zero.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
San Francisco, Nov. 13.—Heavy frosts early tomorrow morning and lower temperatures over all California were predicted tonight by the United States weather bureau here.
"The unusual atmospheric pressure over the Rocky mountains," said Assistant Forecaster Reed, "has caused a drainage of cold air over the western states. Intense cold, more severe in the northern states, will follow soon."
"In southern counties of California the cold will be more severe tonight than last night and the frost will be correspondingly heavier."
Cold records were being broken today in the Pacific northwest, Washington, Oregon and Montana reporting unprecedented November chills.
Twenty-one degrees below zero at Helena was the minimum temperature recorded.
Fruits and vegetables in the San Joaquin valley, which were damaged last night, were in for a more severe frost late tonight, according to the weather bureau, and damage to citrus fruits further south was freely predicted, and protective fires were set burning early tonight.

CARRANZA ARMY NOT MOBILIZING AGAINST PERSHING

Garcia Declares Movement of Big Forces Northward—Merely Means Effort to Exterminate Villa.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
El Paso, Tex., Nov. 13.—Andres Garcia, inspector general of Carranza, declared tonight that he had received information that Carranza forces into the state of Chihuahua had no other significance than the determination of the Carranza government to pursue and overcome Villa and his bandits.
"The report in army circles in El Paso that Carranza troops were being brought north to enforce any demand that might be made for the withdrawal of the American expeditionary forces from Mexico is without foundation," Mr. Garcia said. "Before I left for New York I announced that there would be a force of 14,000 men sent north within thirty days to crush Villa. Now that these troops are being moved into the northeastern zone and, because of the military necessity, the number has been increased, it is being announced that the movement has special significance, but I can deny this emphatically. The Carranza government is going after Villa with sufficient force to overcome and eliminate him and his bandit gang."

SOUTH DAKOTA TAKES BAKERY FOR FREAK LAW

Candidates for Presidential Nomination Must Hold Joint Debate in State or Names Cannot Appear on Ballot.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 13.—Candidates for presidential nomination will henceforth have to appear in South Dakota to take part in joint debates or their names cannot appear on primary ballots in this state, if a primary law enacted last Tuesday under the initiative remains on the statutes until 1920.
Returns received at the capital tonight indicate that the so-called "freak" primary law was adopted by a safe majority.
The law divides each of the parties into "majority" and "minority" factions requiring that each faction offer a complete set of candidates in the "primary" election. Candidates for nomination for president and governor must challenge one another to joint debate. Failure to accept a challenge automatically strikes the name of the delinquent from the ballot.
This is the third time the law has been approved by direct vote. It was adopted under the initiative in 1912 and a substitute was rejected in the 1914 election. In 1915, the legislature repealed it. Mr. Richards' amendment automatically reached the United States supreme court, which upheld the state supreme court's approval of the action of the legislature.

SWITCHMEN'S DEMANDS OPEN TO ARBITRATION

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
New York, Nov. 13.—Arbitration proceedings looking toward the settlement of the demands by the Switchmen's Union of North America on thirteen railroads east of the Mississippi river for an eight-hour day and time and a half pay for overtime, began here today. Most of the evidence heard by the arbitration board composed of two neutrals, two men representing the roads, and two on behalf of the union, was given by switchmen.

James A. Flynn, of Buffalo; E. D. Reid, of Chicago; A. D. Manley, of Michigan City, Ind., and Thomas C. Cadden, of Cleveland, said that although the men were supposed to work ten hours a day they generally exceeded that. Herbert Reid, international president of the union, said the salary of the men had not advanced with the cost of living. He said that the switchmen's task was the "most hazardous in railroad work."
Flynn, Reid, Manley and Cadden all testified that food prices in their home cities had advanced, but they admitted the men were paid for overtime. Reid said that two crops in the Chicago terminal of the Pullman & Chicago railway, where he is employed, had worked from twelve and one-half to fifteen hours a day during the last half of October.
Horace Baker, general manager of the Cincinnati, New Orleans & Texas Pacific, said the cost of the Pullman & Chicago railway had been increased because the present rates fair and because a shorter day would not meet operating conditions as satisfactorily as the present arrangement.

CHRISTMAS SHIP TO BE SENT TO STRICKEN SYRIA

NO RAILROAD PASSES FOR MERE BANKERS

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
Washington, Nov. 13.—Final arrangements for sending the collier Caesar, the "Christmas ship" with supplies for war sufferers in Syria, were completed today at conference between Secretary of State Lansing, Assistant Secretary Phelps, Secretary of the Navy Daniels, Director Ernest P. Ricknell of the Red Cross, and former Ambassador Henry Morgenthau and members of the Armenian Relief Committee. The Caesar will arrive in New York December 14, and is expected to sail about the 20th, due to reach Beirut, Syria, about a month later. The Caesar will carry considerably less cargo than originally estimated. It was said at first that she would be able to take about 1,000 tons, but it develops that her maximum load but none was available.
Over $400,000 has been collected as a result of the war relief drive, October 21 and 22, set apart by President Wilson for the sufferers in Armenia and Syria. Money is still coming in and it is possible the total will pass the half million mark. A $250,000 was needed to fill the Caesar.

CITY NOW READY TO LET CONTRACT FOR PAVEMENT

Formal Award Will Be Made When J. A. Laughlin, Whose Bid Was Accepted, Completes Arrangements.

The Central avenue paving project was carried by the council last night to the stage where the contract may be formally awarded to J. R. Laughlin of Trinidad, Colo., whose bid for concrete paving was accepted several weeks ago.
The contract will be entered into by the council and Mr. Laughlin as soon as he completes arrangements for the completion of the work.
The council last night confirmed all proceedings taken by the city so far in the paving matter. This brought the proceedings to the point at which the contract may be let. The council took this action upon the original petition.
A new petition had been presented but a protest, read to the council last night, caused the council to continue procedure on the original petition. The protest contained the names of signers of the second petition, who said they were not satisfied with the class of paving and asked that the council postpone definite action until they had time to investigate. The new petition was circulated because of the fact that two signers of the original petition had attacked conditions to their signature.
Council took up no other business than the paving matter last night, adjourning until next Monday night after carrying the project as far forward as it could at that time.

AMERICAN SAYS NO WARNING WAS GIVEN THE ARABIA

Passenger Steamer Sunk by Submarine's Torpedo; Periscope Seen After Shock Occurred.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
London, Nov. 13.—Paul R. Daner, the only American on board the British steamer Arabia, which was sunk by a submarine November 8, in the Mediterranean, sent the Associated Press the following statement from Malta.
"I am an American citizen and was a second-class passenger on the Arabia, bound for Marseilles. At 11:20 a. m. on the sixth of November, I was in the dining room when the ship was struck by a submarine's torpedo. There was absolutely no warning whatever, not even one second. It appears from the statements of certain passengers who were on the deck when a tremendous shock to the ship occurred, immediately followed by an explosion.
"There was absolutely no warning whatever, not even one second. It appears from the statements of certain passengers who were on the deck when a tremendous shock to the ship occurred, immediately followed by an explosion.
"It was only thanks to the good fortune of a man who was on the boat floating evenly for a considerable time, that we are all saved. There was certainly no warning of any character."

Paul R. Daner is a Harvard graduate who has been working in Young Men's Christian association work in India. He was returning to his home in Cambridge, Mass.
The Arabia, according to a statement issued by the British admiralty, November 8, was sunk without warning. All of the 455 passengers and the crew, with the exception of two engineers, were saved by a vessel which went to the rescue. The engineers were killed by the explosion.

Secretary of the commission today advised Secretary of the Navy Daniels, Director Ernest P. Ricknell of the Red Cross, and former Ambassador Henry Morgenthau and members of the Armenian Relief Committee. The Caesar will arrive in New York December 14, and is expected to sail about the 20th, due to reach Beirut, Syria, about a month later. The Caesar will carry considerably less cargo than originally estimated. It was said at first that she would be able to take about 1,000 tons, but it develops that her maximum load but none was available.

BRITISH STEAMER CAPTAIN KILLED ON SUBMARINE

Prisoner Is Victim of Shell Fired by English Destroyer at German Undersea Vessel, Is Report.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
Baltimore, Md., Nov. 13.—According to information received by the Johnston line of this city, Captain Phelan of the British steamer Rowanmore was killed when a British destroyer shelled the German submarine on which he was taken as a prisoner after the sinking of his vessel last month.
The Johnston line also received information that Capt. John Mitchell of the Donaldson line steamer Cabotia, and Capt. John Brown of the steamer Marina, both of which were sunk by submarines, lost their lives, but in what manner was not stated.
Dispatches containing this information came from Liverpool. Previous British dispatches were to the effect that the Rowanmore tried to escape the attack of the submarine and the crew took to the boats, leaving Captain Phelan to his fate. It was then that he was made a prisoner on the German submarine.

Cable dispatches also have stated that Captain Brown, of the Marina, was drowned when he jumped from the deck of his vessel, missed the small boat and fell into the sea after the Marina was torpedoed.
According to last cable reports the two boats in which the captain and crew took refuge, are missing.

ALL NIGHT IN SECOND GEAR

The little non-stop (Maxwell) hit 6 o'clock last night had covered 1,000 miles. That's thirty miles behind schedule because nearly all night the car was run in second gear to keep the water in the radiator from freezing. Some time was also lost when Tatum, the driver on the midnight to 6 a. m. was arrested for speeding. But the motor on the car purred just as merrily in front of the police station as it would on the road. Tonight the radiator will be covered with a hood and with the water in the radiator at an efficient heat the last mile should be made up by morning. The Miller tires on the wheels look as though they had not run over 100 miles and only one puncture, caused by a large nail, has been chalked up against them on the record.
If you don't think it hard work driving these cold nights take a shift with us as observer. We'd be glad to have you.
If the little non-stop, Maxwell, don't run another mile the Kaiser Auto company would still be proud of her.

SIX VOTES GAINED BY WILSON IN FRISCO COUNT

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
San Francisco, Nov. 13.—Official recount of the votes cast in last Tuesday's election began all over California early today and tonight, with the task swinging along rapidly, no reports had reached political headquarters here which would tend to alter the general result of the official canvass.
In San Francisco, President Wilson's lead was augmented by six votes, with about one-sixth of the precincts recounted by the board of election commissioners.
The counting was watched closely by checkers, lawyers and expert accountants employed by both the republican and democratic state organizations.

Unofficial reports from other counties received at political headquarters during the day regarding the precincts counted showed in all cases small gains for President Wilson.

Killing the Calves
—All sorts of excuses are offered for the high price of beef, the most plausible being the alleged demand for veal—"the killing of calves which should be allowed to grow into regular beef." You cannot have beef if you eat it as veal, but you can have Shredded Wheat Biscuit which contains more real nutriment than beef and costs much less. Shredded wheat steam-cooked, shredded and baked. Make it your "meat" for ten days and see how much better you feel. Wholesome and strengthening for any meal with milk or cream or in combination with fruits. Made at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Copper Strike Spreads.
Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 13.—A strike which began a week ago among the employees of the Arizona Copper Company at Clifton has spread to other operations throughout the mine and concentrator. The strike started because a Mexican was suspended for ten days for sleeping on duty. It is feared that the strike may spread throughout the entire Clifton-Morenci district. So far there has been no violence. A fire at the concentrator was controlled with slight loss. United States Labor Commissioner Myers reached the scene today and will endeavor to settle the difficulty.

THE DRINKING OF WATER
(By M. C. Lucas, M. D.)

The general conclusions of the latest medical science prove that drinking of plenty of pure water both between meals and with one's meals is beneficial to health. It has also been proven by means of the X-rays and actual tests upon many healthy young men that the drinking of water with meals is not harmful to digestion. Those suffering from a catarrhal condition of the stomach will find benefit in adding about 16 grains (one-sixth of a level teaspoonful) of baking-soda to a pint of water, drinking it a half hour before each meal. Such water is inclined to neutralize the acid which is secreted in the stomach, water, two hours after meals. If you ever suffer from headache, rheumatism or any of the symptoms of kidney trouble—such as deep colored urine, sediment in urine, getting out of bed at night frequently and other troublesome effects, use a pint of hot water and a little bicarb before meals. These Anuric tablets can be obtained at almost any drug store and were first discovered by Dr. Pierce.

American men and women must constantly exercise their kidneys because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out. They weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the elimination of uric acid and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and the various ailments which reach the tissues, cause rheumatism and gout. When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead when your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night, when you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is hot, ask your druggist for Anuric. I have found in practice that Anuric is more potent than lithia and in most cases it will dissolve the uric acid as hot water does sugar.

GERMAN GAINS ARE CLAIMED BY MILITARY CRITIC

Decided Advantages Are Gained by Kaiser's Troops in Recent Fighting on Two Russian Fronts.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
Berlin, Nov. 13.—The military critic of the Overseas News Agency, commenting on the recent activities of the armies of the central powers, says:

"The German successes in Skrobova, in Russia and on the Narayvka river in Galicia, as reported November 10 and 11, are of more than local importance. At Skrobova, the Russian front positions which they had been occupying for months, while on the Narayvka they were on the east bank of the river with heavy losses. Rapidly concentrated reserves and counter-attacks tenaciously repeated could not change those results.

"After a pause, the armies of the central powers again have taken the offensive in spite of attempts made by the enemy to defend them on the Somme, the Isonzo and Macedonian fronts, and although Rumania has appeared as a new adversary in the arena. The armies have pushed back the enemy, who had advanced in east Transylvania until he had reached the line of Huseny-Szekely, a distance of about thirty kilometers, and now the vanguards are standing in the Totos and Gza valleys, on Rumanian territory.

"On the northern line, the connecting troops of General Kossow's army on November 5 and 6, rapidly overcame the advantages which the Russians for the moment had obtained in the Tula sector. The Russian entrenchments of the last few days at Doron-Watra came to a standstill on the Raptoria.

"On the Narayvka, our successes of the fifth and sixth of November were further extended for a considerable length and maintained against five counter-attacks.

"In the district of Vladimir-Volynski, west of Lutsk, the German front is as firm as ever, while the Austrian successes of November 6 east of Krichbaum and on the Jedel, are still fresh in memory."

CONDITIONS BETTER IN CHIHUAHUA CITY

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
El Paso, Tex., Nov. 13.—The arrival of a train at Juarez tonight from Chihuahua City without any American or other foreign passengers coincides with a report that conditions are considered more secure in Chihuahua than in some days past.

The Carranza authorities here say they had news of the safe arrival at Chihuahua of the train bearing $500,000 for the payment of the gasoline tax. They had been worried, they said, over a rumor that Quintero and his band had torn up the track at Candelaria, about fifty miles below Juarez.

SIR SAM HUGHES RESIGNS FROM CANADIAN POST

Minister of Militia and Defense Is Regarded as Too Arbitrary and Loses Job in Consequence.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
Ottawa, Ontario, Nov. 13.—Gen. Sir Sam Hughes has resigned as Canadian minister of militia and defense. His resignation was requested.

The break between General Hughes and Premier Borden and other members of the Canadian government resulted from differences over questions of policy and details of administration. Since the beginning of the war there have been many such differences on questions of military management, but until recently, it is said, they have been adjusted generally by allowing General Hughes to carry out his plans.

Lately the friction has increased and adjustments have grown more difficult. It is understood there has been a growing disposition on the part of the premier and the cabinet to insist upon their own plans as against those of General Hughes.

Objected to British Rifles.

One of the points over which a difference arose was the supplying of the Canadian forces with the British army rifle, General Hughes, it is reported, objected to the use of a Canadian weapon. Some time ago General Hughes returned from a three months' visit to England with a plan to have a Canadian war corps organized in England with a deputy minister of militia at its head. The Canadian government, however, held that with more than 200,000 Canadian troops in the trenches in France, or in training in England, there should be an overseas minister of militia. General Hughes opposed this as it would greatly devalue him of authority.

When the government insisted upon its plan, it is reported, General Hughes suggested that Sir Alex. Aitken should be appointed to the new post. Premier Borden, however, appointed Sir George Perley, although there is said to have been lack of harmony between him and General Hughes. This took from General Hughes control of a large part of the Canadian forces.

Order Is Overruled.

While he was in England, General Hughes, after investigating the Canadian army medical force, relieved Gen. Guy Carden Jones of the command. The government replaced General Jones.

Criticism by General Hughes of action taken by British authorities both in regard to the handling of Canadian army supplies and of the Canadian forces, it is said, has been resented.

It has been stated that there was a lack of cordiality between General Hughes and the Duke of Connaught, who has just left Canada after a visit. The accumulation of differences has led to the breach which has come today.

It is taken as a striking coincidence that the arrival of the Duke of Devonshire as governor general of Canada has been marked by the resignation of General Hughes, under whose administration as minister of militia Canada has raised 400,000 men for overseas military service.

General Hughes was appointed minister of militia in 1911. While on a visit to England last year, he was knighted by King George. His resignation was demanded by the conservatives in connection with war contracts awarded to American companies. He returned from England and demanded an investigation, which resulted in his exoneration by a royal commission.

NET SHORTAGE OF FREIGHT CARS BIGGEST IN YEARS

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
New York, Nov. 13.—The net shortage of freight cars on American railroads on November 1, was the largest in nearly ten years, according to a summary of surpluses and shortages, made public here today by the American Railway Association. At the semi-annual meeting Wednesday, the association will consider plans which, prepared by a committee meeting here tomorrow, will aim to solve the car shortage problem.

November 1, according to the association's statistics, there were 108,116 fewer cars than required to transport shipments. Not before or since February 6, 1907, had the shortage run higher than 100,000. On that date it was 137,947. On the surplusage in April, 1908, was as high as 413,538, and at no time during that year were fewer than 100,000 cars idle.

As recently as June 1, there was a surplusage of more than 57,600 cars, and the situation since has changed rapidly. On July 1, the surplusage was about 52,269, and on August 1, it was 9,762. One month later there was a shortage of 18,373, which increased by October to 69,907.

The number of freight cars owned by American railroads increased from 1,891,357 on July 1, 1907, to 2,447,115 on July 1, 1914, according to the association's statistics.

Grandmother's Medicines

Our grandmothers were wise in the virtues of the herbs of the field. They used to gather and store roots and herbs and use them to cure the ailments of their families—wormwood, thoroughwort, sage, rue, camomile—the list might go on and on of the healing plants with which they made us familiar.

Now their grand-daughters get the extracts from just such good old roots and herbs, from the nearest druggist, ready prepared for use. One such medicine, which women find most for their own ailments, is the well-known Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

TESUQUE INDIANS GIVE CORN DANCE WITH VIM

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL)
Santa Fe, Nov. 13.—Unprecedented at least in recent years, was the vim and elaborateness with which the Tesuque Indians yesterday afternoon gave their annual corn dance. In fact, the ceremonies began at sunrise when the rain priest and others ascended the hill just south of the pueblo and there deposited the prayer plaques at the ancient shrine, an oblation to the Sun Father and offering to the Earth Mother. In the forenoon, there were acrobatics in the quaint mission church, which inconspicuously equipped with modern folding chairs. Chaises were set on the floor in front of the altar.

Exactly at the moment when the length of the shadow thrown by a stick set upright in the center of the plaza was the exact length of the stick itself, the winter and summer people, men, women and children, emerged from the kiva in the southeastern corner of the house, pyramidal and marched to the plaza, where the dance was begun and continued until the sun set beyond the Valle range and the cliff dwellings, where dwelt the ancestors of the Tesuque Indians. The ceremony was very elaborate. The dance quite spirited. The music furnished by a drum and drumsticks, on one or two flutes, and a chorus of men sang the words accompanying the dance. Tesuque has had a prosperous year, crops having been plentiful, water sufficient and cattle and sheep sleek and healthy looking, with a big increase of calves and lambs.

Her older sister, Kocott's Princess, in seven days yielded 390.6 pounds of milk and twenty-three pounds, four ounces of butter. During October she gave 1,451 pounds of milk and 100 pounds and three ounces of butter. Melburn Gray, the republican candidate for the state senate in Chavez county, is the proprietor of the ranch.

MURGIA GIVEN JOB OF BEATING VILLA BANDITS

General Trevino Is to Be Replaced by Another Commander of Northwestern Military Zone.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
El Paso, Tex., Nov. 13.—Gen. Francisco Murguia is to succeed Gen. Pascual Trevino, who is understood, has asked to be relieved of his command in Chihuahua City, from the south with his command. Trevino's appointment as commander of the northwestern military zone was made here today from a source which is considered absolutely reliable. General Trevino is expected to return to his former headquarters in Monterrey, although he may come to the border here for a visit with Mrs. Trevino, who is making her home on the border for the present. No reason is given for General Trevino's transfer, but it is understood the failure to overcome the growing Villa movement more promptly is responsible for the change in commanders at Chihuahua City.

General Murguia is now advancing from Torreon on a line toward Chihuahua City, with a large force of troops and is expected to arrive in Chihuahua City within the next two days.

FLORENCE MACBETH SCORES A SUCCESS WHEREVER APPEARS

Florence Macbeth, the captivating soprano who will appear here November 18 under the auspices of the Fortnightly Music club, has met with unprecedented success in the different cities in which she has appeared. The soprano was scheduled to appear in Great Falls on the evening of May 22. That she fulfilled every expectation is attested by the Great Falls Daily Leader: "The Florence Macbeth recital was the musical event of the season for Miss Macbeth ranks with Tolstain on the boards today."

"The voice of Miss Macbeth is a coloratura soprano in the language of the musical critic, but to the person who sits in the body of the house and listens it is the rippling of water and the singing of birds, clear as a bell and unrestrained by effort. Her voice is of wonderful range, sweet in tone, and is flexible as a reed and clear as the pipes of an organ throughout a compass of octaves. However, the critics have already written Miss Macbeth down as the great American singer of the present and the audience last night unanimously intoned the welcome."

On the evening of June 5 Miss Macbeth (the Minnesota Nightingale) again proved to Miles City inhabitants that her press reputation is no misnomer for she repeated her success in that city when she appeared in a recital before the Yellowstone Journal. To say that the prima donna's singing was a treat is far from expressing it. It was a revelation. Miss Macbeth's singing is as true as a bird's, the same easy spontaneity, the irrepressible and infectious joyousness and the lovely flute-like clearness.

EARLE WILLIAMS
STARRING IN 'THE SCARLET RUNNER'

Vitagraph Presents Famous Screen Star in Twelve-Cylindered Motor Series at the Crystal.

After three months of hard labor and much preparation the Vitagraph company presents their famous star, Earle Williams, in the twelve-cylindered motor series entitled, "The Scarlet Runner," which they release through the exchange of the Greater Vitagraph.

The story is released in twelve episodes of two parts each. Every episode is a complete and complete story so that one may start at any time and will not lose interest.

The titles of the different episodes are: "The Car and His Majesty," "The Masquerade Ball," "The Hidden Prince," "The Nuremberg Watch," "The Mysterious Motor Car," "The Red Whiskered Man," "The Glove and the Ring," "The Gold Cigarette Case," "The Lost Girl," "The Missing Chapter," "The Car and the Girl."

In almost every instance the leading lady is different in every episode—and it seems that each one is more beautiful than the one before.

Some of the feminine stars who add their attractiveness to this feature serial are: Edith Storey, Adele Kelly, Billie Billings, Gypsy O'Brien, Zena Keefe, Jean Stuart, Betty Howe, Lilian Tucker, Peggy Blake, and Louisa Valentine.

The first episode, "The Car and His Majesty," which introduces Earle Williams as "Christopher Prince," the character he plays throughout and "The Scarlet Runner," is to be shown at the "B" today only.

"THE PATRIOT" AND "FEATHERED NEST" NOW AT THE PASTIME

Some actors are born nerve, some acquire it, and some have it thrust upon them. William S. Hart believes he must have been born nerve. And in support of his contention, this noted star cites the fact that he never has experienced the slightest fear in performing the many hazardous stunts which are his work on the screen has been marked.

"I think nerve with me must be of a hereditary nature," declares Hart, when discussing the numerous risks he assumes in his daily labors before the camera. "Even as a kid, I was a daredevil. At least, that is what they tell me—those folks who claim to remember me as a youngster. They say that when I was living on the plains of North Dakota, I used to go about bare-footed with nary a thought of the dangers that beset my path. Once I was bitten by a rattlesnake, but even then, it didn't do me a bit of harm."

"Of bodily injury, to be sure, I am a bit fearful. By that I mean that I don't like to flirt with harm. But, at that, I know I often risk life and limb to accomplish some of the tasks laid down for me by my authors. I am not a believer in 'doubles.' And that is possibly one of the reasons why I always am willing, and moreover, anxious to do myself what is set forth for me to do."

Hart's most recent hazardous stunt was performed during the recent filming of "The Patriot," the powerful Triangle-Kay-Bee play by Monte M. Katterjohn, in which he is presented as star by Thomas H. Ince. It was that of making a flying leap in the dark, from the roof of a Mexican adobe shack to the back of a horse. The stunt involved tremendous risks, yet Hart succeeded in doing it without suffering an unpleasant sensation, save the jarring of his spine.

Also see Charlie Murray and Louise Fazenda in "The Feathered Nest."

Both are scheduled to appear at the Pastime theater today and tomorrow.

"THE TRAFFICKERS" AT THE CRYSTAL TWO DAYS THIS WEEK

When children have reached the age of puberty, and young men and young women are passing through the adolescent period, it is very difficult for parents to discuss the most vital questions of sex with them. Consequently, thousands of young people make mistakes which would be avoided if education dispelled their ignorance. Most young people are allowed to pick up their knowledge of these matters as though it were so much fluff from the gutter. Pulpit, press and platform have been alike silent. It has remained for the motion picture industry, which is really a continuation of the art of printing, to educate about these things. One important phase of this question is discussed in "The Traffickers," which will be shown on Thursday and Friday next, November 16th and 17th, at the Crystal Theater in this city.

"The Traffickers" is a feature photodrama very much out of the ordinary. It is unlike other white slave pictures, inasmuch as it is not a story dealing with the abuse of young women. Individual character, but is a revelation of the methods used by the procurer of young girls for immoral purposes. This piece secured ratings from $100 to $200 per girl. The production is from the pen of Mr. Samuel H. London, who was for twelve years associated with the department of justice in Washington, D. C., in the investigation of the white slave traffic. Mr. London has since been convicted by the leading scientists throughout the country, and the picture has the endorsement of such prominent social workers as Mrs. D. H. P. Belmont, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Mrs. Wm. K. Vanderbilt, Sr., Norman Hapgood, the editor of Harper's Weekly, Ellen Wheeler Wilcox, Eugene Prioleau, the great French playwright, who produced "Damaged Goods," Rev. Chas. F. Aked, D. D., L. L. D., and many others.

Mr. London found the system to be international in its scope, and of such magnitude as to alarm the most scrupulous. He was able to secure a copy of the telegraphic code used by these human traffickers, and the result proves to be a thorough exposure.

Dr. Sam Atkinson, widely known as a lecturer upon sociological questions, has been engaged to deliver a series of introductory talks before each performance. Matinees will be held at 2:15 and 3:30, the evening performances will be at 7:30 and 9:15. Positively no children will be admitted.

BLANCHE SWEET IN A HUSBAND STORY NOW AT THE LYRIC

In all of her previous lucky productions, Blanche Sweet has had her hands thrust upon her. She has been pursued by hundreds of admirers, and had many a heart torn out. In her forthcoming production, "The Thousand Dollar Husband," which will be shown at the Lyric theater today and tomorrow, she plays a husband, and, strange as it may seem, she purchased a husband of all work in a college boarding house. She is madly in love with one of the students, and when she suddenly becomes wealthy, and the young man faces ruin, she offers to pay his debts if he will marry her. How the wealthy bride of a loveless marriage is set upon by a crowd of crooks and how she is eventually saved and wins the love of her husband, goes to make one of the most unusual photodramas ever presented. The Jesse L. Lasky company has surrounded Miss Sweet with a cast of unusual excellence, including Theodore Roberts, Tom Farnham, Jane Wolf, Horace B. Carpenter, Lucile La Varney and others. It is a Paramount Program release.
