NUMBER 103.

MANY ARE KILLED.

Avalanches in Colorado Cause Great Loss of Life.

Eight Dead Bodies Recovered From Wreckage in Cherokee Gulch.

Terrible Storm of Past Few Days Paralyzes Traffic in New York City.

MANY STEAMERS OVERDUE

Silver Plume, Colo., Feb. 13.—Two mighty avalanches, combining into one, swept down Cherokee gulch Sunday, carrying away a dozen or more cabins and nine buildings with machinery, and causing a great loss of life and much damage. Eight dead bodies are at the morgue and two more persons are known to be lost and three have been taken out alive.

The rescuing party has only penetrated about fifteen feet into the mass of wreckage piled at the foot of the gulch to a depth of seventy-five feet.

The dead are: Dominick Destafno, his wife and two children, a boy 5 and a girl 2 years old; Joseph Tondella, Peter Tondella, John Tondella, Jerome Guarnani, John Bretto and Kurio Navaris.

The drift is about 100 feet high and clings to the mountain side. Should it become loosened the upper town is in danger of destruction. The slide started in Curry City, and swept over the Pelican Dikes tunnel house, carrying away the mine dumps and buildings. As this slide reached the main gulch, the snow in Swallow Run gulch, on the opposite mountain, rushed down to Cherokee gulch. Here the two avalanches met and continued toward the town. Just back of Silver Plume, in the main gulch, was a settlement of Italian miners, directly in the path of destruction. The cabins were crushed like egg shells. A turning in the gulch, just as it opens on the town checked the slide, which stands threatening the destruction of a portion of this camp.

MORE SNOWSLIDES THREATENING.

Denver, Colo., Feb. 13.—A special to the Times from Silver Plume says that snowslides threaten to destroy the town. Many people are moving. The mines will have to close down for thirty days. On the divide the snow is fifty feet deep.

A. C. McClurg & Co., burned out.

Chicago, Feb. 13.—A. C. McClurg & Co.'s book and stationery house, a five-story building on Wabash avenue and Madison street, burned Sunday. Loss, $250,000.

SENATOR GAGE INTERVIEWED.

Says There Will Be An Extra Session If The Army Bill Is Not Passed.

Chicago, Feb. 13.—Secretary Gage was in Chicago on Sunday to attend the funeral of Dr. J. B. Kitteridge. He said: "Financial reform is neither dead nor asleep. The delay only makes clearer the legislation is needed. I don't look for any action in the present session of congress, but I have no doubt that the next session will see the recommendation of the president and secretary of the treasury in regard to the retirement of greenbacks. If congress does not pass the army bill there certainly will be an extra session."

Resignation Requested.

Havana, Feb. 13.—At the request of the Cuban assembly and a prominent Cuban general held today it was decided to request General Andrade, who in November was chosen vice president of the Cuban military assembly, to resign in view of his ordering the Cuban troops not to march in funeral of a Cuban general.

INSANE ASYLUM BURNED.

Seventeen Patients in Vanston, S. D., Perished.

Vanston, S. D., Feb. 13.—One cottage of the state insane asylum burned on Sunday. Of the forty patients, seventeen perished.

The Starting in Distress.

Lewes, Delaware, Feb. 13.—The United States steam collier Sterling is dying signals of distress. She is dragging anchor and is feared she will strike against breakwater.

CONGRESSIONAL.

IN THE SENATE.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The senate passed a bill creating the office of admiral of the navy. Rear Admiral Dewey, it is understood, will be named for the office.

A wrangle took place over the agreement to vote on the McKinley Philippine resolution on Tuesday. Platt (Conn.) said that a snap judgment had been taken, but others denied this.

After much recrimination, ending in a personal wrangle between Senators Wolcott and Hearst, the matter ended with the agreement for a vote on the McKinley resolution to-morrow still in force.

IN THE HOUSE.

Less than a hundred members were present in the house. The session was the storm vent on with the consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill.

Swamp Scutt, Mass., Feb. 13.—A big steamer, apparently an ocean liner, was sighted off Swamp Scutt. She was apparently at anchor and was blowing her whistle continually.

Officers Fight With Pistols.

Ankonia, Ala., Feb. 13.—Hill feeling between Col. David G. Colson and Lieut. R. D. Scott, of the Fourth Kentucky regiment, culminated in a fight with pistols. Colson was wounded in the hip.

Train Wrecked in Colorado.

Denver, Feb. 13.—The entire Denver & Rio Grande railway system is open with the exception of the Blue river branch from Loveland to Dillon. Traffic is resumed in all departments. No fear

QUIET IN MANILA.

Business Now Resuming Former Activity There.

Insurgents do Some Firing at Long Range Without Damage.

Investigation Commission's Report on Conduct of War Made Public.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Washington, Feb. 13.—General Oils today cable:

"Manila, Feb. 13.—Everything is quiet this morning and the business of the city is resuming its former activity."

FIRING AT LONG RANGE.

Manila, 10:35 a. m.—Pursuing their customary tactics, the insurgents on the extreme left line opened fire at long range on the American troops last night, maintaining the fire a few minutes before settling down. None of their shots were effective, however, and the Americans did not reply.

TRAFFIC DELAYED.

Large Number of Steamers Overdue Owing to the Fearful Storm.

New York, Feb. 13.—The fearful storm has almost paralyzed the traffic of the city to-day. The upper and lower bay is one mass of ice. Right passenger steamers and five freight steamers are overdue. The Hamburg-American liner, Bulgaria, is reported drifting helplessly at sea by the Weahawken, which arrived from the Azores. The Weahawken took off twenty-two of the ninety passengers of the Bulgaria. The remainder could not be taken off owing to the rough weather. The freighter Almida, fifty-eight days out from Shields has been about given up as lost. No doubt a large fleet of steamers is waiting outside the bar for the blizz to pass.

MOKE RECORDS BROKEN.

The East and South. Received a Touch of the Cold Spell Yesterday.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The phenomenal weather of the past week culminated in a blizzard like a snow storm to-day, which broke all records. The temperature last night went down to 15 below zero. Business in the departments was almost at a standstill, less than half the force reporting. Paralysis of all kind of business was the worst since the blizzard of March, 1888.

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 13.—The south shivered to-day with the temperature unprecedented in severity. From the Gulf of Mexico northward, from the Atlantic coast to the western boundaries of Texas, the cold wave settled heavily, and produced the lowest temperature ever known.

Amistad, Ala., reported 15 below this morning. Atlanta comes next with 8 1/2 below, the lowest ever known by six degrees.

great suffering prevailed. The Atlanta Journal and Constitution furnished wood and provisions to hundreds of families.

Louis, Mo., Feb. 13.—A terrible blizzard is raging along the coast. The cold wave is sixty miles an hour. Surf men have been forced to abandon their patrol. The storm is equally severe as the blizzard of 1888, which wrought awful damage.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 13.—The coldest weather ever known in Kentucky was recorded to-day. At Louisville the thermometer reached 15 below, but some places reported thirty below. A coal shortage is reported in all parts of the state.

Pottsville, Pa., Feb. 13.—The coal regions are snowbound to the depth of several feet. The snow drifted in a manner never equaled before. Railroad traffic is suspended.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The weather bureau's special bulletin says: By far the most important feature of the weather this morning is the extreme cold, which prevails through the Gulf states and Tennessee. The storm line extends through southern Louisiana, across Mississippi and central Georgia. At New Orleans the minimum temperature was 9 degrees, 9 degrees below zero, a previous record. Throughout the Gulf region the temperature was 3 to 9 degrees below the previous record.

Another remarkable feature of the weather was the heavy snow throughout the whole Atlantic coast districts, almost to Florida.

REPORT MADE PUBLIC.

Investigation Commission Finds Miles Charges Groundless.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The report submitted to the president by the commission to investigate the conduct of the war department has been made public. It contains General Miles, finding his embalmment fees charges groundless.

The commission also finds that the war department administration "that complete grasp which was essential to the highest efficiency and discipline of the army."

H. S. Knight.

Has for rent a fifteen-room hotel, nice location. Will sell cheap, a fine sheep ranch, 1,000 acres under fence, good improvements, unlimited water supply, good horse, harnesses and phaetons, and large burglar and fire proof safe, an elegant piano at your own price, horse, harness and buggy for $200; one fine set of bar fixtures, billiard table, pool table, real estate, complete bowling alley outfit, etc. I will attend to any business you wish transacted, for a small commission. Auction sales a specialty. H. S. KNIGHT.

Well Well Well.

We have concluded to stay one more week on account of our increasing business. The sixteen photographs with the four positions for 50 cents takes the cake. Of course you know that you can get your picture in the city after the sitting. As for the babies, why, we can just get splendid pictures of the little darlings.

G. A. R.

Special meeting Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Methodist College building to transact all business to come before H. W. J. Armstrong, P. C., Everett Clarke, Adjutant.

Death of S. D. Wilson.

Samuel D. Wilson died at his home on the sand hills, east of the city, last night at about 8 o'clock. He suffered a stroke of paralysis last week and since that time has been gradually sinking. Yesterday afternoon he had another stroke and lived only a few hours afterward.

Mr. Wilson came to Albuquerque many years ago and was a familiar figure on the streets. He devoted most of his attention to his little ranch, where he kept a large number of chickens and several hogs. He also followed the occupation of a nurse. He leaves eight children, living in different parts of the country. The youngest Miss Kitty Wilson, residing at Bethany, Mo., she has been telegraphed the news of her father's death but as yet no word from her has been received.

ANDREWS OPERA COMPANY.

First and Only Big Opera Company Coming This Spring.

Friday night, Feb. 17th, the celebrated Andrews opera company will begin a two days' engagement at the Orpheum hall in the beautiful opera "Marta." At the matinee on Saturday "Fra Diavolo" will be presented and the engagement will close Saturday night with the "Bohème" and "Carmen." The advance sale of seats will begin to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock at Matson & Co's book store. Special arrangements have been made to handle the large crowds that will attend this attraction, and the theatre will be well heated, lighted and cleaned, and everything will be done to make the patrons of the theatre comfortable. The Trinidad (Colo.) Advertiser Sentinel of Feb. 9th, has the following to say of the Andrews company:

The Andrews opera company closed their season last night with perhaps the most enjoyable artistic presentation of the ever popular "Fra Diavolo" ever given in the city, and it has been a great treat that they will not soon forget. We can heartily recommend the Andrews company as thorough ladies and gentlemen as well as artists of the first class.

THE BADGER GAME.

A. Kwing Works It on a Well-Known Albuquerque Citizen.

Marshal McMillin this forenoon arrested a man by the name of A. Kwing on the charge of carrying a deadly weapon. He was brought before Justice Crawford and pleaded guilty to the charge, whereupon he was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 or to serve sixty days in the county jail. At the time of going to press he has not decided which horn of the dilemma he would take.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Bill to Create the County of McKinley Introduced.

Bill Introduced Providing for a Reform Industrial School.

Memorial to Congress Against a Forest Reservation in New Mexico.

OTHER BILLS INTRODUCED.

Special to The Citizen.

Santa Fe, N. M., Feb. 13.—In the house today Mr. Kilpatrick introduced a bill to establish a reform industrial school at Santa Fe.

K. Gutierrez introduced a bill to create the county of McKinley from Bernillo and Valencia, with Gallup as the county seat.

R. Valles introduced a bill to license pawnbrokers $50, the amount to go to the school funds.

R. Valles introduced a bill to relieve maimed and blind persons from taxation. In the senate, Anconia introduced a bill and memorial to congress, protesting against a forest reservation by the government until the lands had been accepted for school purposes.

A Card.

I desire to express my sincere appreciation for all the kind notes of sympathy sent me, while I was quarantined in the house on account of the sickness of my wife, before her death; and for those tender and more earnest expressions of deep grief at my loss, and the flowers, which to her were emblems of that great love of the All Father, which surrounds and is over all, and to me were emblems of her sweet and gentle disposition, and her simple faith in His tender mercy; to the kind neighbors, to the many friends who proved their friendship by their many acts of kindness, I give my heartfelt thanks, and in her name ask God's benison upon you all.

J. P. LANTZ.

J. W. Ball's Opening.

J. W. Ball to-day received his stock of goods for the store which he has just opened at 107 South Second street. He expects to have everything in readiness for a grand opening to-morrow. He solicits the patronage of all his friends, and guarantees to furnish them with first-class goods, which cannot fail to give satisfaction.

Good Health.

If you desire good health you should have good eating.

The Albermarle 219 Gold avenue will suit you. To-morrow, turkey dinner with celery dressing and cranberry sauce. Try our 25 cent meals.

EXTRAORDINARY.

Madam Francis Lawyer, clairvoyant, palmist and healing medium and mystic card reader, who is stopping at the Albermarle, is giving perfect satisfaction. A visit to this wonderful lady will convince the most skeptical that she is genuine. Don't fail to see her. Satisfaction guaranteed. Hours, 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Corner Third and Gold.

Joe Badaracco was arrested last Saturday afternoon on the complaint of Lena Frutze, who charged him with criminal assault, alleged to have taken place last Friday night. Mr. Badaracco gave $1,000 bonds for his appearance before Justice Crawford this morning. The complaining witness was unable to come to court this morning and by the consent of the attorneys, T. W. Johnston for the prosecution and T. N. Wilkerson for the defendant, the case was postponed until Friday morning.

The complaining witness is 17 years old and the step daughter of Mr. Lewis, a German, who issued the Badaracco summer garden a few weeks ago.

One of the pleasant coming events will be the grand St. Patrick's ball to be held at Armory hall on March 17 under the auspices of Cottonwood Grove No. 3, Woodmen Circle. ROSENWALD BROS.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

C. C. Clark, of Bland, is at the Hotel Highland.

Mrs. Anna Freeman, of Eddy, came in from the south last night and registered at the Hotel Highland.

The Optic says: "H. H. Kaufman, formerly with K. J. Post & Co., of Albuquerque, has taken a position with Wagner & Meyers, succeeding Mr. Jacobs."

B. F. Karriek, of the Crescent Coal company, with home at Pueblo, Colo., is in the city, stopping at Sturges' European. He is accompanied to the metropolis by Chas. Donnelly.

Jose G. Chavez, the claim adjuster of the Santa Fe for the Rio Grande division, went north last night to investigate some claims which the San Felipe Indian village has against the railroad.

At the "St. Valentine's social," which will be held in the college building next Tuesday evening, February 14, Mrs. Bonack will sing, accompanied by Miss Trillmore. A pleasant social time is anticipated.

A. M. Bergere and wife, and Mrs. J. B. Luna came in from Santa Fe last night and registered at the Koropenda. Mr. Bergere, who is court clerk of the First district, will return to the capital this evening, while Mrs. Bergere and Mrs. Luna will continue south to Los Lunas.

It is understood that no action will be taken at the meeting in old town to-night, called to consider the proposition of incorporating the town. It being thought advisable to let the matter rest until the legislature takes some action on the bill providing for a corner for old Albuquerque.

The bi-monthly meeting of the city union of Young People's societies was held last evening in the Lead avenue Methodist church, with Mr. Bingham, of the Baptist church, leader. There was not as large an attendance as there should have been, but the meeting was very interesting from beginning to end, the subject being, "Joy in the Service of the Lord."

George W. Helmer, representing A. Featherstone & Co., bicycle dealers of Chicago, was here yesterday, and met many old friends, for George was a great favorite when he resided in the territorial metropolis and held a lucrative position at the railroad office. He came in Saturday night from a tour through Mexico, and left this morning for the south on a trip through Texas. Last night, before train hour, Harry Owen, the liberal host that wields the pen in the district court clerk's office, extended the usual western courtesies to Mr. Helmer.

Instead of the regular evening service at the Congressional church last evening, the Christian Endeavor society held a very interesting service to commemorate the eighteenth anniversary of Christian Endeavor. F. A. Matthews gave an interesting address upon the subject:

"The Relation of the Christian Endeavor Corps to the Standing Army of the Lord."

Rev. F. H. Allen spoke upon the command "Forward," making an urgent request for the young Christians to stand by their captain, Jesus Christ, and to ever move forward in the conflict against sin. The choir rendered "The Three Calls" in a very pleasing manner.

A few days ago Mrs. Chavez and her sister, Miss Melinda Abeytia, of old Albuquerque, were out driving, and while absent their house was visited by robbers. On their return, at about 7:30 p. m., they found everything in the rooms in a disordered condition; trunks were broken into, and about $67 worth of goods stolen from Miss Abeytia. Mrs. Chavez' loss was trifling, and her sister is obliged to the thief for not taking along with him two diamond rings.

Hon. L. Bradford Prince, who was at Las Cruces on official business last Saturday, came in from the south last night and, after enjoying a most pleasant supper at the Harvey eating house, registered at the Grand Central. The ex-governor is here to-day on the Chas. and land grant matter. He expects to return to Santa Fe to-night.

A. C. Becker, of Chicago, who with his family, has been visiting with A. J. Maloy for a short time, left last night for his ranch near Monticello, N. M.

Placida J. Gutierrez, the 5-year-old daughter of Levi J. de Gutierrez died at the Rancho de Albuquerque Sunday and was buried there to-day.

The Grille, Commercial club building, will serve regular meals every day.

The supreme court will meet at Santa Fe next Monday.
