Cornelius Vanderbilt Dies Suddenly in New York City.

MOZET COMMITTEE AGAIN AT WORK.

New York, Sept. 12.—A dispatch to the world from President Kruger, Transvaal republic, says: "I will send you a copy of the diplomatic dispatch of April, 1897, showing conclusively the abolition of the British suzerainty upon the convention of 1854. This may nullify the wishes arbitration upon all questions not settled amicably, which have arisen or are arising on the interpretation of treaties, conventions or other written undertakings between the South Africa republic and Great Britain. England rejects several points, not specifying which. This may nullify the whole scheme. The court of arbitration should consist of five members, two appointed by each of the governments interested in the controversy. We wish impartiality, desire for equality. England objects to all for arbiters. We prefer that the president of the United States or the president of the republic of Switzerland shall appoint the fifth member of the court of arbitration. The other four failing to agree upon a person to serve. On the above grounds England has heretofore refused arbitration.

Cornelius Vanderbilt Dead.
New York, Sept. 12.—Cornelius Vanderbilt died this morning. He arrived from Newport with Mrs. Vanderbilt, at 9 o'clock last night. He appeared to be in excellent health. About midnight he was seized with a violent attack. Telegrams were sent to Dr. Walter B. James, Dr. E. Janeway and several other physicians, who arrived in a short time. The patient grew rapidly worse, and died at a quarter past five. Mrs. Vanderbilt and her daughter, Gladys, are prostrated. Cornelius Vanderbilt was the eldest son of the late William H. Vanderbilt, and was born Nov. 27, 1843.

Vanderbilt's death was caused by a stroke of paralysis, the second he has suffered. The first occurred in 1891. Chaucer M. Dewey reached the Vanderbilt house at 7:30 o'clock, and came out with tears in his eyes.

William K. Vanderbilt, a brother of the dead man, arrived soon after. Dewey said, when asked for information: "My brother died suddenly at 5:15 of heart failure, brought about by an attack of acute paralysis, which occurred at midnight. When he died his wife, daughter Gladys, and son, Reginald, were with him."

The coroner's office was asked to send a coroner to the Vanderbilt house and did so. The reason is that Vanderbilt's regular physician was not with him at his death and a strange doctor was in attendance, who had been called in the less than twenty-four hours before he died.

Mr. Vanderbilt left five children. Cornelius, Gertrude, Alfred, Reginald, Gladys. Cornelius married the daughter of Mr. Wilson, a baronet, about two years ago. Gertrude became the wife of Harry Payne Whitney, a son of former Secretary of the Navy, Whitney.

TAMMANY'S INQUIRIES.
The bills of the Tammany committee are again under consideration.

New York, Sept. 12.—The Tammany investigating committee resumed its sessions here today.

Assemblyman Hoffman said as the representative of democratic party he would insist that the full truth in the Rumpo water deal be made plain, without regard to the politics of the witnesses.

The Rumpo Water company proposed to lease to the city certain water rights for the sum of $5,000,000 per year for forty years. The contract came up unexpectedly in the board of public improvement, and was only defeated on a tie vote.

The committee began to take testimony concerning the attempted deal.

MARCHING ORDERS.

Capt. Fuller Submits His Orders for the March.

From Fort Wingate to the Great
Fair in This City.

Soldiers Left the Fort on Sunday Morning,
September 10.

WILL BE HERE NEXT SUNDAY.

Fort Wingate, N. M., Sept. 6.
W. T. McClellan, President of the Territorial Fair Association, N. M., writes to Capt. Fuller, commanding the 10th Cavalry, at Fort Wingate, N. M.: "I have received the several letters which you have been kind enough to send, and owing to a great amount of work have delayed replying until now. I trust you and your committee have selected a good camping ground for me, not too far out, and that I shall find water handy. We will try and do our part toward making the Fair a grand success. I enclose you general order No. 10, which explains itself."

General Order No. 10.
1.—Pursuant to instructions from the general commanding the department, dated Denver, Colorado, August 23, 1899, the commanding officer of Troop H, Ninth Cavalry, with seventy enlisted men of his troop, one surgeon and two (2) messengers, and the post ordnance sergeant will proceed, fully armed and equipped, mounted on mules, the 10th instant, at 7 o'clock A. M., on the annual practice march, towards Albuquerque, New Mexico.

The command will take two (2) six-mile teams, one (1) four-mile team, one (1) ambulance and one (1) 13 inch rifle. Sixty rounds of blank ammunition for the 3-inch rifle will be taken. The post surgeon will take a full and complete outfit to establish a regular field hospital at Albuquerque.

Full dress uniform for the command will be sent to Albuquerque by freight. Rations from September 21st to October 1st will be sent by rail.

The commanding officer of Troop H, Ninth Cavalry, will, during the march, perform such field problems as circumstances may permit, traveling with advance and rear guards, reconnoitering, etc. He will arrive in Albuquerque on the 17th instant, and immediately establish his camp at such point as the author may designate. He will co-operate with the Fair committee in charge of the Territorial Fair, to the end that every assistance expected of the troops may be realized.

In order that the troops may be ready for any unexpected call to active duty, 3,000 rounds of ball cartridges, extra to that carried in the belts, will be taken. A full itinerary of the march will be kept and, upon return to the post, a map will be prepared of the march. Shelter tents only will be used on the march.

By order of Captain Fuller:
(Signed) C. E. STODOL,
2d Lieut. 10th Cavalry,
Adjutant.

FAIR NOTES.
Readers are requested to carefully peruse the official program published on the inside of to-day's CITIZEN.

Work in every department is going on vigorously and the success of the carnival and street fair is practically assured.

Every painter in the city is busily engaged in painting the fronts of business houses and in painting handsome banner signs.

Railroad rates from all points throughout the southwest have been reduced and it looks now as though the roads will have their hands full hauling the visitors to Albuquerque.

Although a number of booths have been sold or the Midway Pleasure, still there are some few choice places left. These will go off like wildfire in the next few days. Don't let an opportunity like this pass unheeded.

J. L. Bell & Co., big retail grocers on Second street, started work on their handsome outside booth yesterday, and this morning G. C. Gainsley & Co., boot and shoe dealers, put carpenters to work on their outside booth.

Subscribers to the Fair association found out to pay their subscriptions on presentation, for the executive committee needs money, and again certain heavy contracts must be paid before the fair opens. Therefore pay up.

Great Anti-Trust Conference Meets in Chicago To-Morrow.

BEYOND THE STAR ATTRACTION.

New York, Sept. 12.—A dispatch to the world from Hong Kong says: Advice sent here to avoid Otsu's censorship at Manila, bearing date September 7th, says: "General Joseph Wheeler only obtained assignment to active duty after a series of disputes with General Otsu, who wanted to sidetrack the veteran fighter by sending him to some obscure post in the southern islands. Wheeler now declares that he will apply for permission to return to the United States soon unless there is a change in the management of affairs in the Philippines."

SAVING FRENCHMEN.

Do Not Think the Dreyfus Verdict Anything to Act Excited About.
Paris, Sept. 12.—At to-day's cabinet council the premier, M. Waldeck Rousseau, informed his colleagues that he had received reports from the prefects of the various departments, which showed that the verdict in the Rennes court martial has been everywhere received quietly.

It is presumed that the council took no action in the Dreyfus or other matters of great importance.

AMMUNITION FOR TRANSVAAL.

Lourenco Marquette, Delagoa Bay, Sept. 12.—Seven hundred and forty-five cases of ammunition for Transvaal have been landed here.

TO DISCUSS TRUSTS.

The Great Conference Will Meet in Chicago To-Morrow.
Chicago, Sept. 12.—To-morrow, the conference called by the civil federation of Chicago to discuss the question of trusts and combinations, their cause and effect and all their various phases, will be called to order at Central Music hall by Franklin H. Head, the president of the civil federation. It is expected that 400 delegates will be in attendance from all parts of the country. Col. W. J. Bryan is expected in Chicago Thursday.

Beyond the formalities attendant upon the opening of the conference, no attempt at a program will be made. From the opinions already expressed by the delegates, who have arrived, it is believed that nearly all the delegates from the south and west will come opposed to the principle of trusts and combinations, while the views of eastern delegates are expected to modify the conclusions of the conference, if any recommendations are decided upon.

A LOUSTY PLAQUE.

What is Worring the Department of Agriculture at Present.
Washington, Sept. 12.—Every year since the invasion of certain western states, particularly Kansas and Colorado, by the Rocky Mountain locust grasshopper, since 1874 to 1876 the division entomology of the United States department of agriculture has sent an agent into the field each summer to study grasshopper conditions for the purpose of enabling the department to predict a future invasion and warn farmers well in advance. This year's investigations have been of special interest on account of a slight outbreak of locusts in North Dakota and an abundance of local non-migratory species of different western states.

Government for Porto Rico.
Washington, Sept. 12.—The cabinet meeting to-day was practically devoted to the discussion of a local government for Porto Rico. No final action was taken.

Crawford's Commission House.
Just received at A. J. Crawford's commission house, No. 422 North First street: One hundred tons of choice hay, equal to the best Kansas.

Carload of choice potatoes. Carload of oats. Carload of bran. Bottom prices for cash. Boarding house keepers can buy potatoes same as at wholesale prices.

A Big Success.
Our way of taking measures has been eminently successful. See any number of well dressed men whose clothes we make—they speak louder than words. Stinson, Stern, the Railroad avenue clothier.
