VON MACKENSEN AND HIS FORCES DRAW NEAR TO ROMANIAN GOAL

Field Marshal's Advance Has Brought Him Within Shelling Distance of the Forts That Guard Bucharest.

RUSSIAN OFFENSIVE IS NOT PROVING EFFECTIVE

Slavs Are Not Impeding to Any Great Extent Teutonic Invasion of Enemy's Country; All Calm Elsewhere.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
The forces of Field Marshal von Mackensen are almost within shelling distance of the southern forts which protect Bucharest, the capital of Rumania. Driving along the railroad leading north from Giurgiu, von Mackensen has captured the town of Tzomana, sixteen miles south of Bucharest, and at last accounts was still making progress toward his objective. Meanwhile, the army of General von Falkenhayn is keeping up its pressure against the Rumanians west and northwest of the capital, in the center having forced the Rumanians to fall back to Glavatzotzu, thirty-seven miles from Bucharest, and farther north, having captured the town of Compulung, thus opening the way for the unhindered advance of additional troops of the central powers through the Torzburg pass into Wallachia.

The offensive begun by the Rumanians in the region of Kiribaba apparently is not impeding to any extent the Teutonic inroads into Rumania. Additional gains are conceded to the Rumanians in this vicinity, but again it is asserted that they have been dearly paid for in casualties. The Rumanians on the north and northwest fronts have made progress in the Ruzau and Prahova valleys.

In none of the other theaters has there been any fighting of great intensity, so far as the official reports show. The big guns of the belligerents on the front in France and Belgium are still active at various points. The only infantry engagement reported was near Ypres, where, in an attack on a two-mile front the British were repulsed, according to Berlin.

Both London and Sofia record the repulse of entente allied attacks in the region of Monastir, Serbia, where rain and fog are hindering the operations.

In the Russian theater, Turkish troops have stopped strong Russian attacks on the Zlota Lipa river in Galicia.

The much-discussed bill providing for compulsory service of civilians for war service in Germany, known popularly as the "man power bill," has been introduced in the reichstag. In introducing it, Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg again reiterated that Germany was ready to end the war by a peace guaranteeing the existence and future of the German nation.

OPERATIONS ON FRENCH FRONT AT STANDSTILL.
Berlin, Nov. 30.—(By wireless to Sayville.)—Military operations on the French front virtually having reached a standstill, the newspapers of the entente nations once more have begun to publish imaginary figures about German losses, which always loom up as soon as no successful fighting can be reported or constructed," says the Overseas News agency.

"English and French newspapers in this case always follow the same method," adds the news agency. "First, they publish German losses during the last month, then during the last two months, and then for three months and so on, until finally they publish the total figures of the whole period of offensive in order thus to create in neutral countries an impression of increasing German losses."

SLIGHT HOPE IS HELD OUT FOR THE ROMANIAN ARMY
London, Nov. 30.—Although satisfied that the Rumanian army is still absolutely intact, Maj. Gen. F. B. Macri, chief director of military operations at the war office, told the Associated Press today that any further advance by the Germans would mean a considerable success for them, General Macri said:

"There is no use minimizing the fact that the further advance of the Germans means a considerable success, as a step forward gives them the corn district, while a still further step means their possession of the oil belts. Russia is moving, however, and the fact that the Rumanian army is still intact is encouraging."

"Even the German reports claim to have taken only 1,200 men and a few guns, which means that my prediction of last week, that no more than the rear guard would be captured, has been more than fulfilled."

"The Rumanians have been occupying a dangerous salient, with one army hammering from the north while another was coming up from the Danube and its safe extrication is no mean feat of arms. Whether this intact army means make a stand before the capital remains to be seen.

"Pursuing the tactics with which we have become familiar on the west front the German official communications have been falsely announcing that our successes at Saloniki have only obtained a partial objective, but as a motive, we have won the positions desired, the Serbians and French Zouaves taking a very important hill on one wing, while the Italians won their objective on the other."

"The weather on the west front has been so vile that operations by either side of any importance has been utterly impossible."

ATTACK IN CARPATHIANS MAY HELP ROMANIANS

Petrograd, Nov. 30 (via London, Dec. 1).—A violent attack begun by the Russians in the Carpathians, if successful, is expected by military critics to relieve the pressure upon Rumania and possibly avert the crisis caused by the concentric advance on Bucharest of the three groups of the forces under Generals Falkenhayn and Mackensen. The Russian operations are directed at that portion of the front in which the Germans strove to make breach between the Russian armies and the forces defending Rumania.

Military observers say that the wedge which the Russians are reported to be driving into the Dorna Watra and Kiribaba positions is of great strategic importance. The official reports indicate that the Russians have already achieved a considerable penetration of the Teutonic lines. In Russian military opinion the logical effect of this maneuver would be the forced retirement of General Falkenhayn's forces in Transylvania.

Rumanian Retreat Halted.

London, Dec. 1.—The mention of the Rumanian communiqué of violent fighting on the Glavatzotzu river is regarded here as showing that the Rumanian retreat has halted, and that a stand is being made on that stream to contest the advance on Bucharest from the west. There is nothing to indicate, however, whether this action is intended as a final effort to save the capital or whether it is merely a cover to permit the main Rumanian forces to take positions on the Argetze river, some fifty miles further to the east.

WEALTHY MAN IS ASSASSINATED IN SAN FRANCISCO

Italian Manufacturer Believed to Have Been Victim of Black Hand Organization; Had Received Threats.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
San Francisco, Nov. 30.—Gaetano Turgrassio, a wealthy manufacturer, was shot dead on one of the main thoroughfares of San Francisco's Latin quarter during a pitched battle with three assassins, said by the police to be members of an Italian secret society.

Joe Pedone and his two nephews, Antonio and Joe Pedone, were arrested tonight and the police are investigating their supposed connections with threatening letters said recently to have been received by Turgrassio.

Antonio and Joe Pedone, the younger, were wounded by bullets from the two revolvers with which Turgrassio defended himself.

According to the story told the police by a special policeman who said he had witnessed the affray, Turgrassio was walking down the street when he was accosted by Joe Pedone who after a few words, drew a revolver and opened fire. Pedone then was joined by his two nephews, who began shooting.

Fusillade of Shots.
Turgrassio, wounded, took shelter behind a stack of crates and returned the fire. Shots were exchanged for ten minutes before Turgrassio fell to the ground, fatally wounded. Young Joe Pedone, who, when wounded, ran into a nearby house, returned at this juncture, the special policeman said, with a rifle. Running to where Turgrassio lay, he placed the muzzle to the dying man's head and fired.

The dead man's wife told the police tonight that Turgrassio had just finished his Thanksgiving dinner with his family when he was attacked. Her husband, she said, had gone heavily armed since the receipt of threatening letters recently.

Neither Antonio nor Joe Pedone was seriously wounded.

Russian Offensive Gains.
Petrograd, Nov. 30 (via London).—The new Russian offensive in the Carpathians has resulted in considerable gains. It is announced officially, heavy fighting is proceeding for possession of the important pass through the Carpathians at Kiribaba and today's announcement says the town is now within rifle range of the Russians.

MILITARY RULE PROCLAIMED IN SANTO DOMINGO TO KEEP PEACE

United States Navy Takes Charge of Condition in Little Republic for Purpose of Preserving Order.

1,800 MARINES WILL BE USED TO POLICE ISLAND

Protectorate Is Same as Established by American Government in Haiti; Change Effective Without Bloodshed

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
Washington, Nov. 30.—Military rule has been proclaimed in Santo Domingo by the United States navy to suppress existing political chaos in the little republic and pave the way for guaranteeing future quiet by establishing there such a financial and police protectorate as the American government now exercises over Haiti.

Eighteen hundred American marines will maintain order for the present, and at least until elections are held in January, their officers will supervise the conduct of government by native officials and disburse the customs revenues which American receivers have been collecting by treaty arrangement for nine years.

The navy proclamation issued yesterday apparently has been put into effect without bloodshed. It was announced here today by Secretary Daniels in the following statement:

"Capt. H. S. Knapp, in command of the United States forces in Santo Domingo, reports that in compliance with instructions received, military government has been proclaimed by him in Santo Domingo at 4 p. m., November 29. An order regarding carrying arms or having them in possession has been put in effect. Payment of salaries of government officials will be resumed immediately."

"The proclamation was well received. Conditions are reported as being normal and the great majority of the people regard the proclamation with favor."

Although no publicity has been given to the government's decision to adopt such measures, Captain Knapp's action was the result of plans carefully worked out by state and navy departments. Officials after conferences with Minister Russell, recalled from Santo Domingo for the purpose, and consideration of full reports from the naval officers on the scene.

Captain Knapp, recently sent to relieve Rear Admiral Pond in Dominican waters, carried with him complete instructions for his task.

High officials made it plain that the Washington government is determined that there shall be no renewal of the revolutions in Haiti or Santo Domingo, which for years have rendered the island a source of menace to the international relations of the United States, because of the foreign capital invested there.

ROMANIAN POSITIONS ARE UNDER PRESSURE

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
Berlin, Nov. 30 (via wireless to Sayville).—The Rumanian defensive positions in the mountain district east of the Alt river now are more and more under the increasing pressure of General von Falkenhayn's advancing army, says the Overseas News agency.

After the victory near Tiveni, on November 26, the fate of the position at Curtea de Arges, was doomed and there the monument of the late King Carol of Rumania fell into the possession of General von Falkenhayn.

In southern Wallachia General von Mackensen's armies are advancing irresistibly, continues the news agency, while in Dobruja the Bulgars, together with Turkish artillery, repulsed Russian attacks. Bucharest is declared to be changing into a war capital. Half the population have left the Rumanian capital, according to reports published by the Swiss newspaper Berner Bund, and accommodation in the trolley cars is already limited.

General Berthelot, the French military strategist with the Rumanian army, and the chief of police of Bucharest, are reported by the Lokal Anzeiger to have issued an order directing the majority of the population of the capital, especially women and children, to leave the precincts of the fortress of Bucharest within five days.

Utah Gives Wilson 50,000.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 30.—Final election returns announced today by the state canvassing board show that President Wilson carried every county in Utah and the democratic state ticket carried almost every county. The final figures give for president: Wilson 84,025, Hughes 54,133.

FUNERAL OF LATE AUSTRIAN RULER IS OCCASION FOR GRAND DISPLAY

Body of Francis Joseph Conveyed From Hofburg Chapel to St. Stevens Cathedral; Thousands Line Streets.

HEARSE SURROUNDED BY AN IMPERIAL BODYGUARD

Route Is Lined With Troops, Infantry and Cavalry; People Seek Vantage Points in Windows and on Roofs.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
London, Dec. 1.—The funeral procession of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, says a Vienna dispatch received by way of Bern, left at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon on the Hofburg special, where the body had lain in state since Monday, and traversed the streets of Vienna by a circuitous route to St. Stevens cathedral.

The hearse was drawn by eight horses and surrounded by an imperial bodyguard, lancers and pagen, bearing torches and crucifixes.

The route was lined with troops, infantry and cavalry, and tens of thousands of spectators crowded the pavements and the roofs and windows of houses. During the progress of the cortege, Emperor Charles drove direct to the cathedral, where he waited with the empress, the kings of Bulgaria, Bavaria, Saxony and Wurttemberg and nearly a hundred other members of the imperial family and other royal houses.

Cardinal Piffli, archbishop of Vienna, officiated, assisted by four cardinals, ten bishops and forty-eight priests. At the conclusion of the funeral service, Emperor Charles walked behind the coffin to the Capuchin church. This is a small edifice and only a few of the privileged were able to enter, the remainder standing outside during the final ceremony or bearing the coffin to the crypt.

The emperor, the grandmaster of the court and two chamberlains followed into the crypt and formally transferred the body to the custody of the Capuchin monks and the golden key of the coffin to the senior monk.

OFFICIALS OF EMBASSY ATTEND REQUIEM MASS

New York, Nov. 30.—Representatives of the Austro-Hungarian embassy at Washington, the Austro-Hungarian German, Spanish, Dutch, and South American consuls here, as well as many persons of German or Austrian descent, attended today a solemn requiem mass for the late Emperor Francis Joseph, in St. Patrick's cathedral. Cardinal Farley presided.

To Release Dutch Packet.

Berlin, Dec. 30 (via London).—A semi-official announcement issued today says the Dutch packet steamer Koninkgen Regentes, which was taken into Zebrugga recently by a German submarine, will be released. The announcement adds that the mail matter carried by the vessel will be detained and examined for contraband such as currency and negotiable securities. This investigation will determine whether the mails will be forwarded to their destination.

ARMY WEDDING CELEBRATED AT SAN ANTONIO

Two Former Enemies Participate, One as Groom and the Other as Best Man; Bride Is a New York Girl.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 30.—Members of truck company No. 2 of the United States army, celebrated Thanksgiving day today by attending a wedding, in which two former enemies during the Boer war participated as the groom and his best man. Standing in the truck driven by the bridegroom, Carl J. Studer was married to Alena Kendenburg of New York, the Rev. John R. Kendall, chaplain of the Second Wisconsin Infantry.

Studer was a soldier in the Boer army during the South African war and in the battle of Praderburg fought against the English command in which Nicholas Kale was a soldier. They became acquainted when they came to America to live, and whatever animosity might have existed because of past affiliations was wiped out when both took allegiance to Uncle Sam as soldiers under the Stars and Stripes, the friendship culminating today in Kale acting as best man for Studer in the ceremony at Camp Wilson.

GREECE REFUSES TO COMPLY WITH THE DEMANDS OF ENTENTE ALLIES

International Crisis Is Reached in Flat Turn-down of Ultimatum and Another Country Is Embroiled in War.

ADMIRAL DE FORNET TO TAKE IMMEDIATE STEPS

Debarcation of Troops at Port of Athens Is First Move; French Officers Expelled From Telegraph Control.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
London, Dec. 1.—The Greek government has sent a reply to Admiral de Fournet, definitely refusing his demands, according to a Reuter dispatch from Athens.

An Athens dispatch to the Daily Chronicle under date of November 30, ascribes the following statement to Vice Admiral de Fournet, in command of the allied fleet in Greek waters:

"I insist absolutely on the execution of my demands and will see that they are realized, in spite of all obstacles. French, British and Italian detachments will be landed at all points necessary. I will endeavor to avoid bloodshed, but will fulfill my mission thoroughly."

The Athens correspondent of the Daily Mail interviewed Vice Admiral de Fournet aboard his flagship, and quotes him similarly to the correspondent of the Chronicle. The admiral said that he did not intend either to raise the arms or fire upon the Greek troops, but declared that unless the guns were surrendered, he would land large detachments which would not re-embark until his demands were complied with. Other coercive measures would be taken at the same time.

"As I have most ample forces at my disposal," the admiral said, "and some of the heaviest and most powerful artillery in existence, I can see no reason why the arms will not be quietly given up."

Special dispatches from Athens dated Thursday say there is a growing state of anxiety in the city. The Greek garrison seems to have withdrawn inland, taking arms, ammunition and stores. Two regiments left during the night with artillery.

The dispatches add that there were alarm in the streets Thursday morning, due to the appearance of bands of reservists, but later it was ascertained they had been called for service. The authorities seemed to be doing their utmost to preserve order.

The hour Thursday was very firm, indicating optimism.

ALLIES ARE READY TO BEGIN LANDING TROOPS

Athens, Nov. 30 (via London, Dec. 1).—The entente allies are ready to begin the debarcation of troops at Piraeus, the port of Athens.

The Greek government has retaken control of the postoffices and the telegraph lines in Athens, expelling the French from control.

CHANCELLOR THANKED BY KAISER WILHELM

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
Berlin, Nov. 30 (by wireless to Sayville).—Emperor William sent the following telegram to Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg on the chancellor's sixtieth birthday:

"I thank you from my heart for the loyal faithfulness with which in this most perilous time you have stood at my side, giving advice and assistance. May God give you in your new year of life health and vigor for further work in the service of the king and the beloved country. May He give you and us all a final victorious end of this stormy time of struggle."

MORTALITY STATISTICS OF HUNTING SEASON

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
Chicago, Nov. 30.—Eighty-six persons were killed and forty-one injured during the hunting season in fifteen states, which closed today. The figures were compiled by the Chicago Tribune, which compares them with fifty-nine dead and sixty-six injured for last year, and 131 dead and 162 wounded for 1914.

Carelessness on the part of the hunters accounted for many of the accidents. Many of the victims were mistaken for deer. The following shows the deaths by states:

California 2, Colorado 2, Illinois 13, Indiana 3, Iowa 4, Maine 1, Michigan 23, Minnesota 12, Missouri 2, New Hampshire 1, New Jersey 4, New York 11, North Dakota 2, South Dakota 1, Wisconsin 6.

Wage Increase Announced.
Newport News, Va., Nov. 30.—An announcement was made today of a general wage increase by the Newport News Ship Building and Drydock company which will average in the neighborhood of 10 per cent. The entire increase will be in effect by the first of the year.

DIETING DOZEN DINES ON NICE ROAST CHICKEN

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
Chicago, Nov. 30.—The diet squad had no turkey today, but instead its members dined well on roast chicken and such other foods as could be purchased within the 40 cents a day limit. There was a total increase of just 20 pounds in weight since the beginning, nine days ago of the test to prove the feasibility of living on 40 cents a day. This increase was in spite of a loss of two and a half pounds since yesterday in Dr. Albert J. Stokes, the squad's heavy weight, which was accounted for only by his dismay at facing a Thanksgiving dinner without turkey.

Tomorrow's meals will be: Breakfast: Stewed fish, cereal, toast, butter, coffee.

Lunch: Boston baked beans, brown chicken, bread, cake, and date salad, tea.

Dinner: Tomato soup, baked lake trout, potatoes, baked butter, Washington cream pie, tea.

REDISTRIBUTION OF BOX CARS REQUESTED

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
Washington, Nov. 30.—(Redistribution of box cars is requested by a new order agreed upon by the railroad conference committee on car efficiency in its campaign to relieve car shortage, which is holding up freight shipments in many parts of the country.

The order, which is to be issued tomorrow, directs lines in sections where there is an excess of such equipment, to return at junction points until further notice, specified percentages of box cars in excess of the number received by them.

This action follows a series of conferences between the committee, representatives of the Interstate Commerce commission and representatives of shippers, which already has resulted in orders by the committee designed to facilitate the return of all classes of rolling stock to their owners and in the approval by the commission of a temporary scale of increased demurrage rates.

FRENCH WHEAT CROP ONLY SLIGHTLY SHORT

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
Paris, Nov. 30.—Complete official statistics of the crops in 1916 show that the wheat crop is only 3 1/2 per cent short of that of 1915, though the surface sowed was 5 per cent less. In bushels, the comparative results are: 1915, two hundred and twenty-two millions; in 1916, two hundred and fourteen millions.

The oats crop of 1916 is nearly 14 per cent heavier than that of 1915.

NEW YORK POOR LOOKED AFTER IN SPITE OF COST

Thanksgiving Dinners Provided for Thousands by Charitable Organizations; Salvation Army Boycotts Turkey.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
New York, Nov. 30.—The pinch of the high cost of turkey was felt in many homes and some public institutions, in the observance of Thanksgiving here today, and resulted in the substitution of chickens, ducks, geese, corned beef and pork. Nevertheless, a greater effort than ever before was made to provide some kind of Thanksgiving dinner for the poor.

Groups of disappointment greeted the announcement at a dinner given by the Salvation Army to 600 men, that the organization all over the country had boycotted turkey and eggs. Soup, vegetables and pie were substituted.

In most of the city institutions and hospitals turkey was supplied to the inmates. Thousands of poor men were given turkey dinners by charitable organizations.

Funds for War Sufferers.
Remembering the admonition of President Wilson to contribute funds to the relief of the people of the warring nations, collections were taken up in all of the Roman Catholic and Episcopal churches and those of some other denominations for the Red Cross or other relief organizations.

Patriotism and the spirit of internationalism found expression in many churches, where special services were held. Suggestions of a federation of the world or United States of the World were made by some of the pastors, while others warned the people of America against "fattening on the world's miseries."

CHICAGO WAGE EARNERS PASS UP TURKEY
Chicago, Nov. 30.—Substitutes for turkey had their places in many Chicago homes today. Salary earners struggling with the high cost of living decided in so many cases to eat roast beef, or pork or chicken, or ducks, that commission merchants on the eve of the national feast offered turkeys at four or five cents lower than the high mark of the day. The cost of living, however, disturbed none of the inmates of the county institutions, and turkey was served freely to the aged, the poor, the sick, the insane and the criminals.

CARRANZA TROOPS LEAVE CHIHUAHUA CITY AND FLEE TO ANCIENT JUAREZ

Ragged Survivors of the de Facto Force Engaged in Clash With Villa Make Escape to the Border Town.

REFUGEES SAY SCENES IN CAPITAL ARE AWFUL

Dead Piled High in Streets, Bodies Saturated With Oil and Torch Is Applied; Many Civilians Killed.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
Juarez, Mexico, Nov. 30.—Ancient Juarez was in the backwash of battle today. Tonight the campfires of another remnant army burn on the plains to the south. Grim, gray cannon are parked in the customs house yard, with carloads of "jerked beef" hanging from the muzzles of the guns which hurled death from their muzzles so recently.

In box cars, women camp followers of the Carranza soldiers cooked their meager meal tonight over charcoal braziers, while barefooted children—many born in battle—shivered from the cold as they hovered in the lee of the big naval guns.

Since early morning this old border town has been the scene of military activities. Soon after 7 o'clock today the first troop train brought the ragged survivors of the de facto force which had fought at Chihuahua City against Villa and had escaped to the north. Accompanying this train was a sanitary section consisting of three second class coaches and one "White Cross" hospital car. In these cars came more than 100 wounded soldiers of the Carranza command who were rescued from the heaps of dying and brought to the border by their comrades. The hospitals are filled with wounded and volunteer nurses are working to care for the officers and men who fell before the rain of bandit bullets.

The troop train which brought this surviving force to the border left Chihuahua City at 10:30 Monday morning, proceeding to a point near Terres station, where a burned bridge forced them to transfer to another train Wednesday.

Fight Four Days and Nights.
The officers of the Carranza command which for some reason was sent here, and foreign refugees who came on an earlier train, gave accounts of the four days and nights of fighting which preceded the evacuation of the capital city which are practically the same and which, placed together, give a fairly connected account of the siege of Chihuahua City.

According to these officers and refugees the scenes in Chihuahua City when they left were awful. The dead had been piled in the streets and oil poured over them and the early dawn was illuminated by these human torches, they said.

Between the cemetery and Santa Rosa hill the dead covered the streets, many having died days before and the stench, the refugees said, was so strong it was impossible to approach near. Along the streets near the railroad station and surrounding station, one refugee said, he saw many cavalry horses with carbines and sabers attached to the saddles, the Carranza cavalrymen having abandoned them in order to leave the city on the troop train. Along Zareco avenue, according to the refugees, the fighting had been fiercest and many civilians had been killed there and in other parts of the city by shell fire and rifle bullets. The houses lining this street were pitted with the bullet marks of the battle, a Syrian refugee said, and many shell holes were to be seen in the houses in the heart of the city.

Carranza Troops Flee.
All of the refugees agreed that the Carranza troops were winning during the first four days of the fighting but, either because of a shortage of ammunition or lack of morale, they abandoned the city early on the fifth morning of the battle, seeking safety in flight in all directions. The taking of Santa Rosa hill, which has always been known as the "key to Chihuahua," was said by one foreign refugee to have started the retirement of the Carranza forces which, they say, resembled a rout before the last train left. The cavalry, artillery and infantry poured down the streets leading to the station, which is north of the city proper, they said, and climbed aboard the train in a wild scramble to get away. One civilian refugee claimed Gen. Gonzalez Cuellar was responsible for the taking of Santa Rosa hill, where he was in command, as he allowed the infantry lines to be weakened. When the artillery was turned on the city, the refugee added, the moral effect was almost immediately noticeable, and the Carranza soldiers, who had been eager for battle Sunday night, dropped their rifles and fled. One refugee claimed to have seen officers have their men fighting to flee for safety. This, however, could not be verified.

It is believed by the refugees and Carranza officers that General Trevino left first for Tabulapa, south of the city and from there moved to Aldama, about twenty miles from Chihuahua.

ACUTE AND CHRONIC RHEUMATISM

The exact cause of rheumatism is unknown, though it is generally believed to be due to an excess of uric acid in the blood. It may be also said with equal truth that no remedy has been found which is a specific in all cases. In fact, the literature of rheumatism shows that there are but few drugs which have been given a trial. In the hands of a clever observer we find that a certain drug has been used with the utmost satisfaction; others have found the same remedy to be a great disappointment. All physicians however agree that every method of treatment is aided by the administration of some remedy to relieve the pain and quiet the nervous system and Dr. W. B. Schuller expresses the opinion of thousands of practitioners when he says that anti-rheumatic tablets should be given preference over all other remedies for the relief of the pain in all forms of rheumatism. These tablets can be purchased in any quantity. They also unobtrusively in headache, neuralgia and all pain. Ask for A-K Tablets.

Juliana City. Another report said the Carranza commander was at Hacienda Dolores, west of the city.

No Whiskers for Villa. One Mexican civilian refugee declared today he had seen Francisco Villa in the city Monday morning before the train left. He said Villa was walking without the aid of crutches, as if to inspire his men with confidence. His mustache was shaved off and he looked much thinner than of old.

To obtain medicines for his wounded Villa is said by this refugee to have broken into two drug stores in the city after he had penetrated the business section. Thinking this meant the beginning of looting, Villa's handbills broke into stores and private homes. The refugee said, Villa, to stop this looting, he said he gave shot two of his followers and succeeded in stopping the pillaging.

Nothing was known of the Americans by these refugees.

George Bettingham, an American, seen at the station in Chihuahua City, said foreign refugees told him he did not get away on the last train. All of the refugees agreed that there had been no killing of foreigners up to the time they left, although there were rumors that several Chinese had been killed in the Oriental part of the city.

A Brooklyn Druggist Praises the Great Kidney Remedy

I have known Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-root, kidney, liver and bladder remedy for twenty years and have heard plenty of favorable reports concerning it from my customers. They are satisfied with the results obtained from its use. I know of many cases where Swamp-root has cured those in the bladder, gall bladder, liver, stomach and blood. I have known it in my own family with good results and I heartily endorse Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-root and believe it has good curative value.

Very truly yours, stop the advance of General Maycotte's cavalry column and took no part in the capture of the city. It was reported by a refugee. He said the Villa commanders who were each given a section of the city to attack, were: Julio Acosta, who was reported to have been killed; Martin Lopez, Baudello Uribe, Juan Murra, Silvestre C. Oviedo, Mariano Tamez and Rodrigo Quevedo.

Another train is expected to reach the border from Sauz tomorrow with additional refugees and probably many more wounded soldiers and civilians from the capital. A large number are reported to have left Sauz.

Villa is said to have captured five field pieces on Santa Rosa hill, the bandits charging and shouting "Viva Villa," and singing as they charged.

General Ojuna, injured but not disabled by four bullet flesh wounds, raised out the fleeing Carranza officers from the refugee train at Sauz and made them return to his command, according to a man who says he was an eye-witness of the event. The general then announced that he was going back to Chihuahua and that neither Villa nor anyone else could stop him.

A GLORIOUS VICTORY IS CLAIM OF EL DEMOCRATA

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 30.—An extra printed by El Demócrata in Chihuahua City last Sunday afternoon, and brought to the border today by a refugee, carries the heading: "Again the Hour of Triumph Sounds for the Valiant Constitutional Forces." The sub-headings read: "The society of Chihuahua, at the cost of the blood of many brave men, has been saved a second time from looting and assassination; in these moments the hordes of Arango, seriously reduced, make their last effort to shake their thirst for rapine."

The extra, printed on one side of a single sheet, gives the history of the battle day by day. Its substance is as follows:

On the 22nd of the month, exploring forces between Chihuahua and Horcasitas, reported sighting the enemy. It said: "The bandits dismounted from their trains at Mapula and advanced toward Horcasitas, led by cavalry under Martin Lopez and Julio Acosta. General Trevino prepared his defenses and waited."

At dawn on the 23rd the artillery chief on Santa Rosa hill reported sighting large groups of cavalry. About 8:30 in the morning General Ojuna exchanged shots with them southwest of the city. The enemy did not attack formally until about 10 o'clock. The artillery on Santa Rosa went into action at 11:20. Fighting became hottest at the point held by General Maycotte, and Col. Isidro Trevino. They charged the bandits, meeting part of them hand to hand. In this action General Gandara was killed.

Gen. Jacinto Trevino and his staff headed a charge at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, in which he received a scalp and ear wound.

The artillery showed great precision and caused heavy losses to the bandits.

Fighting lasted until after dark when the bandits sieged the Church of the Sanctuary and some houses near the military hospital.

At 5 a. m. on the 24th the battle opened up with rifle and artillery fire. The bandits charged but had to fall back. The artillery continued firing until about 4:30 p. m., but the rifle fire never ceased.

At 2 a. m. on the 25th the fight grew hot in Colonia Dale, where, by the effective use of a mortar the government troops drove back the bandits to their first lines. At 7 in the morning the artillery threw shells into the houses the enemy held near the military hospital.

The battle had become general by 11 o'clock, marked by heavy Villa attacks. The garrison then regained the church of the Sanctuary and environs. (Anonim of this event, the Santa Rosa artillery sent some shells into these positions, then occupied by Carranza troops. The artillery managed to hit an automobile used by the Villa troops.

Many prisoners were taken in this fighting. Some reported that Villa kept away from the firing line, and others that he was in the automobile hit by the shells. They said also that Jose Yves Salazar and Baudello Uribe were in the fight.

On the 26th (Sunday), after a sharp rifle fire throughout the night, a general battle opened at dawn. At 2:30 p. m. (the time El Demócrata goes to press), the bandits were still unable to penetrate the Carranza lines.

El Demócrata said that the constitutional leaders assured the people that, owing to the heavy losses of the enemy, far exceeding their own, there was every prospect of Villa giving up the attempt. They considered victory, in fact, already assured the defenders.

WOUNDED SOLDIERS ARE BROUGHT TO JUAREZ

Juarez, Mex., Nov. 30.—Wounded Carranza soldiers were seen early today in a second-class passenger coach in the Juarez railroad yards. On a number of flat cars in the same yards were seen twenty-six field pieces which are believed to have belonged to Trevino's forces.

The wounded were also brought north to the border at the same time. Hospital supplies were hurried to the improvised Red Cross car today and Mexican physicians were in attendance on the wounded.

A train was being made up in the Juarez yards today to go south. It is expected to bring additional refugees and wounded soldiers to the border here.

Governor Francisco Trevino came north with a troop train which succeeded in leaving the city before daylight. The train went to a place near Sauz, where the railroad line was cut, the refugees said, and Gen. Carlos Ojuna, was in command of the fleeing troops, but returned yesterday with his command and went toward Chihuahua City. Between forty and fifty foreigners, including Americans, came on the train. They were unable to state whether any Americans or other foreigners were killed in Chihuahua City.

Sergeant Lorenzo Suarez, who was in the brigade of Gen. Pedro Cordona in the Chihuahua City battle, and who came to Juarez on the incoming train, said Villa's successful attack was made along Zarco avenue, early Monday morning. Immediately after forcing their way along the avenue, the bandits stormed and captured Santa Rosa hill, dominating the city and on which the Carrancista artillery had been placed, said Suarez.

The non-commissioned officers said that as soon as it was seen Villa held Santa Rosa hill, the Trevino army evacuated the city in haste. He said about 10,000 troops escaped in two divisions, one coming north over the Mexican Central and the other straggling east along the Mexican Northwest. He did not know whether Villa captured any of Trevino's artillery.

Other Carrancista officers in the Chihuahua City battle who reached Juarez today were Lieut. Col. Manuel Morales, in charge of the artillery; Martinez Perez, in charge of the hospital car, and Captains Carlos F. Sandoval and Joaquin Velazquez de la Cardenas.

Another arrival in Juarez today was the elderly mayor of Parral, Jose de la Luz Herrera, who had come by way of Santa Rosa, having left Parral some days before Villa captured that town. He said the de facto government would not now be in its present plight were the embargo on munition shipments from the United States not in effect. He added he was informed Gen. Francisco Murguía, from Santa Rosalia, with 10,000 de facto troops, were expected to reach Chihuahua City today.

Carranza officers who came here with the military train from the south at 7 a. m. today, reported General Juarez to have been at Bachimba Sunday. He was moving on Chihuahua at that time, they said. A report here that General Murguía was attacking Chihuahua City was not confirmed at military headquarters. Another report brought by Carranza officers on this troop train was that General Trevino was at Aldama, thirty miles east of Chihuahua with a column of men.

Refugees from Chihuahua City who arrived last night, reported looting by bandits when they left Monday morning. They said it had been reported to them that two large dry goods stores had been looted by Villa bandits. They also asserted that bandits had fired into the train in which they were leaving the city.

Juarez, Mex., Nov. 30.—George Brittingham, one of the six American citizens in Chihuahua City, was alive when the refugee train left that city Wednesday, but was unable to board the train and returned to a place of hiding in the city. Brittingham missed the last train leaving Chihuahua City. This is the word brought to the border by a Syrian refugee who arrived on the refugee train this morning. Brittingham was the only American he saw before leaving.

General Gonzales at military headquarters today said that he had received a report from Carranza officers that General Murguía was at Horcasitas, south of Chihuahua City, yesterday, and was advancing rapidly toward the city. He added that General Ojuna had reached Nombre de Dios, a small settlement northwest of the city, and was re-organizing the bandits, according to a message received today. He also said he had received information that General Trevino was at Hacienda Dolores, west of Chihuahua City.

General Trevino was at Hacienda

Sleeper and Chair Car of Southbound Passenger Train Leave Track and Roll Into Ditch; Broken Rail Cause.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE).—Santa Fe, Tex., Nov. 29.—Five persons were injured, more or less seriously, shortly before noon today, when the sleeper and chair car of a southbound passenger train on the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient railway left the tracks and rolled into a ditch near Maryneal. The accident is said to have been due to a broken rail.

SWINNEY MAY CONTEST ELECTION OF WAGNER

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL).—Santa Fe, Nov. 30.—The state canvassing board in session at the capital today got as far as Mora county, and finished one-half of that county. While discrepancies of one or two votes were found here and there, there they practically balanced each other and make no difference in the report thus far announced.

It is reported that J. L. G. Swinney, democratic candidate for superintendent of public instruction, has been advising with United States Senator-elect A. A. Jones and District Attorney Summers Burkhardt, as to the advisability of bringing a contest if it should be officially announced that his opponent, J. H. Wagner, has been elected, as now appears on the face of the returns.

Dolores, west of Chihuahua City.

Included among the wounded brought to Juarez today were Colonel Marquez and Colonel Matos, both of General Ojuna's cavalry column, who were wounded during the fighting in Chihuahua City. General Gonzales met the column which accompanied the military train bearing the wounded to Juarez. These Carranza soldiers probably will return south late today. It was reported by a Carranza official here today that Carranza forces still are in possession of the penitentiary at Chihuahua City, awaiting help after the junction of Generals Trevino and Murguía south of the city.

One refugee reported that Villa forces took Santa Rosa hill early Monday morning, giving Villa the key to the city. The reason that Santa Rosa hill was taken, they said was because the Carranza infantry forces were removed from the first line trenches in front of Santa Rosa hill to be thrown against Villa forces on the north of the city. This, they said, permitted Villa to send his forces up the hill and capture the cannon.

General Ojuna is said to have fought desperately during the four days' battle, Carranza officers said. General Gonzales is reported to have supplied him with a car of ammunition, which he took south on a military train Tuesday morning.

Included in the artillery brought to Juarez on the military train were two ship cannons which were mounted on flat cars and which had stationary heavy steel bases. It was reported here that this artillery and the Carranza forces which came to Juarez on the military train will return late today to Sauz, after receiving supplies and ammunition. Carranza officers are leaving the wounded in hospitals here.

To Probe Food Cost.

Helen, Mont., Nov. 29.—The Helena Trades and Labor assembly, representing 27 unions and 1,400 working men and women of this city, named a special committee today to investigate the greatly increased cost of foodstuffs and consider the calling of a public mass meeting with a view to forming a "boycott league." This organization will have for its purpose the boycott of all articles of food which have risen to what is considered "an unreasonable price."

$60,000 LIBEL SUIT KEEPS ON GRINDING AWAY

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE).—Red Oak, Iowa, Nov. 30.—W. R. McCaull, witness for former State Senator F. F. Jones, plaintiff in a $60,000 libel suit against J. N. Wilkerson, a detective of Kansas City, charged with circulating rumors connecting Jones with the "Jax murders" of eight members of the Moore family at Villisca, Iowa, in 1912, denied under cross-examination the witness stand today that he had conferred with A. V. Jones, son of the plaintiff on the night of the murders; that an automobile was given him "as a present" by Jones; that he was at Grant, Iowa, the morning after the murders.

Mrs. Alice Willard previously testified McCaull was one of the five men who saw conferring on the corner of the Moore lot the night of the murder and that A. V. Jones was another. McCaull vehemently denied this.

McCaull admitted he told Wilkerson after the murders he could "prove" an alibi for himself the night of the murders, but not for his automobile. The car, it was brought out in previous testimony, had been taken from the garage the night of the murders, but it could not be traced after leaving the garage.

The contention of the defense was that money was paid to the murderer the following morning on a farm north of Grant.

FRUGALITY TO BE WATCHWORD AS TO RATIONS

Germans Will Go Through the Winter Without Much Change in Present Allowance; Potatoes Reduced.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE).—Berlin, Nov. 29 (via London, Nov. 30).—The Germans will go through the winter without change in their present rations of important foodstuffs, except a reduction in the potato rations, according to authoritative information furnished the Associated Press on the food situation from the war nutrition bureau. This shows that while supplies at various times would in themselves, perhaps, justify an increase, it has been determined to adhere to the present allowances of 250 grammes of bread daily, 250 grammes of meat and 90 grammes of fat weekly, and 250 grammes of sugar monthly, and use any surplus, either accumulation or reserve for the hard laboring classes, such as miners and foundry men.

The grain harvest shows an excess of 50,000,000 tons over last year, but two years' experience has proved that the present ration is adequate and that it will, therefore, be unnecessary to increase it. Oil produced from home-grown sources, such as beech-nuts, sunflower seeds, fruit pits and similar products, can, for the same reason, not be used for the general civilian population, although considerable stocks from beech-nuts alone, for example, 500,000 quarts of salad oil, have been saved from these hitherto untutilized sources.

ARCHBOLD VERY ILL FOLLOWING AN OPERATION

Standard Oil Magnate in Critical Condition at Home in Tarrytown; Rockefeller Postpones Contemplated Trip.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE).—Tarrytown, N. Y., Nov. 30.—John D. Archbold, president of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey and active head of the Standard Oil interests, is dangerously ill at his home here, although his condition is somewhat better tonight than it was twenty-four hours ago.

Mr. Archbold was operated on for appendicitis a week ago, and for a time seemed to rally from the effects of the operation, but later suffered a relapse. The five physicians who have been attending him since his illness began, decided yesterday that blood transfusion must be resorted to if his strength was to be restored.

Wife Collapses.

Mrs. Archbold was reported tonight to have collapsed under the strain of her husband's illness, and to be under a physician's care.

John D. Rockefeller, who had planned to go today to Lakewood, N. J., postponed his trip because of Mr. Archbold's condition.

John F. Archbold said tonight that his father's condition appeared to be about the same as it had been since the blood transfusion operation was performed.

HOW TO REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT

A SIMPLE, SAFE, RELIABLE WAY.

People who are over-burdened with superfluous fat, know only too well the discomfort and ridicule that overtight people have to bear.

If you are carrying around five or ten pounds of unhealthy fat you are unnecessarily weakening your vital organs and are carrying a burden which destroys the beauty of your figure.

There is no need of anyone suffering from superfluous fat. If you want to reduce your weight in a simple, safe and reliable way, without starvation diet or tiresome exercise, here is a test worth trying. Spend as much time as you can in the open air, breathe deeply and get from any good druggist a box of oil of Kola capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself once a week so as to know just how fast you are losing weight and don't leave off the treatment or even skip a single dose until you are down to normal.

Oil of Kola is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, and helps digestion. Even a few days treatment has been reported to show noticeable reduction in weight, footstep become lighter, your work seem easier and a lighter and more buoyant feeling takes possession of your whole being. Every person who suffers from superfluous fat should give this treatment a trial. Butts, Inc., can supply you.

OPTIMISM IS FELT AS TO LIVESTOCK EPIDEMIC

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE).—Kansas City, Nov. 30.—Optimism was evinced by federal and state livestock experts today regarding the condition of cattle here, suffering from an infection which it was feared might develop into foot and mouth disease.

No further symptoms were noticed in the infected herd nor was there any development in the calves, horses and swine inoculated with virus taken from the suspected animals.

"Conditions look extremely hopeful," was the way an expert expressed himself. "However, we still are taking all the necessary precautions and preparing for the worst while hoping for the best."

Veterinarians announced that in case no further development was noticed by a jury in the district court on Saturday they would be satisfied that the infection was other than foot and mouth disease.

Convicted of Seduction.

East Las Vegas, N. M., Nov. 30.—Juan Lujan of Sabinosa was convicted by a jury in the district court on a charge of seduction. Josefa Martinez, the complaining witness, is of a good family, as is Lujan. The defendant has asked for a new trial. Jose Perera and Meliton Apodaca are on trial for the theft of a horse from Dolores Garcia. The theft is said to have occurred at Chaperito.

Dr. Crile's Address to Teachers at State Convention a Notable Effort

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL.
Santa Fe, Nov. 30.—The address of Dr. A. D. Crile, of Roswell, delivered on the closing day of the New Mexico Educational association is considered one of the most notable of the entire convention. Dr. Crile's theme, "The Utilitarian School," and his remarks were as follows:

The citizens of New Mexico submit to a taxation for the purpose of educating their children in the greatest possible efficiency. This tax is collected from persons in all walks of life. The day laborer, the miner, the farmer, the tradesman, the stockman, the merchant, the banker, all contribute toward this most worthy and excellent fund. I submit that it is a fair proposition that all the different vocations which contribute toward the education of their children should have a return benefit to their own particular vocations. The free school system of our country was originated in a time and under circumstances that are very different from our present situation. When the schools were first started in the east the "Three R's" composed about all the knowledge that was necessary to be imparted to the youth. Applied sciences were unknown. The craftsman need only to be able to build a square or oblong house one or two stories high. Great bridges, machinery, factory equipments were then practically unknown. Today the "Three R's" are but a minor part of the training toward efficiency. In the early days the study of the classics and of the "dead languages" were held in high esteem because of the preparation of men for the learned professions. This, however, constituted but a small per cent of the total number of youths who either were or should have been trained. Today the greater part of our youths must understand applied sciences, mechanics, contemporary history, and have a knowledge of the entire world before they stand in the same relation toward society as did the pioneer children with their knowledge of the three R's. The notion of the culture school of the early days has intruded itself altogether too much on our present ideas of education. The curriculum of our primary school is now very full. The lessons taught in reading are almost ideal, and lead a child into a love of nature. The use of the hand in sketching and drawing develops the mind in a practical manner.

Are we doing all that we should for the eight out of ten boys and girls who quit school at fourteen to sixteen years of age? Again, are we doing the best possible for those who continue in the secondary schools? I submit that every farmer's boy that attends school to fifteen years of age ought to be taught some of the fundamental principles of agriculture, of stock raising, not sufficient, indeed, to make him thorough, but sufficient to inspire in him the desire to learn more and later in life to make available the tremendous amount of valuable work accomplished in our agricultural colleges, experiment stations, and the department of agriculture at Washington. Every girl that leaves school at fifteen years of age ought to have some of the simpler lessons of the culinary art, and home-making in general.

The Secondary School.
When we consider the secondary school we are still confronted with the curriculum requiring from two to four years of study of the dead languages, and at least one year to the study of ancient history, all of which I contend might be omitted except in certain instances. The argument in favor of the study of Latin and Greek is first, that it affords a mental discipline. A discipline afforded by the conjugation of the verbs in the dead languages is in no way superior to the bringing off of a trial balance in the modern system of bookkeeping. With all the formulas necessary to be committed in the modern development of sciences, the argument of mental discipline, I take, is of no consequence today. Again it is argued that the study of Latin and Greek develops in the pupil a high regard for law and order. That the study of Greek develops an aesthetic taste and an ethical training. I submit that the best morals that the Greek nation ever afforded and crystallized into dogmatic statements are not compatible with any modern statements of right and wrong and of proper conventional conduct. As for the notion of law in the Roman nation, as it may be reflected in the Latin lessons, it is not in keeping with our present notion of the supremacy of law and is far inferior to the great Pain in Back of Neck Often Denotes Kidney Weakness.

Symptoms of kidney trouble are various, but pain in back of neck and dull, aching feelings in small of back are to be looked for.

Simply by realizing that these distresses are often the onset or signals of kidney trouble it is well to get rid of them immediately by taking a little "Anuric" with the meals. In this way it is dissolved with the food and finally reaches the kidneys, where it has a tonic effect.

"Anuric" was recently discovered by Doctor Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., where it has been thoroughly tested in his Invalids' Hotel. Many can at once associate Dr. Pierce with his great tonic, "Golden Medical Discovery," and his "Favorite Prescription," universally known as an invigorator for womanly ills.

Kidney, Bladder and Uric Acid troubles bring misery to many. When the kidneys are weak or diseased, these natural filters do not cleanse the blood sufficiently, and the poisons are carried to all parts of the body. These follow depression, aches and pains, heaviness, drowsiness, irritability, headaches, chilliness and rheumatism. In some people there are sharp pains in the back and joints, distressing bladder disorders and sometimes obstinate dropsy. The uric acid sometimes forms into gravel or kidney stones. When the uric acid affects the muscles and joints, it causes lumbago, rheumatism, gout or sciatica.

Some one daily offers his or her words of praise of "Anuric." Here is what Mr. Chas. R. Zampich has to say:

"I was troubled with rheumatism for a long time. Just as soon as the weather changes it bothers me. It attacks my legs and in through the shoulder blades. Kidneys were congested. Recently I used 'Anuric,' and am pleased to say it has relieved me wonderfully."

Get in the drug store and get "Anuric," or send Dr. Pierce 10c for trial package.

EXPERIMENTS IN LAMB FEEDING WILL AID THE FARMERS

Two Hundred Head at State Agricultural College to Be Run in Old Fields for Six Weeks.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL.

State College, N. M., Nov. 30.—Lamb feeding experiments which are expected to be of great aid to the farmers of New Mexico, are now in progress at the State Agricultural College. The experiments will consist of running two hundred head of lambs in old fields for six weeks. The lambs are to be run in old fields from which corn has been taken off. The experiments are for the purpose of determining what a farmer wastes in having his fields turned off instead of running sheep on them. The information compiled in the experiments is to be printed in a bulletin, which will be distributed to the farmers before spring. It is planned to run the lambs in the fields for six weeks, feeding them very little grain at the end of which time they will be put on full rations and fattened.

Steer Experiments.

Professor Foster has also purchased a number of yearling steers, to be used at the college in connection with the final experiments in steer feeding, which have been conducted for several years past. The experiments with two, three and four-year-old steers have been practically completed. With a view to determining feeding facts with reference to yearling steers raised in the dry farming belts, Professor Foster recently obtained several yearlings in the eastern part of the state, which are to be fed at the Tucuman dry farming experiment station, operated by the United States department of agriculture, the New Mexico Agricultural College, on operating. Information derived from the experiments at Tucuman will be available at the state institution.

Important experiments are being successfully carried forward at the college in wheat, oats and barley. Some one hundred varieties of grain have been under observation. Many varieties have been eliminated as not adapted to New Mexico conditions. Other varieties which indicate adaptability, and believed to be of superior value to New Mexico climate and soil conditions, are to be recommended to the farmers. The grain experiments apply especially to irrigated regions, although information is being compiled covering various conditions. In the agronomy department, arrangements have been completed to begin the 1917 beet sugar tests in January. Beginning January 1, beets will be planted every fifteen days until June 1. In 1916 the experiments were started on February 1 and planting continued until October 1. The 1916 tests proved satisfactory. Many of the plants containing high percentages of sugar. The Colorado beet people were sufficiently encouraged by the demonstrations to authorize the purchase of a factory site at Las Cruces. The site, which is actually within the corporate limits of the town, has been excluded for the purpose of encouraging the development of the industry, to the extent that city taxes will not be required of the promoters of the project. It is understood that delay in shipping the necessary machinery will be the only thing that will prevent the erection and commencement of operations of the factory in the spring.

Cotton Bulletin.

Prof. E. L. Stewart, head of the agronomy department, is preparing a bulletin on cotton growing in New Mexico. During the last year extensive experiments have been carried on in cotton culture. Some thirty varieties of cotton have formed the basis for the experiments. Ten varieties have given promise of being suitable for the Mesilla valley as profit producers. The cotton industry is quite well established in the Carlsbad district in the eastern part of the state. The experiments in cotton will be continued during 1917. Better Plowing.

Considerable attention is being given to a bulletin on plowing which will be ready for distribution before spring. The question has been often discussed in connection with New Mexico land conditions whether the old method of letting the land lie until spring, and then go in with the plow and drop the seed behind the plow by hand using a heavy drag, followed by irrigation, is desirable, or whether the so-called new method, the new method is plowing in the fall, and then double-discing, getting the land in condition for planting with a seeder in the spring.

Portales Poultry Show.

R. B. Thompson, poultry agent, and E. W. Latta, dairy expert, are to make a tour of counties in the eastern part of the state soon. Mr. Thompson will go to Carlsbad and Artesia, and later will be joined by Mr. Latta at the poultry show in Portales.

STIRRING FIGHT TAKES PLACE IN CLOSING HOURS OF CONVENTION

Resolution by Dr. Boyd to Provide for Appointment of School Superintendent by Governor Causes Argument.

COMPROMISE IS MADE ON FOUR-YEAR TERM

State Unit Idea Finds Ready Support With Educators; Was First Suggested by Rupert F. Asplund.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL)

Santa Fe, Nov. 30.—In the closing hours of the educational convention, a stirring fight took place over a number of resolutions read for the resolutions committee by Dr. David R. Boyd, chairman, and embodying some of the recommendations made by various section meetings. No less than five amendments to the state constitution were suggested, but one of these was voted down or rather modified, after spirited debate.

This was a resolution asking for a constitutional amendment that "the state superintendent of public instruction shall be appointed by the governor for the same as other experts." An amendment that the appointing be done by the state board of education, failed also. Finally, it was agreed to recommend an amendment providing for the election, but that the term of office shall not be less than four years with eligibility for re-appointment.

County Superintendents.

However, when it came to county superintendents, the educational association asks the legislature to make them appointive, or rather to submit a constitutional amendment to that effect and it wants them appointed "on their educational and administrative qualifications, the same as city superintendents are selected, and that the term of office shall be extended to four years with eligibility for re-appointment." A motion that the qualifications include a first-grade certificate, five years of actual teaching experience, at least one of those five years in the rural districts, was given short shrift and was ignominiously cast aside with scorn.

The proposition that "the legislature submit to the people an amendment to the constitution prohibiting the sale or manufacture of alcoholic liquors," was adopted by rising vote, only one teacher remaining seated. The equal suffrage resolution, however, did not go through so unanimously, but carried by a heavy majority nevertheless. The fifth constitutional amendment suggested, asking for the complete installation of the budget system in the administration of the fiscal affairs of the state and particularly as they apply to the maintenance of the educational system.

NOTICE OF PUBLICATION. Department of the Interior, U. S. Land Office at Santa Fe, New Mexico, Nov. 8, 1916.

Notice is hereby given that Wallace Burke, of Albuquerque, New Mexico, who, on October 25, 1906, made homestead, No. 311967, to NE 1/4 NE 1/4 and NE 1/4 SE 1/4, Section 10, Township 3 N., Range 3 E., N. M. P. Meridian, has filed notice of intention to make five year proof, to establish claim to the land above described, before George R. Craig, U. S. Commissioner, at Albuquerque, New Mexico, on January 5, 1917.

Claimant names as witnesses: F. J. Williams, Antonio Sanchez, Juan Garcia and Frank Martin, all of Albuquerque, New Mexico.

term of the state," carried unanimously.

State Unit Idea.

Legislative recommendation of the state unit idea, first advanced by Rupert F. Asplund, carried without dissent, to the astonishment of everyone. The legislature is asked to pass the necessary laws to put it into effect so that every child in the state shall have equal opportunity to obtain an education.

There was some discussion of the proposition for an amendment "providing for a change in the method of voting as to the place of meeting, providing for a ballot by mail or by some other adequate means whereby the voting shall be done only by bona-fide members of the association."

For some years it has been felt that the choosing of the convention city and the election of officers during the excitement of the convention, and at a time when hundreds of teachers, even though in the city, are too much occupied to give thought to the matter or even to vote, is not the best method that might be devised. It is even more apparent that the adoption of momentous resolutions during the closing hours of the convention, is also illogical and unfair. Less than a hundred teachers were in attendance when the resolutions were adopted and even these hurried through them because it was time for the evening meal before the last resolution was read. The suggestion as made above was finally ratified and may lead to a satisfactory solution of the problem.

Supervisors of Education.

The convention put itself on record as favoring the appointment of county supervisors of education with pay by the county superintendent; for an increase of contingent expenses allotted to the department of education; for the election of school officials and boards to be held in fall instead of spring, but at a different time than the general election; for appointment by the governor of a business or professional man and of a city superintendent under the state board of education; for a teachers' pension act and the granting of a million acres of the public lands to provide a teachers' retirement fund. In this connection, a resolution was adopted condemning the present practice "of selling and leasing school lands in large bodies," and asking for the creation of a commissioner of education who would look after the administration of the school lands in the interest of the schools.

One resolution, rather vague, asks "that immediate provision be made by legislation for the elimination of illiteracy from the state of New Mexico by 1920."

The customary resolutions of thanks and confidence were adopted, including an "appropriation of the intelligent and effective efforts of Governor W. C. McDonald during his administration for education," as well as commendation of "the progress and development made in the educational affairs of the state under the administration of Hon. Alvan N. White."

The Boy Scouts and the scoutmaster were thanked at length for their service as guides and in helping to entertain the teachers. In this connection the recommendation of the People's League for universal physical training in the public schools, was adopted unanimously.

Oratorical and Declamatory Contests. Again the wisdom of holding the oratorical and declamatory contests in their present form, was under discussion. Many teachers spoke in favor of substituting a debate for the oratorical contest and of simplifying the method of grading the various contestants. It was made clear, however, that in any form the contests are decidedly worth while for the participants and that the awarding of a medal is but a mere incident. In the contest last night one of the judges on thought and composition of the high school oratorical section, had failed to send in his marks and their receipt may possibly change the relative standing of the Albuquerque and Tucuman contestants, who were awarded first and second place respectively. The judges on thought and composition in that contest were: Rev. B. Z. McCollough of Santa Fe, Rev. Ray Spots Dorn of East Las Vegas, and Judge Emmett Patton of Roswell. The judges on delivery were: Supreme Court Justice Richard H. Hanna, County Superintendent H. H. Errett of Union county, and County Superintendent E. E. Pack of Tucuman.

In the college section, Chief Justice Clarence J. Roberts, Rupert F. Asplund and Dean Brackett of the University of Colorado, judged on thought and composition, while Hon. A. A. Jones, Frank Staplin and Rev. Mr. Riley of Phoenix, Ariz., judged the delivery.

In the declamatory section, Paul A. F. Walter, Mrs. B. Z. McCollough and State Senator Melvin T. Dunlavy were the judges. One of the difficulties encountered was the system of marking provided for by the section of the association having the contests in charge. Figured out on the relative standing given each contestant by each judge, the result was quite different than by the elaborate system of percentages which is employed simultaneously, so that a contestant who stands first by the former method may be third or fourth under the other system. Each contestant also appears in a different way to each judge and to the audience, so that an audience is seldom

Superintendent Alvan N. White Tells of the Needs of New Mexico Schools

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL)

Santa Fe, Nov. 30.—In his address to the institute workers' section of the New Mexico Educational association delivered last Thursday, Superintendent of Public Instruction Alvan N. White said:

During the time that I have been in office, I have acted as chairman of this section of association and have on each occasion given you a preliminary statement of the work of our county institutes, together with such suggestions for improvement as seem to me appropriate and wise. The past summer New Mexico made the most splendid showing in the matter of institute and normal school attendance, interest manifested, and general enthusiasm and improvement along all institute lines. About 830 teachers attended the two summer normal schools and the total attendance at the various county institutes was 1,438, of a grand total of 2,263 teachers who availed themselves of institute and normal school attendance. I have been pleased to note that, during each year I have been in office, fewer teachers ask to be excused from institute attendance.

Since the department of education accepts institute or normal school attendance outside of the state in lieu of institute attendance in New Mexico, many of our teachers must this requirement of law by attending standard normal schools and institutes without the state. Holders of life certificates are required to attend institute or summer normal school once in three years. It may be said, therefore, that approximately 2,500 teachers attended institute or summer normal school in this and other states during the past summer. In two counties, Taos and Rio Arriba, six weeks' institutes were held and in one county, Santa Fe, an eight weeks' institute was held. This was deemed advisable by the county superintendent of these counties in order to give increased advantage to the teachers of these counties, who wish to raise the grade of their certificates and I am pleased to note that the result in the improvement of certificates was gratifying to all concerned. Much credit must be given to the county superintendents of these counties for the extra time, ability and energy so willingly given to the additional institute period.

Eight Weeks Institute.

In this connection, a good many of the educational people of the state have suggested to me that it might not be a bad plan to hold an eight weeks' institute in many of our counties, where it seems not yet possible for the majority of the teachers to attend an eight weeks' summer normal school. During the past summer, three counties, Luna, Grant and Sier, waived their county institutes and combined same with the State Normal School at Silver City. San Miguel county also waived her institute and united with the Normal university at Las Vegas. As a rule the teachers of these counties attended the full term of these normal schools, which was undoubtedly an advantage to them. One of the principle evidences of growth in our county institutes has been the employment of instructors in special subjects, such as music, drawing, primary methods, physical culture, manual training and other industrial subjects. Specialists in these subjects have done much to enthrall and increase the attendance and efficiency of county institutes.

For the first time, one county, Roosevelt, held the teachers' examination prior to the opening of the institute. The judges on thought and composition, last evening was marked first by one judge, third by another and fifth by the third, while the audience felt that the Albuquerque contestant and the Normal university representative had by far the best of it. It is believed by the time that the convention meets again, a better system of judging and marking will have been worked out.

Music a Feature.

The music at both the contests was excellent. The Albuquerque high school octette pleased very much with its finished rendition of difficult and attractive selections, several of the voices in the aggregation being nothing short of phenomenal for their timber and sweetness. A. W. Beckner of Santa Fe, accompanied by Miss Evelyn McBride on the piano, gave several solo selections that were roundly encored. The New Mexico Normal university glee club, as always, was applauded enthusiastically.

Already Supreme Court Justice R. H. Hanna, president of the Chamber of Commerce, is rallying his forces to plan for the entertainment of next year's convention. Santa Fe is now assured two big events in 1917, the dedication of the new Museum building, an event that will be national and even international in its importance and is expected to bring thousands of people; and the 1917 Educational convention. In view of this, the plans for a new hotel are taking new form and a number of local improvements are planned that will make Santa Fe doubly attractive.

Dr. Frank H. H. Roberts reported for the committee on necrology, pronouncing an eulogy upon the late County School Superintendent David Martinez of Valverde; H. R. Scott, superintendent at Gibson; Louisa Valandigham of Domingue; and Carolyn Parks of Cuervo.

Miss Sadie O'Byrne Married.

East Las Vegas, N. M., Nov. 30.—Word has been received here of the marriage of Miss Sadie O'Byrne, formerly of Las Vegas, to Mr. H. D. Noonan, at Kansas City a few days ago. Mrs. Noonan is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James O'Byrne, and owns considerable property here.

Elks' Lodge of Sorrow.

East Las Vegas, N. M., Nov. 20.—The annual memorial service for departed members of the Las Vegas lodge of Elks will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Elks' lodge room. O. A. Larragoitia, a member of the lodge will give the principal address of the day.

I watched the result of this examination with a good deal of interest, as it had been commonly known that the holding of examinations at the close of institute influences the teachers to "crave" for such examinations, often to the neglect of the professional training and inspiration which they should otherwise receive in an institute. There were fifty-three teachers who took the examination in this county prior to the institute and only eight teachers of this county took examination at the October examination, only four of the last named failed in the first examination, whereas in several of the other counties teachers had two or more opportunities for examination; with the understanding that the highest grades made in any examination taken in the summer would constitute the final grade for certification. In fact, there was a lower percentage of failures, all things considered, in this county with its one examination and that held prior to the institute, than in any other county of the state, which would seem to indicate that it is the part of wisdom to hold the examination prior to the institute and then leave the teachers free to pursue the studies of their selection during the institute period. By adopting this plan the number of examinations for the summer could be reduced, thus lightening the work of the state department of education, the expenses of the examination and making our institutes more efficient in meeting the actual academic and professional needs of the teachers.

The New Mexico Plan.

I have heretofore given much thought and consideration to the institute plans followed in other states, in an endeavor to satisfy myself whether or not New Mexico's plan was meeting fully the conditions of the state. In some states, the institutes are held for a five-days' period, at some time during the school term, when teachers are allowed to dismiss their schools without suspension of pay, and come together in a professional and inspirational institute. There is an advantage in this plan since it is less expensive to the teacher and he is expected to return to his school with the new ideas and instruction fresh in his mind. Another advantage would be the more attendance by representatives from the state department of education and our higher institutions of learning. It is now impossible to attend many of the summer institutes for the reason that there are sometimes as many as ten institutes running at the same time, at widely distant points. Another matter which comes to my mind is the consolidation of the institutes in two or more counties, where it is possible to do so. This may be done under our present law if the county superintendents in such counties desire to do so, and the state superintendent of public instruction deems it expedient. No such consolidation of institutes has been made during my administration. I trust to see this plan tried out in the near future, for it is only by trying the various plans that we may arrive at what is best to be done.

I had hoped to have the reports from all county superintendents, both statistical and financial, that I might make some comparison as to relative expenses and attendance. However, I have reports from only sixteen counties as follows: Bernalillo county expended on the institute the sum of $570.28; Chavez, $342.92; Colfax, $645.59; Curry, $209.75; Dona Ana, $408.40; Eddy, $516.53; Grant, $200; McKinley, $82; Otero, $212.95; Sandoval, $117.20; San Miguel, $350; Santa Fe, $384.67; Sierra, $75; Socorro, $105; Torrance, $345; Valencia, $359.88.

There should be no objection to the amount of expenses incurred, provided actual results are obtained. It is my hope that the papers and discussions of the advantages of an eight weeks' institute, the relative time to be devoted to academic and professional subjects, the suggestions as to the time of holding county institutes, and the plan for teachers doing the reading circle work in a body during the institute, now to follow, will prove of worth to the future institutes to be held in this state. To all those who have worked with me during the past five years to make our institutes more efficient, I now extend my full appreciation and many thanks.

BREAK A CHILD'S COLD BY GIVING SYRUP OF FIGS

Cleanses the little liver and bowels and they get well quick.

When your child suffers from a cold don't wait; give the little stomach, liver and bowels a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When croup, croupiness, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all clogged-up, constipated, waste, sour bile and indigestible food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. If your child coughs, snuffles and has caught cold or is feverish or has a sore throat give a good dose of "California Syrup of Figs," to evacuate the bowels no difference what other treatment is given. Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given to-day saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

Notes of Interest From State Museum

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL)

Santa Fe, Nov. 30.—Miss E. Myrtle Flint and Berenice Palmer, both of Albuquerque, today became members of the New Mexico Archaeological society.

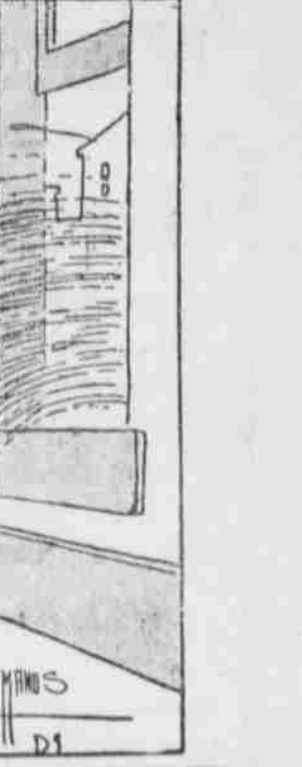

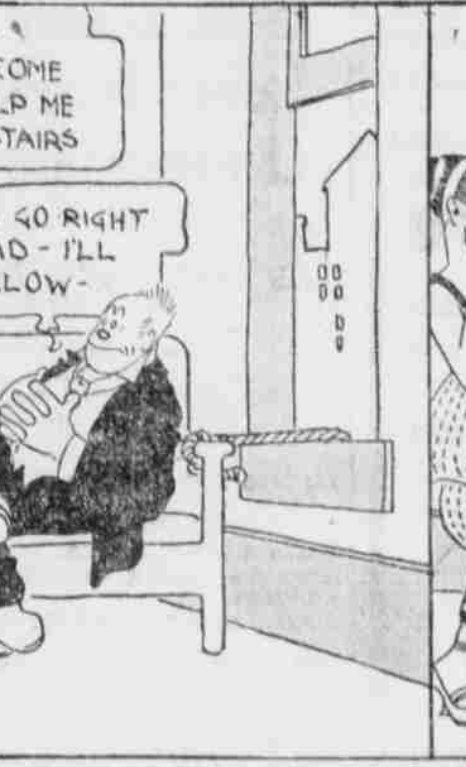

Isidoro Armijo, chief clerk of the state senate and member of the constitutional convention, today presented to the State Museum the signatures to the constitutional convention, not in fac simile, but the actual autographs, and a copy of the edition de luxe of the constitution, with fac simile signatures, printed for each member of the convention. Miss Clara Olson, executive secretary for all the governors of the state and territory since Governor Otero, who appointed her, presented the Museum with two photographs of the San Miguel church and the oldest house, before they were renovated and changed to their present appearance. The paintings of English artists which have been delayed in transit across the Atlantic have arrived at Albuquerque, where E. Knight, the brother of Harold Knight, one of the famous artists represented, is making arrangements for their exhibit. They will first go to Dallas and then will come to Santa Fe, where the first exhibit of this group of English artists was much appreciated. In the exhibit this year besides Mr. and Mrs. Knight, Harold Harvey, R. M. Hedges and C. W. Simpson are represented, all of them having pictures in the leading English and Canadian and several Continental galleries. In the exhibit that is coming are both watercolors and oils, several of the watercolors being of the largest size. The exhibit will be made one of the special events during the legislative session.

"On the Trail of the Spanish Pioneers" will be the illustrated lecture to be given before the Santa Fe Society of the Archaeological Institute.

NEWSPAPERS IN BUFFALO BOOST SELLING PRICE

Cost of White Paper, Ink and Metals Given as Reason; Publishers Confronted by a Serious Problem.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 30.—All the English newspapers of the city are to increase their selling price tomorrow. The two morning newspapers, the Express and the Courier, made the announcement this morning and the three afternoon papers, the Times, the News and the Enquirer, followed this afternoon. All have agreed to accept no returns, and the extra sporting editions will be stripped of their vivid lined covers.

The increasing cost of white paper is the cause of the move to sell copies of the newspapers at least for what it costs to produce them. It is understood that not one of the newspapers has been able to get a new paper contract for even an indication of the price that will be asked.

Increasing the increase the Express editorially says:

"The newspaper is commonly and correctly known as the cheapest thing in the world. It is the only commodity that is consistently sold below cost. But the time has come for an increase in the price. Many others are destined to go out of business ere the end of the present era of high prices for materials. Almost everything that enters into the making of a newspaper has doubled in price. The exceptions have been the growing scarcity and cost of white paper, the most important of our raw materials. There have been days of it when the Express was not sure it would get enough paper to print its edition at any price.

The news columns of the Express have been telling how in one city after another the newspapers have gone up a price. With the rise of the cost of living is a rise of every cost of production of a large newspaper. The cost of white paper is two and three times as much as it was under many contracts now expired. So also the price of ink has increased and of metals, and of every one of the elements in the mechanics of newspaper creation."

The afternoon newspapers made the announcement of the price increase without editorial comment.

STORAGE MEN IN COMBINATION TO KEEP UP PRICES

Commissioner of Weights and Measures for New York Makes Charge That Trust in Food Products Exists.

New York, Nov. 30.—The existence of an interesting combination of cold storage houses to keep up food prices was charged today by Joseph Hartigan, commissioner of weights and measures, who as secretary of Mayor Mitchell's common food supply, is investigating the cost of living with a view to effecting relief for consumers.

"There is a so-called cold storage trust," Mr. Hartigan said.

"The membership comprises seventy-five cold storage warehouses in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. It is believed that, to evade the laws of the various states, it is made easy for the owners of goods in one cold storage warehouse to hold his goods in one state until just before the time expires for the goods to be released, and then to move them to a warehouse in another state and keep them there as long as the law allows in that other state.

"Although the law in each state permits storage only for a limited time—ten months—I believe in the case of eggs, it is possible, through the alleged trust to keep goods in storage three times that period. The law regulating cold storage warehouses is a joke from a national standpoint. If the federal government were to take under its cloak all the cold storage houses in the country and make one comprehensive law for them the evil would be abated."

SANTO DOMINGO NOW UNDER MILITARY RULE

Washington, Nov. 30.—Capt. H. S. Knapp, commanding the American naval forces in Santo Domingo, has by proclamation declared a military rule in the Dominican republic to break the deadlock in the local government and carry out the treaty obligations of the United States to guarantee interest on the public debt and other obligations.

Captain Knapp today notified Secretary Daniels of his action and it was approved. He said he expected to have affairs straightened out by December 2 and reported conditions quiet and the populace satisfied with his action. There was no military clash and no military governor was appointed, as was reported from Santo Domingo.

MISTOOK HUNTERS FOR OUTLAWS; WERE WOUNDED

Los Angeles, Nov. 30.—Two men of a citizens' posse were wounded by buckshot today before they discovered that supposed outlaws near here were two brothers out hunting. Arthur Johnson, one of the brothers, also was wounded.

The Johnsons discharged a shotgun to summon aid when their motorcycle broke down and a passing motorist reported bandits. When the posse appeared the Johnsons thought also of bandits and defended themselves. Explanations followed the first volley.

STOPS CHILDREN'S CROUP

Three weeks ago two of my children began choking and coughing, and I saw they were having an attack of croup," writes Billie Mayberry, Rockaway, Ga. "I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and gave them a dose before bedtime and soon their cough stopped and they fell asleep. Next morning their cough and all sign of croup was gone." Foley's Honey and Tar is a standard low-priced remedy for colds, bronchitis, influenza, whooping cough, croup, and all other respiratory ailments. It is sold everywhere.

THE ITALIAN COLONY SEND CHRISTMAS CHEER TO ABSENT RELATIVES

The stricken friends and relatives of the members of the Italian colony, over in the war zone of Italy, have not been forgotten here in prosperous Albuquerque, and if the steamer carrying remittances from this city is not torpedoed or mined before reaching an Italian port, many a bleeding heart will be made happy at Christmas time. During the month of November, just closed, the Bachechi Mercantile company issued exchanged money orders amounting to over 30,000 lire, equal to a little over $4,500 in United States money, and this amount is being sent by certain members of the local Italian colony to their far-away and absent relatives and friends to help make them happy during the Christmas holidays. The Bachechi Mercantile company has been performing this kindness for the Italian citizens of Albuquerque for the past year, and in that time thousands of dollars, earned here in this city, have gone forth to the war-torn homes of many sections of Italy. This firm also represents as local agents about seventeen ocean lines.

The Bachechi Mercantile company did a splendid Thanksgiving business in the grocery, dry goods and wet goods departments, and substantial improvements are being made to the interior of the store rooms, thus giving the proprietors and clerks better facilities for waiting on the increasing trade.

Y. M. C. A. WILL GIVE RECEPTION TONIGHT FOR NEW MEMBERS

Older members of the Y. M. C. A. tonight will hold a reception for new members, who entered the association in the recent campaign. Only members of the senior department will take part. The affair will start at 8 o'clock.

GOVERNOR HONORS REQUISITION FOR ALLEGED FUGITIVE

Deputy Sheriff From Arizona, However, Can Not Take Elliott Back; Habeas Corpus Proceedings Pending.

The police were told yesterday by Governor McDonald over the long distance telephone that he had honored Governor Hunt's requisition for the return of Jack Elliott, held here to Arizona. Deputy Sheriff G. H. Brawner went to Santa Fe with Governor Hunt's requisition Wednesday. He came back to Albuquerque Wednesday night to await Governor McDonald's decision.

Governor McDonald's action did not entirely clear the deputy's way for taking Elliott back. Habeas corpus proceedings are pending before Judge Herbert F. Reynolds. Chief J. R. Galusha was ordered to produce Elliott in the district court at Gallup where Judge Reynolds is holding court, today. Chief Galusha left for Gallup last night with Elliott. Deputy Sheriff Brawner went along. If the court remands the prisoner to the custody of Chief Galusha after the hearing, the chief will deliver him to Brawner at Gallup.

Patrolman Pablo Lujan arrested Elliott shortly after his arrival here several days ago at the request of Sheriff Adams of Maricopa county, Arizona. The police were told that he had been sentenced to serve two years in jail and that a fine also had been imposed upon him for violation of the Arizona prohibitory law. Elliott was said to have admitted that he was under bond at the time he left Arizona, preferring to forfeit $1,500, the amount of his bond, to going to jail.

Elliott readily admitted his identity when Patrolman Lujan found him. He was not confined to jail here, but allowed to go where he pleased under a guard, whom he employed.

Capt. Pat O'Grady will act as chief of police in the absence of Chief Galusha. The chief may return tonight.

BODY OF WHEELER EXHUMED; FUNERAL TO BE HELD SUNDAY

Old friends of Dwight Wheeler, who knew him in his more prosperous days, will give him decent burial. Old-timers have contributed toward the payment of the funeral expenses. Carpenters interested themselves in the movement, although Wheeler was not a member of their union. They would have taken charge of his funeral if he was.

Wheeler died last week in the county jail, where he was awaiting examination as to his sanity. He had been taken to a hospital previously but was removed on account of his mental condition. He died before a physician had an opportunity to determine whether or not he was sane.

The body was not claimed and was disposed of as unclaimed bodies are. When the word of the death of Wheeler circulated among his friends the movement to give him proper burial was started. This resulted in the exhuming of the body from its pauper's grave yesterday and the making of preparations for the funeral. The funeral will be held from Fred Crollitt's chapel Sunday. The hour had not been decided upon last night.

Wheeler had lived in Albuquerque more than thirty years. Recently he lived behind his carpenter shop at Third street and Silver avenue.

SANTA FE DIDN'T OVERLOOK EVEN MILK SUPPLY, SAYS CLARK

"One of the little details of the entertainment of the teachers at Santa Fe was the careful preparation made to secure ample milk for the two thousand visitors," said Prof. John D. Clark, city chemist, who attended the convention of the New Mexico Educational association.

"Milk being a perishable product, careful arrangement had to be made that a large quantity should arrive in town at the proper moment. Normally, I have been informed, Santa Fe has a partial scarcity of milk, but for the association meeting the detail of the milk supply was, like dozens of other details, carefully attended to."

MRS. WESTERFELD'S FATHER, MR. TEEPLE, IS DEAD IN INDIANA

Mrs. Henry Westerfeld, wife of Mayor Westerfeld, learned yesterday by telegram of the death of her father, George W. Teeple, at his home in Decatur, Ind. Mr. Teeple died yesterday morning. He had been ill several years. He was seriously ill at the time Mrs. Westerfeld went to Decatur last summer, to visit him. The funeral will be held at Decatur tomorrow.

MANY PERSONS ATTEND SERVICES OF THANKSGIVING

More Than 500 Hear Citizens' Services at High School; Day Observed Religiously at Other Places.

Hundreds of persons attended Thanksgiving services yesterday morning at the high school auditorium, the Woman's club, Christian church, St. John's church and the Church of the Immaculate Conception. At the high school, where the citizens' Thanksgiving services were held, there were probably more than 500 persons, who filled the lower floor of the auditorium.

Dr. A. D. Crile of Roswell gave the address at the high school. Dr. Crile said the day called for thanks for daily bread, the spirit of charity, for freedom and for economic conditions. He advised prayer for the city's, state's and nation's conscience.

The Rev. H. A. Bassett gave the sermon at the Christian church, where Protestants held union services. Mr. Bassett's subject was "The Spirit of Gratitude" and he took for his text "It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord and to sing praises unto thy name, O Most High." Psalms 92:1. He told of a legend of two angels—the angel of requests and angel of thanksgiving—who left heaven with baskets to gather the petitions and gratitude of men. The first angel's basket was filled quickly while that of the other was almost empty. He spoke of the fitness of Thanksgiving services and told the history of the day.

Bishop Frederick B. Howden of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of New Mexico and West Texas gave a strong sermon on "The Sources of True Prosperity" at St. John's church.

Father A. M. Mandaliari, S. J., who celebrated mass at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, gave no sermon, reading instead President Wilson's Thanksgiving proclamation.

TWO FOOTBALL TITLES ARE IN DISPUTE THIS SEASON IN THE SOUTH

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 30.—The football title in both the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic association territory and in the south at large, is in dispute this season. Georgia Tech and the University of Tennessee, the only undefeated teams in the association, lay claim to premier honors in that territory, while these two schools and Washington and Lee are contenders for the all-southern title.

Washington and Lee played but one big southern school—Georgia Tech—and the game resulted in a 7 to 7 tie. Tennessee defeated Vanderbilt, which in turn defeated Auburn, while the latter was overwhelmed today by Tech. Neither Tennessee nor Vanderbilt played the local school.

STECHER WINS MATCH FROM CHARLES CUTLER IN STRAIGHT FALLS

Chicago, Nov. 30.—Joe Stecher of Nebraska, giving fifteen pounds in weight, won the wrestling match here tonight for Charles Cutler of Chicago, in straight falls. Cutler was downed first in 19 minutes and 40 seconds. Stecher using the scissors hold and the half-Nelson. Stecher won the second fall in seven minutes and 24 seconds, using the same holds. Cutler weighed 220 pounds and Stecher 205.

John Billiter of Toledo, lightweight champion, was unable to win from Joe Smith of Chicago. Billiter took the first fall. Smith the second, and the third was a draw.

'STRANGLER' LEWIS DEFEATS CONNOLLY IN 2 HOURS' WRESTLING

Butte, Mont., Nov. 30.—Ed (Strangler) Lewis of Louisville defeated Pat Connolly of Butte in a catch-as-catch-can wrestling match here today at the end of two hours of wrestling. Connolly was injured twice when he fell off the mat with Lewis on top. The referee awarded Lewis, who was the aggressor, the first fall, but Lewis declined to claim it. After the second injury, Connolly was unable to proceed, and conceded the contest to Lewis.

ARIZONA IS BEATEN BY LIGHTER RICE ELEVEN

Houston, Tex., Nov. 30.—Although outweighed by the University of Arizona football team, the Rice Institute players today ran away from the victors and won the game, 47 to 15. Speed and charging power was the secret of the home team's success, the Rice backs going around the slower Arizona ends or breaking through the line frequently for long gains. McPherson was the star in the visitors' playing.

Prefers Death to the Border.

Joplin, Mo., Nov. 30.—After declaring to friends that he preferred death to further service on the border Earl F. Raymond, mess sergeant of Company G, Second Missouri infantry, committed suicide here today by drinking poison. He was granted a month's furlough October 26, when stationed at Laredo, Tex., and sent several telegrams to his regiment commander asking an extension of his furlough. He is said to have received no reply. Raymond enlisted in Joplin when the troops were called out last June.

Floods Ravage Eastern Spain.

Madrid, via London, Nov. 30.—Serious floods are ravaging eastern Spain particularly the province of Valencia. At Alcala, the railroad station and several houses collapsed and the people took refuge on roofs and church steeples. Communications have been cut at various places. The floods have destroyed dikes and covered the whole countryside. At Murcia, the waters are still rising. Thousands of families have been reduced to beggary.

Soldier Wounded by Negro.

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 30.—Corporal John A. Curry of Company M, Twenty-third Michigan Infantry, was dangerously wounded in the groin with a shotgun following a quarrel with a negro here tonight. The negro was arrested, after his gun had been taken from him and broken over his head by another soldier.

TRAIN RUNS 30 MILES WITHOUT AN ENGINEER

Phillipsburg, N. J., Nov. 30.—While its engineer, Johnson Shaffer, lay dead beside the tracks near Black Tom island, a milk train on the Lehigh valley railroad early today ran thirty miles beyond that point before the fireman, Allen Miller, discovered Shaffer was missing.

Miller's attention was first attracted, he said, when the train passed an important crossing without heeding a signal warning. Seeing that Shaffer was not at his post Miller brought the train to a halt.

Shaffer apparently had climbed out on the running board of his engine and had fallen off, sustaining fatal injuries. He was 68 years old.

MEDIATION ASKED IN THREATENED STRIKE

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 30.—The services of the federal board of mediation and conciliation were asked for tonight by President Peyton of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway to adjust a controversy with the road's employees, which already has resulted in the brotherhood members voting overwhelmingly in favor of a strike.

Brotherhood officials did not join in the request for mediation but indicated that they would not oppose it.

Dock Workers Demand Raise.
Galveston, Texas, Nov. 30.—Demands for an increase of wages have been made by the Southern Pacific Dock Workers' union. The new contract submitted to the employers calls for an hourly increase of ten cents regular, 15 cents overtime and 25 cents for Sunday labor.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for Justice of the peace in Precinct 26, Bernalillo county, N. M. Election to be held January 8, 1917.
