THE DREYFUS TRIAL.

The Prisoner Is Proven to Be a Free Mason.

National Encampment of the G. A. R. at Philadelphia.

Chances of War Between England and the New Republic.

SUNDAY BASE BALL.

Paris, Sept. 4.—The anti-Dreyfus press seems to think it struck a vital blow at the defense this morning when it printed proofs that Dreyfus is a Free Mason. The idea is that this will influence the Catholic judges, two at least of whom are active partisans of his faith. There is no doubt this is more or less true. It is also reported that if Dreyfus is condemned the cabinet will either resign or a matter of form as a vote of confidence from the chamber is preliminary to the arrest of the war crime conspirators against Dreyfus and request on the criminal charge of conspiracy.

REVENUE TRIAL.
Reims, Sept. 4.—Six to ten days is given as the outside limit of the further duration of the Dreyfus trial. The first witness to-day was M. Cerneux. His letter to Colonel Douhet, offering testimony, stated that having been mixed up in political troubles in Austria-Hungary he had been obliged to seek refuge in France, where he had a friend who was a high official of the foreign office in a central European power. This friend, the witness said, told him certain foreign agents in France might denounce him, the first name mentioned being that of Dreyfus. Another foreign general of staff similarly warned him. One day the witness said when he was visiting the latter he saw him take from his pocket a voluminous packet containing military documents. The officer said that in France one could do anything adding: "What is the good of Jews if you don't use them?" Being asked if he ascertained the name of the traitor in this case Cerneux replied: "No, because the officer had already said that Dreyfus was his informant."

Major Carrière representing the government asked that the court hold the examination of this witness behind closed doors. He then announced that since the prosecution had summoned all witnesses he intended to make formal application to have complete steps taken through foreign channels to ascertain whether the documents mentioned in the indictment were delivered to a foreign power and if so by whom.

M. Andre, clerk of M. Bertillon, judge of the court of cassation, who received the confession of the late Lieutenant-Colonel Henry, deposed that he overheard Henry exclaim: "Don't trust, I beg of you. Honor must be saved before everything."

The next important witness was the well known mathematician, M. Painleve, who tore to pieces Bertillon's system. A commissary of the secret police, named Louge, was called by the defense. Lieutenant-Colonel Henry, he asserted, tried to induce him to authorize to the quart the communication of the border-line to Latin, in which the border-line was first published. Witness was asked if he ever investigated the Paulmier affair, which was as follows: Paulmier was a valet of Colonel Schwartzkopfen, German military attaché at Paris. It was alleged that he saw on Schwartzkopfen's desk documents signed by Dreyfus. General staff had declared that an effort would be made to get at the truth of this story, but Paulmier had disappeared and, therefore, although the general staff could not prove the story, it could not be disproved.

To the question regarding this case, Toussaint replied that he had not investigated the affair, whereupon Louge suggested that M. Hennion, sub-chief of the political police, may have been entrusted with the inquiry.

Hennion called to Hennion who was present in the court room: "Come here and testify."

Hennion declared that he actually found Paulmier who told him there was not a word of truth in the whole story. He had never seen any paper bearing the name of Dreyfus.

Louge called attention to the fact that the general staff had suppressed Hennion's report in favor of Dreyfus and only declared that a report had been received representing Paulmier as an untrustworthy. Commandant Guignot and Captain Jankin insisted that only the report that Paulmier could not be traced had been received at the office of the general staff. Hennion said he forwarded the report to the general staff giving Paulmier's emphatic denial of the whole story.

LATE FAIR TOPICS.

Executive Committee Meeting
To-morrow Night.

Work on the Midway Pkaiance in Progress.

The Committeemen Put in Sleepless Hours for the Fair.

SOME IMPORTANT FACTS.

The executive committee of the Fair association will meet to-morrow night. James D. Kakin is taking a great deal of interest in the linenman's pole climbing contest and states that he will see that the feature will be up to date.

A. D. Johnson, the windmill manipulator, has a proposition before the Fair association to put up one of the windmills he is agent for, and to suggest drinking water free of cost to all visitors.

Fred. Hermann, the south first street carpenter, informs THE CITIZEN that he and a dozen outside loaths and parades state to make for merchants. All our carpenters are busily engaged on the same kind of work.

A conference was held with a committee of the Fair association yesterday afternoon, and it is a safe proposition to state this society will have a most costly day in the Thursday afternoon parade. The fair committee, Dr. Cuno, of Denver, has been invited to attend.

Arthur Kverit, the treasurer of the Territorial Fair association, has just returned from his vacation on the upper Rio Pecos. He has studied out capital ideas during his absence, in a cool country, and he proposes to state facts at the meeting of the executive committee to-morrow night.

At the request of the Fair association—no obligation has yet up to date been officially neglected—general F. E. Sturges this morning pulled down the charred walls of the San Felipe hotel, and will put the street in front of the ruins, with the assistance of the city council, in grand condition for the running events. Frank Sturges can always be expected to do his duty.

Conferences were held yesterday with R. A. Rogers, superintendent of A. A. Grant's corporation interests here, as to water and electric lights, and the Fair association will proceed to receive from these enterprises, through Mr. Grant and his representatives, the best of figures. The association will need plenty of water for the Ninth cavalry and an abundance of electric lights for other purposes.

Trainer Mason had his horse running team out for practice yesterday afternoon and the boys ran so well that he immediately announced their position. The old trainer, H. S. Knight, who has since gone to aldermanic proportions, was present and gave some exceedingly fatherly advice to the rising cinder path professionals. It was pleasing to see the old veteran, Knight, among the boys.

Mrs. Walton proposes to surprise the visitors at the approaching fair in the May pole festivities. She will give her entertainment on Wednesday afternoon and evening, and she and her little troop will take part in the Thursday afternoon parade. It is possible that her Wednesday evening's entertainment will take place directly in front of the grand stand, while the afternoon's display will be in the Midway.

Alderman Kieko, whom the city council has delegated to help out the Fair association, will be in the city tomorrow, walked over the plat of ground directly in front of the grand stand, on west field avenue, yesterday, in company with the executive committee, and will make recommendations for the are lights desired by the association. The city council is to be commended for the interest the members thereof are taking in the fair.

Simon Stern, one of the executive committee, was anxious this morning as to the Midway Pkaiance. When informed by Committee-men Albert and Campbell that the Midway events would prove interesting attractions from 9 a. m. till 10 p. m. with a high jump suspended pole at the midnight hour, he was perfectly satisfied, and stated that he had headed off all "sharkers" by securing the Midway Pkaiance for the fair from a liberal-minded lot owner in the city.

Wallace Heeselden, one of the excellent members of the executive committee of the Fair association, took a vacation from the rush and turmoil of the fair, and is out showing his true loyalty to the city. He is the committee in charge of buildings, such as grand stands, etc., and this morning inspected the grand stand, which he pronounced substantial enough to hold several thousand people two or three times a day for years, if necessary. At noon, today, THE CITIZEN representative met Mr. Heeselden and the chairman of the executive committee, P. F. McCanna, in consultation on the band and other stands in the Midway. These two gentlemen are practical, broad minded and conservative in their ideas and views—have no heavy burdens on their shoulders, and are seeing that the Midway Pkaiance and the grand stand are properly and properly erected, according to plans and specifications.

PRESIDENTIAL PLANS.

How the Conquered Islands Will be Locally Governed.

Thirty-Fourth Regiment at San Francisco Ready for Service.

Philippine Rebels Defeated at Porac by Col.
Poli's Regiment.

COAL DISCOVERED IN ARIZONA.

New York, Sept. 2.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: "There is good authority for the statement that the president has returned to Washington with three general ideas apparent in his mind as to future course in relation to the new dependencies."

Philippines—Civil government by three commissions, to supplement military rule immediately after the rebellion is crushed.

Cuba—Continued control until it is determined by means of a general election whether the inhabitants want independence or annexation. If independence, the new government elected will be recognized by the United States and encouraged to establish its stability. If annexation, the president will be governed by the sentiment of American citizens as to the new dependencies.

Porto Rico—Civil government of a territorial form similar to that which prevails in Arizona.

Hawaii—Territorial form of government as recommended by Hawaiian commission and as provided for in the measure now pending in congress.

Rebels Defeated.
Manila, Sept. 4.—Five men of Colonel Hall's regiment yesterday encountered a rebel outpost near Porac. In the fighting which ensued one American was killed and another was wounded. The rebels were driven from the position. The Kansas regiment sailed on Sunday on the Tarrar.

Valuable Coal Discovery.
Special to THE CITIZEN.
Kingman, Arizona, Sept. 4.—Advises from Kingman station twenty-five miles south of here, where the railroad company is having a well bored, state that at 300 feet a body of good water has been struck, about 40 feet in the well. It is more important, a vein of coal was cut by the drill Wednesday and pieces of coal brought to the surface. It has long been known that coal exists in this locality, and Capt. W. H. Hardy, the pioneer prospector and prospector of Mojave county, has been for some time sinking a shaft near Yucca for the purpose of developing a coal seam.

TROOPS TO SAIL.
San Francisco, Sept. 4.—About 4,500 troops are scheduled to leave for Manila between Sept. 12 and 15 on the transport ship, Grant and Sheridan. The Thirty-fourth volunteer infantry from Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico, Indian Territory, Oklahoma and Minnesota are in camp awaiting transportation.

MONKEY TO LOAN.
On diamonds, watches, etc., or any good security also on household goods, we will loan money, strictly confidential. Highest cash prices paid for household goods. T. A. WHITTEN, 114 Gold avenue.

Tuesday, September 5, the fall term at the Highland kindergarten will begin at 211 South Fifth street. Afternoon sessions only. Wednesday, Sept. 6, the Highland kindergarten will open, having forenoon sessions only. Location corner Railroad and Sixth streets. Primary department in connection with both kindergartens. Ada Philbrick, director.
