COGHLAN CRITICIZED.

Captain of the Raleigh Talks of the German Navy.

Colonel Miller Receives Underserved Promotion and Retires.

Boss Croker Will Take a Needed Rest in Europe.

TWO MORE BIG TRUSTS.

Washington, April 24.—The German ambassador appeared at the state department at noon today for the purpose of making further representations to Secretary Hay touching the conduct of Captain Coghlan, whose utterances at the Army and Navy club, as published in yesterday's morning papers, were regarded as additional offenses. Secretary Hay decried the lack of tact and had taste shown by Captain Coghlan. But he held that the case required treatment by methods of naval discipline only. The German ambassador will communicate the department's views to the foreign office at Berlin.

His Remarks at a Banquet Deeply Offend Germany.

Washington, April 24.—The Germans have entered a formal protest against the language used by Captain Coghlan at the Union League club banquet in New York last Friday night. Secretary Hay replied that the language could not be regarded as an official or public utterance in the sense that would warrant the state department in acting. However, the navy department was fully competent to take such action as the case seemed to require. There are semi-official intimations that the ambassador will not so much concern himself with the course of Captain Coghlan as with the course of the United States in dealing with Coghlan.

Disapprove of Capt. Coghlan.

Berlin, April 24.—It is announced semi-officially to United States Secretary of State Hay, expressed to German ambassador Von Holleben, of strong disapproval of the conduct of Captain Joseph B. Coghlan, of the United States cruiser Raleigh.

Captain of the Raleigh.

New York, April 24.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: As the result of his allusion to the conduct of the German fleet at Manila during the war with Spain, Capt. B. Coghlan will probably be relieved of the command of the Raleigh.

Did Not Deserve Promotion.

Washington, April 24.—Captain G. F. Wilder, of the United States steamship Boston, has protested against the promotion of Col. Miller to a brigadier-generalship as a reward for the capture of Hilo. It appears that the capture was effected entirely by the naval forces under command of Capt. White. The place was turned over to Col. Miller, who up to that time had nothing to do with the capture. This action is endorsed by Admiral Dewey.

Wilder's protest comes too late to be effective, as Colonel Miller was promoted a brigadier-general on February 15 in recognition of his services in the capture of Hilo, and was retired in that grade on March 27 by operation of law on account of age. He is expected to reach San Francisco in a few days.

Investigating Committee.

New York, April 24.—It is understood that after to-day's session the Mazon committee will adjourn till May 9. Mr. Croker was to be given permission to go to Europe provided he will return by the end of August. He agreed. A number of police captains were examined to day regarding the Police Retirement association. They denied that it had any political aims.

Two More Big Trusts.

Trenton, N. J., April 24.—The United States Trust company, with a capital of $70,000,000 and the American Plumbing Supply and Lead company, with an authorized capital of $35,000,000 were incorporated to day.

Appointed Brigadier-General.

Washington, April 24.—The president has appointed Col. James F. Smith, of the First California regiment, a brigadier-general of volunteers. Smith will be assigned to one of the brigades of Ota army.

Chicago Grain Market.

Chicago, April 24.—Wheat—May, 73½¢; July, 73½¢.
Corn—April, 34½¢; May, 34½¢; June, 34½¢.
Oats—April, 26½¢; May, 26½¢; June, 26½¢.

Racing Circuit.

The El Paso Times says: "Col. R. C. Pate arrived last night from Mexico City and to-day he will begin his preparations for the great spring racing meet to be given at Washington park. The colonel is a man of large experience in the management of races, and when he takes hold of a track he is bound to make a success of it. It now only remains for the citizens of El Paso to give him the

BLOODY BATTLE.

First Nebraska Loses Its Colonel and Several Men.

Filipinos Driven From Trenches by the Gallant Volunteers.

Stranger of Several Women in Jail in San Francisco.

HORRIBLE SCENE IN GEORGIA.

Manila, April 24.—In an encounter with Filipinos on Sunday near Quangua, four miles northeast of Iloilo, six Americans were killed and forty-three wounded. The following were killed: Col. John M. Stutzman, of the First Nebraska regiment, formerly of the Sixth cavalry; Lieut. Lester F. Simon, of same regiment; two privates of Nebraska regiment and private of Fourth cavalry. Most of the wounded belong to the First Nebraska regiment. Major Bell, with forty cavalrymen, first encountered strong outposts and sent for reinforcements. The insurgents were dislodged from the trenches by a charge, led by Stutzman. The insurgents retreated with small loss.

BATTLE IMMINENT.

Manila, April 24.—General Hale at 4 o'clock this afternoon crossed the Bagdad and reached a position a quarter of a mile from Calumpit, thus commanding the ford. The prisoners captured by Hale's troops say that Aguinaldo, General Luna and Filipino staff are at Calumpit with a great force of Filipino troops.

WORSE THAN SAVAGES.

Horrible Act of a Mob in the State of Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., April 24.—Sam Hose, a negro, who ten days ago killed a farmer, Andrew Cranford, and brutally assaulted his wife, was taken from the custody of Sheriff Brown at Newman, Ga., yesterday and burned at the stake by a mob of two thousand people. His ears and fingers were cut off and poured over him and the torch applied. Hose said he was paid $12 by Lige Strickland, a negro preacher at Palmetto, to kill Cranford. The outrage of the woman, he claimed, was done by another negro. Strickland was captured and is undergoing a mock trial.

ANOTHER HORRIBLE AFFAIR.

Palmetto, Ga., April 24.—The body of Lige Strickland, the negro implicated by Sam Hose in killing Alfred Cranford, was found swinging to a tree one mile from town this morning. His ears and fingers were cut off. On the body was pinned a placard bearing these words: "We must protect our southern women." Strickland was a negro minister, sixty years old.

Strickland denied to the last that he paid Hose to murder Cranford. A telephone message received at 10 o'clock says that a mob lynched Albert Sewell, the negro who said the death of every negro should be avenged. The mob is said to be still on the hunt for negroes.

REIGN OF TERROR.

Atlanta, Ga., April 24.—A series of crimes, which began with the burning of Palmetto by incendiaries, the lynching a month later of four negroes by white men in retaliation, followed by the murder of Alfred Cranford and the ravishing of his wife, for which a negro, Sam Hose, was burned at a stake yesterday, has stirred the people of the south into a frenzied discussion of the protection of white women in the sparsely settled farming districts.

Governor Chandler says: "It is a wise step will be for the legislature to provide sufficient state militia funds to be expended for the patrol of the country districts."

Former Governor North advocates the arming of women.

Mrs. Louise E. Moore, a prominent figure in society, favors the equipment of a company of militia by each county.

Trial of Mrs. George.

Canton, Ohio, April 24.—The fourth week of the trial of Mrs. George for the murder of Geo. J. Saxton opened to-day with arguments to the jury. The case will go to the jury on Wednesday.

STRANGLER OF WOMEN.

Fined in Human Shape in Jail in San Francisco.

FALL DEAD.

Ex-Gov. Oglesby Dies Suddenly at Lincoln, Illinois.

General MacArthur's Army Corps Advances From Malolos.

Aguinaldo's Army in Force at the Town of Calumpit.

ARRESTED FOR BRIBERY.

Lincoln, Ill., April 24.—Former Governor Richard J. Oglesby fell dead near this city at 1 o'clock this afternoon. He had been in ill health some time. Oglesby was born in Kentucky in 1824, and migrated to Illinois in 1836. He served in the Mexican and civil wars rising to the rank of major general. He served two terms as governor, and one in the United States senate.

Best Inquiry Made.

Washington, April 24.—The War department is preparing its report. Major Lee summed up the testimony on behalf of Major General Miles. Davis contented himself with the submission of pertinent extracts from the sworn testimony of officers before the war commission.

Army Advances.

Manila, April 24.—General MacArthur's division left Malolos to day, apparently intending to besiege Calumpit.

ARRESTED FOR BRIBERY.

Seasonal Arrest in Philadelphia on the Charge of Bribery.

Philadelphia, April 24.—The biggest sensation in the Jacobs-Kendig-Taylor-Betell counterfeiting case occurred to-day, when former United States District Attorney Kiler P. Ingham was placed under arrest, charged, it is said, with tampering with the jury. The arrest was made at Ingham's office by Chief Wilkie, of the secret service. Ingham's law partner, ex United States District Attorney Harvey K. Hewitt, was arrested last week on the same charge.

Both lawyers will be arraigned on Thursday. District Attorney Beck said that the evidence against both defendants was practically the same. Ingham said: "I am absolutely innocent of the charge preferred against me. I seek the public to suspend judgment until I have had an opportunity to be heard." The affidavit accompanying the warrant charges Ingham and Hewitt with conspiring to "promise, offer and give the sum of $5,000 in monthly payments of $500 each to William J. McManus, the Philadelphia secret service officer who was working up the case against the four men charged with counterfeiting revenue stamps and $100 silver certificates." Ingham has been a prominent republican and Quaker man.

Money Market.

New York, April 24.—Money on call nominally, 4 per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 3½¢ to 4¢ per cent.

Silver and Loan.

New York, April 24.—Silver, 50¢. Loan, 4½¢.

Ruppe's fountain is the place for first-class carbonated beverages.

Valdoro Sandoval, who is lambing at Santa Rosa, in northwest Bernalillo county, is in the city to-day. He reports the country very dry, and says that the percentage of lambs will not average more than 75. He returned to the ranch this afternoon.

The remains of Mrs. R. G. Morey, the lady who died in this city Saturday, were buried this afternoon. Miss Morey, the sister of the husband, was unable to come here, owing to illness, and she telegraphed to bury the body in this city.

The friends of Burt Jones in this city are rejecting over the result of the first game that he pitched for St. Louis. Besides losing the Pittsburgh players down to two safe hits off his delivery, he also made a two bagger at the bat.

Private Bernard Dillon, company F, First Idaho volunteer infantry, arrived in the city on Saturday, dressed from Manila, having been discharged on account of a severe attack of malarial fever, from the effects of which he is not fully recovered. He is stricken with malaria, but expects to get work at mining which has been promised.

J. A. Summers, the capable county probate clerk, left on the flyer this morning for California, where he will join his wife and spend several weeks on the sea shore. Mr. Summers has worked uninterruptedly at the clerk's office in the court house for several years until his system has become run down. A few weeks rest and a change of climate will undoubtedly brace him up in a splendid manner.

All unmarried, baptized members of Episcopal church are cordially invited to attend the meeting of St. John's society to be held at the residence of Miss Olive Hawley, corner Silver Avenue and south Third street, Wednesday night at 8 o'clock sharp.

The mother of Mrs. M. S. Tierney fell yesterday and dislocated her hip. She is in a very critical condition to-day, but her attending physician apprehends no serious consequences.

J. E. Smith, of Socorro, who is interested in mining and real estate, registered at the Grand Central registry.
