CAPTURED A TOWN.

Gen. Lawton Has Lively Fight
With Philippine Rebels.

TRIAL OF SENATOR QUAY.

Manila, April 10.—Gen. Lawton has captured Santa Cruz, at the extreme end of the lake. He drove the rebels, who were commanded by a Chinaman named Pao Wah, into the mountains. The Americans had six men wounded. The rebels lost sixty-eight men killed and fifty wounded.

The expedition, consisting of about 1,500 men, commanded by Major-General Henry Lawton, left San Pedro Macati, on the river Pasig, on Saturday night, with the purpose of crossing Laguna de Bay and capturing Santa Cruz, on the eastern shore of the lake. The American troops were then, as planned, to sweep the country south. The force consisted of 200 picked sharpshooters of various regiments, Hawthorne's mountain battery, Galt's squadron and three troops of the Fourth cavalry division, Bronk's and Tappan's battalions of the Fourteenth infantry, Linek's battalion of the First Idaho infantry and Frain's battalion of the First North Dakota infantry, under Gen. King. A flotilla of twelve canoes towed by tugs and conveyed by the gunboats Laguna de Bay, Ochoa and Nappidan, and preceded by a launch containing General Lawton and General King, moved toward the lake just as evening was setting in. It was truly a picturesque scene. The men carried rafts for ten days with lightest marching equipment. Lawton's plan was to reach Santa Cruz on Sunday morning at daybreak, to capture or destroy any rebel gunboats or shipping, take the town and then scour the country south of the lake.

Philippines, April 10.—The trial of ex-United States Senator Quay and his son Richard, on charges of conspiracy in the misuse of the funds of the People's Bank, began this morning before Judge Biddle. The senator and son were in court.

The work of securing a jury occupied the day. Taylor Williams, editorial writer of the Philadelphia Record, was on the venire. He claimed that he was competent to try the case on the evidence, though he had formed an opinion. He was peremptorily challenged. The first witness was Thomas W. Barlow, special assistant to former District Attorney Graham, who was appointed receiver of the bank at the time of its failure. He identified the books of the bank and papers, letters and other books found in Hopkins' desk. Among the latter was one in which there were entries in red ink, which apparently indicated redemptions of interest on state funds by Hopkins. The court adjourned until tomorrow, when the evidence will cross-examine Mr. Barlow.

THE MARKET INVESTIGATION.

Young Crocker, son of the "Old Man" on the Witness Stand.

New York, April 10.—The market investigation committee resumed sitting today. The first witness was W. P. Testevin, who was accused Saturday before the evidence regarding the alleged corruption of the building department was completed. Testevin admitted he had no personal knowledge of money having been accepted by any one connected with the building department.

Frank Crocker, a son of Richard Crocker, took the witness stand and said he owned 150 shares of the Roebuck Construction company, for which $12,000 currency was paid by his father. He knew nothing practically of the business of fire proofing. He denied that his father suggested the organization by the Roebuck Construction company. Most several times asked Crocker if his company was not formed, "in his honor," intimating that

ALBUQUERQUE, — APRIL 10, 1939

THIS GREAT COUNTRY

Answering the supposed question of a foreigner as to how many states there are in the union, the Salt Lake Tribune says: "Forty-five states and some territories; they fill all the space between the two great oceans, and at one single cell last summer, in every one of our states, the number of thousands was like the tolling of the bells of destiny, and the flashings of their standards reflected back the sunlight through one eighth of the sun's daily round. And they all speak one language; all sing the same songs; all turn for inspiration to the same flag; and though each is a separate state, when blended they make but one ocean, and when in full roar the shores of the nation are shaken, for in majesty, in latent power, in unsurpassable splendor, there is no counterpart for them in all the records of the nations that have existed since nations were first organized on earth."

REPUBLICAN PROSPERITY

There is no more substantial proof of present and growing prosperity than is shown in the news of such an advance of wages as reported from different sections. The New England cotton mills have resumed, under an advanced wage schedule. This advance which was voluntarily made by over 120 corporations effects from 130,000 to 140,000 employees and more than restores the decrease in wages of a year ago, which was about 10 per cent.

With such a business record under the present republican administration, it is difficult to imagine what will become of the democratic, populist and silver parties in the next presidential campaign. Adding these facts to the splendid record of the administration, which is generally endorsed by all parties, there would seem to be little opportunity for resistance to the re-election of the present incumbent of the White House.

A VALUABLE PURCHASE

The price paid for Alaska was $7,200,000. The area acquired was 380,520,600 acres, so that it was about 2 cents an acre. The Alaska fur companies have already taken over $33,000,000 worth of sealskins, and they have paid into the treasury over $6,000,000 as royalties, with $1,340,233 still unsettled.

The fish product of Alaska in 1937 was valued at $2,377,019. During the last fifteen years it has exceeded $30,000,000. The commissioner of fish and fisheries in a letter to congress estimated the value of the Alaska fisheries, excluding whales and seals, at $67,500,000, or nine and one-half times the cost of purchase.

The gold output has exceeded $15,000,000 annually. The Treadwell mine alone up to 1937 had paid $6,235,945 as dividends to its stockholders, and claims to have several million in sight. In that year alone the output of the mine was $2,439,000, and in 1937 it was nearly twice as much.

When Mr. Seward was asked what he considered the most important event in his career he replied: "The purchase of Alaska; but it will take the people a generation to find it out."

CONSUMPTION HOSPITAL

The United States government is going to undertake the cure of consumption at Fort Stanton, this territory, to which is attached a reservation of ten thousand acres. The fort and reservation have been transferred from the jurisdiction of the war department to that of the marine hospital service.

The work will at first be experimental and on a small scale. The first patients will be men from the army and navy. Thereafter government clerks and other employees who may need treatment for lung trouble will be permitted to enjoy the benefits of the institution. When the treatment has proved the experimental stage, citizens who are not in the employ of the government will be admitted, on payment of a small fee which will be applied toward the maintenance of the institution.

Surgeon-General Wyman, of the marine hospital service, who will have charge of the reservation, and of the treatment of patients, firmly believes that consumption is curable, and he has selected Fort Stanton as the place for the proposed experiment, because he considers the climate there especially favorable. Hospital buildings will be erected and physicians and attendants will be detailed to it. The first report of results will be awaited with interest.

OPENING THE RESERVATION

The opening of the Southern Ute Indian reservation, which has been waited for with impatience for many months, has at last been accomplished by the president's proclamation. This vast area of arable lands, divided by sixty miles in size, located on either side of the Rio Grande railroad, south and east of Durango, cannot fail to attract a large and desirable class of settlers. The Ute Indians are entitled, under the law of 1866, to 374 allotments out of the entire tract. All the remainder of the area, about 636,000 acres, will be subject to entry under the desert, homestead, timber and townships laws, and the laws governing the disposal of coal, mineral, stone and timber lands, and many of the Indian allotments will be leased by intelligent white men at reasonable rates.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HOME

Thousands of dollars in value are added to little homes by improving the grounds around them. Take any house and lot in town, the house worth $2,000, and allow the grounds about it to grow up with weeds, to be littered with old tin cans and all kinds of garbage, the would-be purchaser will scarcely give it a second look, and only to be more disgusted if he does. If, on the other hand, the grounds are neat, clean, covered by fine lawn and flowering shrubs, he will probably pay twice as much for such property as it has cost because it pleases him; it takes his fancy; it looks and is healthy and handsome; it makes him proud of his home; he finds in it a means to make his family happy and contented, and is thus able in a measure to repay their love and affection.

THE PILFERING CASE

King and James Plead Guilty at Raton—Downen Acquitted.

The trial of T. J. Downen, formerly a head brakeman on the Santa Fe road, was concluded in the district court at Raton last Thursday night, bringing to a verdict of not guilty. Downen was charged with participating in the theft of a quantity of merchandise from the company. The specific facts complained of were committed on freight No. 33, which left La Junta on the morning of August 28, 1938, and on train which arrived at Raton September 15, 1938. Cases of goods consigned to Raton Bros. at Flagstaff, A. T., were broken into and four dozen and a half gloves, half of which were worth $13.50 per dozen, were found to be missing. These articles had been shipped in car No. 6715, which formed part of the train of August 28.

The conductor of the train was Walter N. King; the head brakeman was the defendant, T. J. Downen; and the rear brakeman was Louis James. All three were arrested. Downen is the only one who contested the case and "won out" on the proposition. King entered a plea of guilty to the first count in the indictment brought against him, charging him with embezzlement; and James entered a plea of guilty to the third count in the indictment, charging him with a similar offense.

The evidence against Downen was almost entirely circumstantial. The prosecution was conducted by County Attorney Spies, and the defense by E. H. Franks. The witnesses called upon to testify for the prosecution were F. C. Fox, trainmaster; O. C. Hansen, a glove manufacturer, of Milwaukee, Wis.; Terence Sheely, check clerk for the Santa Fe at Chicago; Allen Alden, day car sealer at Raton; Peter McAnnis, chief clerk of the American Express at Albuquerque; John Vercamp, chief clerk for Raton Bros. at Flagstaff; Roger Sheely, check clerk for the Santa Fe at Chicago; W. K. Loefer, check clerk for the Santa Fe at Denver; N. M. Kinney, superintendent of the special service department of the Santa Fe railway at Topeka; David Sprum, of Raton; H. H. Phelps, of Elkhart, Ind.; and Charles L. O'Grady, dry goods salesman for Pierce & Draper at La Junta, Colo. Louis James, one of the defendants, testified for Downen.

The testimony of John J. Kinney was interesting as showing the system employed by the company in detecting systematic pilfering. He said in part: "During the month of July, August and September we had advice that shipments were arriving at their destination under Chicago seals, in a pilfered condition, such as shoes, hats, coats, gloves, shoes, whiskey, cigars, revolvers, tobacco and clothing. Witness stated that he immediately began investigations, and that he found the goods in initial point to destination, getting the names of the crews that handled the various shipments, movement of cars, and after checking from thirty to forty days found that all the cars and the percentage of them on which damage reports were made, were handled on the New Mexico division by Conductor W. N. King and Brakemen Downen and James."

No goods except two suits of underwear, handed to the officers by the defendant's wife, and a pair of gloves found on the person of the defendant, were traced to the defendant. A large quantity of merchandise was found in a cache, which the defendant asserted, he had stowed there by the defendant, Louis James, one of the defendants, testified against Downen, but failed to give any testimony identifying him with the specific acts complained of. Downen claimed, under oath, that he had purchased the gloves of Pierce & Draper at La Junta. The testimony of W. K. Loefer, testified by the prosecution and C. A. O'Grady's testimony to the opposite effect. Downen also testified that he bought the underwear in La Junta. Downen denied all knowledge of any pilfering.

Defendants King and James will be sentenced by the court later in the session.

A Hundred Reasons

It can be given any Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the best and most effective cure for every form of indigestion.

They are in tablet form which retains their good qualities indefinitely, while liquid preparations become stale and useless with age.

They are convenient, can be carried in the pocket and taken when needed. They are pleasant to take.

After each meal dissolve one or two of them in the mouth and, mingling with the food, they constitute a perfect aid to digestion, and are safe for the most sensitive stomach.

They digest the food before it has time to ferment, thus preventing the formation of gas and keeping the bowels pure and free from the poisonous products of fermentation, half digested food.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the only remedy designed especially for the cure of stomach troubles and nothing else.

One disease, one remedy; the successful physician of today is the specialist, the successful medicine is the medicine prepared especially for one disease.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets make the complex clear by keeping the blood pure.

They increase flesh by digesting their food.

A whole package taken at one time would not hurt one, but would simply be a waste of good material.

Over six thousand men and women in the state of Michigan alone, have been cured of indigestion and dyspepsia by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Sold by all druggists at 50 cents per package.

PULP YOUR FINGER ON YOUR PULSE

You feel the blood rushing along. But what kind of blood? That is the question. Is it pure blood or impure blood? If the blood is impure then you are weak and languid; your appetite is poor and your digestion is weak. You cannot sleep well and the morning finds you unprepared for the work of the day. Your cheeks are pale and your complexion is sallow. You are troubled with pimples, boils, or some eruption of the skin. Why not purify your blood?

II. Our "Gaiety" brand Waists, on the merits of which we wish to lay special stress, they are so far ahead in all respects of anything ever shown in this city that your attention to same could not be called by comparing them with other lines. They stand forth alone in Their Perfection of Workmanship. Their Attractiveness of Colorings. Their Originality of Styles.

They are made of the Newest Fabrics of Domestic and Foreign Mills, and in the very latest effects.

In fact, every detail of high class Shirt Waist manufacturing has been most carefully observed.

This line ranges in price from 75c. to $3.50 each the cheapest waist being cut and sewed as well as the most high priced.

We have them in Lawn, in Madras, in Gingham, Percale and Pique, in white and in colored, in plain and in the newest tucked effects, and in embroidery trimmed.

We sincerely hope to have the pleasure of showing you our waists.
