AGREEMENT FOR WITHDRAWAL OF PERSHING'S MEN EXPECTED SOON

One of Carranza's Commissioners Announces That Plan May Be Adopted Before Week Ends.

CABRERA RETURNS TO ATLANTIC CITY

Ambassador-designate Arrived Here After Appearance on Scene, but Whether Officially or Not Is Unknown.

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 15.—(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)—A new and unexpected opposition to Carranza's plan for the withdrawal of the American punitive expedition and a method of border control will be ready by the end of the week for submission to the two governments. Announcement that an agreement was in sight was made by Carranza's ambassador-designate, Antonio Carranza, one of the Mexican representatives, at the close of a session that had lasted until night.

Not Attended by Carranza. The altered attitude of the Mexican indicated by the announcement, developed at the second session today, although it was not attended by Carranza, chairman of the Mexican commission, who did not return from Philadelphia until late tonight. He was accompanied here by Ambassador-designate Arrondondo and Mrs. Carranza. No significant seemed to be attached to the coming of the ambassador, since it has been known for some time that he had planned to spend a brief holiday here shortly before the adjournment of the commission.

Denies Any Friction. Mr. Carranza, it now is known, has been opposed, apparently unalterably, to the plan as it has been discussed. There appeared reason to believe that he had suggested a counter plan but that his associates chose to continue consideration of the one which had virtually been agreed upon yesterday afternoon.

Minor points are yet to be considered, but such progress was made in the session today that the Americans as well as the Mexicans appeared to believe there remained little doubt that a settlement would be reached perhaps by Saturday night.

CARRANZA EXTENDS TIME TO OWNERS OF MINES

Mexico City, Nov. 15.—The date when mines in the republic shall be subject to forfeiture because of non-operation has been extended to February 14, in cases where conditions have prevented operation. Today was the date set for the forfeiture of mines which had been idle for two months from September 14, the date on which the forfeiture decree went into effect.

Luis Cabrera, chairman of the Mexican commission, which is conferring at Atlantic City with an American commission, in an endeavor to settle outstanding difficulties between Mexico and the United States, notified American commissioners last Monday that General Carranza had extended the time limit for the re-opening of work in the Mexican mines for sixty days from November 14. He added that Mexico did not desire to confiscate property by trying to force owners to work it under impossible circumstances, and intimated that the time limit of the decree might be extended again, either for the entire country or for certain districts, should conditions warrant at the expiration of the sixty days.

A dispatch from Mexico City, Nov. 15, said that Carranza had protested against the decree on the ground that it was a physical impossibility under prevailing conditions to work mines in certain districts.

WITNESSES TESTIFY IN SENSATIONAL SUIT

Red Oak, Iowa, Nov. 15.—Eight witnesses were examined today in the $50,000 libel suit of F. P. Jones, former state senator, against J. N. Wilkerson, detective of Kansas City. Jones charges that Wilkerson accused him of being back of the Moore murder in Villisca.

Gill Roth, of Villisca, testified that he attended a meeting at which Wilkerson declared that Jones furnished the money to pay for the murder of Moore. A cross examination tried to bring out the fact that Wilkerson made this statement as a result of his investigation of the case and not as his opinion.

W. M. Campbell, the next witness, testified that Wilkerson said Jones was instrumental in causing the murder of Moore. Five other witnesses testified similarly.

George Winters, the last witness, told of attending a meeting at which Wilkerson read from a slip of paper which was alleged to be a note from George Cosson, attorney general of Iowa, to Jones, saying that "as far as he was personally concerned, this investigation would go no further."

PARIS COAL SUPPLY SAID TO BE AMPLE

Paris, Nov. 15.—(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)—Paris has no reason to fear a coal famine. Manufacturers, including those working for the national defense, will have an ample supply of coal, according to a statement made today by Minister of Public Works Sembat to the chamber of deputies, which adopted the first clause of a bill which would fix maximum retail prices of coal and other commodities and regulate their sale during the war.

M. Sembat said the price of coal had increased from 31 francs per ton in April, 1915, to 160 francs per ton in May. France was able, however, to economize on the importation of coal to the extent of from 30,000,000 to 100,000,000 francs per month. The production of French coal has been greatly increased, the minister said, but it was still insufficient and the supply was dominated by the question of labor. M. Sembat urged the sending from the trenches to the mines of the greatest number of miners possible.

NOTED SUFFRAGIST IS CRITICALLY ILL

Los Angeles, Nov. 15.—A fifth transfusion of blood was made today into the veins of Mrs. Inez Mitholland Boisservain, New York suffragist, and the patient's condition was reported as "critical" tonight by the attending physicians. Thursday developed today to complicate the severe anemia.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Mitholland, of New York, parents of Mrs. Boisservain, were at the patient's bedside in a hospital here.

LEGAL SYSTEM OF COUNTRY IS NOT EFFICIENT

Experts Declare Entire Course of Education Is Not Meeting Demands of People in Reasonable Degree.

Philadelphia, Nov. 15.—Louis Brandeis, of Louisville, Ky., attacked the legal system and the legal system of the country as lacking social vision at tonight's session of the National Conference on Universities and Public Service, which opened here today.

HEARING OF ALLEGED BLACKMAILER POSTPONED

Washington, Nov. 15.—The preliminary hearing of Karl Armand Graves, self-styled international spy, charged with attempting to extort $3,000 from Countess von Bernstorff, wife of the German ambassador, was postponed today until December 6, at the request of the United States attorney's office.

When Graves, with his lawyers, appeared before United States Commissioner Taylor, the prosecution announced that the testimony of Prince Hatzfeldt, counselor of the German embassy, with whom Graves dealt, was essential. The prince, however, may not appear without permission of his government. It may be two weeks before permission is received.

The bond of $2,000, under which Graves was released after his arrest last Saturday, was continued. Graves and his lawyers planned to leave Washington for New York during the day.

Italian Troops Evacuate

Rome, Nov. 15.—(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)—Italian troops were compelled to evacuate some of their more exposed positions on the San Marco, east of Gorizia, yesterday after repulsing five Austro-Hungarian attacks on an Italian salient at Two Pines house, says today's war office announcement.

VILLISTA BAND IS SEVERELY DEFEATED

Chihuahua City, Nov. 15.—The advance guard of the Carranza forces met a Villa band near Ojiz, a point half-way between Chihuahua City and Santa Rosalia, and routed the band, which lost fifty killed, according to reports received tonight by General Trevino. It was stated that the government casualties amounted to eleven wounded.

Railway communication with Santa Rosalia, General Trevino said, has been completely restored. Statements were issued today by the local British, German and French consuls, denying that a general exodus of foreign residents had been likely, and branding as false the reports of refugees that the evacuation of this city was probable because of lack of ammunition and of funds for the payment of dissatisfied soldiers.

DEUTSCHLAND MAY RETURN JANUARY 5

New London, Conn., Nov. 15.—Eighty negro stevedores from Baltimore, who loaded the cargo of the German submarine Deutschland last week, have been ordered to return here on January 5, it was learned tonight. While officials of the Eastern Forwarding company declined to offer any explanation of the order, the belief prevails that another German submarine may be expected about that time, or that the Deutschland may make another trip here.

Although the Deutschland's cargo was loaded several days ago and she has provisions for sixty days on board, the time of her departure still was uncertain at a late hour. Her crew was given shore leave tonight.

FEDERATION ADJOURNS FOR COMMITTEE ACTION

Baltimore, Nov. 15.—After a brief session today the convention of the American Federation of Labor adjourned until tomorrow in order to permit the various committees to take up the consideration of the 150 resolutions that have been offered. The motion was carried that the convention adjourn at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon and go to Washington to call on President Wilson in a body.

At the conclusion of the reading of the report of the federation's fraternal delegates to the recent British trades council, Paul Shoreberg of San Francisco questioned Matthew Wood of Chicago, who read the report, concerning the press dispatches in American newspapers quoting a statement by W. D. Mahon, of Detroit, the other fraternal delegate. Mr. Wood was asked if Delegate Mahon had given utterance to the statement attributed to them that "the workers in America generally sympathized with the cause of the extreme allies because they thought it represented right and liberty." Mr. Wood denied that Mahon had made the statement. A resolution, introduced by H. M. McLaren of the Federal Employees union, recites that "there is a growing complaint that labor is demanding too much wages in many instances, and due to this feeling the increases are becoming harder to get, so that in a short time difficulties will arise in the efforts to secure increases which will be unobtainable."

Accordingly, the president and executive council of the federation are instructed to take into consideration the advisability of submitting for approval an amendment to the constitution of the United States, whereby a tax may be levied on exports from this country, so as to prohibit the exportation of necessities of life at prices lower than they are sold at retail in the United States."

Thellen Heads Commissioner. Washington, Nov. 15.—Max Thellen, first vice president of the National Association of Railway Commissioners, was chosen president of the organization here today. Many technical reports on railroad problems were submitted.

GREAT BRITAIN ALARMED OVER DESTRUCTION OF MERCHANT SHIPS

DENIES BLOCKADE IS RIGIDLY ENFORCED

Crisis in Country's Affairs Has Arrived and Lords Cannot Tell How to Meet the Situation.

London, Nov. 15.—The matter of the destruction of British shipping by German submarines came up in the house of lords this afternoon. Baron Sydenham invited the government to make a declaration in the nature of a "ton for ton" policy in behalf of Great Britain and her allies, as a reply to "the monstrous proceedings" of the German submarines. He declared that there was an ominous feeling in the country that the submarine menace was more serious than the authorities were willing to admit.

Admiral Lord Beresford said that Great Britain had arrived at a serious crisis calling for energy and foresight. It was time for plain speaking because the house of commons and the newspapers had been misled by the most autocratic government since the time of Pharaoh.

Critiques Blockade. "Had the blockade been properly enforced from the first," he asserted, "we should not have been faced by this submarine menace."

The Marquis of Cross, lord president of the council, replying for the government, said it was useless to make such declarations, as Lord Sydenham and Beresford demanded, without the power to enforce them. The only voices which would speak with influence now were the voices of the cannon on the various fronts.

Must Have Victory. "It is useless," said the Marquis of Cross, "to threaten to exact particular reparations in the terms of peace, unless we are able to impose them by obtaining complete victory."

The admiral continued the lord president had been singularly correct in his declaration of the destruction of enemy submarines, but the difficulties in dealing with this menace had increased.

The Earl of Lytton, lord lord of the fleet, having denied that the fleet had departed from its traditional policy of seeking out and destroying the enemy, the subject was dropped.

TURKISH MONEY DECLINES SHARPLY

Berne, Switzerland, Nov. 15.—(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)—There was an unprecedented fall in German exchange today to 86.50 francs for 100 marks. American crowns were extraordinarily weak at 54 francs for 100 crowns.

BERLIN REPORTS ALLEGED ATTACK ON SUBMARINE

Says French Merchantman, Without Provocation, Attempted to Sink German Submersible.

SINKING OF AMERICAN STEAMER DENOUNCED

London, Nov. 15.—After receiving a report from Captain Curtis of the steamer Columbian, which recently was sunk by a German submarine off the Spanish coast, Charles Mayer, the London manager of the Fraser and Canada Steamship company, denounced the action of the Germans in destroying an American ship. The Columbian, he said, had formerly been owned by the Hawaiian-American company, but was taken over by his company, which had been organized since the war.

"All the shipping of one company, totaling nearly a quarter of a million tons is insured in America and is under American registry," he said. "The majority of the ships are under charter to the British and French governments. The Columbian was bound for London with about 3,000 tons of oats when she was sunk."

Mr. Mayer said he planned to send the crew back to the United States on one of the company's boats from France.

ARKANSAS MAYOR ON TRIAL FOR MURDER

Hatfield, Ark., Nov. 15.—Selection of a jury to try N. Oliver Richardson, mayor of Hatfield, on a charge of first degree murder, was completed in criminal court here today and preliminaries of the trial were cleared away for the introduction of testimony tomorrow concerning the death of Farrell Padgett, which caused the mayor to be indicted.

In his opening address, Congressman T. H. Caraway, counsel for Richardson, said he would show that Padgett had tried to lure away Richardson's 15-year-old wife. The attorney declared Richardson had warned Padgett repeatedly to cease his attentions to Mrs. Richardson.

Padgett was 22 years old, Richardson 37. Padgett was shot at a dance here two weeks ago.

YOUTHFUL WIFE AND CALLER ARE SLAIN

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 15.—The bodies of Mrs. Richard Caporatto, 16 years old, and Peter Damora, aged 22, killed with bullets, were found by the police in the home of Mrs. Caporatto on the east side today. The police were summoned by neighbors who heard the shooting.

When the officers arrived, they found the bodies in a room which bore evidence of a terrific struggle. Six bullets had been fired into Mrs. Caporatto's body and seven into that of Damora.

The police declare the woman's husband was seen entering the house shortly before the shooting but that they have not been able to find him since.

GOLD SHIPMENTS TO ARGENTINA CONTINUES

New York, Nov. 15.—The withdrawal from the sub-treasury of $450,000 gold for shipment to Buenos Aires, totaling about $5,000,000 exported to South America in the past three weeks, directed the attention of the financial community today to the loaning of this movement. About $10,000,000 in gold has gone to the southern continent from the United States this year.

The movement is made possible, bankers say, by trade conditions as a result of which South American countries, particularly Argentina, have a balance against the United States. This is seen in the rate of exchange and results from our heavy purchase of raw materials including hides.

Several Americans on Train

Washington, Nov. 15.—Names of one man killed and two injured last Saturday in a train wreck near Jalapa, Vera Cruz, were received by the state department today from agents in Mexico. The dispatch said several Americans and a number of foreigners were aboard the train, but failed to indicate the nationality of those named. They were Robert D. Bisco, killed; Dr. C. L. Bird, seriously injured; and William P. Gavin, slightly injured.

ACTION ON BELGIUM EXPLAINED BY LANSING

Washington, Nov. 15.—Announcement last night of one state department action in instructing American charge, at Berlin, to communicate with the German foreign office on the subject of deportation of Belgians, brought out a flood of inquiries today for details and explanation of the department's action.

Secretary Lansing repeated the department's action as it was sent out in last night's Associated Press dispatches and made this statement:

"The United States has not made an official protest to Germany but has suggested to her what a bad effect on neutral opinion, particularly in the United States, such action might have. The instructions to American charge at Berlin, the matter with the German foreign office, were sent out on the suggestion of the Belgian government, in answer to its request of the German government's policy. We do not know the full facts in the situation and cannot form a judgment until we have heard from them."

RAILWAY MEN CONSIDER SERIOUS CAR SHORTAGE

New York, Nov. 15.—The American Railway association, at its semi-annual meeting here today, to consider the car shortage situation, adopted a per cent charge ranging from 45 per cent to $1.25 for each freight car which any one railroad shall withhold from another, and decided to impose a demerit penalty on any road which violates the association rules relating to car shortage.

The association also appointed a committee which will confer in Louisville, Friday, with Interstate Commerce Commissioner McChord with a view to effecting co-operation with the government in the car shortage situation.

The association announced that it was neutral in regard to the daylight saving plan, which also was before it for consideration.

HEADS OF RAILROADS TO MEET IN DENVER

Denver, Colo., Nov. 15.—Executive heads of railroads from all parts of the United States and their representatives are here today to attend the meetings of the American Railway association which begins tomorrow.

The meeting in Denver marks a departure from the custom of meeting alternately at Chicago and New York. This city was selected, it was explained, because of its central location. A larger representation of western roads than heretofore was expected.

Problems of operation and maintenance are to be discussed. The American law also was expected to be informally considered, but it was explained, no formal action with respect to meeting the requirements of the law will be taken. W. W. Atterbury, of New York, is president of the association.

AMERICANS IN MEXICAN JAILS GIVEN FREEDOM

General Francisco Gonzales Orders Release of Benjamin Brathan and Joseph Williams, Held in Juarez.

Jalisco, Mexico, Nov. 15.—(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)—Francisco Gonzales, commanding at Juarez, Mexico, this afternoon issued an order for the release of Benjamin Brathan and Joseph Williams, both Americans, who had been held under charges in the Juarez jail and in behalf of whom representations had been made by state department agents.

The Americans and other foreigners left Juarez two days before General Herrera evacuated the town. The refugees, who are considered here as highly valuable, stated upon his arrival here. The Americans announced before they left that the party of foreigners, which was in charge of looking after the welfare of the American moving and milling company, was going to the port of Callahan, on the west coast of Mexico, but the refusal of this was their real reason for leaving. He thinks they are hiding in the mountains west of Juarez and are waiting the story that they are going to the Pacific coast to escape the Villa bandits.

Herrera Took Supplies

When General Herrera evacuated the town, he took with him a large quantity of supplies belonging to his brother, Ignacio Herrera, who is a merchant in Juarez. These were taken and deposited in the Villa zone, according to the official statement.

GERMANS GAIN FRENCH TRENCHES; BRITISH ADVANCE ON ANCRE RIVER

Berlin Says Except at Beaucourt Attacks by Sir Douglas Haig's Men Were Put Down With Heavy Losses.

TEUTONS ARE PRESSING BACK RUMANIANS

Russians Retake Lost Positions in Transylvania; Serbians Compel Bulgars to Fall Back.

While the British were further advancing their front north of the Ancre river, or consolidating their newly won positions, the French and Germans have been engaged in violent combat both north and south of the Somme. In both regions the Germans made gains—in the northern corner and western outskirts of the St. Pierre-Vaast wood, north of the river, and in the eastern part of the village of Fresnoire, south of the stream.

The French official communication, in admitting the loss of this ground, says the Germans obtained only limited advantages at the price of very heavy losses. In the north the German attacks extended from Les Boeufs to the south of Bouchavesmes, a front of five miles, and south of the Somme from Ablancourt to the Chauvins wood, about three miles. The attacks were launched after violent artillery preparation.

Says British Lost Heavily. Berlin in reverting to the British attack which gave them the town of Beaucourt, says that except at Beaucourt all the British attacks broke down with heavy casualties. The southern flank of the Ancre river has already been shelled by a strong force of German heavy artillery.

According to London, the Germans have been since Monday. The British losses, considering the extent of the gains, are declared not to have been heavy.

Austro-Germans Gain

The Transylvanian front, aside from the line in France, is furnishing the most sanguinary engagement. Here almost everywhere, the Austro-Germans are gaining ground against the Rumanians and Russians. In the Tigris, Alt and Jial valleys, the Teutonic allies have forced their antagonists still further back. In the Dobruja region, Bucharest reports the occupation by the Rumanians of the town of Bouda, on the Danube.

The royal palace in Bucharest has been bombed by Teutonic allied aircraft. The queen and the royal princesses were not in the building at this time.

Teutonic Losses on Cerna River. Berlin admits that on the Cerna river, in Serbia, the entente allies have captured some heights, and that in the valley the Teutonic allies have been driven back in order to prevent pressure on its flanks.

In Galicia, according to the Petrograd war office, the Rumanians have driven Austro-Germans from former Russian trenches in the Sauravka river region. Berlin asserts, however, that attacks by the Russians in this vicinity were repulsed.

FRENCH YET TO GROUND BEFORE GERMAN DRIVE

Paris, Nov. 15.—Strong German forces attacked the French north and south of the Somme river, but according to the bulletins issued by the war office, were able to gain only limited advantages at the cost of very heavy losses. The Germans gained a footing in the French advanced positions in the northern corner and western outskirts of the St. Pierre-Vaast wood. They also made some progress in the eastern section of the village of Fresnoire.

How Any Woman Can Remove Hairy Growths

(Beauty Culture.)

It is no longer necessary for a woman to visit a beauty specialist to have superfluous hairs removed, for, with the aid of a plain delicate paste, she can, in the privacy of her own home, remove even a stubborn growth in a very few minutes. The paste is made by mixing some water with a little powdered delatone. This is applied to the hairs and after 2 or 3 minutes removed and the skin washed. Then it will be left clear and hairless. Be sure you buy real delatone.

Philadelphia, Nov. 15.—(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)—A son-in-law of Alfred C. Harbo, who was killed in action on October 4, while with his regiment in the German army, is in this city. Count von Holstein, formerly Miss Harbo's husband, is in this city. Count von Holstein, who is about 40 years old, came to this country about fifteen years ago. He was engaged in the beet sugar industry in California.

HUGHES' MINNESOTA LEAD AGAIN REDUCED

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 15.—(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)—Albion and Hennepin counties today turning in complete official election returns, cut the Hughes plurality to 267. The totals now are: Wilson 179,149; Hughes 178,112.

Albion county reported by telegraph 377 for Wilson and 1,124 for Hughes, a net Wilson gain of 126. Hennepin ran the Wilson vote from 1,171 to 1,680, and cut Hughes from 2,162 to 2,432.

Builders Confer With Daniels.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Representatives of the lowest bidders for ships of each type included in the big 1917 navy building program were in conference several hours today with Secretary Daniels and other navy department officials. While no conclusion was reached as to the placing of the contracts for fifty-three vessels which were announced by Mr. Daniels last week, the conference was held in a friendly atmosphere and the navy department officials were hopeful of an agreement within a day or two which would enable him to make the awards. The conference will be continued tomorrow.

"There's a Reason"

ENGLAND'S FOOD SUPPLY MUST BE FULLY CONSERVED

President of Board of Trade Makes Speech in Parliament Indicating That Long War Is Ahead.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)—London, Nov. 15.—Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade, in parliament today outlined the government's proposal for dealing with the food problem. The speech of Mr. Runciman had significance aside from its actual content, as showing that the government is looking forward to protracted hostilities and foresees the necessity of timely measures for securing the national food supply by an effective organization of national resources in a similar manner to that adopted in enemy countries.

Mr. Runciman, in his speech, announced the imminent appointment of a food controller with full power over all departments concerned in food supplies, and immediate measures to restrict the luxurious use of sugar, to prevent waste and the making of large profits in potatoes and milk, and for forbidding the milling of pure white flour. He said also that the government would ask new powers under the defense of the realm act, to deal with all attempts to exploit public necessities.

These measures, Mr. Runciman explained, would be temporary, but if they were found insufficient, it might become necessary to have resources in food stocks.

The speech of the president of the board of trade was welcomed in all parts of the house. Sir Edward Carson, on behalf of the opposition, and George J. Wardle, for the laborites, agreed that the house was ready to grant the power asked without the formality of a bill.

FLORENCE MACBETH, CHARMING SOPRANO, REMARKABLE TOUR

The charming coloratura soprano who is to open the Fortnightly series November 15 at the high school auditorium, after singing through the opera season and giving many recitals, toured the middle west with great success during the summer.

Beginning May 22 at Sioux Falls, Miss Macbeth sang almost continuously through May and June, and a number of times in July, so she had practically no break between seasons. As she expressed it, "I would hardly know where season 1915-16 left off and 1916-17 began."

June 14 found her in Austin, where she gave what has come to be the annual concert for the purpose of keeping Edna Robertson, a young singer of that city, in New York for study. This is one of the loveliest uses to which the singer puts her exquisite art, and that it is appreciated is proven from the fact that this one concert brings enough to accomplish the education of Miss Robertson. Following this, Miss Macbeth returned to New York, where she spent a week making records for the Columbia phonograph.

Miss Macbeth returned to the middle west to finish her tour and opened the second half of it in the week beginning November 15 at the Minnesota state convention, held June 27, 28, 29, she giving the last program in the form of a song recital. The first week of July found her in Manitoba, the city of her birth, and here she gave one of the finest recitals of the series. She spent a short vacation in St. Paul, where she was lavishly entertained.

She has been engaged to sing with the Chicago opera association under Campanelli, the first of which will be "Carmen." Perhaps the most important new role for her will be the "Forest Bird" in all the "Siegfried" performances, with a cast of the greatest living Wagnerian interpreters. She will also sing "Mascala" in "Carmen," and her old parts will be the Doll in "Tales of Hoffmann," Lucia, Gilda and Mignon.

She began her concert tour October 1 and will go as far as the Pacific coast, where she will have four concerts under the direction of L. E. Bachner, appearing on the way with the Denver orchestra and with the Minneapolis orchestra. There are not less than twenty-two concerts booked already, and following the opera appearance she will probably make the southern tour. She has been trying to arrange for a New York recital, but the call for out of town is so strong that she can not take the time to break into the engagements as they have been arranged.

Miss Macbeth has received the third call to Liverpool and she feels a very strong desire to comply with the request. The engagements offered her are flattering ones which, if she goes, the singer will supplement by going through the hospitals and leading every aid within her power to benefit those who are sick and wounded. She feels grateful to England for the way it manifested appreciation and interest in her activities in the very earliest days of her career.

GREAT PICTURE IS HERE FOR TWO DAYS ENGAGEMENT

"The Traffickers" Has Had Wonderful Run in Larger Cities and Elicited Enthusiastic Praise From Critics.

"The Traffickers," which will commence a two-day engagement at the Crystal theater today, played five weeks in New York, a month in Philadelphia, two weeks in Toledo, ten weeks in Los Angeles, thirteen weeks in San Francisco, playing to 15,000 paid admissions on the opening day. The picture presents a problem confronting our daughters, sisters, sweethearts, and even our mothers, and they have the trade interest and they have the human interest. As proof of the value of this production, read what some of the leading social workers of the country say about it.

There is not an innocent picture in the whole of the five acts. There is not the remotest suggestion of indecency. It offers a tremendous warning to young people—especially young girls—Rev. Charles E. Aked, D. D., L. L. D.

In looking at "The Traffickers" films I was most deeply impressed by the human misery, the utter helplessness of the girl who is "lost," and by the ruthless power of the business organization which profits by her loss.—Charlotte Perkins Gilman

These pictures reveal facts which it is important should be known to the general public and in a way which even the most sensitive persons could find no sound objection.—Rev. John Haynes Holmes, pastor of Church of the Messiah.

It struck me as being one of the most forceful and intelligent ways of putting this terrible problem before the public, and it is handled in the most judicious manner. I went away prejudiced against and came away convinced of its usefulness.—Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Sr.

In my opinion, your picture, "The Traffickers," by public presentation, will be valuable in arousing public conscience, as well as warning possible victims of the worst of all crimes.—Hon. Henry J. Thompson, former special assistant United States attorney general.

"The Traffickers" there is nothing which is not forbidding, sombre and wholesome.—Norman Hapgood, editor Harper's Weekly.

Early last the girls committed here would now be happy in their own homes if your warning to parents was seen by all the mothers and fathers whose daughters had erred.—Dr. E. Helen Knight, physician-in-charge of the New York Magdalen Home.

I consider the presentation of "The Traffickers" a public benefaction and so vastly superior to all other pictures of its kind that there is no comparison.—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

"A great moral lesson."—New York Times.

"Demonstrates lurking dangers to our girls."—New York Herald.

"An object lesson to everyone."—Philadelphia Record.

"A remarkable picture."—Philadelphia North American.

"It offers a tremendous warning—especially to young girls."—San Francisco Examiner.

GUARDSMEN AT DEMING SHIVER IN COLD WINDS

Men From Southern States Find High Altitude Too Chilly for Comfort; Many Are Deserting.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)—Deming, N. M., Nov. 15.—The fourth separate brigade, which left here on a practice march eliminating in maneuvers at Fort Bayard, is badly disorganized as the result of the extreme cold to which the men have been subjected and on account of sickness and desertions, according to reports received here tonight from Fort Bayard.

The death from actual pneumonia of Corporal Hunt of Company I, First Arkansas infantry, who recently joined his regiment after being on duty at Batesville, Ark., has caused considerable alarm in the camp. Five men are also dangerously ill with pneumonia.

Deserters, unable to endure longer the intense cold of the high altitudes, have been arriving here singly and in squads since last night. Capt. John C. Pegram, in temporary command of Camp Deming during the absence of the troops, said tonight that he had been advised of 145 desertions.

The brigade, it is learned here, is on its way back, cutting short the maneuvers, and encamped tonight at Apache Wells, four miles from White Water.

The remains of Corporal Hunt were buried in the cemetery at Fort Bayard. Medical authorities at the base hospital said they did not believe there was any danger of an epidemic of spinal meningitis. No new cases were reported today.

DEMOCRATS HOLD THEIR GAINS ON OFFICIAL COUNT

Canvassed Election Returns From Republican Counties Show No Material Change From First Figures.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)—Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 15.—Official figures on the election received by the secretary of state today from Bernalillo, Taos and Torrance counties added 435 votes to Hughes' total and 243 to Wilson's aggregate. With these taken into account, the vote now stands: Hughes, 29,737; Wilson, 31,799, a reduction of Wilson's lead from last night's figures of 187 votes.

The Bernalillo county, where no report on the presidential vote previously had been received from eight precincts.

Official reports now have been received from eight counties, with 266 precincts. There are twenty of the 438 precincts in the state from which no report has been received. Most of them are small and it is said normally are republican.

For governor, 522 precincts give: Lunsford, republican, 29,246; de Baca, democrat, 30,412.

For senator, 539 precincts give: Hubbell, republican, 28,728; Jones, democrat, 32,328.

For congressman, 544 precincts give: Hernandez, republican, 26,661; Walton, democrat, 28,421.

MANHOOD SUFFRAGE GRANTED IN HOLLAND

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)—The Hague, Nov. 15.—(Via London.)—By unanimous vote parliament has passed a resolution providing for the amendment of article 50 of the constitution, so that henceforth there will be universal manhood suffrage and no plural votes or compulsory voting.

The sex disability of women also is removed by the resolution. The actual granting of the vote to women, however, is still distant, as it depends upon the passage of an electoral bill, which at present is unlikely.

Early in the present year Premier Cora Vander Linden of The Netherlands, introduced a bill in parliament under the provisions of which the constitutional obstacles in the way of women's rights to vote would be removed. The bill also included a provision giving women the right to be elected to office.

GOVERNMENT TO DEFEND 8-HOUR LAW IN COURTS

Many Suits Are Filed in Different Parts of Country Attacking Constitutionality of Measure.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)—Washington, Nov. 15.—Suits by railroads attacking the constitutionality of the eight-hour railroad law were begun today in many parts of the country and the department of justice plans to defend them.

No offer yet has been made by the railroads to settle the question by one test case. It was stated officially that Attorney General Gregory has made no such proposition to the railroads, and the department is planning to contest each suit as it comes up for hearing. Assistant Attorney General Underwood will have direct charge of the government's defense and Frank Hageman of Kansas City, Mo., has been retained to assist him. Mr. Underwood expects to appear personally in most of the cases, but his number may make it necessary to employ other special counsel.

The Attorney General and Solicitor Davis have been in conference with Mr. Underwood frequently since the first suits were filed and the government's defense have been laid. Information so far reaching the department shows that the railroads have their prayers for temporary restraining orders against the law becoming effective on the ground that it is unconstitutional and incapable of enforcement. The government will resist those contentions and assert that congress has ample power to enact such legislation.

Suits filed by railroads against the federal government to test the constitutionality of the Adamson eight-hour law also are expected to result in the interpretation of the statute if it be upheld, the railroad managers comprising the national conference committee of railroads announced in a statement here tonight.

Suits designed to test the validity of the law and to restrain the government from putting into effect, were filed in this city today by the New York Central and Erie railroads.

Similar suits are to be brought within the next few days by each railroad in the country in each of the federal districts it traverses, according to Elsha L. Lee, chairman of the committee.

ference committee. Mr. Lee issued a statement at the end of the committee's three-day secret session, explaining the railroads' program in their fight against the law. The statement follows:

Questions Involved.
"Two questions are involved in the appeal by the railroads to the courts for relief on the Adamson law: "1—Is the law constitutional? "2—If it is constitutional, what does it mean?"

"Opinions have been expressed by eminent authorities that the law is unconstitutional and there are conflicting opinions as to how the law, if constitutional, should be applied.

"Therefore, the railroads must, as a matter of duty, ask the courts if the law is within the power of congress. It is a duty they owe not alone to owners of these properties, but also to the public that provides the revenues for the payment of wages.

To Clear Up Misgivings.
"If the law is declared constitutional, it is expected that the courts will make clear its meaning, and the railroads it is unnecessary to say, will faithfully follow the instructions of the courts.

"In the breaking of suits throughout the country, the railroads have no desire to delay action or to resort to technicalities. The railroads are anxious to have a speedy decision on the points at issue. These separate suits are necessary to protect the individual roads. A single suit would protect the individual road only in the principal jurisdiction in which the test case was brought and would leave all roads subject to prosecution in other jurisdictions.

"The railroads have chosen what seems to be the shortest and most practical method of reaching an early decision and, in the meantime, avoiding a multiplicity of prosecutions and suits.

"The railroads earnestly desire to take the right road and it is for this reason that they have asked the courts for light to show them the road."

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)—New York, Nov. 15.—Mrs. Mary Lily Flaherty, widow of Henry M. Flaherty, one of the owners of the Standard Oil company, was married here today to former Judge Robert W. Bingham of Louisville, Ky. The wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Penelope Jones, the Rev. Dr. George Morgan Ward, rector of the Flagler chapel at Palm Beach, officiating. Only members of the immediate family attended.

The engagement of the couple was announced here November 5, and was the result of a friendship of more than twenty years standing, renewed at a home party last year. They first met at commencement, entered the University of Virginia, took their degrees, and then, in 1894, they were married. Mrs. Flaherty had just an estate estimated at $1,000,000 from her first husband.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts to flush Kidneys and neutralize irritating acids.

Kidney and bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effective, and lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

DEMANDS FROM PLAYERS' FRAT ARE REJECTED

National Association of Baseball Leagues Provides for Representation for Minors on National Commission.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE.)
New Orleans, Nov. 15.—Proposed amendments to the constitution of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues were considered at tonight's session of the fifteenth annual meeting here. Among the amendments were proposals to reduce the membership of the national board from twenty to fifteen, providing for representation by the minor leagues; the national baseball commission; changes in rules of the national board, reclassification of leagues and other matters involving relations between players and clubs.

The minor clubs at the afternoon session voted unanimously to table four demands of the baseball players' fraternity submitted in writing by President David L. Fultz. The demands are as follows:

Elimination of alleged contracts permitting clubs to suspend injured players giving players the right to sign new contracts immediately after their conditional release; allowance to minor league players of traveling expenses from their home clubs to the club's city or its spring training camp, and changes in the procedure of the national board in players' claims cases so as to give the fraternity notice of the club's defense and opportunity to reply.

The convention acted upon the fraternity's demands after Secretary Farrell of the association, had argued against them. There was no argument in support of them. Almost all the leagues, which are members of the association held conferences today but no important action was announced by any of them.

SEE DOROTHY GISH IN BEAUTIFUL PLAY AT PASTIME TODAY

Dorothy Gish, of the Triangle-Fine Arts studio, gave away a dress the other day—also a pair of wooden shoes.

The dress was a perfectly good one, and the shoes had not a nick in them, but Dorothy was quite ready to part with them. For nearly two months she had been wearing the dress and shoes the major portion of every day in her new picture, "Gretchen the Greenhorn," and she craved a change.

Of a Holland Dutch design in dark, dull blue worsted, the dress has a funny, short bodice of striped material and a queer little dark apron about the size of a handkerchief. It was long and heavy and hot and uncomfortable.

As for the wooden shoes, everyone for weeks been locating Dorothy by her clump, clump on the studio floor.

The dress and shoes adorn the picture admirably, but Dorothy was glad to see her feet a rest and drop into cooler frocks.

Also "Puppets," a screaming tyroed comedy in black and white, both at the Pastime theater today only.

BUSINESS MEN OF ALBUQUERQUE TO HONOR VISITORS

Secretary McAdoo Senator-Elect Jones and Members of Farm Loan Board to Be Guests at Dinner Monday.

A dinner in Taft hall of the Alvarado hotel in honor of Secretary of the Treasury W. G. McAdoo, Senator-elect A. A. Jones and the members of the federal farm loan board, who will be in the city at the time is to be given by the business men of Albuquerque next Monday evening. The affair is to be in charge of the commercial club and the Rotary club, but the attendance at the banquet is not limited to members of those organizations, all business men both here and elsewhere in New Mexico and all citizens who are interested in the work of the farm loan board being invited to take part in the dinner.

The dinner was decided upon as soon as it was learned definitely when the federal board would be in Albuquerque, and invitations were telegraphed to Senator-elect Jones, Congressman-elect W. B. Wallen and Governor-elect E. C. Rusk to be present as joint guests of honor on that occasion. Mr. de la Haza had previously made arrangements to leave the state before that time and was compelled to decline, as was also Mr. Wallen, whose departure is to be postponed Monday evening. Mr. Jones, however, wired yesterday accepting the invitation and will be here next Monday.

Headings in Afternoon.
Secretary McAdoo and the members of the farm loan board will arrive in the city Monday afternoon on Santa Fe train No. 2, and as soon as they have had lunch will go to the United States court room in the postoffice building, where the board will be in session during the afternoon. It is estimated that the proceedings will be finished within two or three hours, and after that the party will adjourn to the Alvarado, where the dinner will begin at 6:30 o'clock.

Invitations have been extended by the local organizations having the entertainment of the visitors in charge to the various commercial organizations of New Mexico to send representatives to Albuquerque to attend the hearings next Monday. The associations of the farm loan board are of far more than local interest, affecting the agricultural interests of the entire state, and it is desired that there shall be as large an attendance of out-of-town business men and farmers as possible. Several of the commercial clubs have signified their intention of sending representatives to the hearing, and it is expected that Las Vegas, Roswell, Santa Fe, Silver City, Deming, Farmington, Clayton and other cities of the state will be well represented at the hearing.

Purpose of Visit.
The hearing in Albuquerque is only one of many that the board is conducting in various parts of the United States under the provisions of the rural credit law passed by the last congress. Its purpose is to gather all possible information regarding farm conditions and the needs of the farmers, especially with reference to the establishment of regional farm loan banks provided for by the act and the most available location for these banks. The possibility that Albuquerque, as the center of one of the large and fruitful farming sections in the entire country, may be selected as the location for one of the banks is considered as decidedly encouraging.

The hearings in the federal court room will be open to the public, and everybody with a suggestion to offer looking to make the rural credit act a success, just a help to the farming industry of the state is invited to be present and make himself heard. The presence of Senator-elect Jones at the hearing will be of especial benefit to the board, as the newly elected representative of the state in the senate will be able to furnish at first hand much valuable information for the benefit and guidance of the board.

All who desire to attend the dinner to be given at the Alvarado Monday evening are requested to communicate with Secretary J. E. Goodell, of the Rotary club or Acting Secretary D. H. McKee of the Commercial club.

LEGEND OF THE RAINBOW TO BE USED IN PAGEANT

Supplied by Traveler Who Learned It From Descendants of Piro in Northern Mexico.

If there is any one phase of the present that is at present in process of rehearsal for presentation at the armory November 23-24, under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. that is more worthy of commendation than the others, it is the absolute realism of the entire production.

Possibly one of the most striking examples of this realism is to be seen in the fact that the spoken lines are no less than the costumes and general setting are as true to life as it has been possible to have them. In some cases, indeed, they are life itself. The legend that will be used in the Campfire Girls scene being a case in point.

The friend who supplied this legend and who, by the way, does not wish his name mentioned in this connection, first heard of it while wandering through Old Mexico, bent upon archaeological pursuits. Having worked gradually up toward the American border, he finally came upon the obscure, but picturesque Indian village of Sahuayo, some miles below El Paso. Upon becoming acquainted, in some extent, with the inhabitants, he was surprised and delighted to find that a portion of them were direct lineal descendants of the Piro Indians, who at one time inhabited the Santa and Marzano mountains. While there he heard many a tradition that had been handed down from the time when they lived at Aho, Grand Quivira, and other pueblos the remains of which may be seen today, some of them not more than fifty miles from the city.

The legend.
As his acquaintance grew, he came to know more and more familiar terms with the people, a venerable man who to all appearances, was well beyond the palmist's "three score and ten," and it is one of the most beautiful of the legends told him by the tribe's high priest that the Y. W. C. A. intends to use in the pageant. It will be used in lyric form, the secretary of the Y. W. C. A., Miss Becker, having made the transcription in view of its greater availability in verse.

A brief outline of the legend, which the distinguished historian and archaeologist always refers to as the "Legend of the Rainbow," follows:
Many years ago, before the white man came, the Great Spirit, who had made the world, and who had put into it everything that man could need, saw the sadness of the desert and the barrenness of the mesa, and said:
"Now will I make flowers to grow, that my first children may admire them; that they may be a glory rivaling the sunset. More beautiful shall they be than Sahuayo, the bluebird, when the sun lights up his plumage."

So he covered hill and valley, desert and mesa with the joy of the springtime.

All the long, beautiful summer these flowers made the air sweet with their perfume, and the first children were content. Later came the Indian summer, and the frost came in the evenings, and one morning a change had come over all this beauty. The North Wind had breathed upon the desert. The mesa no longer bloomed; the flowers had dropped and faded. Now, when the Great Spirit saw what was taking place, he said:

"These flowers are too beautiful to be lost. I will gather them together, the orange and red, the purple and violet, the blue and yellow, and will plant them in the sky."

Creation of the Rainbow.
And now, when the pueblo children see a rainbow, with its arch sweeping from north to south, they see all the flowers of hill and valley, desert and mesa, even as the Great Spirit planted them there, for the rainbow is the heaven of flowers.

And now, when the pueblo children see a rainbow, with its arch sweeping from north to south, they see all the flowers of hill and valley, desert and mesa, even as the Great Spirit planted them there, for the rainbow is the heaven of flowers.

Why the square end?

Have you ever noticed how many expensive cigars from Cuba have the square-end shape? Of course you know there is a reason for that. The reason is this:

Of all cigar shapes, the square-end is the one most likely to give a free-drawing, even-burning smoke. You can see that this is so in the case of the OWL.

Notice that the blended leaves of the OWL filler run all the way down to the burning end. When you light the leaves evenly, you know they're going to burn evenly. No air-holes or torn ends of leaves to deflect the draught and make the OWL gutter. That square-end cures that.

Notice, too, that you get the full flavor of the OWL from the first puff. Not an over-balanced taste of wrapper, but the full balanced flavor of the cigar.

We selected the square-end shape of the OWL as we select the leaves and the Sumatra wrappers—to make the OWL a good cigar.

PLAYING AT THE LYRIC

The basic idea of "The Crimson Stain Mystery" may or may not be slightly reminiscent of that dearly beloved classic of standard fiction, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." The average spectator, who takes his photo dramatic entertainment seriously, will undoubtedly form the impression, after glimpsing the first three episodes, that one of the principal characters will turn out to possess a dual identity.

That this fact cannot be clearly determined evidence quite emphatically that Albert Payson Terhune's mystery melodrama contains abundantly the most desirable essential all good serials should have—an undeniable quality of well maintained suspense.

Compared to the garden variety of serials picture plays "The Crimson Stain Mystery" is far above the general average. The reasons are obvious. In a production where nothing has been overlooked, the cast is uniformly excellent, there is an absence of the exaggerated style of melodrama identified with most photoplays of this type, and the well written story is endowed with a real and ever present element of mystery.

T. Hayes Hunter, who directed, has made many good, some fair, and one or two very bad cinema productions in his time. It can be herein related without fear of contradiction that this is the very best thing he has ever done. Which means that he has, as far as we have seen, made a surprisingly fine production.

Maurice Costello, who is co-starred with Ethel Grandin, plays with an ease and distinction that only comes with long, comprehensive and continuous experience before the camera. Miss Grandin, one of the best of the younger generation of screen ingenues, is also seen to excellent advantage in a role peculiarly suited to her well-developed capacities.

Thos. J. McGrane, a name not very familiar to picture play patrons, should make a lasting screen reputation in this serial. His characterization of the role of Dr. Montrose is simply great. With every chance in the world McGrane refrains from over playing, signifying that he is a true artist.

Theda Bara, who has long been the standard of comparison for all vampirishly inclined ladies of the films, must perform relinquish her hard-earned laurels when Olga Obono's snake wickedness becomes familiar to the multitude. And the ascendancy of Miss Obono over all contenders for vampire honors seems decidedly imminent, inasmuch as her acting in the "Crimson Stain" bears every evidence of genuine talent and serious study, coupled with a prettiness of face and beauty of form that will keep the optics of the male portion of any present day house centered directly on her every second she is exposed to view.

If the succeeding chapters of this serial are up to the high standard of excellence maintained in the first, second and third installments, it should, without question, become what its sponsors intend it to be—a record breaker.

At the Lyric theater today and tomorrow.

PAY FOR DAMAGED AUTO

The complaint, charging Sario Armijo, Maximiano Baca, Jose Duran and Enrique Laveco with larceny of H. B. Toletson's automobile, was withdrawn yesterday when they paid for repairing the machine. Armijo and Baca, who were first arrested, sold the car run away with them. Toletson, who was driving from Albuquerque to Bernadillo, got out of his car at Alameda. The four, whom he had arrested, got in. While they were inspecting the mechanism of the machine it started, according to the statement made by Armijo and Baca. The car ran a mile, crossing a bridge over an aqueduct, and stopping against a barbed wire fence.
