Tom Jones, William Penn and James Allen were arrested for being drunk and disorderly and brought before Justice Crawford this afternoon and fined $5 apiece.

J. L. Bell & Co. carry a larger and more varied stock of groceries at their store than any other house in the southwest. They keep only the very best grade of groceries and sell as cheap as the cheapest.

James Williams, colored, who has cooked for W. L. Trimble & Co.'s restaurant for the last year, was arrested out of town last evening and brought before Justice Crawford this afternoon and fined $10, which he paid.

J. Korber & Co. have received a car load of mountain buggies and wagons from the Kaelin Wagon Works, of Racine, Wis. It is generally conceded that this concern manufactures wagons which are more adapted for this section of the country than those made by any other wagon works in the country. Persons looking for such things very good in the line of wagons should not fail to give J. Korber & Co. a call.

Mrs. Nettie J. Whipple died about midnight last night from the effects of pneumonia. Until yesterday she had apparently been improving and hopes were entertained for her recovery. Yesterday afternoon, however, there came a relapse for which she was unable to rally. Her husband, Kenneth Whipple, came here from Topeka a few days ago and was with his wife at the time of her death. The remains will be embalmed and shipped back to Topeka for burial. Mrs. Whipple came to this city from Topeka about four months ago and by her kindly ways and agreeable manners won many friends who are mourning with her husband to-day over her great affliction.

The board of county commissioners met at the court house to-day with Chairman Miera and Jesse Romero and Ignacio Gutierrez present. There was quite a large delegation from Pena Blanca, here by Don Sanguino Basa, present, to urge the building of a bridge across the Rio Grande at that point. The matter was allowed to go over until to-morrow. The citizens' committee to advertise for bids for the plumbing work to be done at the court house and after transacting some other routine business it adjourned until 10 a. m. to-morrow.

Charles O. Hopping, of the bicycle repairing firm of Hopping Bros., and Miss Sammie Craig, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Craig, were married yesterday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents at 900 north Fifth street. Rev. Bruce Kinney, of the Baptist church, and the little sister of the bride made the couple man and wife. The ceremony was witnessed only by the families of the bride and groom. Both are highly respected young people of this community and the citizens join with their friends in wishing them a blissful married life.

Dr. W. H. Greenburg left last night for Chicago. After spending a few days here he will leave for Cincinnati, Ohio, where he will attend the Central Conference of American rabbis. He will also participate in the celebration of the 50th birthday of Dr. W. W. the president of the Theological seminary at Cincinnati.

J. W. Ball has found the key to success by selling the best grade of footwear at such a narrow margin of profit that his customers can afford to wear the finest. He also keeps two experienced shoe makers to do first-class repair work at reasonable rates.

Announcement!

After having thoroughly renovated our store, we are now prepared to show our line of Spring Goods, which are daily arriving. We are preparing for the biggest season we have ever had, and are laying in a stock and putting prices on same to justify our expectations.

Silk Waists!

In Silk Waists we have just received some of the latest novelties in the most beautiful patterns ever brought to this city.

Shirt Waists!

In Cotton Shirt Waists we are showing a sample line of our stock, which is now in transit. The prices range from 40¢ to $3.50 each, and comprise a most carefully selected assortment from the stock of the largest shirt-waist manufacturers in the United States.

Ladies' Belts!

In Ladies' Belts, Girdles, and Buckles we are recipients of all that is in vogue.

Dress Goods, Etc.

In Silks, in Dress Goods, in Laces, in Embroideries, in fact, in all lines, we have received and are receiving a beautiful and popular line, which it shall be our most sincere pleasure to show. Respectfully

ROSEWALD BROS.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Hon. Geo. Curry returned to Otero county from Santa Fe last Saturday night.

Mrs. S. H. Ives has the grip and is sick abed, but hopes that this fine weather will help her recover quickly.

J. R. Ribera, the popular public school teacher at Los Padillas, who spent Sunday in Santa Fe, returned to the city last night.

Dee McKee, formerly a member of the Territorial regiment, and a late employee of the shops here, went to Pueblo, where he will visit his father.

Ivan Grunfeld has leased the residence made vacant by the departure of Col. K. A. Grunfeld and family, who leave for New York on Thursday.

Arthur Skinner, who was a trooper in the Rough Riders, came down from Santa Fe on Saturday evening and will remain in the city for some time visiting with relatives.

Mrs. T. A. Whitten, who has been spending several weeks visiting with her son at Annapolis, Md., and with relatives in other parts of the east, returned to the city last night.

Julius Olsson, connected with the re- portorial department of THE CITIZEN, enjoyed the Sabbath among the legislative solons at the capitol. He returned last night.

Emmerio Gomez, the young man who had his leg run over by the passenger train a week ago Saturday night, was sent to his home in San Antonio, N. M., last night by the city authorities.

C. S. Pedregon, the interpreter of the house in Santa Fe, went down to Las Cruces this morning, where he will act as interpreter in the district court which convenes there today. Judge Parker went down Sunday morning.

The pupils in Mr. Himes' music class gave a recital at the home of their teacher last Saturday afternoon. A very fine program was rendered, which showed that the pupils had made excellent progress in their musical studies.

Dr. A. P. Morrison, the presiding elder, conducted services at the Lead Avenue Methodist church yesterday. After the services, $110 was raised in a very short time to pay the back salary of the pastor, Rev. H. W. Robinson, who recently resigned the pastorate of the church.

G. W. Shaw, who is employed at William Farr's ranch, was held up early Sunday morning below the Santa Fe Pacific shops, and robbed of a supply of groceries which he was taking home. Mr. Shaw put up a fight and in the struggle had his hand badly cut. No arrests have yet been made.

H. C. Ware, of the Wilson Clark company of Cleveland, Ohio, is in the city endeavoring to make a contract with the Santa Fe Pacific railroad company to purify the water that is used in their engines. As it is now the company is obliged to put in new flues at short intervals, and it is to remedy this difficulty that the water will be purified.

S. T. Park, of Chicago, who represents the W. P. Coburn patent front end device for extinguishing sparks, is in the city and is equipping some Santa Fe Pacific engines at the shops to-day preparatory to making a test on the first division of the road. If the test is satisfactory all the engines on the road will be supplied with these devices.

Gov. M. A. Otero and W. A. Hawkins, the attorney for the El Paso & North eastern railroad, came down from Santa Fe to consult with Chief Justice Mills on business and returned on No. 2.

John Horstwick, of company G, territorial regiment, returned to his home in Cerrillos last night.
