DREYFUS TRIAL.

Several Witnesses Examined in the Celebrated Case.

Thirty-fourth Regiment Ready to Leave Denver.

English Troops Getting Ready for War With Boers.

MOR IN A HOLLAND TOWN.

Rennes, Aug. 23.—Maitre Labori, leading counsel for the defense, was in court when the trial of Dreyfus was resumed this morning. As Labori was entering the court he was informed by a newspaper man that General Rogot yesterday received documents from Major Count Esterhazy, now in London.

The session began with testimony of minor witnesses, including Comptroller Roy and Major Brevin. The latter deposed that Dreyfus, while on the general staff, could have had access unopposed during certain hours of the day. The prisoner replying admitted that he was present during those hours, but explained that his presence was connected with his duties.

M. Dubrion told a gossip story of meeting Dreyfus at the house of an acquaintance, M. Bodon in 1894, when Dreyfus was a lieutenant and seeing the latter conversing with a man described to witness as a German attaché. The reading of the story was of the dimmest description.

Dreyfus replying to this witness deposed that he had any relations with a German attaché, military or civil.

Captain Lerond, of the artillery, spoke of the notorious ignorance of Esterhazy of military matters, showing he could not have divulged what was promised in the bordereau.

Lerond also deposed that Picquart in October, 1895, contacted Esterhazy with espionage and Picquart confronted the witness and denied the allegation.

Esterhazy was called but there was no response, so the court ordered the reading of his evidence as given before the court of cassation. When this was read, Dreyfus asked that Esterhazy's interest in the case be denied. He said he read, in which Esterhazy is said to have threatened that if the scandal was continued his sovereign as emperor would intervene.

General Gonse declared in a loud voice that Esterhazy's statements that he was the instrument of the general staff was an absolute lie. He absolutely denied having had any relations with him.

Coun. de la defense then submitted to the court documents relating to the inquiry into the relations of Esterhazy and Pavy de Clam instituted by Major Travertier, on behalf of the military authorities, should be communicated to the court and discussed. To this government counsel, Major Carrière, replied he had applied to the military authorities on the subject but the request has been refused.

The name of Mile. Pavy was called but as there was no response, the evidence she gave before the court of cassation was read.

General Labellie de Dionne testified that Dreyfus declared that the Alsatians were happier under Germany than under France. A Dreyfus witness also said that he complained of his position at the school of war. The prisoner replied vigorously denying that he ever spoke of the Alsatians as alleged, but admitted using hard words on account of his position at the school of war, which he declared were evoked by hearing that no Jews were wanted on the general staff.

Carrière advised that he hoped Pavy de Clam would be able to come to court in a few days.

Leading counsel then submitted to General Gonse a number of searching questions on Katerhazy's relations with the general staff.

General Gonse, as a rule, became very much excited, especially when asked questions there was not an intrigue in favor of Katerhazy, and if he did not take part in it.

"It's false, it's false," he cried the general. The general, however, was visibly disconcerted at several of Labori's questions. Finally counsel asked why Katerhazy was not arrested after the inquiry, "Gonse replied: "Because General

Sausser deemed it proper to leave him at liberty."

"You retorted Labori, "but General Sausser must have been deceived by the general staff."

This abrupt declaration caused a sensation, General Gonse looking very ill at once.

General de Boudelle denied in a most forcible manner Katerhazy's statements adding that he had been the present he would have "given him the lie with all the contempt he deserves."

Ready for active service.

Washington, Aug. 23.—Colonel Kennon, of the Thirty-fourth Infantry, Fort Logan, Colorado, reported at the war department that thirty-nine officers have reported and more than a full quota of enlisted men. Health conditions are excellent. Equipment is all right with few exceptions, which will be supplied at San Francisco.

Mob in Holland.

Amsterdam, Aug. 23.—Disturbances at Hiverum, where martial law has been proclaimed, continued last evening. The mob stoned the troops occupying the town. The cavalry charged on the rioters with drawn swords. Finally the infantry fired on the mob, killing one person and wounding two others. Quiet was restored at midnight.

English Troops.

Capetown, Aug. 23.—The Mafeking Horse regiment is mobilizing rapidly. Several hundred recruits equipped here have joined Vivian's camp. Every train is bringing fresh recruits.

FIRE DEPARTMENT MEETING.

The Ladies met together and decide on a Running Team.

One of the largest fire department meetings ever held by the local fire-lad-ies took place last night at the city building, and was enthusiastically attended by the members in large numbers.

A letter was read from W. T. McCord, president of the New Mexico Fair Association, inviting the fire department to take part in the hose races and other sports of Fair week, and, on motion, the following committee was appointed: P. T. Isherwood, chief; W. S. Macbeth, of Scott Moore House company; No. 1; H. T. Johnson, of No. 2 hose company; Ray Fowler, of No. 3 hose company; and R. E. Reedy, of Ferguson Hook and Ladder company, said committee to have full and complete power to do and make arrangements for the big parade during Fair week and the hose races and other running events mapped out by the executive committee of the Fair, for which prizes have already been offered.

The committee appointed by Chief Isherwood held a meeting immediately after the department meeting had taken place, and agreed to appoint a trainer and place in his care the team to represent Albuquerque at the approaching Territorial Fair.

The fire department voted for the incidental expenses of said committee the sum of $100.

On the reopening of the department, Chief Isherwood made a five minute talk to the members present and asked each company in the department, through their representatives, to express themselves on the parade display and parade to be held Thursday afternoon of fair week, and the chief informs the THE CITIZEN that every company in the department will be in the parade, rain or shine.

On motion, the money collected from the various insurance companies were turned over to be equally divided among the four fire companies of the department.

This money, so THE CITIZEN has been informed, will be expended for uniforms and other needed expenses to make the firemen's part of the Territorial Fair one of the grand features of the fair.

SAN JUAN HEROES.

They Will Be Here at the Territorial Fair.

Bids for Grand Stand and Midway Plaisance Stands Let.

Lambardi's Famous Italian Opera Company To-Night.

"IL TROVATORE" THE PLAY.

Pursuant to published notices the executive committee of the New Mexico Territorial Fair association met last night at the city building, and all members were present except two—one being out of the city and the other unavoidably detained from attending.

It was a very enthusiastic meeting, and a large amount of work incidental to the approaching Territorial Fair was transacted.

Owing to the fact that Wallace Hoeselien, chairman of the building committee, was a little tardy in appearing, the first business discussed was private, and on motion, properly seconded, arrangements were ordered to be made with A. Didier, of Helen, for his merry-go-round, and a location will be assigned him convenient to the Midway Plaisance.

The question of both privileges was then discussed, prizes for booths named, and it was moved, seconded and carried to invite all those desiring booths on the Midway Plaisance to meet with the executive committee on Friday evening, at the city building at 8 o'clock, and make their selections, etc.

It was also moved and seconded to ask bids for grand stand privileges, such as seats, popcorn, candy, lemonade, soda water, cigars, etc., and request bidders to submit their bids at the meeting to be held on Friday night.

The bids for the erection of the grand stand on west side avenue and the stands on the Midway Plaisance were then opened and found as follows:

Fox & Froese, $1,015 00
W. W. Strong, 1,015 00
T. L. Wilson, 1,050 00
Hayden & McClure, 1,330 00
E. K. Brausen, 1,800 00

The bid of Fox & Froese, being the lowest, was accepted, and a motion proposed that Committee-man Hoeselien see that the contract be made at once.

J. P. Polio and P. C. Hummel, of Los Angeles, owners and patentees of the reproduction of the "Battle of Manila," a recent and agreed to appoint a trainer and place in his care the team to represent Albuquerque at the approaching Territorial Fair.

DEWEY CELEBRATION.

The Admiral Urged to Hurry His Arrival Home.

Several Vessels Lost in a Storm Off Cape Hatteras.

Cotton Crop in Texas Seriously Injured By Hot Winds.

REVOLUTION IN SAN DOMINGO.

New York, Aug. 23.—The plan and scope of the committee of the Dewey celebration today took up the suggestion that the naval and land parades be held on Friday and Saturday, September 23d and 24th, instead of Saturday and Sunday, September 30th and October 1st, as has been intimated. Captain Fiebel of the Navy told the committee that it was quite feasible for Admiral Dewey to arrive a day earlier than he had set and accordingly the following cablegram was sent:

"Admiral George Dewey, Villafraña, France.—The committee in charge of your reception requests, if convenient, that you arrange so as to arrive here on the night of Thursday, September 28th, instead of 29th, so that the celebration can be had on Friday and Saturday. Awaiting reply."

RANDOLPH GEGENHEIMER, Acting Mayor."

Nice, Aug. 23.—Admiral Dewey and officers and men of the Olympia now at Villa Franca, near here, are already anticipating the New York reception and are preparing for their part in it. The Admiral received permission from the authorities to land the Olympia battalion at Villa Franca for drill purposes during the remainder of the cruise's stay at that point. St. Granet, prefect of the Alpes maritimes, visited Admiral Dewey to day. The former expressed the pleasure of the French government at the Admiral's visit, adding his assurance of personal admiration. It is expected that Admiral Dewey will come to Nice to-morrow and return the prefects and other officials' calls.

Vessel Lost at Sea.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 23.—The following vessels are reported wrecked in a terrific storm off Cape Hatteras: Schooner Aaron Richard, five lost, three saved; bark, Dickinson, crew of fourteen lost; Diamond Shoals, a light ship, crew of twenty-three all saved; unknown steamship, cargo washed ashore, crew of twenty-five lost. Three big schooners in the surf are now breaking up, the crews probably aggregating thirty, unheard of; schooner Frank McCullough, eleven men with coal from Norfolk in Savannah, is unheard of, and probably went to the bottom with all on board.

San Domingo Revolution.

Cape Haytien, Aug. 23.—General Victoriano Torres, commander of San Jose de Las Matas, San Domingo, has declared for the republic and is reported that Santiago has also pronounced in favor of the revolution.

Cotton Crop Injured.

St. Louis, Aug. 23.—A special from Dallas to the Post Dispatch, says that hot winds have destroyed all chances of a large cotton crop in Texas. Reports say that the crop will not average more than a quarter of a bale to the acre. This indicates not two million bales in the entire state.

RAILROAD OFFICIALS.

Moers, Mudge and Hurley Here—Will Go South To-Morrow.

H. E. Mudge, general superintendent of the Santa Fe railway, and J. K. Hurley, division superintendent, came in from the north last night in the former's special car No. 215, and are in the territorial metropolis to day.

Mr. Mudge was on the upper Rio Pecos fishing and hunting, and while making a tour over the main and branch lines south of this city Mr. Mudge, the children and his family guests will continue in camp on the Pecos.

The two well known officials were seen this morning by THE CITIZEN representative, and they stated they will meet J. M. Bar, the third vice president of the company, here to night, from the west, and together they will proceed south.

President K. F. Ripley, together with his family, will return to Chicago from San Francisco, by way of the northern route.

Moers, Mudge and Hurley expressed regret over the burning of the San Felipe, and hoped that Albuquerque would sooner or later have a big hotel, such as one that landlord Sturges contemplated making out of the San Felipe.

Subscribers to the low line ditch fund are requested to pay their assessments to F. S. Brooks at F. S. Helwig & Co., on south Second street. Contract for work on the ditch will soon be let.

Of Blankets...

Blankets are not fully appreciated until cold weather, but values in blankets can be judged and appreciated at any time. This is an opportunity to buy winter goods at summer prices. It is no matter how we secured them, sufficient for buyers to know that our blanket prices are from 25 to 40 per cent lower than December rates will surely be, with the general market steadily moving. We mention a few prices, all other grades of Blankets at equally low prices:

11x14 Blankets, tan or white, worth $1.50.... $1.00

10x14 Blankets, all wool, grey, worth $1.00.... 3 25

10x12 Blankets, all wool, white, worth $.25.... 4 25
