THE YAQUI OUTBREAK.

Details of a Bloody Battle
Fought July 29.

Political Situation in Hayti Causing Great Anxiety.

American Minister Causes Release of One of the Prisoners.

AMERICANS ATTACKED BY FILIPINOS.

City of Mexico, Aug. 2.—News from the lower Yaqui river country today is that roving bands of Indians are killing both Mexicans and Americans. Fear is expressed for the safety of a large number of American prospectors in the Sierra Madre mountains.

On the 23d of last month signs of the present trouble became apparent. Chief Tebatiate, always peacefully inclined, ordered the tribe to remain quiet, and ordered five of the principal disturbers shot. The Indians beat the chief to death with clubs, and then a large band massacred fifty soldiers in the barracks at Bacum, slaughtered Carlos Hale, a prominent merchant of Guaymas, and went down the river murdering and plundering. The noted frontier general, Lorenzo Torres, the commander of the military zone of Sonora, with only 200 men, marched from Potan to Bacum, and threw himself on the assembled Yaqui forces. The battle waged for two days, in which forty Yaquis and eleven soldiers perished. The Yaquis were pushed back toward the mountains. On the third day another fight took place, in which thirty three Yaquis and four chiefs were killed. The Yaquis were dispersed and driven further into the hills. State troops were gathered from all over Sonora by Governor Corral. About 1,500 men pursued the Yaquis into the mountain fastnesses. The army was joined by artillery and rushed from Chihuahua. The Yaquis took a position on the peaks Cueta Alta.

The latest report is that the battle was fought on July 29, and the troops were gaining an advantage. The Indians have been fighting among themselves for five days, a large proportion of them being opposed to an uprising.

The present outbreak was precipitated largely by the rush of prospectors to the country thrown open in 1898 by treaty. The Yaquis were then assigned a large stretch of territory for their exclusive use. Recently prospectors were given permission by the government to invade the domain set aside for the Indians and many took advantage of the permission.

Trouble in Hayti.

Port au Prince, Hayti, Aug. 2.—The political situation is causing anxiety. There are numerous arrests. Among those taken into custody are M. Duhail, former minister of the interior, and M. Duvalier, a newspaper man. Duvalier made a strong resistance and succeeded in entering the United States legation, dragging with him the officers detailed to take him into custody. United States Minister William F. Powell entered a protest against the action of the officers and demands the release of the prisoners. Eventually the Haytian government gave way to the protest of Powell. Duvalier was set at liberty and re-entered the United States legation.

Big Damage to Grain.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 2.—Reports received from nearly all the grain-growing states in the western Mississippi valley indicate that immeasurable and wide spread damage has been done in the last twenty-four hours by hail and wind. The states that suffered most are Minnesota, South Dakota and Nebraska. It is conservatively estimated that fully half a million acres of richly fruited crops have been leveled by the storm.

Competition Wiped Out.

Austin, Texas, Aug. 2.—Henry Washburn, a ship broker of Vera Cruz, Mexico, has arrived. He reports that the Waters Pierce Oil company, a branch of the Standard Oil company, has acquired all interests in the Mexican Oil company. Its only competition in Mexico.

Afraid of the Yellow Jack.

Washington, Aug. 2.—Some difficulty is being experienced in removing troops from Fort Monroe. The steamship companies will not take them and no government transports are available.

List of Casualties.

Washington, Aug. 2.—General Otis cables the following casualties: Killed: Twenty-first Infantry—July 26, near Cabaña, Company B, William A. Kenned; July 30, Company G, William Murphy; Company K, Corporal Charles Henderson. Wounded—Five.

Money Market.

New York, Aug. 2.—Money on call, firm at 4 per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 3 1/4 to 4 1/2 per cent.

Americans Attacked.

Manila, Aug. 2.—Mail advices from the island of Obo announce that a company of Americans last week were attacked from Filipino trenches situated two kilometers from El Pardo. The

GENERAL DAWES DEAD.

San Francisco, Aug. 2.—The United States hospital ship Relief arrived here early this morning from the Philippines. The Relief has 920 men on board, most of whom are sick and wounded soldiers, including the following commissioned officers: Captain John F. Zettler, Nebraska; Captain Wm. J. Watson, Twenty-third Kansas; Captain Adna G. Clarke, Twenty-third Kansas; First Lieutenant John C. McArthur, Third Infantry; Second Lieutenant Collin H. Hall, Twenty-third Kansas; Second Lieutenant Oliver C. Lapp, South Dakota.

The invalided men will be confined in the recently completed post hospital at the Presidio.

Two deaths occurred on the voyage.

FACTIONAL DEMOCRATS.

Met in Lexington, Ky., to Oppose Election of Goebel.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 2.—The conference of Bryan democrats who are opposed to William Goebel for governor here today, to decide upon measures to be taken. Almost two hundred solid democrats, headed by ex-governor John Young Brown, have arrived. The meeting opened at 1 o'clock.

The chief question at issue is as to the policy of nominating a state ticket or only candidates for governor and lieutenant governor. The drift of opinion seems to favor a full ticket as the most effective way of showing disapproval of the methods of the convention that nominated the Goebel ticket. Ex-Gov. Brown's name is now discussed for governor, and Major P. P. Johnston, late chairman of the democratic state committee and president of the National Trotting Horse Breeders' association, is the popular choice for lieutenant governor. There will be no effort to secure the regular democratic emblem, and the popular suggestion for an emblem is the portrait of Bryan.

The conference is likely to call an anti-Goebel convention about August 10, to nominate a state ticket.

NO POLITICAL SIGNIFICANCE.

No Cables Commander Logan in Regard to Killing of Santo Domingo's President.

Washington, Aug. 2.—The navy department received the following report by telegram from Commander Logan of the gunboat Machias, which arrived at Santo Domingo city yesterday:

"Santo Domingo, Aug. 1.—The United States consul says that the death of the president of Santo Domingo is believed to have no political significance. The motive of the assassin is supposed to have been personal revenge. The vice president of Santo Domingo succeeded without political disturbance and reappointed the former cabinet. No disorder exists."

GENERAL DAWES DEAD.

Chairman of the Dawes Indian Commission Passes Away.

Marletta, Ohio, Aug. 1.—Gen. Rufus B. Dawes, father of Charles G. Dawes, comptroller of the currency, died at midnight, aged 61. He enlisted in the Sixth Wisconsin regiment in the civil war, was promoted to brevet brigadier general and fought twenty battles. He served in congress from 1880 to 1882. President McKinley tendered him the post of minister to Persia, but he declined.

He was the chairman of the Dawes Indian commission, appointed for the purpose of making settlements with the different Indian tribes in Indian territory.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., AUG. 2, 1899

WILL VISIT THIS COUNTRY.

The visit of President of Porto Rico, Diaz, to the United States will be an event of national importance to this country. President Diaz has managed the affairs of our sister republic so ably and efficiently that Mexico is coming rapidly to the front and is attracting more attention in the financial circles of the world than ever before. The recent placing of the large Mexican loan at extremely favorable rates of interest in New York City will bring the commercial relations of the two republics much closer together.

In the early part of the coming October President Diaz will pass through Albuquerque en route to Chicago. He will be met at the boundary line by Governor Otero and staff, who will escort the distinguished visitor through New Mexico, and other governors accompanied by their staffs, will meet and escort him through the various states along his route. If President Diaz could be induced to stop over a few hours in Albuquerque great crowds of people would gather here to do him honor. If the city council would pass a resolution asking this, and send it to Hon. Chas. C. Gordon, chairman of committee on arrangements, Chicago, Ill., this might easily be accomplished. As the time is short, it is hoped that the council will act promptly in this matter.

NEIGHBORLY NOTICES.
The Las Vegas Optic, in commenting on the cheap railroad rates to fair visitors, says:
Albuquerque people will undoubtedly be almost deluged by the influx of visitors to the territorial fair. The exceedingly cheap rate of a half-cent a mile, to be given by the Santa Fe railroad company, will not be responsible entirely for this, as the program to be held during the fair will be an exceedingly attractive one.

In another column, referring to the president of the association, the Optic says:
W. T. McCreight, president of the Albuquerque fair association, is head over heels in the work in connection with the fair. Mr. McCreight is an enthusiastic and tireless worker and under his leadership the fair promises to be a big success. The fair this year will inaugurate a new feature in the way of a street carnival, and besides will devote the usual attention to the racing features.

The junior member of THE CITIZEN is thankful for the above pleasant words, but the Optic must remember that to carry out successfully such a varied entertainment as has been agreed upon by the territorial fair association for this fall's amusement, no one man should be given the entire credit. While we are working hard to make the new features of the fair this fall a grand and glorious success—a credit to New Mexico and Albuquerque—the president has the advice and hearty co-operation of a most excellent and hard-working executive committee, the chairman of which is P. F. McCanna, and the members Wallace Hesseliden, Arthur Kevitt, Simon Stern, G. A. Campbell, G. M. Albright, J. A. Trimble and Robert R. Putney. A majority of the members have attended every calling meeting, while the president and chairman of the committee are holding meetings every evening.

Yes, the fair this fall will be a boomer from "end to end," in the language of old John Harper, the Kentucky horseman, and will commence on the morning of Tuesday, September 19, and wind up in a blaze of glory on Saturday night, September 23.

WEATHER AND CROP.
R. M. Harding, director of the weather bureau, New Mexico section, Santa Fe, has just issued his weekly crop bulletin. In summing up the observations made by the correspondents of the bureau throughout New Mexico, the director says:
"Warm, showery weather characterized the week ending July 31, but while in general the rains were sufficient for crops over northern sections, over central and southern counties the showers were light and scattered, and far from sufficient for the needs of vegetation. The rains of the previous week, and the heavy showers of northern sections of this week, interrupted and delayed wheat and alfalfa harvests, and in some districts considerable loss was sustained. In the vicinity of Albuquerque it is estimated that nearly all of the second cutting of alfalfa was more or less damaged. As a rule, irrigation water is abundant, but in some localities planters have much difficulty in getting sufficient water for their crops."

"The warm weather, with the showers, has made a good growing week, and notwithstanding the scarcity of water in some localities, reports in general indicate a most promising improvement in the later crops, especially wheat, oats, wheat, second and third alfalfa, and especially in garden truck and all root crops. Wheat and the third crop of alfalfa is about as secured as far north as Albuquerque, but, as stated above, it was not housed in the best condition, owing to the rains. In general corn continues to show marked improvement, although in the vicinity of Bernalillo, and south, many fields seem to be almost total failures. All reports indicate that the third growth of alfalfa will be a fine crop. Grass on the ranges is growing nicely, but as a rule is shorter than usual at this season of the year. However, a marked improvement in stock interest is noted, as the feed in general is very good, and all outside water holes are filled."

Brother Gabriel, who is the correspondent of the bureau at Bernalillo, made the following report:
We have had good rains, but river still low, and planters are required to ditch work every three or four days to keep their irrigation properly supplied, and many fail to get any water at all. From Alameda to Santo Domingo corn fields are very poor, and at present some fields seem complete failures. Wheat is somewhat better, but cannot be compared with previous years. Most of the wheat is out, and some of it threshed; also some wheat in the recent rains and damaged. Second alfalfa is out, and third crop growing vigorously. Some alfalfa was damaged by the rains. Corn, suffering the scarcity of water, vineyards are looking very well. Gardens are coming along nicely, with the exception of tomatoes, which are being greatly injured by worms and bugs at the roots. In general, the prospect for crops is poor. Peas are greatly damaged by worms and field sparrows. Hangers are some what better, and cattle show some improvement. In the last ten rains the fall has been 3.21 inches. Highest temperature, 90; lowest, 61; rain, none.

Prof. A. M. S. Jones, Jr., the Old Albuquerque correspondent, sent in the following report:
The weather continues very favorable for crops. A good rain the afternoon of the 20th, but which will delay wheat harvest for a couple of days. Wheat is probably two-thirds of a full crop; there is some smut, and it seems also that the crop never fully recovered from the early frost. About half the crop is ready to thresh. Corn is looking very nice, and is making rapid progress. At most all the second crop of alfalfa was smothered by the rain, the crop is about twelve inches high, and is growing very fast. We still have some water for irrigation.

In accordance with the policy of the Santa Fe management, a deed has been filed in the office of the probate clerk at Silver City, transferring the line of the Rio Grande, Mexico & Pacific, extending from San Marcial to Deming and from Deming to the Rio Grande, to the Santa Fe & Santa Fe. The deed named branch comprises 129 miles and the latter 57 miles.

EVERY merchant and property owner of Albuquerque are interested in the forthcoming great territorial fair. The new features, with the exceedingly cheap railroad rates, will bring a tremendous crowd to the metropolis next month.

The rustling committee of the territorial fair association need more money, and several members will be out on a "begging tour" every afternoon of this week.

Col. Albright at El Paso.

The following mysterious item is clipped from the El Paso Independent, and throws out a hint that Col. Albright is trying to get back into the newspaper business:

The rumor referred to in the Times yesterday, of the purchases of the Evening Herald by the freight publisher and his satellite, and the placing of J. G. Albright and George Speck in charge of the editorial department in lieu of the present staff, would be sufficient in itself to explain an attempt at burlesque on the part of the Times, without reading for their caustic criticisms of the subject matter under which the bright young editor of the Herald has written.

ACTIVE PREPARATIONS FOR THE BIG CARNIVAL

Good Work by Executive Committee Regarding the Great Fair.

READ ARTICLE AND KEEP POSTED.

A quorum of the executive committee of the territorial fair association met at the city hall last night, and transacted a big lot of business.

W. Hesseliden was appointed a committee on grand stands, while Simon Stern was retained as a committee on securing concessions to lots, etc.

G. A. Campbell was appointed a committee on "rock-drilling contests," and was requested to commence correspondence at once with some of the famous "rock drillers" of New Mexico and Arizona.

A proposition from Miss Hogan, for basket club contest between El Paso and Albuquerque ladies, was discussed, but no positive action taken in the matter.

Jens Romero, manager of the First regiment band, placed before the committee a proposition to play every day during the fair, from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m., for a stipulated price. The proposition of Mr. Romero was accepted, and the band will immediately send east for some new music.

The committee decided to give the pretty May-pole dance two or three times during the festivities, the little people to take part also in the big Thursday afternoon's parade. The president of the association was authorized to secure the services of Mrs. Walton as designer and trainer.

A series of base ball games, between strictly bona fide New Mexico and Arizona players (this also includes El Paso), will be given, and a fair-sized purse, divided in three money, will undoubtedly stimulate the various amateur clubs throughout the territory mentioned to compete. Imported professionals will be barred, and those participating as playing members must be residents of the towns they represent forty-five days before the meeting of the tournament.

The other racing features were fully discussed, and it was concluded to give bicycle, horse, foot and other exciting races, good purses being offered for each and every race.

The big trades' display and parade, which will be held Thursday afternoon, and which will prove one of the grandest features of fair week, was discussed, and the president was instructed to send written invitations to all civic organizations, societies, clubs, fire companies and merchants generally to take part in making this parade a grand success.

Carnival day proper will be Friday, September 22, and the committee is now signing on a novel program for that day. The carnival ball will occur at the Armory that evening, and the committee hopes to make this also a triumphant success, and would like to have all the merry-makers of the city prepare themselves for the carnival ball.

The mineral, agricultural and fruit displays came in for considerable discussion, and a great effort will be made to make this department of the forthcoming fair the superior of any exhibition of the kind ever given at previous fairs.

As to the midway pleasure, the committee is still in communication with several amusement companies, who will do balloon ascensions and parachute leaps in connection with other events. This feature of the fair will prove a great drawing card, and will not be lacking in interest.

Communications were then read, and all, with the exception of a lengthy letter from a millionaire, approved of the action of the fair association in deviating from the old rule for amuseing the people this fall. The millionaire's letter deplored the decadence of Albuquerque and the territorial fair association in keeping up with other progressive cities and giving something new, instead of horse racing, but a contribution. His letter was not placed in the same pile with that of A. A. Grant, who subscribed $100 toward the fair fund.

Delegate to Congress Pedro Perea, in a letter, wishes the fair great success, and states that he would aid the committee in securing a certain attraction, which will be mentioned later. Governor Otero has also signified his desire to make the fair a success in every particular.

The letter of J. J. Byrne, general passenger agent of the Santa Fe Pacific, offering a half a cent rate for fair visitors from all stations east of Needles, Cal., was introduced and read by the president. Besides offering most excellent rates—the cheapest and best in the history of the road—Mr. Byrne stated that he would send the big carnival and street fair was properly and judiciously advertised in every town along the railroad.

OTERO COUNTY BONDS SOLD.

Credit of the County shown to Be Above Par in a Sale of County Bonds.

The first issue of Otero county bonds of $5,000 to defray county organization, etc., were taken this week by J. F. Manning for Herman Russell, above par, says the Alamogordo News. The price exceeded anything heretofore paid for bonds in the territory of New Mexico, and the sale demonstrates that Otero county is in good standing with the investing public. Otero county is all right, and its soundness resources are recognized by interested people abroad. County bonds do not ordinarily command a premium, but Otero county bonds do.

Mrs. Michael Curtiss, Pleasant, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. She bought a bottle, and to her delight found herself benefited from the first dose. ## ACTIVE PREPARATIONS FOR THE BIG CARNIVAL

Good Work by Executive Committee Regarding the Great Fair.

READ ARTICLE AND KEEP POSTED.

A quorum of the executive committee of the territorial fair association met at the city hall last night, and transacted a big lot of business.

W. Hesseliden was appointed a committee on grand stands, while Simon Stern was retained as a committee on securing concessions to lots, etc.

G. A. Campbell was appointed a committee on "rock-drilling contests," and was requested to commence correspondence at once with some of the famous "rock drillers" of New Mexico and Arizona.

A proposition from Miss Hogan, for basket club contest between El Paso and Albuquerque ladies, was discussed, but no positive action taken in the matter.

Jens Romero, manager of the First regiment band, placed before the committee a proposition to play every day during the fair, from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m., for a stipulated price. The proposition of Mr. Romero was accepted, and the band will immediately send east for some new music.

The committee decided to give the pretty May-pole dance two or three times during the festivities, the little people to take part also in the big Thursday afternoon's parade. The president of the association was authorized to secure the services of Mrs. Walton as designer and trainer.

A series of base ball games, between strictly bona fide New Mexico and Arizona players (this also includes El Paso), will be given, and a fair-sized purse, divided in three money, will undoubtedly stimulate the various amateur clubs throughout the territory mentioned to compete.
