Published: Wednesday, August 19, 1992

On Aug. 12, Howard Johnson, the US-based hotel chain, announced plans to build three new facilities in Merida, Cancun and Cozumel. Construction is scheduled to begin in Merida early next year. Howard Johnson currently owns three hotels in Mexico: one in Baja California, another in Mexico City, and one under construction in Veracruz. (Source: El Financiero, 08/13/92)
