ENTENTE NATIONS REPLY TO GERMANY'S PEACE NOTE AND DECLINE TO CONSIDER THE PROPOSAL FOR CONFERENCE

The steamer was formerly the Harm, built in American liner Spacia, and had been confiscated by the Russians, influence the future course of war and to end it by imposing German peace. The objects of these overtures is to create dissension in public opinion in the allied countries. But that public opinion is not so easily deceived has already been entered by the allies already given its answer with admirable firmness, and has denounced the empty pretense of the declaration of the enemy powers.

Stiffening Public Opinion.

"They have the further object of stiffening public opinion in Germany and in the countries allied to her—one and all severely tried by their losses won out by economic pressure, and crushed by the economic effort which has been imposed upon their inhabitants."

"They endeavor to deceive and intimidate public opinion in neutral countries, whose inhabitants have long since made up their minds where the initial responsibility lies and are far too enlightened to favor the designs of Germany by abandoning the principles of human freedom."

"Finally, it is asserted, these overtures are an attempt to advance the cause of a series of crimes—submarine warfare, deportations, forced labor, and other violations of the principles of international law."

"The German overtures are described as a calculated attempt to influence the future course of the war and to bring about a German peace. The overtures are also said to have the effect of intimidating neutral public opinion as well as to stiffen opinion in the central powers, worn out by economic pressure and which have been imposed upon their inhabitants."

many and Austria-Hungary, and that Germany made no effort to bring about a peaceful settlement of the war between Serbia and Austria-Hungary, as did Great Britain, France and Russia.

A peace concluded upon the German idea would be only to the advantage of the central powers, and the note disavows the claim that the war is a demand for reparation and guarantees.

"FLOP IT OVER, WILLIE"

WILLIE RITCHIE

Fight four men or may not recognize this as Willie Ritchie, once light-weight champion boxer of the world. Willie is learning to be a sure enough high flyer and hopes to get a commission as lieutenant in the army aviation corps, after he has finished his period of instruction at a flying school at Redwood City, California, where this picture was taken, just as Willie was "turning her over" for a flight.

NOTABLE MEN TO FLASH GREETINGS AT MOVIE SHOWS

Good Wishes for the New Year Are to Be Shown on Screens at 12,000 Moving Picture Theaters Today.

New York, Dec. 30.—New Year's greetings from Secretary of State Lansing and other members of the president's cabinet, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and other notable men will be flashed tomorrow upon the screens in 12,000 moving picture theaters, it was announced today.

Count von Bernstorff's greeting, which was the first to be received, was a message of good wishes for the new year.

"On behalf of my country, I wish the people of the United States of America a happy and prosperous New Year," the message read.

Secretary Lansing wrote: "Looking into the future, as we all do at New Year's time, I am sure that none of us is without hope and faith that we cannot see in that future possibilities for service which are ours as individuals and as a nation. It should be our sincere prayer that when the opportunity is offered, we will be ready."

Mr. Rockefeller's message was devoted exclusively to the relations of employer and employee. It read:

"Employers as well as workers are glad and more appreciating the human equation and realizing that mutual respect and understanding are the basis of a better world."

And above all, may our beloved country, under the guidance of God, be able to exert its great power and influence successfully for the restoration of peace throughout the world in 1917.

Secretary of War Baker said: "It is a cause for profound gratitude that this nation has preserved both its peacefulness and its honor. Whether by comparison with previous years or by comparison with the remainder of the world, our country never has come to a New Year with more cause to be thankful."

Churchmen start a move against premature peace.

Philadelphia, Dec. 30.—Leading churchmen of the United States, led by the Rev. Dr. Charles C. Burleigh, of the Episcopal church, have launched a movement in opposition to the acceptance of a premature peace agreement by the warring nations of Europe.

Details of the movement, according to an announcement by George Wharton Pepper of this city, a prominent Episcopalian layman, will be made public in a statement to be given out in Washington tomorrow.

The movement is said to be in the nature of a counter-drive against the pro-peace propaganda conducted by the Church Peace union, organized by Andrew Carnegie.

The statement will be signed by churchmen of various faiths, including several bishops, it is said.

The movement was first discussed at a meeting in the office of Mr. Pepper on Thursday, and was attended by Bishop Joseph F. Berry of the Methodist Episcopal church; William T. Ellis and others.

EDUARD STRAUSS, COMPOSER, DIES

Berlin, Dec. 29.—Eduard Strauss, 56, a Vienna dispatch, announces the death of Eduard Strauss, the composer of dance music.

Eduard Strauss was a member of a famous musical family. His father, Johann Strauss, was considered the most notable composer and conductor of dance music of his generation and wrote 246 pieces of dance music. In addition to a series of comic operas, Eduard's brother, Josef, was known as the "waltz king" and was the composer of 253 popular waltzes. More than 200 pieces of dance music are credited to Eduard. He was conductor of court balls in Petrograd for several years and visited America in 1902. In recent years he had made his home in Vienna. He was 51 years old.

Maitai goes ashore; flight is unknown.

San Francisco, Dec. 30.—The British steamship Maitai, of the Union Steamship company of New Zealand, went ashore December 28 on Kure Island, one of the Cook Islands, according to information received here today by the marine department of the United States navy.

The Maitai, from San Francisco for Wellington, N. Z., carried forty-three passengers, but a number left ship at Kure and about twenty-five are believed to be aboard with a crew of thirty.

The present passenger list includes Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ransom, Arizona. Details of the accident were not received and the flight of the steamer is not known here.

French armored cruiser sunk in Mediterranean.

Paris, Dec. 30.—The French armored cruiser Gueule, was torpedoed in the Mediterranean sea on December 29, according to a dispatch received here today by the French navy department.

On the morning of the attack the crew of the Gueule was on the deck. The ship was hit by a single torpedo, which sank her. Two of the crew were killed by the explosion.

Norwegian steamer sunk.

Paris, Dec. 30.—The Norwegian steamship Thyra, 2,442 tons gross, is reported to have been sunk in the Atlantic ocean, according to a dispatch received here today by the French navy department.

The Thyra was on her way from Bordeaux to New York. She was hit by a single torpedo, which sank her. Two of the crew were killed by the explosion.

Arizona State Land Sale Opens.

Tucson, Ariz., Dec. 30.—The beginning of a sale of 10,000,000 acres of state land is scheduled for January 20, when 150 tracts of 640 acres will be offered by P. J. Murphy, of the state land office, at prices ranging from $3 to $5 an acre. The land is located in Tombstone, Sulphur Springs and San Simon valleys. Mr. Murphy arrived here today from Phoenix to make preparations for the sale.

Try to Locate Hupp.

Silver City, N. M., Dec. 30.—The military command of the American troops at Lordsburg, Tex., and the American consul, were appealed today to assist in locating Otto Hupp, who left here December 26 for Mexico City, via El Paso, to bring his mother and sister here. Hupp has not arrived at the Mexican capital, a message from his sister stated today, and friends here fear he has fallen into the hands of Mexican bandits.

Resolve and Act

THIS is the time for resolutions and it brings to mind the many plans which in past years were made out but did not succeed because they were gradually neglected. Resolve this year, among other things, to save, and then act with persistency and determination in carrying out the resolution. We invite savings of $1.00 or more, which draw 4 per cent interest.

Deposits made in our Savings Department on or before January 5th draw interest from January 1st, and your money is protected with a capital and surplus of over $300,000.00.

Safe deposit boxes for rent; less than a cent a day.

FIRST SAVINGS BANK AND TRUST COMPANY
ALBUQUERQUE, N.M.

ANTI-TRUST LAW SUIT AGAINST HORN MAKERS

Washington, Dec. 30.—Suits were brought today in the Newark, N. J., federal district court by the government of justice to secure injunctions under the Clayton anti-trust act to prevent enforcement by the Lovell-McConnell Manufacturing company of Newark of contract stipulations that jobbers handling its automobile horns shall handle no others and shall sell horns at prices the Lovell-McConnell company fixes.

The complaint says the defendant company in 1915 made about one-half the total number of horns sold by jobbers. Since 1916, the complaint says, the company has been seeking to prevent jobbers from handling competitors' products and has rewarded those who lived up to the contract with it by a "valuable rebate under the guise of a Christmas present."

The effect of this, the department argues, is to substantially lessen competition and create a monopoly in horns.

The suit, department officials say, will have an important bearing in determining the scope of the Clayton act.

Moran Denies He Will Trade Demaree

He Got the Loan, Anyhow.
Limo, O., Dec. 30.—Falling twice to secure a loan at a saving bank here tonight, a lone robber entered the place for the third time and at the point of a gun held up T. R. Schoonover, president of the bank, and took $125 out of the till and escaped. He overlooked $500 on the counter. The president was alone in the bank at the time.

District Attorney Swann late tonight issued a statement, in part as follows: "It is well known that Judge Delehanty is a candidate for the republican nomination for district attorney next year. This is part of a concerted political drive against the present administration of the district attorney's office. I was astonished to learn that Judge Delehanty, waiting until the last day of his term and until every member of the district attorney's staff was known to be away for the holiday, had made his request to the governor. Naturally, I cannot make a detailed reply until I have seen a copy of the papers."

Dutch Parliament Raises Salaries.
The Hague, Netherlands, Nov. 39.—The second chamber of parliament has passed a revised article of the constitution which will raise the salaries of members from $400 to $1,200 a year. Deputies will, in addition, be paid their traveling expenses, and on retirement get an annual pension equal to $40 for every year in which they sat in the chamber, up to a maximum of $800. The government's proposal to pay an additional attendance fee of $25 per sitting with a view to increasing the "broefgenoot" was rejected as being incompatible with the chamber's dignity.

Prosperity in Chicago.
Chicago, Dec. 30.—Chicago enjoyed a year of unusual prosperity in 1916, according to the annual business statements made public today. The city's total bank clearings were $20,541,842.195, compared with $16,198,985.174 for 1915, an increase of $4,342,958,021.

WHENCE AND WHEREFORE?

From Columbus I mean the interesting information that on the occasion of the dedication of the Recreation hall for the New Mexico regiment now
on duty at the border, Colonel E. C.
Abbot made an address in which he stated that the regiment will stay on at Columbus indefinitely, and that the statement was received with hearty applause.

While interesting, the information is incomplete. It would be worth while to find out from whom the applause came—from the enlisted men or from the officers. If from the enlisted men an explanation of the reasons for bursting into applause at the announcement that they will remain at Columbus would be not without value.

Treasonably, in making this applause-provoking statement the speaker was addressing the men in his capacity of colonel of the First New Mexico Infantry regiment, and not as judge of the First New Mexico judicial district. Both titles are his, and his views on the subject either as colonel or as judge would be illuminating.

Does Colonel Abbot mean to encourage the idea that there is any military necessity for retaining the New Mexico national guard on the border
any more than any of the numerous other units of that organization
that have been transferred entirely across the country to do brief service
and then return to their homes?

What special reason is there, from the standpoint of the defense of the country, for keeping the New Mexico
regiment made up of young men taken from the ordinary walks of civil life, indefinitely in the service?

Admitting that no special reason of military expediency requires the retention of this particular regiment at the border, does Judge Abbot believe that it is fair and right to the enlisted men—the youngsters who went out to fight for their country—that they should be kept at this duty to the detriment of their education, their business careers or the welfare of their families. Colonel Abbot doubtless is aware that last summer an order was issued by the war department providing for the mustering out of the national guard of all young men in college or high school in time to allow them to re-enter school for the beginning of the fall term. Colonel Abbot also probably knows that this order was generally disregarded
by the New Mexico national guard.
Does Judge Abbot think that "this was fair or right to the young men whose education was thus neglected."
It may be so reported, that Colonel Abbot's assertion regarding the retention of the guard at Columbus was embodied. But was there any reason for applying by anybody besides the well paid officers some of whom are drawing two salaries and none of whom are serving their country at any personal financial sacrifice?

Entering the new year with a dark brown face, an arched brow, and beaming smile may be the approved method of meeting a good start, but the exact process of reasoning by which that conclusion is reached has never been clearly stated.

GEORGE CAN STAND IT.

The action of a court in the state of Washington in sentencing to four months in jail a man convicted of thieving the memory of George Washington is an extension of the doctrine of liability for libel on the dead that will hardly meet with the approval of the average American citizen.

That the defendant in the case in point was guilty of something worse than atrocious libel, amounting to an insult to a lack of patriotism will not be denied. That his conduct should and will be condemned by all right-thinking citizens is equally clear. That he should be sent to prison for his misconduct seems to the casual observer entirely too severe.

There is undeniable justice in the holding of the court that a defendant
is liable for defaming the character

of a deceased person without warrant or justification. But the same for such an action would seem to rest on the injury to the feelings of the surviving relatives and friends of the one whose memory was libeled. In such a case there is a wrong—someone has suffered—and the least measure that for every wrong there is a remedy clearly applies.

But in the present case it would seem that the Father of his Country
is simply able to stand the attack
made upon him by the obscure Washingtonian and that such relatives and friends as the deceased may have still living are too remote to be the subject of any poignant anguish at an attack upon his character. If it is right to send a man to jail for committing a libel upon the memory of George Washington, who is it not equally justifiable to punish with imprisonment one who slanders the memory of Adam? On the face of things it would seem no worse to libel the Father of his Country than to libel the father of the human race—indeed, if numbers count for anything, Adam has the best of it.

Patriotism is a lofty virtue, but it can not be enforced by court edict,
and it looks very much as if this is what the Washington court has attempted to do.

Let's hope that Santa is now back at the north pole, comfortable and cozy, where all this New Year's racket will not disturb him or frighten his teindeers.

IS PENMANSHIP A LOST ART?

One of the best known educators in the country, a professor in Chicago
university, recently advocated publicly the adoption of typewriters in the public schools as the standard method
of writing, both in examinations
and otherwise.

There is much to be said in favor of the suggestion and little against it,
but it brings to mind the interesting inquiry, is penmanship becoming a lost art? What has become of the beautifully curved swallow's wings of our copybook days, the ornate flour-ishes and the finely shaded lines that marked the bright scholar who could create them as a being apart in any school in the United States? The dot is not more extinct.

It is human nature to follow the line of least resistance. Not only that, the line of least resistance is frequently the line of greatest efficiency.
The typewriter furnishes a simpler
and quicker method of writing than anything yet known, and from the standpoint of both convenience and efficiency for business writing by hand. There is only one answer. As the typewriter becomes cheaper and more easily accessible more people will use it, and it is not at all beyond
the bounds of possibility that in another hundred years writing by hand,
except for the purposes of signature,
will be a thing of the past.

There is no special lesson to be drawn from this. It is merely a phenomenon that is interesting to the observer and to the student of human affairs generally. If penmanship will ever be a thing of the past,
it will be because of the efficiency of the typewriter, and not because of any other cause.

When it is considered that so many conventions are forced to partake of a diet of crow, can they be blamed for helping themselves to this pork
while it lasts?

English comment on the president's peace note may be briefly summarized as "What the—?"

WASHINGTON ANTI-BRITISH.
(The New Republic.)

There is a vast amount of very personal criticism against the British as human beings and officials. In a famous mood—there have been hurt feelings—Englishmen have and about them and by what English papers have written about them. They have been accused and insulted, flouted and subjected to months and months of jibes. The phrase "too proud to fight" makes them writhe. The British ambassador has not always recd
his proper under count.

This personal criticism is already finding reasons for itself. The year-long campaign has had tales of British highbrowdom, the British spies who had the effect. The treatment of Greece has caused complaints with Belgium. The important point to remember is that this is the human aspect of the situation,
which is the background of the conflict. The state department knows endless stories of how oppressively the British blockade is being administered, and the tales of injured
American business men have had a deep effect. There is a considerable feeling that we have been more than lenient with the British, and that our only thanks has been contemptuous criticism.

Then, too, it is important to realize that Secretary Lansing is not a diplomat but a lawyer, that he is by temperament legislative and that to the lawyer's mind England's violations of international law mean more than they do to a layman. There is a tendency to think of the whole matter in terms of rights rather than in terms of results.

COURTESY SAVED A LIFE.
(Boston Post.)

"Courtesy to gray hair, which he has always tried to respect, saved my wife's life," said Mrs. Mary Fox of Weymouth, mother of William Fox, a member of the war that plunged him to the Port Point channel a few days ago. Pride burned in her eyes as she told of her boy's escape.

Fox had led his car in the car and emergingly gave it to an elderly, gray haired man, only a minute before the street car arrived at the bridge. He then took his place with several other men on the front platform, from which he leaped to safety.

LANDSCAPE PAINTER DEAD.
(Boston Transcript.)

Henry Ward Ranger, one of the foremost American landscape artists,
died yesterday at his home in New York. He was 58 years old.
Ranger's work is given as the type of his death. He returned to New York from a summer at Watkins
Glens last week, and was in cheerful spirits up to early yesterday afternoon, when he felt a slight nausea he was about to go out for a walk.
He lay down on his bed and in a few moments was dead.

Mr. Ranger ranked high among American painters. Mr. Alfred East, who died recently, called him the greatest landscape painter of his time.
He was known everywhere as the "High Bridge" and "Spring Wood" in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the "Top of the Hill" in the Corcoran Gallery of Art in Washington, and his
"East River Bridge" in the Carnegie Museum, Pittsburgh. Works by him form part of many well known collections in this country and abroad.

He was born in Syracuse, N. Y., in 1858.
His work commemorated scenes made familiar to him in his youth. He was educated in the public schools and went to Syracuse university where he studied his sophomore year; then,
after studying in this country for several years, he took up art in England,
France and Holland, remaining abroad until the late 80s. He began as a water-colorist, and not until later did he begin to be known for his larger oil paintings. His work showed the influence of the modern French school. He won medals in exhibitions
at Paris, Philadelphia, Buffalo, Charleston, etc. He had a summer home at Nantux, Conn., a little fishing and ship-building town not far from New London. His studio almost overlaid the house, and from it he painted many noteworthy marine pieces.

Mr. Ranger was an expert on "Cornell" and was often called upon to advise the Cornell University on the subject of its art collection. He was elected to the National Academy in 1906. He was a member of the National Art club, the American Watercolor society and the Tenth Museum. He was a director of the Tenth Museum and the Tenth Museum. He was

Notes of Interest

From State Museum

OFFICIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL

Santa Fe, Dec. 30.—(By R. H. Allen of the Santa Fe Museum.)

The Santa Fe Museum of New Mexico
appears to be the state of architecture
in a number of widely separated
countries. "Travel" for this month
presents a series of remarkable pictures from Asia, which show dwellings with walls nothing less than a pile, and in the Caucasus are to be found towers that appear to be cut from the same pattern.

The closing exercises of the Panama-California exposition at San Diego,
on Monday, are to resolve themselves
into a program in honor of the exposition. The Santa Fe Museum of New Mexico will send a number of its people, who like his predecessor, Col. D.
C. Collier, is a member of the managing committee of the School of American Archaeology. President Davison will be met in the morning of the closing day by the directors of the exposition and conducted to the Panama-California exposition, where ceremonies in his honor will take place. Addresses will be made by Director Edgar L. Barrett and others.
Mr. Davidson will review the military parade and then witness a sham battle by the Twenty-first infantry.

In the afternoon, a reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Davidson will be given in the women's headquarters, the chief embellishment of which are the paintings of the late Donald Beaudet
that are to find their final exhibition place in the new museum at Santa Fe. A dinner at the Cafe
Cristal at which covers will be laid will close the evening. Sales of souvenirs will be given in the hall of Mr. Davidson. Addresses will be made by Lieut. Governor W.
B. Stephens of California, Governor
Spay of Utah, Mayor J. J. Rolph of San Francisco, Mayor Woodman of Los Angeles and Mr. Davidson. In conclusion, Madame Schumann-Hoer will sing "And Lay Down." After the exhibition lights are out, fireworks will be set off from top of the out-of-door organ. The main building of the exposition will remain
standing and will be part of the museum organized by Dr. Edgar L. He-well of Santa Fe, as part of the School of American Archaeology.

Among those at the museum yesterday were: Mrs. Claiborne, Mrs.
Nell B. Field and motor party, Albuquerque; J. H. Hinton, Las Cruces;
J. S. Burke, Portage; J. H. Clark,
Durango; Col. M. E. Harding,
Tucson; Mrs. M. J. Mahoney, Toronto; Col. J. R. Currier, Fort Sumner; Alfred Pictet, Milwaukee; Wm.
George Wenden, Endicott; J. H. Fe-
ale, Pueblo; Col. M. and Mrs. Mac-Kintosh, San Francisco; L. A. Wolf-
ford, R. J. Smith, W. L. Wofford, Locke; Tex. T. Lawson, Jesse Lee,
Clark, N. M.

An emboldened band of 100,000 indistinguishable church choir singers, is to be raised by the National Society of Church History.

J. P. Adams of Santa Fe today became the 12th member of the Santa Fe Society of American Archaeology.
The society, which is the largest of its kind in the world, has a total of 125
members, which is fifth among the largest of its kind. One member will have Santa Fe in fifth place, and eight members in fourth place, now occupied by Philadelphia.

PREDICTS JAPAN WILL SEIZE PHILIPPINES

(Cincinnati, O., Dec. 30.—) "If the United States withdraws from the Philippines, will there be any natural reason for the seizure of the islands
by another nation? I am afraid not."

This was a statement made by James A. Robertson of Washington who spoke at the closing session of the American Historical association held here at the University of Chicago. He said that the Japanese government, notwithstanding certain public utterances of denials of annexing the islands, as Japanese interests lie to the north and southwest. But I am certain that Japan's interests would demand the annexation of the Philippines in case of withdrawal by the United States,
for no other reason than to forest-
all their occupation by another nation. I would not be surprised if Japan would be the first to seize the islands.

A report has reached here that the American experiment which, notwithstanding anti-imperialist matches
has attained valuable results. Neutralization, formerly the stronghold
of the politician, is now seldom heard. Belgium's fate settled that.

CARRANZA DETACHMENT
IS ALMOST WIPED OUT

(Presidio, Tex., Dec. 29.—) Capt. Eduardo Salinas and twenty men were turned over to the rebels during the disastrous engagement at Polvorilla,
where Carranza's forces were routed.
The remainder of the Carranza detachment was destroyed, according to reports received here today. This report says that the Villa band of a hundred men was led by Luis Mon-tejo, who after the fight, hung up the dead body of Col. Jose Hernandez over a cross, and then the Carranza forces, as a warning to the people, Colonel Pimache, a Villa officer, is said to have been killed in the fight.
Col. Jose Rojas and the entire force stationed at Ojinaga have now left in pursuit of Montez.

A report has reached here that the small Carranza detachment at San Antonio, forty miles from Ojinaga, has joined the Villa party.

IT'S A MISTAKE, SAYS
MAYBELLE WHEN CAUGHT

(New York, Dec. 29.—) George Valderrama, the property of Mrs. William Ellis Corey, wife of the president of the Midvale Steel company, and former president of the United States Steel corporation, were formally sold
by a justice of the peace here today,
pending a decision as to the federal action on the ground that the clothing
was not declared for import duty upon her arrival on Thursday from France.

Mrs. Corey, formerly Maybelle Valderrama, an actress after a brief sojourn,
explained a mistake had been made.
The gowns were found in the trunk of a traveling companion, Mrs. Corey said they were packed there by a maid
and she had no recollection of their departing from London for Paris,
where Mrs. Corey visited her chateau.

IRON AND STEEL OUTPUT CUT DOWN DURING THE WEEK

Estimates Vary Widely, but Curtailement Is Thought to Have Been 20 to 30 per Cent.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE.)

New York, Dec. 30.—Output of iron and steel in the last week of the year was cut down sharply; estimates of the curtailment vary widely but the decrease for the full month is thought to have been at least from 20 to 40 per cent, compared with November.

The production for the year 1916,
however, exceeded all other previous annual achievements, although the output fell short of the great expectations entertained a month or two ago.

Preliminary estimates indicate an output of 35,800,000 tons of pig iron, 33,372,000 tons of steel ingots, 29,
150,000 tons of rolled steel products,
in 1916 the previous year of maximum production 30,743,000 tons of pig iron, 21,308,524 tons of steel ingots and 20,791,243 tons of rolled products
were produced.

Sales of all kinds of rolled steel in 1916 are estimated to have been approximately 45,000,000 tons, of which between 7,000,000 and 8,000,000 tons were sold for direct export. Railroad equipment orders were the heaviest since 1912, and it is significant that about 45 per cent of the locomotive
sales and about 11 per cent of the car orders were for export. Sales of rails were the largest on record, exceeding 5,200,000 tons, of which 1,500,000 in 2,000,000 tons were foreign shipment.

Merchant blast furnaces sold nearly 10,000 tons of various grades of pig iron during the year of which 2,000 tons were for export. December sales aggregated 600,000 tons.

In the last few days, while business
in rolled steel was relatively quiet, cut ladders and decorative shapes were in the market for about 60,000 tons of steel bars, plates, shapes and forgings
to cover recent orders for 5,200 cars
and for twenty-five cargoes.

Italy and France have placed additional orders for steel forgings, rounds, alloy steels and pipe iron, and inquiries are now in the market for 200,000 tons of various other products for export, half of the prospective orders being for France. Japan has ordered 10,000 tons more ship plates,
and Holland, Switzerland, Italy, Germany and Belgium have placed orders
for more American pig iron.

Structural steel work continues un-comfortably active from the standpoint of the fabricating shops. Recent orders are estimated at 120, 000 tons and the total for the year is about 1,465,000 tons. Contracts placing aggregate 100,000 tons.

CENTRAL POWERS SINK
MANY ENEMY VESSELS

Berlin, Dec. 30.—(By Wire to Say-ville.)—"The 'Kaiserliche Marine' says an officially statement issued today, 473
hostile merchant ships of a total of 244,500 gross tons were lost through the war measures of the central powers. Of this tonnage, 244,500 tons were British. In addition fifty-three merchant ships of 94,000 tons gross were sunk for carrying contraband to enemy. The number's total is thus 495,500 tons.

"Since the beginning of the war,
through the war measures of the central powers, 2,656,300 hostile tonnage has been lost, of which 2,794,300 was British."

WRECKAGE ENCOUNTERED
BY CUTTER ACUSHNET

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE.)

Washington, Dec. 30.—Cutter Acushnet headmaster here received a wireless message today from the cutter Acushnet that she had passed through wreckage covering the sea for about five miles well out of Nantucket harbor, in the vicinity where wrecks of ships for help were sent out on Christmas night from the steamer
Maryland.

The wreckage could not be identified, but it was believed to be the wreck of the ship which has been searching several days.

MEN AND WOMEN OF NEW MEXICO TO ATTEND

STOCK EXCHANGE BRINGS EVENTFUL YEAR TO A CLOSE

Sales of Securities Have Achieved a New Record; Peace Proposals Cause Readjustment of Values.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—The record of one of the most eventful years in the history of the stock exchange is epitomized in its almost unprecedented operations. Sales of stocks aggregated over $25,000,000,000, against 17,000,000,000 in 1915. Bond sales achieved a new record in the enormous volume of $1,152,383,000, an increase in round numbers of more than $200,000,000 over the preceding year.

These totals are exclusive of sales of "odd lots" of stocks, which would swell the aggregate by many more millions, nor do they include "over the counter" transactions in bonds, in which the dealings are practically beyond computation.

Quite as important in estimating the increased wealth of the country, is the return by hundreds of millions of dollars of American securities—mostly high grade bonds and shares—formerly owned by foreigners, which were taken over privately and assimilated in the course of the tremendously active twelve months.

Factors dealing with the country's foreign loans and the inflow of gold for the year—the latter item approximating $700,000,000—fairly convey the extent to which the domestic financial structure has been buttressed. Economists differ as to the immediate benefits derivable from these stupendous gold holdings, but are virtually as one in believing that they make the United States financially and industrially supreme for years after the channels of international trade resume their normal flow.

Opinions dealing with the future of the country's financial markets are summarized by the statement that many contracts for peace products have been placed as far ahead as 1918, while available supplies of copper and other base metals for the next six months have been largely replenished. This does not necessarily imply the maintenance of prevailing quotations for these and other commodities, nearly all of which rose during the year to record-breaking figures.

Most encouraging auguries are offered by the transportation stocks, whose intrinsic worth was so firmly established in the final month of the year. Not a single stock of the leading railway systems for the calendar year, exceeding one billion dollars, is greater by one cent than those of 1915. Emergence of many minor roads from their long periods of receivership and financial embarrassment, is one of the outstanding features in the country's great forward stride.

CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE.
Chicago, Dec. 30.—Notable jumps in price markets the close of the year in the wheat trade. Speculators who at the last found themselves unable to make deliveries on December contracts bid the market up to a bushel in some cases. Signs of improved shipping conditions led to brisk advances, too, on more deferred deliveries. The close was nervous, 2 1/2 to 4c not higher, with May at $1.74 1/4, 1 1/4c and July at $1.43 1/4, 1 1/4c.

In corn, as in wheat, there was a swinging to cover on the part of eleventh hour bears. Prices were lifted as a result of shipping sales here, said to aggregate 300,000 bushels, all to be delivered at the eastern seaboard within thirty days.

Oats hardened in price, owing to the upturn in other cereals. Trade, however, lacked volume. Provisions shared the firmness of grain. One reason was that shipments this week turned out to be materially in excess of the corresponding total of last year.

Prices.
Wheat—May, $1.74 1/4; July, $1.43 1/4; Corn—May, 52c; July, 52 1/2c; Oats—May, 52c; July, 51 1/2c; Pork—Jan., $27.00; May, $26.50; Lard—Jan., $15.50; May, $15.25; Hides—Jan., $15.75; May, $15.25.

CHICAGO PRODUCE.
Chicago, Dec. 30.—Butter—Higher. Creamery, 34 1/2c.

Poultry—Alive, higher. Fowls, 15c; 18c; springs, 19c; turkeys, 23c.

NEW YORK METAL MARKET.
New York, Dec. 30.—The copper market has remained very quiet during the past week, with the tone unsettled. Offers of small lots from second hands have been reported at further concessions and it is understood that there has been a small sale of electrolytic for March delivery at $28.50, with resellers asking prices ranging from about 2 1/2 to 3 1/2c for nearby shipment. The larger agencies are reported practically out of the market and at nominal quotation of 32 1/2c was named today for the third quarter.

Iron was unchanged.
NEW YORK MONEY MARKET.
New York, Dec. 30.—Mercantile paper, 40-45 day, per cent; commercial 60 day, 4 1/2 to 5 per cent; sterling 60 day, 4 1/2 to 5 per cent; demand, 4 1/2 to 5 per cent; cables, 4 1/2 to 5 per cent.

MIDWINTER OPENING
PLANS COMPLETED.
The past week has been very busy one at the office of the Albuquerque Business College, completing plans and making ready for what is expected to be the largest mid-winter opening in the history of the school.

Correspondence with out-of-town persons who are interested in some one or more of the several courses offered by the institution, has been heavy and many local persons also interested, have called at the school to make further inquiry and to decide on the course to follow.

The continued and increasing demand for the graduates of this well known business training institution is a good index to the continued prosperity and business activity of this part of the country. The management is in receipt of a number of letters from different parts of this and adjoining states as well as inquiries from local firms asking for qualified students to accept positions, many of which pay very generous salaries and offer splendid opportunities for advancement.

Tuesday, January the second, the school reopens after a ten-day vacation at which time new classes will be organized in shorthand, typewriting, bookkeeping, civil service and other studies.

Those interested who have not yet completed their plans, should write or telephone the management at once so that there may be no delay at the beginning of the mid-winter term.

Sheriff Wires From Friday
Harbor, Wash., That E. W.
Blancett Is Held on Fugitive Warrant.

The search for E. W. Blancett, traveling companion of Clyde D. Armour, missing tourist, ended yesterday afternoon. Blancett was taken into custody at that time at Friday Harbor, Wash., according to a telegram sent by Sheriff George H. Mead to Chief J. R. Galusha. He was held on a fugitive warrant the sheriff wired.
Chief Galusha had asked Sheriff Mead to watch for Blancett at the request of Melvin T. Dunlavy, attorney, of Santa Fe, and Honesty & Cornell, attorneys. Mr. Dunlavy learned that Blancett's mother lived at Friday Harbor and thought
the young man might go there.

Upon learning that Blancett was in custody, Chief Galusha wired to Sheriff Mead, asking him whether the young man would come to New Mexico without resistance. "Blancett wants to go," Chief Galusha said. "Blancett wants to go Monday." Chief Galusha said Governor McDonald would be asked to make request upon the governor of Washington at once in order to avoid possible
complication in the change of government in the event of Blancett's refusing to waive this procedure.

Story of Disappearance.
Armour, his mother and sister
started from Sioux City, Ia., September 19, for Fresno, Cal., in an automobile. The sister was taken ill at Charles, Neb., and could not continue the trip by automobile. She and her mother went from there to Fresno by train. Armour was to drive the car to Fresno.

Mrs. Armour received a letter, written at Denver by her son, saying that he had met a young man who was going to make the trip with him. Mrs.
Armour received another letter,
dated at Trinidad, Colo., and Armour's sister received a postcard
postmarked San Jose, San Miguel
county, and dated October 24.

Relatives doubt if Armour reached Santa Fe although a man related as C. D. Armour at a hotel there. The same C. D. Armour came to Albuquerque, sold the automobile and left
in a Santa Fe train.

This man, say persons who saw him here, did not answer the description of Armour, given by relatives.
They also say that photographs of Armour do not resemble him. He spent money freely here.

Dead Man Not Armour.
Mrs. Armour at Fresno, received a telegram, sent from Santa Fe train
No. 9 at Needles, Cal., November 1, saying: "Have sold car. Coming on train."

No further word was received and relatives became alarmed and began an effort to trace Armour. M. L.
Sawyer, a brother-in-law, and two brothers came to New Mexico. They have not been able to find Armour.

Mr. Sawyer, who went to Santa Fe to learn whether a body found near the Santa Fe track, twenty miles
from Santa Fe, was that of Armour, returning to Albuquerque yesterday
made a description of the man
from the coroner, which convinced him that the man was not Armour.
The man evidently had been killed
by a train, Mr. Sawyer learned.

DE BACA GREETED BY RELATIVES ON RETURN TO STATE

Small Party, Including Friends and Kinsmen, Received by Governor-elect in Pullman
Drawing Room.

Ezequiel C. de Baca, who will become governor of New Mexico tomorrow, does not believe that he is a hero
because he left a hospital in Los Angeles to go to Santa Fe to take the oath of office. So he told newspaper reporters who saw him yesterday afternoon in his Pullman drawing room on Santa Fe train No. 2. The governor-to-be intimated that he thought newspapers played up the hero idea
too much.

Mr. de Baca did not leave his drawing room here. He remained in his berth, dressed in night clothes. Relatives, a few friends and newspaper men saw him in the drawing room.
Mr. de Baca sat up in his berth and talked pleasantly and animatedly. He appeared to be in high spirits. No one would have guessed that he was ill if he had not been in bed.

"See that," said Mr. de Baca, holding out his hand. The veins on the back of the hand bulged with blood pressure. The veins did not stand out when he went to Los Angeles for treatment for pernicious anemia, as they did then. Mr. de Baca said he was feeling good.

First to greet Mr. de Baca upon his return to New Mexico were relatives who live here. Mrs. J. L. La-Driere, sister-in-law; J. A. C. de Baci, cousin; A. C. de Baca, father-in-law;
and Henry C. de Baca, brother-in-law,
saw him in his drawing room. Father-in-law A. M. Mandanier, who was Mr.
de Baca's teacher in the Jesuit college at Las Vegas, O. N. Marron and Mr. LaDriere were in the party of friends who met him.

ers the most artistic achievement of her long career. Miss O'Neil originally intended to produce a dramatization
of "The Iron Woman," the successful novel by Margaret Deland, upon the opening stage. David Belasco, under whose management she was starred in
"The Lily," and other big stage successes, arranged to produce it, but an unforeseen turn in affairs prevented the plan being carried out.

Metro obtained the motion picture
rights to the novel later, and naturally cast Miss O'Neil for the stellar role.
As a result motion picture audiences
will have the opportunity of seeing the story on the screen before it is presented in the theater. Miss O'Neil is surrounded by a cast of prominent players, each one selected because of his or her peculiar ability to fill the role assigned them.

Right will triumph! June Caprice proves it in her new photoplay for William Fox, "The Mischief Maker."
June portrays a mischievous girl, Effie Marchand, who gets all her boarding school companions into no end of scrapes. She gets herself in trouble by falling in love with a friend (Harry Benham) of her art teacher,
and she marries him.

Of course, this disappoints her aunt,
with whom she lives. But when the old lady discovers that the man Effie married was the very one she had selected long ago, everything ends happily and everybody is satisfied.

Departure of the Old Year and the Arrival of the New Take Precedence This Week

FIRST in importance in society this week is the departure of an Albuquerque guest who has made a visit of a year, Mr. Nineteen Sixteen, and the arrival of his successor, Little Mr. Nineteen Seventeen. Both events will take place tonight.

Affairs given in honor of the two guests which take place at the Elks' club "Midnight at Maxims" at the club house and the concert and dance at the Alvarado hotel. Albuquerque society will divide itself between the two places, with perhaps the majority of the younger people led by the Thirty club at the Alvarado, and the older but none the more sedate members of the four hundred at the Elks.

One group, composed of some twenty odd of the forestry boys here for the winter from forests in this district, are planning to bring the "creaky" or "could it be the froth?" from both affairs, by starting at one place and then journeying to the other, and perhaps back to the first, all depending upon the safety and the inducements offered.

Many are entertaining groups of friends at both affairs.

The Elks club opens at 10 o'clock with dinner interspersed with entertainment features arranged by Ernest Landolfi, and at midnight the lid will be lifted and the dancing and the guests part of the evening will begin.

The Alvarado is to have a concert from 10 to 12, and with the stroke of midnight dancing will commence and the Sunday drought will end.

The Albuquerque Woman's club is to keep open house on New Year's afternoon, from 3 to 5 o'clock for husbands and friends of the members. The workers in the Red Cross Santa Fe are to be special guests. There will be a special musical program, followed by tea.

The Fortnightly Music club will give its first program of the year on Tuesday at the home of Prof. E. H. Hadden. The program are Miss Ida Hickman, Mrs. E. Nichols and Miss Louise Nichols. The study circle will take up the modern German opera of the period 1845-1870 with Miss Estelle Valdez as leader. Illustrations will be given by Mrs. E. L. Bradford, Miss Lorna Lester, John Porterfield, J. Fenton Spaulding, Earl Follenfeld, E. Stanley Seder, accompanist.

The Ten Dons entertained at the Country club on Thursday evening with a dinner and program in honor of their wives. A grafiaud supplied the music and A. R. Stroup read New Year's poems by contemporary authors.

C. E. Holden gave the following humorous lecture: "I Want to Go Tomorrow." "The Peanut Man and Merriam Girl," and "When My Paw Was a Boy."

Special guests were Miss Alice Boyd of this city and Mrs. Alice Moody of Lenexa, Kan. The Ten Dons and their wives present were Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Hope, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Hickey, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Gray, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Wroth, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Stroup, Dr. and Mrs. David H. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Rayburn Perry, Professor and Mrs. C. E. Holden and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Paine.

Miss Betty Morrisette has as her guest Miss Marie Morris of Las Vegas. Miss Mildred Harris has as a house guest Miss Ethel Dargatzis, also of Las Vegas. A dancing party in honor of the two guests was given by the hostesses on Thursday evening at the Woman's club.

Mrs. Isaac Barth gave a card party in honor of Mrs. R. M. Trautwein of Fresno, Calif., on Wednesday evening at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gatzert gave a card party at their home in honor of Mrs. Trautwein. A feature of the evening was "Music by a cowboy of world renown," "Music" Shealy, cowboy fiddler of Phoenix, Ariz. Mr. Shealy has won championships at the San Francisco exposition, St. Louis and New Orleans expositions. He appeared in typical western cowboy costume.

Miss Maxine Lovelace and her sister, Miss Lora Lovelace, entertained at bridge informally Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Trautwein, Mrs. W. C. Reid won the prize for highest score.

Mrs. W. M. Whelan of Denver, Colo., arrived Friday evening for her second visit with her brother, W. C. Dep. Office yesterday and Mrs. Oestreich at 1618 West Central avenue.

Miss Adele Carr, the daughter of Captain and Mrs. Clark M. Carr of 461 North Fourth street is home for the holidays from St. Louis, where she is attending the convent of Madam of the Sacred Heart. A number of affairs were given in her honor last week. Mrs. Carr gave a luncheon for her daughter on Tuesday. There were ten guests. On Wednesday Miss Carr was the guest of her father at a luncheon given by Mrs. Esther Howden at her home, and Mrs. K. Komonich entertained for her on Friday afternoon with a card party. Yesterday afternoon Miss Lora Lester took Miss Carr and a number of her friends to the movies.

Pledges at Sigma Chi gave an informal dance at the fraternity house last night in honor of the members. Karl left in town over the holidays.

A Christmas dinner party in honor of little Miss Catherine Puyalski, one of Albuquerque's youthful composers, was given by Mrs. George H. Wheeler. There were eight guests. A wild goose roast was the feature of the dinner, which was followed by games.

Mrs. Will Sprinkler left Wednesday for Hot Springs, Arkansas, to remain a month with her sister, Mrs. Ralph Hunt of El Paso, Texas. Mrs. Hunt is at the springs for her health.

The Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors will have a joint installation of officers on the first of January.

Ballad of the Breakfast Table

WHEN the Festal Board, as the papers say,
Groans 'neath the weight of a lot to eat,
At breakfast, Prahutuck or dejeuner,
(As a hard tri-lingual I'm rather neat)
At breakfast, then, if I may repeat,
This is what gets me into a luff.
'This is a query I can not beat:
Why don't they ever have spoons enough?

I've broken my fast with the grave and gay,
With the hot polloi and with the elite;
I've been all over the U. S. A.
From Dorchester Crossing to Kearney street,
But aye when I sit in the morning seat
Comes to my notice the selfsame bluff,
Plenty of food, but in this they cheat;
Why don't they ever have spoons enough?

Take it at breakfast, only today:
This was the layout, fresh and sweet:
Cantaloupes sweet as the new mown hay,
Cereal—one of the brands * * of wheat;
Soft-boiled eggs, (we've cut out the meat);
Coffee (a warm-milk-and-buff)
Napery, china and glasses complete—
Why don't they ever have spoons enough?

L'ENVOI
Autocratesses, forgive me, ent!
But isn't it time to change that stuff?
Small is the henison I entreat—
Why don't they ever have spoons enough?
—Franklin P. Adams.

Albuquerque Boys on the Border Send Thanks for the Christmas Music, Books, Candy, and Cigars

MEMBERS of the Albuquerque Woman's club who started the subscription for the victrola that went to Columbus and gathered the records and books to help while away the leisure hours for the Albuquerque boys, have received a letter of thanks from the troops. The boys of Company G have also sent a letter to the Journal thanking their friends for their thoughtful gifts.

Columbus, N. M., Dec. 27, 1916.

To the Morning Journal:

We, the enlisted men of Company G, wish to thank the people of Albuquerque, through your columns, for what they have so kindly done to make our Christmas bright and happy.

First, we thank them for the victrola. It was a gift than which none could have pleased us more. Music is appreciated by all. It is the language of the elemental good that is in every man. The expression of the highest and the noblest that his heart contains. The voice of that which no words can express, but must proceed unbidden from the soul in a strain of sweet rhythmic harmony. Your victrola will give an outlet to that hidden power; and will make us surer, nobler, stronger, surer to bear up under the trials and hardships that we must face, make us men, real men, true soldiers of the stars and stripes. And so we try to thank you for your gift, and to tell you that nothing could have pleased us more.

For this gift we are mostly indebted to the following: J. B. Herndon, R. W. Louden, the Citizens' bank, Rosenwald Brothers, Charles B. Itfeld Co., C. Cushman, Noah Ifield, San Jose Market, Roy McDonald, Guy Rodgers, Charles White, Peter McCann, Skinner Grocery company, L. C. Bennett, Lieutenant Greller, Ivan Grunneff, Leontoff, Maurice Meisel, H. P. Kent, E. D. Sisk, O. A. Matson, the Woman's club, A. M. Markham, Mrs. Margaret Medler, Mrs. M. O. Chadbourne, Mrs. A. H. Iviequist, Mrs. J. C. Gould, Mrs. B. H. Holmes, Mr. J. H. Barney, Mrs. Noah Ifield, Mr. G. A. Kaufman and Dr. Peters.

We wish to thank those also who provided us with books, candies and cigars. The books were most thoughtful. Many an hour these cold and wintry nights will be made pleasant and profitable by the books and the good will. We are still boys at heart, and being boys, we like our candy. Whenever men are gathered together as they are here, they have their store and they buy candy like the boys they are. They never grow up in this respect. As boys we eat candy; but as men we smoke, and so we thank you for the cigars you sent us. Some of us will see faces in the wreaths of blue they make, and will be carried in the arms of memory back to other days and other scenes.

We spent a pleasant Christmas, that is as pleasant as could be spent away from home and the ones we love. With music for our hearts, books for our minds, and candy and cigars to satisfy the animal, we had more than we had any reason to look forward to. Our dinner was a success, despite the wind that blew down mess halls and kitchens, flattened tents and played havoc with everything to the tune of sixty miles an hour. It may interest you to know what we had so you can see that the old tale of bacon and beans does not always ring true. Here is our menu:

Ripe Olives * * * Celery
Roast Pork * * * Cream of Corn
Cranberry Sauce * * * Brown Gravy
Mashed Sweet Potatoes
Creamed Coconut Pie Pumpkin Pie
Raisins * * * Oranges
Cider * * * Apples
Candy * * * Candy

We wished you all a Merry Christmas, and we hope that you will be able to express our hope that the New Year may duplicate the happiness that you have ever had.

G, THE ENLISTED MEN OF COMPANY G.

WINSLOW

Miss Pearl Allen of this city was married to Thomas Wickham of Albuquerque on Christmas morning at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in East Winslow. The Rev. F. S. Carter of the Christian church read the service. Miss Agnes Ward was maid of honor and Haysa La Plante, cousin of the bride, acted as best man. Both the bride and her maid of honor wore suits. Mr. and Mrs. Wickham left on the 5:30 train for Albuquerque for a brief honeymoon, after which they will go to Gallup where they will make their home.

SOCORRO

The local correspondent wishes to make apology for a little item, mentioning the sheep belonging to Hon. H. O. Borsum, printed in the notes from Socorro on the society page of the Albuquerque Journal, December 17, which appears to have been received with some distaste. We would be very loath to offend anyone, even the sheep. As for the matter of dragging them into society that is entirely out of our province, we attempt only to chronicle the trials and adventures of those who have already gotten in, not to assist them in the process of getting in. We sincerely hope that this will be considered due apology for giving any unwilling victims such rude publicity.

About Books

The New York Times says, "Beyond question the greatest novel of the year is 'Mr. Britling Sees It Through.' It is a book about the war. But it is a book by H. G. Wells. Mr. Britling is in a rough sense Mr. Wells himself, as a philosopher and prophet, but even more as a Briton under torment. Before more as a Briton, he is an eager, speculative writer, comfortably occupied with his mental adventures. We see him in his chosen habitat at Matchin's Easy in Essex. He is the center of a group of ante-

Retiring Officials and Their Wives at Santa Fe Close the Season With Many Gay Affairs

Governor and Mrs. McDonald were guests of honor at a party given by Mrs. Rupert F. Asplund on Wednesday evening. It was also in honor of the retiring as well as incoming heads of the department of education. Dignity of office was laid aside for the evening. Guests forgot the days that separated them from the days of youth and joined in the merriment with freedom.

Governor and Mrs. McDonald led off in the Virginia reel and the quadrille with all the grace and spirit of thirty years ago. John V. Conway, as master of ceremonies, called out the figures and looked after the music. He also contributed his "bit" by playing the ukulele and singing Spanish and Irish dialect songs that were as funny as they make them. Charades were acted and enjoyed just as in the days of the little district school way back east somewhere.

Mrs. J. H. Warner as mesmerist, tried her occult powers upon dignified school superintendents and made them dance and sing and cry at will. Escalloped oysters, Boston brown bread, meat jelly, coffee, nuts and raisins were included in the refreshments, each lady being proclaimed partner, husbands being proclaimed persons non grata for the occasion. In short, the affair was "different" from the ordinary run and therefore hugely enjoyed. Christmas greens, light blues and other blossoms, were the decorations.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. N. B. Lanchlin and daughter, Mrs. William J. Barker, gave a tea in honor of Mr. McDonald and daughter, Mrs. Spencer. The Lanchlins home is opposite to the mansion and the house and McDonalds have been the closest kind of friends during the entire administration. There are real regrets over Mrs. McDonald leaving the capital and throngs of friends took opportunity on Thursday afternoon to tell her how sincerely Christmas greens formed the decorations at the tea.

Writs of mandamus were served upon members of the chamber of commerce this week, compelling them to appear at the Sociability New Year's ball at the Hotel De Vargas on Saturday evening, December 30. Secretary Earl Doyle saw to it that lunch, favors, music, in fact, everything, were properly provided and arranged. It was a new departure for the chamber of commerce, which thus far has kept out of the social game.

The Santa Fe club arranged for a watchnight party in which those who danced were to appear in children's clothes. Like the Christmas stocking party, it promised endless of fun.

On Thursday evening the young folks gave a dance at Library hall which drew a good crowd.

The Elks will see out the Old Year with a social at the Elks' club house. The social is to resolve itself into a dance and card party as soon as the midnight hour rings out Sunday and with it the old year.

DeForest Lord was host at a dance at his home "The Willows," on East Palace avenue, on Saturday evening.

Miss Alta Sanford on Tuesday evening gave a party and dance to her young folk friends.

The Santa Fe Woman's club will begin activities in the New Year promptly. The first event will be a lecture at the Palace of the Governors by Aldo Leopold of Albuquerque, on Tuesday evening. His theme will be the "Wild Life of New Mexico," and his talk will be illustrated. The invitation to attend is general.

Probably the most novel among the New Christmas dinners and parties that given by Mrs. Harry Langford Wilson for those of her friends from home and relatives. The place cards were in poster style and pointed by Arthur E. Musgrave, the artist, who has just joined the Santa Fe Art colony, which was also represented by Mrs. Warren E. Rollins and Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Vierra.

Coming and Going.

Captain Maill of the Bremerton navy yard station is in Santa Fe visiting his parents-in-law, Judge and Mrs. L. C. Collins. Mrs. Maill and children have been here since Sunday.

Ashey Pond has returned from San Diego where he spent Christmas with his family.

Dr. and Mrs. Chapin leave in a few days on a trip to Honolulu.

J. Curtis Underwood, poet, critic, author of children's books, and W. P. Lawson, poet and writer of short stories, this week rambled among the cliff dwellings. Despite the cold and the snow they hugely enjoyed the pedestrian trip.

The young men and young women here for the holidays begin trekking back to school this week: Wallace Fiske to Boulder; Alfred Rolfs to Ann Arbor; DeForest Lord to Culver Military Academy; Otis Seligman and his guest C. E. Glasco of Grand Junction, Colo., to Roswell Military Institute; John Walter to Hollywood, Calif.; Miss Beatrice Seligman and Miss Helen Mayne to Denver; Miss Helen Williams to State College; Howard Fullerton to University of New Mexico; Miss Aurora Lucero to Tucuman.

Mrs. David M. White and children and Mrs. George Kinsell have gone to Hollywood, Calif., for the rest of the winter.

Mrs. Nell B. Field, Mrs. Chadbourne and other Albuquerqueans motored to Santa Fe on Friday.

ROSSELL

Miss Nell Mason has accepted the position of stenographer in the offices of the new district attorney, Judge Robert Dow of Carlsbad. Miss Mason arrived from Denver this week for a visit with her mother and sister, Mrs. Mason and Mrs. John T. McClure, before taking up her new duties.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Sawyer are guests at the Gilkeson for the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Smith and daughter, Mary Edith Smith, and Mrs. Mary Smith of McKinney, Texas, arrived Saturday for a Christmas visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Brown and to attend the marriage of Miss Freda Brown and Lockridge Wilson on January 3.

Miss Lela Christian, Miss Eudalie Merchant and Miss Dorothy McIntosh are guests at the Gilkeson for the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. White for the Christmas holidays. They were entertained by the Gamma Tau Chi club at a theater party Thursday evening.

Mrs. C. C. Martin was a dinner hostess Sunday evening at her home. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gilkeson and Mrs. Mary White for the Christmas holidays.

The forty-ninth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Wetmore was celebrated at their home Christmas eve with a dinner party and family reunion.

A musicale was given Sunday afternoon in the parlors of Hotel Wilkeson in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hardin and Mrs. Harding of Amarillo.

Miss Sadie Christian, who is attending the National Kindergarten college in Chicago, is home for the holiday vacation.

Laurie Vauchette is home from the University of New Mexico to spend the Christmas vacation.

C. C. Croke, district manager of the Mountain States Telephone company, presided at a hot Saturday evening over a dinner at Hotel Gilkeson. A unique feature of which was long distance Christmas greetings to many different points from a telephone installed at the table.

Miss Mary White was hostess to the Gamma Tau Chi girls Saturday evening at a merry Christmas party.

A Christmas dance was given for the management Monday evening. The tea rooms of the hotel were gay and bright with the sparkling trophies of the season and Christmas joy was expressed in the tripping measures of the dance until a late hour.

The marriage of Miss Willard Pickering and Will Farankamp of Big Springs, Texas, took place Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents at Hotel Gilkeson. The following the ceremony the young couple left for a honeymoon trip to Florida.

Wade Corp was host at a Christmas dance last evening at Hotel Gilkeson.

John McCoy was a dinner host Tuesday evening at the home of his brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Merion McCoy. Christmas decorations were used and a quality dinner served. Yuletide dinner cards marked places for the Misses Daisy Nottley, Agnes Niedekorn, Kate Douthitt, Zilla Camp, Mr. and Mrs. Morton McCoy,

MESQUITE MARY SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT FROM CACTUS CORNERS

Cactus Corners, Dec. 30

Dear Dolly:

Did you see what some dream person wrote about me in the Socorro Chieftain? Smart Alice country correspondent indeed! Just because the metropolis has a court house with a clock that has no hands and two blocks of cement sidewalks and a weekly paper it thinks it can call the Corners country! Here is the clipping.

In Defense.

"To say we are rural, is pulling in entirely too much, we are simply farmers at that smart Alice country correspondent, who signs herself Mary Mesquite, and hails from Cactus Corners, for poking fun at the newly installed society editor of the Albuquerque Journal about her tin can articles, for we have the honor of a personal acquaintance with the young lady and admire her immensely, and feel confident that she had no intention, whatever, of insulting the Corners, but simply took a few of the Corners' own abundant supply along with her to tie to some Duke City rosin house, where you pay a perfectly good phone and a half for the privilege of sleeping in a bed that smells like dead men, and the chambermaid swipes past very best tops in which you had hoped to appear at some one of the various social functions for which Albuquerque is noted, where they serve these 'social' actuals about which the dear departed Pandora was want to write.

"But the 'straw that broke the camel's back' and is a case of 'death to injury,' and we lay the blame entirely at the door of the local correspondent who furnishes the big 'city' dignity with the comings and goings of the social lunch to this community, and we intend to tell her about it in the very next time we see her, and that is, while we have not forgotten the blithesome Mrs. Harsum as a leader in the social life of the town, we simply won't stand for the Hon. H. O's sheep and ranches making into the society news columns. Putting, as it were, into the very sacred innermost sanctum of Socorro's select 'fou' hundred—So sorry, not while the present social editor of the Chieftain is on the job."

Kelly

Kelly has joined the community spirit and this year had its first community Christmas tree last Sunday afternoon. The school children gave a program in the afternoon, and in the evening the entire population of the town turned out and took part in the singing.

D. E. Vicker, superintendent of schools, and his associates are responsible for the Christmas celebration as well as the organization of a civic, social and literary club among the townspeople which has more than a hundred members.

INFLUENCE OF FAR COUNTRIES IN MODERN DRESS

ina, Japan, Russia and Spain furnish inspiration for New Fashions for Women This Year.

Most of us, however, are content to admire these beautiful costumes in the windows. No one has yet appeared on Fifth Avenue arrayed in the true costume from the land of the cherry blossom. But many have been seen in costumes showing the Oriental influence, such as the sketch above illustrates.

Another country from which has come inspiration for some of the present styles is Spain. The red and black combination worn by the dark-eyed beauties of that country is frequently used with charming effect, especially in semi-evening gowns. From Spain also have come the beautiful fine lace scarfs or mantillas which are now fashionable, and the large combs for the hair which are used with the coiffure that is distinctly Spanish.

Distinctly Russian in Effect.

also, we have received a great many contributions to the styles, not only in the line of blouses and dresses, but in the Russian turbans raised high in front. Some of the turbans are worn with chin-straps, or "bridles," to which a veil is often attached.

The Russian blouse dress, with a long blouse reaching to the knee and falling over a pleated skirt, is one of the best-dressed styles of the season. Sometimes it is made with a high close-fitting collar, and again, the open neck with the becoming sailor collar is used with it. With the high collar and closing at the side, these dresses give very much the impression of a suit. It has been observed of late that such dresses giving the appearance of suits have been very much worn at afternoon functions. A waist with a short peplum sometimes

HEADACHE FROM A COLD? LISTEN!

"Pape's Cold Compound" ends severe colds or grippe in few hours.

Your cold will break and all grippe very end after taking a dose of Pape's Cold Compound, every two hours until three doses are taken. It promptly opens closed-up nose and air passages in the head, relieves sick headache, dullness, earache, sore throat, sneezing, redness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing it snuffling! Ease your throbbled head—nothing else in the world gives so prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents a bottle. It acts without any dangerous drug store. It tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Accept no substitute.

BUSINESS COLLEGE ITEMS

The past week has been a busy one at the office of the A. R. C., completing plans for the opening of the mid-winter term, Tuesday, January 3, which promises to be the largest January opening in years.
Many old students called to express holiday greetings and the season's greetings were received from scores of old students in various parts of the country.
George Lougee, superintendent of Socorro city schools, was a caller during the past week.
George Myers has accepted a position with the Arizona Lumber and Timber company at Flagstaff. George has been with the State national bank since finishing at the Albuquerque Business college.
Elmer Riehl, a recent student, is now with the Bradstreet company of this city.
The correspondence department is rapidly growing in favor and many persons are pursuing one or more studies at home by mail.

Hot Fight for J. P.
East Las Vegas, N. M., Dec. 30.—A lively little fight for the nomination for justice of the peace and constable in precinct No. 6, town of Las Vegas, is expected. Felix Gaudin Gutierrez, the present justice, is a candidate for re-nomination. Felipe Baca, y Garcia and Estefano Lucero y Jiron are opposing them. Gutierrez is a former justice. The candidates for constable are Ramon Ullarria, the present officer, Ignacio Padilla and Tranquilino Baca. In precinct No. 5, also in Old Town, J. P. Mares, the present justice, is a candidate for nomination, and he is opposed by Antonio Gutierrez.

DUKE CITY BANKS SHOW ENORMOUS 1916 BUSINESS EIGHT OF TWELVE ARMY AVIATORS FINISH FLIGHT

Compilation of Monthly Clearings by H. L. Moore Gives Total of Nearly Twenty Millions.

Banks of Albuquerque in clearings for the past year show a greater business than probably any town of the size in the United States. During 1916 the figures of the three banks in the city reached almost $20,000,000.

Reasons for the unusually large transactions are attributed to the fact that Albuquerque is the center for much of the ranch and mining business of the northern part of the state.

Figures compiled by H. L. Moore of the State National bank are:

January	1,411,430.22
February	1,326,784.96
March	1,538,746.22
April	1,584,681.87
May	1,440,674.33
June	1,837,753.24
July	1,512,372.24
August	1,420,495.51
September	1,562,578.35
October	1,579,832.30
November	2,199,768.02
December	1,562,629.07

Total for year $19,723,673.53

COMING TO CRYSTAL IS MUTT AND JEFF NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT

In order to call attention to the advent of the latest comedy based on the famous cartoons, Mutt and Jeff, christened "Mutt and Jeff's Wedding," which is underlined as the next attraction at the Crystal Theater next Tuesday night, January 2, the management has inaugurated a unique contest. All patrons will be invited to enter. The idea is to see how many phrases and sentences can be made of the appended billing: "Mutt and Jeff's Wedding" is the merriest show on the stage. Those to be formed into a criticism of the production.

After close inspection you will observe that the billing consists of twelve words and forty-six letters. By using the letters of each word and twisting them in any number of angles and shapes, many sentences and phrases will result. The rules of the contest are that the criticisms must be complimentary and that no two be alike.

An incentive the management will give to the winner or winners submitting the best criticism, two seats for any performance of the show during its stay in town. One of the rules of the contest is that the competitors must make their contributions very brief, being limited to one hundred words. For further information write to the manager of the Crystal Theater.

AUSTRIAN CORONATION IS MARKED WITH POMP

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

London, Dec. 30.—The coronation of Emperor Charles and Empress Zita of Austria as king and queen of Hungary took place this morning in St. Matthew church at Budapest. The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company cables: "The ceremony was marked with all the traditional medieval pomp. The king wore the gala uniform of a Hungarian field marshal and was surrounded by the captains of his bodyguard."

The queen rode in a coach drawn by sixteen horses, which was followed by a pageant. Salutes were fired as the procession moved through the streets. Cardinal Serenchi, primate of Hungary, with the remainder of the clergy, escorted the king and queen into the church, which was filled with officials and diplomats. The king took the oath to defend the interests of the Roman Catholic church against any enemy. Afterwards the king, wearing the crown and scepter, entered the parliament building in the presence of the populace.

Steamer Believed Sunk.
London, Dec. 30.—Lloyd's reports that the British steamer Zoroaster, 2,515 tons, is believed to have been sunk. Lloyd's also reports the sinking of the British steamer Adayah (previously reported sunk from Paris) and that the crew had been landed with the exception of the captain, who is a prisoner aboard a submarine.

Wanted—Teacher for departmental work in grammar grades. Prefer one who can teach music and art. Phone 25523 by noon today.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Gold Star Mining and Milling company for the election of officers and directors, will be held at their offices, 311 South Fourth street, Albuquerque, N. M., at 3 o'clock p. m. on January 8, 1917.

Trip From Hempstead, L. I., to Philadelphia Navy Yard, 165 Miles, Is Covered in Less Than Two Hours.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

Philadelphia, Dec. 30.—Eight of the twelve army aviators who started from Hempstead, L. I. for this city today, in a qualification test for government pilot licenses, arrived at the Philadelphia navy yard, completing the flight of 165 miles in less than two hours. Two of the aviators who failed to reach this city were compelled to descend because of motor trouble, near Monmouth Junction, N. J., and one at Deans, near the place where the flight caused one of the squad to abandon the flight ten miles from Hempstead. The machines descended in the following order:

Lieutenant Coyle of the New Hampshire national guard, with a passenger, H. W. Brickley, with a passenger, 11:40 a. m.

T. C. Millman, with a passenger, 11:45 a. m.

Capt. J. E. Carberry, army signal corps, 11:50 a. m.

Lieut. James E. Miller, New York, 11:52 a. m.

Lieut. G. Osborne, 11:53 a. m.

Leonard Barney, with a passenger, 11:56 a. m.

Lieut. E. W. Hagnall, with a passenger, 1:30 p. m.

Lieut. Torbert Carolin, with Lieutenant Wheaton as a passenger, crashed into a fence at Deans, N. J., after motor trouble had forced them to descend at 11:45 a. m. Both planes of the machine were smashed, but the men escaped injury.

Sergeant E. W. Noyes, with a passenger named Meredith, descended at 11:19 a. m. on the outskirts of Monmouth Junction, without difficulty. They will make the trip back to Hempstead tomorrow, when those who reached this city will return to the starting point. Capt. H. C. Bolling descended at Monmouth. Lieutenant Kinner and John B. Stetson, Jr., of Philadelphia, a passenger, abandoned the flight shortly after the start.

With the exception of the machine piloted by Brickley, which was damaged in a thirty-foot plunge just before the start, all of the planes, after circling over the battle-sites at the navy yard, made successful landings. Brickley and his passenger were severely injured, but otherwise uninjured, when their machine crashed the top of a flagpole and, falling, buried its nose in the ground at an angle of 45 degrees. The machine was slightly damaged.

Suffer From Cold.
Most of the aviators had to be unseated from their machines to the marine barracks at the navy yard, the intense cold having numbed their arms and legs, although they wore special garments. Frozen moisture froze their faces.

Planes ranging from 2,000 to 3,000 feet were reached during the trip, the aviators shaping their course to Trenton, N. J., following the Delaware river to the navy yard.

During the journey, tests of stability and other airplane devices were made.

The return flight to Hempstead will begin at 5 o'clock tomorrow morning.

NOMINATION OF CHANG KOU-KAN IS REJECTED

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

Peking, Dec. 29.—The senate has rejected the nomination of Chang Kou-Kan, appointed minister of the interior by Premier Tuan Chi Jui.

The deadlock between parliament and the premier continues. Vice President Fu Kuo Chang and seven cabinet members have telegraphed President Li Yuan Hung and the premier condemning the dilatoriness of parliament, supporting the president in his position and urging the president to give the premier full authority to reorganize the government. The message suggests that the provinces will not independently unless parliament ceases to obstruct his authority and speedily drafts a constitution.

Big Export Business Through Galveston.
Galveston, Tex., Dec. 30.—Export business through Galveston during 1916 reached a total value of $251,244,225, according to figures available today. This is an increase of approximately $25,000,000 over the value of exports during 1915.

As usual, cotton holds first place in volume and value of the exports with 2,267,254 bales, valued at $132,844,574 going to foreign countries. Exports of wheat amounted to 22,974,475 bushels, valued at $21,728,874. In both wheat and cotton there was a falling off in volume compared with 1915 but the values are increased. Imports during 1916 were valued at $5,371,121.

EARLY SETTLER OF ST. JOHN'S IS DEAD

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

St. John's, Ariz., Dec. 30.—Henry Butler died at his home in Eagle last Sunday after a two weeks' illness from pneumonia. Mr. Butler contracted the disease by getting a severe cold during a recent trip and it turned into pneumonia soon after he got to his home.

Mr. Butler is a native of Utah and came to live in St. John's among the early Mormon settlers of this town. Twenty-five years ago he went up to Escondido and settled there and has since lived there. He leaves a wife, seven daughters and two sons surviving him. They are among the most creditable citizens of Apache county. The funeral was held on Wednesday.

Des Moines to Bring Refugees.

Washington, Dec. 30.—Final plans for bringing home the 260 Americans interned for months in Syria and Palestine, made by the state department today and communicated to Ambassador Elkes at Constantinople, provide for sending the cruiser Des Moines from Alexandria, Egypt, to Beirut as soon as the refugees are brought from Jaffa. Turkish military authorities refused to allow the Americans to leave from Jaffa but have given permission for use of the Beirut route.

CORNELIA COPPER COMPANY WILL ADJUST TROUBLE WITH MINERS

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL)

Ajo, Ariz., Dec. 30.—With but thirty-one arrests made during the first month of the lockout that has prevailed here between the Cornelia Copper company and the Western Federation of Miners, there is considered to have been a phenomenal record made for a strike period in the west.

Not a dollar of damage has been done properly, not an eviction has been made by the company, and not a man imported to the job, one of straight construction and preliminary to production of copper in March. When the latter stage is reached, $4,000,000 will have been spent and the company will be ready to take copper ore from a 42,000,000-ton steam shovel, which will keep it busy for thirty years.

During the month of the strike, under jurisdiction of the Western Federation, according to the original strike call, although the Federation will have practically no men on the job during its life for the reason that it is nearly all steam shovel mining here, there has been no violence, if a few fights in which damage was small are eliminated. Of the persons arrested, two were women who insisted upon accompanying their husbands in the morning and evening parade of pickets, numbering all of the unemployed. These were the only women arrested. They were discharged upon declaring that they had not intended to defy the officers and would refrain from such conduct in the future. Fourteen other persons were discharged. Arrests have been made impartially among men at work and those on picket. Court rulings have been equally impartial. Of the Americans remaining out, less than 100 were formerly employed by the company. The balance of those at the Clarkston headquarters are Mexicans, I. W. W.'s and hoboes who have drifted in since the walkout was ordered. The company has, in the meantime, recuperated its working force from former employees to over 700 men and is getting efficiency in the construction department.

Three unions, those of the brick masons, the lead burners and the steam shovel men, have disintegrated the proclaimed jurisdiction of the Western Federation of Miners by returning their men to work. The life of the strike is over.

It is upon the steel workers, who are still out. Particularly enough, the Cornelia Copper company is not at all interested in these men, for they have never been on the company pay roll, being directly in the employ of the eastern construction concern which the construction contract and with a large forfeit posted to guarantee completion of the job at a given time. So far as parties at interest are concerned, the strike should be in Kansas City instead of Ajo, as matters now stand.

It is believed here that the walkout will be off in a few days. Top union wages were being paid on all construction work prior to the strike, and the men had but three months to go before they would have received the sliding copper wage scale, calling for higher pay. This higher pay will become effective just as soon as the company goes on the production of ore and metal on a commercial basis, which will be in March.

ENTRANCE TO SEAPORT IS MINED BY GERMANS

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

Berlin, Dec. 30 (by Wireless to Stockholm).—German warships placed mines covering both entrances to the Finnish seaport of Espoo, on the Gulf of Bothnia, on Thursday night last, according to the Swedish newspaper Aftonbladet, says an Overseas News agency item today.

According to these advices Raumo, at present the most important Russian port, is now totally inaccessible to navigation.

Cataract Cannot Be Cured

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 30.—The "cataract" of the eye, which is a clouding of the lens, cannot be cured by any method, and in order to cure it must be removed surgically. Dr. J. J. Charnick, of St. Louis, Mo., says that the cataract is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in the country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best food known, combined with the best blood purifier, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect fluidization of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing cataracts for both eyes.

LAWSON TO TELL WHAT HE KNOWS OF ALLEGED LEAK

In Response to a Telegram From Congressman Henry, Tom Wires That He Will Proceed to Washington.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

Boston, Dec. 30.—In response to a telegram from Congressman Robert L. Henry of Texas, urging that he go to Washington immediately and produce any facts he may have bearing on a "leak" from the state department to Wall Street in connection with President Wilson's recent peace note, Thomas W. Lawson today replied by wire that he would call on the congressman.

"You have libeled congressmen and public officials and I predict you cannot make good," Congressman Henry stated in the telegram which Mr. Lawson made public here today. It was explained that Mr. Henry made his request in his capacity as a member of the house rules committee of which he is chairman.

"The good old capital has been wallowing in Wall street leak grafts for forty years," the Lawson reply said. "You and Congressman Wood started this leak' merry-go-round, and then you sort of run me into it through your press statements and then you made me the whole of it. Now I say, congressman, have a heart."

"This is my program: Tomorrow I will give you a serious 3,000-word bit, then I will, if you wish, visit you on New Year's, then on Tuesday from the gallery I will listen to you and the other statesmen, who missed on the 'leak' lambast me some more."

MARINE INSURANCE IS GIVEN BOOST UPWARD

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

New York, Dec. 30.—Marine insurance rates today showed another increase. Underwriters quoted 6 to 8 per cent for insuring cargoes bound to ports of the United Kingdom and 10 per cent to Mediterranean ports. A few days ago these rates stood at 5 to 8 per cent.

The advance was attributed to reports that the Lamport and Holt liner Voltair, long overdue, had been captured by a German prize crew which was trying on allied freighters in the north Atlantic and to the fact that several trans-Atlantic steamers are now overdue on both sides of the ocean.

Although the Voltair, from Liverpool to New York, is fourteen days behind her schedule, representatives of the line here said they had not given up hope and should not do so until they heard officially that their vessel had been lost. In maritime circles it was pointed out that anxiety over the non-arrival of steamers is unnecessarily exaggerated.

DIXON SENTENCED FOR DRAFTING ROUND-ROBIN

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 30.—Private Richard Dixon of the Eighth Ohio Infantry, was sentenced to confinement in his camp for one month and to forfeit two-thirds of his pay for three months by the summary court of the Eleventh provisional division late yesterday. Brig. Gen. George Bell, Jr., announced today.

Private Dixon was charged with having drafted the "round robin" which was circulated in the Ohio regiment's camp and which was signed by 400 members of this regiment, protesting against conditions in the camp.

MAGAZINES TO INCREASE PRICE OF SUBSCRIPTION

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

New York, Dec. 30.—Owing to the increased cost of white paper and other materials necessary to printing and get work several magazines of national circulation announced today increases in the prices of subscription. Other periodicals have already given notice of a similar jump in prices. Several of the smaller magazines in New York have suspended publication and others are planning to merge with publications controlled by the same interests.

Small's Gun Not Mentioned.

Gaspere, N. H., Dec. 30.—Although carried out to minute details in other respects, the inventory of household goods prepared by Frederick L. Small on trial for the murder of his wife Mrs. Florence A. Small, and with burning his home, to conceal evidence of the crime, did not mention a revolver found in the ruins or jewelry valued at $600 which Small said was in the debris. This was the testimony of Edwin C. Conner, school principal, and jurist, who, who resided the witness stand today.

SALT LAKE CITY FACES COAL FAMINE; NEAR RIOT

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

Salt Lake City, Utah, Dec. 30.—With one lot of coal arriving in Salt Lake during the last twenty-four hours the city is facing a coal famine. Retail dealers have been forced to refuse further orders and the situation is regarded as acute.

More than 200 persons crowded into a downtown coal office today at noon and demanded that each be served. A near riot threatened when informed that there was no coal to be had today, although promises were made that shipments on route, held up by the storm, would arrive late this afternoon or early tomorrow. The temperature was 6 degrees above zero here this morning.
