SCENES OF HORROR IN STRICKEN PARIS

Paris the beautiful has become a city of slime, with muddy, sewage laden waters everywhere and the caving streets and crumbling buildings add to the horror of the rising waters.

Hunger has become an actuality and pestilence an imminent danger.

Touching evidence of the conditions outside Paris came today in an urgent appeal for food and clothing. Two thousand babies rescued at Ailfortville and Irvy have been without proper care for four days.

Paris, France, Jan. 28.—The boiling waters of the Seine are still rising at noon today an inch and a quarter an hour. An unfortunate shift of the wind from the north to the southwest was accompanied by renewed heavy rain and added a thrill of horror to the stricken city and country.

Throughout the night the conditions grew steadily worse. The devastation was now penetrated to the very heart of Paris, the gorged rivers and sewers beneath literally blowing up the streets, while the area of the surface overflowed has been doubled today.

Twelve of the twenty-five bridges across the Seine have been closed and the quays on either side from one end of the city to the other are either inundated or roped off as unsafe.

The Esplanade des Invalides today is a sheet of water. The turbid flood has crept almost to the Jardin des Luxembourg on the left bank and has invaded the Place de la Concorde, which is closely guarded by soldiers, and the lower Champs Elysees on the right bank, the Palais de Glace and the other resorts and restaurants are surrounded. Even the Place de l'Opera at the heart of the city is threatening to sink into the subway beneath. The cellars throughout the district from that point to the St. Lazare station, composing the Faubourg Montmartre and the Rue Berger and the richer sections in the Rue de Provence, Rue Drouot and Rue Chateaudune are filled to the street level with water from the overflowing subterranean rivers.

Floods in Italy are receding. Rome, Italy, Jan. 28.—The floods in Italy are receding.

RAPID DEVELOPMENT IN INSURANCE FRAUDS. Louisville, Ky., Jan. 28.—Rapid developments are expected in alleged insurance frauds, which it is claimed will reveal the bold and systematic robbery of companies in half a dozen states. John J. Keane, Timothy O'Leary and Patrick J. Needham, local agents for several life insurance companies, who were arrested last night charged with defrauding companies which employed them out of thousands of dollars, were arraigned today. It is expected that at least three prominent Louisville physicians and a score or more "damians" will be involved.

S. C. Renick, secretary and treasurer of the Indiana National Life Insurance Company, says that more than a hundred thousand dollars have been obtained by "grave yard insurance" methods.

ARTESIAN FLOW IN NORTH END OF COUNTY NO FAKE

Byron O. Beall, artesian well inspector and Guy H. Herbert, county assessor, returned last night from a trip to the Gama Valley, sixty miles north of Roswell and in this county, where they went to investigate the reported artesian flow. They found that the report was true and that a good flow is coming from a well on the place of R. B. Carver in section 24, township 11 north, range 23 East, which is sixty miles due north of Roswell.

The well is six inch bore and the flow was found at seventy-five feet. The drillers are going down with the well and the hole is now 104 feet deep. The people of that vicinity are greatly enthused over the discovery of artesian water and have raised a thousand dollars to put down a test well. The test well will go to a depth of 1,400 feet if necessary, but the drillers believe that a good flow will be found at 800 feet. A drilling firm from Houston, Texas, is on the ground and will do the work at actual cost.

The discovery of artesian water in the north end of the valley will be a great boon. It will mean the reclamation of vast areas of land that are now in the semi-arid belt. The taking of claims and an advance in values will be the first step.

BIG FIGHT IN FRISCO?

Portland, Ore., Jan. 28.—That the Jeffries-Johnson fight will probably be held in San Francisco in view of the opposition of Governor Spry, of Utah, and that Johnson's backing down only could call off the fight was declared by Jeffries during the last few days at Boise. Jeffries declared in a speech that he intended to give Johnson the worst beating any man ever had. He said:

"I will tear into Johnson from the first tap of the gong and never let up on him until he hits the canvas for the count. I am going to see this thing through to the finish," and then added, "unless Johnson backs down on July Fourth I will again demonstrate the superiority of the white race."

to fall from his former position that the Jeffries-Johnson fight could not take place in Utah. A statement made last night was not nearly so emphatic as those previously made.

"I have issued no final statement on the Jeffries-Johnson fight," said the governor, "and will not do so until next week, for the reason that I will be busy the rest of the week looking carefully into the law on the subject, though I see no reason to change from my original attitude against the fight. However, I do not want to rush into this thing blindly."

ZELAYA RESPONSIBLE FOR EXECUTION OF AMERICANS.

Managua, Nicaragua, Jan. 28.—The court at Mosaya today acquitted General Medina, Prosecuting Attorney Solomon Solvia and the other members of the court martial of responsibility for the illegal conviction and execution of the Americans, Groce and Cannon.

The acquittal followed the presentation by General Medina of the original telegram of instruction, signed by President Zelaya. The court, however, did not accuse or indict Zelaya.

Devils Run Papers.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Jan. 27.—South Dakota "devils" and other subordinates of the country print shops, country weeklies and city daily papers will have an opportunity during the next few days to give expression to their journalistic genius. A large portion of the editors and publishers of the State are the guests of Sioux Falls today at the annual meeting of the South Dakota Press Association, and will remain here tomorrow. Speakers of wide experience will tell how a country publisher, with good luck, may keep a safe distance ahead of the wolf. Several South Dakota publishers who are known to be prosperous, having money in the bank, will be called upon to explain.

May Build Dreadnaughts.

Buenos Ayres, Argentina, Jan. 28.—Argentina is to become a real naval power among the nations of the world. If the plans of the Naval Commission in session today, are carried out, two new Dreadnaughts of 28,000 tons each carrying a dozen twelve-inch guns, will probably be finally authorized. It is likely that the contract for their construction will go to the shipyards at Quincy Mass.

PRICES STILL ARE FALLING

New York, Jan. 28.—The effects of the anti-meat campaign are still strongly reflected in the local markets today. Prices continue to drop somewhat wholesale and to a greater degree retail. It is predicted that tomorrow marketers will be able to replenish their larders at from ten to twenty per cent. less than a week ago.

Results Produced at Boston. Boston, Jan. 28.—The agitation against high food prices is beginning to show results in Boston. A general decline in the price of meats is being shown in the markets. Yesterday retail prices fell from two to four cents a pound.

Prices Drop at Baltimore. Baltimore, Jan. 28.—Pork today is selling at two cents a pound less than a week ago. Many of the larger dealers report that their meat sales have fallen off thirty-five per cent. since the crusade against high prices began.

ALLISON CLOSES DEAL FOR BUSINESS LOTS. S. E. Allison, formerly of this city and lately of Alpine, Texas, has closed the deal that was pending several weeks and by which he bought of the Joyce-Pruit Company, of this city, the business lots on Main street known as the old Masonic Temple or Post Office corner. He paid $28,000 for the property. The Joyce-Pruit Company bought these two business lots, in all fifty feet front and 198 feet deep, of the Masonic Temple association for $26,550, nearly a year ago.

The new owner is making arrangements to put up a fine, three story of ice building on these lots and the improvements will come during the coming spring and summer months.

GLAVIS TELLS HIS TROUBLE WITH BALLINGER

Washington, Jan. 28.—The Congressional inquiry into the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy was resumed today. The committee room in the senate office building had been entirely rearranged to provide better accommodations, the seating capacity having been doubled.

Louis R. Glavis was on the stand and it is believed he will not only occupy the stand all day but probably for several days to come.

Mr. Pinchot and his dismissed assistants in the Forest Service, were present but Secretary Ballinger was again absent.

Glavis took up his story where he left it on Wednesday. Glavis said that in 1907 he wrote to H. H. Schwartz, then chief of the field division, saying he was worried about the Alaskan situation. "It will pain you as much as it has pained me," he wrote, "but I am sure you will want to learn the true situation."

"What Alaskan claims did you refer to in that letter?" asked Representative Olmstead.

"All of them."

Mr. Branders then took up the printed documents in the case, which consist of 807 pages and spent some time calling the attention of the committee to various letters and telegrams tending to show Glavis' activity in the Alaska cases, and to certain letters which showed the part Mr. Ballinger played.

In directing the inquiry his purpose was, he said, to indicate that President Taft and Attorney General Wickersham were mistaken when they stated they reached the conclusion that Ballinger's participation had been merely formal.

Glavis told of a visit to Washington where he told Mr. Schwartz of the Land Office of the people of Seattle saying there would be no further investigation into the claims in Alaska and that patents would be granted.

"Said that there was great danger of another big scandal equal to that in Wyoming and Colorado where the investigation of the coal land cases was suppressed," declared Glavis.

Glavis told of a visit to Washington where he told Mr. Schwartz of the Land Office of the people of Seattle saying there would be no further investigation into the claims in Alaska and that patents would be granted.

"Who suppressed these investigations," demanded Senator Payator.

"It was testified at Salt Lake that former commissioner Richards did. Mr. Ballinger had no connection with it in any way."

Later he saw Mr. Ballinger and was placed in charge of all the Alaska cases. Mr. Ballinger told him to make his investigation thorough and to go after them, no matter whether they were his (Ballinger's) friends or not.

Glavis said he was satisfied there was to be a thorough investigation, but in less than a month Ballinger wrote him stating the Cunningham claims had been "clear listed."

Later Glavis said that after his protest by wire and mail the clear listing was revoked.

Arthur R. Bowman, of Cheyenne, was among the witnesses summoned today.

Would Admit Coal Lands to Entry. Washington, Jan. 28.—The House Committee on Public Lands today voted favorably on the Mondell bill admitting to entry the surface of coal lands in the United States. The measure affects about thirty million acres of land in Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oregon, Washington, and Idaho.

The application by the Armour Car Lines to the Interstate Commerce Commission for reparation against the Southern Pacific Company on shipments of ice from Los Angeles to Yuma, Arizona, was rejected today by the Commission, which held that the granting of the request would open the door to the grossest form of favoritism and rebating.

FOR SHERIFF.

The Record is authorized to announce O. Z. Finley as a candidate for Sheriff of Chaves county, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary.

The wives and children receive the greatest benefit from prohibition, in increased comforts and happiness.

It is unquestioned that the people of Roswell desire the saloon matter to be settled by the people and not by the politicians.

Wherever prohibition has been tried it has resulted in greatly increased bank deposits. The reason is simple. The people save their money instead of throwing it away for booze.

Kansas City, Kansas, for the first year of effective prohibition, had a building boom, the increase in building operations being 210 per cent., the greatest in the history of that city.

The Record cannot see how any prominent Democrat can openly oppose the submitting of the saloon question to the people of Roswell. Such a course would be committing political suicide.

A year ago this month Judge Welter carried the First Precinct by a majority of 259. This would easily wipe out any majority of 159 in the Second Precinct, such as that of Tuesday.

The prohibition laws of Kansas have been generally enforced since March 1, 1908. Since that date, Wichita, with formerly forty-five saloons, and now with none, has gained in population, the greatest increase in the are apt to fall in moments of danger, when a clear head and a quick grasp of the situation may result in the saving of lives, and this means money to the railroads.

It is natural for the saloon people to fight any effort to turn any section into the "dry" territory, yet if prohibition not only fails to prohibit but really increases the consumption of alcoholic liquors, why is it that the manufacturers of such liquors are spending vast sums in a vain effort to stay the sweep of prohibition?

The Record has been informed that a movement is on foot to make R. D. Bell police judge of the city. We are also informed that it is the intention of Mr. Bell to remain a member of the city council, and act as such while also holding down the position of justice of the peace. The laws of the territory provide that no man can hold two offices within the territory where the two are "incompatible." There as well as the average amount of deposits are greater.

7. The number of laboring men who own their own homes has increased.

8. Laboring men are spending more money for comforts in their homes.

9. The number of inmates of charitable institutions is less, in proportion to the population, than in years of the open saloons.

10. Evil resorts in the majority of cities have largely decreased, and are far less in evidence.

Such were the conclusions of a man opposed to prohibition, thrust upon him by what he actually saw and heard after a careful investigation.

THE RASMUSSEN CASE.

(Advertisement.)
 Statement of J. H. Hervey, District Attorney, at the conclusion of the trial of C. H. Rasmussen, for larceny of horses, taken at the office of A. J. Welter, Justice of the Peace on January 27, 1910.

MR. HERVEY:
 It appears from the testimony of C. C. Myers, that the horses mentioned in the complaint in this case were among a lot of personal property which Myers and Rasmussen had a contract of sale for, the language of which contract of sale, was mentioned in Myers' testimony, and it further appears that One Hundred Dollars of Four Hundred Dollars was paid and a bill-of-sale put in the Bank to await the payment of the other three hundred.

The only thing constituting a contract is the language written at the bottom of the list signed by Rasmussen which is "I agree to take Four Hundred Dollars for all articles in this list, not covered by contract with the exception of one mare," and the further statement signed by C. C. Myers: "I agree to give Four Hundred Dollars for said articles."

This team with this property belonged to defendant, Rasmussen, and nothing is shown that he intended to sell it for any sum other than the Four Hundred Dollars. He received One Hundred Dollars and put up bill of sale to await the payment of the other three hundred dollars, and nothing was said about the possession.

Under that agreement Rasmussen would be entitled to possession until the other three hundred was paid and the bill-of-sale delivered, unless he waived that right when he subsequently delivered the article. In order to have waived said right it must have been expressly indicated that this team was turned over in pursuance of the contract. It seems that he did not release the team, and without considering his own testimony, that he simply loaned the team to C. C. Myers telling him that he turned over possession to him. While this may be sufficient for Myers to maintain an action of replevin for subsequently taking this property, which he admits, I don't think it is sufficient to constitute a criminal offense and therefore don't ask the Court to require him to answer the Grand Jury.

Roswell, New Mexico, Jan. 27th, 1910.

To Roswell Daily Record:

About January 16th, I sold to C. C. Myers, son of M. P. Myers, of Perry, Mo., the following articles which were not included in land and cattle sale made on Dec. 28th:

Two horses valued $175.00
 20 tons of hay valued at $8
 per ton, $160.00
 Wagon $35, Buggy $30, 65.00

TOTAL $400.00

Bill of Sale and contract being left with First National Bank until balance due was paid, to be turned over to them on cash payment of $300.00 which has not been paid to this date, January 27th, 1910. Balance to be paid on or before the 19th day of January, or at the time they came up to contract on Ranch and cattle sale, which was to be closed by January 20th, 1910.

I came to town January 20th very sick with La Grippe and told C. C. Myers and his mother that I was going up to St. Mary's hospital for treatment, getting a prescription from Dr. Bradley before going up and requesting him to call on me at least twice a day until I should tell him to discontinue his calls. Before going up to the hospital I drove to where C. C. Myers and his mother was rooming and told them they might use my team and buggy to drive out to the ranch on Friday, January 20th, which would save them the price of livery outfit, as I didn't expect to want to use the team, for a few days. C. C. Myers

A Handsome Woman

Every woman may not be handsome, but every woman should keep with care the good points nature has given her. No woman need have sallow skin, dull eye, blotchy complexion, who pays proper attention to her health. Where constipation, liver derangements, blood impurities and other irregularities exist, good complexion, bright eyes and sprightly movements cannot exist. Internal derangements reveal themselves sooner or later on the surface. Headache, dark rings around the eyes, sallow skin, a constant tired feeling—mean that the liver and digestive organs are needing help and correction. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets give this necessary help. They work in nature's own way. They do not merely flush the bowels but tone up the liver and stomach to fulfill their proper functions. So mild and gentle do they act that one hardly realizes that they have taken medicine. Chamberlain's Tablets can be relied upon to relieve biliousness, indigestion, constipation and distress. Sold everywhere. Price 25 cents.

WHAT PROHIBITION HAS DONE.

Pearson's Magazine, which has recently been publishing a series of articles in opposition to prohibition, finally concluded to get at the truth of the matter and sent one of its writers, a man opposed to prohibition, to the state of Kansas to study the results of prohibition there. Here are his conclusions, as given briefly:

1. The volume of business has increased.
2. Crime has lessened.
3. Real estate has increased in value.
4. Building operations are more extensive.
5. The degrading influence of the dives upon society, and in politics, has been largely destroyed.
6. Bank deposits have increased, and the average number of depositors, agreed to care for them for me. On Monday the trade was not closed.

After two days of an effort to close it on my part—could have been closed on Saturday, the 22nd in fifteen minutes, but M. P. Myers wanted me to loose a labor bill, 23 days work at $1.50 per day, amounting to $34.50 which I would not agree to loose, as it was a just debt and I wanted the money. So Monday evening I asked him in the presence of Mr. Turner, being in Turner and Davis' real estate office, if he had any objection to me getting my team. He said he had not, so I asked him to leave the horses in Ballard and Bell's livery stable and to have them there not later than Tuesday morning. Tuesday morning I went to see if the horses had been left as I requested. They had not, so I again told him to have them there as I requested. Still they were not left as I requested. Tuesday about two o'clock I got a livery rig and got them to send a boy with me and we went and got the horses. Found them in a dry lot. No feed of any kind in sight, not even any water, so I took the team and put them in Ballard and Bell's livery stable to be cared for. Tuesday evening M. P. Myers swore out a warrant against me for larceny of two horses claiming they were his property, the warrant being served Wednesday in the Justice Court. So these are the facts.

(Signed) C. H. RASMUSSEN.
 The case against me for stealing the horses came up before Justice Welter today. Mr. Hervey, the district attorney, being present to prosecute. Messrs Gatewood & Graves defending me.

M. P. Myers, the prosecuting witness and his wife and son testifying against me and I testified for myself. This was all the testimony taken. Mr. Hervey then dismissed the case against me.

CAHOON EXPECTS STATEHOOD ON REPUBLICAN PROMISE.

Santa Fe New Mexican.
 "I feel confident that we shall get statehood very soon. Why? Because it is evident that the subterfuges used to put us off are exhausted. The fact that the Republican party is pledged to give New Mexico Statehood is sufficient to enlist President Taft's support for the measure."

This was the declaration made by E. A. Cahoon, president of the board of regents of the New Mexico Military Institute and prominent banker and Republican of Roswell. Mr. Cahoon is here attending the reunion of the Masons and was interviewed by a reporter this afternoon.

"I am confident that Delegate Andrews is doing all in his power to get statehood," he continued, "and any reports or rumors to the contrary, I, for one, regard as not only without foundation but positively absurd. I am also confident that President Taft is for the measure because it was a plank in the platform on which he was elected. I do not think it will be long before we are admitted to the Union because there is no longer any excuse for keeping us out and the House and Senate know it."

"Lack of population? Why we have sufficient number of people in the Territory to warrant statehood. We have as many people as other territories had when they were admitted. This talk of New Mexico being too thinly populated is absurd."

Mr. Cahoon declared that as a banker he finds business conditions in his county good. He said that the New Mexico Military Institute is in better shape than ever before and that the $60,000 building now being erected will likely be finished in May. It is being erected to replace the one which was burned down.

Mr. Cahoon is regarded as one of the most prominent Republicans in New Mexico although he has repeatedly declared he is not in politics and has no aspirations for political honors.

The County Poll Tax Must be Collected by First Monday in April. Department of Education, Territory of New Mexico, Santa Fe, N. M., Jan. 25th, 1910.

Supt. C. C. Hill, Roswell, N. M.

Dear Sir:—Your interpretation of the law concerning the collection of poll tax given in your letter of January twenty-second is correct.

Clerks are expected to make collection on or before the date set to make report to the county superintendent as you have outlined. I cannot think of any letter that I have written to any member of a Board concerning this matter which could be interpreted to mean that the clerk might spend the entire year in collection of poll tax for his district if he chose to do so. I have written to some one a letter to the effect that if a man is known at any time during the calendar year to have not paid his poll tax for that year in any district, said poll tax may be collected. Every man should preserve his receipt for payment of poll tax which receipt should show the year for which tax was paid. If he cannot show receipt for the current year, collection can be made according to law.

Yours very respectfully,

J. E. CLARK.

Territorial Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Roswell, N. M., Jan. 27, 1910.

To the District Clerk:

Dear Sir:—

The above is a copy of a letter I have received from the Territorial Superintendent, and have placed on file in my office. You will see from the above that the work of collecting the poll tax of your district must be begun and completed by the first Monday in April, at which time you must report to me the names of all persons who have refused to pay their poll tax and the reason for said refusal, as I have already directed in my letter of instructions to district clerks concerning the collection of poll tax.

Respectfully,

C. C. HILL,

County Superintendent.

history of that city. Pittsburg, Kansas, which has, through its city officials, fiercely fought the enforcement of prohibition, has lost 900 in population.

During the first year of prohibition in Kansas City, Kansas, and by this we mean the enforcement of the prohibition laws, the deposits of one bank in that city jumped from $2,663,000 to $3,933,000, the largest increase in the history of the institution.

The railroads of the country, as well as other large corporations, are strongly opposed to booting. It is not a matter of sentiment with them. It is clear-cut business, cold, chrewd calculating; it means dollars and cents to them and they know it from actual experience. They have found out that men who habitually indulge in large quantities of booze are not the best workmen, and above are all may be some doubt as to whether or not Mr. Bell can be councilman and justice of the peace at the same time, but it is clearly evident that he could not sit as a member of the city council, pass ordinances and then as police judge pass upon cases brought under these same ordinances, with the city of Roswell a party to the case, represented through its city council, with Bell a member. It would be absurd to allow a party to a suit to sit in judgment upon the same. Yet if it be the intention to make Bell police judge and he remain a member of the city council this is exactly what would happen, and we believe any court in the country would throw out all such decisions.

The effect of prohibition is to increase business of all kinds. This is easily understood. The people spend their money for clothing, food and house supplies, instead of for booze. Who can doubt that it would be a good thing for Roswell's merchants to have the two hundred thousand dollars a year now spent here for booze spent with them for clothing, groceries, house furnishing, hardware, and the things generally purchased for the home?

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 28.—Western Canada broke all records for the magnitude of its wheat crop last year, according to the official figures. The year was marked by the unprecedented and enormous increase in Saskatchewan yield. This is the first time that Saskatchewan has passed Manitoba, and it not only passed Manitoba but almost doubled it. This places Saskatchewan now in the position of the premier wheat province of the Dominion. Here are the figures: Manitoba, 45,774,797; Saskatchewan 99,255,990; Alberta, 8,250,000; total, 144,278,797.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD.

The January party at the Roswell Commercial Club last night was attended by one of the largest crowds of the winter and the party was one of the most successful of the winter's program of social events at this popular club.

Upon the arrival of the guests, a musical program was carried out that proved delightful from start to finish. The opening number was an overture by the Norvell orchestra, following which Mrs. Floyd Wheeler sang. Then came a vocal duet by Miss Beulah Baker and Mr. W. J. Elliott. The Norvell orchestra again gave a number and Col. W. S. Barlow rendered a vocal selection. The program was concluded by a number by a quartet composed of Miss Baker and Mesdames B. D. Garner, Floyd Wheeler and W. F. Hinds. After the musical program the orchestra furnished a program of splendid pieces for dancing and those who cared for the amusement repaired to the ball room. The others remained to play whist, five and other games, or to chat socially in the crowd. Delicious orange sherbet, cake and coffee were served through the after part of the program.

To the patronesses is due the credit for the evening's success and these ladies were Mesdames S. P. Denning, John T. McClure, A. D. Garrett, C. F. Joyce, W. J. Wilson, C. E. Baker and W. N. Baldwin and Miss Elizabeth Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Patterson entertained at Five Hundred last night, following an afternoon party for the lady friends of Mrs. Patterson yesterday. The evening was happily spent around the five tables that were arranged for the evening and at the conclusion an appetizing salad course was served. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames C. F. Beeson, W. W. Phillips, Percy Evans, Harry Jaffa, H. de B. Hedin, U. S. Bateman, W. W. Ogle, R. M. Parsons, W. S. Prager; Mrs. Becker of Chicago; Misses Kite, Wilkinson and Sherwood.

A Step Forward in Progress.

Yesterday marked a long step forward in the steady progress of Roswell and the Pecos Valley. Heretofore the big financial firms of the Eastern and Middle states have not invested in the valley upon the same favorable terms as in other western sections, but the announcement was made yesterday that the Kansas City Life Insurance Company had closed contracts for two substantial loans in Roswell, upon more favorable terms as to interest charges that was ever made in New Mexico.

One loan is for $20,000.00 on the new Masonic Temple at the Northwest corner of Fourth and Penn. The other to be on a three story modern business building erected on what is conceded to be the best corner in the city. The detailed plans of the owner have not yet been made public, but it is said that this will be the most expensive and modern building erected in this city. The insurance company was represented by Col. Fred W. Fleming, O. J. Durand, and R. M. Parsons, of this city, the local representative.

While here Col. Fleming and his associates made an auto trip to Dexter, Greenfield and Hagaman, inspecting some farm properties, offered as security for loans. Although none of these were definitely closed, the papers will be prepared, etc. The company will make other substantial investments in the Pecos Valley during the coming year.

EVERY MAN IS AN ADVERTISER. whether he will or no. Some men simply advertise their own "dum" foolishness, by saying, "I don't need to advertise." But the Wise Men use brains and tell their story boldly upon the printed page—telling the people the things which they want to know. And this is also just what the Wise man wants to have them know. Thus is SUCCESSFUL advertising a simple thing, withal, yet mighty profitable.

WOULD LABEL ALL THE BIRDS.

Illinois Audubon Society's Plan to Shed Light on Their Habits.

If a plan the Illinois Audubon society has in mind goes through it will not be long before one will be able to capture any bird whatsoever, glance at his right leg and see thereon a neatly tabulated history of the bird's career, telling his winter and summer quarters and where he was last seen.

At a business meeting of the society the other afternoon in Fullerton Hall Art Institute, Chicago, a remark was made of the fact that there were a number of birds in existence of whom little was known, not even their migratory courses.

"A scheme has been tried out which might be successful in this case," remarked Ruthven Deane, president of the society, "and which would help us in learning where these birds winter. Whenever one of them is captured alive let a small bit of aluminium be put on his right leg, upon which shall be the place and date he was last seen. When he is again found, in some other clime, his identity will be known."

The suggestion was enthusiastically received, and the Audubon society requested that funds with which to purchase the "tags," or labels, be sent to headquarters; also any individual desiring to lend personal effort to the work would please answer.

MEMORIAL TO THE INDIAN.

Giant Statue Planned For New York Harbor by Rodman Wanamaker.

In the grand ballroom at Sherry's, in New York, the other night Rodman Wanamaker, son of John Wanamaker, tendered a dinner to Colonel William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) which will be long remembered by those who attended. It was suggested during the evening that a statue of an American Indian, with arms outstretched in welcome to the world and matching in size the Liberty statue, be placed in New York harbor at the Hudson's mouth. The memorial will be erected by Rodman Wanamaker, son of John Wanamaker. Colonel Cody voiced the proposition, and it was endorsed by General Nelson A. Miles, General Leonard Wood and General Horace Porter.

It was a distinguished company that listened to Colonel Cody after he was presented by the toastmaster, Job E. Hedges. They applauded the colonel, who, with a bow to Sioux Chief Ironshell and his son Henry, dressed in their war togs and feathers, first paid tribute to the great service rendered by Mr. Wanamaker in sending expeditions to the far west for the collection of historical material so that the vanishing red man should not go down in history with the real virtues of his great race unknown and unappreciated. "Mr. Wanamaker has not told me what he intends to do for the Indian," said Colonel Cody. "I know the value of his expeditions, but I believe he has in mind some further way of perpetuating the character of the race. I have an idea that the work now begun means a monument in the harbor as big as Liberty or bigger of an Indian with hands extended in welcome.

"I have known the red man since I was a baby. I have known him on the warpath and in peace, and I have known him to be always honorable in peace or war. He has been driven back over the country of which he once was lord. I have seen the bones of white men on Indian land, but never have I seen the bones of Indians on white men's land."

General Miles, old Indian fighter and friend of Buffalo Bill, praised his scout and told stories of the plains. General Porter, who crossed the continent before the days of the first transcontinental railroad, said he had found Buffalo Bill the most reliable scout in the country, and Cody always knew where the best grass, water and whiskey could be had.
