SENATOR QUAY'S TRIAL.

Testimony of Important Witnesses in Sensational Case.

The Plague Has Broken Out on the Chinese Coast.

Gen. Shafter Testifies Before the Beef Inquiry Board.

NEW LINCOLN MONUMENT.

Philadelphia, April 11.—The trial of ex-Senator Quay on charges of conspiracy began in earnest to-day.

The case was apparently the most important of the year.

Quay's defense was conducted by Mr. Shafter, receiver of the bank, who was on the stand at the adjournment yesterday.

Shafter's line of questions indicated a purpose to prove the whole fabric of charges against Quay was the result of a conspiracy.

The witness was asked the circumstances of his removal of letters, papers and books from the private desk of Cashier Hopkins.

Barlow said that on March 25, a person in Harrisburg, whom he did not know, said to him over a long distance telephone:

"An attempt will be made to-night to take certain documents out of Hopkins' desk."

"You had better be taken by you," I broke open the desk and took them out."

Witness noticed Judge Gordon of his intention, the latter being the confidential adviser of James McInnes, president of the bank.

He left the documents in possession of Judge Gordon until early in September.

Barlow denied knowledge of photographing the Quay letters for the use of his political opponents.

Said he did not know that they had been shown to John W. Wamsley, late president of the bank.

He said that Judge Gordon and John Wamsley had shown them to the democratic national committee, James M. Guiley, in an effort to make Judge Gordon the democratic candidate for governor of Pennsylvania last year.

Shafter put a long line of questions to the witness, the obvious design being to establish the conspiracy of the defense.

On re-direct examination Barlow said that Bank Commissioner Gillespie had possession of Hopkins' keys and examined the contents of the private desk two or three days before he was appointed receiver.

The "Red Hook," Barlow declared, is now in the same condition as when it came into his possession.

Shafter endeavored to make the witness say there among the papers an envelope with the Harrisburg postmark addressed to President McKinley which the letter from Treasurer Haywood to the bank, saying that if a loan of $100,000 is made to Senator Quay's son it will keep the state balance at $500,000 until the payment of the loan.

Prosecution claims that although the letter is addressed to President McKinley for the purpose of formality, it was sent direct to Cashier Hopkins as had been the custom of Haywood.

Judge Gordon was the next witness. Gordon identified the papers and books placed in his possession by the receiver of the bank, and said they are in the same condition now as when he received them.

Shields endeavored to show the connection between Gordon's gubernatorial candidacy and his possession of letters compromising Senator Quay, but the questions were ruled out.

The district attorney offered in evidence letters identified by Mr. Tabor, saying he would subsequently offer them.

The defense opposed the admission of the letters, telegrams and books on the ground that they are not proper testimony.

Rothwell, in support of his position, presented some figures, showing that M. S. Quay borrowed from the People's bank $1,000,000, on which he paid $2,418.60 in interest.

The books also show that the state treasurer received interest on state deposits. Rothwell admitted that many of the transactions were beyond the statutory limit, but said all go to prove conspiracy of Quay to improperly

Washington, April 11.—The following dispatch was received from General Dyer, Manila, April 11.—Insurgents attacked MacArthur's line of railway communication last night in considerable force, and were repulsed by Wheaton's troops.

Lawton's success at Santa Cruz is more complete than reported yesterday. The enemy left ninety three uniformed men on the field, and a number seriously wounded.

Lawton captured city without destruction of property. His loss is ten wounded slight, except two: one since died. Lieutenant Kiling, the only officer retired, slight, in the hand. The enemy retired eastward; Lawton is in pursuit this morning.

Manila, April 11.—About midnight the rebels cut the telegraph lines in several places between here and Matamoros. Signal wires were cut and rocks sent up all along the foothills to the right of the railroad.

The enemy attacked the outposts of the Philippine army between Higra and Socava, five miles south of Matamoros, killing two men and wounding fourteen.

Simultaneously the outposts of the Oregon regiment at Morillo, the next station on the way to Manila were attacked. Three Americans were killed and two wounded. The loss of the enemy was ten men killed and six wounded.

The Americans also captured two prisoners. Troops were concentrated along the railroad as quickly as possible. The rebels were driven back to the foothills. The roadbed of the railroad was damaged, but was repaired almost immediately.

Post Election Difficulty.

John Corsetti Tried on Three Charges Before Justice Riddle.

A few days before the city election, John Corsetti, the proprietor of the Metropolitan restaurant, was charged with the crime of registering his name. The judge accepted the trust and says that he wrote the name on one of the little slips kept by the board of registration in the First ward for that purpose. He said that it was, as it may, when Corsetti tried to cast his vote on election day, it was found that his name was not registered, and he lost his vote. He thought that Heacock intentionally failed to register his name and so informed him.

The morning after election, Judge Heacock and Stephen Joseph Naughton, more widely known as "Gunnysack Riley," were standing in the Metropolitan restaurant talking over the result of the election, when Mr. Corsetti walked in. After going through the preliminaries of shaking dice with the bartender for the drinks, Corsetti stepped into the middle

In fact, every detail of high class Shirt Waist manufacturing has been most carefully observed.

This line ranges in price from 75¢ to $3.50 each, the cheapest waist being cut and sewed as well as the most high priced.

We have them in Lawn, in Matras, in Gingham, Percale and Pique, in white and in colored, in plain and in the newest tucked and in embroidery trimmed.

We sincerely hope to have the pleasure of showing you our waists.

ROSENWALD BROS.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Hawley is always on the corner. M. T. Moriarty, the Chilli sheep raiser, is in the city to-day.

C. K. Troobold and wife, from Chicago, are at the Hotel Highland. Christian Lamporter, of the firm of J. Korber & Co., is still on the sick list.

George W. Bowman, the United States ganger of this district, was a passenger for Santa Fe last night.

Fred Tingley, the popular young rail-roader of this city, is seriously ill at his home with spinal meningitis.

W. H. Ferguson and family, registered from Hastings, Neb., are in the city, and can be found at the Sturge European.

George Schlereth, who is employed at Lowenthal & Meyers' wholesale liquor house, is quite ill and unable to attend to his duties.

Oscar Geebel, the extensive general merchant of Helen, is in the metropolis to-day, and was a pleasant caller at this office this morning.

R. B. Meyers is building two more cottages on south Third street, adjoining the one he has just completed and opposite the Gable cottages.

L. Mayhill, the depot master, has gone to Topeka on a thirty days' leave of absence. While he is away, August Hartung, formerly of Rineon, is performing the duties of the depot master.

Sam Hilburn, the general agent for the New York Life Insurance company, with headquarters at Topeka, passed through the city Sunday night on his way to California. He is an old friend of Marshall McMillin and enjoyed a short visit with him during his stay in this city.

Mrs. Slaughter and her charming daughter, Miss Jeannette, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Halloran for the past month, returned to their home in Chicago last night. The visitors were delighted with their stay in the city and made many friends, who regret their departure and hope they will return again in the near future. Several friends were at the depot to see them safely on the train.

It was decided last night that Mrs. Grunfeld and baby would leave the city on Thursday night for New York. Mr. Grunfeld, on meeting a CITIZEN representative, stated that the health of his wife was excellent, but that of the little member of the household was exceedingly bad, and a change to a lower altitude had been recommended. Mrs. Grunfeld and baby expect to be absent from the city for several months.

H. Baker and Charles Hansen were arrested in the railroad yards, while coming out of a sealed car. The seal was unbroken and they had entered the car through the rear door. They were brought before Justice Crawford this morning. They stated that they went into the car at Laguna when another party got out and left the door open. As nothing had been stolen from the car and as the two men had money and looked like honest laboring men they were discharged.

F. S. Sutherland, the American sleight climber, who, with his wife and sister, has spent the past week in this city, left last night for Gallup. Mr. Sutherland received several jobs in this city, and painted half a dozen of more of the high smokestacks in town. At the earnest solicitation of his wife Mr. Sutherland did not return to Santa Fe to make the descent into the crater near that place.

Dr. John Grass, of the Milagro Gold Mining company, who was in the city yesterday, returned north to Trinidad, Colo., last night. The doctor and local owners of the Milagro property in Hot Springs, concluded to work the ore now on the dump, and if it shows good results the company will change its mill, now at the mine, into a 25-stamp concentrator.

Lessons in Economy!

is not true economy. If you pay a poor price for a poor article you waste yourself. The good article would probably have cost you but little more and given you double the service. The point we make is this: Every dollar's worth of this new spring merchandise is good; the kind you want to buy and at the prices you want to pay. If quality, if style, if all-round worthiness have any influence with you in your buying, then this store stands to be more useful to you this season than ever before. Strong talk this, but it's plain, it's honest and is easily understood.

SHIRT WAISTS! The wonder grows each season how such bright, crisp, well made garments can be turned out for so little money. First rate materials, collars and cuffs, handkerchiefs, perfect in fit. You would not sit down and make one for double the price of any of these:

Percale Waists, each . . . 35¢ to $1
White Waists, each . . . 50¢ to $1.35
White Waists, handsome embroidered, . . . 75¢ to $2.50
Silk Waists, each . . . $3.75 to $5.50
Mussie Waists, each . . . 50¢ to $1.

DAINTY UNDER MUSLINS!
Night Robes, Skirts, Drawers, Corset Covers; a fortunate chance to get them this way. The cost of materials and trimmings if bought over so cheap would not yet be as much as any of these finished garments. Just one lot of each at these prices:

Special Night Robes, at . . . 95¢.
And Night Robes, from . . . 40¢ to $2.50.
Special Drawers, extra quality muslin . . . 25¢.
And well made, at . . . 25¢.
Special Skirt, lace and embroidered . . . 75¢.
Trimmed . . . 50¢ to $2.50.
Others from . . . 50¢ to $2.50.

TOWEL SALE! Large Bleached Turkish Towel, size 19x40, . . . 15¢
Heavy quality, unmatched at . . . 15¢
Three Special Hand Towels, fine quality, handsome borders, size 18x16, at . . . 12¢
