THE DREYFUS TRIAL.

Man Who Attempted to Murder
M. Labori Arrested.

His Confession, However, May Prove an Empty Boast.

Piquart Presents His Side of Case in Masterful Manner.

COURT ADJOURNS UNTIL TO-MORROW.

Rennes, Aug. 18.—The man who attempted to murder Maitre Labori, the leading counsel for Captain Dreyfus, has been arrested at Dol, in this department. His name is Giorot, a native of the department of Cotes du Nord, and has confessed. Giorot was arrested because he said in Cabaret, yesterday: "I am the man who shot Labori." The police, it is now believed, think the prisoner is only a lunatic or a drunkard desirous of attracting attention and that the so-called confession may turn out to be nothing more than an empty boast. The police, however, are investigating the recent movements of the prisoner.

When the second trial by court martial of Capt. Alfred Dreyfus, charged with treason, was resumed at the Lycée, at 7:35 this morning, Colonel Piquart, former chief of the intelligence department of the war office, called the witness to the stand, and continued his deposition, which was interrupted yesterday by an adjournment. The colonel gave his testimony in the same loud, fearless tone of voice which characterized his manner yesterday. He began by declaring that he thought it necessary to make a statement of him while on the stand.

At the outset Colonel Piquart's remarks, and Giorot were interrupted. He said he would reply to them. Continuing Colonel Piquart proceeded to discuss the secret dossier as being the masterpiece of the intelligence department of Dreyfus. He took up the documents successfully, referring to the writers and addresses of the letter as A and B. Maitre Morand, who argued the case on behalf of Dreyfus' family, for a revision of the prisoner's sentence before the court of appeal, was present this morning to assist M. de Mangé for the defense.

Rennes, Aug. 18.—At the conclusion of Colonel Piquart's deposition, General Roget and Maitre Labori rose together and asked to be confronted with the witness. Confrontation, however, only lasted a few minutes and did not prove sensational, having reference to comparatively minor points. After Piquart reiterated his statements the court adjourned at 11:40 a. m. until to-morrow. The deposition of Colonel Piquart occupied the entire session.

Rennes, Aug. 18.—Colonel Piquart practically occupied the whole of yesterday sitting with a masterful presentation of his side of the case. He spoke five hours and his voice at the end of that time was hoarse and he showed signs of fatigue. His deposition was followed with the closest attention by the members of the court martial and by the audience, and during a brief suspension of the proceedings, Maitre Labori, Maitre de Boisse and several other witnesses, gathered in groups animatedly discussing Piquart's evidence, which, though it contained but few new facts, was so cleverly placed before the tribunal and was spoken so effectively that it could not fail to repeat the impression made by the deposition of Roget and Maitre Labori. Colonel Piquart said that suspicions were aroused against Esterhazy because of his immoral life, and his eagerness to get into the war office. He finally secured a sample of Esterhazy's handwriting, and was struck with the similarity to the handwriting of the secret dossier. Continuing he said: "When I saw beyond a doubt that the handwriting of the dossier was Esterhazy's, and seeing that documents mentioned therein, might have been supplied by Esterhazy that words like 'I am going to the manœuvre,' could perfectly apply to Esterhazy, and that Esterhazy had secret advice at his disposal to copy the document, a document so voluminous as the 'dossier' manual, I resolved to consult the secret dossier to see what part of the treason might be ascribed to Dreyfus and secure myself whether the dossier contained anything indicating to Esterhazy. I frankly admit that I was surprised on reading the secret dossier, I expected to find matters of gravity therein and found in short nothing but a document which might apply just as much to Esterhazy as to Dreyfus, an unimportant document mentioning D'Aglaton, and a document which seemed too absurd to apply to Dreyfus, namely, 'Vite, cassez le document.' Lastly I recognized a report appended in the handwriting of Giorot which appeared to be as worthless as the second document.

Dreyfus drank in all the witnesses words, which came as balm to wounds inflicted upon him by Roget and Roget, and the prisoner frequently scanned the faces of his judges as though seeking to read their thoughts.

From the standpoint of the spectators the session was the most uneventful one since the opening of trial. Even the confrontation at the end lacked the dramatic force of similar incidents, which have marked almost every previous session. Piquart's deposition was a fine performance. He spoke without notes and his view of the mass of facts adduced must be ranked as a feat of memory.

Members of the court martial took copious notes during Piquart's testimony and it was quite evident that several explanations he gave came as fresh light. These when Piquart concluded, both General Roget and General Mercier jumped up and asked to be heard contradictory. Colonel Jouanet asked that Roget to speak first. He thereupon faced Colonel Piquart, who replied promptly to questions which the general delivered in a theatrical manner and with frequent gestures. General Mercier adopted a quieter demeanor. Neither, however, said anything that could be described as damaging to Colonel Piquart's evidence.

LABORI'S POSITION.
Rennes, Aug. 18.—Maitre Labori was not so well this afternoon. His wound is no worse but he is suffering from nervousness.

AN OBSERVER.

A Stroll Through Badastre's Summer Garden.

Editors Citizen, Albuquerque, N. M.:
Yesterday I had the pleasure of visiting the garden of Badastre, which is situated on a beautiful pleasure park in the territory of New Mexico. The grounds have a beautiful carpet of green that is not found elsewhere; both that are decorated with evergreens; nice walks and drives; plenty of flowers and shrubs; a dancing pavilion that will do credit to a society giving a picnic in this beautiful park. As I understood from one of the many employees that a picnic would be held there on Sunday, August 20th, the park is so beautifully arranged that I could not refrain from making these few remarks for the benefit of those who are planning to spend a day in the heat of the city. I understood from one of the employees that the first Regatta, an affair in regatta was filed and a writ of replevin ordered issued. The plaintiff is represented by Johnston & Fitch.

ALASKA BOUNDARY.

Tupper Says Settlement Is Delayed Purposely.

Will Build Railroad and Allow Only Britishers on Yukon.

Exceedingly Stormy Executive Session of Typographical Union.

WINDOW GLASS TRUST.

London, Aug. 18.—Sir Charles Tupper, formerly Canadian high commissioner, in an interview with a representative of the Associated Press, said: "The United States is purposely delaying the settlement of the Alaskan dispute on account of the pecuniary benefit accruing to miners and the coast cities through the delay and has refused to have the boundary delimited as is being done in Venezuela. No settlement ever could be reached through an even-sided commission as suggested by the United States. We have reached the impasse and the intention of resuming the negotiations regarding the matters pending between the Canada and America, until the Alaskan question is settled. I propose that a British railroad be built from Kitimat to Dawson, and a law be passed allowing only Britishers to mine on the Yukon. The moment this is done, the subject of the United States preventing a settlement disappears. The Dominion is a unit in supporting Sir Wilfrid Laurier's stand."

WITNESSES TO THE GRAND JURY FOR RAPE.
Before Justice Bibb, this morning the case of Borboa, charged with rape, was heard and Borboa was after the hearing of the testimony, held to await the action of the grand jury in the sum of $500. The facts in the case are as follows: On the evening of August 13th Borboa with a companion drove up to the house of Berdina, Arriaga de Sanchez in Africa, across the river. Borboa entering the house, his companion remaining outside, and finding the woman alone with her three small children he assaulted her, and by threatening to use a knife he held, succeeded in violating her person. Her cries aroused a neighbor, but he was deterred from interfering, owing to the desperate character of the deeds he would have had to deal with. The case is a very strong one against Borboa and he deserves the full limit of the law's punishment.

RACE TROUBLES.
Whites and Blacks of a Mississippi Town Likely to Meet.

Moridan, Miss., Aug. 18.—A week ago Dr. P. N. Wells, living near Russell, shot and fatally wounded a negro, while in the act of stealing his cattle. Tuesday night two negroes attempted to assassinate Dr. Wells, and one was shot and killed by the doctor. Another unsuccessful attempt was made on the doctor's life last night. This has aroused the white people, and notice has been served on the negroes that any further hostile movement towards Dr. Wells would precipitate a race conflict.

SAN FELIPE BURNED

Albuquerque's Leading Hotel Totally Destroyed.

THE FIRE STILL IN PROGRESS.

One of the greatest and most damaging losses known to Albuquerque, in fact to the southwest, occurred in Albuquerque this afternoon when a fire alarm was sounded and a fire broke out in the building that the San Felipe hotel was in flames.

This startling news came on at 4:30 p. m. just as the CITIZEN was going to press, but the forms were held back in order that a few of the most important facts about the conflagration could be published.

The fire was discovered to be on the roof, in or around the hotel tower, and when the fire department arrived the third story alone was on fire. The fire, was either abetted or in a dense smoke, indicating that the flames had not only attacked the tower but also the entire and had penetrated the garret of the building.

At this hour, 5:30 o'clock, the building is still burning, and is practically doomed. The water pressure seems not to be sufficient to reach the top of the building. The fire was truly one of the finest of its kind in New Mexico, was purchased some time ago by Frank R. Sturges for the sum of $17,000, and since then, owing to the fact that Mr. Sturges desired to open the hotel for the Territorial Fair meeting, he has expended at least $12,000 in improvements. It is learned at this late hour this afternoon, that his insurance will not cover the purchase price of the building.

It is reported that the fire originated somewhere on the roof where the plumbers' force was at work.

IS JOHN W. WALTON?
His Supposed Body Found Floating in San Francisco Bay.

Sheriff Thos. W. Dunham received a telegram to day, announcing the fact that the body of a man supposed to be John W. Walton, of this city, had been found floating in the San Francisco bay.

Mr. Walton left Albuquerque a short time ago for the west, stopping over a few days at a hotel in San Francisco, and then on to the city and at Jemez hot springs, where, until the past few years, he was interested at the resort as a real estate owner.

ALBUQUERQUE, — AUG. 18, 1899.

This Bank of Arizona, at Prescott, has opened a branch bank at Jerome, under the management of Ralph A. Smith.

Civil service examinations will be held at Phoenix, Arizona, on October 13 and 17, and at Albuquerque on October 17 and 18.

Preparations for the big Territorial fair are moving along nicely, and the people of the metropolis are preparing to entertain a big crowd.

Coal is advancing in price, which announcement will not be considered as news by those who buy coal. It was never known to go any other way but up.

The Boston Range says: Albuquerque is making unusual efforts for the Territorial fair this year. New and novel features will be presented to entertain the visitors.

When the Sultan of Sulu advised his lieutenants not to molest or disturb Americans because "the Americans are like a box of matches—strike one and they all blaze up," he had not, evidently, heard of one K. Atkinson, Boston.

Perhaps Mr. Astor changed his citizenship from the United States to England so that he might find the society of rich American girls. Most of them move to England as soon as they reach the marriageable age.

Lieut. Max Lusk, who has been securing recruits for the Thirty-fourth United States volunteer infantry at Phoenix, will close the office there and go to Kentucky to secure recruits among bloodthirsty mountaineers of that state.

It is a glorious thing that New York has the men and the money to give Admiral Dewey a hearty welcome home, but the best of it is that the admiral may feel that his reception there is only an illustration of what every city and hamlet in the country would like to give him if it had the chance.

The Durango Democrat says: "The line from Roswell, N. M., to Albuquerque will give that city an outlet to the gulf and at least a competitive line, long haul to the coast. The line will double Albuquerque in population and prominence and no doubt insure a road to Durango from that point."

The town of Jerome, Arizona, has closed the contract between the United Verde Copper company and a Mr. Ling, representing a Los Angeles foundry, for a $300,000 water pipe line from the Verde river to Jerome. The people of Jerome, Arizona, propose to be on guard when the next fire alarm is sounded.

There are something like 300 newspaper correspondents at the Dryas trial, and their reports are very conflicting, especially as to the condition of the famous prisoner, some of the papers men declare that he is a physical wreck, while others say that he is in prime condition. All of which goes to prove that the variety of intoxicants in gay Paris is infinite.

ANDREW CARNEGIE is a Scotchman of American citizenship. As a Scotchman he loves the flag of his country, and as an American he reveres the Stars and Stripes. When it comes to expressing his feelings by emblem display, Mr. Carnegie happily combines the Stars and Stripes and the Union Jack and dangles the hybrid to the breeze that doles over Khyber Castle.

WHAT public opinion amounts to in Russia may be gathered from the recent census of that empire, which shows that in a population of 129,000,000 there are only 743 newspapers, or one to every 173,000 people. Of these 589 are in Russian, sixty-nine in Polish, forty-one in German, nine in French, five in Armenian, and two in Hebrew. No English paper appears on the list.

El Paso has organized an association to be known hereafter as the El Paso Athletic Park association. Capt. Juan S. Hart is president; T. C. Lyons, vice-president; Park Primus, secretary; J. J. Brann, treasurer; Paul Young, Z. T. White, M. C. Edwards and P. W. Pittman, directors. The association will purchase a piece of ground, and hold sports at regular intervals during the year.

The president and executive committee of the Territorial Fair association would like to see the new opera house opened in time for some of the "side" events of the forthcoming great fair, and the president of the association has already obligated himself to use his influence to this end, the great body of Kiosks desiring to give a circus one evening during the fair. Judge Crumpacker should appoint a receiver, and see to it that the doors of the new opera house are thrown open during fair week.

COTTON EXPERT NEILL reports a probable yield of 12,000,000 bales in the United States for the current year. Mr. NEILL's figures have usually been trustworthy, but a crop of 12,000,000 bales this year does not appear to be possible. Reports from all parts of Texas go to show that the cotton fields are in unusually bad condition, and in many of the best cotton counties the farmers do not count on more than half a crop, or even less. All over the south the crop has been cut short by dry weather. Cotton planters are at a loss to know where 12,000,000 bales are to come from this year.

A CARTOON in a Washington daily paper fairly reflects the situation of the democrats due to the leadership of Bryan. It represents the democratic party in the figure of a jackass within a burning shed, the door of which is stamped "Chicago platform," while traced in the cloud of smoke and flame may be seen the words "Station to one." The flames are about to encompass the ass, and he balks and refuses to budge from the platform.

Notwithstanding the valiant efforts of the firemen to the rescue of the man, William and Morgan, who fell to the hold of the boiler, the latter, strong elements of the democratic party will extricate the ass from its perilous position. We venture the prediction that the ass will perish.

EVERY postal clerk, except those detailed to clerical duty in offices, is now required to wear a badge over the left breast. The badge is a metal ellipse, around the edge of which appears the words, "Postoffice Department, Railway Mail Service." In the center are the initials "U. S. N." in manuscript, surrounded by a star, and on the top of the ellipse is a spread eagle and on the bottom a scroll bearing a number.

Religion losing ground.
The country is becoming agitated over religion. Periodically some one arises and declares that it is dying. This results in confused discussions until the agitation runs its course, and still religion flourishes. It always will, for it is something that needs to be fed. The most commendable of the great American stomach strengtheners, lies in the fact that it has lived for fifty years in spite of hundreds of imitations, and is renowned for its cure of constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, fever and ague, malaria, and all the ailments of the stomach and bowels. There is nothing "just as good." See that a private revenue stamp covers the neck of the bottle.

GOOD ITEMS FROM SAN PEDRO.

Our Traveler Leaving "Horology" Alone and Attending to Business.

PERSONAL NOTES FROM THE CAMP.

Special Correspondence.

San Pedro, N. M., Aug. 17.—W. T. McLaughlin, the resident manager for the Santa Fe Gold and Copper Mining Co., at this camp, went to Santa Fe Tuesday, to attend a meeting of the penitentiary commissioners. He was accompanied as far as Lamy, by J. Park Channing, of New York City, the consulting engineer of the company, and Mr. Fisher, an expert smelter man from Salt Lake City. The last two continued on to Salt Lake City. Mr. Channing is expected back to this camp in the course of a few weeks. Mr. McLaughlin will return here tomorrow.

Dr. W. H. Shadrach, the company doctor and his wife, both popular young people, who are favorably known to many Albuquerqueans, expect to leave here on August 25, for an extended visit to their former home in the east. They will first visit Washington, D. C., and then to the city of interest. Then will go to Keaton, Ohio, and visit for ten days with the parents of Mrs. Shadrach—Mr. and Mrs. John S. Kent. Mr. Kent visited with his daughter in Albuquerque, for several months before her marriage, and has a number of warm friends among the citizens of the metropolis. With the single exception of Mr. Kent, neither Dr. or Mrs. Shadrach has met any of the relatives of the other, so their visit will be remarkably interesting. They will be gone thirty days, and in that time Dr. J. Frank Rutherford, of Albuquerque, will be the good Samaritan to the Shadrach patients at San Pedro and Golden.

Miss Mabel I. Rich, of Monticello, Minn., is visiting with Mrs. C. J. Stone, of the mining engineer and assayer of the Santa Fe Gold and Copper Co. Miss Rich and Mrs. Stone were childhood friends, so on her return from Los Angeles, the former decided to pay a friend a visit, who was a member of the high school faculty at Owatonna, Minn., last year, but resigned her position at the close of the summer term on account of failing health. San Pedro and New Mexico agree with her so well that she has almost concluded to spend the coming winter in the territory. Dr. and Mrs. Stone were married in Duluth, Minn., last Christmas and soon after came to San Pedro. Before her marriage, Miss Stone was a teacher in the city schools of Duluth.

M. T. Moriarty, the well-known sheepherder, has leased his big ranch, eighteen miles south of San Pedro, to one of the McPhersons, for a period of five years. During that time Mr. and Mrs. Moriarty will take life easy and considerable traveling. They will go first to Los Angeles, Cal.

Neal Moriarty and Joe Stewart, the son and son-in-law of Mr. Moriarty, have moved from the territory to the city, until recently, was the blacksmith for the copper company at this place, but resigned in order to devote his personal time to his trade, which is not far from the Moriarty ranch.

Last fall, when the senior Mr. Moriarty disposed of his large flock of sheep, he saved much for wool. Neal Moriarty will now go into the sheep business of his own accord with these sheep, about 2,000 in all, and will live with his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stewart.

M. F. Myers, the proprietor of the boarding house here and formerly a hotel owner in Albuquerque, has moved to the city to Albuquerque today for supplies. Right here I wish to state that I have eaten better meals, and three squares every day, at his hotel, than I have eaten in any small town, located as far from the railroad as San Pedro is.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

Is a chronic disease. There is an inflammation of the inner coating of the stomach. A thick,ropy mucus forms and this causes the most pronounced symptoms. It remains in the stomach and decomposes. Study your symptoms carefully from this chart. Each symptom represents a symptom of a group of symptoms. You have the symptoms. Use HUDYAN and they will disappear.

THE SYMPTOMS ARE:

2. RED AND WATERY EYES. HUDYAN will cause the redness to disappear and make the eyes assume their normal, healthy appearance.
3. COATED TONGUE AND FOETID BREATH AND BAD TASTE IN THE MOUTH. HUDYAN will clear the tongue, make the breath sweet and cause the bad taste to disappear.
4. PAIN AND TENDERNES IN THE STOMACH. This is due to indigestion. HUDYAN will cause the food to be completely digested and the pain and tenderness will disappear.
5. ENLARGEMENT OF THE LIVER. HUDYAN will lessen the enlargement and reduce the enlarged liver to its normal size.
HUDYAN will relieve you of all the above symptoms and make you well. Do not delay.

Go to your druggist at once and procure a package of HUDYAN for 50c, or 6 for $3.00. Mr. Salazar was seen by a CITIZEN representative and he stated that as soon as he was notified of the jail delivery he mounted a trusted horse and left forthwith along the Rio Grande in a southerly direction, keeping a close watch on the swamps, but failed to discover anyone in the published list of the escaped prisoners. He visited Casa Colorado, La Jota and other places, south of the city, and had to return to the city empty-handed.
