NEED MORE TROOPS.

Large Army Needed to Subjugate Philippine Islands.

A Terrific and Destructive Fire on Coney Island, N. Y.

Canadians Insist on Getting a Slice of Alaska Territory.

MINNESOTA TOWNS BURNED.

Manila, May 26.—The events of the past few weeks have emphasized the need of a much larger army here, without which, according to the best authorities at Manila, it would be attempting the impossible to expect to maintain supremacy in the Philippine islands. The inadequacy of the American forces is said to be responsible for the large loss in a number of small encounters, without material results as a compensation. Most of the fighting has been in territory which the Americans swept, but have been unable to hold because they could not spare the troops to hold it. The insurgents are occupying the same towns the Americans abandoned and camping in the jungles and woods outside of others, or watch for chances to harass the garrisons and attack scouting parties or detached companies with greater force.

TERRIFIC FIRE.

Coney Island Summer Resort Burns and Several Persons Injured.

New York, May 26.—Fire started early today in the Bushman's pavilion, Coney Island, and spread rapidly until seven frame buildings were destroyed. A conservative estimate places the loss at $300,000. Policeman Thomas Lynch, Fireman George Taggart and William Aldrich were painfully burned while arousing the sleeping occupants of the several threatened buildings. Richard Downs and William Durkin, 18 and 15 years old, respectively, who were asleep in the Zaza hotel, were severely burned. The police believe the fire to be of incendiary origin. Deputy Battalion and Chief Kirkpatrick, of the fire department, discovered traces of kerosene along the board walk in front of one of the burned buildings. The buildings burned were photograph galleries, saloon, dining rooms, dance halls, theaters and the like. In all 200 buildings were destroyed. The police estimate that the loss is $300,000, but this is probably excessive, as the structures were of a flimsy character.

Canadians Boundary.

London, May 26.—The foreign office officials confirm the statements of the New York correspondent of the London Times that negotiations with the Canadian government on the subject of the Alaska have reached almost a hopeless stage, owing to the insistence of the Canadians that they receive a slice of Alaska, which apparently precludes any agreement being reached on the subject between the American and Canadian high commissioners.

ROTULES ISLANDERS.

Natives of Guadalupe, West Indies, Object to Labor Service.

London, May 26.—Advisers from Guadalupe, the French West Indian island of the leeward group report recurrence of serious rioting between native population and British contract labor immigrants which culminated recent days. Continuous fierce fighting is said to have taken place on plantations. Police and military, it appears, cannot suppress disturbance. Several fatalities are reported. The British consul there appealed to Great Britain for protection for British subjects which local government is seemingly unable to afford.

Presbyterian Assembly.

Minneapolis, Minn., May 26.—The Presbyterian assembly has adopted an additional resolution calling upon all officers and members who are employers of labor to exert themselves to reduce the amount of Sabbath labor and to condemn that policy or management which makes it obligatory upon a laborer to choose between dismissal and Sunday labor.

Town Burned.

Staples, Minn., May 26.—Twenty-five buildings, comprising a third of the business portion of Staples, burned last night. An overturned lamp started the fire. Loss, $30,000.

Postmaster Appointed.

Washington, May 26.—The president this afternoon appointed John C. Tinsley postmaster of Denver.

Signed the Bill.

Albany, N. Y., May 26.—Governor Roosevelt signed the amended franchise bill today.

Senate Committee.

Washington, May 26.—Senator Aldrich, chairman of the senate committee on finance, has issued a call for a meeting of that committee at the Fifth avenue hotel, New York, on the 9th of June. It is considered probable that the committee

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Cerrillos Engineer Disappears and Supposed to Be Dead.

Train Wreck Near Gallup on Santa Fe Pacific Road.

Pennsylvania Republicans Will Advocate Re-election of President McKinley.

KILLED BY CYLINDER EXPLOSION.

Special to The Citizen.

Cerrillos, May 26.—The trunk of Adolf J. Reigies, who disappeared last Sunday morning, was broken open today, when a signed note was found, reading as follows: "I am nearly out of my head. John Goll, Jefferson Barracks, Mo., will pay my board." It is the general opinion among his friends that the unfortunate man has taken his own life, and that his body will be found in some of the canyons near Cerrillos.

TRAIN WRECKED.

Santa Fe Pacific Passenger Train Derailed at Gallup.

SEVERAL PERSONS BADLY INJURED.

Special to The Citizen.

Gallup, May 26.—Passenger train No. 1, pulling out of here this morning, ran into loaded coal cars at the west switch, turning the engine bottom side up, with the head and facing the train, and the engine tank and car on the opposite side of the track in a similar position. The baggage car and one coach are considerably damaged, but not disabled. The engine is a total wreck. Engineer Norman's skull is fractured and Fireman Swearingin is badly bruised. A man named Graves, representing some boiler compound firm, was on the engine and had an arm broken. An unknown man on the blind baggage had a foot cut off and is otherwise seriously injured and will die.

Col. Bryan Is Pleased.

St. Louis, May 26.—Col. Wm. J. Bryan, when seen today as he was about to take the train, expressed himself as being much pleased with the result of last night's banquet. He said: "It was a grand success. The gathering was immense, enthusiastic and democratic."

Speaking of the platform to be adopted at the next national democratic convention, Bryan said: "The Chicago platform will be reaffirmed and new platforms added to cover new questions. The trust issue will be the most important."

RAILROAD SOLD.

St. Louis, May 26.—J. L. Webster, of Omaha, representative of William & Robert E. Todd, today bid in the St. Louis, O'Neil & Western railway for $1,750,000 to satisfy $2,400,000 first mortgage bonds held by J. Kennedy & Co., New York. The road extends from St. Louis City to O'Neil, Neb. It was originally intended to build to San Francisco but the panic of 1893 threw the road into the hands of receivers.

Presidential Order.

Washington, May 26.—On May 26 President McKinley issued an executive order, not heretofore published, providing that during the maintenance of military government by the United States in Cuba there shall be maintained the offices of auditor and treasurer. A similar order was issued to Porto Rico and the Philippines.

Pennsylvania for McKinley.

Philadelphia, May 26.—United States Senator Penrose, in an interview today, declared his purpose to advocate the adoption of a plank in the coming republican state convention endorsing the national administration, and emphatically declaring that the sentiment of the republicans of Pennsylvania is in favor of the re-election of McKinley.

Fatal Explosion.

Philadelphia, May 26.—In the big explosion of the steam dry cylinder in the dyeing and finishing mill of James Martin & Co., today, Daniel Duxan and William Lang were killed and three others severely injured.

MURDERED THE DEPOT.

A. C. Larrivee Arrested for Robbing the Lava, N. M., Depot. A. C. Larrivee broke into the depot at Lava station, on the Santa Fe in Socorro county, on the night of May 22. He stole a ticket to El Paso and stamped it, and also a diamond ring belonging to Louis La Page, the agent at that point. As soon as the theft was discovered, officers along the line were telegraphed and Sheriff Garrett arrested the man at Las Cruces. Sheriff Blackington went after him, and he is now lodged in the county jail at Socorro. He will have his preliminary hearing there to-morrow.

Larrivee is a young Canadian, who came here a short time ago from Montreal, Canada. He speaks four languages fluently and is said to be an expert short-hand writer.

The Clair Hotel.

Santa Fe, under the management of Fred J. Michael, is now open in first-class style. The dining room having just been newly equipped and opened in an elegant and stylish manner, the location, the convenience, comfort and superiority of the building in every particular over any other in the city, together with free sample rooms, make it the leading hotel. We invite comparison.

BIG FAILURE.

Glasgow Iron and Steel Firm Fails for a Large Amount.

Rosa Bonheur, the Celebrated French Painter, is Dead.

Ex-President Benjamin Harrison is Well Received in Paris.

ADMIRAL DEWEY REGAINING HEALTH.

Special to The Citizen.

Glasgow, Scotland, May 26.—A great sensation has been caused by the failure of Neilson Bros., an important firm engaged in the iron and steel trade. They had long been the Glasgow pig iron trade, and were heavily overvalued when the corner in warrants was engineered. It is calculated that the concern lost $1,500,000 during the past year. Total liabilities are unknown.

ADMIRAL DEWEY REGAINING HEALTH.

Paris, May 26.—Former President Benjamin Harrison, acting as legal representative of the Venezuela boundary commission, which meets here June 15, has arrived in this city. United States Ambassador Porter is arranging for an interview between President Loubet and Mr. Harrison.

ADMIRAL DEWEY REGAINING HEALTH.

Hong Kong, May 26.—Admiral Dewey shows great improvement already. He is installed at the Peak hotel, with lofty windows that catch every mouthful of wind from the sea. He is losing the air of languor that he wore when he landed.

On His Way Home.

ADMIRAL DEWEY REGAINING HEALTH.

London, May 26.—A special train from Paris to day says: Rosa Bonheur the famous animal painter, is dead.

Mersey Case.

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Rajah" was given last night at Orchestra hall by the Stillman company in fine style. A fair audience was in attendance. By request it will be given again to-night.

To-morrow, at 2:30, a matinee will be given for ladies and children. The bill will be "Jane and Editha's Burglar."

A present will be given to each child under 12 in attendance. The Stillman matinees are growing in popularity, and the matinee audiences grow in size at every performance.

Monday evening, at the Orchestra, Hoyt's greatest comedy will be seen and given a most complete production. The piece had a run of over six months in both New York and Boston, and has also been presented with great success in every prominent city in America. It is undoubtedly the best New England character play ever put before the public. That quaint and funniest of all droll comedians, L. R. Stockwell, will appear in his original creation of "Deacon Tidd," in which he cannot be duplicated. Seats now ready at Matson's.

Deserving of Help.

Wm. Flynn, who was paralyzed about eighteen months ago, is living near the Santa Fe Pacific shop, and is needing the necessities of life. Yesterday his friends solicited a purse for him and secured $51 in cash, and assurances of more. Jerry Monaghan, who took up the case, is anxious to return to his home in New York, and desires to return thanks on behalf of Mr. Flynn for the generous donation.

CLOSING SCHOOL EXERCISES.

The public school year ended yesterday, and most of the schools held exercises commemorative of the fact. In the First ward the students in the rooms of Mrs. Betts, Miss Willey and Miss Booth united and held exercises in common.

One of the features of the program was a well rendered guitar solo by Miss Frances Butts, a daughter of the teacher, and a violin solo by Isaac Singer, who was assisted by his musical instructor, Prof. Di Mauro. In the school there were three pupils, Charles Mann, Edith Walker and Estella Luthy, who had been under a severe cold during the year, and they were honored by receiving presents from their teachers.

In the Second ward, Miss Adams and the teachers pupils entertained the remainder of the school by giving a "Mother Goose" play, with all the children in costume. A large number of the parents were present and witnessed this excellent entertainment.

The Third ward pupils were busy at work with examinations, and postponed their fun until to-morrow, when they will picnic in Bear canyon.

In the Fourth ward, Miss Cameron, Miss Alger and Miss Margaret Lee's pupils held separate closing day exercises. The program in Mrs. Lee's room had been prepared by the students themselves, and was one of the best rendered during the entire year. In the morning Miss Cameron's and Miss Alger's pupils held a tea party and a doll contest. By vote it was decided that the doll brought by Milton Cudiff was the most beautiful in the entire lot.

NOTICE!

The above is a copy of a law introduced into the last Congress to protect the American people against counterfeit, imitation and misleading labels and to punish those guilty of the miserable and ignominious use of such goods. The southwestern brewery and ice Co., of this city, are and have been for some time past putting on the market a beer labeled, "The Consolidated Brewery Co., Milwaukee, Wis." It is made and bottled here in Albuquerque. Of course there is no such company, of which fact they are well aware, because if they should use its name or any other reputable firm they would be made to walk straight in short order.

The object of an advertiser in this paper is to reach the public by making them think they are buying a reputable article. The reason the dealer handles it is because he can get it cheaper than he can a good beer. This only one that gets the worst of the whole business is the consumer, the man who drinks the stuff. He pays the price of good beer to the dealer, is liable to be made sick by it and is humiliated.

Such laws have been found necessary since the miserable frauds, deceptions and risks some people will resort to make a few dollars.

Elephant Butte Dam.

History of the Contention and Litigation Over Its Construction.

SUPREME COURT DECISION.

The history of litigation leading up to the decision just given by the United States supreme court in the Elephant Butte dam case is not without interest all over the west, says the New Mexican.

An English company began the construction of a dam at Elephant Butte, above Las Cruces, to store flood waters for use in the Mesilla valley. Their attorney secured the approval of the reservoir site from the secretary of the interior, and the work was progressing, a temporary dam being under construction, when interference came from an unexpected source.

A Texas-Mexico syndicate of promoters at El Paso and Juarez had planned to get the government to expend $3,000,000 for a reservoir just above El Paso, to supply water power for enterprises in the latter city and irrigation for the farmers on both sides. This dam would have caused a great deal of land grabbed in the interest of some of the long-headed schemers on both sides to be flooded, and it was to have been condemned and paid for out of the $3,000,000, of which $1,000,000 was to be devoted to this purpose. This dam had been the hobby of Colonel Anson Mills of El Paso. By reason of his position on the international commission to determine the boundary between Mexico and the United States, and to suggest means to prevent the Rio Grande shifting its bed and thereby changing its boundary, Colonel Mills had influence. He recommended that by holding back floods in such a reservoir the river would be prevented from shifting its channel. But this point was traced by another.

The Mexican people were encouraged to claim damages from the lack of water to carry on their operations in the state of Chihuahua. There was a treaty provision that neither country should divert navigable streams in such a manner as to interfere with navigation.

Nothing was anticipated as to irrigation rights. Even when this treaty was made the Rio Grande went dry occasionally at El Paso. With the gradual filling of its bed to a greater depth with absorbing sand, and the growth of irrigation enterprises on the Rio Grande tributaries in Colorado, water ceased to flow most of the year at El Paso, and even much further north, in New Mexico. The Mexican courts, under the plan of the El Paso schemers, worked up damage claims by taking the testimony of farmers, covering a long period, the aggregate being something like $12,000,000. This was supplemented by an estimate from the Texas side, of the probable loss from the lack of water.

The Mexican minister, Sr. Romero, then presented the matter at Washington in the light of an equity. The United States had permitted its citizens to use water in Colorado and elsewhere that would have gone to Mexico. The Mexican government realized that the irrigation systems in Colorado had grown up without the disastrous results to Mexico being foreseen, and the damages ought not be collectible. As an act of compromise, damages would be waived if the United States would build and maintain the storage dam forever and give free of cost half of the water to the Mexican territory.

President Cleveland, in his first term, recommended a treaty along this line. In his second term his secretary of the interior approved of the reservoir site of the English company that proposed to do with its own money for New Mexico territory what the El Paso Mexico schemers asked the government to do at its own expense. After this approval by the department, Colonel Mills went to Washington and had the New Mexico enterprise temporarily blocked in the same department under whose approval work was begun.

The El Paso syndicate represented that the flood flow of the Rio Grande would not fill the proposed reservoir, that one was to be a government enterprise, and should have precedence. As a pretext to tie up the private enterprise until English capitalists, fearing obstruction from the government, should abandon, Colonel Mills and his party claimed that the United States was stopped from permitting the New Mexico dam to be built because it would be interfering with the navigability of a stream and a violation of a treaty, to which Mexico would not consent. Judge Bantz and the supreme court of New Mexico decided that the plea of navigability was absurd and untrue. There was an appeal to the United States

For Your Spring Renovating You Will Find That

My stock of wall paper and picture moulding, contains no old stock. New designs and colors, from the most artistic designers in the best quality may always be found at my store. C. A. Hudson, No. 118 North Second street.

S. Vann, the well-known jeweler and watchmaker, has removed to 107 South Second street and invites everybody to call and inspect his new quarters.

Yes, they told me you were false and I still believed you true. But now to satisfy my longing I'll make a pass at you. And later, at another time and place I'll give a curtain lecture directly to your face.

Curtain lectures may be her forte. But with us curtain washing is simply sport. We don't iron but stretch them square and that costs you but a dollar a pair.
